Winans and children, of Highland Park.

Due to a clerical mistake the name of Hiram Pierce was not checked off from the list of the men who reported Saturday for physical examination before the draft exemption board. His name was included in the list published in Sunday morning's Patriot relative to men who did not report before the board when ordered to do so. The Patriot deeply regrets that Mr. Pierce should have been humiliated by seeing his name in the latter list when he had promptly reported before the exemption board. He states he is ready and willing to serve when called.—Jackson Patriot. Mr. Pierce was a former Chelsea boy.

Born, on Sunday, August 5, 1917, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Foster, a daughter.
