CHELSEA HIGH BOYS WIN SECOND PLACE

Were Defeated by Cadillac High at
M. A. C. Last Week.

Thirty-one teams representing high schools of Michigan having an enrollment of 400 or less, competed for the basketball championship in this class at East Lansing last week. Chelsea met their Waterloo in their third game of the series when the strong Cadillac team defeated them on last Thursday evening. The boys put up a game fight in this contest but were not playing up to their usual form and did not seem to be able to find the baskets. The Cadillac quintet is a strong aggregation and were picked for the winners of the tournament from the start.

However, the Chelsea quintet by defeating Marshall 21 to 20 and Niles 16 to 4 in preceding games qualified for the consolation series, which was played on Saturday.

They were pitted against Nordstrum high of Detroit for the first game of this series, but Nordstrum did not enter the consolation series and Chelsea won by default.

The next game was with Charlotte, who had also suffered defeat at the hands of Cadillac. The Chelsea boys romped away with this game 20 to 8.

Their last game was with St. Mary's who had defeated Grand Haven earlier in the series. This was a hard-fought battle but Chelsea led throughout and won 20 to 16.

As winner of this series the team was awarded a silver shield and each member of the team was awarded a silver basketball suitable engraved.

The boys have had an unusually successful season and deserve much praise for their persistent efforts, and were highly commended at both tournaments, at Ypsilanti and East Lansing, for their clean playing and sportsmanlike conduct, both on the courts and off.

The severe grilling which a team must undergo in these tournaments shows very clearly what training will do for boys in the way of making them physically fit. No boys could stand the strain unless they were hard and kept themselves in good physical condition.

WEBSTER BOY HONORED.

Dexter Leader: A distinguished service cross has been awarded by Gen. Pershing, Commander in Chief, in behalf of the president, to the late Private Ralph L. Whitney for extraordinary heroism. Private Whitney, who was a resident of Webster township, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Whitney, was the only soldier from this vicinity to make the supreme sacrifice overseas. While not a resident of this village, he had lived in Webster since 1900 and grew to manhood in this vicinity.

The citation announcing the award of the distinguished service cross says: "Private Ralph L. Whitney, deceased, Company C, 112th Machine Gun Battalion (A. S. No. 2036555). For extraordinary heroism in action near Montagne, France, October 16, 1918. During an attack Private Whitney was tireless in his efforts to bring food and water to his comrades. On the 8th of October he captured 12 Germans without assistance and without regard to his personal safety. Later, while aiding a wounded comrade, he was severely wounded. Home address, E. E. Whitney, father, R. F. D. No. 7, Ann Arbor, Mich."

Sir, and Mrs. Whitney also received a Croix de Guerre this week from the French government, together with citation certificate and translation of same.

"Awarded to your son, Ralph L. Whitney, late private, 112th Machine Gun Battalion, which is sent to them as next of kin."

"General Headquarters of the French Armies of the East, December 19, 1918."

"With the approbation of the Commander in Chief of the American Expeditionary Forces in France, the Marshall of France, Commander in Chief of the French Armies of the East, cites in the order of the Army Corps, Private Ralph L. Whitney, 112 M. G. Battalion."

"October 8, 1918, he showed himself to be an indomitable and valiant soldier and machine gunner. He took thirteen German prisoners during the assault of the Bois de la Montagne. Was wounded while trying to help a comrade."

ANN ARBOR MAY FESTIVAL.

Dr. Stanley has just announced the complete list of artists and attractions for the next May Festival at Ann Arbor, May 14, 15, 16 and 17. The Festival will be in the nature of a victory festival commemorating the gallant work of the noble American boys who have served their country so well.

An exceptionally attractive list of soloists has been engaged, including leading artists from the Metropolitan and Chicago Opera Companies, as well as other distinguished musicians. The University Choral Union, under Dr. Stanley, will offer Goethe's "Faust," Hadley's "Ode to Music" and a work written especially for the Festival by Dr. Stanley, entitled "Fair Land of Freedom." The Chicago Symphony Orchestra, of 70 members under the direction of Frederick Stock will take part in all concerts, except the organ recital and will contribute many sparkling orchestral selections.

The artists who will appear are as follows: Rosa Ponselle, prima donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company; Anna Pittau, prima donna of the Chicago Opera Company; and Lois M. Johnson, soprano; Louise Homer, Metropolitan Opera Company; Marie Alcock and Minerva Cornaro, contraltos; Fernando Corenari, Chicago and Metropolitan Opera Companies; and Arthur Hackett, tenor; Emilio de Gogorza and Robert B. Dietrich, baritone; Andres de Sauriol, Metropolitan Opera Company; and Gustaf Holmquist, basses; Ossip Gabrilowitch, pianist; and Charles M. Colbois, Belgian organist.

LOOK OUT FOR "LIME-FERTIL."

A product known as "Lime-Fertil" manufactured by the Fertil Chemical Co., Cleveland, Ohio, is being sold in some parts of the state. Agents representing this company have been in Washtenaw county attempting to sell this product through the local dealers.

"Lime-Fertil" is a mixture consisting of approximately 20 per cent raw rock phosphate and sixty per cent ground limestone and is also said to contain "all-erup-nitrogen-fixing bacteria, mixed in the two materials, which are of prime importance to the soil and to the bacteria." The chief result of the product is supposed to be due to the presence of these bacteria.

A chemical analysis made by the Michigan Experiment Station chemist, of a sample collected at Detroit, shows that the statements of the manufacturers concerning the materials of which the product is composed, are essentially correct. Two samples were submitted to the bacteriological department, Michigan Agricultural College, for examination and they report on both the complete absence of nitrogen-fixing organisms and several times less bacteria of all kinds than is normally found in an average soil.

It is evident, therefore, that whatever value "Lime-Fertil" may possess from an agricultural standpoint is entirely dependent upon the amounts of rock phosphate and limestone it contains. At present market prices for these materials "Lime-Fertil" is not worth more than $5.00 per ton. The retail price is $40.00 per ton.

The Washtenaw County Farm Bureau wishes to advise all farmers and gardeners the exact commercial value of the so-called "Lime-Fertil." A product worth only $5 per ton and sold around $40 per ton is not a very economical material to use in crop production.

Harold Henry Ford has decided not to use the water power at this place.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE WAS INTERESTING

Excellent Speakers and Good Music
Provided Good Entertainment.

A community farmers' institute was held in Macraeb hall last Friday. While the attendance was not so large as in some former years, there was a fair audience at both the forenoon and afternoon sessions.

The addresses were excellent and instructive.

The Pomona Grange had charge of the institute, and the lecturer of that organization, Mrs. N. W. Lark, was presiding officer.

The ladies of the local Granges served a fine dinner, and the occasion was both enjoyable and instructive. The Pomona Grange orchestra, composed of Miss Daisy Lavender, Mrs. E. M. Broesamle, Roy Kalmbach, Marion McClure, Kenneth Broesamle and Wesley Smith, rendered some excellent selections at both sessions.

At the morning session, Master of the State Grange, John C. Ketchum used for his subject "Co-operation," in which he placed before his hearers many benefits that had been derived by farmers through the two hundred co-operative shipping associations in this state.

At the afternoon session Mr. Ketchum was the first speaker, and his subject was "Coast of Production," in which he showed that the farmer should conduct his farm on the same basis that a merchant or manufacturer conducts his business venture, if they wish to attain success.

The next speaker was A. E. Henden, of Adrian, a practical farmer, who with charts gave facts and figures on the exact expense and profits that should be derived from operating an 80-acre farm. The speaker was asked many questions which he readily answered.

The next speaker was Hgn. P. T. Colgrove of Hastings, who explained the purpose of the pending good roads amendment. He stated that in 1850, when the Michigan Central railroad which had been built by the state as far as Ypsilanti from Detroit and had bankrupted the finances of the state, by a vote of the people it was decided that the legislative bodies of the state could make no appropriation for internal improvements which meant that railroads and highways could not be paid for from the state funds by an act of the legislative bodies. The present amendment to be voted on April 7 repeals the constitutional act passed in 1850. There is no loan of funds connected with the repeal of this act, but if carried it will help to give Michigan some much needed public roads. It is estimated that 60 per cent of the people of the state want good roads.

The next speaker was Mrs. Dora H. Stockman, lecturer of the State Grange, and her subject was "Fording the Family," which was handled in a very able manner. Mrs. Stockman is a fluent speaker and presented many interesting features from various charts which showed the various costs of many of the articles that find their way to the family table.

WHAT IS THAT HIGHWAY AMENDMENT?

Governor A. E. Sleeper answers the questions Michigan Voters are asking in a categorical review of the Good Roads proposition to be submitted to the people at the Spring election, April 7.

(By Gov. A. E. Sleeper.)

What is the Good Roads proposal submitted to the voters of Michigan at the Spring election April 7th?

An amendment to the constitution of Michigan to authorize the Legislature to issue bonds from time to time for a state-wide system of main market highways and to assure Michigan of its full share of Federal aid money.

Then it is not a $50,000,000 bond issue which the people are asked to ratify?

No. Under the terms of the amendment, $50,000,000 is put as a limit beyond which the Legislature never must go.

Will the $50,000,000 in bonds be issued at once?

They will not. The State Highway Department is authorized for the statement that about $5,000,000 will be issued the first year, another $5,000,000 the next year, but even this is under the control of the people through their representatives in the Legislature.

What assurance has the taxpayer that the whole $50,000,000 will not be issued at once?

The ratification of the amendment only gives authorization for the issue of bonds. After that, the Legislature must act and Michigan's legislators never will impose a greater burden than will meet with the approval of their constituents.

If Michigan is to have the same $7,000,000 the United States Government has set aside as the Wolverine State's portion of the Federal aid fund, it must match this sum, dollar for dollar. To do this by direct tax would impose too great a burden for only a two year period. By issuing bonds, the money can be had, the roads built at once and the burden of the expense spread over a period of twenty-five or thirty years.

Are there any other reasons?

Yes. We should bond for good roads because under this system of financing, we can use the highways and let them help pay for themselves. It's just like the deferred payment plan on farm machinery. Another reason is found in the fact that generations to follow will have the use and benefits from these permanent highways. Why should they not help bear the burden?

What assurance has Michigan that it will receive $7,000,000 in Federal aid for road building?

Congress has appropriated $700,000,000 and President Wilson has approved the bill. The United States Department of Agriculture has computed Michigan's share of the new and old Federal aid appropriation for the ensuing two years as $6,791,317.37. Michigan must provide a like amount.

What if Michigan fails?

The money then will be apportioned among other states and Michigan people, through their share of the burden of federal governmental expense will be helping other, more progressive states to build their highways.

Will there be more Federal aid for road improvement in Michigan?

Yes. The sum of $7,000,000 for the next two years is just beginning. The war has opened Uncle Sam's eyes to the need for Good Roads. He recognizes the own responsibility in the development of highways such as won the war in Europe and made ordinary road traffic the most important factor in the upbuilding not only of the local community, but the nation.

Where will the money be spent?

Under the new Federal aid appropriation measure, the application is so broad that it may be used on any Michigan main market highway.

Who will be responsible for an economical expenditure of the money?

State Highway Commissioner Frank E. Rogers. His work will be under the supervision of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Will there be a large portion devoted to fancy salaries and overhead administrative expenses?

No. The State Highway Department has a record extending over a long term of years for having spent less than four per cent of its appropriation in administrative or overhead expenses. With a larger volume of work, this will be decreased to three per cent or less. Compare this with twenty-four per cent in New York and consider for a moment that no other state attempts to do the work for less than ten per cent.

Will the whole of the $50,000,000 maximum in road bonds ever be issued?

Yes, but not under ten years. The State Highway Department has announced that it will be impracticable to use more than $5,000,000 in any one year.

If the amendment is ratified, must Michigan begin paying interest at once?

No. There will be no interest charges until bonds actually are sold and the sale will be in only such sums as may be economically used.

What will be the cost to the taxpayer?

Between sixty-seven and sixty-eight cents on the $1,000 of valuation.

How is this figured?

On the basis of $5,000,000 in bonds each year for a period of ten years.

What would be the actual cost each year for interest charges and a sinking fund to retire the bonds as they fall due?

The cost of interest and sinking fund payments under this plan would be $2,576,564 per annum. This figure is out to between sixty-seven and sixty-eight cents on each $1,000 of assessed valuation.

Are these cost figures accurate?

Yes, and no. They are based on the present valuation of Michigan. The assessed valuation will increase materially with each passing year with the result that the cost per $1,000 of assessed valuation will be materially reduced. It cannot be increased.

Will the proposed system of main market highways connect all large cities?

Yes.

Will it reach every county?

Yes.

What proportion of the state's highway traffic will this system care for?

Better than seventy per cent.

What type of pavement will be used?

The plan calls for permanent roadways. This means the type of paving will be determined by the traffic of the present and the needs of future development.

How will the program help the labor situation?

Half of every dollar spent will go to labor. Workmen, horses and equipment in the community where the work is proceeding will have first call.

Will the program help care for returned soldier boys who are out of employment and who have no regular trades?

Yes. This is the chief reason for the liberal Federal aid appropriation. The Department of Agriculture has asked for and received the assurance of the Michigan and other state highway departments that the work will proceed without delay to help solve the problem of the unemployed.

Why is the U. S. Postoffice Department interested in road development?

Tests of postal express service has demonstrated its superiority over railway mail even for long hauls and experiments on a large scale over improved highways have shown such remarkable earnings that the department looks to the development of this service along eventually to put the Postal Department upon a paying basis. Good Roads also are needed for motor feeders in connection with the development of aerial mail service.

May women vote on the Amendment?

Those who have registered.

Who have endorsed the project?

President Wilson, the United States Post Office Department, the United States Department of Agriculture, Michigan's congressmen and United States senators, the Michigan Legislature, State Association of Supervisors, most of the Boards of Supervisors, State Federation of Women's Clubs, State Federation of Labor, the governor, all state officers, the Republican and Democratic parties, boards of commerce in every city, the Kiwanis, the farmer organizations, the Kiwanis clubs, automobile clubs, the steam and interurban railways, practically all city, county and township officers, the bench and bar of Michigan, and practically every prominent man and woman in the state.

Will road work under the provisions of the amendment affect the improvement and maintenance operations on other than main market highways?

Yes. It will inspire greater activities and leave more money to be spent in local communities for the development of feeder highways. The plan involves increased state rewards both for construction and maintenance.

Are improved highways worth the investment?

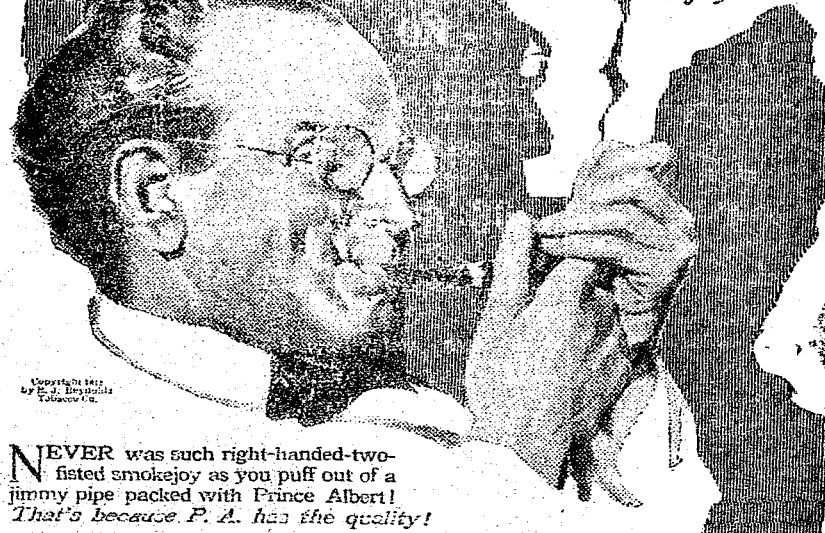

A whole volume might be written on the direct benefits to be derived from highway improvement. They increase the land valuations not only on property abutting the highway, but at some distance removed. They cut the cost and time required for all hauling. They mean a railroad to the farmer's door. They mean reduced cost of living. They mean better living conditions. They improve the physical, moral, spiritual and educational conditions. They will bring into Michigan additional resort and tourist trade, ordinary year sufficient to cover the entire cost many times over. They provide labor for unemployed men, teams and equipment in every community. By cutting the time element in travel by road, they reduce the size of the state to less than one-half and bring the farmers two-thirds nearer the centers of population. They will open the way for the rapid expansion of the rural parcel post and bring city express service to every agricultural community.

What argument is there against good roads?

Not one.

Does Uncle Sam Take the Cake as "Meanest Man?"

IN THE closing days of Congress Representative Mann of Illinois, who is apparently still the Republican leader though he was defeated for the speakership and declined the floor leadership, told a war story. By way of introduction he called attention to the fact that the house was then considering bills appropriating $750,000,000 for the railroads and a billion or more for the farmers. Then he read a demand from the quartermaster general of the army upon First-Class Private Frank W. Tillman, A. S. U. S. A., for 25 cents.

"And the young man complied and forwarded 25 cents. Here was a young man in the army granted transportation home to Fairfield, O., and when he reached the city of Dayton he left the Big Four railroad and transferred to the Ohio electric road which runs through Fairfield, and a great and grateful republican informs the young man that he ought to have carried his baggage in his hand instead of transferring it, and demands that he refund to this government 25 cents.

"I have often read little descriptions, under the head of 'the meanest man,' endeavoring to illustrate how small some one person could be in reference to money. We must not forget, in the appropriation of these enormous sums of money, that we have some very careful officials who insist on collecting, at the expense of several dollars, 25 cents from a poor soldier who did the sensible thing and had his baggage transferred, and then went back to the fighting line in France and risked his life in airplanes and received a promotion from a private to that of first lieutenant.

"I rather think that the government takes the cake on being 'the meanest man.'"

When "The Inconceivable" Happened in Haiti

PRESIDENT WILSON was recently asked how the formation of the league of nations would affect the application of the Monroe doctrine to the case of a Latin-American republic that might voluntarily return to Spanish allegiance. He is quoted as saying, "It is inconceivable." As a matter of fact this very thing did happen in 1801, when Santo Domingo was restored to Spanish rule for four years.

Up to 1844 the history of what is now the Dominican Republic is the history of Haiti. In that year the Spanish population, under the leadership of Don Pedro Santana, proclaimed its independence and set up a republic. Santana became the first president. Five years later Ruzo became president and for twelve years he and Santana alternated in the presidency.

In 1801 Santana proclaimed the annexation of the Dominican Republic to Spain. The United States was entering upon the Civil war and had neither the time nor the strength for the prompt and effectual enforcement of the Monroe doctrine. One result was that Napoleon III, counting on the success of the Confederacy, constituted the Republic of Mexico an empire and put Archduke Maximilian of Austria on the throne.

Two years after the Dominican Republic was annexed to Spain its people revolted and restored the republic. In 1805 Spain acknowledged its independence. Incidentally President Grant desired to annex the republic to the United States. A treaty for this purpose was ratified by the Dominican people, but was rejected by the American senate by a tie vote.

At the close of the Civil war in 1865 the United States had both the time and the strength to enforce the Monroe doctrine in Mexico and the French troops withdrew, leaving Maximilian to his fate—execution in 1867 at the hands of the revolutionists. In 1867 Benito Juarez became the first president of the restored Republic of Mexico.

FREE HERD OF TUBERCULOSIS

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The tuberculosis-free accredited herd plan, inaugurated in December, 1917, and worked out in co-operation with the bureau of animal industry, United States department of agriculture, was slightly changed at the twenty-second annual meeting of the United States Live Stock Sanitary association held at Chicago in December. It was agreed to strike out the word "purebred" so as to admit to certification grade herds in addition to registered cattle. The annual conference between representatives of the United States Live Stock Sanitary association and the Purebred Cattle Breeders' association resulted in the further endorsement of the tuberculosis eradication campaign and a recommendation that the work be extended as rapidly as possible.

The accredited-herd plan is to test cattle with tuberculin at the request of the owner, eliminate any reacting animals either by slaughter or by following prescribed sanitary measures, repeat the test at prescribed intervals, and list as tuberculosis-free accredited herds all herds entitled to that distinction.

Very satisfactory progress has been made during the first year of the work, and prospects for the future are bright. During the year 295 herds, comprising 9,284 cattle, have been fully "accredited" as free from tuberculosis, and 1,422 herds, having 35,052 cattle, passed one successful test in preparation for certification. In addition 4,622 herds, both purebred and grade, totaling 98,002 animals, have been under supervision for the eradication of tuberculosis. Each month additional herds are added to the list.

WEIFERS DROP FIRST CALF

According to Experiment Carried on at Maryland College Thirty Months Is Best Age.

About thirty months was found to be the best age for Ayrshire weifers to drop their first calf, according to an experiment carried on at the Maryland Agricultural college. If the calves were dropped six months earlier, the milk flow was lessened considerably, but if dropped six months later the decrease was slight. This will vary for the breeds according to size; the smaller the breed type, the shorter the time. Experiments of Minnesota found that this variation would be three to five months which would bring the minimum age for Jerseys and Guernseys about twenty-five months and for Holsteins, thirty months. This is for well-developed animals.

PASTEURIZED CREAM IS AID

It Yields More Uniform Article of Butter and Helps to Improve Keeping Qualities.

The relation of pasteurized cream to butter is now recognized as follows: It yields a more uniform product, adds in producing a richer scoring butter, improves its keeping qualities; avoids undesirable fermentations and gives protection from disease germs; overcomes questionable odors, increases value of skim milk and creates a steadier market. The slight increase in cost of production, per pound, when butter is made from pasteurized cream, is more than overcame by the benefits derived from this process.

CLEANLINESS IS IMPORTANT

Garden Dangers.

Robby was enjoying the roses in grandmother's garden. All went well until he chanced to poke his nose into a blossom which sheltered a great buzzing bee. With a hoist of terror Robby fled to his grandmother's skirts. When his sobs were quieted he explained: "Them are very wild roses in your garden, grandmother. One of them got me rowled at me dreadfully."—Winn's Home Companion.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't stay Gray! Here's an Old-time Recipe that Anybody can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wynell's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.—Adv.

All Things Explained.

Joan was to have a birthday party, having attained the enormous age of six years. She was very anxious, indeed, to comport herself correctly and was plying her mother with questions. "Well, dear," said her mother, in answer to one concerning the advisability of saying grace before the meal, "for such an informal little party, I hardly think you need."

Accordingly, when all the little guests were seated round the table, Joan from the head announced solemnly: "Mother says this is such an informal little party we need not say grace."

The Floorwalker—H-m-m, let me see; was he a big, handsome fellow, about five feet tall, weighing nearly 100 pounds?

Mrs. H.W.—Yes, that's the one—or—that's him.

EVERY MAN TO HIS TRADE

Far more popular than the church were the library and the school, a regular organized high school-college, where law, mathematics, chemistry, ten languages and many other subjects were taught. Again, this part of our work rose out of a very humble beginning. The first school was held, almost secretly, in an old washroom, and ambitious Russian guards confiscated logarithm tables and French dictionaries because they looked so suspicious. And the teacher of geometry, who made those peculiar drawings, was arrested and taken for a spy, who taught how to escape with a plan of the camp. The library was born when the first Y. M. C. A. secretary arrived and gave six or eight books which he found in his trunk to members of the head committee to read. Johan W. Prinz writes in Asia magazine. The sport committee was in charge of the soccer field and tennis courts and in summer there was even a gymnasium. A small bank was established for the convenience of those who wanted to borrow a few rubles on their official announcements from banks in Petrograd that money had been received from relatives in the central countries (by way of Sweden) and was on the way. Work shops were organized so that the tradesmen, the carpenter, the shoemaker, the barber, might turn to his trade and work for the benefit of his comrades. But the pride of the Y. M. C. A. was the American kitchen. This welfare kitchen was necessary because the Russians never gave the men enough to eat. Here they had a chance, once in a while, to get a hearty meal for a few kopecks; here a certain number of sick and poor could eat every day without cost. How many favorable comments have I heard upon these kitchens, which really became a blessing for the prisoners!

MAN OF IMAGINATIVE MIND

The first "patent" leather was the invention of Seth Boyden, who was born in Foxboro, Mass., one hundred and thirty years ago. He was brought up on a farm and educated in a district school and in the village blacksmith shop, where he spent all his leisure time "tinkering" and experimenting. His first invention was a machine for making nails and files. Later he invented a machine for splitting leather, and in 1815 he engaged in the leather business in Newark, N. J. In 1816 he invented an appliance for cutting brads and in the following year he perfected his "patent" leather. The leather prepared by this process gradually became popular, and until 1831 Boyden was principally engaged in its manufacture. He then turned his attention to steam engines, and made several improvements in locomotives. He took part in the California gold rush of '49, but soon returned to New Jersey, where he engaged in farming and produced a variety of strawberries vastly superior to any then known in both size and quality. He died in 1870, and his memory is perpetuated by a statue at Newark.

Birds That Are Useful.

It is in their relation to insects and other enemies of crops that birds are most directly associated with the welfare of man. It is not possible to give a hard-and-fast rule, applicable to the whole country, as to whether any certain bird is beneficial or injurious to farmers, but in the United States department of agriculture's farmers' bulletin 630, "Some Common Birds Useful to the Farmer," more than fifty species of birds common to farming sections are discussed. The birds treated in the bulletin are: Bluebird, robin, titmouse, wren, brown thrasher, catbird, swallow, towhee, sparrow, house finch, grackle, brewer blackbird, Baltimore oriole, Bullock's oriole, meadowlark, redbird, blackbird, bobolink, crow, bluejay, Pacific coast jay, phoebe, kingbird, night hawk, woodpecker, cuckoo and bobwhite.

Radial Tether for Animals.

To tether his cow so as to admit of its having a large feeding range and yet so as to be perfectly secure and require no attention, a Pennsylvania man adopts the following method: He took a pole, 20 or 30 ft. in length, pivoted at one end and fitted with an iron ring large enough to slip along from end to end. The small end of the pole was supported by a light metal wheel from some old farm implement, or a wooden one cut from a piece of plank. The animal was fastened with a halter chain too short to get tangled up with the animal's legs.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Williams, who have resided here for several years, moved to Jackson the first of the week.

Walter Leach, who has conducted a shoe repair shop here for many years, moved his outfit to Detroit Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gage expect to move their household goods to Pontiac today, where they recently purchased a home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Martin entertained a number of relatives at dinner Monday, in honor of the birthday of their son John.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Poor have moved from the Cyrus Updike residence on Dewey avenue to the Lake residence on Grant street.

Fred Keen has sold his farm in Lima township to Frank Nellis, of Detroit. Mr. Keen has bought a piece of property two miles east of Dexter.

Henry Merker arrived at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Merker, from a camp in Kentucky, where he was mustered out of the army, after a two years' service.

Leon A. Davis of Co. F, 26th Engineers, who recently returned from France, was discharged at Camp Custer Tuesday, and is now at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Davis.

M. J. Noyes has sold his 260-acre farm to Alva V. Batt, of Grass Lake. Sixty acres of the land is in Sylvan township, the balance in Lima. Mr. Noyes has owned the farm for twenty-eight years.

Conrad Schanz and assistants started the work of moving the Broesamle house on South Main street, which Dr. G. W. Palmer recently purchased of the Chelsea Screw Co., to a lot on Washington street.

James Schmidt, of this place, who was graduated from the medical department of the University of Michigan in March, has accepted a position as interne in a government hospital in Washington, D. C.

The open season for careless automobile drivers is now on and the Main street crossing of the D. J. & C. Ry. has started taking its toll of those fellows. Harlow Munsell, of Gregory, drove on the track in front of an eastbound car Sunday, despite the fact that a bell was ringing and a wig-wag waging. There was a job for the garage man, and the occupants of the machine were somewhat bruised.

Sheriff Park states that he is firmly convinced that prohibition of the liquor traffic is not only a benefit to the individual, but to the whole community, in spite of claims to the contrary. Its enforcement has been a success, according to the records in the jail. There have been 97 per cent less drunks during the months of January, February and March of this year than during the same period in 1918.

The farm residence of Charles Runciman, about four miles northeast of Stockbridge, was entirely destroyed together with its contents by fire Friday afternoon. None of the family were at home at the time, and the origin of the fire is a mystery. The loss will be heavy, well covered with insurance. Mr. Runciman is a son of Geo. A. Runciman of this place, and had rented the farm to a tenant who had moved in the first of March. Both Mr. Runciman and the tenant occupied the house.

WOMEN INTERESTED IN THE BALLOT

WOMEN OF ALL PARTIES ARE ANXIOUS TO LEARN ALL PARTICULARS ON HOW TO VOTE.

NOT NECESSARY TO STATE AGE

A Brief Outline of What is Necessary to Avoid Errors in Voting.
Vote Early.

Qualifications of Women Voters

Women must have the same qualifications for voting as men. All women born in the United States and twenty-one years of age, having lived six months in the State and twenty days in the precinct or township, and being duly registered have the right to vote. Women of legal age, born in foreign countries, whose parents at the time of their birth were citizens of the United States, can vote. Women of legal age of foreign birth, married to citizens of the United States, can vote, providing there is no reason why they could not become naturalized citizens if unmarried.

Women whose fathers were naturalized before they were twenty-one years of age can vote. Naturalized women of legal age can vote.

Registration

Registration necessitates giving to the registration official name, address, age (which can be stated as "21 plus"), and whether the applicant is a native or a naturalized citizen. While this information is public, it does not necessarily mean common publicity.

Voting.

On election day, April 7, the duly qualified voting woman, presents herself at the polling place. She announces her name, and also her residence, if living in a city, and when it is found that she has been duly registered and is entitled to vote, the official ballots are handed her. Then she enters a booth alone, to mark her ballots.

There will be, of course, the ballot for state and county officers. The state officers to be voted for at this election are two Justices of the Supreme Court a Superintendent of Public Instruction, a member of the State Board of Education, two Regents of the University and two members of State Board of Agriculture. The only county officer to be voted for is the Commissioner of Schools.

Then there will be the City and Township tickets on separate ballots in each case. The proposed amendments to the constitution will all be printed on one ballot. These are three in number—the so-called "light wine and beer" amendment, the amendment permitting the legislature to authorize the issuance of bonds from time to time for highway improvement, not to exceed in the aggregate $50,000,000 and the amendment permitting the increase of salaries of judges of courts of record.

In order to vote a straight Republican State and County ticket, a cross (X) mark is made in the place designated under the emblem of the party. The cut of Abraham Lincoln, the ballot tickets will have proper headings of their own. The amendments will have the words "Yes" and "No" following and squares in which to place the cross after either word. In this way a complete ballot can be voted by simply making one cross (X) mark.

After marking each ballot, the voter holds it in such a way that the number appearing on one of the corners can be torn off without mutilating or disclosing the ballot. Each ballot must also carry the initials of one of the inspectors; otherwise it will not be counted. So it is the duty of each voter to see that her ballot has been initialed. It is her further duty to see that the identical ballot she hands to the inspector is placed in the ballot box. A voter has the right to insist that this be done in her presence; immediately it is handed to the inspector.

If you make a mistake in marking your ballot do not try to erase it. Exchange it for another ballot. Attempted erasure will invalidate the ballot. Women voters are entitled to sit at election boards, and to perform the duties of election inspectors.

Women voters have the right to be present when the ballots are being counted. The number who can be present depends on the amount of room that can be spared to the public.

The Whispering Pit

By GEORGE ELMER COBB

(Copyright, 1917, Western Newspaper Union.)

A deputation of young boys waited upon Adrian Noble and gave him the most pleasant surprise of his life. Little Benny Burton was the spokesman of the group, and Benny was Lois Burton's brother.

"We're going to build a cantonment, Mr. Noble," said Benny seriously.

"You mean a cantonment, don't you, Benny?" suggested Adrian pleasantly.

"I guess so," rattled on Benny, "and we want rifle pits, and some barbed wire things, and some trenches. We don't want you to do the digging. We'll do that. Just come up and see the handy place we've got to play soldiers in. Then you sort of mark out where we're to build the pits. We know you can do it, because you're an army officer."

"Not quite yet, Benny," advised Adrian. "But I think I can help you out."

And very glad to do so was Adrian Noble, candidate for the officer's training camp, soon to report for duty. He was glad because it would bring him near to Lois, the one idol of his dreams.

Now Adrian Noble had never told his love. There had not been much opportunity for Lois and himself ever, especially when they were members of a group.

"I must tell Lois soon, though," mused the anxious lover. "In another week I will be 200 miles away, leaving the field to clever and handsome fellows than myself."

Adrian could have marked out the block camp in two hours. Instead, he took two days and he would have prolonged this military supervision indefinitely, only that Lois was off on a lying visit to a neighboring town. Those first two days, however, were delightful. Lois and her girl friends professed great interest in the little cantonment. She was gracious, more than friendly to Adrian, for she was pleased with his attentions and secretly proud of him for offering his services to his country unsolicited. The little patriots worked like beavers, and really constructed a very creditable layout.

"There's one thing we've got to have to watch the enemy," Benny had told Adrian.

"What's that?" inquired the latter.

"The minus a listening pit," explained one of his cohorts.

"Now, I don't," dissented Benny staunchly. "Can't you listen and whisper, too, in the pit. Got to whisper if you don't want to be bombed," and so, just as the soldiers at the front construct a pit beyond the wire line with an underground passage to reach it, an old digging reaching some ten feet down was utilized, and Benny was very proud of this feature of his cantonment.

Adrian visited his young friends daily, but Lois was away and the locality had lost its charm. She returned the day that he received orders to report at the distant training camp.

"I've simply got to see Lois before I go away," he declared to himself.

Lois had returned, but he did not find her at home. He strolled past the houses of some of her girl friends, where he hoped to catch sight of her, but failed to locate her. It was just after dusk that evening when he went to the vicinity of the Burton home. Adrian passed the house and did not see Lois about the place, and could not summon the courage to go to the door and inquire about her. He rounded the place and traversed the cantonment, hoping to find her in the garden. Suddenly, while he was peering towards the house, he slipped, lost his balance and went headlong into the whispering pit.

"Benny—time to come in for the night," echoed out an abrupt voice. It belonged to Lois, who was in quest of little Benny, expecting to find him at his favorite rendezvous, but Benny had marched down town with his comrades.

Adrian could not repress a sharp cry as he landed in the bottom of the pit, for he fell upon one side and his wrist was sprained.

"Who is there, Benny?" spoke Lois, approaching the edge of the excavation.

"It's me—Adrian Noble," came the reply. "I've fallen in here by accident. It's pretty deep and I can't very well get out through the narrow underground passage, and—"

"Oh, dear! how did it ever happen?" cried Lois in her solicitude. "Are you hurt?"

"Nothing to speak of, except my wrist," explained Adrian. "The boy had a ladder—"

"Yes, it's here," responded Lois eagerly. "I'm going to lower it. What ever were you doing here in the dark?"

"I was hoping to see you."

"For my going away tomorrow. How could you say that?" asked Adrian, the ladder lowered, he ascended it, but paused at its top. Lois had extended a helping hand. He did not release it.

"Just a minute, before I climb over," added Adrian, infused with sudden courage and hope, too, for the next moment interest of Lois in him made the moment a delightful one.

"This is the whispering pit, you know, Lois," said Adrian. "I want to whisper something to you before I leave it—I love you."

And Lois did not take away her hand, and when he got to her side she did not run away.

MICHIGAN RALLIES TO AID CENTENARY

WHOLE STATE READY TO WORK FOR BIG SUCCESS.

ASSERTS DR. JOHN G. BENSON

Assistant to Bishop Henderson Tells Aims, Ideals and Plans of Greatest Protestant Drive in World's History.

(By H. F. Olmsted.)

Detroit, (Special.)—"Michigan is again proving herself. As her residents stood shoulder to shoulder in accomplishing every task that was laid before them up to the time of the signing of the armistice, so are these same people rallying to the call of the Methodist Missionary Centenary an unprecedented success."

"The people know that the Centenary program for world democracy, eternal peace and Christian fellowship is ideal, but it can be accomplished only through education. The hearts of men must be cleansed before war is cast aside. World democracy cannot be made a reality by a few men in Paris setting up an international constitution. That constitution will be worth only so much paper if the populace is not imbued with the spirit of Christ. That is what the Centenary is trying to do, imbue them with the spirit of Christ, through showing them how practical and beneficial the teachings of the Master are."

Dr. John G. Benson, Executive Secretary of the Detroit Area Methodist Centenary.

Dr. Benson Explains Move. This was the brief explanation that Dr. John G. Benson, pastor of the Wesley Methodist church, Detroit, assistant to Bishop Henderson and executive secretary of the Detroit Area in active charge of the Centenary campaign, gave to a group of reporters when they called on him at his office at 418 Sixth street, Detroit, this morning.

As I sat in his office at 418 Sixth street, Detroit, it seemed a veritable beehive. This man, who is responsible for the collection of nearly $2,000,000 in Michigan, was answering the phone every minute. People were in and out of his office but sharply at 11:30 o'clock, this Saturday morning, the bustle and haste and clatter of the typewriters suddenly ceased.

Halts Work For Prayer. "We have a few minutes of prayer and song and get together at this time," he explained. "You see some people think that our real object in this campaign is to get the $2,000,000 we have asked for. That is a part of it, but a small part. We are trying to spread the teachings of Christ and if we can show the men of Michigan what good the church can do towards bringing about an ideal world we do not need to worry about the money."

"To do this will take as much prayer as work and so that is why we are meeting at this time. The campaign of intercession is a vital part of this drive and I believe that if it goes over it will be due more to prayer than any other one agency."

And so business stopped. A great business office was losing the time of a large number of employees for a half hour. But as I watched this little prayer meeting, I saw the light in the faces of the entire gathering. I wondered whether it might not be worth for a few other business houses and I did not feel much doubt about the success of the Centenary in Michigan.

Just a Moment Please!

Now about that Saloon and so-called Beer and Wine amendment.

Voting "YES" on the Beer and Wine Amendment would establish SALOONS for the sale of EVERY kind of intoxicating-booze, except distilled liquors.

Voting "NO" keeps the saloon out of Michigan, protects the boys and girls, is a loyal act in support of the constitution of the United States.

Vote No! Vote No! Vote No! Vote No!

Get Well

It is indeed hard to stand at one side while the stream of life flows by. A man or woman condemned to sickness that does not permit him or her to perform the active duties of life, to do his or her share of the world's work, is a pathetic figure deserving of sympathy.

Much sickness, pain and misery result from disordered kidneys and bladder. Failure of the kidneys to do their work properly and filter impurities out of the blood leads to rheumatic twinges, backache, one or swollen joints, puffiness under eyes, fainting spells, biliousness, bladder weakness, nervousness, or other symptoms of kidney trouble.

Foley Kidney Pills are effective in removing the cause of the trouble for they cleanse the blood and help them to normal functioning so that the blood stream is purified and the cause of disease removed.

F. M. Foley (Baltimore), Sec'y, Satchel & Co., 512 Main St., Peoria, Ill., writes: "Two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills relieved an accumulation of kidney and bladder trouble, stopped the backache and pains, cured the kidney action, clearing secretions, I am now free from disease and feeling much better than ever. Foley Kidney Pills cured me and have my heartiest recommendation."

BREVITIES

Napoleon—The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shuffley was seriously injured last week by being stabbed through the foot by a frog spear in the hands of a playmate. The boys, with several others who were some distance from town, were unable to pull the spear out, the prong having gone clear through the foot. They procured a file and filed off the prong, but were still unable to remove the spear, so carried the boy home. A physician was summoned and after administering ether, removed the spear and cleansed the wound.

Manchester—Deputy Sheriff Geo. Lancaster has been active in capturing run runners and last Saturday took two and 70 gallons of whiskey to Adrian. He organized a posse armed with shot guns and revolvers, and when the auto load of booze came traveling Cliftonward he ordered them to stop, but they drove revolvers and showed fight, holding off the posse. There was a display of "nerve" by both sides, but reinforcements arrived in time to save two of the runners and their grog. There were 21 shots fired but nobody was injured.—Manchester Enterprise.

Jackson—It's all in the family in Pulaski township at the April election, so far as the head of the township ticket is concerned, and it is a perfectly safe and sane bet right this minute that the next supervisor will be a Lovett. This is as easy as falling off a log and so plain that a mere child will understand. Tom is a republican and his wife is a democrat and both are nominees on their respective tickets for supervisor. Both are working hard to win and it will be a lovely race for both are popular. It is said that during the last presidential campaign a Hughes picture put in the window by Mr. Lovett was later adorned with crepe by Madam Lovett, and she won.

Manchester—Theodore Morschauer who has sold his blacksmithing business, was one of the oldest business men in our village. He came here at the close of the civil war and worked for Wm. Neehling and J. C. Gordon for about three years, then started in business for himself and has been at it hard and furious ever since, though he has frequently been laid up with rheumatism. During the years here innumerable shops were started and thrived for a time, then ceased to exist. Mr. Morschauer has done an extensive business and ought to be a rich man, but the credit business has been his worst handicap. He deserves a rest and comfort the balance of his days.—Manchester Enterprise.

A Business Proposition

By WILL PAYNE.

Secretary Glass said the Victory Liberty Loan should appeal to the patriotism of the people of the United States and not be merely a business proposition.

Isn't that so? It was no business proposition that sent two million young Americans to France and made nearly two million more give up their time for more than a year to train for going. This Victory Loan is to pay for equipping them, sending them over, keeping them there and fetching them back. Will you look one of them in the face and say, "As soon as you stopped fighting and I had given you three hearty cheers you because just a business proposition?"

But the loan is a business proposition, too—this way: You are Uncle Sam—a hundred odd million of you, individually. Says Uncle Sam to himself, "I owe several million dollars—owe it now on due and maturing obligations that must be met to the last cent. My credit is practically unlimited. I can borrow that money of the banks. They've got to lend it to me. That will mean a huge inflation of bank credit—bank loans all swollen up with lay paper—banks consequently in a poorer condition to take care of the ordinary business of the country."

But if I do borrow the money of the banks I've got to pay them back some time. There are only two ways in which a man can finally get out of debt. One way is to sell some property and pay up; the other way is to earn more than he spends, saving the difference. I have no property to sell. Can't sell the White House or the national forests. The second way is the only way for me. "Shall I borrow the money from the banks now and thereby put off the real settlement, or shall I hundred million individual Uncle Sams right now save out of their incomes and lend the saving to the collective Uncle Sam, thereby enabling him to pay the bills and wipe the slate, with no inflation, leaving the banks in sound condition to meet the needs of ordinary business?"

That is the question. It is your debt. You owe the money. Finally you've got to pay it in some fashion. To lend in on the banks now is the most expensive way temporarily to dispose of it. To save, individually, is the best and cheapest way. Even waiting patriotism, it comes down to a business proposition. Only the savings and subscriptions of the whole public can take care of the loan without inflation.

WHY YOUR MONEY IS NEEDED—HOW IT HELPS

This Brief Questionnaire Gives Interesting Information on the Victory Liberty Loan.

The government already is exploiting the Victory Liberty Loan, which will be floated in April, in order that the people may start saving for the purpose of investing in bonds of the "Victory issue." The following brief questionnaire should tend to clarify the mind of any reader regarding the Victory Loan:

Q. The war being over, why is there need of another great popular war loan?

A. The proceeds from the Fourth loan, according to Secretary of the Treasury Glass, were exhausted last December, and the government must have billions more with which to maintain our forces overseas, bring the victors home and carry out its reconstruction plans.

Q. If Uncle Sam's strong-box is empty, how is he paying his after-war expenses?

A. This is being done with money borrowed from the banks at the rate of $800,000,000 every two weeks, short-term anticipation certificates of indebtedness being issued in return.

Q. As long as the banks are advancing the money, why not let them continue to do so?

A. Because in order to continue to extend credit to the business interests big and little of the country the banks must get back this money—amounting to 20 per cent of their entire resources—when it falls due, as only thus can the prosperity we now enjoy be continued.

Q. Will the Victory Loan be offered to the people on a commercial basis, or will their patriotism again be appealed to?

A. Secretary Glass says the patriotism of the American people will be relied upon, to send the loan triumphantly "over the top." It, however, will be made particularly attractive as to rate of interest and period of maturity.

Q. What are the monthly war expenditures of the government at the present time?

A. The latest official figures show that Uncle Sam is expending money at the rate of more than $2,000,000,000 a month.

Q. Suppose I bought bonds of preceding issues and feel I can't afford to buy any more Liberty bonds?

A. Uncle Sam has to pay his bills, and you must afford it, even if you have to continue for a further time denying yourself luxuries and apparent necessities. Unless the Victory Liberty Loan is a success the government will be compelled to raise the money it needs by direct taxation, and there are no interest coupons on tax receipts.

SIGNALS OF DISTRESS

Disordered kidneys give many signals of distress.

The secretions may be dark, contain sediment.

Passages are sometimes frequent, scanty, painful.

Backache is often present day and night.

Headaches and dizzy spells may occur.

Don't delay! Use a special kidney remedy.

Chelsea evidence proves their worth.

Glenn H. Barbour, barber, S. Main St., Chelsea, says: "I suffered from dull pains across my back and kidneys, brought on by constant standing. The kidney secretions were irregular in passage and caused me annoyance. Doan's Kidney Pills regulated my kidneys and put a stop to the pains in my back."

Mr. Barbour is only one of many Chelsea people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches, if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Barbour had, the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c at all stores.
