How to Kill Your Town.

Buy from peddlers as much and a ften as possible.

Make your town out a bad place nd stab it every chance you get. Denounce your merchants because hey make a profit on their goods.

Glory in the downfall of a man who has done much to build up your town. Refuse to unite in any scheme for he betterment of the material interests of the people.

Sneak into every ball game you possibly can without paying any admission, and then kick if the home team don't win them all.

If you are a farmer, curse the place where you trade as the meanest on earth. Talk this over to your neighbors and tell them the men are robbers and thieves. It will make vour property much less valuable: but you don't care.

Tell your merchant that you can buy goods a great deal cheaper in some other town and charge them with extortion. If a stranger comes to your town tell him everything is overdone, and predict a general crash in the near future.-- Ex-

KILLED IN A COLLISION.

Mrs. C. S. Potter and Daughter Vic tims of C., B. & Q. Wreck P. S. Eustice, passenger traffic man ager of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad company, issued statement Monday saying that the collision between trains No 2 and 8 at Western Springs, Sunda in which thirteen lives were lost and a score of more persons injured, was investigated Monday in Division Superintendent Rice's office at Aurora by Assistant General Manager Bracken and other officials with this result: "The evidence shows the accident was caused by the failure of the flagman of train No. 2 properly to protect his train against No. 8. The engineer of train No. 8 contributed toward the accident by running by the block signal set against him at Western Springs." rn Springs." The bodies of Mrs. Clarké Sheldon

Potter, and her little daughter, who were enroute to Chelsea, from Fort Collins, Colorado, were identified by Mr. Potter Monday night. Both bodies had been badly burned and for a few hours Mr. Potter was uncertain in regard to the identification. Later. when the contents of a suit case wer examined, he said the bodies we those of his wife and child aged years old. This leaves only one of the wreck victims unidentified. The federal government is ta an active part in the investigation of the wreck and it was reported sever al arrests may follow the completion of the investigation now in progress. C. S. Potter is a cousin of N. S. Potter, jr., of the Michigan Portland Cement Co., of Four Mile Lake, and shot with intent to kill, it is probable has been residing here since June 1st, being employed in the office at the cement works. His wife and child were on their way to this place where they expected to make their home. The body identified by a relative as Mrs. G. W. Tudor and shipped to Oskasession of Mr. Bauer's barn and re- to be that of Mrs. C. S. Potter. The latest inmate to escape from the Jackson state prison was John Trowbridge, who Tuesday afternoon took the opportunity of getting clear of cells and work without compensation by walking away from the Corbett farm, about one mile north of the prison, where he was employed at farm work in company with several other inmates. Trowbridge returned to the prison Wednesday and surrendered himself voluntarily.

Received Ten Days Sentence.

John Sullivan, whose home seems to be where ever night overtakes him, is doing a ten day's "stunt" in the county jail at Ann Arbor, which he drew in Justice Witherell's court Saturday for being drunk and disorderly. Sullivan landed in Chelsea the first of last week and claimed that he was working with the crew that is putting down the new steel rails for the Michigan Central. For several days he was in an intoxicated condition and made a general nuisance of himself.

Hillsdale Man Sends State Cash.

The "conscience fund" of the state treasury was enriched to the extent of $14 Saturday, when a letter containing that amount was received by State Treasurer Sleeper from a man in Hillsdale county. Run Into by an Automobile.

S. P. Foster, carrier on rural route No. 5 was run down by an automobile driven by A. J. Waters, of Manchester, Wednesday morning, about midway between the farms of G. Hutzel driving his car very fast and was about five rods behind the carrier when the latter heard a faint sound that warned him an auto was approaching. He whipped up his horse and pulled out of the road, but the car caught his left hind wheel and it was smashed into kind ling. The tracks in the highway shows that the auto driver kept to the center of the road and did not turn out. If he had turned his car but a few inches the accident could have been avoided. Mr. Waters accompanied by his wite and a gentleman were on their way to attend a funeral north of Howell. Mr. Waters went to the A. Baldwin's farm and borrowed a buggy wheel and informed the carrier that he would pay the repair bill. Mr. Foster finished his trip, but he is confined to his home today, and it will be everal days before he will be ab return to his route. The muscleshis left shoulder are badly torn and he is considerably bruised up.

THE RIGHT WAY TO CULTIVATE CORN

By C. H. SPURWAY, lastructor in Soils, Michigan Agricultural College

A successful corn grower once said "The best time to cultivate corn is portant vegetables. They belong to before it is planted." He had in mind the class known as annual vegetables the proper fitting of the soil for the and to the aut-class which are grown crop, rather than the cultivation for their fruit and seed parts. This which is usually given after the corn is seen in the row. Preparing a good seed bed is an important part of cort growing, but there are other things which must also be considered.

The best soil for corn is a deer rich, sandy or silty loam. This does not mean, however, that corn cannot be grown on any other kind of soil. It means that the largest yields are obtained from this kind. Profitable yields can be had from many different kinds of soil providing proper care is taken to prepare the ground before seeding, and proper methods of cultivation are followed,

The secret of preparing a good seed bed is to plow early and work often. One can hardly plow too early in the spring, providing the soil is in the proper condition for plowing. If the corn is to follow sod, then the sod of hay on it and the hay turned under late in the season. Many fields have been ruined for the season by doing this. The growing hay takes out the water, and if the season is dry, the great bulk of material below the furrow slice will cause trouble. This injury is greatest on the heavier soils. After plowing, work the soil down good. Harrow not once or twice, but

Additional Hospital Beds for the Treatment of the Tuberquiosis Are Being Established

Nearly 4,000 additional hospital beds Proves That Lydia E. Pinkfor consumptives in 39 states were provided during the year ending June according to a statement issued by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. This makes a total of over 80,000 beds, but only about one for every ten indigent tuberculosis patients in this country. in the last five years, the hospital provision for consumptives has increased from 14,428 in 1907, to over 80,000 in 1912, or over 100 per cent. New York state leads in the number of beds, having 8,350 on June 1; Massachusetts comes next with 2,800; and Pennsylvanis, a close third with 2,700 Alabama showed the greatest percentage of increase in the last year by adding 57 new beds to its 42 a year ago. Georgia comes next with 109 beds added to 240 a year ago. New York has the greatest numerical increase, having provided over 1,800 additional beds in the year.

Your Checks Are Receipte

"Pay-as-you-go" is an excellent maxim provided you pay by check. It's foolish to carry money on your person, except for the smallest purchases and incidentals, for aside from the care and inconvenience, there is always the danger of theft or loss.

But with a check book of this bank in your pocket the inconvenience and worry is eliminated. You write out a check for the exact amount of each purchase, your check atub is a record for reference and the check itself will later be returned to you by the bank and may be retained as a receipt.

Same people may think of the check account as being compliested. Nothing could be more simple, however. We keep books for you and there is a record for your every transaction.

This bank by its conservatism has brought gains to many a depositor who asked for advice. It will do the same for you. our account will be welcomed.

There was no sign of either Ialla, or her two.

Her sparkling eyes, turned full on me and ignoring all else, told me as plainly as words could have done that she had some message for me, and, suspecting that the moment for which I had been waiting for weeks had arrived, I walked slowly toward her, as though in a mood to parter. As we met, seemingly somewhat disconcerted by my steady gaze of profound and unconcealed admiration; she drew her uncouth vell across her lace and held out her bands, like one trained to tourist trade, that I might examine her wonderful rings. Those hands could never have known work, they were so soft and small; and arms more perfectly rounded were never modeled in marble by a master. Plainly this woman was not of the servant class, to which her companions as clearly belonged.

One of her hands was half closed, and as she laid it in mine it opened and a small piece of folded paper fell into my paim. Long accustomed to ways out of the ordinary, I gave no sign beyond an involuntary start which she felt, but no one else noticed, and proceeded, with much deliberation, to select a ring which i purchased as a souvenir of our first meeting. Not a word passed between us except as to the price of the ring, over which there was no speaking to him about the note I had received only a show for the benefit of any inquisitive persons who might be watching and, without.

Curious as to the contents of the communication which had come to me so strangely, but fearful of being watched by I knew not whom, it was some time before I went to my room to read the note by the light of a tallow candle. The mysterious missive read:

"You are Captain Boynton. Are you willing to undertake a difficult and perhaps dangerous mission? Answer tomorrow night through the channel by which you receive this. Here was a romantic promise of something new and real in the way of excitement, for I could imagine nothing stereotyped growing out of such an unusual beginning, and I rejoiced.

Inasmuch as the only man in Catto who knew mo as Captain Hoynton, and who was acquainted with my favorite occupation, was a confidant of the Khedive, it naturally occurred to me that the oily Towlk Pasha was mixed up in it some way, and I suspected that it involved another accret movement against British rule In Egypt. The latter suspicion was soon verifled, and there nover has been any doubt in my own mind that I was equally correct in the conjecture as to the participation or at least the allent approval, of Tewfik,

I was to stand in close to the shore just after dark, with all lights doused, and it was thought that Arabi would be safe on board long before sunrise so that we could be well clear of the land by daybreak.

When I finally started back to my hotel Ialia. and her attendants were waiting for me in the alley, for it was not wide enough to be called she passed closely beside me, walking slowly, a street. They started on abead, but we had gone only a few short blocks when her four companion; walked briskly away and she wait. ed for me in a deep shadow.

"How did your business turn out?" she inquired anxiously, as I bowed low before her. Her voice, which I had been longing to hear, was soft and clear, as well became her, and her radiant beauty alone shone forth through the darkness.

It is possible that there may be some other reason for the situation in which you find yourself, but I doubt it. It is known to many people that I know you, and if any one should want to get in communication with same of sait, six tablespoonfuls of you I will be able to tell him how to do it."

Possessing all the pride of a full-blooded man, I resented the calm assertion that I had been ensuared by a dirt, but, in looking back at it now, I am willing to admit that probably in a week. Fine for ments. my friend was right about it. Feeling that for once my destiny had played it a bit low down on me, I crossed the Mediterranean and took a French liner for New York. Eleven years later Arabi was pardoned and roturned to Ekypt, but his influence among his own people was gone; the fact that he had accopted a pardon implied, to their astute minds, a secret agreement with their enemies and caused him to be regarded as a tool of the British. But, the fires of freedom are still burning, and now and again, signal-smoke is seen rising over India.
