This combination gives the News-Argus a subscription list of 5,800 cach day; or, a list three times larger than the combined circulation of the other dailies published in Washtenaw county.

The management announces that in the future, as in the past, the News-Argus will be an independent publication, and will continue to give the leading news features of the day, both from the outside world, as well as from every available point in Washtenaw county, which has gained for the News the reputation of being the brightest and best daily newspaper ever published in this as usual on Friday. This paper links Ann Arbor of the present to the best traditions of Ann Arbor in the past in a way that should not be disregarded.

The advertiser must see splendid possibilities in this combination of the two papers. The Ann Arbor News-Argus covers Ann Arbor and the whole county fields in the United States of a like number of inhabitants that is so effectively reached as the News-Argus now reaches in Ann Arbor and Washtenaw county in general.

"I want you to come back," I said boldly, for the train was very near and I felt that the eyes of the Sisters were upon us. "You can not go away where I shall not find you!"

I did not know who this girl was, her home, or her relation to the school, but I knew that her life and mine had touched strangely; that her eyes were blue, and that her voice had called to me twice through the dark, in mockery once, and in warning another time, and that the sense of having seen her before, of having looked into her eyes haunted me. The youth in her was so luring: she was at once so frank and so guarded-breeding and the taste and training of an ampler world than that of Annandale were so evidenced in the witchery of her voice, in the grace and ease that marked her every motion, in the soft gray tone of hat, dress and gloves, that a new mood, a new hope and faith sang in my pulses. There, on that platform, I felt again the sweet heartache I had known as a boy, when spring first warmed the Vermont hillsides and the monutains sent the lastsnows singing in joy of their release down through the brook-beds and into

She met my eyes steadily. "If I thought there was the slightest chance of my ever seeing you again I shouldn't be talking to you here. But I thought-I thought it would be good fun to see how you really talked to a grown-up. So I am risking the displeasure of these good Sisters just to test your conversational powers, Mr. Glenarm. You see how perfectly frank I am."

Value of the "Beauty Bath"

There is no doubt that the bath plays a very important part in the preservation of the health, and particularly in the preservation of the complexion. The beauty bath, as it is called, scents the body, makes the flesh smooth, and, if it is of the right sort, quiets the nerves and clears the complexion.

But it must be of the right sort-not too hot nor too cold. The beauty bath, besides clearing the complexion and healing the nerves, does other things, and not the least of these is that it makes one comfortable. On a hot day it is the best tonic known. Then one must consider one's sur-

STYLES IN TUB FABRICS.

Materials Are Wrought in High Degree of Elegance.

Mercerized tub fabrics have been developed to such a high degree of elegance that it is sometimes difficult to distinguish them from the face cloths, as far as appearance is concerned. NATURE PROVIDES FOR SICK WOMEN a more potent remedy in the roots and herbs of the field than was ever produced from drugs.

In the good old-fashioned days of our grandmothers few drugs were used in medicines and Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., in her study of roots and herbs and their power over disease discovered and gave to the women of the world a remedy for their peculiar ills more potent and efficacious than any combination of drugs.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an honest, tried and true remedy of unquestionable therapeutic value.

During its record of more than thirty years, its long list of actual cures of those serious ills peculiar to women, entitles Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to the respect and confidence of every fair minded person and every thinking woman.

When women are troubled with irregular or painful functions, weakness, displacements, ulceration or inflammation, backache, flatulency, general debility, indigestion or nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The work that has chief prominence was the passage of the railroad twocent passenger fare bill; the constitutional convention which is to convene October 22; the establishment of a system of juvenile courts throughout the state; the repeal of the limited liability act and the change of venue act; making railroads common carriers of livestock; the department insurance bill regulating the conduct of such companies; banking bill compelling directors to audit the accounts Kalamazoo coal merchant, his 16-year- under oath semi-annually and report legs were all cut and he was then ing of watered stock on the organization of industrial companies; the binder twine plant, and the cash tax

The last bill passed by the senate just before adjournment was one raising the salary of Mrs. Mary Spencer, state librarian, to $1,800 and then every one sang "So Long, Mary."

There was almost a slip-up on the bill appropriating $7,000 for a silver service and colors for the battleship Michigan. The house committee struck out the names of the delegation named in the bill and the conference committees appointed forgot to meet. Senator Bland finally got busy and the senate accepted a verbal report by which the senate receded and the governor will name the delegation.

The house finally adopted the suggestion of Atty.-Gen. At present only public utility corporations are so assessed and advantage was taken to evade the law by firms and co-partnerships. The amendment is an import-

By reducing the general purpose tax to $1,100,000, the budget appropriated by the legislature was kept down to $9,150,555.12. The governor decided on this move after consulting with the auditor-general and learning that there is now nearly $2,000,000 in the state treasury, which is ample to meet any deficiency that may arise. At the last moment the house agreed to an appropriation of $25,000 for a Custer monument to be erected at Monroe and the highway department appropriation, which was raised to $250,000, was given immediate effect.

Surety Bonds for Saloons. The Bunting bill, providing that any municipality in the state may accept the houses. The last fight in the surety company bonds on liquor licenses, passed the senate. Those opposed were Senators Bates, Ely, Linsley, Lugers and Wetmore. The bill provides that surety bonds may be accepted from a Michigan corporation of more than $500,000 capital. There is as yet no such corporation, but the proposed organization of a $1,000,000 company has been rumored. A bill providing for the incorporation of such companies has already passed. The only amendment made to the bill was that surety bonds shall not be accepted in a municipality where a majority of the voters reckoned on the st gubernatorial vote protest. Senator Lugers opposed the bill vigorously, but his motion to kill it was voted down in committee of the whole by the narrow margin of 11 to 10.

Will Spend $9,500,000.

The senate and house committee on appropriations are pretty near to closing up their books. The difference in the immense tables of figures prepared in the two committees is about a quarter of a million dollars. The senate thinks $9,250,000, more or less -the house committee writes $9,500,-000, less or more. The appropriations this year will be immensely in excess of anything ever dreamed of before, and two millions over the budget of last season. Still, every item has been worked over with painful detail. Several of the institutions will be very culosis sanatorium at Howell thinks it has been treated harshly by the house committee, which has by its cuts prevented many improvements.

No Relief for Thomas Allen.

Gov. Warner vetoed the senate joint resolution permitting the state board of auditors to investigate the claim of Thomas Allen, the one-legged popcorn vender of Detroit, for relief not to exceed $2,000. Allen was imprisoned some years ago for a crime he did not commit. The governor's reason for this, the first veto message of the session, was that a similar reslition passed in 1899 was held invalid by the supreme court.

Combinations Allowed.

The house passed the Smith bill allowing gas, electric light and electric power companies to combine in the upper peninsula, on a vote of 75 per cent. of the stockholders. ## DRESS

Many Little Accessories That All Stylish Women Should Be Glad to Know.

The new summer glove is pale buff or straw color; it comes in glace and suede kid, silk or suede fabric, and as the rage promises to be great, you had best lay in a number of pairs while stocks are complete.

Shoes and stockings come to match all the shades of cloth or silk and while dark tan footwear is in greatest demand, there is a general tendency toward the various brighter. colors, as well as toward black patent leather vamps with black, grey or white cloth uppers.

Neck ruffs for summer wear are short, edged with ribbon or ribbon velvet of the same shade, and finished with long loops and ends of velvet
