PROMINENT ATTORNEY DIES

Oldest Member of Washtenaw Bar and County Auditor.

Frank Joslyn of Ypsilanti died suddenly on Sunday, March 11th, aged 73 years.

He was born November 23, 1843, and was the son of Circuit Judge Chauncey Joslyn. He was a veteran of the Civil war, enlisting from the U. of M. in 1862 in the Fifth Michigan Cavalry, and in 1863 was promoted to second lieutenant in the Ninth Michigan cavalry. At the close of the war he studied law in his father's office and was admitted to the bar in 1881. He served several terms as justice of the peace. At the time of his death he was county auditor, and had again been nominated for the office by the Democrats. His widow, a son and two daughters survive him.

The Pneumonia Season.
The cold, damp weather of March seems to be the most favorable for the pneumonia germ. Now is the time to be careful. Pneumonia often ger. As soon as the first indication of a cold appears take Chamberlain's this preparation, ask anyone who has

JAMES L. GILBERT.

James L. Gilbert, for many years a prominent resident of Chelsea, died Monday, March 12, 1917, at his home on East Middle street, at the ripe old age of 80 years, nine months and 18 days.

Mr. Gilbert was born in Clinton, Michigan, May 30, 1836, his parents being Norman and Elizabeth Gilbert, both descendants from good old Puritan families, the Gilberts being among the earliest settlers in Lenawee county.

In 1853 Mr. Gilbert entered Albion college and after graduating, settled in Chelsea, which remained his home up to the time of his death.

He had a long record of efficient public service as supervisor of Sylvan township for 12 years, as state tax commissioner for six years, a position he held up until the time of his last illness.

Mr. Gilbert was married to Miss Martha Octoby, November 16, 1859, and to this union three children were born, of whom one is living, Mrs.
Mary Welch of Pontiac. Mrs. Gilbert died in 1890.

Mr. Gilbert was again married October 28, 1896, to Mrs. Fannie Watkins, who is left to mourn her loss.

The funeral will be held Wednesday, March 14, at two o'clock from the residence, 237 East Middle street,
Rev. P. W. Dierberger officiating.
Interment at Oak Grove cemetery.

DEXTER WANTS WATER

Neighboring Village Appoints Committee to Investigate Cost of Proposed System.

Dexter village is agitating the question of a water and sewage system for that village and the council has appointed a committee of two of its members to investigate the matter. Dr. F. L. Arner, a brother-in-law of O. D. Schneider of this place, is one of the committee.

Commenting upon the proposed improvement, the Dexter Leader says:

"This would seem to be a move in the right direction. Whatever the ultimate result may be, if action is to be taken by the people, they should have some definite information before the question is submitted to a vote and if the people desire to thus express their opinion, it is but right that they should have an opportunity.

"Dexter is most fortunate in having continuous electric service, and gas. If to these modern conveniences could be added that of water works, it would not only be much to the advantage of present residents, but would also be a strong inducement to attract new residents, who are looking for or building homes in those of the smaller towns where such modern conveniences are available.

"In the meantime let us give the committee an opportunity to perform its work, and extend any aid in our power that it may require."

CLOSE SHAVE FOR HORSE

Williamston Barber Has Big Surprise
When Runaway Animal Plunges into Basement Shop.

A Williamston horse broke into the limelight recently when it ran away, in a misguided moment, and finally came to its senses in the village barber shop, located in a basement, after doing an Annette Kellerman down the basement steps.

Needless to say, barber Phil Perkins got the surprise of his life when his four footed customer came tumbling down the basement stairs leading to his shop beneath the Crossman & Williams bank. And it was a "close shave" for the horse, although he had no idea of getting shaved when he started the runaway stunt.

Although the horse made quick work arriving at the bottom of the stairs, it was necessary to lead him into the shop and turn him around before he could be gotten out. The escapade, though a remarkable one, did not injure the horse and the owner drove it home without further mishap.

17-YEAR LOCUST AGAIN DUE

Coming of Periodical Cicada Is Predicted in Pennsylvania by College Professor.

Pucky Danish Captain.

A hero in every sense of the word is the captain of the Danish steamer Iris which, sailing from one neutral port to another and having no contraband aboard, was halted by a German submarine and the crew ordered to leave the ship, in order that it might be sunk. The Danish captain flatly refused to leave his ship. "You may sink us, but I and my men will remain on board," he told the submarine commander. And his pluck won. His ship was allowed to proceed when it was seen that he knew his rights and was not afraid to assert them.

New Art Disguises Uniforms.

One of the largest conceptions for rendering military uniforms less visible on the field of battle is to use material in pronounced irregular alternating patches of contrasting light and dark colors with navy outlines. Some of the darker patches are outlined in a still darker color, and smaller spots of contrasting color break up the color effect of some of the patches, so that the effect of uncertain light and shade is produced, to cause the garment to lose its identity by mingling with the background.

HOUSE RESOLVES TO ADJOURN MARCH 31

ARE MAKING SPECIAL EFFORT TO GET WORK THROUGH ON DATE SET.

SPECIAL SESSION LOOMS

Prohibition, Budget, Insurance Code, Railroad and Numerous Other Bills to be Cared For.

(From Our Special Correspondent.) Lansing.

Coincident with a desire to conclude work of this legislative session by March 31 and adjourn as far as business is concerned, on that date, the senate and house have suddenly become busy with the bills in front of them. The lawmakers express a belief that they can dispose of all matters of real statewide interest and go home before April showers start.

The house has passed a resolution to set March 31 as the date for business adjournment, with April 19 and 20 as the dates for final adjournment. And although a special session looms up as a strong possibility the effort is to be made to get through work on the date set. To accomplish the result desired the legislature still has to handle practically the entire business of the session. The prohibition bills, which the general public thought would be the first to appear in either house as the result of the November majority in favor of statewide prohibition, had not yet appeared when the house adopted the adjournment resolution and sent it over to the senate. It was the next day after that new bills appeared from the joint liquor committees to care for the prohibition situation.

Three bills came forth as a final statement from the committees as to what they desired in the way of prohibition legislation. One was introduced by Rep. Wiley, who had introduced earlier in the session the bill prepared by the Anti-Saloon league attorneys. It had eliminated all reference to the importation of liquors for personal use in Michigan, and in its search and seizure provisions and its enactments against possession of intoxicants was as bone dry as the original bone dry measure. The second bill was offered by Rep. McArthur, author of the original bone dry bill. It differed but little from the Wiley bill, except that the latter put the enforcement of the law in the hands of the food and drug commissioner, while the McArthur bill left enforcement to prosecuting attorneys of the various counties.

The third bill was put in by Rep. Lewis, chairman of the house liquor committee. It changes the title of the dairy and food commissioner to that of food and drug commissioner; invests him with the enforcement of the liquor laws; extends his term of two years to four and raises his salary after the present term, from $2,000 to $3,500. Also it is provided that a special deputy attorney general shall assist the food and drug commissioner as far as the legal part of his work is concerned.

An Oddity in Legislative Work.

An oddity in legislative work occurred when Rep. Leighton cast the only vote against a bill which he had introduced himself. The bill provided originally for raising witness fees in circuit courts to $3 a day, and also provided for $1.50 fees for half days. The committee which had the bill in charge liked the half day idea, but reduced the fees to $2 a day and $1 for a half day. Rep. Leighton fought to have the original fees put back in, but his efforts failed. He then voted against the bill, but every other member present, 79 in all, voted for it.

Must Have Warrants.

The house killed the senate bill that would permit officers to make arrests without warrants. House members believed that police have enough power in the making of arrests now, and the bill, although it had passed the senate and was endorsed by the state association of prosecutors and sheriffs and by the state bar association, received two votes less than the 51 required to pass the house. Its friends had the vote reconsidered and made a second effort to pass it, but it lost nine votes and failed for good the second time up.

Road Building Bill.

One of the most interesting road building bills introduced was put in by Rep. Farrier, who proposes that the state shall pay five cents an acre on its homestead lands and swamp lands to the counties in which they are located. At the five cent rate Rep. Farrier figures that the counties will have $30,000 a year additional road money.

More New Bills.

New bills continue to make their appearance in both houses as rapidly as in the early weeks of the session. Some of the most interesting of them are:

Senator W. W. Smith wants the state to buy as a state park 200 acres of original pine forest in Grand Traverse county, owned by Douglas & Buckley. This piece of land is said to be the only virgin pine in the lower peninsula and is valued at $60,000. The bill would appropriate this sum.

By Rep. Wood, to allow mayors of cities to seize for fuel or food in time of famine and recompense the owners at cost, plus 15 per cent.

By Rep. Weissert, to establish county boards of health in counties which decide by referendum that they want them.

Members of the Flint Association of Deaf, most of whom are graduates of the Michigan School for the Deaf, have sent to Senator Stewart a petition asking him to introduce a bill to punish persons who attempt to obtain deaf by representing themselves as deaf, dumb or otherwise physically unfortunate. The proposed law would make it a misdemeanor. Several other states have such a law.

Aims to Kill Tax Commission.

With one bill wiping out the state tax commission and another providing for local review of assessments to which objection is made, Representative Andrew L. Deuel, of Harbor Springs, stepped into the spotlight. Deuel is frank in admitting that he guesses his bill doesn't stand much show, but he wants to make the fight anyway, because of the treatment he alleges the state tax commission handed to the neighbors up his way.

The tax commission "death blow" provides a substitute in the shape of a state board of assessors of three men, consisting of the governor and two citizens selected by himself, at $3,500 a year. It then provides new methods for valuing the railroads and other corporations that pay a specific tax and would base this valuation on equipment and mileage and the relations between these factors and capitalization and bond issues after the reality and the personal property have been deducted.

The review bill provides that a city village, township or individual may appeal from the equalization of the board of supervisors or from the acts of an assessing officer by application to the probate court, which must appoint a commission of three disinterested property holders to adjudicate the question.

One Deer, With Horns.

The "one buck law," which has many warm advocates and many warm opponents, has been reported out and bids fair to use up a day or two of legislative time in the arguments that will be had over its value to the state. It permits a hunter to kill only one deer in a season and that a buck deer. Advocates of the bill say that it will stop the killing of hunters by other hunters who shoot when they see a moving object in the woods. Opponents say that it will result only in killed does being left in the woods. The subject is one that is always certain to produce an endless argument in the legislature.

Constitutional Amendments.

Two constitutional amendments are fairly certain to come up for a vote in April as a result of the last week's work in the legislature. One is the amendment empowering the state to buy and operate railroads and the other the amendment to allow cities to establish municipal fuel yards. The first has gone through both houses. It is designed to give the state power to compel the Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee railroad, now a part of the Grand Trunk system, to pay taxes levied by the state. The other has been reported out for consideration and its advocates claim that a majority of both houses are pledged to its passage.

Sufferers from Kidney Ailments Should Remember This

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is one remedy that I feel I can conscientiously recommend to my customers. I have handled it for eight years and know of cases of liver trouble and catarrh or inflammation of the bladder that were cured by its curative action. My mother used Swamp-Root several years ago for liver trouble and since that time she has enjoyed excellent health. This valuable preparation I believe will do all that is claimed for it in the diseases for which it is intended.

Very true yours

FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save Your Hair! Get a 25 Cent Bottle of Danderine Right Now—Also Stops Itching Scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its luster, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any store, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, luster and luxuriance which is so beautiful. SYRUP OF FIGS FOR A CHILD'S BOWELS

It is cruel to force nauseating, harsh physic into a sick child.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Adv.

MEXICO ELECTS CARRANZA

Chief Made President in First Real Election Ever Held.

Mexico City—General Venustiano Carranza was Sunday elected president of Mexico. Although the voters had the privilege of writing in or declaring any name they desired, General Carranza received all but a few scattering ballots.

Many of the old residents declare that this was the first real election ever held in that country. Reports from various parts of the republic indicate that there was no disturbance or intimidation.

Mexico will now have a constitutional president for the first time since 1911, when Francisco Madero received more than 300,000 votes. General Victoriano Huerta called an election in 1914 and declared himself elected, but later nullified the election on the grounds that an insufficient number of votes had been cast.

His election to the presidency marks the climax of the efforts of Generals Carranza, who took the field against Huerta February 19, 1913, after Huerta had seized the executive power.

BAGDAD FALLS TO BRITISH

Capture of Turkish City Shatters German Dream in East.

London—Bagdad, the chief Turkish city in Mesopotamia, and formerly the capital of the empire of the Caliphs, has been captured by the British forces. Announcement of the capitulation of the city was made by the British official press bureau.

The fall of Bagdad, besides ending German hopes of near eastern domination, based on a Berlin-Bagdad railway, of which Bagdad was the eastern terminus, will reverberate throughout the Mohammedan empires, and it is believed, will more than rehabilitate British prestige in the far east, damaged by the earlier loss of Kut-el-Amara.

TWO CITIES ARE HIT BY CYCLONES

CINCINNATI, OHIO, AND NEW CASTLE, INDIANA, STRUCK BY WINDSTORM.

PROPERTY LOSS $1,000,000

New Castle is Hardest Hit; Forty-two Persons Are Reported Killed and More Than 150 Injured.

Indianapolis—Perhaps fifty or more persons were killed and 200 injured Sunday in a tornado that swept over part of Indiana and extended into Ohio, wrecking a section of the fashionable residential district of Cincinnati. In New Castle, Ind., the hardest hit city, 42 are reported dead and more than 150 injured, many fatally, and the property loss is estimated at more than $1,000,000.

The storm swept over New Castle in a southeasterly direction, cutting a swath two blocks wide and ten blocks long. More than 300 houses were wrecked, a school and several manufacturing plants were demolished. The cyclone approached suddenly and lasted only five minutes. Fire, which broke in the wreckage hindered rescuing parties already handicapped by the city being thrown into darkness by the destruction of the lighting plant.

Dispatches from Cincinnati conveyed the information that one child is known to be dead and several persons are supposed to have lost their lives when an off-shot of the tornado wrecked a number of residences in the exclusive Hyde Park neighborhood. Fire broke out in the ruins in which a number are supposed to be buried.

GUNS FOR VESSELS

PRESIDENT ORDERS ARMING OF MERCHANT SHIPS AGAINST SUBMARINES.

EXTRA SESSION IS CALLED

Congress Summoned to Convene on April 16—Details Concerning Placing of Guns on Merchantmen Are Withheld by the Government.

Washington March 12.—President Wilson has decided to arm American merchant ships, under his constitutional authority, and also has called a special session of congress for April 16. American merchant ships sailing for the submarine zone have been armed by the government and they are ready to sail.

To Conceal Names of Ships.

The names of the armed ships will not be made public by the government and are not expected to be published in the newspapers.

The president signed the proclamation for the extra session on Friday while lying in bed with a cold. Orders for carrying out the president's decision to arm ships were immediately sent to the navy department.

The president decided to arm ships after receiving formal opinions from Attorney General Gregory and Secretary Lansing that he had such authority, in spite of old statutes which some believed forbade it.

Mr. Wilson has the backing of the entire cabinet in taking the step. Guns for arming merchantmen have been assembled at Navy Yards along the Atlantic coast and everything is ready to carry out the policy announced by the president.

Ask Secrecy for Ships.

The navy department issued an appeal to the American newspapers to refrain from publishing any information whatever of the nature or armament of ships and already has appealed to the cable companies to suppress all information of ships crossing the Atlantic in either direction.

Because of the passage by the house of the armed neutrality bill and the signing of the manifesto approving such a step by a majority of the senate during its last session, the president feels he has congress and the country behind him. As soon as congress convenes additional legislation on the question will be asked.

Under a bill passed near the end of the last session the amount of money at the disposal of the government war risk bureau for insuring American ships was increased to $15,000,000. Under the present rule of the bureau the government does not insure ships carrying arms or ammunition.

Tumulty Makes Statement.

The following statement was issued: "Secretary Tumulty stated in connection with the president's call for an extra session of congress that the president is convinced that he has the power to arm American merchant ships and is free to exercise it at once. But so much necessary legislation is pressing for consideration that he is convinced that it is for the best interests of the country to have an early session of the Sixty-fifth congress, whose support he will need in all matters collateral to the defense of our merchant marine."

After the White House announced the navy department announced "we are prepared as to gunners as well as guns."

May Ask Approval of Step.

It was stated that as soon as the new congress convenes the president will lay before a joint session his views and desires as to legislation. If he wants legislative sanction for his step in arming American ships, congressional leaders declared that it would be promptly forthcoming.

The adoption of a cloture rule in the senate has cleared the way for action in both houses to hold up the president's hands in dealing with Germany.

Immediately following the issuance of the call for an extra session there was a succession of events tending to make it extremely possible that there will be bi-partisan organization in the next house with Champ Clark continued as speaker.

White Book to Tell Plotting.

It became known that the administration is preparing a White book setting forth all of the evidence of German plotting against the United States, chiefly in the Latin-American countries, and of the activities of German agents in inciting acts of violence on American soil. These documents are to be published in the event that relations with Germany take a more serious turn.

With the government lunched on the policy of arming American merchantmen to defy the risks of the German war zone, the newspapers and all other news-dispensing agencies of the United States were requested to place themselves under a self-imposed censorship.

Get a 10-cent box. Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Adv.

IRELAND'S GLORY

IT WAS the foundation of St. Patrick's greatness that his renovation of Ireland was not a revolution. He left old institutions and traditions untouched, wherever they could be purged of a taint of superstition. There were septs and clans, laws and judges, bards and kings before him, and they continued after him. He built his church carefully. To disarm political opposition he appealed straight to the heads of the clans. He aimed at the creation of a native clergy. He tried to give every community a place of worship. At his death 365 churches lay along the routes his journeys had taken; 365 bishops were distributed throughout the land, 3,000 priests ministered to the spiritual wants of the nation. He attempted to throw into the church thus suddenly created a strong element of stability by systematizing it on the models of the canons and making ecclesiastical law effective in every department.

He did not believe in sanctity unassociated with education. Under him religion created great monasteries, and monasteries created great schools. By those schools St. Patrick is a factor in the history of Europe. Even before he went to Ireland he had seen the days when Ostrogoths established themselves in Pannonia and Thrace, when the Visigoths sacked the Italian peninsula from end to end and carved out a Spanish kingdom within the domains of great Rome, when the Huns rode their blazing course up the Danube and the Rhine almost to the ocean; when the Vandals terrorized Spain and crushed the power of the empire in northern Africa, when the Sallian Franks took firm grip of northern Gaul. His long life stretches over a period during which the whirlwind of barbaric invasions swept away all but a remnant of the ancient learnings. But now the world went to school to Ireland, and the Irish brought their school to the world. Religion, the ancient classics, law, history, natural science, agriculture, manual training, the use of implements and the forge, all came within the scope of these intense and practical scholars.

Not without reason has the name of St. Patrick been held in veneration through these many generations. There is nowhere a teacher whose services for learning exerted so wide an influence in a time so critical for all culture. There is nowhere a statesman whose activity so completely reformed the character of any people. There is nowhere such a national hero whose fame is sounded across fifteen centuries and can still stir emotions of enthusiasm far beyond his nation's shores. There is nowhere a saint whose teachings are blended like his with the destinies of his nation.

THE BANKS OF AVONMORE

Here! Grandma, here's a present, it comes a distance, too. 'Tis a little pot of shamrocks and it comes straight to you. Yes, all the way from Ireland, and the card here mentions more. They were gathered at your birthplace, on the banks of Avonmore.

From Ireland, do you tell me? O, darling, is it true? Acushla, let me feel them—and you say 'twas they that grew.

Well, I can scarce believe it; is it really what you say?

From my own birthplace in Ireland, poor Ireland, far away.

I'm old, and stiff, and feeble, and in darkness—God be praised. Yet, Katie, how it ails, how my old heart is raised. To feel it here—near me, the soil that gave me birth—The very soil of Ireland, let me kiss the sacred earth.

These blessed little shamrocks; I can't see them, yet I know They bring me back the eyesight of many years ago. And gleaming through the darkness comes the vision that I love—The dear, green fields of Ireland and the sunny skies above.

I can see, as once I saw them, when a girl like you, I stood Amid the furze and heather; there's the chapel, hill and wood. There's the Abbey, clad with ivy, and the river's winding shore. And the boys and girls all playing on the banks of Avonmore.

God bless the little shamrocks, then, for calling back the scene, The beauty of the sunshine and the brightness of the green. Through long, long years to see it, and to see it all so plain—O, child, I'm sure you're smiling, but I'm feeling young again.

And though I'm truly thankful for the blessing that God's hand Has brought around me, Katie, in this great and happy land, I can't forget the old home, midst the comforts of the new. My heart is these parts buried where these little shamrocks grew.

ERIN'S HOLY PLACE

For Fifteen Centuries The Reek Has Played Important Part in Country's History.

IT IS in the month July that the great annual pilgrimage of The Reek takes place.

The Reek, sometimes known as Crough Patrick, is the Mount Zion of the Emerald Isle. For on its summit St. Patrick is said to have wrung from the angel many promises for the salvation of the people he had made his own.

For fifteen centuries this mountain has played an important part in the religious history of Ireland, and year by year people journey by the thousands up the mountain, which is about 3,000 feet high. It is a steep and difficult ascent, occupying the best part of three hours, and most of the pilgrims make it in the evening, so as to hold their vigil on the summit. There

The Reek.

WHY THE SHAMROCK IS WORN

Custom Not Only in Honor of the Saint, but in Remembrance of Days of Famine.

Few who put a sprig of shamrock in their buttonhole on the 17th of March realize that these little green leaves more than once kept the Irish from death in dire famine times.

In 1596 the poet Spenser declares that the war had brought the miserable inhabitants of Munster to a point where they "flock to a plot of water-cresses or shamrocks as to a feast."

In his "View of Ireland" he describes this as the depth of ruin to which a land formerly having abundant corn and cattle had been plunged.

The troublous times continued and the shamrock is mentioned as an article of food again and again. Fynes Morrison, in 1598, writes that the herb is still "being snatched out of the ditches for food."

Withers in "Abuses Strip and Whip" (1613) says:

And for my clothing in a mantle go And feed on shamrocks as the Irish do.

Not until later was the shamrock used as the national emblem of Erin. Nathaniel Colgan, member of the Royal Irish academy, says the earliest record of the "wearing of the green" is contained in the diary of Thomas Dinley, who wrote in 1687:

"17th day of March yearly is St. Patrick, an immovable feast, when the Irish of all stations and conditions wear crosses in their hats, some of pins, some of green ribbon, and the vulgar superstitiously wear shamrocks, three-leaved grass, which they likewise eat (they say to cause a sweet breath). The common people and servants also demand their Patrick's goat of their masters, which they go expressly to town, though half a dozen miles off, to spend, where sometimes it amounts to a piece of eight or a cob piece, and very few of the zealous are found sober at night."

A later reference to the wearing of the shamrock appears in the works of Dr. Caleb Threlkeld, a botanist of the early eighteenth century. He says:

"The people wear the plant in their hats in commemoration of St. Patrick, 'believing that St. Patrick used the three-lobed leaf to explain the Christian Trinity. This belief is generally said by antiquarians to have arisen in the fourteenth century, almost a thousand years after the time of Patrick,' who died in A. D. 493.

In that year, says the Annals of Ulster, "Patrick, the arch-apostle of the Scoti (Irish) rested on the 16th day of the calends of April (March 17) in the one hundred and twentieth year of his life, the sixtieth year after he had come to Ireland to baptize the Scoti."

Four or Five-Leaved Shamrock?

Some say the four-leaf shamrock is the shamrock of luck, and others that it is the five-leaved one that holds the magic touch. This latter is rare and prized and is said to grow from a decaying body, as the nettle is said to spring from buried human remains. The shamrock of luck must be found "without searching, without seeking." When thus discovered, it should be cherished and preserved as an invincible talisman.

"Oh, down the railroad," replied the small son. "But why must you follow the railroad, Harold?" "Why, mother, don't you know, the dog has to smell the tracks," he replied in disgust.

Saves Eggs

Royal Baking Powder makes it possible to produce appetizing and wholesome cakes, muffins, cornbread, etc., with fewer eggs than are usually required.

In many recipes the number of eggs may be reduced and excellent results obtained by using an additional quantity of Royal Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, for each egg omitted. The following tested recipe is a practical illustration:

- SPONGE CAKE
- 1 cup sugar
 - 3/4 cup water
 - 3 eggs
 - 2 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
 - 1 cup flour
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 cup cold water
 - 1 teaspoon flavoring
- DIRECTIONS—Bolt sugar and water until syrup spins a thread and add to the stiffly beaten whites of eggs, beating until the mixture is cold. Sift together three times the flour, salt and baking powder; beat yolks of eggs until thick; add a little at a time flour mixture and egg yolks alternately to white of egg mixture, stirring after each addition. Add 1/2 cup cold water and flavoring. Mix lightly and bake in moderate oven one hour.

The old method called for six eggs and no baking powder. Booklet of recipes which economize in eggs and other expensive ingredients mailed free. Address Royal Baking Powder Co., 125 William Street, New York.

and allow the time of the farm laborer, who has filed on the land, to apply as residence duties, the same as if he actually had lived on it. This appeal for farm help is in no way connected with enlistment for military service but solely to increase agricultural output. Roger Williams was the founder of the state of Rhode Island. He was born in London in either 1604 or 1605. He refused to join the congregation at Boston because the people would not make public declaration of their repentance for having been in communion with the Church of England. Banished from the Massachusetts Bay colony in 1633, he escaped to the shores of Narragansett bay, accompanied by a few of the adherents of the extreme puritanism which he advocated; he purchased land of the Indians and founded the city of Providence in 1636.—Philadelphia Ledger.

With the Fingers!

Says Corns Lift Out Without Any Pain

Soft corns, hard corns, soft corns or any kind of a corn can shortly be lifted right out with the fingers if you will apply on the corn a few drops of freezone, says a Cincinnati authority.

At little cost one can get a small bottle of freezone at any drug store, which will positively rid one's feet of every corn or callus without pain or soreness or the danger of infection.

This new drug is an ether compound, and dries the moment it is applied and does not inflame or even irritate the surrounding skin. Just think! You can lift off your corns and calluses now without a bit of pain or soreness. If your druggist hasn't freezone he can easily get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house.—adv.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. ON BEING A GOOSE

They Honk Like an Automobile and Can Make All the Hills on "High."

The geese flying northward this spring look down with derision as their high wedges sail over the half-imitative flocks of new automobiles trailing over every road in this part of Michigan.

The leading gander honks at the slower speed of the bobbing black things and his flyers jeer at the generalship that does not provide clear sailing, but makes the followers take the mud and dust of those ahead.

Looking down like a goose, all these shining black things on wheels lack a lot of nature's free transportation facilities.

Despite the "dry" victory, Detroit people have their gasoline, and what more do they want.

A Bilious Attack.

When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. They only cost a quarter.—Adv.
