

AN OLD TWO-WHEELER

Wooden Velocipede of Vintage 1875
Owned by Anson Youngs.

There arrived in Chelsea a few days since an old two-wheeled wooden velocipede, such as were quite common back in the '70's and '80's, and which were especially popular among the telegraph messenger boys in Detroit and other cities.

The old velocipede is the property of Mr. Anson Youngs, formerly of Detroit, who has resided in Chelsea for several years past at the Methodist Old People's home. Mr. Youngs used to ride it, but several years ago his nephew shipped it to his home in Pierre, S. D., as an interesting relic of the development of the modern bicycle and it had since been a part of the exhibition of the South Dakota Historical society. Recently the nephew died and Mr. Youngs decided to have the old velocipede shipped to Chelsea, believing he would enjoy the novelty of riding it again.

The old two-wheeler is made almost entirely of wood, only a few bolts, the tires, cranks and axles being iron. The wheels look very much like small high grade buggy wheels. The pedals are large wooden spoons, and the cranks are on the front wheel.

Mr. Youngs plans to ride the old vehicle down town from the "home" this summer and we've no doubt that he will be the center of a curious and interested crowd when first he rides his wooden two-wheeler down Main street.

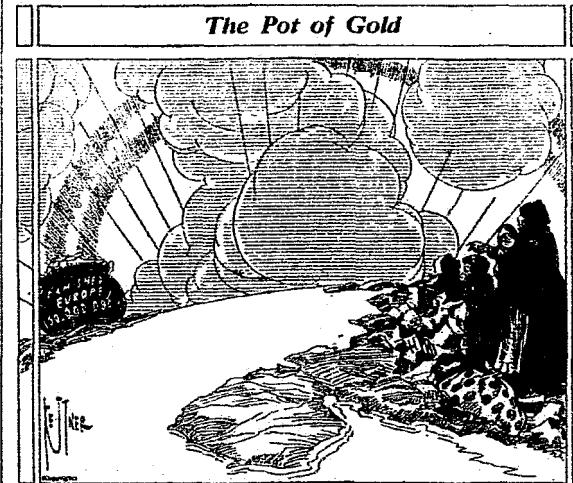

The old velocipede was specially built for Mr. Youngs in 1875 and apparently is in as good running order as when new.

FISHERMEN AND LIARS

Organize New Club With Jaw Breaker Name, But With Laudable Aims and Ambitions.

Fishermen and those who love the out-of-doors generally have recently completed the organization of a new fishing club in Chelsea with the idea of restocking the lakes in this vicinity with fish. Following is a statement of the aims of the new club and a list of members, etc:

We the undersigned, knowing that our many inland lakes are being depleted by fishermen from all over

The Pot of Gold

Michigan and a part of Ohio, believe that the propagation and planting of fish fry is a proper and needed state expenditure and that the only way to get our share of this state fund is to go after it through the Michigan Fish commission.

Fishermen and Liars.

Therefore be it resolved; That an organization be perfected to consist of "fishermen" and "liars," which are to fishermen synonymous terms, who have caught or lost at least one "big one," or who are able to tell a convincing story of having done so; not under 16 or over 105 years of age, able to walk, dig bait, row a boat and enjoy God's beautiful out-of-doors on Saturday, Monday, or any other old day.

The object of this organization shall be to encourage the propagation and planting of fish fry, the proper protection of fish and the elimination of the "fish hog," to promote good fellowship among the craft and to enlarge the scope of the imagination so as to be able to tell the length and weight of the "big one" that got away.

A Jaw-Breaking Name.

The organization shall be known as "The Superspadradicated Order of Whoppers," which written in full is, The Chelsea Fishing and Fish Propagation Club.

The officers shall be the "Ole Whopper," who shall be the acting president; and to keep records, minutes and funds, "Ole Pike," who shall, for the purpose of correspondence and other business, be known as secretary and treasurer of The Chelsea Fishing and Fish Propagation Club.

Following is a list of members, all of Chelsea, excepting as noted:

H. D. Witherell, Howard F. Brooks, Lewis P. Vogel, George P. Staffan, W. C. Boyd, B. B. Turnbull, Carl F. Bagge, Charles Hieber, John B. Parker, L. L. Winans, William Schatz, Ed. Vogel, R. A. Wagner, W. F. Kantelner, William G. Oesterle, F. L. Davidson, William Fahrner, N. S. Potter, Jr., Eugene E. Look and Frank F. Brooks of Detroit, M. Brooks, A. K. Collins, Roy Harris, D. H. Wurster, D. L. Rogers, Jone H. Seitz, Fred Oesterle, T. C. Schmid, Ed. Keusch, M. A. Shaver, N. H. Cook, Robert Foster, J. H. Boyd, H. J. Dancer, Roy Dillon, L. G. Palmer, A. L. Steger, Paul O. Bacon, Earle A. Lowry, Jacob Hummel, John Hauser, D. Shell, W. R. Daniels, Otto D. Luick, L. T. Freeman, P. G. Schaible, Henry H. Luick, J. S. Cummings, E. D. Brown, Ford Axtell, Howard S. Holmes, C. W. Maroney, J. A. Maroney, G. W. Moore, O. T. Hoover, L. Moore, E. F. Burton, A. Page.

Pursuant to call, a meeting was held in the office of H. D. Witherell on Friday, March 7th, 1919, when the organization as above set forth, was perfected, resolutions adopted and officers elected as follows: President, Howard F. Brooks; secretary and treasurer, Art K. Collins.

The officers were instructed to get busy with the Michigan Fish Commission and others of influence with a view of securing as many fish fry as possible for all the lakes adjacent to Chelsea.

MANCHESTER—Hobart Blaisdell, a Manchester boy who enlisted in the navy for four years, and who was here on furlough about two months ago, met with a peculiar and distressing accident while at sea a few days ago. He was returning from Brest on one of the transports, when a terrible storm arose, and he was hurled thirty feet, breaking his leg. He is now being cared for in a New York hospital.

BASKET BALL NEWS

Chelsea High Boys Play Close Game With Ypsi. Normal High.

The Chelsea high school boys went to Ypsilanti, Friday night, to meet the strong Normal high school team, which proved to be pretty close to their Waterloo. The Normalites led throughout the first, second and third quarters and had the Chelsea lads pretty well scared. It seemed almost impossible for Chelsea to get started. However, the local lads did begin to get into the game during the last quarter and rang up baskets so fast for a few minutes that the scorer could not keep up. The game ended with the following score: Chelsea, 28; Ypsilanti, 26.

Brooks and Kalmbach were the only point getters for Chelsea, each ringing six field goals and two free throws. Abelson and Eiseaman were the point winners for Ypsilanti. Powers, M. S. N. C., referee.

Local Games Saturday.

WHAT PART OF ROAD COST DOES FARMER PAY.

According to the official figures in the records of the State Tax Commission offices at Lansing, the farm property of Michigan represents about 37 per cent of the total assessed valuation of the state.

Unless Michigan can have funds available to meet the dollar-for-dollar Federal Aid to be distributed by Uncle Sam to promote highway construction and maintenance, the farmer will have to bear his 37 per cent of the expense.

But if the Good Road amendment is ratified at the polls, April 7, the people will have authority, through their representatives in the legislature, to use the state's credit to meet any offer the United States government may make and, since Federal aid will care for half of the cost, the farmer will pay only a little more than 18 per cent of the Good Roads investment.

Forgot What He Needed.

From the Republican, Mt. Gilead, Ohio: The editor had an interesting experience some time ago, when a young man came to this office and asked for a copy of the Morrow County Republican. He scrutinized it carefully when a copy was handed him, and then said: "Now I know! 'What is it that you were looking for,' we then inquired. 'My wife sent me after a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I forgot the name. I went to several stores and the clerks named over everything in the line on the shelf except Chamberlain's. I'll try again, and I'll never go home without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.' The Republican would suggest to the proprietors of stores that they post their clerks, and never let them substitute. Customers lose faith in stores where substituting is permitted, to say nothing of the injustice to makers of good goods and the disappointment of customers. Adv.

MISTAKES.

When a plumber makes a mistake, he charges twice for it.

When a lawyer makes a mistake, it is just what he wanted, because he has a chance to try the case all over again.

When a carpenter makes a mistake, it's just what he expected.

When a doctor makes a mistake, the undertaker buries it.

When a judge makes a mistake, it becomes the law of the land.

When a preacher makes a mistake, nobody knows the difference.

When an electrician makes a mistake, he blames it on induction; nobody knows what that means.

But when an editor makes a mistake—Good night! !! Etain! Shrdlu! Hellitydambyge! !!!!!
