BLACK CROSS TEA makes cream out of skimmed milk.

"There is something about Black Cross Tea that is to be found in no other tea."

So said a Chelsea Lady to a Grocer the other day.

She did not know exactly what or how to describe the difference, only there was a something Black Cross Tea had that othor teas lacked.

That something was a little more quality. For sale only at our store. 50c per pound.

SEVENTIETH BIRTHDAYS.

O. T. M. M. Gave Reception to Ladies Fenn and Canfield.

A very pleasant reception was given by the members of Columbian Hive, L. O. T. M. M., Wednesday evening in honor of the 70th anniversary of the births of Ladies Anna Fennand Sarah C. Canfield.

The Hive was appropriately decorated with the colors of the order, white, red and black, and the hall was filled to its capacity with Lady Maccabees, Sir Knights and friends of the guests of honor.

The reception committee consisted of Lady Maccabees who have celebrated their 70th birthdays and were as follow: Ladies Mary V. Conk, Sarah R. Cole, Mary Winans, Amanda Whipple, Sarah Smith and Minerva L. Davis. They were assisted in the receiving line by the Past Commanders of the local Hive.

An original poem by Mabel Canfield, of Detroit, a granddaughter of Mrs. Canfield was read. Each of the ladies were presented with appropriate gifts. Mrs. Fenn received a brooch and Mrs. Canfield was present

A well chosen literary and musical program was carried out which was followed by refreshments. The event was a very enjoyable one for all who were present.

Martin Howe.

Martin Howe was born at Nana, county Tiperary, Ireland, and died at his home on South street, Chelsea, Saturday evening, May 11, 1912.

At the age of 10 years his parents settled at Godrich, Canada, and after residence of five years they moved to New York state and after a short residence there the family moved to Michigan. Mr. Howe was a machinist by trade which he followed for a number of years. In 1859 he went to California where he spent five years, He returned to Michigan in 1865 and settled on a farm in Lyndon. He was united in marriage with Miss Mary Cassidy in 1865, and she died in 1869, leaving three small children. He was united in marriage the second time with Miss Catherine Gallagher, of Detroit, and the couple have been well known and respected residents of this vicinity for more than thirty years.

Mr. and Mrs. Howe have lived in Chelsea for the last 14 years. He is urvived by his wife, one son, one dauhter and six grandchildren. The funeral was held from the Church of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart Wednesday morning, Rev. Fr. Considine celebrating the mass. Interment St. Mary's cemetery, Sylvan.

Mrs. Bertha Helmrich.

Mrs. Bertha Helmrich was born in fermany, September 1, 1830, and lied at her home on south Main street Wednesday morning, May 15,

When a young lady she came to this country and settled in Detroit where she was united in marriage with Charles Helmrich in July, 1852. The surviving members of the family are Mrs. H. Fischer of De-

The Old Man.

Boys, when you speak of your father don't call him the "old man." Of course you are older now than when you were taught to call him "father." You are much smarter than you were then, you are much more manly looking, your clothes fit you better, your hat has a modern shape and your hair is combed differently, in short you are "flyer" than you were then. Your father has a last year's coat, a two year-old hat and a vest of still older pattern. He can't write such an elegant note as you can and all that but don't call him "old man." Call him father, him "old man." Call him father.

For years he has been hustling around to get things together, he has been held to the thorny path of uphill industry, and the brightest half of life has gone from him forever.

He loves you though he goes along the love was a long to the love that the love was a long to the love that the love was a long to the love that the love that the love was a long to the love that the love was a long to the love that the lov For years he has been hustling He loves you though he goes along without saying much about it, therefore be not so ungrateful.—Ex.

RAILROAD COMMISSIONER HAS ASKED EVERY RAILOAD TO FILE AN ACCOUNT OF EQUIPMENT.

CLAIMS RAILROADS ARE COSTING MICHIGAN MILLIONS ANNUALLY.

Chairman Glasgow Will Call Meeting of R. R. Managers in an Effort to Provide Better Facilities.

Claiming that delays in handling freight by the various railroads is costing the people of Michigan millions of dollars annually, Chairman C. L. Glasgow, of the state railroad commission, has ordered that every rail. road in the state file with his department on or before June 10 an inventory of the equipment, in order that commission may determine whether proper facilities are being provided.

Chairman Glasgow has demanded that the road engines be classified as to efficiency. He also wants to know the number of cars, switch and road egations to the Democratic state conengines. The railroads are also requested to furnish information to the actual number of cars in service, the number to be put in service before erses grange have organized and will Jan. 1, 1913, and the number to be start a campaign for the betterment added before that date. Dan Blair, the 22-year-old son of the afty-million-dollar copper king of Blair-town. Mont., is a guest at the English home of Lady Galorey. Dan's father had been courteous to Lord Galorey during his visit to the United States and the courtey is now being returned to the young man. The youth has an ideal girlin his mind. He meets Lily, Duchess of Breakwater, a beautiful widow, who is attracted by his immense fortune and takes a liking to her. When Dan was a boy, a girl sang a solo at a church, and he had never forgotten her. The Galoreys Lily and Dan attend a London theater where one Letty Lane is the star. Dan recognizes her as the girl from his town, and going behind the scenes introduces himself and she remembers him. He learns that Prince Poniotowsky is suitor and escort to Letty. Lord Galorey and a friend named Ruggles determine to protect the westerner from Lily and other fortune hunters. Young Blair goes to see Lily, he can talk of nothing but Letty and this angers the Duchess. The westerner finds Letty iii from hard work, but she recovers and Ruggles and build a home for disappointed, thearical people. Dan visits Lily for the time forgetting Letty, and later announces his engagement to the duchess. Letty refuses to sing for an entertainment given by Lily. Galorey tells Dan that all Lily cares for Is his money, and it is disclosed that he and the duchess letty sings at an aristocratic function, Dan escorting her home. Dan confronts Galorey and Lily together. Later he informs Letty that his engagement with Lily is broken, asks the singer to marry him, and they become engaged. Ruggles thinks the westerner should not marry a public singer, and endeavors to induce him, and they become engaged. Ruggles thinks the westerner should not marry a public singer, and endeavors to induce Letty to give him up. She runs away, fearing she is not good enough for Dan, and Ruggles makes the latter believe she has abandoned his love. Finally Dan finds Letty in Paris, where he is persistent in pressing his suit. The westerner meets Pontotowsky at Letty's rooms and a challenge results. Dan, with his mind in a turmoil, arranges for the duel.

One of his companions offered Blair digar. He refused, the idea sickened him. Here the gentlemen exchanged glances and one murmured "Is he afraid?"

The other shrugged. "Not astonishing-he's a child." At this Dan glanced up and smiled -what Lily, Duchess of Breakwater, had called his divine young smile. The two secretly were ashamed—he

Oh, Learned Judge.

A California judge decided that there is no judicial authority to keep a man from making love to his wife, although it could stop his beating her. The remarkable cause of this remarkable decision was that a woman in Los Angeles had applied for an injunction to restrain her husband from insisting on being attentive to her. This judge was not a Solomon, but he realized that only a Solomon could be trusted to rule upon the whims and inconsistencies of womankind.

Milky Way Causes Glaciers. Another suggested cause of glaciat periods is that they have been due to the shifting of the milky way, such as is known to have occurred. Assuming that much of the earth's heat comes from the stars, Dr. Rudolf Spitaler finds that the change of position in relation to the milky way might have given a different distribution of temperature from that existing at the present time. The stars are not only crowded in the region of the milky way, but many of them are of the hot-modern newspaper.

If You Like a Little Quiet Fun

Ask some pompous person if Grape-Nuts Food helps build the brain.

Chances are you get a withering sneer and a hiss of denunciation.

Then sweetly play with the learned toad.

Ask him to tell you the analysis of brain material and the analysis of Grape-Nuts.

"Don't know? Why, I supposed you based your opinions on exact knowledge instead of pushing out a conclusion like you would a sneeze."

"Well, now your tire is punctured, let's sit down like good friends and repair it." The bulky materials of brain are water and albumin, but these things cannot blend without a little worker known as Phosphate of Potash, defined as a "mineral sait." One authority, Geohegan, shows in his analysis of brain, 5.33 per cent total of mineral salts, over one-half being Phosphoric

Acid and Potash combined, (Phosphate of Potash) 2.91 per cent. Beaunis, another authority, shows Phosphoric Acid and Potash (Phosphate of Potash) more than one-half the total mineral salts, being 73.44 per cent in a total of 101.07. Analysis of Grape-Nuts shows Potassium and Phosphorus (which join and make Phosphate of Potash) is considerable more than one-half of all the mineral salts in the food.

Dr. Geo. W. Carey, an authority on the constituent elements of the body, says: "The gray matter of the brain is controlled entirely by the inorganic cell-salt, Potassium Phosphate (Phosphate of Potash). This salt unites with albumin and by the addition of oxygen creates nerve fluid or the gray matter of the brain. Of course, there is a trace of other salts and other organic matter in nerve fluid, but Potassium Phosphate is the chief factor, and has the power within itself to attract, by its own law of affinity, all things needed to manufacture the elixir of life." Further on he says: "The beginning and end of the matter is to supply the lacking principle, and in molecular form exactly as nature furnishes it in vegetables, fruits and grain. To supply deficiencies—this is the only law of cure."

Brain is made of Phosphate of Potash as the principal Mineral Salt, added to albumin and water.

Grape-Nuts contains that element as more than one-half of all its mineral salts.

Every day's use of brain wears away a little.

Suppose your kind of food does not contain Phosphate of Potash.

How are you going to rebuild today the worn-out parts of yesterday?

And if you don't, why shouldn't nervous prostration and brain-fag result?

Remember, Mind does not work well on a brain that is even partly broken down from lack of nourishment.

It is true that other food besides Grape-Nuts contains varying quantities of Brain food. Plain wheat and barley do. But in Grape-Nuts there is a certainty.

And if the elements demanded by Nature, are eaten, the life forces have

A healthy brain is important, if one would "do things" in this world.

A man who sneers at "Mind" sneers at the best and least understood part of himself. That part which some folks believe links us to the Infinite.

Mind asks for a healthy brain upon which to act, and Nature has defined a way to make a healthy brain and renew it day by day as it is used up from work of the previous day.

Originals of Dickens. Look long and deep enough into personality, and if you have in your temperament something of the whimsicality of Charles Dickens, you will discover in every man and woman that you meet a fragment of that humor or that pathos, that ridiculousness or that heroism, that absurdity or that genial benovolence, which make up the immense and beautiful mosaic of the Dickens temple. I confess that I have found it many times difficult to preserve a grave aspect in the society of the great and learned, that often I have longed to cry out to these mighty ones, "Rogue!" "Humbug!" "Stuff and nonsense!" While again and again, in listening to the tales of the poor and humble, I have maintained a natural behavior only between the two balancing inclinations of laughter and tears. Statesmen, savants, ecclesiastics, men of letters, millionaires, clerks, shopmen, mechanics, and laborers-among all of them I have met the originals of Dickens.-Harold Begbie, in Century Magazine

Worked Hard for Success. Dr. Luther H. Gulick, director of the department of hygiene of the Sage foundation, came up from the ranks. At Oberlin college he cut lawns, cared for house furnaces and worked as a book agent. In preparing for college at the high school at Hanover, N. H., he paid his living expenses by sawing wood and waiting on table at a summer hotel. He studied at the medical college of the University of New York, taught physical training, had a milk route, and got up before daybreak to milk the cows, after which spent his childhood in Japan, and learned the Japanese language thoroughly. In his younger life he intended to follow his father's footsteps and become a medical missionary.

Cruel Monarch.

At the annual prize giving at Woodford House School, Croydon, England, Mr. Ian Malcolm, M. P., addressed the girls, and Mrs. Malcolm gave away the prizes. Mr. Malcolm told the girls that they must be thorough in all that they did, work with understanding, and not mind asking questions, or they would end by being superficial. To illustrate this, he told the story of a little girl who informed her mother she had been learning about King John. Her mother inquired what she had learned, and was told that he was a very cruel man, who rode all over the country in motor cars and ran over people! Her mother was amazed, and inquired what she meant, to which the girl replied: "Well, mother, Miss Jones did say he ground the people down with heavy taxis."

NOTHING LIKE PATIENCE.

Bill-I never lose my temper when man shoots me. Pete-But you didn't waste any time on Bad Ike.

Bill-No. But I didn't lose my temper. I've learned by experience that nothing keeps a man from shooting straight like losing his temper.

Not Much Patience-You say she was blind to all his entreaties? Patrice-Yes; until he gave her solitaire. "Oh, then, she wasn't stone blind."

Advice. First Deaf Mute-What would you do in a case like that? Second Deaf Mute-I'd treat he with silent contempt; I wouldn't more a finger when I met her.

You for discussion, one nearer to the heart can buy tiny silk flags for each one of every sympathetic human being to wear in the buttonhole and you can who is blessed with a mother? Then in these days of fine dress and wellget paper napkins in red, white and blue, also nut or bonbon holders in preserved appearances a beauty talk shape of the United States shield. I for women of fifty and sixty is really wonder if you do not know some old necessary once in a while.

Let me begin with the hair of the elderly woman, the mother and young It would add an interesting bit to your grandmother who wants to look her best. Dear woman, or women, drop the notion of dye, for there is nothing more aging than hair artificially colored. Nature makes provision for the changes in the face by graying or blanching the hair, so when the false brown or black is used every line in the face is doubly emphasized. One of the reasons for this is that hair dye makes a uniform color and the natural coloring of the hair is made up of many shades. So dyed hair frames the face like a cap, flinging the information in the teeth of all that it is dyed. In fact, it is impossible to hide the subterfuge even in the case of very young women.

simple frocks, say of dotted swiss Gray hair and white hair are both fashionable now, as woman herself has learned the folly and ugliness of hair dyes. But, of course, both gray and white hair need to be very tenderly treated to look well; in other words, not to add to the impression of Ask him to come to see you and just

If there are no combings for the false pieces, and the head needs more hair, always match the natural grayness as much as is possible in the bought piece. For silver-gray locks there are celluloid pins and other ornaments exactly in the same color; there are also white ones properly shaded for white

The condition of the complexion has a great deal to do with general health, but at any time much benefit may be gained by sour milk washes. Take a pint of buttermilk, or sweet milk turned sour, and put a tablespoonful of peroxide in it, applying the wash to the face with a small, clean sponge after the soap and water bath. Leave the milk on the face for half an hour and then wash it off with tepid water. This wash is bleaching to the skin and it is often used for the removal of the brown discolorations commonly called "moth patches' which appear so often with middle age on the face, throat and hands. But one application of the milk and peroxide is not enough to bleach the skin, and there is no telling whether the moth patches would entirely disappear with a number of them. With any beauty formula one can only say that in the majority of cases the means advised have brought good results.

Much stress is laid on a light diet of carefully chosen foods. No rule can be laid down for general following, as constitutions differ, but everybody tells of the usefulness of milk with middle age and old age, and of the great need to cut down quantities of food when the digestion has bogun to impair, as it always does. PAST NATIONAL MASTER DEAD Well Known Grange Leader Passes Away at His Home in Minne-- apolis, Minn.

One of the best-known Grange members in the country has just passed away, in the death at his home in Minneapolis, Minn., of or Col. Samuel E. woman of fifty bettering her Adams, who was for several years looks so she won't be put on master of the National Grange, a past the shelf before her time? I master of the Minnesota State Grange and for more than 40 years actively what sort of a party to have for a grandmother, but I feel as young as identified with the order. For the past class of high school girls and boys ever I did and don't want to become 20 years, consecutively, he had been master of Minneapolis Grange, No. 332, holding that position at the time what refreshments to serve, and what how can I improve my complexion? of his death. For almost 50 years he sort of favors I might make. I prefer I was once thought a beauty and all had attended without exception the annual session of the Minnesota State Grange, while as a writer on Grange topics he was widely and favorably known. He was further identified with the Grange through the fact that his wife has been for 18 years secretary of the Minnesota State Grange and, with him, was one of the most loyal patrons in the country.

In addition to his active Grange connections, Col. Adams had a Masonic relationship of most unusual nature. A pioneer of Minnesota, he was also a pioneer of Masonry in the state. He was a charter member of Monticello lodge, No. 16; St. Anthony Falls chapter No. 3, and of Minneapolis Consistory No. 8. He was a past master of Monticello lodge No. 16, past junior and senior warden of the grand lodge and the Grand Representative of Vermont since October, 1859. He was past venerable master of the Kadosh at Minneapolis; and was the acting 33d degree Mason, representing the state in the supreme council at Washington, D. C. In 1901 he was elected lieutenant grand commander of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, supreme mother council of the world, thus making him the second ranking Masonic officer in the world, a position he held at his death.

Grange Wins a Victory.

The decision of the committee on agriculture in Congress not to report any bill for a change in the oleomargarine laws until next December is a decided triumph for the dairy interests of the country and is a Grange victory in the most complete sense. Aided by all the dairy nterests of the country, the Grange has led the fight for honest butter, in its strenuous efforts to defeat the so-called Lever bill, which proposed to seriously break down the present rigid oleo laws, and thereby make it far easier to market the bogus butter than it is under present law.

Immediately the scope and purpose of the Lever bill was made known, the Grange set in motion all the energies of the organization, in every state, to accomplish the Lever bill defeat. In early March the outlook was very dubious and the Lever bill advocates were so certain of victory that all sorts of plans were made that were to be consummated as soon as the Lever bill became a law. The fight, has been prolonged and has been a pretty severe strain upon the former interests-because it has been an uphill struggle from the start. Then the tide suddenly seemed to change, due apparently to the arousing of the Grange members all over the country, and the tremendous response, in letters, telegrams and personal calls from | ine? influential people in every rank of life, pleading for the protection of honest that did it.-Judge. butter against imitations and misrepresentation.

The vote of the agricultural committee, to put the matter over until December, is in every sense a victory for the present law and is so regarded. in all sections of the country. This action gives so many more months for the foes of the Lever bill to work hard and continually, and make such a frame-up of the case between now and December as shall make it impossible for the oleomargarine manufacturers to effect any change in present laws. A constant stream of letter writing, from now until the fight is over, is the one effective means of saving the dairy protective laws; but greatly encouraged by victory so far, the Grange forces are preparing for a harder fight than eyer next December.

Outdoor Summer Meetings. Thousands of Grange field days, in outdoor summer meetings, will be held, all over the country, in the months of June, July and August. An attendance of hundreds of thousands of people will enjoy these outdoor occasions and great benefit to agriculture and to genuine rural progress will surely result.

There are many Granges in the country that conduct a genuine market exchange, furnishing regular quocloser together and altogether proving a valuable medium of exchange.

MRS. SELBY AND PRIZE BABY

"I have always used Cuticura Scap and no other for my baby and he has never had a sore of any kind. He does not even chafe as most bables do. I feel sure that it is all owing to Cuticura Soap, for he is fine and healthy, and when five months old, won a prize in a baby contest. It makes my heart ache to go into so many homes and see a sweet-faced baby with the whole top of its head a solid mass of scurf, caused by poor soap. I always recommend Cuticura, and nine times out of ten the next time I see the mother she says: 'Oh! I am so glad you told me of Cuticura." (Signed) Mrs. G. A. The following letter from Mrs. Orville Rock will prove how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before. Then after all that suffering Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored her health.

HERE IS HER OWN STATEMENT.

Paw Paw, Mich.—"Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement—I could not be on my feet for a long time. My physician treated me for several months without much relief, and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an oplief, and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an operation. I was there four weeks and came home suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. To-day I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise every woman who is afflicted with any female complaint to try it."—Mrs. Orville Rock, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Mich.

"THERE NEVER WAS A WORSE CASE."

Rockport, Ind .- "There never was a worse case of women's ills than mine, and I cannot begin to tell you what I suffered. For over two years I was not able to do anything. I was in bed for a month and the doctor said nothing but an operation would cure me. My father suggested Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; so to please him I took it, and I improved wonderfully, so I am able to travel, ride horseback, take long rides and never feel any ill effects from it. I can only ask other suffering women to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation."
—Mrs. Margaret Meredith, R. F. D. No. 3, Rockport, Ind.

We will pay a handsome reward to any person who will prove to us that these letters are not genuine and truthful-or that either of these women were paid in any way for their testimonials, or that the original letter from each did not come to us entirely unsolicited.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine, made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MANS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

tracks when one of the kegs toppled and fell from the top of the pile into the street. It was thoroughly smashed, so the truckman whipped up his team and went his way with stopping. The rum flowed out over the streetone little dent in the paving collecting a visible puddle of it.

In a few minutes a pigeon came fluttering down to drink at the pool thus fortunately provided for thirsty birds. The initial taste was a surprise, but a second and a third soon followed and soon the pigeon tottered fluttering away, too overcome to fly. Other birds, seeing him there and anxious to wet their parching throats, followed their brother in his path of wicked intemperance.

Five minutes later a passerby was astonished to see a dozen pigeons in the gutter of the otherwise deserted street, some dancing drunkenly, others already sound asleep. A few feet away a hound of disreputable appearance was creeping up, slowly and a trifle unsteady, on his unsuspecting and bibulous quarry. As he was almost among the birds his feet went suddenly in several direction and he lay in the gutter among the pigeons, growling sleepily to himself, for he, too, was drunk.

American Girl Supreme. The women seen in the German res taurants, while better groomed and better looking than the average English women, do not look anything like as chic as they do in America. Their clothes do not fit as well, and they seem to not possess the air of confidence or the vivacity and merriment of the American women—they appear to not be sure of themselves, not wholly accustomed to the new life. This contrast is very noticeable in Berlin, and much more so in other German cities. This is why a pretty up-to-date New York or Chicago girl never fails to become the center of attraction in Germany, and immediately she enters a restaurant she is the cynosure of all eyes-National Food Magazine.

Dazed by Skysorapers. "Over in Europe they are rather dazed about American skyscrapers just now," said the woman who spent last summer in Denmark. "At least some of them are. When we began putting up those tall buildings Europeans made fun of us and predicted disasters. We were sensitive about their ridicule at times, because we were not sure of the value of the experiment ourselves, but as we have
