TWELFTH ANNIVERSARY

Rev. A. A. Schoen of St. Paul's Church Has Been in the Ministry 20 Years.

Rev. A. A. Schoen, pastor of St. Paul's church, has been in the ministry twenty years, twelve of which he has spent in Chelsea concluding with last Sunday. In the evening the young people of the church gave an interesting anniversary program, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, and a number of addresses, closing with an anniversary hymn especially written for the occasion

Obituary.

Catherine Oxtoby was: born in Belona, Yates county, New York, March 3, 1828, and died at her home here Monday, March 10, 1913.

The deceased came to Michigan with her parents in 185%. She was united in marriage with Loren Babcock February 6th, 1861, by the Rev. Whitmore pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. She was a member of the Methodist church 65 years, and a member in Chelsea when the services were held in the school house She loved the house of God, and was a regular attendant upon its services until her health failed. She possessed high ideals, and broad sympathies, Her strong faith in God, her loyalty to His cause, and her activity in all departments of the church work will long be remembered by those who knew her. The influence of her zeal and devotion to her Lord will reher. She was generous to a fault, and her kindness to the poor was best known by the many needy ones, who were blessed by her labors of love. Her favorite hymn was "Beyond the labors of love."

Her favorite hymn was "Beyond the labors of love. The love resulted in the nomination of James Finnell, of Ann Arbor, and Frank Joslyn, of Ypsilanti.

The nominees on the republican ticket for county auditor are William Bacon, of Chelsea, and Edward Hauser, of Saline.

The love resulted in the nomination of John Bunyon's "Pilgrims Progress." It consists of four magnificent reels, or over 4,000 feet and is one of the most interesting and instructive films shown at the Princess in a long time. Gates of Paradise." And the hymn vas sung at the service.

She was survived by her husband, a step-son, E C. Babcock, of Grass Lake, and four nieces, Mrs. A. R. Welch, of Pontiac, Mrs. E. H. Haga-pupils wrote the examination and the examining board granted 203 diplomas. County School Commissioner Essery finds 77 of these entered the high schools of this county and nine, the high schools of the adjoining counties. The total number attending high school is about 42 per cent of those receiving diplomas,

To ascertain the character of the work that these pupils did the first semester of this school year, the School Commissioner wrote the superintendents of the ten high schools which these pupils attend. The questions he submitted are as follows:

1. How many failed in one subject?

2. How many failed in two subjects? Five.

3. How many failed in three subjects? Four. 4. How many failed in all subjects?

5. How do they compare with those who received their training in the grades of your school?

The number after questions 1, 2, 3, t, is the total from the ten schools. Expressed in other words 88.3 per cent of the 85 pupils passed in all subjects and 94 percent passed in all but two subjects.

Six of the high schools answer the 5th question by "Just as good," or "Very favorably." Two answer the 5th question by "Except in Algebra," and two by "Except in English," they compare very favorably.

One superintendent writes, "We received 14 of the rural 8th graders this year and we find the class better than the class we received last year. There are some stars in this year's Vegetarian Side Dish.

There are times when it is profitable to have lived in Bohemia and to be young together. Guy Pene Dubois, the art critic and painter, was invited to dinner by Rockwell Kent, and after Dubois reached Kent's studio home he suddenly remembered that Kent was an avowed champion of vegetarianism and a strict follower of meatless diet. Dubois had a vic lent attack of duty and declared he had to telephone his office. As one of those instruments was not a part of the Kent studio he went out to attend to the promptings of conscience. When he came back and sat down to the table he produced from his pocket triumphantly a good-sized bologna done up in tinfoil. "Now," he announced, as he put it down on his plate, "we can begin."

Proof from Michigan Farmers

The Great Worm Destroyer and Conditioner

The results Michigan farmers are getting from "Sal-Vet" and the way they endorse it is proof conclusive that this great worm destroyer and conditioner is the greatest boon to farmers ever discovered. Here are a few of the hundreds of letters written to me by grateful Michigan farmers relating their experiences and results from "Sal-Vet". You may possibly know some of them personally. Read what they say:

"I have fed SAL-VET to all my sheep, hoga and pigs, and also to one of my work horses that was not in condition. The horses have rounded out splendidly, my sheep never looked so well at this time of of the year and my hoga and spring pigs are in the best of neath. I have always been slow to feed any of the took foods or medicines, believing that good feeding, and ordinary conditions ought to keep stock in good health, but I am well satisfied with the results obtained from SAL-VET; it has certainly improved to a marked degree, the condition of my stock." — W. H. SCHANTZ. Supt. Sheep Dept. Michigan Agricultural Society, Hastings, Mich.

"My SAL-VET is all gone, and as common salt does not begin to take its place. I wantyon to send me another keg at once. I am sure that $5.00 worth of SAL-VET saves me $10.00 worth of feed; all my sheep, cows and horses arodoing remarkably well. My experience has been that SAL-VET and worms cannot dwell together."—E.A.BONTRAGER, Fairview, Mich.

"After having used a 100-pound keg of your BAL-VET among our norses, cattle and sheep with gratifying results, I can neartily recommend all stockmen and especia ly sheepmen to give it a trial."—HARRY POTTER, Davison, Mich.

"I find SAL-VET all that it is claimed be."-JAMES NICOLL, Sands sky, Mich.

"Having thoroughly tested your SAL-VET I have found it to be exactly as you say it is. I feed it to hogs and colts and never had better results in my life Many hogs in the neighborhood died of cholera. I have had no rouble here. "-JOHN H. LEYENDECKER, Rt. 63, Byron Center, Mich.

"Sal-Vet" is a wonderful medicated salt - a preparation which is saving farmers hundreds of thousands of dollars. It is not only the surest and quickest remedy for worms, but also a tonic, digestive and conditioner which puts all farm animals in excellent condition, thus providing the most efficient disease preventive you can get. No trouble to feed it. You simply place it where all your farm animals can run to it freely—no drenching, no handling—no bother at all—they doctor themselves.

CHEAPEST and BEST

It is inexpensive—costing only one-twelfth of a cent a day for each sheep or hog and only a trifle more for larger animals. It saves feed—PREVENTS DISEASE—makes stock thrive and gain faster in fact repays you its small cost many times over. It is from 100% to 400% cheaper than other live stock preparations and far more efficient. The fact that it is sold on a "Money-back Guarantee" PROVES all this.

Simply call at my dealer's store and get enough "Sal-Vet" to last all your stock 60 days. Take it home with you and place it where all your farm animals can run to it freely, then watch results. If "Sal-Vet" don't do what I claim, if it don't rid your stock of the deadly stomach and intestinal worms and prove a paying investment for you, simply notify the dealer and he will refund your money in full. You won't be out a single penny. I take all the risk.

"I've been selling Studebaker Wagons and Buggies for over 30 years."

"I've sold them because my reputation as a dealer was at stake and from experience I have found that Studebaker means the best."

That tells the Story.

Farmers bought Studebaker wagons before the Civil war and they have been buying them ever since.

Because they had confidence in the name Studebaker and in the sturdy, dependable wagons and buggies they build.

And that confidence has been upheld. Studebaker wagons are built on honor and the Studebaker guarantee goes with every one.

There's a Studebaker for your needs—whether you live in city, town or country.

Number of Non-Fatal Accidents o Same Class of Emuoyes Decreased From 100 a Day to Sixty-five.

Since the workingmen's compensation and employers' liability act went into effect, a little more than six months ago, the average number of fatal accidents to employes of persons, firms, co-partnerships and corporations in Michigan have decreased from two a day to three every two days. This means a decerase of 25 per cent.

The average number of non-fatal accidents of the same class of employes have decreased from 100 a day

These figures are furnished by the state industrial board and are based on the fatalities and non-fatal accidents occurring to the employes of a little more than 7,000 employers of labor, from the largest railorad, manufacturing and mining companies down to the small shops, where the pay roll does not exceed a few hundred dollars weekly. This record is regarded by those who have the administration of the law in charge as conclusive business man for many years, killed proof of the wisdom of the legislative in enacting the law at the special session one year ago.

GAILROAD STATIONS DESTROYED BY FIRE IN CAMPAIGN OF IL A. C. VIOLENCE. IT IS ALL

"Give Us Votes" and Sign the Warran Giving Us Liberty" Were Among the Shoute Hurled at the King.

For the first time since the militant women of England inaugurated their campaign of violence as a means of getting the ballot, suffragettes made a personal attack on King George in London. If the attempt had not been expected and police arrangements made to repel it the British monarch might have suffered personal injuries at the hands of the mob of women who bore down on the royal coach. The attack was made near Marlborough house, while King George was returning to Buckingham palace after having opened the new session of parliament.

The attack was led by two women who had been standing in the line of spectators waiting for the king to pass. They were dressed in long cloaks beneath which were hidden Votes for Women's" banners. As the royal coach drew opposite "Gives us votes" and "Sign the warant giving us liberty," were among the shouts hurled at the king. One of the women waived a document over her head.

The police and escort of soldiers closed in about the carriage, while many men spectators ran forward, grabbing the women. Many other suffragettes who had apparently been waiting for a signal rushed out into the front and tried to pull the soldiers from their horses.

Pandemonium reigned and someone started the rumor that the king had been assassinated.

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound-Their Own Stories Here Told.

Beatrice, Neb. — "Just after my mar-riage my left side began to pain me and the pain got so severe at times that I suffered terribly with it. I visited three doctors and each one wanted to operate on me but I would not consent to an op-eration. I heard of the good Lydia E. I am in good health and I have two little girls."-Mrs.R. B. CHILD, Beatrice, Neb. The Other Case.

Cary, Maine .- "I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation, but my husband thought I had better write to you and I did so, stating my tymp-toms. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your Vegetable Compound."-Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Half an hour later Mrs. Tuckerman, hished of face, emerged from the reciption room and found a slender young woman, with a wreath of copreclored hair and fimid demeanor, vaiting, a violin in her hands. At the ight of her patroness she rose.

Well, so here you are," snapped Mrs. Tuckerman. "I don't know whether I shall want you or not. It depends on how tired my guests are after Krissel has played. You had better wait-you had better wait in the cloak room, and I'll give you three collars extra to take charge of the ladles' wraps, because my maid hasn't

"Mrs. Tuckerman," he exclaimed, "will you not present me to that young lady with the beautiful hair?"

A woman seated near by tittered loudly. She could not help it; this was the funniest thing that Herr Krissel had done. But Mrs. Tuckerman, perceiving the young performer, frowned angrily.

"O, my dear Herr Krissel," she said, you are mistaken. That is the cloak room maid. She has no business in here at all. I am very angry." "But the violin?" faltered Herr Kris-

"Well-I thought perhaps that as the young woman had some skill on that instrument she might possibly play us something later. But now I shall send her home at once."

She walked hurriedly toward the girl, but before she could whisper to her to leave the room she found that Herr Krissel was at her side. And the famous pianist did a still funnier thing than ever before. He put forth his hand and tugged at a locket on a slender chain of gold around the girl's pretty throat.

"Where did you get that?" he exclaimed tragically.

"It is my mother's," faltered the girl, recoiling from the pianist in "Your mother! You are a German?

That the tree vigorous than others, an indication lacks vigor may be recognized, but scales may be found, usually clustered about the buds of the preceding season's growth, or even on two-year-old wood, says a writer in the Baltimore American. The mature scales are grayish in color, being usually, but not always, somewhat lighter than the bark to which they are so closely attached. The mature females are nearly circular in shape, are approximately one-sixteenth inch in diameter, and each is somewhat raised in the center to form a slight protuberance or nipple, which is lighter in color than the rest of the scale. If this scale is carefully examined by means of a small magnifier, several concentric circles may be observed between the nipple and the outside edge; and if it be carefully raised with the point of a pin or a knife there will be revealed a minute bright yellow object, the insect itself.

Black Silk Stove Polish

ON'T imagine for a moment that all brands of stove polish are the same. Don't get the idea that to keep a nice glossy shine on your stove you must black it every few days. It's not a question of oft-repeated application. It's a question of the stove polish to use.

Black Silk Stove Polish is so much better than other stove polishes that there is absolutely no comparison—it s in a class all by itself.

It makes a brilliant glossy shine that don't rub or dust of. It anneals to the iron—becomes a part of the stove. It makes old stoves look like new and lasts four times as long as any other shine.

Get a can and give it a trial. Try it on your parlor stove, your cook stove, or your gas range. If you do not find it the best stove polish you ever used, your dealer is authorized to refund your money. Black Silk Stove Polish has been made by the same formula and sold under one name for 30 years. Here is what some of the ladies write us?

"I sent to you for a can of Black Silk Stove Polish and found it so much better than any I had ever used that I asked my hardware dealer to order a supply. He did so, and is now selling nearly everyone in the place your polish. I had no idea there could be such a difference in slove potishes."

"I was visiting friends and they used Black Silk Stove Polish on their stoves. It made the best shine I ever saw, and after blacking, the polish did not rub or dust off. It is way ahead of any polish I have ever used."

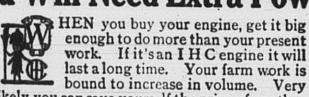

Ask Your Dealer for Black Silk Stove Polish and refuse a counterfelt brand. Costs you no more than the ordinary kind, so why not have the best. Made in liquid or paste—one quality. Black Silk Stove Polish Works, Sterling, Ill.

won in an open contest in which all separators were allowed to enter, embracing fifty consecutive runs, lasting over thirty days and covering milk from ten different breeds.

You would not expect to buy the best cow in a herd for the same price as the poorest cow. Neither would you sell your most productive cow at as cheap a price as your least productive cow. So it is with the United States Cream Separator.

The United States Cream Separator won the Grand Prize (highest award) at Seattle, 1909, the Gold Medal at the California State Fair, 1911, the only award on cream separators at the Utah State Fair, 1912; while the dairy products of the U. S. not only won the Gold Medal at the National Dairy Show, Chicago, October 24-November 2, 1912, but have been awarded other Gold Medals, Silver Cups and First Prizes without number

The daily work of the United States Cream Separator in the agricultural colleges and on hundreds of thousands of farms backs up its reputation as the closest skimming cream separator;

Prof. Haecker, of Minnesota Agricultural College,

St. Anthony Park, Minn., Jan. 16, 1912. We have used the United States Cream Separator at the Minnesota Dairy School of Agriculture for more than fifteen years, and we have always found then to be standard machines, not only doing first-class work, but very durable and rarely T. L. HAECKER, Professor of Dairy Husbandry, in charge.

Professor Mortensen, of Iowa State College,

Iowa State College. Ames, Iowa, Feb. 12, 1912. We have operated one of the Interlocking Style and are pleased to inform you that we consider it to be a high class machine. It is operated with ease and is a close skimmer. It has in every respect given good satisfaction.

According to Capacity

Old separators of all makes taken in part payment ::::

The 1913 Model U.S. is Operated with Half the Power of Older Models

Important improvements have made the 1913 model United States Separator one of the lightest running cream Separators made.

The skimming area of the U.S. skimming device has been nearly doubled enabling the latest models to skim practically twice as fast. This double capacity of the bowl has permitted the reduction of the bowl diameter nearly one-half without reducing the capacity. The bowl in the 1913 model United States is one of the smallest as well as easiest running used in separators.

Improved gear construction. The angle of the gear teeth determines the effectiveness of the power applied at the crank. A new slant in the gear teeth enables all the power applied on the crank to be used in turning the bowl. The weight of the handle alone starts the U.S. Separator.

Bear in mind that not only can any child or woman easily do the skimming with the light running United States Separator but that this quality is wholly due to improved construction and in no way to a weakening of its famous wearing qualities.

Ex-President National Dairy Show.

I do not see how one could get a better separator than the "United States" if they all work as this one does. I am satisfied with it in every respect and take pleasure in recommending it to my friends.

"Easiest Running Machine There Is."

Bauta Bros. and Company a few months ago, and it is the seasiest running machine there is. The new bowl has the best skimming device made. I will further state that the new U. Separator can be cleaned in half the time needed to wash any other separator. other separator.

Leading Wisconsin Farmer Says

I am separating the milk from thirty-six cows with one of your No. 14 Interlocking Separators and am very well pleased with the work it is doing. One thing that I am especially well pleased with, it is that it will separate its rated capacity, do good work and produce a uniform density of cream. It is very simple to operate and one of the easiest separators to wash and keep clean there is on the market. I certainly recommend the Interlocking Separator to any prospective purchaser.

Make More Money
You are going to run some separator twice a day. If it does not skim clean you are not making all the money that actually belongs to you. If it is hard to run or difficult to wash you are doing unnecessary work for which you are getting absolutely no return either in money or satisfaction.

Before buying any separator why not take up with our FREE offer to give you a practical demonstration of 1913 model United States Cream Separator right at your home and personally try out our claims?

Remember this demonstration costs you nothing, carries no obligation to buy and is offered to get you acquainted with the big 1913 improvements in the U.S. Simply fill out and mail the coupon. NOW is the time.

Infraction, Though Ready Enough With Hospitality,

The following is related of a good justice of the peace in Massachusetts in Colonial times. On a cold night in winter a traveler called at his house for lodging. The ready hospitality of the justice was about being displayed when the stranger unluckily uttered a word which his host considered profane. Whereupon he informed his guest that he was a magistrate, pointed out the nature of the offense, and explained the necessity of its being excustom at that time allowed the magistrate to convict and punish at once, and in this case the magistrate acted as accuser, witness, jury, judge and sheriff, all in one. Cold as it was, the worthy justice, aided by his son, conducted the traveler to the place of punishment, an open spot near the meeting house where the stocks were placed. Here the wayfarer was confined in the usual manner, the benevolent executor of the law remaining with him to beguile the time of its tedium by edifying conversation.

At the expiration of the hour he was reconducted to the house, and hospitalably entertained until the next morning, when the traveler departed. -Green Bag.

HEAT ASCRIBED TO BACTERIA

Discoveries of Scientist May Account for Otherwise Mysterious Burning of Haystacks.

The familiar phenomenon of the heating of hay in the stack has usually been ascribed to purely chemical reactions. Recent researches carried out by Miche, however, show that the process is a physiological one, due to bacteria and other lowly organisms, It was found that sterilized hay would not heat, but that if sprinkled with dinary hay it did so. "It was the endup of a very strenuous week which began with a fire in a lodging house in San Antonio, where I had to get out with less than half of my then very scanty wardrobe. I had to get out of a window on the fourth floor at that, and the fire ladder was a trifle short. I had to hang by my hands from the window sill, and as I dropped a fireman caught me between the ladder and the building and then half carried me down to safety.

"Two days later I was one of the last they dug out from under the trucks and debris of a baggage car and with no bones broken and few bruises worth mentioning. It was full 60 miles before the next stop, he said, and I would be a fool to walk.

English Boys Trained for Chefs. With the general complaint of the high cost of living the Universal Cooking and Food exhibition which was recently held in London attracted more than usual attention. Demonstrations were given each day by continental experts in foreign household cooking. The London county council is training a number of English boys just out of school to become chefs and waiters. That the experiment is proving a success was shown by a luncheon, attended by more than 100 guests, which who are being thus trained. The feature which distinguished the exhibition from all those previously held was the effort to give a practical demonstration of the low cost at which nutritious food, properly prepared, could be placed on the workingman's table. It was shown, for example, that a good soup for fifty people could be obtained for 58 cents, German pie for fifty people for $1.09, and many other nourishing dishes were exhibited which were made from what, in the ordinary household, is thrown away as scraps or waste through ignorance of how it can be utilized.

This burning is taken as showing that some combustible fiber had been intermingled. Marco Polo, in the thirteenth century, reported a cloth which the natives of territory now included in Russian Siberia claimed as having been made of salamander skin. Marco Polo satisfied himself. so it seems, that he had to do with a mineral substance. In fact, he found out something as to its manufacture. In this same general region of country asbestos is today known to exist.

Once So Bad in Panama a Cat Committed Suicide, According to Returned Traveler.

"One of the most striking features of the present condition of the Panama canal zone is the absence of mosquitoes, which at the beginning of the work by the United States, were a great menace to health," remarked Capt. A. B. Delanoy of New York. the canal, I visited Panama, and I became thoroughly informed about the Panama mosquito. On a recent trip there I went into nearly every section solemnly, "Where did you buy those of the zone, in the lowland and upland, and throughout the rainy season, and I failed to discover a single insect.

"I remember that on one occasion my company sent me to Panama on a wrecking expedition. We had on board our vessel a pet cat which had been aboard the ship for a long time. She was just an ordinary ship cat and knew all about fleas. But when we got to Panama, the cat soon gave evidence of being uncomfortable. We discovered that the mosquitoes were annoying her. Finally in desperation the cat jumped overboard and committed suicide to get rid of the mosquitoes. She simply could not stand the Panama mosquitoes."

In reference to the issue of wooden similar cartridges are used in the British army for instruction purposes -to teach recruits how to load their rifles. The or nary brass cartridge case is fitted with a wooden bullet painted red. The cartridge does not contain explosive-a charge of cordite -neither are percussion caps fitted. The brass cartridge cases are further perforated in two or more places, in order that instructors can tell at a glance that the ammunition is really "dummy" and that its use can endanger nobody. From this explanation it picked up on the Balkan battlefields could not possibly have been fired the Turkish troops when they discovrered that they were useless.

Carried Away.

Not a little amusement was caused at one of the theaters in Portsmouth the other evening. A new drama enbeing presented for the first time, and the audience had been following with bated breath the thrilling adventures of the hero, who had been turned out of the Russian army for supposed neglect of duty.

A most critical point in this story of Russian life had been reached, where the hero's father, who lay dying, calls for a pen in order to sign a will disinheriting his son. Just as the pen was handed to him a girl's voice from the gallery exclaimed:

"Give him another chance, mister!" Needless to say, the audience turned from thrill to laughter.

Demand Rights for Woman.

The Society of Austrian Women has submitted, a petition to the government asking for action on the case of Frau Kuniticka, the woman who was elected deputy to the parliament of Bohemia, and who has not yet been allowed to take her seat in that body, because the authorities refuse to discuss the validity of her election. In the petition the society empasized the fact that the election conformed with | comns. all the rules, and there is no mention of women not being eligible to stand as candidates for election in any law. the will of the people shall be allowed to prevail, and Frau Kuniticka duly admitted to the Bohemian parliament.

Woman Says Too Much Pie. Miss Elizabeth Fulton, head of the domestic science department of the State Normal school of Kansas, in a lecture recently declared that the American pie is the cause of many divorces in this coutry. Working on the nerves of men, pie makes the men morose, and that makes their wives unhappy. "Soon the divorce courts foom up," she said. "America has gone pie crazy, and must turn back to fresh in connexion wi' a burrd I'll no fruit, and not stick to the indigestible but never afore this with a se

"We had a bungalow this summer," said a man when he got back to town, "at a place where we could get really truly fresh eggs. > "'Well, I'll go out and see.' "And then he would go out and bring us in some eggs, absolutely fresh laid eggs, right out of the hen's nests. And what eggs they were! A luxury impossible in the city; but, strange as it might seem, a luxury that however one's tastes might be cultivated in other directions, not everybody would appreciate.

"We had a visitor up from the city one week and on the first day he was there we gave him some of those eggs for breakfast: 'we' thought we would surprise him; but as it turned out he surprised us. We watched him unobstrusively, expecting to hear him with the first mouthful, break out in praise of the same, but he never said a word, and he looked sort of strange over them someway, and then we said "'Aren't those wonderful eggs?"

"'They are very nice indeed,' he said. 'but there doesn't seem to be much taste to them; is there?"

"You see, he had become so accus tomed to older eggs, and to storage eggs, with their stored up, accumus lated flavor, eggs that had a very distinct taste of some sort, that at first our new laid eggs with their delicately delightful flavor had no appeal for him; on the contrary they seemed tasteless. But he came to love them before he went away."

SOLD HOSE "SIGHT UNSEEN"

In His Capacity as Auctioneer Indianapolis' Mayor Also Indulged in Some Pithy Remarks.

Mayor Lew Shank was auctioneer at Terre Haute for the Woman Franchise league in its sale of Christmas packages and had a laughing crowd in front of him. The articles were sold "sight unseen," but toward the last the mayor peeped and hinted at what he was offering. For instance:

"This box contains hose; they come above the ankles." A girl bought them. They were men's socks. "Are you married?" asked the mayor.

"No," said the girl, "Well, then, you will have no use for them.' Mayor Shank sold a box containing fancy suspenders and told the suf-

by women as well as men. "And, look here," said he when holding up a dainty article. "Hand embroidered and hand perfumed. I think it would do to stick down some of these low-necked dresses a lot of the women wear. I'd rather see a girl with her dresses short at the bottom than at the neck."-Indianapolis

But the real purpose of the resin. pitch, tar or pure turpentine was to counteract the tendency of inferior wines to turn into vinegar. Other things used for the same object were vegetable ashes, gypsum, burnt marble, calcined shells, almonds, parched salt, goat's milk, cedar cones, gall nuts, blazing pine torches and red hot irons. Also salts of lead, which were found so poisonous that eventually they had to be prohibited, with severe penalties.

> New Domestic Service. It is said that a turn has at last come in the tide and that thousands of young women are leaving British workshops to seek domestic service. Many of these are going to Canada, and a still greater number to Australia and New Zealand, where such service is particularly well paid. Few come to the United States. A Melbourne journal says: "We heard of one of these new arrivals who was a willing worker. After several days she produced a dainty dish surrounded by scalloped paper. Her mistress complimented her upon the decorative work. 'Lor' bless me, mum,' said the girl, 'that's one thing I'm clever at. You see, mum, my work in London was a'makin' of paper linin's for

Serving The Public, City and Interurban

There are those who sometimes forget that the great system of electric railways -the Detroit United lines-is more than a local system for the city of Detroit alone. It has a more important function than that, a much more important function. It is the great railway system for many miles beyond the political corporate limits of the metropolis of the state.

The Detroit United lines embraces practically EIGHT HUNDRED MILES OF TRACK, GIVING A CITY SERVICE IN PORT HURON, IN MT. CLEMENS, IN ANN ARBOR, IN PONTIAC AS WELL AS IN DETROIT, TOGETHER WITH CITY SERVICE IN WINDSOR, WALKERVILLE AND SANDWICH ON THE CANADIAN SIDE OF THE DETROIT RIVER. THERE IS ALSO THE INTER-VENING TERRITORY COVERED BY THE INTERURBAN SERVICE.

In maintenance, in operation, in planning for the future the property involved is treated as one great whole, having in mind the growth of all sections affected. It is a railway operated for the common good of all the community served by it.

The railway commissions of Michigan and Ohio, as well as the Interstate Commerce Commission of the United States, have certain fixed forms for making reports of electric railways. One of these forms calls for the classification—that is, the division under certain prescribed headings-of expenditures for road and equipment. Leaving out of consideration the expenditures in the province of Ontario, the reports of these several commissions show that DURING THE YEAR 1912 there was spent under such classifications for additions and betterments, the sum of $1,712,842.62all for the improvement of the railway and its service. To this is to be added the sum of $59,708.13 expended for similar purpose on the properties across the Detroit river, making a total of OVER ONE AND THREE-QUARTER MILLION DOL-LARS SPENT FOR ADDITIONS TO AND IMPROVEMENT OF THE PROPER-TY SO WELL SERVING THE PEOPLE OF DETROIT AND ELSEWHERE.

AS A MATTER OF FACT, THE COMPANY SPENT FOR ADDITIONS AND BETTERMENTS NEARLY A MILLION DOLLARS MORE THAN ITS NET IN-COME AFTER ALL THE NECESSARY CHARGES WERE PAID OUT OF THE

An analysis of the expenditures shows that for ballast there were expended $92,-604.59; for grading, $52,412.12; for rails, rail fastenings and joints, $87,117.63, while for cars and the electrical equipment thereof was spent the large sum of $466,170.71. The operating expenses of all the lines, city and interurban, amounted to nearly SEVEN AND THREE-QUARTER MILLIONS OF DOLLARS—to be exact, $7,-

The task of keeping up this great electric highway, between town and country, means the constant expenditure of large sums of money for building bridges, trestles and culverts, for crossings, fences, cattle guards and signs, for telephone lines, for poles and wires, as well as for additions to power plants and power equipment, and

Progress and improvements go hand in hand.

In line with the policy of the company for the betterment of service and equipment, curves are rapidly being straightened out, and grades are being brought to high speed levels through filling in the valleys and cutting down the hills. This policy of the company calls, too, for the gradual moving of the tracks off the country highways to private right-of-ways, leaving the roads to the ordinary vehicular traffic. These private right-of-ways are being secured through agreement of purchase or through other means established by the laws of the state.

Indicative of the great importance of these interurban lines to the social and business welfare of the people affected is the number of interurban passengers carried in 1912 on this side of the border—a total of 26,963,700 passengers.

Early on Easter mersion.

Just as I was pondering in my mind. as my good colored auntie would say. how I would amuse the children in planning for Easter, Polly, my unfailing one, dropped in and said: "Let's have an old-fashioned Easter like we did when me were young."

"But, Polly," I wailed, "there was no erg trust then, eggs weren't 50 cents a dozen, and we had real hens and a real barn and we had mother's piece bag and everything that children haven't now."

After this wall from my amually cheerful self, Polly gave me this outline, which i pues on: Ask just the neighborhood children, say six or eight, and save enough perfectly fresh eggs to allow two for each guest. Set the time on the Saturday before Easter, from three to five, and request each child, boy as well as girl, to bring an apron.

Hide the eggs in nests hidden carefully behind the furniture, and worn the little hunters to be most cautious in handling the eggs, for they are to take them home for their Easter breakfast. It will be well to provide small handled baskets for each one. Tie a bow of yellow ribbon on those for the boys and white for the girls. They will make acceptable favors. After the eggs are found tie on the aprons and go into the kitchen, where squares of bright figured calico may be sewed tightly around some of the eggs and dropped into a kettle of boiling water for a few minutes.

These eggs will come out beautifully marked with the colors and pattern of the cloth upon them. On some of the eggs stick little dabs of beeswax, ble imaginable, all glorious jonquills, then drop in boiling cochineal water, bunnies and fluffy yellow chicks. A white. Easter Monday Party.

The Easter dawn is approaching, and with it comes requests for parties, especially affairs for children, who simply adore the "bunny" season. I must tell you how a mother of three is to entertain at "an all day" Easter Monday party, the guests being seven of the neighborhood children. The invitations are written on egg-shaped cards sealed with a violet paster, or the dearest Easter chick just coming out of the shell may be found among the seals or pasters, as the children

The ages of the guests range from five to eight years. A third floor chamber is known as the children's room, and it is to be prettily decorated with flowers and branches of budding fruit trees which have been placed in water for several days. There should be a mass of blossoms on them by Easter. Ten little hoops have been prepared thus for one of the games, and each one is to be wound with a colored tape. The boy who can roll his hoop twice around the room without letting it turn over will be awarded a bag of marbles, and the little girl who accomplishes the same feat will have a dear little doll baby dressed all in white.

BY BARAH ORDAN

"Minnie is going to be married, said the girl who likes to balk. ion't suppose you are acquainted with Minule, by the way. She's been a member of our family for six years and has done the second work. You can't imagine what a vortex of emotion we are plunged into because of this move of Minnie's. It is like having your father or your mather suddenly arise and say casually: 'Well, I must be going now. I'm timed of this outfit and guess I'll move on!" "Minale is the least excited of any of us. I said to her the other day, as she was laboriously dusting the tops of the window casings: 'Goodness. Minnie, aren't you getting hervous and excited over your wedding? You are so calm and act just as though mething unusual was going to happen!" Minnie looked down benignly from the top of the stepladder. 'No,' she said, apologetically. Somehow it doesn't bother me in the least. You see, Jim is just an ordinary fellow and I'm not particularly eet up over getting him. Almost any girl could a-got him-he's so good matured

"I sat down at once," said the girl who likes to talk, "because I saw bere were vistus in Minnie's mind I had not suspected.

"Minnie paused in her labors and looked at me puther pitying. "That's as how you look at it, she confided to me. I'm not much on holding hands. I tell you,' she said with a sudden rush of confession. 'I don't know as I'd got married if you and your family hadn't been so unsteady the last few years! If you aren't going down the Nile you're off to Callfornia or other heathen parts, and I like people around me. I'm tired of staying here for weeks and months with perhaps just one lone man to look after. "'Let me tell you, when you and

STEAMER LUGAND HITS REEF; 116 RESCUED

Cause of Accident Still Mystery; Of ficials of Line Have Been Notified.

One hundred and sixteen passengers all of whom were emigrants, bound from Spain to Cuha, with the exception of two first class passengers, were taken off the British steamer, Lugano, ashore on the Ajax reef off the Florida coast, by the tug Rescue Sunday after-

The grateful passengers were lauded here by the tug. All have been housed in buildings along the docks cots having been prepared for them before the tug Rescue arrived.

The transfer of the passengers from the ill-fated Lugano to the Rescue, was effected in two hours, small boats being used. Of the passengers rescued, 12 were women, 15 children and the remaining $9, men.

Boat Hits Reef.

It was 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning when the Lugano suddenly struck the reef. Captain Penwill immediately realized that the position of the vessel was serious. Distress rockets and wireless calls remained unanswered for hours.

Finally the message was picked up ov the United States wireless station here. At the same time, it was intercepted by the tug Rescue, bound for this port. The latter vessel immediately set out for the Lagano and had succeeded in taking off her passengers before additional tugs, sent from kere, arrived at the scene.

ERUPTION LIKE PIMPLES

Wathena, Kan.-"My child's scalp trouble became so bad that I was ashamed to have anyone see him. His head had a solid scab on it. He also had a terrible breaking out on his face which was gradually growing worse. The eruption was like pimples which developed into sores when he scratched, which he did almost constantly. Baby would almost scratch himself

"I had used several different kinds of salve, none of them helping in the least bit, when I saw the Cuticura advertisement in the paper and it made me think of the good results my sister had when she used it for her children. I I'md only used Cutieura Soap and Ointment about two weeks before I noticed that the seres were almost entirely gone, and it must have been a month or six weeks he was troubled before I began the treatment. He would get easy when I would put the Cuticura Ointment on kim. Cuticura Soap and Ointment completely cured him and he has a clear complexion now." (Signed) Mrs. W. H. Hughes, Dec. 31, 1911.
