Sherwin-Williams

Lime-Sulphur Solution is a simple and economical remedy for scale, insects and fungus diseases. Tt contains practically no sediment, does not crystallize, and retains its strength indefinitely. Sherwin-Williams' solution can be used as a summer or fungicide spray by proper dilution. It gives the fruit and foliage added color and alsmooth skin, and is particularly effective in eradicating scale insects.

Burned to the Ground.

Mr. and Mrs. Stowell Wood of Lima Center lost their residence by a fire which was discovered about 6:30 o'clock last Sunday morning. The blaze started in the roof and it was caused from a defective chimney.

The neighbors gathered at the home as soon as possible after the alarm was sounded but were unable to save any of the contents of the home except those that were in the parior. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wood who occupied a room on the upper floor escaped in her robe de chambre. All of the contents and forty dollars in cash that were in the rooms on the second floor were soon consumed by the flames. The property insured in the Wash-tenaw Mutual Fire Insurance Co. and on Monday Director O. C. Burkhart adjusted the loss at $760 of which $466 were on the contents and $300 on the house. The amount is two-thirds of the total of the insurance carried by Mr. Wood.

For the present the family are occupying the home of Miss Estella

CANADA WINS

THE COLORADO SILVER TROPHY FOR OATS WON A SECOND

The most recent achievement of Canada's West is winning for the sec ond time the magnificent $1,500 silver trophy awarded by the State of Colo rado for the best peck of oats. At Columbus, Ohio, in 1911, J. C. Hill & Sons of Lloydminster, Saskatchewan, placed a peck of oats grown on their farm in competition, with oats from every part of the world. The judges had no difficulty in deciding, and the award was given to the Saskatchewan grown oats. In 1912, the Corn Exposition had no exhibition, and our Canadian friends, although ready for a second contest had no opportunity. In 1913, the exhibition of the Society was held at Columbus, S. C., and it is said of it that it was one of the best yet held. At this exhibition, which comprised corn and all the smaller grains, Hill & Sons of Lloydminster had on exhibition for the contest another peck of oats grown on their Saskatchewan farm, in 1912. There was no trouble for the judges, no time necessarily lost in reaching a decision, Hill & Sons won, and for the second time their name will appear on the crest of the cup. The third space will doubtless be occupied by their name, and then this splendid trophy will be

During the past few years Western Canada grains-wheat, oats, barley and flax-have been in competition with grains from all other countries, and in every case their superiority has been shown. It is not only in oats, but it is in wheat, in barley and in flax, that Canada more than holds its own, when placed side by side with grains from Stanton tells of his carliste and they does teacher. Stanton comes to track Stanton comes to track ick, but makes race.

There was a bad turn. His eyes on the machine in front, Stanton rounded the banked curve at a pace which sent the shricking crowd of spectators recoiling from the danger-line and sprayed yellow soil high into the air. As the Mercury lurched into the straight stretch beyond, as Floyd was in the act of turning to examine the rear tires, there came a sharp explosion and a reeling stagger of the car as a rear casing blew out, wrenched itself bodily from the wheel and rolled like a hoop into a field a hundred yards away.

The machine tottered to the edge of the road, stopping under the powerful brakes. Floyd sprang out, dragging loose one of the extra tires car-for that turn," he countered, in the blurred accent so softly deceptive. "No tire built is goin' to stick on a wheel under such roughin'."

Stanton shot a glance askant out of the corner of a stormy blue-black eye. He was irritated by the lost time, he felt more ill than he could have been brought to admit, and interference pricked him like a spur. "I'll give you a lesson in driving."

he cast across his shoulder, and bent over the wheel

It was Stanton at his worst and best who made the next two circuits of the long course. Other racers, warned by their mechanicians of the thunderbolt bearing down upon them, drew prudently to one side, preferring the chance of later regaining the advantage. From every angle and curve the people fied, at sight of the gray car followed by its whirlwind of dust and carrying the huge "5" on its hood.

Twice the Mercury rushed past the grand-stand, to a tumult of cheers drowned by the car's own roar. The second time, the two men glimpsed an official rising, megaphone in hand, and rightly guessed that they had made the fastest circuit of the day.

And Floyd had received the promised lesson, for Stanton had safely negotlated the turn that before cost them a tire, at a pace equally fast.

Safely, once; but, not content, he came around the second time driving as furiously, with unslackened speed. Down upon the turn they swept again, Stauton unerringly repeating his exquisite feat of skill and twisting the Mercury around on the two inside wheels; then the predicted happened. The crack of an exploding tire came while they were on the bend, instantly echoed by the bursting of its mate from the opposite wheel; the car tore iself from control under the double shock and shot off the course into the field beyond, plowing deep furrows in the soft earth until it overturned with a final crash.

Partly held by his steering-wheel. Stanton was flung out on the meadow grass as the car upset, its speed then so much checked that he escaped scarcely bruised. Floyd, unprotected, had been hurled from his seat by the first shock and lay half-stunned near the edge of the course.

From far and near came the people's cries of horror and shouts for aid. But

"Floyd!" he panted. "Floyd!" Floyd was already rising to one There was a taxicab waiting; to it lnee; gasping for breath, soiled with Stanton led the way. blood welling from a jagged rent in large hotels of the city, and neither dust and grass-stains, and with the Twenty minutes after she left the course, the Mercury shot down it once more. By the time the grand-stand was fully aware that "Stanton had got his again," and the ambulance had been hurried clanging to the idity. scene of the possible tragedy, the Mercury whirled past the judges, running more comet-like than ever.

But Stanton took the turns conservatively; for him The race was lost. Even Stanton could not regain the half-hour lead given his competitors. Late in the fourth hour he signaled Floyd to lean closer, and when he was obeyed:

"Where's the Duplex?" he questioned eagerly.

Stanton shook als head, but let out his car a little faster. The Mercury came across the line, at the finish, just five minutes behind the Atalanta; to receive fully as great an ovation as the winning car. The spectacular driving, the record of the fastest lap and highest speed ever made on that course, the second place won in spite of the accident, almost eclipsed the Atalanta's victory.

In the midst of the joyous tumult, Floyd descended, stiff and weary enough after the continuous run of ried, while Stanton reached for the five hours and fifty-eight minutes. But tool-box. ## EFFECTIVE METHOD OF ERADICATING THE APHIS AND BARK LICE OF VARIOUS KINDS

Injurious Little Insects Safely Housed Underneath Scales, Adhering to Bark of Fruit Trees May Be Dislodged by Application of Lye and Soapsuds

No coddling moth in this orchard. It was sprayed at exactly the right time. The worms hatch out just as the blossoms form and seek a hiding place in the blossom end of the apple. Spraying must be done just before the blossoms fall and before the calyx closes so that the poison will run down into the blossom and kill the worm. No use to spray after the buds have

The Best Bargain You Ever Made

OW do you measure the value of a bargain? Suppose you bought an engine that did practically all of your hardest work for you, sawing, pumping, grinding, etc., and that saved so much money that it soon paid for itself. Would you call that a good bargain?

An I H C engine will do all that, and more. Having paid for itself, it works steadily year after year until, like our Clay County friend who has used an IHC engine for six years, you will say, "My IHC engine is the best bargain Tever made."

IHC Oil and Gas Engines

are thoroughly dependable, and unusually durable. The fine-grained, grey iron cylinders and pistons are worked together to a perfect fit. Ground piston rings insure maximum power from the explosion. The fuel mixer is the most effective known. Bearings are large and carefully fitted. No part is too heavy to be efficient, yet every part is amply strong.

I H C engines are made in all styles—verti-cal and horizontal; portable and stationary; air and water-cooled; in sizes from 1 to 50horse power, to operate on gas, gasoline, naphtha, distillate, kerosene or alcohol. Oil tractors, 12 to 60-horse power, for plowing, Coughs and Consumption.

Coughs and colds, when neglected, always lead to serious trouble of the lungs. The wisest thing to do when you have a cold that troubles you is to get a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. You will get relief from the first dose, and finally the cough will disappear. O. H. Brown, of Muscadine, Ala., writes: "My wife was down in bed with an obstinate cough, and I honestly believe had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, she would not be living to-day." ## NEW INCOME TAX STARTS AT $4,000

Elaborate Provision for Graduated Payment System in New Tariff Bill.

Washington, D. C .- Included in the Democratic tariff revision bill is an income tax section, which would require every resident of the United States who earns more than $4,000 a year to pay a tax of 1 per cent, on his earnings in excess of the exemption. This would not compel the man who earns only $4,000 to pay a tax, but it would demand that one who this section on the free list after three | earned $4,100, for example, pay into the government treasury an annual tax of 1 per cent, on $100, or $1,

The bill also would provide higher rates of taxation for persons, with larger incomes, adding a surtax of 1 per cent. additional on earnings in excess of $20,000; 2 per cent. additional on earnings in excess of $50,000, and 3 per cent. additional on earnings in excess of $100,000.

How Surtax Would Be Imposed.

Under the surtax provisions the man who earns $20,000 would pay to the government each year at the rate of per cent. on $16,000 ($4,000 exempt), or $160. If he earns $30,000 he would pay 1 per cent. on $16,000, and 3 per cent, on $10,000, making his annual tax $360. The person with a $50,000 income would pay 1 per cent. on $16, 000 and 2 per cent, on $30,000-a total tax of $760. The man with an income of $100,000 would be required to pay 1 per cent, on $16,000, 2 per cent, on $30,000, and 3 per cent. on $50,000, which would be $1,500, bringing his total income tax to $2,266. Anyone with a net income of a million would pay this $2,260 on his first $100,000 and in addition he would pay per cent. on $900,000, which would bring his total tax to $38,260.

This bill also would re-enact the present corporation tax law, imposing a 1 per cent, tax on the earnings of corporations, stock companies, insurance companies and the like, but it would exempt partnerships. This is a flat tax, there being no graduated scale as the earnings increase. The few changes from the present corpo ration tax act, concern chiefly the time of making returns and the time for collection.

The bill includes under its provi sions the property and earnings in this country of persons who live abroad.

May Bring in $100,000,000. It is estimated by members of the ways and means committee that approximately $100,000,000 in revenue may be derived from this new tax, including the corporation tax, that whatsoever (whether in form of ad amount making up for the deficit in hasn't it?

Provision Made for Deductions.

The bill allows as deductions in computing net income all necessary clined to lease without receiving a expenses actually incurred in carrying on any business, not including per sonal living or family expenses, interest accrued and payable within the advance, indeed-never, gir, never." year by a taxable person on indebtedness; all mational, state, county, school and municipal taxes, not including local benefit taxes; losses incurred in trade or from fires, storms or shipwreck not compensated by insurance or otherwise; debts actually ascertained as worthless and charged the Trumpet contained a scorching off; also reasonable allowance for article devoted to the deacon, and wear and tear on property; but no deduction will be allowed for expense of restoration or improvements made to increase property value.

It excepts also, in computing net income, amounts received as dividends upon the stock of any corporation, joint stock company, association or insurance company which is taxable upon its net-income under the corporation tax provision of the bill.

The bill excludes the compensation of the president of the United States during his term, that of judges of the Supreme and inferior courts of the United States, and compensation of all officers and employes of a state or any political subdivision thereof.

System of Collection Framed. It establishes a system of collection of the tax at its source, requiring all persons, firms, copartnerships, companies, corporations, joint stock companies, associations or insurance companies, and all trustees, executors, ad- of the Lone Star State the deacon ministrators, receivers, etc., and officers and employes of the United States having the control or disposal of salaries, wages, interest and other profits and income of another person to withhold and pay to the collector of internal revenue the amount of income tax due from such person. All such persons or firms are made personally liable for such tax. Persons or corporations liable to nake return on incomes who fall to lo so at a specified time, are made llable to a fine not exceeding $500 and the penalty for false or fraudulent returns is fixed at $1,000 or imprison- theze good men than that precious

If the liquor he has swallowed made to provile not only a source of during that period could be poured revenue, but also a means of redressing in some measure the unequal tax burdens' which result from the practice of basing the federal income entirely upon customs and internal revenue duties. This is a system of taxation which inevitably throws the burden of supporting the government upon the shoulders of the consumers. It correspondingly exempts the men of larger income, whose consumption of the ordinary necessaries of life is subject to tariff taxation in a far less aggregate degree than is that of smaller income earners, who expend the greater proportion of their resources for the ordinary necessaries of life."

Underwood Defends Plan. Speaking of the principle of taxation laid down and the graduated system proposed, Mr. Underwood de-

"The progressive principle already has been sustained by the Supreme court of the United States in the inheritance tax cases and there can be no doubt that the same principle applies to the income tax included in this bill and will be fully upheld should it ever be called into question. Owing to defects in personal property taxation, the larger incomes in the United States have for many years been able to escape with less than their share of the general burden of for mercy in vain. The deacon held taxation, and this inequity will be, it him in a grasp of iron until he had is believed, in part overcome by the finished his exercise. Then he hurled plan proposed."

The bill provides that all taxable persons shall be notified of the amount for which they are liable under the of each year and assessments must be h-h-h-happy to renew t-t-t-this e-c-opaid on or before June 30. For delay in making payments and ten days after notice, there shall be added the sum of 5 per cent, of the amount of tax unpaid and interest at the rate of f per cent. a month from the time the tax fell due.

The corporation tax provision, it is directed, shall be computed upon income for the year ending December 31, 1913, and for each calendar year thereafter. It is provided, however, that corporations may designate the last day of any month as the day of the closing of the fiscal year and may have the tax computed on the basis of net income ending on its designated day. All labor, agricultural, horticultural, fraternal, religious and mutual benefit societies are made exempt from the tax.

gambling houses, two churches, a telbgraph office, but no newspaper. Therefore, when Gen. Gorgon Snorter, late one was pleased. But when the general visited Deacon Lamb, one of Sanderson's most prominent citizens, with a view to renting a suitable building in which to house the Sanderson Daily Trumpet, the deacon dequarter's rent in advance. "Sir-r-r-r!" thundered the redoubtable Snorter, "you insult me." Pay in The deacon, one of the mildestmannered of men, felt embarrassed and stammered out- en he had an impediment of speech fense, I ho-ho-hope, ganeral?" But General Snorter's dignity was scarcely a day passed without the good man being in some manner vituperated in the columns of Sanderson's only paper. Now Deacon Lamb, a leading member of the church, was much respected by his fellow citizens none of whom approved of the Trumpet's attacks. Yet nobody dared to remonstrate with the editor. General Snorter was known to be the only survivor of four brothers, who had all died "with their boots on" leaving bloody records behind them; and if report spoke truly the controller of the Trumpet's editorial destinies had slain several personal friends during a somewhat limited residence in Texas. Yet the deacon preserved an unruffled calm under fire. Even when Elder Durham, fearful' lest the truculent Snorter might proceed from verbal to physical violence, urged his brother churchman to try to placate the ex-terror merely shook his head and stammered:

"T-t-the g-g-general is a c-ch-ch-child of w-w-w-wrath, but I d-d-d-do-don't consider him a d-d-d-dad-dangerous man."

Thus matters stood when Snorter. in an editorial on a religious revival being then conducted in the town by a couple of traveling evangelists, seized the opportunity to emit the following vindictive blast:

"We know of no one in greater need of the sacred ministrations of "In formulating this additional im- forty-rod whisky won't revive him. into one vast tank it would form a lake sufficiently large to drown the entire congregation, the members of which have for a decade been deluded, cheated and gulled by this toddyscaked and loathsome old hypocrite."

At about eleven o'clock of the day on which this article appeared Deacon Lamb entered the editorial sanctum of the Trumpet and approached Snorter's desk. The general looked up with a savage scowl,

"Well, sir-r-r-r," he growled flercely, "what can I do for you?" "N-n-n-no-not much, g-g-g-general, m-m-merely w-w-wished-" "Come, come, make it short, make it short, I can't sit here all day listening to your infernal stuttering." "Yes, g-g-g-general, I'll m-m-m-make it as s-s-s-short as p-p-p-possible." Taking the morning issue of the Trumpet from his pocket he pointed to the obnoxious article and asked the general if he wrote it. "Of course I wrote it: What of it,

An instant later the deacon gripped the general by the back of his neck and, producing a stout rawhide whip, proceeded to lash the astonished warrior with tremendous vigor. Snorter struggled and velled his victim into a corner, remarking: "I h-h-h-have m-m-m-made it as s-s-s-short as p-p-p-possible, g-g-g-general, b-b-b-but when you are m-m-mlaw on or before the 1st day of June | more at 1-1-1-leisure I s-s-s-shall be con-conversation."

The news spread quickly through Sanderson and the deacon's friends begged him not to venture upon the street unarmed, as it was freely predicted that the feroclous Snorter would not rest until he had executed. dire vengeance upon his castigator. But the deacon refused to encumber himself with a weapon. He only smiled mildly and said:

"T-t-t-the g-g-g-gen-general is a co-co-ch-ch child of w-w-w-wr-wr-wrath, b-b-b-but I d-d-d-don't c-o-con-consider him a d-d-d-dangerous m-m-mman.

On the following Sunday morning, greatly to the surprise of the citizens of Sanderson, Deacon Lamb and General Snorter were seen to emerge from the former's house and proceed arm in arm in the direction of the church; where the fire-eater from Texas sat meekly in the deacon's pew, listened to the sermon with grave attention, and gave liberally to the collection.

Our task is to square them with the actual facts. The sooner that is done the sooner we shall escape from suffering from the facts and the sooner our men of business will be free to thrive by the law of nature (the nature of free business) instead of by the law of legislation and artificial arrangement

Business Not Normal.

We have seen tariff legislation wander very far affeld in our dayvery far indeed from the field in which our presperity might have had a normal growth and stimulation. No one who looks the facts squarely in the perceive the principles upon which based. We long ago passed beyond a time so long that the men now active in public policy hardly remember the conditions that preceded it-we have sought in our tariff schedules to give The soothing, healing balsams in each group of manufacturers or pro-Resinol Ointment' and Resinol Soap, ducers what they themselves thought penetrate every tiny pore of the skin, that they needed in order to dearing it of all impurities, driving maintain a practically exclusive market as against the rest of the world. Only new principles of action will save us from a final hard crystallization of monopoly and a complete loss of the influences that quicken enterprise and keep independent energy alive.

It is plain what those principles must be. We must abolish everything that bears even the semblance of priv flege or of any kind of artificial advantage, and put our business men and producers under the stimulation of a constant necessity to be efficient, economical, and enterprising, mastersof competitive supremacy, better workers and merchants than any in the world. Aside from the duties laid upon articles which we do not, and probably cannot, produce, therefore, and the duties laid upon luxuries and merely for the sake of the revenues they yield, the object of the tariff dutres henceforth laid must be effective competition, the whetting of American wits by contest with the wits of the rest of the world.

Development, Not Revolution.

It would be unwise to move toward this end headlong, with reckless haste, or with strokes that cut at the When you feel like calling a man a very roots of what has grown up llar go to the telephone and then amongst us by long process and at our own invitation. It does not alter a thing to upset it and break it and deprive it of a chance to change. It destroys it. In dealing with the tariff the method by which this may be done will be a matter of judg-TARIFF REVISION HIS TOPIC ment, exercised item by item.

To some not accustomed to the excitements and responsibilities of greater freedom our methods may in some respects and at some points seem heroic, but remedies may be heroic and yet be remedies. It is our business to make sure that they are genuine remedies. Our object is clear. If our motive is above just challenge and only an occasional error of judgment is chargeable against us, we shall be fortunate.

We are called upon to render the country a great-service in more matters than one. Our responsibility should be met and our methods should be thorough, as thorough as moderate I have called the congress together and well considered, based upon the as if we were beginners. We are to with the facts of no other, and to make-laws which square with those facts. It is best, indeed it is necessary, to begin with the tariff. I will urge nothing upon you now at the opening of your session which can obscure that first object or divert our liberty of calling your attention to reaccompany them, of which the chief is the reform of our banking and currency laws; but just now I refrain. For the present, I put these matters on one side and think only of this one thing-of the changes in our fiscal system which may best serve to open

Comparative Digestibility of Food

Made with different Baking Powders

From a Series of Elaborate Chemical Tests:

An equal quantity of bread (biscuit) was made with each of three different kinds of baking powdercream of tartar, phosphate, and alum-and submitted separately to the action of the digestive fluid, each for the same length of time.

Bread made with Royal Cream of Tartar Powder:

100 Per Cent. Digested

Bread made with phosphate powder:

681/4 Per Cent. Digested

Bread made with alum powder:

673/4 Per Cent. Digested

These tests, which are absolutely reliable and unprejudiced, make plain a fact of great importance to everyone: Food raised with Royal, a cream of tartar Baking Powder, is shown to be entirely digestible, while the alum and phosphate powders are found to largely retard the digestion of the food made from
