FACTORY TAXES BOOSTED.

Supervisor VanRiper Raises Assessment on Flanders Mfg. Co. Plant $31,000.

At the meeting of board of review of both township and village yesterday about the only business was the consideration of the raise in the assessment of Flanders Works from $75,000 to $106,000.

It developed in the preliminary hearing that some members of the board are in favor of keeping the assessment where it has been at $75,000, especially as the Detroit Trust Co., Receiver, is trying to preserve the integrity of the plant as a factory and so sell as a whole rather than by piece meal when it could only be used for storage of agricultural implements or for storage of hay or farm products.

We believe action of the supervisor at this time in raising the assessment to far above the price at which the factory has been twice sold, to be ill advised and that while it may give a chance to slightly lower taxes on farm land in the township it will scare off all possible purchasers who might use the buildings for factory purposes, and the village instead of going ahead will even fall to remain the lemon it now is, but will become a lime.

Inasmuch as about the first question manufacturers ask is about local conditions as to taxes we hope the matter will be given careful consideration by the members of board of review and nothing done that will irretrievably injure the town for the sake of slight advantage of five or six hundred dollars in taxes for only one year.

The time has long passed for using as a slogan "Don't kick a man when he's down. Stomp on him. It easier and hurts more."

Wedding Anniversary.

Last Thursday marked the silver (or twenty-fifth) anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Hindelang and the day was quietly observed as a family reunion at their home on west Middle street. Only their children, Mr. and Mrs. John Hindelang, of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hindelang and children, of Decatur, Ill., and Miss Mary Hindelang, of Rochester, Mich., were present. One son Leo Hindelang, of Decatur, Ill., was unable to be in attendance.

A bounteous dinner was served and a very enjoyable day spent. Mr. and Mrs. Hindelang received many useful and ornamental gifts as memento of the occasion.

A Good Attendance.

Thursday of last week the Washtenaw County Association, O. E. S. were entertained by the members of Olive Chapter, O. E. S., of this place.
A 5 o'clock dinner was served in the dining room of the Congregational church. An excellent program was carried out in the afternoon and in the evening the initiatory work of the order was exemplified.

Representatives were present from Manchester, Milan, Saline, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti and Dexter. About 150 were present. The Association were honored by having the following grand officers present: Worthy Grand Matron Miss Minnie Keyes, Worthy Grand Patron William Hollands, Associate Grand Matron Mrs. Malina Maxon, Grand Secretary Mrs. Eva
Goodrich, and Grand Chaplain Mrs.
Eliza Bacon, who is also Worthy Matron of Olive Chapter.

Decoration Day Exercises.

The Decoration Day exercises at the town hall last Friday afternoon were well attended and an excellent program was carried out. The musical numbers by the pupils of the Chelsea public school, St. Mary's school and the Chelsea Band were extremely well rendered and highly appreciated
by those present.

The address by Col. O. A. Janes, of Detroit, was a very able and interesting one, both to veterans and citizens and it carried many of the audience back to the time when the "boys in blue" were at the front taking part in the great Civil War.

At the close of the exercises in the hall a line of march was formed and the members of the G. A. R. and W.
R. C. repaired to the cemeteries where the graves of the departed soldiers and sailors were strewn with flowers, after which the closing exercises were carried out at the soldiers' monument, the Boy Scouts firing the usual salute.

The owners of automobiles here conveyed the members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. to the cemetery, the Band, Boy Scouts and honorary members of the Post acting as escorts.

Annual Pioneer Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Washtenaw County Pioneer Society will be held on Wednesday, June 11, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the Methodist church at Ypsilanti. The dinner will be served in the dining room of the church, which is large enough for all to be seated at the first table, and a fine dinner will be served.

Few to Forfeit.

Only 180 school districts representing 40 counties in the state of Michigan will forfeit their primary apportionment this year because they have too large a surplus on hand. Last year 495 districts, representing 53 counties did not participate. The difference is due largely to the fact that in districts where only one teacher has been previously employed despite a large enrollment of pupils, the board has wisely secured two or more teachers in order to reduce the surplus so that the district should share in the apportionment. In this way school conditions have been improved by the change governing the apportionment.

Farmers' Club Meeting.

The next meeting of the Lima and Vicinity Farmers' Club will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Steinbach, of Lima, on Thursday afternoon, June 12. The program will be given by the children and is as follows:

Quite a Compliment.

"The Musical Courier published in New York under the date of May 28, in an extended write up of the annual concert of Mrs. Hattie Clapper Morris, pays a fine compliment to the work of Miss Emilie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steinbach, who is a pupil of Mrs. Morris, and she took part in the concert. The following extract was taken from the article:
"One would never conclude from her manner of singing the aria 'Un bel'di vedremo,' from 'Madame Butterfly,' that Emilie Steinbach has been studying so short a time. She is a thorough musician and student,
with a big soprano voice of exquisite quality. Mrs. Morris expects to see Miss Steinbach on the operatic stage in the near future."

First Through the Panama Canal.

The first ship to pass through the Panama Canal will be the Fram, Captain Roald Amundsen's famous polar exploration ship, which has been granted the privilege and honor, by our government, of passing through the canal as soon as it is in readiness.

Captain Amundsen has been presented medals by kings, honors by noted geographical societies and the Kaiser has equipped the Fram with a wireless telegraph equipment but no greater honor has been paid him than the privilege of taking the first ship through our Big Ditch.

These honors have been showered upon him because of his wonderful discoveries in the Polar regions. He will tell the entire story with illustrations in University hall, Ann Arbor, Friday evening, June 6. Reserved seats fifty, seventy-five and a dollar.

The Mexican Spy.

Tom Loring, a handsome but dissipated youth, loves Mary Lee, daughter of the regiment's paymaster. In order to pay his gambling debts to the Mexican, Senor Rivera, supposedly rich but in reality a spy, Tom steals $5,000 from the paymaster's safe. The Mexican threatens ex-posure unless Tom secures the plans of certain forts in the Southwest, but Mary hears of the situation and pawns her jewels to replace the stolen money. Tom enlists, and Mary becomes a Red Cross nurse and is also ordered to the Mexican border.
Tom's bravery wins him promotion to Lieutenant, but he is seriously wounded, and Mary is greatly surprised to find among her patients, her lover.
Her careful nursing restores him to health, and he claims Mary for his wife. This thrilling photo play in two reels will be shown at the Princess on Tuesday, June 10th.

WON SECOND PLACE

The Chelsea High School Association
Took Part at Wayne Field Meet.

The members of the Chelsea High School Athletic Association who attended the twelfth annual track and field meet of the tri-county high school athletic association held at Wayne last Saturday secured second place with a total of 44 points. Plymouth won first with 55 points and Wayne third with 42 points. The Chelsea boys won six first places out of 13 events, but not enough seconds and thirds to give them sufficient points to win the meet. The events in which the Chelsea boys won are as follows:

100 yard dash—Roland Kalmbach,
first.
Hammer throw—Theo. Wedemeyer, first; Warren Coe, fourth.
220 yard dash—Roland Kalmbach,
first.
Shot put—Theo. Wedemeyer, first;
Ernest Wagner, third.
220 yard low hurdles—Max Roedel,
third; Lloyd Kalmbach, fourth.
Discus throw—Theo. Wedemeyer,
first.
440 yard dash—Roland Kalmbach,
third.
Pole vault—Warren Coe, first, Lloyd Kalmbach, second.

Charles H. Hepburn.

Charles H. Hepburn was born in Detroit July 12, 1868, and died at the U. of M. hospital in Ann Arbor, Saturday evening, May 31, 1913.

Mr. Hepburn moved to Chelsea about nine years ago and for a number of years he was village marshal.
He has been in failing health for over a year and for several months past has been in the U. of M. hospital receiving treatment for Bright's disease which was the cause of his death.
The remains were brought here Sunday and taken to the home of his brother.

He is survived by one half brother,
William Hepburn, one brother, Herbert E. Hepburn, both residents of Chelsea, and one sister, a resident of Detroit. The funeral was held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E.
Hepburn Tuesday afternoon, Rev. J.
W. Campbell officiating. Interment at Oak Grove cemetery.

Milan Home is Dynamited.

The following item was taken from the Ann Arbor Times News:
"The whole town of Milan was awakened shortly after midnight Sunday morning by a loud explosion.

A stick of dynamite had been placed under the residence of Mrs. Frances Payne, and had torn off one corner of her home and shattered every window in the house. Mrs. Payne and her daughter, Mrs. Carrie Bortels, live there together, both having been divorced at about the same time very recently.

There is a considerable talk around Milan that the perpetrator of the explosion would not be very hard to locate.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Payne kept a restaurant in Milan, and not so very long ago Mrs. Payne sold out her interest, and that started trouble in the Payne family. In January Mrs.
Payne caused her husband's arrest on a charge of disorderly conduct, and then there was more trouble. Mrs.
Payne was granted a divorce. Two weeks ago Mrs. Payne's barn burned.
That evening Mr. Payne was seen about town for the last time."

A Sudden Death.

John Tufts, one of Dexter's well known residents, died suddenly on the evening of May 31, at the home of his brother, Richard, while sitting in his chair, visiting with a couple of neighbors and his brother, Richard, and wife. He had been ill for the past two years with heart trouble.
He was born July 1, 1842, at Eastmore, Norfolk county, England. With his father's family he came to this country in 1855, the family settling in Webster township. At the commencement of the war he enlisted
May 16, 1861, in the Dexter company, Fourth Michigan Infantry, for the term of three years, and served in the Army of the Potomac. He was discharged May 16, 1864, at Spottsylvania, Va. Then he returned to Dexter, where he had made his home ever since. He was united in marriage to Miss Emma Reese of Dexter in 1867 and who died in 1901. He is survived by two sons. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the M. E. church. Rev.
Mr. Martin conducted the services.
Jefford's Post of Dexter village attended the funeral and held the Grand Army services in Forest Lawn cemetery, where the interment took place.

PLAN OF WORKING PRISONERS PAYS

CALHOUN COUNTY IS SAVING MONEY IN ROAD CONSTRUCTION.

PROMINENT CITIZEN OF STATE IS DEAD.

Thomas Witherell Palmer, Former U. S. Senator, Minister to Spain and President of World's Fair Passes Away.

Between $500 and $1,000 will be saved to Calhoun county each month this summer by the plan of working prisoners on the roads, according to the first report filed by Sheriff Fonda to the county auditing committee. The county pays the prisoners 25 cents a day and out of this deducts for tobacco, candy and fruit.

Contractors who have taken contracts to build stretches of road in the county are far behind in their work because they cannot hire a sufficient number of men. Because of the advantage of having prisoners the county was the first to compete a stretch of road.

The prisoners have started to work on a piece of state road trunk line road in Marengo township.

Prominent Citizen Is Dead.

Thomas Witherell Palmer, ex-senator, president of the Chicago world's fair, ex-minister to Spain, giver of Palmer park and one of Detroit's best known citizens both at home and abroad, died at his residence on Walnut Lane, near Palmer park, in his eighty-fourth year.

Death was immediately due to a complication of diseases incident to advancing years, but his robust constitution would probably have saved him for some years yet had it not been for an accident about two years ago. At that time the senator was seriously injured when his auto was struck by an interurban car at the six-mile road. He was thrown out and was badly cut and bruised. While he regained his health to a large extent he had never fully recovered from the shock, and his decline dated from that time.

Heir to Large Estate Is Found

Margaret Hawthorne, who has been sought as one of the heirs of David Shafter, of Vassar, has been found. She is Mrs. M. S. Wilson and her husband is an employee of the Adams Express company at Louisville, Ky. Mrs. Wilson's mother was a daughter of Shafter and after her death Margaret was adopted by a man named Ladd, of Chicago, who later was obliged to return her to the orphanage from which he took her.

Then she was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. George B. France, of York, Neb., and there she grew to womanhood under the name of Eve Hawthorne France. In 1902 she was married to Mr. Wilson. To make sure that her family name might be retained, Mrs. Wilson caused to be filed in Lincoln, Neb., a record of all the papers concerning her adoptions and of her residence in the orphanage. This precaution will be her means of establishing legal proof of her identity and her ability to claim the $450,000 estate left by her grandfather.

Sight of Aged Man Restored

Dr. Abraham T. Metcalf, of Battle Creek one of the oldest thirty-third degree Masons in this country, and inventor of dental supplies, was the center of a remarkable occurrence. For 62 years Dr. Metcalf has been in a state of near blindness, during which period he has worn two pairs of glasses, each with double strength lenses. Recently while he was walking down the street he lost his sight, apparently, and pulled off his glasses to rub his eyes. As he did so he found he could see as he could in boyhood. The ophthalmologist put his glasses in his pocket and walked home, astonishing the family, who had never seen him take a step without double glasses.

Prisoners Attempt to Burn Jail

Two prisoners in the city hall jail, at Bay City, Tony Marsac and Joe Metomas, the latter an Indian from Kawkawin, made a daring attempt to cause a jail delivery when they set the window casings of their cells afire.

A woman passing by notified the police and a quick response by the fire department stopped the fire before any great damage was done. The men were nearly suffocated; however, before they were rescued.

Battle Creek is forming a military company to enter the Michigan national guard, 43 out of the required 50 men having signed the roster.

Henry W. Wallace was awarded a verdict of $2,104.04 by a circuit court jury in a $10,000 damage suit in which the Grand Trunk Railway Co. is defendant. The corporation will appeal. Wallace sued as administrator of the estate of Mrs. Ella B. Cole, of Perry, killed by a Grand Trunk freight car while crossing the railroad tracks at Perry last December.

The Eaton and Calhoun county road commissioners met in Battle Creek to settle the route of the proposed state trunk line through Calhoun and Eaton counties. It was decided the Eaton road will meet the Calhoun county line at Partello, thence run directly north to Charlotte. The north route from Charlotte is still in doubt, but in all probability will follow the present state road to Lansing, touching Potterville and Millets.

The supreme court handed down a decision refusing a rehearing of the damage case of George Sonnsmith against the Pere Marquette railroad, and the road will now have to pay the Saginaw man $12,958.33 for the loss of his left leg at the hip. Several similar cases have been instituted, but none have reached the supreme court.

The platform he was standing on shifted slightly and he struggled to death before his mother arrived.

NOMINAL DAMAGES IN LIBEL CASE

COLONEL AGREES TO VERDICT AGAINST EDITOR FOR SIX CENTS.

PUBLISHER ADMITS HE CANNOT PROVE CHARGES.

Famous Law Suit Which Brings Many Notables to Michigan Comes to An End When Defense Accepts Defeat.

The famous libel suit of Ex-president Theodore Roosevelt against George A. Newett, editor of the Ishpeming Iron Ore, which has attracted the attention of the entire nation and has brought to Marquette probably the largest galaxy of noted men ever assembled in one place in Michigan, is at an end. When the defendant took the witness stand in his own behalf he made a statement to the effect that he had printed the article on which the action was based on good faith and had believed it to be true.

The Ishpeming editor, worn and a little haggard from the grueling he had received during the week, spoke in a loud voice and with great feeling. At times his voice rose to an oratorical pitch and once or twice the apparent stress of mind under which he labored caused his voice to break. In particular, Mr. Newett's tones faltered when he related how friends of his in Ishpeming, men in whom he had the greatest confidence and who knew of conditions in Washington, had told him that Roosevelt frequently got drunk.

The statement of Mr. Newett was simple, direct, and completely to the point. He told of his support of Col. Roosevelt previous to the campaign of 1912. He said that the colonel was his second choice for the presidential nomination at the republican convention. When Mr. Roosevelt bolted into the progressive party, however, Mr. Newett strongly opposed him. He told how the colonel made what he (Newett) considered an unwarranted attack on his friend, Congressman Young, in his speech in Marquette in October.

Mr. Newett said he had heard the reports about Roosevelt's drinking for years, and that they had come to him from so many sources that he finally believed them and that he printed the article in the Iron Ore in good faith.

He told of the starting of the suit against him. He said he did what seemed to him the only thing to do, started in to prove the statements he had made, if possible. He told of seeking out witnesses in various sections of the country, men who stated they had seen Col. Roosevelt when they thought he was intoxicated. Mr. Newett admitted he had failed to find a witness who could testify to having seen Col. Roosevelt drink liquor excessively.

Mr. Newett said he had been profoundly impressed by the evidence offered by Col. Roosevelt. He declared that it was sufficient for him to prove the untruth of the statement he had made in the alleged libelous article, and that he, therefore, would content himself in the suit with the position that he had printed the article absolutely without malice.

Attorneys for the plaintiff then announced that their distinguished client wished to make a statement to the court. Col. Roosevelt then addressed the court stating that his fight in this case was not for money but for vindication and that he would be content with a judgment for nominal damages (Six cents).

"I wished once for all during my lifetime thoroughly and completely to deal with these slanders, so that never again can any man in good faith repeat them," the colonel said with deep feeling in the course of his address to the court.

Col. Roosevelt, in his hour of triumph, was magnanimous. Beaten, hopeless, crushed under a weight of powerful testimony, his every gun spiked, the defendant was completely at his mercy. The testimony would have warranted an assessment of damages in the full amount asked, $10,000. Judge Flannigan told the jurors in instructing them to bring a verdict for nominal damages, but the colonel gave up the opportunity for at least partial financial recompense for the heavy expense which the case must have involved and at his request to the court nominal damages of six cents were assessed against Mr. Newett. Col. Roosevelt would not even take the opportunity to assess the costs of the suit against his beaten opponent. He will bear all the expense of his side of the court action. Mr. Newett will have only to pay what the unsuccessful effort to make a case against Col. Roosevelt cost him.

Chesaning is to have a new $40,000 school building as the result of favorable action taken on a bonding proposition at the annual school meeting, the ballots reading 173 yeas and 25 nays.

The city commissioners of Pontiac met to open bids for the $50,000 issue of park bonds, but there were no bids. This is the second time bids have been asked on the bonds and none received. It is believed the rate of interest, 4 1/4 per cent, is too low to attract investors.

METCALF TO BE PANAMA GOVERNOR

COL. GOETHALS WAS CHOICE OF EX-PRESIDENT TAFT.

Metcalf Has Been in Newspaper Work All of His Life and Tried for Governorship of Nebraska in Last Campaign.

Richard I. Metcalf, of Lincoln, Neb., editor of W. J. Bryan's weekly journal, The Commoner, was selected by President Wilson to be civil governor of the Panama canal zone.

This was announced by Secretary Garrison after he and Secretaries Bryan and Daniels had conferred with the president.

President Taft had expressed a desire to appoint Col. George Goethals, the builder of the canal, to be the first governor of the zone, but the Democrats in the senate served notice they would not confirm Goethals' appointment.

President Taft then said he would leave the post for the Democrats to fill.

Sec. Daniels and Sec. Garrison jointly in urging the appointment. Mr. Metcalf has been in newspaper work all his life and came into national political prominence during the campaign of 1896 as spokesman for Mr. Bryan. Last year he ran in the primaries on the Democratic ticket for governor of Nebraska, but lost.

Metcalf played the part of silent press agent to Wm. J. Bryan when the latter was gaining fame, and with his trenchant pen helped largely to build up the reputation Bryan has enjoyed.

Dominion Will Be Represented.

Canada is likely to shortly send a representative to Washington. It is understood that as a result of the visit to Ottawa of Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, British ambassador at Washington, the Dominion government will in the future have an official attaché to the British embassy at the United States capital. When in Ottawa and elsewhere in the past international issues have had to be discussed with Washington there has been certain drawbacks on account of Canada not being directly represented at Washington. Officials at the American capital have from time to time had to ask for the preparation of memoranda pertaining to this country by officials here. This has caused delay.

Counterfeit Money in China.

The detection of a gigantic scheme to flood China with counterfeit currency is given as the reason for his visit to the United States by Liao Ngauton, special representative of the republic and of Chinese bankers.

Until a month ago, Liao said, the Chinese believed their currency system satisfactory. Then a flood of counterfeit notes led to the discovery of a spurious printing establishment in Japan. The American system of issuing currency and bank notes will be made the basis of future Chinese issues.

TEXAS TO HAVE HIGHEST MONUMENT

ALAMO MEMORIAL

THE state of Texas is about to honor the memory of the men who defended the famous Alamo against the Mexicans by a unique and lasting tribute.

A monument, the tallest in the world, 402 feet in height, will be erected on the plaza in San Antonio not far from the Alamo itself. Only one other structure in the world will exceed this height—the Eiffel tower.

Texas look on the Alamo as sacred, the old battlefield as hallowed ground, and the heroes—Crockett, Travis, Bowie and Bowie—as demigods. To Texas the great monument will fall short in indicating the love and admiration in which these soldiers are held.

But the mammoth structure will be more than a mere monument. It will contain a museum and art gallery. Beauty, grandeur and usefulness will be combined. There will be an auditorium for state meetings, and every county will have an individual room assigned to it for its own special historical displays. The rugged strength given the monument will be concealed largely by the graceful lines and artistic decorations. It will become one of the wonders of the world that tourists will go far to see.

Besides the big auditorium there will be three other halls for meetings of various associations. Balconies near the top, which give the structure beauty when seen from a distance, will permit visitors to gaze out upon five counties.

Base to Be of Solid Granite. The base of the monument will be of solid granite, rising to a height of 50 feet. On this base will be placed at each corner of the monument and arranged around the shaft huge pillars each eight feet in diameter and 70 feet high, all of solid Texas granite. These pillars will be surmounted by heroic size statues of Travis, Crockett, Bowie and Bonham, the four great leaders who died in the Alamo with the men in their commands who had followed them devotedly in the early days of the campaign for liberty and who did not hesitate to follow them even to death.

Above these statues will be placed the six flags that have waved at different times over Texas, the Lone Star and the United States flags in the center, and on each side the flag of the Confederate States of America, of Mexico, Spain and France. Place will be made, too, for an emblem representing the Indian tribes that possessed this land before the Spanish adventurers found their way here.

The exquisite grandeur of design and the architecture of the structure will impress itself on the mind, whether viewed from without or within. The great lobby will focus the extent and magnitude of the monument like a beautiful and magnificent image that takes possession of the thoughts to the exclusion of the monument and all else.

Everything about the structure will be on grand proportions, and the lobby will be one of the most impressive sights of the monument. Visitors are to have free access to it at all times. Its inside measurements will be 82½ feet square, which will also be the inside measurements of the auditoriums, museum and art gallery, each of which will be larger than any hall in San Antonio today.

Star of Texas in Dome. The ceiling of the lobby will be 50 feet high, an opening in the center, eight feet across, forming its summit, and this opening is to be carried up through each succeeding story until it reaches a height of 700 feet. Here will be set into the ceiling, beautifully lighted by electricity, the Lone Star of Texas.

The space for 100 feet beneath the star will have no opening from within to admit the light, so this star will be almost as brilliant in the daytime as at night.

The elevators in the monument, four in all, will be located between the massive columns as far up as these extend, which will be to height of 120 feet from the ground, and above that in the shaft, in which one will be placed in each corner and extending to the base of the dome. These elevators will have large carrying capacity, which will be necessary to accommodate the immense crowds that will visit the monument.

The rooms apportioned to the different counties of Texas, 275 and 300 (for some will have to be provided for new counties that will be created in the years to come), will be located within the shaft of the monument above the four floors, in which will be placed the auditorium, museum, art gallery and chambers for patriotic organizations.

These will be reached by the elevators, one of which will be designated to serve them, while the other will run on express schedule between the first landing, at a height of about 120 feet, and the balconies at the top.

The dome of the monument will not be open to visitors, but will be offered to the federal government for an observatory, such as is now maintained at a few places in the United States, and which is much needed in the south. At the very top of the great structure will be located a powerful searchlight, the strongest that it will be possible to obtain.

This powerful light will be turned on faraway towns if so desired, but generally it will be turned toward the clouds, and its rays will be visible at great distances far beyond points from which the great tower itself may be seen.

For the maintenance of this monument an admission of 50 cents will be charged to the museum and art gallery, and another admission price of 50 cents will be charged for a trip in one of the four elevators to the balconies near the top of the structure.

HIS GOOD FRIENDS

A Seeming Deep Mystery Is Satisfactorily Explained to a Trusting Lover.

By GERTRUDE MARY SHERIDAN.

"I tell you, Dave, that fellow, Ralph Tilden, isn't worthy of your sister," said Mart Woods.

"All you've got to do is to convince me of the fact," replied Dave Brierly, brother of Rose Brierly, the prettiest girl in Brampton.

"I can do that," asserted his companion positively. "See, here, Dave, I make no pretense of being disinterested in this matter. I always liked Rose, and I like her more than ever now."

"I've always known that, Mart. You and I have always been close chums, and, of course, I don't favor a newcomer and an upstart against you."

Mart Woods smirked with satisfaction at the encouraging words. He was a mean-spirited fellow, according to his shifty eyes. Dave was his junior, and callow, and fancying loyalty to a chum to be the height of human chivalry.

"I'll convince you, all right," asserted Mart. "The only thing is to convince Rose. She wouldn't believe anything I might say, and she fancies that Tilden fellow to be everything that is good and true."

"He'll get his walking papers mighty quick if he is the wolf in sheep's clothing you say he is," observed Dave, smartly.

"Very well, I'll have some news for you in a day or two," promised Mart. "I'll show the rascal up in his true colors."

When the treacherous Mart stated that Rose Brierly held a very high opinion concerning the young man he considered his rival, he had not exaggerated. Rose had never given the least encouragement to Mart's advances. In fact, she had never known what love meant until Ralph Tilden had come into her life.

The latter was a manly young fellow, whom every girl might be proud to attract. He had been recently admitted to the bar; his first case in court had been the defense of a poor woman whose suit other lawyers had declined because she could not pay a fee. Ralph had won the case, its details got into the public prints, and he had earned golden opinions as to his professional ability and his philanthropic unselfishness.

All unconscious of the deft plots being woven to disturb their happiness, Rose and Ralph passed some pleasant hours. On the spur of a vague suspicion regarding some of the movements of the young attorney, Mart fancied himself possessed of all the attributes of a skillful detective in running down his "clews," as he was pleased to call them. He came to Dave Brierly one day, elated and confident.

"Well, I've got the goods on that Tilden," he announced. "Twice a week he leaves his office at about eight o'clock in the evening. He never gets home until two in the morning. A fellow who does that regularly is up to something, isn't he?"

"As what, now?" challenged Dave. "Well, carousing around. This is his night for going on one of his mysterious excursions. I watched him last time."

"Where did he go?"

"Don't know. I started to follow him. He either suspected me and slipped me, or I lost him in the crowd. I know this, though—he was headed for the seamy side of the city."

"That isn't very definite," observed Dave. "I don't want to make any mistake."

"There won't be any," insisted Mart. "Are you nervous for a demonstration?"

"Of what?"

"A running down of our suspicious. See here, Tilden is keen as they make them. If he suspects that he is being followed, he is clever enough to lead a false chase. Let us be on hand to night to take up the trail when he leaves his office."

"I'm agreeable, provided we can do it. I don't want to blunder myself into a laughing stock."

"Say," advanced Mart with spirit. "I've arranged a great plan. We'll disguise ourselves."

"How?" questioned Dave dubiously. It took a long time for Mart to induce his companion to join forces with him. His plan was a simple one. They were to blacken their hands and faces.

"We'll pass in the crowd and in the dark as negroes," explained Mart. "Oh, don't be so squeamish. If nothing comes of it, we'll get an idea of local color in our ramblings, anyhow."

At length Dave agreed to the proposition. When at about eight o'clock that evening the young lawyer, Ralph Tilden, left his office, where he had been at work writing and studying, he had no idea that two persons strolling after him were bent on tracing his movements.

"See how he has pulled his coat collar up to hide his face," whispered Mart, as Tilden turned into the next street.

"Oh, that is quite natural," responded Dave. "It's beginning to drizzle, and he wants to shut the rain out."

The drizzle changed into a dreary pelting rain in a short time. Dave was glad when at last Tilden reached a two-story building on one of the lower strata streets of the city. On either side of the center open entrance were saloons. A part of the upper floor was lighted up, but the window shades were drawn trim and tight.

"Do you see?" cried Mart, exultingly, grasping the arm of his companion. "What did I tell you?"

"Why, what do you mean?" inquired Dave, staring blankly.

"That place—downstairs saloon, upstairs the most notorious gambling house in the city."

"How do you know it is?" submitted Mart pointedly.

"Why—er—that is, I heard so—some one told me," explained Mart stumbly.

In his excitement the speaker wiped his face with his handkerchief. Dave brushed the rain drops from his. They crossed the street and stood in the full glare of the strong electric arc lamp, discussing what they would do next. Some people passing by stared strangely. Then a policeman came up, regarded them with a suspicious glare, and caught each by the collar.

"Ah!" he remarked—"disguising yourselves, eh? You'll explain this to the sergeant, my hearties."

Remonstrances were in vain. A hooting crowd followed the two seekers after "local color" clear to the station. No wonder! Where the rain had trickled and their careless hands had wandered, the faces of the unhappy captives were streaked in ludicrous patches of lamp black.

Somehow, they managed to get out of their trouble; somehow, too, the story got out.

"There seems to be something to explain," remarked Rose to Ralph the next evening.

"Ma chere, c'est que je t'aime," replied Ralph, enigmatically—"which means, how much I love you. In other words, a poor teacher of languages, too poor to select his preferable residence, lives in the building where our good friends located me. He has been teaching me French."

Which explained the seeming mystery and made fair, trustful Rose Brierly love him more than ever.

EARLY MARRIAGE THE THING

Dr. Elliot Firmly of Opinion That It Should Not Be Put Off Until Middle Life.

Dr. Elliot, whose name was mentioned as American Ambassador in London, is strongly in favor of early marriages. Here are his views:

"You will hear some young man say, 'I cannot invite a girl who has been brought up to do nothing for herself, and to have every gratification and every luxury provided for her, to marry me, until I can earn an income which will enable her to live with me in that way.' I have two remarks to make about that doctrine—that if a girl has been brought up in that manner, the sooner she has a chance to live differently the better for her; and, secondly, that it is only fair for a young man who loves a young woman to consult her as to whether or not she wishes to marry him before he can earn a large income."

"The young woman has a clear right to say a word on that subject to the man she loves, and not to be obliged to wait till he is thirty-five years old before he asks her to marry him. This is a matter of looking ahead at a critical point in your lives. Young men are not in the habit, perhaps, of contemplating this aspect of marriage. It would be wiser to do so. The sooner you begin to think about it the better—first, because it will be thinking about the most important event in your lives in respect to the development of your own characters and to the happiness not only of yourselves, but of the women you will marry, and of the family life which will normally result."

Our Modest Wants.

It is a remarkable fact that the vast majority of men look forward through the years of their greatest activity not to a winter home in Florida, or southern California, or at Cairo, Cannes or Nice, nor to a summer home in the Adirondacks, in the White Mountains, among the peaks of the Rockies or the pines of the Sierras, or somewhere along the New England coast, but rather, to a 40-acre farm on the outskirts, easily accessible to a market, where they might crowd the accumulated experience and wisdom of a lifetime into the intelligent management of a chicken yard.—Christian Science Monitor.

THE LURE OF THE WEST

WESTERN CANADA ATTRACTING THOUSANDS OF SETTLERS.

Writing on the Canadian West, an eastern exchange truthfully says: "The West still calls with imperative voice. To prairie and mountain, and for the Pacific Coast, Ontario's young men and women are attracted by tens of thousands yearly. The great migration has put an end to the fear, freely expressed not many years ago by those who knew the West from the lakes to the farther coast of Vancouver Island, that Canada would some day break in two because of the predominance of Continental European and American settlers in the West."

This is true. While the immigration from the United States is large, running close to 150,000 a year, that of the British Isles and Continental Europe nearly twice that number, making a total of 400,000 per year, there is a strong influx from Eastern Canada. It is not only into the prairie provinces that these people go, but many of them continue westward, the glory of British Columbia's great trees and great mountains, the excellent agricultural valleys, where can be grown almost all kinds of agriculture and where fruit has already achieved prominence. Then the vast expanse of the plains attract hundreds of thousands, who at once set to work to cultivate their vast holdings. There is still room, and great opportunity in the West. The work of man's hands, even in the cities with their record-breaking building rush, is the smallest part of the great panorama that is spread before the eye on a journey through the country. Nature is still supreme, and man is still the divine pigmy audaciously seeking to impose his will and stamp his mark upon an unconquered half continent.

The feature that most commends itself in Western development today is the "home-making spirit." The West will find happiness in planting trees and making gardens and building schools and colleges and universities, and producing a home environment so that there will be no disposition to regard the country as a temporary place of abode in which every one is trying to make his pile preparatory to going back East or becoming a lotus-eater beside the Pacific.

The lure of the West is strong. It will be still stronger when the crude new towns and villages of the plains are embowered in trees and vocal with the song of birds.—Advertiser.

Parliamentary Suspension.

Sir Henry Lucy drops a hint from the "Cross Benches" in the Observer as to the "suspension" of members of the house—and the vagueness of the penalty. Can it be true that members get themselves named and suspended on purpose to achieve a compulsory holiday? Eight pounds a week will make for modest comfort at Brighton or Eastbourne. The member of parliament is paid whether he is in the house or at Margate or in the Clock Tower. Budapest has a more drastic way. If the member is suspended he is fined 16 shillings a day. That teaches him to behave. Now that we pay our representatives we might make payment conditional on their representing us in the proper place.—London Chronicle.

Not Worth It.

"Why did you name the baby Nebuchadnezzar?"

"His Uncle Nebuchadnezzar has promised to leave him $5,000."

"The boy may not thank you in after life. I think he'd rather go out and earn $5,000 than to carry around that name."

Wayside Philosophy.

"Easy Street must be a nice street to live on," remarked the little hobo.

"That's nothing to me," declared the second wayfarer. "I never found that the alley back of it provided anything extra in the way of pickings."

BREVITIES

PINCKNEY—The commencement exercises of the Pinckney high school will be held at the opera house, Thursday evening, June 19th. The class consists of 13 members.

MANCHESTER—The amount of the judgment and attending expense secured by the Ditcher Co. against the village has been ordered spread on the tax roll.—Enterprise.

ANN ARBOR—The University has purchased the two bungalows on Fourteenth street, owned by Mrs. M. C. Goddard, and adjacent to the new University power house, and will use both structures to establish an infirmary, where students will be cared for and treated when taken sick while in attendance at the University.

HOWELL—On Monday of this week we were shown a government deed signed by Martin VanBuren, president of the United States of date August 18, 1837, given to Edward Bishop, late of the township of Hamburg. The deed was written on parchment and is yet in number one state of preservation. The land mentioned in the deed is what is now known as the summer resort at Lakeland, this county.—Democrat.

MICHIGAN CENTER—Thos. Casey a well-known resident of Michigan Center, was struck by an east-bound limited car on the D. J. & C. electric road Sunday morning, sustaining injuries which it is feared will prove fatal. Mr. Casey being at the advanced age of 65 years, the attending physicians think there is but little hope for his recovery. His shoulder blade was broken and several ribs were broken close to the spine.

GRASS LAKE—Dogs got into the flock of sheep belonging to Miss Elmore Clark last Thursday night and did considerable damage, killing eight ewes and twelve lambs besides a number of others were badly bitten which will no doubt die. The dog or dogs are unknown but a close watch is being kept in the hope of catching him. Wouldn't it be a good idea to kill all of the dogs so as to make sure you get the right one?—News.

MANCHESTER—Will Payne and wife escaped a serious accident one day last week. He had his auto repaired at Jackson and when they put the wheels on they forgot to put the cotter pins in the front axle. He slowed up at Napoleon in going over a crossing and the front end of the machine dropped down. If it had done so a few moments before when he was going at a 25 mile clip, the car would undoubtedly have turned a summersault and they been caught underneath.—Enterprise.

BRIGHTON—Edward Kirk of Hartland has gone into the business of raising ginseng on a large scale at least for this county. He raises the roots for the Chinese markets as that is where nearly all the ginseng raised in America goes. His old beds occupied a space of some 40x50 feet covered with a sort of old slat fence. The roots in this original bed were worth some $1200 as near as could be estimated without digging them up. This spring Mr. Kirk is enclosing a much larger space and has set out five beds 90 feet long. Mr. Kirk has made a special study of the art of raising ginseng. The dried roots are worth $5 to $8 per pound.—Argus.

MILAN—The council have recently purchased a safe for the use of the village clerk so that documents left in his care may be properly protected in case of fire, there being many valuable papers in his possession. One was secured in Detroit and in placing it on the second floor of the village hall in the council room one day last week, Dan Bell, who had the work in charge had quite an experience with the "cantankerous critter." When near the top of the stairs the tackle broke in some way and the safe started suddenly to explore the lower regions, in passing taking out a door and frame and a good sized chunk of brick wall. However it was very fortunate that no workman happened to be in the way as it would probably have meant death to anyone in the path of the safe.—Leader.

DEXTER—At a meeting of the alumni association of the Dexter high school, held at the home of Mrs. Anna Phelps, it was decided to hold the annual banquet on the evening of Saturday, June 21.

GRASS LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Crafts of this village, left for Montana Sunday morning and do not intend to return until the first of November. While there they will be the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Arthur Campbell.

PINCKNEY—The St. Mary's church here was bequeathed $5,000 approximately, by the late Mrs. M. Farley. At this writing there is considerable talk that the church will build a Catholic school, although nothing definite has as yet been decided upon.—Dispatch.

DEXTER—Deputy Sheriff Fred Wyman of Dexter, Friday afternoon arrested Clyde Pierce on the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He was later arraigned before Justice Cook, and on pleading guilty, was fined $5 and costs, which he paid and was released.

PINCKNEY—Arrangements are already beginning to be made by the various Fourth of July committees for the glorious celebration to be held here this year. Pinckney, as far as we know now, is the only town in Livingston county that will recognize Independence Day.—Dispatch.

The reports of John R. Miner, special accountant, were then read as follows: Chelsea, Mich., April 17, 1913.
Mr. Daniel C. McLaren, President Chelsea Village,

Sir:
I have examined the books, vouchers and accounts of the treasurer of the village from the 1st of March 1912 to March 17, 1913 and report as follows: The treasurer's record for the first year, 1908-9, have been mislaid or lost, and search for the same has not been successful. From the best information obtainable, the accounts of that year appear to be correct. The books and vouchers of the second year 1909-10 are in perfect condition and have upon examination been found correct. The books of the third year 1910-11 contained many errors on both sides of the account. The total receipts as shown by the books were $2466.10.
To this amount should be added error on page 46. Received from light and water collector more than was entered on treasurers' book..... $ 21.82
Page 64, error in footing..... 10.00

Total..... $2470.92
The total payments as shown by the books of the treasurer..... $2165.42
Add error in footing page 64..... 100.00
Add credit for delinquent taxes not entered on books..... 123.16 $2287.58

Correct balance on hand..... $ 2827.34
Which amount is $4.12 more than called for by annual report.
From a careful examination I find the following to be a correct account of the transactions for that year, 1911-12:
Balance on hand March 1911..... $ 2827.34
Received from liquor licenses 1990.00
Received from sundry licenses 112.00
Received from fines..... 15.00
Received from litter sold..... 4.50
Received from Sear's fire..... 5.00
Received from electric light and water..... 14406.49
Received from general taxes 11604.11
Received from paving taxes..... 3011.40
Received from sidewalk taxes 215.18
$34191.02

DISBURSEMENTS.
Paid account electric light and water..... $20666.29
Paid account general fund..... 2948.91
Paid account street fund..... 4428.05
Paid account sidewalk fund..... 472.20
Paid account bond fund..... 5825.00
Correct balance should have been paid over to successor 355.57 $34191.02

The amount which was paid successor was $216.37. There is therefore due from the late treasurer, George W. Millsap, the sum of $139.20. The books of the present treasurer show a number of errors for small amounts, but as they occur both on the debit and credit side of the account, the balance on hand as stated $38.65 is correct.

Jno. R. Miner, Accountant.
Chelsea, Mich., April 26, 1913.
Mr. D. C. McLaren, Village President, Chelsea, Michigan.

Dear Sir:
At the request of a number of citizens I have examined the report of the president and clerk of the village of Chelsea, giving in detail the cost of paving Main, Middle and Park streets, together with the vouchers accompanying that report and find that vouchers were filed for an expenditure made in paving those streets, and the payrolls are properly signed by those parties who received the money.

Respectfully,
Jno. R. Miner, Accountant.
Chelsea, Mich., May 27, 1913.
To the Finance Committee of the Village of Chelsea, Mich.

Gentlemen:
Since making a report on the condition of the books of the several treasurers of the village of Chelsea on the 17th of April, 1913, certain claims have been made by George W. Millsap, treasurer in 1910-1912, for credits for which he claims credit as follows:
1st. That the assessment of the National Peat Fuel company was charged to him on the roll as $100.00, but that the said assessment was compromised by the council at $62.50. This John Kalmbach, now city attorney, certifies is correct..... $ 37.50
2nd. That on page 94 of the treasurer's book warrant No. 3169 was circled as outstanding (not paid), so that in former report he did not get credit for that amount. This warrant now I find was paid by him, and he is entitled to that credit..... 83.20
3rd. That on page 116 warrant No. 3686 was treated in the same manner, and he is entitled to that credit..... 1.70
4th. Warrant No. 3168 was held a long time by the bank, and while so held he paid interest amounting to $14.45, for which he is entitled to credit..... 14.45

After making the above allowances, there will be a balance due from Mr. Millsap of $2.35 instead of the amount $139.20 heretofore reported. Respectfully,
Jno. R. Miner, Accountant.
Moved by Hummel, supported by Dancer that the reports of J. R. Miner, accountant, be accepted and made a part of the minutes.

Yeas—Hummel, Dancer, Storms, Merkel. Nays—none. Carried.
Moved by Hummel supported by Dancer that we adjourn until Monday, June 3, 1913. Carried.
C. W. MARONEY,
Village Clerk.

Fishermen Alarmed.

Game Warden Oates says that some of the sportsmen of the state are unnecessarily alarmed over the anglers' license bill passed at the last session, as they are confusing it with the hunters' license bill.

The anglers' license bill provides that non-residents of Michigan must pay one dollar for catching all kinds of fish, except brook trout and where they catch game fish they must pay $3 for a license. This does not in any manner refer to Michigan fishermen. The hunters' license bill on the other hand compels every hunter who goes outside his own county to take out a gun license costing him $1.

DON'T EXPERIMENT

You Will Make No Mistake if You Follow This Chelsea Citizen's Advice.

Never neglect your kidneys. If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness, it's time to act and no time to experiment. These are frequently symptoms of kidney trouble, and a remedy which is recommended for the kidneys should be taken in time. Doan's Kidney Pills is a good remedy to use. No need to experiment. It has acted effectively in many cases in Chelsea. Follow the advice of a Chelsea citizen.

John Kelly, W. Middle St., Chelsea, Mich., says: "Hard work started my kidney trouble. The kidney secretions became irregular and too frequent in passage. I also suffered from rheumatic pains in my back and was stiff and sore. Mornings I felt all tired out, and I was dizzy and nervous. I tried different remedies but was not helped until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. They wonderfully relieved me of the trouble from my back and kidneys. I am glad to confirm the public statement I gave some time ago."

F. H. BELSER

"That's the sixth Studebaker we've passed—the only kind to invest in"

"The only kind—because, as I always say, when a man puts money in a thing he wants to know that he's going to get the worth of it out again."

"That's plain business as I look at it."

"That's why I say the price doesn't tell you anything at all. There's only one thing that talks—except the wagon itself. That's the name of the maker."

"When you buy a Studebaker you're buying a vehicle that has behind it and in sixty years of experience—sixty years of success—and sixty years of reputation for the square deal. That's why a Studebaker always looks good to me."

"My father used to say that Studebaker honor was as sure as a United States bank note. He was talking after having used Studebaker vehicles since he was a lad, and he told me his father before him said, 'Be safe—get a Studebaker.'"

"Vehicle builders can't hold that sort of reputation nowadays without delivering the goods. A Studebaker wagon has the best in it. That's why a man gets the most out of it—why it's always an economy."

"Dealers may say to you something else is 'just as good.' But when you buy a Studebaker, you're making a safe investment every time."
