rington, Yates county, New York, Oc- Residence of Mrs. Clara Stapish Burned Friday Afternoon.

> The fine large residence of Mrs. Clara Stapish, on her farm in Dexter township, about two and one-half miles northeast of Chelsea, was burned to the ground last Friday afternoon. The fire was discovered about 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Stapish and her two daughters were at home and one of them heard a crashing noise and stepped outdoors to learn the cause, found that the roof was in flames.

As soon as possible an alarm was given and the neighbors started for the scene but when they arrived at the home the flames had gained such headway that it was impossible to save any of the contents. A number of the members of the Chelsea fire department and citizens started for the scene, but the building was burned down before they arrived there.

The residence was one of the largest and finest in the township and was valued at from between $4,000 and $5,000. At the time the fire was discovered none of the male members of the household were present and the ladies were not able to save but a small amount of the contents that in value will reach about $25. The hired man lost all of his good clothing and a sum of money amounting to about $200 which was in his trunk in the room which he occupied. Besides the contents of the home, Mrs. Stapish had a small sum of money burned. The barns on the premises were saved but at one time it was thought that they would be burned.

The house was insured for $1,800 and the contents was also covered by insurance, but as the policy was burned was carried by the German Mutual Fre Insurance Co.

Mrs. Stapish has made arrangements to reside for the present at the home of her son, Edward.

A party of Pere Marquette officials by Newman Erb, recently elected chairman of the board of directors, paid a visit to Flint. Seven Campaign Headquartess in Washington.

Rent Is High and Great Quantities of Publicity Matter Are Being Issued -Legislation Almost Ignored ing the Excitement of Politics.

Washington.-Somebody has paraphrased the poem "We Are Seven" and applied it to the seven headquarters of the candidates for the presidential nomination, Democrat and Republican, which have been established in the City of Washington, thereby breaking the record for headquarters and campaign activities at least so far as archives diplomatiques from 1861 to the capital is concerned. There is very little said in attack on rival candidates, the advocates of this er ground, the idea, seems to be that if one candidate is attacked, such delegates as he may get may take ofvotes at a crucial time.

It must be said, however, that little by little it is expected personalities will creep into the campaign. One little thing leads to another and only recently when something which perhaps was misconstrued was taken as an offensive remark by the champions of one candidate, it was retorted to in kind, but a halt was called as soon as the tendency to assault rivals was noted by some of the chiefs of the campaign.

Newspaper Men Chief Boomers.

In the chief publicity position in each campaign headquarters there is a tried newspaper man, always one who is known to be heart and soul in favor of the candidate whom he is now booming. Politicians have learned one thing and that is that it is not as easy nowadays to get newspaper men to write against conviction as it is said that it was a good many years ago. Moreover, the campaigners have learn ed that the man who is writing what he believes in always turns out better articles than one who is writing forcibly and rather against his will. So tral M. How to Oust Judge.

The recent pronouncement of Theodore Roosevelt in favor of at least an approach to the recall of judges and the fact that President Taft and many other men disagreed entirely with the colonel's views have led champions of each side of the controversy to study the manner of getting rid of judges at the present time.

There is some interesting material in the records of the country which opponents and proponents of the recall of judges may use if they think that it will benefit their causes, either for or against the recall. Swayne Trial Was Solemn.

When the senate sat in the case was such that it seemed the judge was being tried for his life. The senate resolved itself into a court with Senator Platt of Connectizoo, requested all members of his fense and refuse to transfer their cut, now dead, as the presiding officer. Prior to the beginning of the trial the Connecticut senator told his coneagues that it was their bounden duty not to lose one word of the tesimony lest they might bring in an unjust verdict.

The result of this appeal was that during the long hours of the trial the senators sat in their seats and refused to leave the room even for luncheon. Some of them were old men, and their devotion to duty in this case told hard on them physically. In this trial it was absolutely impossible to tell from a single juror's face whether or not he was friendly or hostile to the judge

Judge Swayne was tried on many counts. He was ably defended and ably prosecuted. He was found not guilty and was restored to the bench. He died not long after his acquittal. and his case was the last one of impeachment to go before the United States senate. This represents the present method of getting rid of federal judges when the people do not think they do their duty.

Revenue Cutter Service Safe.

When the commission which was appointed to study questions of economy and efficiency reported it suggest. ed-only suggested-that $1,000,000 a year could be saved if the revenue of the cause just as much at heart as cutter service were done away with. President Taft did not recommend the abolition of the revenue cutter service, but it was understood that he had done so, and when the president found out that this was the impression he made haste to say that he had made no recommendation of the kind, and did not want it so understood. In fact, the president was rather sharp in his denial. It is said there is no danger that congress will wipe the revenue cutter service out of existence. Advocates of the service say that congress was led to this mind by learning from friends of the revenue cutter men that the record of heroism of the service was as long as that of services in its employment. It is said that comparative sizes of the revenue cutmore acts of authenticated heroism are to be credited to the revenue cutative acts and governing acts are ter service than to either the army or some of the specific instances of heroism on the part of revenue cutter officers and men and, it is said, made Tort is to be one of education only up their minds that the service ought nd "if he people only know all about not to be abolished.

Reveal Chinese Smuggling Plan. Inner workings of a smuggling ring credited with having landed 400 contraband Chinese in San Francisco every month are said to have been revealed following the capture of the launch Morning Star, in Oakland creek, in the course of a daring at-

Joseph di Scalia, one of the boatmen arrested with the Chinese, told Immigration Inspector Thomas Crawford that the boat started from Ensenada a week ago Sunday night. As soon as it came opposite the California coast, the Chinese were put below decks, the whole number being packed like sardines in a space eight

During the mild weather of 10 days ago considerable progress was made in clearing up the local situation, but the subsequent northeast blizzard, which for nearly a week paralyzed the movement of freight traffic, and present low temperature have caused another backset, from which it will require a long period of mild weather to recover.

OSBORN SEND IN A TORRID MESSAGE

DECLARES SENATOR MORIARTY, FRIEND OF HIS BILL, WAS CALLED OFF BY MINING INTERESTS.

CLAIMS MORIARTY WAS CO-ERCED INTO CHANGE OF FRONT.

Says, "High-Handed Proceedings" Should Justify Immediate Passage of the Presidential Primary Bill.

Thoroughly aroused at the efforts of big business interests of the state, through the machine politicians, to defeat the presidential primary bill, Gov. Osborn struck back with a sensational message to the legislature.

The particular case to which the governor refers is the switch of Senator Michael H. Moriarty to a position against the bill. The governor charges the change was brought about by coercion by representatives of Corrigan, McKinney & Co., next to the steel trust the largest iron mining interest in the state. Specifically, the governor charges that Attorney Charles H. Watson, of Crystal Falls came to Lansing to threaten Senator Moriarty and that Watson was sent by W. J. Richards, superintendent for the Corrigan interests and a Taft candidate for delegate to the national convention.

The governor's message follows "To the forty-sixth legislature of the state of Michigan:

"Entirely without malice, but in a manner so plain as to leave no room for misunderstanding, I wish to call your attention to the outrageous methods of coercion and intimida tion used to defeat the presidential preference primary bill which you have under consideration. The people of the state of Michigan and you as representatives are entitled to know of matters that are inimical to popular government and especially when odious acts are committed that are so bold as to cause a feeling of resentment on the part of every honest citizen.

"Senator Moriarty, of the thirty first district, came to Lansing with his mind fully made up to support a presidential primary bill. He discussed the matter and suggested certain changes in the bill. These were made and he privately and publicly expressed his approval of the measure. As soon as his attitude was learned in his district, Charles H Watson, attorney for Corigan, McKinney & Co., of Pittsburg, and of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railtle-Receipts, 150 head; market light and easy; prime steers, $7.50@$8; road company, came to the capital of Senator Moriarty with the result that the estimable and popular gentleman was compelled to surrender. Who are Corrigan, McKinney & Co.? Next to the United States Steel corporation they are the largest operators of Michigan iron mines. In Iron county, of Senator Moriarty's district, they control the Armonia, Crystal Falls, Great Western, Lamont, Kimball, Tobin, Dunn, Baker, Blair, Tully and Houlihan mines, and other properties, making in all fifteen mines and explorations. It was clearly shown to Senator Moriarty that he could not live in that county and oppose those interests. These gaunt figures of under him everybody else works splenpolitical and financial avarice took didly. There's a Chinese proverb," he him by the throat and throttled him. His own iron mining property, the mean; Sherwood, leased to the Republic Steel Company, would suffer. His law business would be taken away. He would be starved out.

"This high-handed proceeding is enough to justify the passage at once of a presidential primary bill. The American people will rebel at such practices. Is there any wonder that the people are restless and insist upon protection through the medium of the best instruments obtained for popular government? These reprehensible methods show clearly the length that intrenched privilege will go. It is the duty of the people to protect themselves by any lawful measure within their power,

"I tell you these things so that every free man in the senate and the house of representatives may act with full knowledge of conditions. It is as clear a case of the bullying corporations against the people as can be presented."

Kimmel Jury Disagreed.

The jury at St. Louis, Mo., in the famous Niles, Mich., insurance mystery, involving the identification of Andrew J. White, who claims he is George A. Kimmel, and which is disputed, reported after being out 71 hours that it could not agree on the question of Kimmel's death. The court immediately discharged them from further duty.

HANDS WOULD CRACK OPEN

"About two months ago my handsstarted to crack open and bleed, the skin would scale off, and the good flesh would burn and itch dreadfully. When my hands first started to get sore, there were small blisters like water blisters which formed. They itched dreadfully, it just seemed as though I could tear the skin all off, I would scratch them and the skin would peel off, and the flesh would be all red and crack open and bleed. It worried me very much, as I had never had anything the matter with my skin. I was so afraid I would have to give up my employment.

"My doctor said he didn't think it. would amount to anything. But it kept getting worse. One day I saw a piece in one of the papers about a lady whohad the same trouble with her hands. She had used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and was cured. I decided to try them, and my hands were all healed before I had used one cake of Cuttcura Ointment. I am truly for the good results from the Cuticuta-Soap and Ointment, for thanks to them I was cured, and did not have to lose a day from work. I have had no return of the skin trouble." SYNOPSIS.

Dan Blair, the 22-year-old son of the My-million-dolar copper king of Blair-town, Mont. is a guest at the English home. Of Lady Galorey. Dan's father had heme of Lady Galorey during his visit to the United States and the couriesy is now being returned to the young man. The youth has an ideal girl in his mind. He meets Lily, Duchess of Breakwater, a beautiful widow, who is attracted by his immense fortune and takes a liking to her. When Dan was a hov, a girl sang a solo at a church, and he had never forgotten her. The Galorys Lily and Dan attend a London theater where one Letty, Lane is the star. Dan recognizes her as the girl from his nown, and going behind the scenes introduces himself and she remembers him. He learns that Prince Ponictowsky is suitor and escort to Letty. Lord Galorey and a friend named Ruggles determine to protect the westerner from Lily and other fortune hunters. Young Blair goes to see Lily: he can talk of nothing but Letty and this angers the Duchess. The westerner finds Letty ill from hard work, but she recovers and Ruggles and Dan invite her to supper. She asks Dan to build a home for disappointed theatrical people. Dan visits Lily, for the time forgetting Letty, and later annotnees his engagement to the duchess. Letty refuses to sing for an entertainment given by Lily. Galorey tells Dan that all Lily cares for is his money, and it is disclosed that he and the duchess have been mutually in love for years.

Galorey repeated vaguely, "State?" "Why, she's all run down, tired out; she's got no real friends in London." The other man flicked the ash from his cigarette and looked at Blair's boy through his monocle.

"And you thought that Lily might befriend her, old chap?" "Yes," nodded Dan, "just give her a Serges and whipcords are the fabrics that are finding favor at the present time. In silks a number of taffetas are shown, but these, it is expected, will have greater vogue as the summer season advances. An attractive navy blue mohair serge I saw the other day emphasized the use of tailor's braid and tailor's buttons of black silk, which outline many of the seams and panels of the coats and skirts. The jacket was twenty-seven inches long and was of straightline cut. The center back panel extended through from the shoulders, while across the front and sides the basque was set on. The lines were emphasized by the braid binding and by the trimming of the braid bound buttonholes. The sleeves were of straight coat cut, medium large, seven-eighths long, and finished with a deep backward turning cuff, braid bound and trimmed with but-

Lace Collar in Open Pattern. An interesting new feature of the model was an open pattern lace collar which was in shawl shape cut low, descending considerably below the normal waist line in front. This collar was formed of heavy crochet point in champagne color. It was edged with narrow plaitings of black tulle, the coat lined with heavy navy blue trimmed with braid. Others are cut

The skirt was simple, in three pieces, center back panel and two side panels, which overlapped each other to form the front. All overlapping edges were bound with braid and at the fronts and the sides a tunic effect was given by the trimmings of braid and buttons. The skirt was only medium narrow, measuring fifty-six inches at the bottom. It was hung from a belt about two and one-half inches deep.

Among the new helts are inch wide belts of fine Morocco leather in high colors, the design being formed by interlacing narrow strips of cut leather. The interlacing is copied from ancient leather work and is most artistic, the belt thus treated being stinple in effect, while at the same time presenting a novel feature in ornamentation.

MANY WAYS OF SERVING RICE

All Good, and Will Be Welcomed as a Pleasant Change From Generally Accepted Method.

Mold cold boiled rice by pressing it into a shallow pan, and when the mold has been turned out, cut out the center to form a ring. Fill the center with well-sweetened stewed peaches or any good canned fruit from which the juice has been drained away.

For a variation of Bordeaux pudding, which the children will relish, bake thin layers as if for strawberry short cake. Spread jam between each two layers and cover the top with whipped cream, which may be slightly tinted with the jelly. This, too, will be a novelty in many home kitchens, and is extremely wholesome as well as good. Wash thoroughly half a pound of prunes, soak over night if possible, and then stew gently in well-sugared water until tender. Strain the water in which they were cooked, add juice of a lemon, and a tablespoonful of gelatin dissolved as usual, and measure it last of all. Use only a pint of the juice, put the prunes after the pits have been removed into a mold, add half a cup or so of almonds, blanched, of course. Serve very cold with cream, whipped or plain, after the jelly has set and has been chilled. Instead of candy serve stuffed fruits made by passing through the chopper some dates, figs and walnuts or pecans, using a knife sufficiently fine to make a nice paste. Use these to fill dates, figs, bottled prunes, or large raisins, all carefully pitted.

The same mixture instead of serving as a forcement can be molded into a shallow candy pan, cut into squares like caramels, sprinkled with powdered sugar and served as bon-

Attention to These Seemingly Small Things Will Do Much to Lighten Household Labor.

If you would have light dumplings leave the cover off for about ten miniles after you have put them in. A few capers chopped fine and scattered over the egg salad contributes zest to a salad that is otherwise apt to be insipid.

Gingerbread is made doubly good by the addition of a few spoonfuls of grated chocolate before baking. This makes it richer and does not affect the flavor.

Cane of Floors.

One housekeeper has declared that hardwood floors require as much care as a baby. Although we doubt the statement, it is a well-known fact that if floors are not properly cared for they soon lose their beauty.

Attention should be given them systematically; every day they should be brushed over with a broom covered with a flannel cloth made into a bag, with a drawstring in the top.

Once a week at least, twice if you can, the floors'should be oiled, using linseed oil and applying it with a cheesecloth rag to prevent lint from Deeply stained or varnished floors should be wiped lightly and frequently with a solution of milk and water. Polish with a dry cloth.

· Creamed Fish.

Flake any cold cooked fish up fine; it makes no difference if it has been boiled, baked or fried, so long as it can be pulled into fine pieces. Make a cup of white sauce by cooking together a tablespoonful each of flour and butter until they bubble, pouring upon them a cup of milk and stirring until all are smoothly blended and thick. Put the fish with this, season to taste with pepper and sait, turn DR. J. D. KELLOGG'S into small napples or into one large bake dish, sprinkle crumbs over the

FLANDERS SHOP NOTES.

Last Friday evening a large crowd gathered at the Welfare building to witness the basket ball games. The game between Ann Arbor High and Chelsea High was a very one sided affair. The Ann Arbor boys winning 67 to 0. The other game was well worth seeing. The fast Co. I team of Ann Arbor faced the Flanders 4, who were out to win, and win they did by 27 to 25 against some of the worst decisions ever seen on a floor. Umpire Steab of Ann Arbor the last of the game in an endevor to put his team ahead, gave decisions that brought roars of disgust from the Ann Arbor rooters and everybody in general. The work of Max Kelly and Kirkdoffer of Flanders was great, they both had their Irish and Dutch up right.

IS THE PAIN THER

Then Your Kidneys May Be Weak and in Need of Quick Attention

Backache is enough cause to suspect the kidneys. The kidneys are in the small of the back. Congested kidneys swell and throb. The back naturally aches. It hurts to bend or stoop or to sit down.

Kidney trouble may come on all unnoticed. A cold, a chill, a fever, a strain or irregular habits may start it. While sick kidneys can be cured in the beginning, it is a serious matter when dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease sets in.

Doan's Kidney Pills have made a reputation in the cure of backache, and kidney and bladder ills. The best proof is the testimony of the users. Here are two typical testimonials. Thirty thousand others are being published in the newspapers. A postage stamp will bring you reports of cases nearer home.
