CLOSE CALL FOR BABY.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Young narrowly escaped serious injury Friday evening. Mrs. Young had left the child in its cab in front of the Sugar Bowl and it is presumed that it became restless and that its movements started the cab rolling down the North Main street hill.

In front of the Chelsea restaurant the cab rolled off the sidewalk to the pavement and tipped over in the gutter. The curb at that point is about eighteen inches high, but fortunately the child suffered only a severe bump on its forehead.

LETTER FROM "SOME WHERE IN FRANCE"

Jack Raleigh Says Americans Are Well Treated and Healthy

The Tribune received a brief letter this morning from J. J. (Jack) Raleigh, who is with the 16th Engineers, Railway, U. S. Expeditionary Force in France. The letter is not dated, but the envelope bears a French postmark dated September 9th. He says:

Well, at last we are settled "somewhere in France" and everyone of us is enjoying the very best of health.

The weather here is splendid, crops look very good as far as I have seen, fruit is cheap and of excellent quality and we are able to purchase it easily.

The trip over was delightful and uneventful and we rolled along the last lap quite readily and without interference.

We are quartered in a quaint old French town that bears traces of having been erected in the time of the feudal lords. The people use us fine and are very kind and considerate. Just now we are doing our utmost to acquire a speaking knowledge of the French language.

Although I am quite near the firing line I know nothing about how the battles are going. Also, the censor is very strict and I cannot write anything regarding the military operations.

Best regards to all old friends in Chelsea.

Sincerely,
Jack.

HUDSONAUTOMAN GLAD TO TESTIFY

Thought Trouble Would Keep Him From Working Any more, He Says.

HIS HEALTH RESTORED

"I'm Glad to Tell Anybody About a Thing That Did as Much For Me as Tanlac Has," Says Detroit Man.

"Yes sir, I am glad to tell anybody about a thing that did as much for me as Tanlac has," said Elmer Doonan, who is employed by the Hudson Motor Co., Detroit, Mich., as assembler and has many friends among the automobile workers. "I think it's only right," he continued, "to pass the good word along, for it was what I read in the papers about Tanlac that caused me to take it and get rid of this trouble that looked like it was going to keep me from working any more."

"For a long time I have had rheumatism in my limbs. The trouble was principally in my hands and wrist; in fact, the pains extended all the way down to my finger tips and my wrist would swell up and caused me to suffer something terrible. I just can't tell you how much I did suffer. I couldn't get any rest at nights on account of the pain and would get out of bed in the mornings so tired and worn-out it was all I could do to drag myself back to work. I finally got so bad I was losing a great deal of time for my work requires the use of nimble fingers and I simply couldn't keep up in my condition."

"After trying nearly everything and getting no better I was just about ready to give up trying any more. That is just the shape I had gotten into when I read about this Tanlac. I have now used three bottles and I sleep fine at nights, have a splendid appetite and am relieved of the troubles from which I suffered so long after other medicines failed to do me any good and if my statement will help anybody else to get relief from troubles like I had I'm glad to give it."

There is a Tanlac dealer in your town. Adv.

BIG QUESTIONS WAR RAISES

Tremendous Variety of Problems Must Be Solved by Those Directing the World Conflict.

Somewhere in the Australian hinterland railway trackage is being pulled up in order to be laid down again in the desert of Sinai or along the Tigris or in Albania or near the White sea or in the sector of Arras, says a thoughtful writer in a New York journal.

Given a shipload of iron ore, it is for someone to decide whether that iron is to be shell, or barbed wire, or steel helmet, or airplane engine, or traveling crane, or farm tractor for the raising of potatoes to feed the crew of the ship that brings Chinese coolies from Canton to Marseilles to handle other masses of iron ore at the Creusot armament factories.

And when you multiply the task by the number of departments, war, admiralty, agriculture and subsistence, when the problem develops into one of determining whether a man can be best used for throwing hand grenades at Bullecourt or plowing in Sussex or unloading wheat at Liverpool or manufacturing boots for the Russian armies in Roumania, it becomes plain how inadequate is the ordinary pencil stub and newspaper margin for winning the war out of hand.

BERNSTORFF LEADER OF TEUTON PLOTTERS IN U.S.

Copies of Records, Cablegrams, and Other Correspondence Show Former Ambassador's Hand Throughout a Series of Plots Against America

EVIDENCE OF GUILT IS CONCLUSIVE

Records Reveal Attempts to Influence Legislation Before Relations Were Broken—Show Payments of Money for Destruction of Lives and Spreading Propaganda

Washington—Determination to unearth the organization through which former Ambassador von Bernstorff worked in his efforts to prevent war, has developed in congress. House and senate leaders aroused at Sec'y Lansing's spectacular announcement of von Bernstorff's intrigue immediately demanded searching inquiry.

That an organization—powerful and richly supplied—was at Bernstorff's command is certain in light of Secretary Lansing's expose, it was agreed "on the Hill." But it operated without the legislators' knowledge of its financial backing, they declared.

Washington—The message sent by Count von Bernstorff January 22, 1917, while he was German ambassador here, to the Berlin foreign office requesting authority to pay $50,000 "to influence Congress through a certain organization," is as follows:

- "I request authority to pay out up to 50,000 (fifty thousand) dollars, in order, as on former occasions, to influence Congress through the organization you know of, which can perhaps prevent war.
- "I am beginning in the meantime to act accordingly.
- "In the above circumstances, a public official German declaration in favor of Ireland is highly desirable, in order to gain the support of Irish influence here."

The state department has plenty of proof that the cablegram as made public actually reached Germany. Neither Secretary Lansing nor any other officials would say whether any reply ever reached the ambassador. It is presumed, however, that one did, inasmuch as at that time the channels of communication of the German embassy were of the best.

Senators and representatives were told by the state department that the text as made public was complete. Intimations that certain organizations, through which von Bernstorff worked, were mentioned in the cablegram were denied.

No Comment By Lansing.

The text of the message was given out without comment. Extraordinary disclosures already made has fixed the belief that agents of the United States government have collected and compiled the entire story of German duplicity and intrigue.

The reference to avoiding war is taken as an indication that Bernstorff had knowledge of his government's intention to proclaim a merciless submarine warfare, and that he was equally confident that the United States government could not be placated by mere promises. The German announcement of its submarine plans was not made public until January 31. Three days later the United States government had severed relations with Germany.

The German ambassador had denied knowledge of his government's intention and pretended that he did not approve the course.

Congress Not Bribed.

It has not been assumed that the ambassador actually attempted to bribe or to personally influence any member of congress.

Fifty thousand dollars, it was pointed out, would go but a short way toward buying the influence of any congressman.

Judiciously expended, however, it might do much in compensating paid agents, known to have belonged to the elaborate machine Bernstorff had so carefully built up for propaganda and espionage.

Washington—Amazing disclosures of far-reaching German propaganda, intrigues, and plots in this country prior to the diplomatic break with Germany were made Saturday by the committee on public information.

In a bulletin styled "official expose" the committee quotes numerous letters, seized by the department of justice in April, 1916, in a raid on the New York office of Wolfe von Igel. Von Igel, in carrying on his manifold anti-American activities, documents show, was in constant touch with the German embassy and with Count von Bernstorff, then German ambassador to the United States.

Offenses Are Listed.

"In the form of letters, telegrams, notations, checks, receipts, ledgers, cash books, cipher codes, lists of spies and other memoranda," the committee says, "were found indications—in some instances of the vaguest nature, in others of the most damning conclusiveness—that the German Imperial government, through its representatives in a then friendly nation, was concerned with:

- "Violation of the laws of the United States.
- "Destruction of lives and property in merchant vessels on the high seas.
- "Irish revolutionary plots against Great Britain.
- "Fomenting ill feeling against the United States in Mexico.
- "Subordination of American writers and lecturers.
- "Financing of propaganda.
- "Maintenance of a spy system under the guise of a commercial investigation bureau.
- "Subsidizing of a bureau for the purpose of stirring labor troubles in munition plants.
- "The bomb industry and other related activities."

Bernstorff Leader.

Across the page streaked the name of Count von Bernstorff, former German ambassador, and his aides, Von Papen and Boy-Ed, attaches of the embassy.

Atop of this revelation linking the German embassy with throttling designs against the United States.

Senator King released letters that proved Fair Play and other radical newspapers had fattened on the largesse of German and Austrian agents. He advised weeding out the propagandists and counseled making war on Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey.

King told the senate he had photographic copies of checks and receipts for money paid by von Bernstorff to the Fairplay Publishing Co. and Marcus Braun, its editor, among others.

The Fairplay magazine may be one of the guiding hands of the "organization" mentioned by von Bernstorff as a possible factor in trying to influence congress against war. The sums paid out to it by the embassy show that it was a constant drain on the Teutonic exchequer.

King said he also has copies of papers showing payments from the Austrian embassy to foreign language newspapers. Among these is a $700 subsidy paid a Polish newspaper.

Data Is Authentic.

King's data is known to be absolutely authentic and further shows the extent of von Bernstorff's web of influence stretched throughout this country.

The King expose coupled with the state department revelations, stirred congress to new demands for searching inquiry into the use of the disloyal press in spreading German propaganda.

King's data shows that von Bernstorff was operating his pro-Teuton poison early in the war and the payments cited by King were almost two years previous to those Bernstorff admitted were being made in January, 1917.

If we can get a definite lead to work on, we will begin an investigation of the Bernstorff slush fund," said Senator Overman.

Overman is chairman of the lobby investigating committee. This committee can begin the investigation without a resolution or any further authorization than it possesses.

Overman conferred with several senators who have evidence.

Lansing authorized this statement: "I wish to say emphatically that I do not see how the Bernstorff message in any way reflects on congress or any member. This expose was apropos of German methods of peace propaganda and there is no intention of casting suspicion on members of congress."

While deploring the tendency of some men in congress to delay legislation that would aid the war, Senator King does not believe that any members of the body have been actually influenced by German money.

The Wrong Kind of Keys

AIRMAN KILLED AT SELFRIDGE FIELD

IS THE FIRST FATAL ACCIDENT

Victim Had Passed Necessary Tests For Reserve Military Airmen—Slated For Lieutenantcy.

Mt. Clemens.—His airplane turning turtle, making two complete loops and falling to recover, Wilbur A. Mong, of Titusville, Pa., student aviator at Selfridge Aviation field, Mt. Clemens, fell 1,500 feet at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning and was instantly killed.

The theory is that Mong fainted because of the high altitude, fell across the controls, and prevented the machine from righting itself. Although there have been several accidents and falls at Selfridge field since the aviation school was opened in July, this is the first fatality.

Mong was making his third flight of the morning. When the accident occurred his machine was making what is known as a "tail spin," a straight dive for the ground from a high altitude with the tail of the machine whirling around. Suddenly the machine turned turtle, made two complete turns, and, upside down, slid off at a tangent toward the ground.

Recently Mong passed the necessary tests for reserve military airmen, and was in line for a lieutenantcy. When the fatal flight was being made, he was doing advanced or "stunt" flying.

He was regarded at the government school as one of the most proficient flyers.

The machine fell across the river from the military reservation. Several aviators who were making flights saw the fall and landed near the scene. Mong was dead among the wreckage of the machine. Surgeons on motorcycles and ambulances arrived 15 minutes later, after making a necessary detour through Mt. Clemens.

TEUTONS LAUD POPE'S PLAN

Express Hope That Pontiff's Peace Appeal Meets With Success.

Amsterdam.—The German government, in its reply to the peace note of Pope Benedict, a copy of which has been received here, "cherishes a lively desire" that the appeal may meet with success.

Peace would come from the recent proposals of Pope Benedict if belligerent nations would enter into negotiations in the sense of the pontiff's suggestions, Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary says in his reply to the Vatican note, a copy of which also reached here.

Emperor of Austria-Hungary sees in the Pope's peace plan a suitable basis for starting negotiations toward a just and lasting peace and expresses the hope that the nations opposing his own may be animated by the same idea.

The Austrian emperor admits the future arrangement of the world must be based on the elimination of armed force and on the rule of international justice and legality.

Freedom of the seas is one of the peace hopes of Emperor Charles in order that heavy material burdens could be taken from the nations of the earth and new sources of prosperity opened to them.

Million Dollar Fund Started for Man Who Gets Kaiser Wilhelm

- Mulvane, Kan.—Twenty Mulvane men pledged themselves to give $50 each as the first $1,000 toward a million dollar reward to be paid to the man of any nationality who will get the kaiser.
- They believe such a reward, if the notices were properly scattered across German lines, might get results and would be one of the surest and quickest means of an early peace.

Sends Ultimatum to Germany Demanding Explanation of Attitude.

Buenos Aires.—The Argentine government has sent an ultimatum to Germany. In its note the government demands a formal statement from the German government of its attitude toward the behavior of its minister, Count von Luxburg, and a repetition of the promises made respecting Argentine shipping in connection with the Toro settlement.

The Argentine government has received no explanations from Berlin since the disclosures by the American secretary of state, except a verbal statement from Baron von Dem Bussche-Haddenhausen, under-secretary of the German foreign office, made through Dr. Molina, the Argentine minister to Berlin, which Argentina considers insufficient.

The government is anxiously awaiting Berlin's response before deciding on a rupture of relations or a declaration of war.

According to the foreign office, if the German government's reported appreciation of von Luxburg is confirmed, Argentina will consider it an insult and declare war immediately.

If no confirmation of this report is forthcoming, only a rupture of relations is likely.

MOTHER HANGS SELF AND GIRLS

Detroit.—Constant brooding over the fancied infidelity of her husband, cumulated Saturday afternoon in sudden dementia which caused Mrs. Julia Mikola to kill her three baby daughters and herself.

The children were Irene, 5 years old; Olga, 3 years old, and Yolanda, 1 1/2 years old. Two small sons an hour later found the bodies of their mother and sisters hanging in four separate rooms of the Mikola home. Mrs. Mikola had sent the boys out to play that she might have time clear for her tragic purpose.

In a note to her husband, John Mikola, the crazed woman insisted she could not bear to have her little girls grow up and marry unfaithful men, as had been her case. Life held nothing but pain for her, and she felt it her duty to prevent her babies undergoing a like drab existence, she said in the letter.

TEXAS GOVERNOR IS OUSTED

State Senate Impeaches Executive On Corruption Charges.

Austin, Tex.—Governor James E. Ferguson has been impeached by the state senate. The senate high court sustained 10 of the 21 charges in the bill of impeachment, which had been returned to it by the lower house committee of the whole.

The vote on the first article—that he used $5,600 of state funds to settle a personal obligation—was sufficient to convict. A two-thirds vote was necessary. The ballot was 27 to 4.

Nine other charges showing corruption were sustained.

The governor is completely severed from the position to which he was twice elected by the people. Acting Governor William P. Hobby, an editor of Beaumont, assumes the full power of office. His tenure will extend to January, 1919.

GERMANS INVOLVE U.S. IN POISON PLOT

AGENT ADMITS WILFUL DEED

Washington.—How Germany "shamefully abused and exploited" the protection of the United States, by secretizing in the German legation at Bucharest, after the American government had taken charge of Germany's affairs at the Rumanian capital, quantities of powerful explosives for bomb plots, also deadly microbes, with instructions for their use in destroying horses and cattle, was revealed Sunday by Secretary Lansing.

It was another of the series of Mr. Lansing's disclosures of German intrigue, made public without comment. The latest story is told in a report to the state department from William Whiting Andrews, secretary of the legation at Bucharest, and a letter from Foreign Minister Parumbaru, of Rumania.

Germans Arouse Suspicion.

Parcels and boxes taken into the German consulate at Bucharest with display of great precaution aroused the suspicion of the Rumanian government, August 27, 1916, the evening prior to the date of Rumania's declaration of war, some of the cases were taken to the German legation, located in a different building from the consulate. Convinced the boxes were not taken away from the legation by the German diplomatic mission on its departure from Bucharest, Rumanian authorities ordered the police to find and examine their contents.

The police communicated with American Minister Vopicka, then in charge of German interests, who reluctantly assigned Secretary Andrews to observe the search. The boxes were found buried in the garden of the German legation.

Kaiser's Agent Confesses.

Mr. Andrews' report says: "Upon my return from the examination which resulted in the discovery of the explosives and of the box of microbes, both of which the legation servants admitted having placed in the garden, the former confidential agent of the German minister, Dr. Bernhardt, who had been left with the legation at the German minister's request to assist in the care of German interests, admitted his knowledge of the explosives placed in the garden; told me that more were in the garden than had been found; that a still larger quantity had been buried in the house of the legation; and that still worse things than this box of microbes were contained in the legation, and insinuated that they would have been found even in the cabinets of dossiers, which I had sealed."

"Dr. Bernhardt also stated that all these objects had been brought to the German legation after our legation had accepted the protection of German interests, which agreed with the statement of the servants. A similar confession was made to the minister by this man."

Denial Futile in This Case.

"The protection of the United States was in this manner shamefully abused and exploited. In this instance, at least, the German government cannot have recourse to its usual system of denial."

Fifty-one boxes were taken from the ground in the garden. Fifty of them contained each a cartridge filled with trinitrotoluene, saturated with mononitrotoluene, among the most powerful explosives known, one-fifth of each of one being sufficient to tear up a railroad track. In the other box were bottles of liquid found to be cultivations of the microbes of anthrax, and glanders. It bore a seal from the German consulate at Kronstadt, Hungary. Inside was a typewritten note in German, saying:

"Enclosed four phials for horses and four for cattle. To be employed as formerly arranged. Each phial is sufficient for 200 head. To be introduced if possible directly into the animals' throats; if not, into their fodder. Please make a little report on the success obtained there; in case of good results the presence of Mr. Kostoff for one day here would be desirable."

Why That Lame Back?

Morning lameness, sharp twinges when bending, or an all-day back-ache; each is cause enough to suspect kidney trouble. Get after the cause. Help the kidneys. We Americans go it too hard. We overdo, overeat and neglect our sleep and exercise and so we are fast becoming a nation of kidney sufferers. 72% more deaths than in 1890 is the 1910 census story. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Thousands recommend them.

A Michigan Case

William Hough, 46, Fitch Pl., Grand Rapids, Mich., says: "I had kidney trouble after I left the army and I kept getting worse. The kidney secretions were painful and too frequent in passage and I had lumbago and rheumatic pains. My limbs were so stiff, I had to be helped around. Medicine failed and I had almost given up hope when I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured me."

Decorating a Statue. Florence Partridge Stuart, in one of her delightful tales of the Moro charm boy, Ping, tells of an embarrassing situation. Ping had saved the governor's life at the risk of his own.

"Ping, I am about to decorate you with the emblem of our government; these infantry cross-guns I shall pin on your breast—the dignified governor reached forward to make good his words, but paused in embarrassment, the speech dying on his lips. He gazed in dismay at the scantly clothed little savage, standing straight and expectant before him.

"I shall place this emblem," again began the worthy official. There was a titter among the spectators.

"Ping, eagerly eyeing the treasure, wondered why the governor delayed. Suddenly a gleam of understanding broke over Ping, and he grinned broadly. With the tip of his finger he touched the shining cross-guns, then his necklace of crocodile teeth. The situation was saved."—St. Nicholas.

PAIN? NOT A BIT!
LIFT YOUR CORNS OR CALLUSES OFF

No humbug! Apply few drops then just lift them away with fingers.

This new drug is an ether compound discovered by a Cincinnati chemist. It is called freezeone, and can now be obtained in tiny bottles as here shown at very little cost from any drug store. Just ask for freezeone. Apply a drop or two directly upon a tender corn or callus and instantly the soreness disappears. Shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can lift it off, root and all, with the fingers.

Not a twinge of pain, soreness or irritation; not even the slightest smarting, either when applying freezeone or afterwards. This drug doesn't eat up the corn or callus, but shrivels them so they loosen and come right out. It is no humbug! It works like a charm. For a few cents you can get rid of every hard corn, soft corn or corn between the toes, as well as painful calluses on bottom of your feet. It never disappoints and never burns, bites or inflames. If your drugist hasn't any freezeone yet, tell him to get a little bottle for you from his wholesale house.—adv.

WOMAN SICK TWO YEARS

Could Do No Work.
Now Strong as a Man.

Chicago, Ill.—"For about two years I suffered from a female trouble so I was unable to walk or do any of my own work. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and determined to try it. It brought almost immediate relief. My weakness has entirely disappeared and I never had better health. I weigh 165 pounds and am as strong as a man. I think money is well spent which purchases Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. J. O. BRYAN, 1755 Newport Ave., Chicago, Ill.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

Neighborhood Society.
"Oh, mother," cried Mabel, who had never visited in the country. "I have just had a letter from my schoolmate inviting me to spend two weeks on her father's farm."

Mabel's mother looked up languidly. "Yes, dear," she remarked, "and what does she say about the society in the neighborhood? Does she mention anyone?"

"No," answered Mabel thoughtfully. "but I've heard her mention the Holsteins and Guernseys."

"Oh, well," said her mother. "I presume they are pleasant people."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

A WOMAN IS AS OLD AS SHE LOOKS

A wrinkled, careworn face can easily make a difference of twenty years in a woman's appearance. A wonderful preparation recently introduced into this country from Egypt, where it has been used for centuries, consists of a combination of nut-oils, which rubbed into the skin every night before retiring, soon drives away wrinkles and makes the skin soft and velvety. Usit is the name given to this preparation, and a handsome opal bottle of Usit, delicately perfumed, will be sent to any address. For further distribution a bargain. Once only. Try Usit Face Powder de Luxe, which is no ordinary face powder, but a preparation appealing to the people of discriminating and refined taste. Four tints—flesh, white, pink and brunette. Delicately perfumed. One 50c bottle Usit and one 50c box Usit Face Powder de Luxe for 75c. Address Usit Mfg Co., 895 Main street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Perseverance.
Sheriff Wheeler of Brisbane, the Arizona patriot who deported 1,200 anti-war agitators, said at a banquet in Phoenix:

"I got the best of these rascals by the employment of perseverance. In the police world you've got to have all the perseverance of a Boozier."

"Boozier, you know, was crossing the continent on the limited, and one night, after too many high balls, he tackled me in the snicker, and told me a long, long story about his domestic troubles."

"The next morning, headachy and sober, he came to me again and said how much he regretted his confession of the evening before, and he hoped the facts he'd revealed would go no farther."

"Oh, that's all right," said I, "I never listened to you, old man, and I haven't the least idea of what you said."

"Well, that night the chump turned up in the snicker again, drunker than before, and he sat down beside me, and told a heavy haul on my knee and said:

"Now, then, turn you, you said you didn't listen to me last night, so I'm going to tell you the whole story of my miserable life—marriage over again."

NEW ARRIVALS AT CUSTER HAPPY LOT

OVER 14,000 CAME LAST WEEK

Smiling, Laughing and Singing, Boys Enter Upon the Great Adventure Which Lies Before Them.

Lansing.

More than 14,000 boys from the Michigan homes came over the top to Camp Custer last week and, smiling, laughing and singing, entered upon the great adventure which lies before them.

From the time that the first group arrived, until the hour when the last strays had been sent to barracks, where warm food and ready cots awaited them, there was no change in the sentiment.

Three weeks ago when the first contingent straggled into Camp Custer, the feature of the day was the enthusiasm of the officers. Last week it was the spirit of men themselves. Suitcases in one hand, flags in the other, they toiled and sweated and laughed and joked, unafraid, unabashed, confident and willing, typical American youths.

It was a sight that thrilled and made the heart beat faster. And old as the men of the regular army are in the experiences of their service, even they stood moved by the spectacle.

Something had robbed these men of the feeling of uncertainty with which their fellows came three weeks ago. Somewhere in the interval that has passed since they saw their friends march away, they have gained a new and true conception of Camp Custer and all that it includes.

Early Action for Guard Not Likely.

The Michigan National Guard will not get into the fighting for at least a year, according to the best information here. This belief is based on the fact that the British troops were trained for 12 months before being sent in, the experience having been that in this new war game, troops that were not expert were more of a hindrance than a help.

The Michigan Guards will not be in the United States all that time though, according to reports, but in all probability will sail before Christmas. The rest of the training will be within hearing distance of the big guns at the front.

If the local interpretation of new orders from Waco is correct, the Michigan troops will follow the Wisconsin troops into the trenches instead of leading the way.

The Michigan troops are now the fifty-seventh depot brigade. This is taken to indicate that they will be held in reserve and used to supply men as those on the first line become exhausted. Also, the regiments may be sent into relieve the Wisconsin men and in this way preserve their unity.

There is a difference of opinion on this, however, and it is held entirely possible that, depot brigade or no depot brigade, the Michigan men will get on the firing line as soon as any other troops.

No Cavalry at Custer.

There will be no cavalry training in Camp Custer.

After much speculation, including speculation on who was to be the cavalry horse trainer, this much is clear. The government is making ready artillery and infantry for the trench wars in France.

The day of the cavalry may yet come, when the resistance of the Germans is broken. Then hordes of horsemen will prove priceless, in rolling into Germany and advancing the outposts of invasion.

The government's first plan for the contingent included the organizing of nine regiments of infantry and one of cavalry. Each infantry regiment was to have a machine gun company and there would be a machine gun troop in the cavalry regiment.

Stop Visitors at Camp.

The terrific influx of visitors at Camp Custer has led to an order by the officers prohibiting visitors from entering without a pass.

The rule on passes will be fairly strict, and visitors will be discouraged.

Those having business in camp will of course be permitted to enter, but the division staff advises that they arrange for passes as early in the week as possible.

M. A. C.'s New Engineering Hall Ready.

M. A. C.'s new hall of engineering with its adjoining shops, which, it is said, make up the most modern educational plant in the engineering field of the middle west, will be thrown open to students with the commencement of the fall term at the college Oct. 19. The main building, with the machine shop and foundry surrounding it, cost in the neighborhood of $300,000. Of this amount R. E. Olds, motor car manufacturer, gave $100,000.

Italians Appeal to Governor.

Governor Sleeper has been appealed to on behalf of the Italians of Michigan to get the state department at Washington to remove a peculiar ban which hangs over all Italians or sons of Italians who enlist in the United States army or who are drafted for the national army.

In brief, the United States and Italy have no treaty by which Italians or sons of Italians, born in this country, who serve in the army in America are exempt from duty in Italy.

Rep. John DePrato, of Iron county, member of the legislature for years, acted as the spokesman for the Italians, and impressed upon Governor Sleeper and other state officials the necessity of having something done by the state department. A resolution introduced last June by Rep. James has seemingly been lost in congress and in the general mixup over war at Washington nothing has happened to it.

Board Acts to Avoid Vice I'lls.

The question of the social evil in connection with the cantonment at Camp Custer has been taken in hand by the war board, particularly the presence of communicable diseases.

A committee consisting of Dr. H. M. Sawyer, of Hillsdale, member of the state board of health, Dr. A. S. Warthin, of the University of Michigan, Dr. Guy L. Kiefer, of Detroit, also a member of the state board, Dr. C. G. Parnell, city physician of Jackson, and R. M. Olin, secretary and executive officer of the state board, was appointed to investigate feasibility of segregating women afflicted with communicable diseases and the possible detention of these women in the university hospital at Ann Arbor.

Diseases of immoral cause are legally "communicable" and can be quarantined. The state "epidemic law" also enables the health board to declare an epidemic when it so decides and to control an infected district and remove the victims to a state hospital.

It is not expected that the report will be forthcoming for some time, but when it does it will be acted upon promptly. It is realized here that if the state is to take official cognizance of the matter at all, it must act at the start.

Canvass Farmers in Loan Drive.

Every farmer in the state will be canvassed by members of committees in charge of the Liberty loan drive, which probably will be launched in October, according to plans outlined at a conference at Lansing. Michigan's apportionment will be $100,000,000. In the last campaign Michigan's quota of $63,000,000 was oversubscribed more than $1,000,000.

The same organizations which had charge of the last campaign will be employed in the next drive where possible, it is planned.

It is believed that the prosperity which has resulted in farming communities from $6 beans, $1 potatoes and $2 wheat, will add materially to the success of the campaign.

The new bonds will be sold at 4 per cent, which is also an added inducement.

It has been suggested that a day be set for a rally in each of the 8,000 school districts in the state to boost the loan.

CAMP CUSTER NOTES

Because of the immensity of government business personal conversations are prohibited on camp phones.

Bishop Kelley is expected to visit Camp Custer October 24, to dedicate the first Knights of Columbus building.

It has been announced by Captain Tage, in charge of post exchanges, that no concessions will be granted in camp.

Because of numerous changes in camp construction it is estimated the plant will not be completed before March 1.

Major General Dickman has caused a sign to be erected on camp roads forbidding a speed in excess of 15 miles an hour.

A formal notice has been received from the war department stating that no regiment flags will be taken to the front lines in France.

Special attention is being paid to messes in all companies. Officers realize that unless the men are well fed they cannot fight. Only the best provisions are purchased and the ration is to be balanced that variety is the rule.

Camp Custer will soon witness the thrilling realism of "bayonet drill." Every stage of a bayonet battle will be represented. The boys will have their first drill without weapons, then with sticks, then with rifles, then with rifles and fixed bayonets.

Some of the enlisted men are going to be taken up with a short halt. That is, some of the regulars who are failing to salute reserve officers on the downtown streets. They assume a supercilious attitude and walk on as if no officer were in sight.

The neat little ventilators on the tops of the buildings are being boarded up. They let the air circulate, but they also let the flies circulate. The spaces not boarded will be screened.

Private Rinaldo Biasi, of Detroit, is one of the first Detroit draft men to get a special assignment to duty. He has been made steward of the officers' mess in the 339th infantry. Private Biasi, up to the time he was drafted, was head waiter in the Hotel Statler. His assignment here is made in recognition of his knowledge of "food administration."

For the first time in the history of the state the law specifies the number of decoys that can be used. This feature of the law is applicable chiefly to St. Clair Flats hunting and to the marshy regions nearby frequented by Detroit hunters. Under the new law only 50 decoys can be used in a space of 1,000 yards.

Ann Arbor—Lieut. G. C. Mullen, U. S. A., has been detailed here as professor in military science and tactics. His work begins with the opening of college, Oct. 2. Something that will go far towards persuading students to elect the course will be the fact that the government will furnish uniforms. These are to be worn all the time, unless the student chooses otherwise. They will be of fine quality, and will answer for all purposes. This alone will make the matter of a college course somewhat less of a drain upon father.

Port Huron—The county jail here is overflowing with prisoners, but the city waterworks department has only one man to work at trench digging to lay a new sewer. An effort is to be made to have the county and city prisoners put to work.

Port Huron—After being arrested 26 times in 12 years John McDonald, 57, told Circuit Judge Law he was "a hopeless case." The court sentenced him to serve from six months to 15 years, with the recommendation that he be released May 1 next, when the state goes dry.

PROLIFIC OF GOOD STORIES

The military registration was quite prolific of interesting incidents. A negro grew anxious when he saw the registrar in his district clip off the corner of his card to designate that the registrant was a negro. He asked in alarm:

"What is you doing now? Is you segregating us?"

It was the Tenth Ward of a Southern town that a young man approached, gave his name and answered all the questions. He was twenty-one and had as dependents his wife, children and mother-in-law.

"Do you claim exemption?" he was asked.

"Shucks, no!" was his answer.

The lowest ratio of exemptions asked in another place was nineteen out of 841 eligibles. The warden of the Eastern penitentiary said:

"We surely have a lot of patriots in our hotel. The old fellows even wanted to slip their ages back on us so they could register." Altogether 610 inmates of the penitentiary registered.

Waving his registration card energetically and calling for the chief registrar, a husky blond American, apparently a sailor, rushed into City Clerk Sweeney's office in Buffalo, after registration, and sought immediate change in the card.

"Who asked me whether I am a Caucasian?" he demanded. "I'm not of that race."

"What are you, an African?" Clerk Sweeney inquired.

"Why—why—why, what'll you have? The drinks are on me."

An Irishman insisted on not having Great Britain indicated as his governing country, and held up his signature until he obtained his first papers. Another man, asked if his wife had any other means of support than himself, replied:

"Well, I hope not."

Men of Twenty-nine—Beware!

If a man is going to commit a crime during his lifetime, the chances are that he will do it at the age of twenty-nine. It is a curious fact that statistics have shown that man is more dangerous at this period of his life than at any other.

The general supposition is that men have attained the highest development of their mental and physical powers at twenty-nine, and they are supposed to be able to distinguish between right and wrong and to realize the consequences liable to follow the indulgence of either.

Next to the age of twenty-nine, the greatest number of criminals have been aged twenty-one, twenty-seven or forty-five years.

Explaining Parliamentary Procedure.

Endeavoring to explain Mr. Bonar Law's statement on the abandonment of the Mesopotamia proceedings to a French gentleman (writes a correspondent), I pointed out that Mr. Dillon had secured permission to move the adjournment of the House. "Ah," he said, "that is to stop discussion. It will prevent the Left from objecting, for there can be no more speech. Wonderful parliamentaryism, you English." I explained that the adjournment motion meant more speech instead of none at all, and he was astonished. "Truly quaint people, you English," he observed.—Manchester Guardian.

Russia's Water Tonnage.

The water net of Russia (Finland not included), comprising rivers, lakes and canals, at the end of 1912 covered an area of 386,572 square kilometers. In 1906 the river steam fleet of European Russia numbered 3,897 units, with a total horse power of 192,284, while the sailing vessels, rafts and other fluvial conveyances numbered 23,175 units, with a total tonnage of 12,875,000. It is officially stated that 91 per cent of all steamboats were built in Russia proper, 4.5 per cent in Finland and 4.5 per cent in foreign countries.

Her Choice.

Hazel was at a loss to make a choice between two young sprouts in her garden of love. She desired a hardy plant, one that would thrive in any soil and under any conditions. No shadow must prevent the sprout selected from growing.

Every day could not have its full allotment of sunshine. Which would she choose? Either was pleasing to the eye. Then came a day when the wind blew hard—a draft from one end of the country to the other.

One of the sprouts withered from the biting blast. The other thrived and grew as though it had been blessed with continual sunshine. Now Hazel is happy. Her choice has been made.—Indianapolis News.

"What tide was that?"

"It was an eventide and we were sitting in the garden."

Raise High Priced Wheat on Fertile Canadian Soil

Canada extends to you a hearty invitation to settle on her FREE Homestead lands of 160 acres each or secure some of the low priced lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. This year wheat is higher but Canadian land just as cheap, so the opportunity is more attractive than ever. Canada wants you to help feed the world by tilling some of her fertile soil—land similar to that which during many years has averaged 20 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre. Think of the money you can make with wheat around $2 a bushel and land so easy to get. Wonderful yields also of Oats, Barley and Flax. Mixed farming in Western Canada is as profitable an industry as grain growing.

The Government this year is asking farmers to put increased acreage into grain. There is a great demand for farm labor to replace the many young men who have volunteered for service. The climate is healthful and agreeable, railway facilities excellent, good schools and churches convenient. THE LITTLE THINGS

Studebaker cars are fine cars. The excellence of Studebaker chassis design—the beauty of the body, both in finish and in line—the wonderful power of the motor—the smooth, almost, vibrationless operation of the car—these are the BIG things that indicate quality, which makes Studebaker a fine car.

But PERFECTION also is shown in the LITTLE things.

In both the Studebaker FOUR and SIX you find a high-grade Yale Ignition Lock; permanently bright finished metal parts; hand grips on the door; leather-bound carpets in the tonneau; aluminum bound linoleum in the driver's compartment; leather edged top; Blackmore curtain openers; leather-bound robe straps, big pockets on every door.

These are some of the LITTLE things that indicate the perfection not only in BIG things but in detail, which make the Studebaker such a wonderful value for the money.
