SAILS FOR EUROPE THIS WEEK

Claimed That Even With Great Holes Torn in Sides, Ship Would Remain On Surface.

Washington-The first non-sinkable seagoing ship, the Lucia, achievement of American genius, will load this week and leave for Europe.

She will be without convoy. She goes as an open challenge to German submarines to prive that she is invulnerable. No test has been made or will be made of the efficacy of her multiplicity of airtight and water-tight cells.

William F. Donnelly, inventor of the non-sinkable construction of the Lucia, a marine engineer of New York, will have charge of loading of the vessel. Although the Lucia is fitted with 12. 000 of the water and air-tight cells, permanently attached to frames and deck beams and other available spaces of the deck, about 15 to 20 per cent of the cargo space must be packed with additional numbers of these buoyant boxes.

Mathematical calculations from small scale experiments, are considered sufficient proof that even with a hole 40 feet long blown in her side she would remain safely afloat, supported by the honeycomb of cells.

Each cell is independent of any other for its supporting quality and the great number of them, in addition to the ordinary safety device of watertight doors and other water-tight compartments on every sea-going vessel give so great a degree of bouvancy that two or three torpedoes would to sink such a ship. A vessel, so smashed and torn by craft is so successful that British torpedoes, with gaping holes below the water line could remain on the surface indefinitely, simply waterlogged

MAYOR WHO HAD NO HUMOR

John F. Hylan, New York's new mayor, began by exercising a sort of paternal care over his appointees, telling them to sny nothing to newspaper reporters, to spend only one hour at luncheon and not to disturb their digestion by smoking fat cigars while riding in city automobiles. If the new mayor is deficient in humor, as he is currently reported to be, he has a large supply of dignity. In the heat of the campaign, when a platoon of reporters filed in to have a talk with the candidate, one of them remarked: "We will make him human yet." The remark was taken to the candidate; the reporter was identified and Judge Hylan warned the offender not to be seen again at headquarters. One Wounded Man Returns, Others Killed or Captured.

With the American Army in France Five American soldiers are believed and one was wounded, when an American patrol was amhushed in No Man's Land Saturday night by a superior force of Germans,

The spot where the encounter occurred is an isolated one and reports concerning the casualties inflicted by ercan is known to have escaped the trap of the Germans which was laid in front of our wires. The one sur vivor, who crawled back to the Ameri can lines with a bullet in his chest was unable to talk.
