LETTER FROM CALIFORNIA

Kate Canfield Says San Francisco Folks are Very Patriotic.

The Tribune received a letter yesterday from Kate M. Canfield, formerly of Chelsea, but now of Lodi, California. She says: "Just returned from San Francisco and the first Chelsea paper I picked up was the one telling about the little yellow subscription label, so I looked to see when and what mine said. Please find check for another year as I don't want the Tribune to stop coming."

We are having lovely weather now. It has been raining but the sunshine for the past two days makes everything look beautiful. The almond trees are all in bloom and the apricots and other kinds of fruit trees are nearly ready to blossom.

I note by the Tribune that you Michigan people, especially in Chelsea, are all doing your bit in Red Cross work. Glad to know it. San Francisco people are very patriotic too. If you could walk down Market street you would see hundreds of soldier and sailor boys and in all the big stores hundreds of women and girls doing Red Cross work. The department stores give about 1/2 of their second floor space, partitioned off by glass, for the Red Cross workers. Knitting is being done by everyone and everywhere and placards advise you to Hooverize in all things; dress, food, etc., and the people all do it.

Edith just received a letter from Charles Bates, dated Paris, France. Albert Bates is in San Francisco and expects to be called any day, and Frank and Herbert Bates are spending their evenings knitting socks for soldiers.

Your friend,
Kate M. Canfield.

HOW NATURE PULLS STUMPS.

A natural stump puller has been discovered by Mat Blosser, editor of the Manchester Enterprise, who describes an incident recently observed in our neighboring town as follows:

Way back in the pioneer days, when the waters of the Raisin river were held back by the first dam thrown across it at "Solesville," many trees were cut down along the bank. As the water in the pond rose higher and higher the stumps of these trees were submerged and have remained there. Innumerable spring floods of the 80 or more years that have passed have failed to dislodge them. Every winter ice formed around or over those stumps and when the spring rains or freshets removed the ice the water being higher they were not disturbed but remained firmly imbedded in the soil. But this year the water in the river was very low and during the many weeks of severe winter the ice formed thicker and thicker around those old stumps; then came a sudden rain, the water in the river rose quickly, the ice holding firmly in its grasp the aforesaid stumps, wrenched them loose and no longer will they serve as hiding places for the denizens of the lower pond.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS.

The Republicans of Sylvan township will meet in caucus at the Town Hall in said township on Saturday, March 9, 1918, at 2:30 p. m.; for the purpose of nominating a township ticket and transacting such other business as may come before it.

Dated, March 1, 1918. Committee.

LENDING TO GOVERNMENT.

What security is behind the War-Savings Stamp? The United States government promises to pay $5 for each stamp on January 1, 1923. This promise is backed by the faith and honor of the United States and by the taxing power of this country, which is the richest nation in the world.

Why does the United States borrow this money? To pay the expenses of the war.

When I lend my money to the government, would it be safer to buy a government bond rather than these War-Savings Stamps? When a War-Savings Stamp is attached to a War-Savings Certificate it becomes a government obligation with the same security as the Liberty bonds, now held by more than 10,000,000 Americans.

Is the 4 per cent interest, compounded quarterly, on War-Savings Certificates paid in the same way as the interest on Liberty bonds? No. The Liberty bond interest is paid every six months, but the interest on the War-Savings Certificate accumulates and is paid to you in one sum, on January 1, 1923.

Why isn't the interest paid in the same manner on both War-Savings Certificates and Liberty bonds? It would be very complicated and expensive to pay interest every six months on $5 stamps and for that reason the United States government retains the interest until January 1, 1923, at which time it pays you the compound interest and the principal, amounting to $5, the face value of the War-Savings Stamp.

Should I sell Liberty bonds to buy War-Savings Stamps? No. The security behind Liberty bonds and War-Savings Certificates is the same. Keep your Liberty bonds, but buy War-Savings Stamps also.

Is the money received from War-Savings Stamps and Thrift Stamps used for the same purpose as the money received from Liberty bonds? Yes.

Should I take money out of the Savings bank to buy War-Savings Stamps? No. You should save as much as you can every day and buy Thrift Stamps and War-Savings Stamps with these savings.

How did congress authorize these War-Savings Certificates? By act approved September 24, 1917.

How large an amount of War-Savings Certificates can be issued under the present law? $2,000,000,000.

USE OF AXE ON HENS MAKES MORE EGGS

Demonstration by M. A. C. Poultryman Proves Wisdom of Culling Out Non-Layers.

Additional proof of the fact that the egg-laying ability of a flock of hens can be increased by wise use of the axe among them has been furnished to the Michigan Agricultural college by the results of a culling demonstration conducted on the farm of E. A. Wang, near Paw Paw.

On October 25, Ernest Foreman, one of the college's field men in poultry, sorted hens on the Paw Paw farm into three lots, which he labeled A, B and C. In Lot A were placed the best producers, to Lot B were assigned hens which would just about pay for their keep, while in Lot C were "boarder hens," or birds which if kept would bring a loss to their owner. Fowls in all three flocks were given the same feed and kept under identical conditions.

On January 28, when the first report on the results of the culling was given out, it was found that the 28 hens in Lot A had laid 206 eggs, or an average of more than seven eggs per hen. The birds in Lot B laid an average of only 1.69 (less than two) eggs each, during the two months, while those in Lot C laid none at all.

The demonstration at Paw Paw, which is still in progress, is one of many being conducted by the department of poultry of the college to show that Michigan keepers of hens, if they desire to have their flocks earn a profit, must learn and practice the culling of flocks.

DISCUSS BEANS AND FARM LABOR PROBLEM

Anderson and Pinckney Men Answer Plaints in Detroit Free Press Regarding Farm Wages.

In the Detroit Free Press of February 28th was published a letter criticizing the alleged low wage paid for farm labor and discussing the comparatively high prices paid for all kinds of farm produce. The article raised a storm of protest among farmers generally, but only two seemed to be enough interested to take the trouble to reply. It happens too that both replies are from farmers living near Pinckney and Anderson and not far from Chelsea. The letters follow:

To the Editor: I noticed in today's paper a letter from a Mr. Yasmar. He seems to think that a man and team can be hired for $3 per day, which cannot be done. Also regarding his "kick" against the wages, the hours and the food. The wages average $42 per month, with board at $7 per week and room rent from $3 to $5 per week costing nothing.

This, together with the $42 cash, makes anywhere from $85 to $90 per month. And I want to say that if the average $15 to $20 per week man was sure of the food the hired man gets on a farm, most of them would be very glad.

I think Mr. Yasmar has been reading the articles of some of the so-called farm experts, men who have made a failure of farming.

Max G. Sweitzer,
Pinckney, Mich.
February 28, 1918.

To the Editor: I notice in your issue of February 28, a letter from one Alexander Yasmar. After reading his statements to six or seven farmer friends we took a brief census of our last year's bean crop with the following results: Acres of beans raised in 1917, 174; bushels raised, 691; average price per bushel received, $5; average per acre a little better than $20.

The returns from an acre are less than what our friend said they were, in this neighborhood at least, while our friend forgot to make any allowance for the time after time that we turned our beans during October, 1917, which, I believe, made eight farmers out of ten in our vicinity a loser on his bean crop last year as they were also on their corn crop in the last two years.

Now, if our friend thinks that he can show a profit of $26 per acre on his potato crop and $46 per acre on his bean crop, I have a farm of some 240 acres that I will own, as soon as I get it paid for, and I will be very glad to sell it to him on very easy terms at less per acre than he says he can clear off from one acre of beans.

I believe that the farmers have done their full share for the welfare and uplift of the country, and if Hoover were to designate a meat day instead of a meatless day he would inaugurate more of a change than he has, for I believe that the average farmer has been without meat many more days in the last years than any class of citizens.

In conclusion, if friend Alexander is in earnest and a worthy man on the farm, I can direct him to many farmers who will gladly give him $850 to $900 a year and furnish him a house to live in and give him milk, firewood, garden spot and 200 pounds of pork free of charge, and will ask in return an honest day's work each day.

Yours truly,
M. J. Roche.

GREAT DRIVE FOR SHIPYARD HELP

Call for 250,000 Volunteers to Aid in Speeding the New Merchant Fleet.

TO BE READY WHEN CALLED

Reserve Organization Formed to Complete Gigantic Program to Win War—Good Pay and Living Conditions.

The United States Shipyard Volunteers of the Public Service Reserve, a reserve organization of American mechanics, skilled workers in many lines of trade, has been formed to bring to completion the gigantic shipbuilding program necessary to win the war.

An appeal for volunteers has been made by the department of labor, the council of national defense, the shipping board, the 20,000 four-minute men, governors of the various states, organized labor and business men.

Pay of volunteers will be in accordance with the prevailing wage in the shipyards at the time they are called. Construction of houses for the workers is being pushed with energy, and the necessary homes will be ready when the men are called.

Preliminaries Are Arranged. All preliminary work, such as the building of shipyards and shipways, construction of housing facilities, preparation and transportation of material, and the training of workmen, is being pushed to completion.

Volunteers are requested to go to the nearest enrollment agent of the public service reserve or state council of defense and sign up. Should there be no enrolling agent in the vicinity, they are asked to write to Edward N. Hurley, chairman of the United States Shipping Board, Washington.

Cards are issued to all applicants, bearing statements of the purpose of the shipyard volunteers, classifying them according to trades and asking signers to respond when called. Buttons will be given to volunteers bearing the inscription, "U. S. Shipyard Volunteers."

This is to certify (name of volunteer) of (city, state), has enrolled in the United States Shipyard Volunteers of Public Service Reserve to aid the nation in its imperative needs for merchant ships with which to overcome the submarine menace and maintain our forces at the front.

Each state has been assigned a quota, based upon the population and industries. The quota is as follows:

Table listing state quotas for shipyard volunteers: Maine 2,972, New Jersey 11,348, New Hampshire 1,628, Pennsylvania 21,771, Vermont 1,250, Ohio 18,872, Massachusetts 4,221, Indiana 30,842, Rhode Island 2,255, Illinois 23,027, Connecticut 4,754, Michigan 11,734, New York 35,825, Wisconsin 9,511, Minnesota 3,752, Alabama 3,994, Iowa 2,591, Indiana 30,842, Missouri 11,312, Arkansas 6,429, North Dakota 2,684, Louisiana 7,061, South Dakota 2,283, Oklahoma 4,421, Nebraska 1,409, Texas 15,623, Kansas 6,288, Montana 1,483, Delaware 811, Idaho 1,821, Maryland 4,329, Wyoming 1,413, Dist. of Col. 1,393, Colorado 3,329, Virginia 4,453, New Mexico 1,423, West Virginia 5,527, Arizona 883, S. Trades Needed in Shipbuilding. The department of labor has provided the following list showing the kind of trades most needed in shipbuilding, and a special appeal is addressed to men in those occupations to enroll in the United States Shipyard volunteers:

Acetylene and electrical welders, asbestos workers, blacksmiths, angle-smiths, drop-forged men, flange turners, furnace men, boiler-makers, riveters, removers, carpenters, ship carpenters, dock builders, chippers and calkers, electrical workers, electricians, wiremen, crane operators, foundry workers, laborers (all kinds), liftmen, template makers, machinists and machine hands (all sorts), helpers, painters, plumbers and pipe fitters, sheet metal workers, cooper-smiths, slipfitters, structural iron workers, erectors, bolters up, cementers and crane men.

Life's Inspirations. There is no greater joy than the feeling that some act of ours has inspired another to be brave and strong. One of the beautiful things about right doing is that it is an inspiration to others. No life is a real success which has not scattered inspiration along the way.

Just Human Nature. Another reason why a man is mar is because he would rather lose $50 in a speculation than 50 cents through a hole in his pocket.—Dallas News.

WAITER NO LONGER NEEDED

Service Wagon Takes the Place of the Menial Who So Long Has Preyed Upon Diners.

According to a writer in the Hotel, World a satisfactory substitute has been found for the waiter! No, you skeptical ones, it is not the self-service of the cafeteria. It is a service wagon, which is practically a service table on wheels, with its own heating arrangement and carrying a good assortment of soup, fish, meat and vegetables, and hot plates for fifty people or more. The wagon is wheeled up to the guests' table and opened so that a selection can be made.

Shortage of help and rising costs of service, especially in small hotels and remote winter and summer resorts, are leading to the wider use of this service wagon. One difficulty with wagon service heretofore has been the cost of equipment, as the wagons were of elaborate construction with silver trimmings and cost about $500. This expense has now been reduced by a type of wagon that sells for about $200.

Who wouldn't pay $200 to be rid, for all time, of the ministrations and importunities of waiters? It would not be an extravagant any way you look at it. That amount could be saved the first year in tips, hold-ups, robberies—whatever one wishes to call it.

Dealing With the Selfish Child. Just how far shall we check the child's impulses and just how far allow him to be natural? It does not seem to me difficult to draw the line. Most of the details and niceties of etiquette may safely be left to a later time, but the child should be given from the very beginning a training in the big fundamentals of good manners, namely, in self-control and unselfishness. The child who flies into a temper, who "answers back," who shows his dislike for others, is simply a child who is exhibiting a lack of self-control. The child who pushes ahead disregarding others, who speaks his mind when to do so adds to the discomfort of someone present, who takes benefits without gratitude or thanks, who usurps the conversation among others older and more experienced than himself, is "bad-mannered." If you like to speak of it in that way, but he is the child who is fundamentally selfish, who has no regard for others, and prefers his own pleasure and comfort to those of anyone else.

Brick Dumping in Neat Pile. For bundling finished brick economically and without breakage, a truck with an ingenious unloading body has been constructed, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. Instead of being dumped, the load is deposited in an orderly pile when the steel container is turned to a perpendicular position so that one end rests on the ground. The tail gate is a wood panel held in place by a long pin. When released by the removal of the latter, it serves as a platform for the stack of bricks. The open-end body is then pulled away and the load left standing.

No "Utopia" Ever Found. The word utopia is from two Greek words, one meaning not, and topos, a place, hence utopia, no place or nowhere. Sir Thomas Moore gave the name to an imaginary island on which he located a happy republic, composed of perfect people, with a perfect government and altogether perfect conditions. From this utopia came to mean ideal perfection and conditions, nowhere to be found.

"Yes, and I always spend the nickel for a cigar or something just as soon as I can, so as to get rid of the feeling."

CHINA HELPS SOLVE NIPPON PROBLEM

Washington—China has probably solved the Vladivostok problem which has been perplexing the Allies' chancelleries. This suggestion was made in high official quarters here.

It followed receipt by the state department of an unconfirmed rumor from Tokio and Shanghai that the Bolsheviks in Vladivostok had seized $50,000,000 worth of war supplies on the docks and were preparing to commandeer Allied and neutral merchant vessels in the harbor. Japanese and Allied warships at Vladivostok, the state department's report said, had cleared for action.

The state department was not the least disturbed over the rumor. Neither were Japanese officials. None of these supplies, it was pointed out, can be moved into Siberia or Russia, without passing Harbin, North China. China has powerful military forces at this point, prepared to act in fullest concert with the occidental Allies.

Should it appear that these supplies will fall into the hands of the Germans, or should it appear that the Bolsheviks might use them in a manner against the Allied interests, China, on her own right, and on her own territory, may refuse to permit them to pass.

The question of the wisdom of permitting an extensive Japanese operation in Siberia seems effectually solved by the strong position of the Chinese at Harbin.

REDS AGREE TO GERMAN PEACE

Trotsky Report That Movement into Russia Has Stopped.

Washington—A dispatch from Berlin via London states that the German invasion into Russia has stopped because of the signing of the peace treaty.

It was reported several days ago by Bolshevik commissioners that they were about to sign a peace treaty. This report was telegraphed to Lenin and Trotsky after delegates sent to Brest-Litovsk had met the German emissaries.

There is little information available as to details of the meeting between the delegations, but the Bolsheviks said they realized that any further delay would mean more onerous conditions and they would sign the treaty without further discussions.

Russia lost by the delay that ensued when Trotsky announced that the war, so far as Russia was concerned, had ended, but refused to sign the formal treaty.

The state department was not the least disturbed over the rumor. Neither were Japanese officials. None of these supplies, it was pointed out, can be moved into Siberia or Russia, without passing Harbin, North China. China has powerful military forces at this point, prepared to act in fullest concert with the occidental Allies.

Should it appear that these supplies will fall into the hands of the Germans, or should it appear that the Bolsheviks might use them in a manner against the Allied interests, China, on her own right, and on her own territory, may refuse to permit them to pass.

The question of the wisdom of permitting an extensive Japanese operation in Siberia seems effectually solved by the strong position of the Chinese at Harbin.

It is recognized that there may be some disposition in Japan to resent the fact that China is allowed to play such a part. According to opinion here, however, this resentment will exist only in the minds of Japanese imperialists, who at this stage of world politics will not dare to raise their voices very loud.

REDS AGREE TO GERMAN PEACE

Trotsky Report That Movement into Russia Has Stopped.

Washington—A dispatch from Berlin via London states that the German invasion into Russia has stopped because of the signing of the peace treaty.

It was reported several days ago by Bolshevik commissioners that they were about to sign a peace treaty. This report was telegraphed to Lenin and Trotsky after delegates sent to Brest-Litovsk had met the German emissaries.

There is little information available as to details of the meeting between the delegations, but the Bolsheviks said they realized that any further delay would mean more onerous conditions and they would sign the treaty without further discussions.

Russia lost by the delay that ensued when Trotsky announced that the war, so far as Russia was concerned, had ended, but refused to sign the formal treaty.

LIND REPRESENTS PUBLIC

In the advisory council formed by Secretary Wilson to assist in carrying out the war labor program, the public is represented by John Lind, former governor of Minnesota, and chairman of the council.

Like Senator Knute Nelson, whose political rival Mr. Lind has been ever since he went over to the Democratic party, he is of Scandinavian birth and parentage. He was born in the Parish of Kanna, Sweden, in 1854. When he was thirteen he came with his father to the United States and settled at Goodhue, Minn. He attended the public schools, studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1870. In 1881 Mr. Lind was appointed by President Garfield receiver of the United States land office at Tracy, Minn. Five years later he was elected a representative to congress and was re-elected in 1888 and 1900.

At the opening of the Spanish war Mr. Lind became quartermaster of the Fifteenth Minnesota Volunteer Infantry, with the rank of first lieutenant, serving in this capacity until the regiment was mustered out. In 1896 he was a nominee for governor of Minnesota, but was defeated. In 1898 he was elected and in 1900 defeated again. After this he took up his residence in Minneapolis and turned again to his law practice, which he interrupted two years later to serve again as representative. The next interruption came in 1913, when he went to Mexico as President Wilson's envoy and personal representative.

NEW CHIEF OF STAFF

Gen. Peyton Conway March, lately appointed acting chief of staff, has the unofficial designation of speeder up. A man of quick decisions, as he has proved himself to be both in military campaigns and in the direction of senile governments in newly acquired American possessions, he is thought to be admirably fitted for the new role.

Participating in two expeditions to the Philippines, his name is associated not only with many of the decisive battles and campaigns in those islands, but with the names of some of the most notable of the Filipino leaders who were captured or forced to surrender.

General March is a son of the late Francis Andrew March, long a professor in Lafayette college, and his brother, Francis Andrew, Jr., is now a member of the faculty of that institution. Peyton Conway March is himself a graduate of Lafayette, but military life rather than the classroom appealed to him, and in the very year that he finished his academic course, 1884, he entered West Point.

Win the War by Preparing the Land Sowing the Seed and Producing Bigger Crops

The Food Controllers of the United States and Canada are asking for greater food production. Scarcely 100,000,000 bushels of wheat are available to be sent to the allies overseas before the crop harvest. Upon the efforts of the United States and Canada rests the burden of supply. Every Available Tillable Acre Must Contribute; Every Available Farmer and Farm Hand Must Assist. Western Canada has an enormous acreage to be seeded, but man power is short, and an appeal to the United States allies is for more men for seeding operation. Canada's Wheat Production Last Year was 225,000,000 Bushels; the Demand From Canada Alone for 1918 is 400,000,000 Bushels. To secure this she must have assistance. She has the land but needs the men. The Government of the United States wants every man who can effectively help, to do farm work this year. It wants the land in the United States developed first of course; but it also wants to help Canada. Whenever we find a man we can spare to Canada's fields after ours are supplied, we want to direct him there. Apply to our Employment Service, and we will tell you where you can best serve the combined interests. Western Canada's help will be required not later than April 5th. Wages to competent help, $50.00 a month and up, board and lodging. Those who respond to this appeal will get a warm welcome, good wages, good board and find comfortable homes. They will get a rate of one cent a mile from Canadian boundary points to destination and return. For particulars as to routes and places where employment may be had apply to: U. S. EMPLOYMENT SERVICE, DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

IF YOU THINK IT, SAY IT.

If anything pleases your eye or palate, or adds to your enjoyment of life in any way, say so. It is not fair to expect anyone to work for your pleasure and then take it for granted that you are pleased, when, perhaps, neither words, looks nor actions express anything of the kind.

It is bad enough to expect grown people to understand your feelings, but in mercy to the children do give them the word of praise which their efforts to help or please you deserves.

It is not only right but good policy as well to know this. You have only to watch the face of a child when it has tried to help you; give it the word of praise or thanks which it deserves and watch the lighting up of the little face, then take note of its actions and very soon you will see that it is watching for an opportunity to do something else for you; and if you ask the favor how willingly the little feet and hands do the bidding. On the other hand take their efforts as a matter of course and see the face show how keenly the neglect is felt.

While human nature remains what it is, a word of appreciation will never be lost on old or young and is one of the best paying investments which can be made. Some say, "I don't care whether they like it or not," but that is all nonsense for man, woman or child; we every one of us feel our heart grow warm under merited praise, and if we get a little more of it than we deserve, which rarely happens in this world, we try to deserve more next time.

WHAT IT COSTS TO EQUIP U. S. SOLDIER

How the Purchase of War Savings Stamps Aids in Great Fight to Preserve Democracy

It costs just $156.71 to equip an American soldier to take the field. By this is meant merely to buy the clothes he wears and the arms he carries. By the time he is trained, and fed for six months before being sent across the water, the costs mount up to several thousands of dollars for each man.

Every man, every woman and every child who buys thrift stamps and war savings stamps is helping to equip these soldiers for the field. If you are saving and serving by aiding in this great campaign, you are taking an active part in defending your country from the Kaiser's hordes.

What have you done to equip your country's soldiers? How much have you contributed to thrift stamps or war savings stamps toward seeing that they are clothed and armed?

Have You Equipped a Soldier?

If you have bought thirty-eight war-savings stamps at $4.12 each, and one thrift stamp at twenty-five cents, you have equipped a soldier completely.

If you have bought one thrift stamp you have paid for one waist belt, or one hat cord, two pairs of shoe laces and four identification tags.

If you have bought two thrift stamps you have paid for one trench tool, with which the soldier may dig himself in after storming the enemy's lines, or one shelter tent pole and five shelter tent pins.

If you have bought three thrift stamps you have provided some soldier with a pair of woolen gloves.

If your investment totals four thrift stamps you have paid for one bayonet, and the government has eleven cents left over.

The price of four thrift stamps will provide the soldier with his canvas equipment bag.

Five thrift stamps will buy one bayonet scabbard.

Six thrift stamps will pay for the soldier's summer undershirt or his woolen stockings.

Seven thrift stamps will buy him his service hat.

Eight Stamps for One Bayonet.

Eight thrift stamps will leave fifteen cents lacking to pay for one bayonet.

Twelve thrift stamps will pay for the soldier's winter undershirt, or the undergarments that keep the nether extremities warm this kind of weather.

One war savings stamp will pay for his cartridge belt.

One war savings stamp and four thrift stamps will pay for the 100 rifle cartridges with which he starts into battle.

Two war savings stamps will buy his woolen shirt, or his O. D. breeches.

Three war savings stamps will buy his necessary two pairs of shoes or his gaiters.

Four war savings stamps cover the cost of his O. D. coats or his woolen blankets.

If you have bought five war savings stamps you have paid for his rifle.

POTATO BREAD.

Many people have asked for a special recipe for potato bread.

The following recipe for potato bread has been so made as to use a large amount of potatoes as compared with flour. Excellent bread can be made with less potato. In using this recipe it should be remembered that a pound of mashed potato is about equivalent, for the purpose, to a cup of wheat flour.

Straight Dough Method.
(One-pound loaves.)

4 C potatoes (mashed fine)
6 C bread flour
2 cakes compressed yeast, or 1 cake dry yeast, or 1 cup liquid yeast
2 t salt
1 t sugar
3 T water (omit if liquid yeast is used)

Clean thoroughly and wash, without paring, nine potatoes of medium size, allowing them to become very soft. Pour off the water, peel and mash the potatoes while hot, being careful to leave the lumps. Take a solidly packed hair-pin cup of mashed potato, and when cooled to the temperature of lukewarm water, add to it the yeast, rubbed smooth with 2 tablespoons of lukewarm water. Mix the cup in which the yeast was rinsed with another tablespoon of water and add to the potato. If dry yeast is used let it stand until morning. Next add the salt, the sugar and 1 cupful of the flour, sifted mix thoroughly. Set in a warm place and let rise until very light; this will take about two hours. When very light, add the remainder of the flour, kneading thoroughly, until a smooth and elastic dough has been formed. Add more flour if necessary to form a hard loaf. (If most potatoes are used, more flour must be kneaded into the dough at this stage.) The dough must be very stiff, since the hot potato contains a large amount of water, which causes the dough to soften as it ferments. Set back to rise until it has trebled in volume, which will require another hour or two. Divide the dough into four parts, mold them separately, and place in greased pans which have been warmed slightly. Allow the loaves to rise until they have doubled in volume and bake for 45 minutes. (If liquid yeast is used more flour will be needed.)

A Bilious Attack.

When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. They only cost a quarter.—Adv.

MEATLESS DAYS AND MEALS.

Help by reducing the consumption of meat per person for meals in which meat is used. Buy smaller quantities of meat than you used to, but prepare it in such a way that there is enough for the whole family. The flavor of meat may be extended by using bread, cracked crumbs, cooked oatmeal, cornmeal, cracker wheat and hominy, in making meat loaves, casserole dishes, meat pies, baked croquettes, meat salads and hash. In this way you give your family a wholesome, comparatively inexpensive dish which will satisfy their craving for the flavor of meat. The eggs which are added to meat loaf serve to bind it together, and when eggs are expensive, the thickened gravy from the meat will answer the same purpose. Use all left-overs of meat. They can be used to advantage in making soups and gravies or they can be added to scalloped potatoes to give additional flavor.
