WALSH - FARRELL.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Joseph's church, Tuesday morning, October 2, when Miss Grace M. Walsh became the bride of Walter T. Farrell.

The bride was attired in a taupe colored suit of broadcloth and wore a white picture hat. She was attended by her sister, Miss Gertrude Walsh, who wore a gray broadcloth suit. The groom was attended by Mr. John Sullivan of Lyndon.

Following the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home to about fifty friends and relatives.

The out of town guests were, Mrs. Russel Walsh and son, Thomas, of South Haven; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Haber, of Flint; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hindelang, of Chelsea; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. O'Neil and daughter, Genevieve, of Northfield; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bowler, Miss Bernice Coehrs, of Toledo; Mr. Jack O'Keefe and children of Detroit and Fr. Mashino, of Dexter.

After a short eastern trip Mr. and Mrs. Farrell will be at home at 326 Garfield street, Chelsea, Mich.

The young people are well known in this vicinity and have the best wishes of a host of friends here.—Dexter Leader.

CHELSEA BOY AT WACO MILITARY CAMP

Writes Interestingly of Trip South From Grayling and Subsequent Experiences.

Eugene Widmayer, well known in this vicinity, is member of Co. F, 126 Vol. Infantry, stationed at Camp McArthur, Waco, Texas, and the following letter was written by him October 1st. He relates incidents of the trip from Grayling to Waco and describes Camp McArthur very interestingly: Waco at last! We left Grayling on Monday evening, September 24th, and arrived in Waco on the following Friday morning. We were sure glad to leave Grayling as it was becoming rather cold; ice floating on Portage lake on three different mornings.

The trip south was fine. We were well treated all along the line. People assembled at the stations, cheered, shook hands, gave us smoking tobacco, etc.

There sure is some mighty poor agricultural land between Chicago and Kansas City; poor people, poor stock, poor buildings and poor railroad accommodations.

We passed through Chicago in the evening so did not see much of it, but I had been there three times and so did not care much about that. We passed through Kansas City the second night, which I very much regretted as I had never been there before. On the third day out we stopped at Muscogee, Okla., where we paraded and drilled and looked over the city. I have never seen as pretty, clean and well built a city in all my travels and, Oh Boy! you should have seen the ladies of the Red Cross! They gave us apples, candy, melons, literature and postals and last but not least, many, many addresses of the elite (themselves) with whom we will be perfectly willing to correspond. The third night we passed through Dallas, Texas, for which I was sorry as I should like to have seen more of that place.

All in all, we enjoyed the trip, but nevertheless we were glad when we hit camp for you understand that a troop train is not made up of Pullmans but of tourist sleepers. Also we were crowded in, 70 men to a car, and our food was very poor; we could not be fed as we had been accustomed to be fed in camp.

About our camp. It is a bird; four miles from the city, brand new cantonment. At present about 9,000 Michigan and Wisconsin guardsmen are quartered here. When the camp is completed it will accommodate 45,000 men.

We have not drilled any yet, but will begin as soon as we are organized. The army is undergoing a complete reorganization. Henceforth we will have 250 men to the company with one captain, four lieutenants, 15 sergeants, 21 second sergeants and 28 corporals.

The Jackson companies, M and L, will be shaken up some. Captain Smith is senior of Captain Phillips so he will be captain of the new company F, composed of his old Co. L and 92 men from old Co. M. That will leave 51 men of old Co. M who will have to be transferred to new Co. G, composed of old Co. A of the 31st plus the 51 men of old Co. M.

I have only one fault to find with Waco, namely its water. It is warm, insipid, flat, alkaline and has much the same effect as a dose of salts. It is not injurious for it is pumped from artesian wells. We have our own motor fire apparatus, sewer connections, paved streets, electric lights in each tent, board floors and in fact everything that can be provided for our comfort. Must close now.

Your friend in khaki, Eugene A. Widmayer.

DR. PALMER'S CAR BUTTS PHONE POLE

Veteran Doctor Has Narrow Escape When Coupe Hits Gravel and Takes to Ditch.

Dr. George W. Palmer had a narrow escape Sunday about noon when he lost control of his Ford coupe and the car took to the ditch and crashed into a telephone pole, crushing the top of the closed car. Aside from a few cuts and bruises, the doctor escaped injury.

The accident occurred on the hill just south of Ed. Doll's farm, about 2 1/2 miles north of Chelsea. The car was coasting down the hill, the switch being turned off. As the car neared the bottom of the hill, the doctor leaned over to turn on the switch. While so engaged the car struck a stretch of gravel and started for the roadside. Before the doctor could regain control of the car, it had hit the telephone pole. Aside from the broken top, the car was only slightly damaged.

SPEEDSTER TURTLES OVER BRIDGEWAY

Detroiters Have Narrow Escape When Auto Plunges Into Creek.

Ben Abendschim and Ralph Emerson, both of Detroit, narrowly escaped serious injuries and perhaps death, Saturday afternoon about three o'clock, when the former's heavy Abbott-Detroit runabout plunged through the guard rail of Mill creek bridge, about three miles west of town near the Tyndall farm, and turned turtle over the bridge abutment into the creek.

Abendschim was pinned beneath the heavy car and would have drowned within a few minutes but for the prompt action of Chris. Kalmbach and his son Roy, who were cutting corn nearby and witnessed the accident. They hurried to the rescue and ably assisted by Mrs. Al. Burgess, managed to lift the heavy car and draw Abendschim from beneath it. Emerson was thrown clear of the car and was apparently uninjured.

The two men were taken to the Burgess home, where Abendschim's clothing was washed and dried and later in the evening they returned to Detroit.

Abendschim suffered numerous cuts and bruises and complained of a pain in his chest, but returned to Detroit without medical aid. He is an employee of the Ford Motor Co. in the die sinking department and is acquainted with Tom Hughes, formerly of Chelsea. Emerson is an employee of the Maxwell Motor Car Co. They were en route to Olivet at the time of the accident.

The machine was badly battered as a result of the accident. After being righted it was towed to the Burgess farm.

A pint whiskey bottle, nearly empty, was found in the car and is generally believed to have caused the accident.

JACK DUNN IN FOOT BALL

Former Chelsea Lad is Member Fast Ambulance Unit Team.

An article in an Allentown paper, indicates that the ambulance units in training there expect to have a fast, heavy football team, of which one of the star players is Jack Dunn, formerly of this place, well known in high school and independent athletics. Dunn is a member of one of the university units which went to Allentown for training. The article referred to says: "Another speedster is Jack Dunn of Michigan. Here is a lad who brings the dash of the western team into the eastern arena. Dunn's playing is a picture in itself. He carries himself with all the assurance of a "camp choice" and, although his weight is only 155, he has the knack of discovering openings around the end. Dunn and Conn will be the big combination for all speed work in the coming game."

Georgia Farmer Says Tanlac Relieved His Rheumatism Entirely.

SUFFERED 45 YEARS

"I Am a Well Man in Every Way and Feel as Strong and Healthy as I Ever Did," He Says.

"I wouldn't take five hundred dollars in cash for the good four bottles of Tanlac did me," said J. M. Mulberry, a well-known farmer of Stonehill, Georgia, a short time ago.

"For forty-five years I suffered almost every day," he continued, "and was so crippled up with rheumatism that I had to hobble around on crutches. My knees were so stiff I could hardly bend them and often I have been so weak that I have had to take to my bed for weeks at a time. More than half the time I couldn't do any work. I had indigestion and stomach trouble, too, and my back hurt so bad that I couldn't lay on my left side at all. I tried every medicine I saw advertised and many prescriptions besides, but kept getting worse.

"My brother living in Atlanta told me what Tanlac had done for him and begged me to try it. Well, sir, I have taken four bottles in all and have thrown my crutches away for the rheumatism is entirely gone and I can jump two feet off the ground without it hurting me a bit. I am a well man in every way and feel as strong and healthy as I ever did in my life."

There is a Tanlac dealer in your town.—Adv.

ADAM SPRUNG FIRST JOKE

Asked Eve if She Expected an Ichthyosaurus, When She Objected to Spider on Rose.

We believe that in the Garden of Eden, Adam gave Eve a rose in exchange for a kiss. And she shuddered and said, "Ugh! There's a spider on the rose!" and he answered, "Well, what do you expect for one stingy little kiss—an ichthyosaurus?"

We believe that to be the oldest joke in the world—older than the goat, the mother-in-law, or any that are supposed to be included in the Original Seven. In varying forms one finds it in the Talmud, in Plautus, in Aesop, in Ibsen, in Joe Miller, in all the almanacs and comic papers.

When we were a boy, it was told in a minstrel show, thus: A man buys a suit of clothes at a second-hand store. He comes back and complains that the coat is inhibited by unpleasant insects. And the dealer says, "Well, what do you expect for $5—humming birds?"

Yaudiville knows it in this form: "Tenant—'Look here, you'll have to make some repairs in this house. The collar is full of water.' Landlord—'Well, what do you expect for $15 a month—champagne?'"

And just last week we ran across our old friend again in a weekly comic paper. This time a passenger on a street car calls down the conductor for not calling the names of the streets distinctly. And the conductor replies, "Well, what do you expect for $14 a week—a tenor solo?"

Lastly—a few days ago, we ran a version of the old thing in this column. We cut its hair, trimmed its whiskers, and fitted it with a new suit, but we could not disguise it completely. When you run across it in any of its costumes, send us a clipping, will you? We are making a collection of that joke.

Quite Sufficient.

WHAT CITIZENS MUST GIVE TO WAR REVENUES

Conferees of Senate and House Report as to Expenditures Made Necessary.

TAX IS DIVIDED IN EQUITY

BURDEN EQUITABLY DIVIDED AS SEEN WISE BY COMMITTEE APPOINTED.

Corporations Will Pay Commensurate Share for the Protection of the Country—Statements at the Capital Well Satisfied With the Efforts They Have Put Forth.

Washington.—The joint conferees on the war revenue bill completed their draft after two weeks of deliberation. As revised by the conferees the measure has been raised from the levy fixed by the senate of $2,410,070,000 to an aggregate of approximately $2,700,000,000. Chairman Simmons of the senate finance committee estimated that the increase made by the conferees would approach $275,000,000.

The excess war profits tax, as agreed to by the conferees, is a modification of the senate bill, the principal changes being in the maximum and minimum rates of exemption upon which the tax is to be determined. The senate graduated scale of exemptions ran from 5 to 10 per cent, while the house exemption rate was 8 per cent. The conferees adopted the graduated rate of from 7 to 9 per cent.

The definition of capital, which was a point upon which the conferees argued for days, was modified so as to provide that the actual value of tangible property paid into a corporation or partnership or individual business before January 1, 1914, shall be taken as of that date. The proviso as to good will and other intangible property has been somewhat liberalized.

As to "Invested Capital." In calculating war excess profits the terms "invested capital" of corporations and partnerships was declared to include "actual cash paid in, actual cash value and other tangible property paid for stock or shares at the time of payment or January 1, 1914, but in no case to exceed the par value of the original securities; paid in or earned surplus and undivided profits used or employed in the business, exclusive of undivided profits earned during the taxable year."

The allowance for intangible assets includes "actual cash value of patents and copyrights paid in for stock or shares at the time of payment. . . . good will, trademarks, trade brands, franchises. . . . If for bona-fide payments not to exceed the cash value." It stipulates that such intangible assets exchanged for securities before March 3, 1917, not exceeding 20 per cent of the total, shall be included at a value not exceeding a fair cash value at the time of purchase.

Postal Increases. A flat increase on reading matter of 1/2 cent per pound until July 1, 1919, and 1/2 cent thereafter was provided. Advertising matter exceeding 5 per cent of the total space would be taxed from 1/4 to 2 1/2 cents additional until July 1, 1919, and from 1/2 to 1 1/2 cents more until July 1, 1920; and from 3/4 to 6 1/2 cents to 1921 and from 1 cent to 9 cents thereafter.

An additional tax of 1/2 cent per pound until July 1, 1919, and 1/2 cent thereafter, on religious, agricultural, fraternal and similar publications was adopted. The 1 cent tax on letters, excepting drop letters and postal cards, was restored by the conferees. A 1 cent additional tax on postal and private mailing cards was added. The first-class mail increases are estimated to raise $90,000,000, and are effective 30 days after the passage of the act. The senate provision exempting from postage letters written by soldiers and sailors abroad was retained.

Railroad Tickets Hit. The conferees levied 8 per cent in lieu of the senate rate of 5 and the house rate of 10 per cent on passenger transportation, estimated to raise from the compromise levy about $90,000,000 instead of $37,500,000 under the senate plan. The 3 per cent tax on freight transportation was retained and the tax on express transportation was increased so that 1 cent would be levied on each 20 cents paid instead of each 25 cents. The house 10 per cent tax on Pullman accommodations, cut to 5 per cent by the senate, was restored and is estimated to raise $5,000,000.

Ten million subscribers to the new loan will be sought, and it is possible that the ultimate issue of bonds may be $5,000,000,000.

than 54 cents, an additional 5 cents on the present rates.

Taxes on life insurance, eliminated from the house bill in the senate, were amended and reduced, raising about $5,000,000. Effective November 1 the new taxes on new insurance policies issued are 3 cents per $100 or fraction thereof on life insurance and 1 cent per $1 on the premium charged on marine, casualty, fire and inland insurances.

Amusement taxes agreed upon provide that all persons entering places of amusement free, except employees and officials on duty and children under twelve, would pay a tax rate of 1 cent on each 10 cents or fraction thereof of the admission charge. This tax also would apply to cabarets and similar performances where the cost of entertainment is included in other costs, such as service. Holders of annual box seats would pay 10 per cent of the annual rental. Nickel theaters and shows, rides and other outdoor park amusements with a maximum admission of 10 cents and benefit entertainments and agricultural fairs were exempted.

After November 1, 1917, members of all clubs, except fraternal orders, paying more than $12 annual dues would be subject to a 10 per cent tax.

Exemptions Are Allowed. On excess profits the conferees agreed upon a minimum deduction of 7 per cent and a maximum of 10 per cent, instead of the 6 to 10 per cent fixed by the senate. Other exemptions are $3,000 for corporations and $8,000 for individuals. Corporations, partnerships and individuals having no capital stock would pay a flat rate of 5 per cent on net profits in excess of $3,000 for corporations and $6,000 for individuals and partnerships.

Miscellaneous income tax amendments inserted by the senate were generally adopted, including the so-called Jones amendment for a tax of 10 per cent on corporations' undistributed surplus, without allowance for income taxes paid. The 10 per cent tax would not apply to undistributed income actually invested or employed in business or invested in federal securities after September 1, 1917, and 5 per cent penalty for surplus retained but not employed is provided.

In making provision for administration and collection of the new and existing taxes the conferees provided that the special tax of 12 1/2 per cent on war munitions manufacturers shall be reduced to 15 per cent, but retained to January 1, 1918. It now yields about $23,000,000 annually and the senate had proposed its repeal.

GARFIELD FIXES COAL PRICES

Fuel Administrator Announces Final Decision, Which Will Be Binding on All Dealers. Washington.—Fuel Administrator Garfield announced regulations, effective at once, for the limitation of the retail prices of bituminous and anthracite coal throughout the country.

The fuel administrator has fixed, in the conclusions arrived at, not the specific price which the retail dealer will be allowed to charge the consumer, but the gross margin which the retail dealer will be allowed to add to the average wholesale cost of his coal in making retail prices.

Secretary McAdoo issued the following appeal: "There is now offered to the American people a new issue of $3,000,000,000 of bonds to be known as the second Liberty loan. They will be issued in such denominations and upon such terms that every patriotic citizen will have an opportunity to assist the government by lending his money upon security of the government bond. It is essential to the success of the war and to the support of our gallant troops that these loans shall not only

SENIORITY RULE DONE AWAY WITH

GUARD OFFICERS, IN FUTURE, TO BE PROMOTED BY MERIT ONLY.

OFFICERS' SCHOOL FOR CUSTER Draft Men Will Get Opportunity to Win Commissions—School to Be Opened January 15.

Promotion by seniority is done away with in the Michigan National Guard. While it is in the federal service promotions are to be made because of "fitness and capacity" only.

This news, in a war department bulletin just published at Camp Custer, Mich., is soothed to several 31st officers, who, because of the breaking up of the regiment, lost their seniority. Furthermore, it acts at rest the rumor that there would be no promotion of guard officers above the rank of captain. The new regulations provide for all officers up to colonel.

While the officers of the old 31st have settled down in the 125th and 126th and are devoting their entire attention to learning and teaching the new military game, some of the men have not so adapted themselves, especially those of the companies that were split up. Requests for transfers are coming in numbers, as comrades were separated by the breaking up of the companies. In one instance, three brothers found themselves in different organizations and are now trying to get together.

Custer Men Will Be Made Officers.

New ambition and hope for officers' rank has been aroused in the breasts of Camp Custer soldiers. This was caused by definite announcement by the war department of officers' training camps to train private soldiers for commissions.

The schools will be opened Jan. 15. One will be opened in each division of the regular army, the National Guard and the draft army. This means that a school will be located at Camp Custer, or that one will be opened nearby for Camp Custer men. Any private between 21 and 40, a member of the regular army, the draft army or the National Guard, will be eligible for the officers' schools. In addition, about 3,000 college men will be received.

Camp Custer will be entitled to send about 1.7 per cent of her enrollment, or 700 men, to the officers' school. This will be only the beginning of Camp Custer's contribution to the officers of the land forces. When the army of 3,000,000 is finally trained it must have 150,000 officers. Camp Custer's quota will be upwards of 5,000.

Of course, many contingents will have come and gone in Camp Custer before the army of 3,000,000 is afoot, and her 5,000 officers have tied their gold and black hat cords. But already a definite chance of honors is offered the national army men.

Custer Expects Negro Troops Soon.

It is understood that the next increment of drafted men going to Camp Custer will include enough Negroes to form one regiment and an overflow. Some 3,000 colored boys are expected from Wisconsin and Michigan and if enough of them are left after the examinations to form the nucleus of a second regiment, Negro selects from one or two other states may be brought in to fill out the ranks.

Negro troops will be commanded by Colonel Frye, but will be officers, by commissioned men of their own color or who will come from the Des Moines training camp.

Battle Creek's Negro population plans to look after the selected Negroes as nicely as the war recreation board is looking after the white selects. Three Negro lodges, Masonic, Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias, will have a joint meeting as soon as they are told when to look for the boys and will make elaborate plans for entertaining them.

Custer Men Buy Liberty Bonds.

The first drive in which the men of Camp Custer are taking part is the Liberty Loan campaign. Orders were received from Washington instructing the division staff to organize the forces into teams, to create enthusiasm with speakers and competition, and to urge every man to help swing the big loan by taking a bond.

The men are told that their subscriptions are purely voluntary and that no action is required of them. Despite this, the natural competition which springs up between companies and regiments and between this camp and other contingents, will result in a big subscription.

Court Affirms $35,000 Damage Award.

In affirming the decision of the Lona-wee case of Leo Guy vs. the Cincinnati Northern Railroad Co., the Michigan supreme court established a new high water mark in awards in personal injury cases. Guy, who was employed in the yards of the road at Hudson, was terribly injured in an accident January 18, 1914, and the jury in the circuit court awarded him damages to the extent of $35,000, which was approved by the supreme court. Heretofore the largest award was $17,000.

Work On Heating Plants Rushed.

Work on the heating plants at Camp Custer is being rushed but final completion is not expected till November 1st.

All heating pipes which run from building to building are carried on poles, high in the air. It was necessary to adopt this course, in order to complete the installation before winter sets in. A vast amount of coal will be necessary to feed the boilers, owing to the wastage of heat, but this was the lesser of the two evils, and the plan was chosen by the engineers for that reason.

In the meantime most of the barracks, during the cold spell, have been uncomfortably cold. During the day the men did not suffer. The evening hours following their return to their barracks, however, were the ones when they felt the chill. The result was that the Y. M. C. A. buildings, which are heated, enjoyed more than their usual patronage.

Five hundred stoves, which had been ordered in anticipation of a cold snap, are being installed. The stoves are wood-burning sheet-iron affairs, capable of producing a large volume of heat. There is more than enough fuel to keep them all going until the steam plants are in operation.

The demand for heat comes just at a time when the construction department is straining every nerve to remodel the barracks to hold the enlarged companies, which will be the rule under the war strength standard. In some cases barracks are being divided, in others the ends have been torn out and moved forward several feet and wherever possible the capacity of the buildings has been doubled. All new barracks are twice as large as the old.

With the steady demand for an increased number of buildings and with the new plans of the rifle and machine gun ranges completed and approved, it will be necessary to enlarge the cantonment grounds fully 25 per cent. Negotiations along that line are already under way.

Sewage Disposal Plants at Custer.

Kalamazoo, Galesburg, Augusta and other towns lying below Battle Creek on the Kalamazoo river, which have been wondering what effect Camp Custer's sewage might have on their health, can now breathe easier, for the war department has ordered immediate construction of two sewage disposal plants, and one of them is already under way, at the foot of the famous hill over which each of the 40,000 selected men of the Eighty-fifth division has to pass.

Each plant is a cement structure 100 by 50 feet, containing eight settling tanks, approached by three channels through which all sewage for that particular end of the camp must pass. After being chemically treated the liquid will eventually pass into the Kalamazoo river. It will cost the government $35,000 for this one little item.

Hospital to Exceed 400 Men.

There are exactly 91 hospital buildings in Camp Custer, not counting the first aid and ambulance stations of the contractors. Perhaps there is in the United States no similar area containing that number of buildings devoted to the fight against sickness.

It figures out at one hospital building for each 400 men—at which rate the city of Detroit would have 1,875 such buildings. In ordinary communities a hospital is usually the last thing built. There are communities a century old in Michigan that never had a hospital. But in a cantonment of the United States army the hospital is among the first things built—health is the first thing guarded, and the line of sentinels drawn against disease is more complex than the line drawn against fire and theft.

Camp Custer's health record to date is all included in this statement: Not one of the cases being treated today originated in camp, except a case of pneumonia and a few minor injuries. Every other case had its origin in civil life and was brought in by the man himself.

Trading Stamp Law Killed.

The supreme court has knocked out the famous "trading stamp case," which has been hanging fire for some time. The trading stamp law passed by the legislature of 1909. This law prohibited the use of trading stamps in the state and was tested by the Sperry and Hutchinson National Trading Stamp concern. The opinion of the court is based on the general proposition that while it is conceded by the United States supreme court that control of the trading stamp business is within the police power of the state, the Michigan law is hardly reasonable, fair and un-discriminating.

CAMP CUSTER NOTES

Mrs. Elizabeth M. Custer, widow of General Custer, from whom the camp is named, has sent a portrait of General Custer to the camp as her gift.

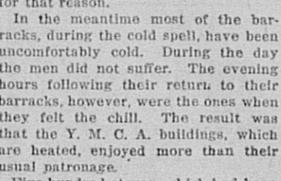

The soldiers are up in arms against the street car company, which is now charging a 15-cent fare to or from Battle Creek. Formerly it was 10 cents, regarded as sufficient for a four-mile ride.

Several members of the Officers' Reserve corps, it has been discovered, are among the selected men here. This was revealed when the surgeon general at Washington requested the discharge of one Detroit man who has been called to active duty as a second lieutenant in the regular army. Discharges for the others also may be asked.

Original Styles in Tailored Suits

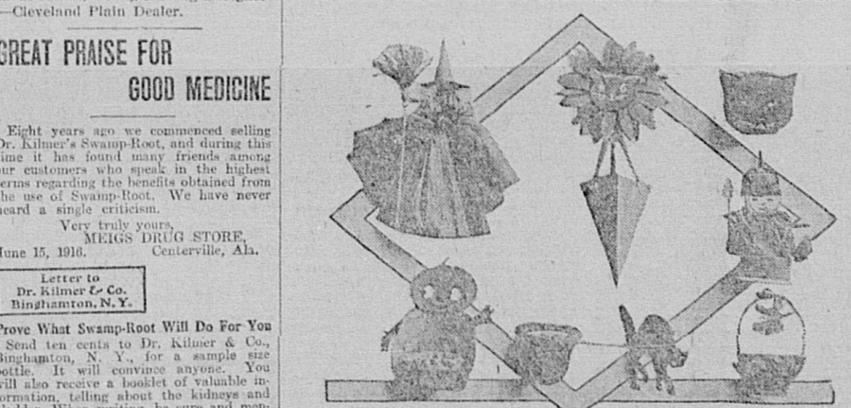

"Brilliant" is the word that best fits the new styles in tailored suits, however sedate the colors may be. In which these suits are developed. Besides the glove shades—beige, brown, tan, castor, taupe—there are rich tones of wine, Russian green, beet root, and amethyst, all at their best in the soft surfaces of fashionable weaves in wool. It seems that costumers cannot think of them without at the same time thinking of furs; for fur is everywhere on tailored suits and put on in the most original ways.

Everything conspires to make this season's formal suit an unqualified success, because the character of the new fabrics, their colors and fashionable trimmings are so well suited to one another. Designers appear to revel in them and have given us creations that fall that more than justify the loyalty of American women to the tailored suit.

Just one of many beautiful new models is pictured here, but it will convince the fortunate woman of today that the best art of the costumiers is at her service. It is of Russian green broadcloth trimmed with French seal convertible collar and buttons and would be equally rich in amethyst, beet-root, taupe or wine. It is an achievement to be proud of and a possession to rejoice in, now that it is fashionable to be busy and nearly all our days are spent in street clothes. The skirt is quite plain and that term might also be used to describe the coat in which the tailor has relied upon originality of design and beautiful adjustment to the figure for the distinction he has given the finished garment.

Along Comes Hallowe'en

Are you going to give a Hallowe'en party? There is a lot of fun for everybody in celebrating this feast of nonsense; it is an indulgence that takes little time and money. The troop of spooks, witches, black cats, pumpkins and lanterns that make Hallowe'en a madly joyous festival for the youngsters has arrived on schedule time and all ready to set off the hour and tabe.

Some of this year's table decorations are shown in the picture above. They are made of crepe paper, plain cardboard and tissue paper, with a little help from pen and ink or water color paints. Fine wire and paste and a very narrow ribbon is needed for some of them and needle and thread for others.

The witch shown is supported by wire with a round piece of flat, white cardboard at one end for the face. About this wire others are twisted to form the arms and legs. The face is drawn with pen and ink and the hair made of white tissue paper cut into a fine fringe. At this stage of her career the unmannly lady may be fastened to a flat desk of cardboard by bending the wires which are to support her at the ends and sewing them to the board. She is clothed in a dress and cape of black crepe paper and has a hat made of plain black paper. The broom is made of wire, wound with narrow strips of yellow paper and a fringe of black paper. Ghosts are made in about the same way of white crepe paper.

A small yellow cardboard box to hold candy or nuts is suspended from a sunflower of yellow tissue paper (with a cat's face pasted over the center) by narrow yellow ribbons. A disk of white cardboard forms the foundation of this piece, with the ends of the ribbon, the flower petals and cat's face pasted to it.

All the small paper dishes for salted almonds or confections are made of yellow crepe paper parled over ready-made foundations. A dish of this kind may be transformed into a basket by adding a handle of wire wound with paper. A little covered round box is shown with a small helmeted figure seated on the lid, holding a spear in his hand. He is merely a "lolly pop" stick with a dish of candy on one end—furnished with arms and legs of wire and dressed in yellow crepe paper. The candy is covered with wax paper whereon his good natured face is made with pen and ink.

For the Hallowe'en party there are paper table cloths and napkins that dress the table appropriately. The best of all center pieces is the old-fashioned jack-o-lantern made of a real pumpkin hollowed out and having eyes, nose and mouth cut through the rind.

Hatpins of Fur.
Hatpins have not been much in evidence for several years, but furriers are showing a hatpin that will serve as the only necessary ornament to the winter hat, says the Dry Goods Economist. This pin has a small head in the center surrounded with a circle of fur three or four inches in diameter. This may be had in various furs or combinations, to match the trimming of the suit.

Also in fur are the huge Pierrot buttons which will be used later in the winter to ornament the coats and suits. These buttons are two or three inches in diameter and may be had in different furs. Fur drops are also being shown for winter wear on coats and suits.

Wide Striped Stockings.
Perhaps the newest thing in stockings is the very wide stripe—from 1 inch to 1½ inches. These stripes run vertically and are made in many colors combined with white. Another new stocking shows a stripe formed by what we should ordinarily term a "cun"—that is to say, the stripe looks simply as if the up and down threads of the stocking had been pulled up and left only the threads crosswise.

Coat Fur Is Liked.
A new fur is Mongolia, a long-haired and curly coat fur used by a few Paris designers on fall costumes. Unplucked beaver, with hair 2 inches long, lying flat on the fur, is also used, and has the effect of a dark and unusual fur trimming.

HERMIT SCULPTOR IS FOUND

Spends Time Modeling Little Masterpieces Which He Promptly Destroys Upon Completion.

There has been discovered at Cape Scott, one of the most solitary points in Vancouver Island, by the chief engineer of the public works department of British Columbia, a sculptor who spends his time in modeling little masterpieces from lumps of clay and then destroying them, relates an exchange.

He is A. F. Whittier, and he calls himself a "prospector." Living entirely alone, he has for the past two years been carrying out lonely investigations of mineral claims in his neighborhood. His sculptor's tools are of the simplest kind, and it is his habit to work with the same piece of clay, which weighs scarcely five pounds, but with that he has modeled scores of objects.

The government engineer found him just as he had completed a bust of the martyred British nurse, Edith Cavell. Mr. Whittier was about to destroy the work in order that he might use the clay for a miniature statue of his son, who was recently killed. He was, however, persuaded to part with the bust, which is to be auctioned in aid of the Red Cross funds.

Some Satisfaction.

At a ball given by Lord Derby in Canada, writes Douglas Staden, I watched his A. D. C. taking an important politician, whom he should have known perfectly well, to introduce him to his (the politician's) own wife, a young and pretty woman, who considered herself one of the lions of Canadian society.

"The situation struck me as a promising one, so I listened to hear what he would say.

"Mrs. Pm," he said, "may I introduce Mr. Um-un to you?"

She looked up at him with an amused smile, and he continued quite blissfully:

"He's a stupid old duffer, but I'll get him away from you as soon as I can."

An Emphatic Assurance.

"If you don't marry me," exclaimed the suitor, "I'll join the army."

"Let me tell you something," answered the girl. "If you don't join the army you won't even be well enough acquainted with me hereafter to ask me to marry you."

The Question.

It isn't so much a question of what a man ought to do as what has he done?

A Letter From Washington

The Food Administrator Writes Us:

"The use of baking powder breads made of corn and other coarse flours instead of patent wheat flour is recommended by the Conservation Division of the Food Administration. The wheat needed for export is thus conserved, and at the same time healthful food for our own people is provided. The circulation of recipes providing for these uses would be of assistance in carrying out our plans."

The following recipes for Corn Bread and Rye Rolls save wheat flour and make attractive and wholesome food for every day when made with

A Boy With a Future.
Ellis Perrot Blister, the fishing expert, said at a banquet:

"The prime virtue of a good angler is patience. No man or boy ever developed into a successful fisherman who hadn't at least twice the patience of Job."

"There's a boy in Shawnee who is going to make a champion one of these days. I saw him fishing the other afternoon on the bank of a creek, and I said to him:

"What are you fishing for, son?"

"Snigs," said he.

"What are snigs?" said I.

"I dunno," said the boy. "I ain't never caught none yet."

An Exaggeration.
"Crossing the ocean nowadays is a serious proposition," said J. P. Morgan, who crosses the ocean continually, "but it isn't, after all, as terrible a thing as certain exaggerations would make you believe."

"Anything to declare?" a customs officer said to a man who had just crossed the ocean.

"Yes," said the man. "I declare that I'm one mass of black and blue bruises from jolting and bumping for six days over a regular cutthroat road of German mines and submarines."

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J.
