BOYS' CONFERENCE

About fifty boys from out of town attended the sixth annual conference of the older boys of Washtenaw county, which was held here last Friday and Saturday under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., and Chelsea was proud to entertain them.

The sessions were held in the high school auditorium, and the banquet Friday evening was held in Macabee hall. One hundred and twenty attended the banquet, and were well repaid for their attendance, both by the speakers and the music as well as by eats. Ray P. W. Dierberger was toastmaster.

The conference accepted the invitation to hold the meeting next year in Ypsilanti.

The following officers were elected: President—Glen Brooks, Chelsea. First Vice President—James Orr, Ypsilanti.

Second Vice President—Walter Lawson, Milan. Secretary—Hudson Morton, Ann Arbor.

JURORS FOR MAY TERM

The following jurymen have been drawn for the May term of the circuit court, which will open May 5:

Early Davis and John Taunton, Ypsilanti city; Frank S. Fletcher, Ypsilanti township; Willis G. Johnson, George C. Koch, Herman G. Bucholz, A. Lyndon, Fred Tesmer, Harry J. Richards, Fred Seitz, Ann Arbor city; Carl Widemann, Ann Arbor township; Roy Sherman, Augusta; Albert Paul, Bridgewater; John Noll, Dexter; William Jacob Koenigster, Freedom; Adolph Schmidt, Lima; Fred Mayer, Lodi; Wm. L. O. O. F. CELEBRATES

The Chelsea L. O. O. F. last Friday evening celebrated the centennial anniversary of the order with a program followed with refreshments and a good social time.

During the program the following facts were brought out: The founder of the order was Thomas Wilkey, known as "Father" Wilkey. The order started April 26, 1819 with five members, and today it numbers 1,700,000 members, with 550,000 Sisters of the Rebekah degree making a total of two and a quarter millions.

The first lodge of Odd Fellows in Michigan was organized in Detroit in December, 1819, and is still one of the thrifty lodges of the state.

The present membership in Michigan is 75,000, with 35,000 Sisters of the Rebekah degree, making a total of 110,000 members in the 540 subordinate lodges and 450 Rebekah lodges throughout Michigan.

More than six and one-half million dollars are now expended annually for relief, exclusive of the maintenance of homes.

The annual receipts are more than twenty millions of dollars and the invested funds of the order exceed seventy-five millions of dollars.

The membership of this great fraternal institution honors its glorious past, they rejoice at its prosperous present and they anticipate a glorious future.

AUTO DRIVERS TO BE LICENSED

Every person who drives an automobile in Michigan will have to procure a license to do so. If one of the bills passed by the senate last week is signed by the governor and placed on the statute books of the state.

Under this act no person under 16 years of age can be given a license to drive any automobile or motor vehicle of any kind. All persons must make application for licenses to the chief of police, if located in the cities, and to the sheriffs or their deputies in the rural communities.

These officers examine the applicants as to their records as drivers, and their competency to run cars. They issue the licenses, for which a fee of fifty cents is charged. The license thus issued is good so long as the licensee has a clean record. It must be carried on the person of the driver whenever operating a car.

THE NEW LAWS

The 1919 legislature passed some laws that, directly or indirectly, affect you. What are they?

You ought to know and you can find out.

On another page of the Standard we give you this week a summary of the enacted acts. It is worth your while to read it all of it.

This summary was prepared by our special correspondent, W. L. Calton, who has represented us at Lansing during the legislative session just closed.

Mr. Calton is a newspaperman, who writes readable, not lawyers' English, so that everybody can understand what he is writing about. You will appreciate that when you read the summary.

We suggest that you keep this copy of the Standard. It will be valuable for future reference.

EVANGELISTS WILL BE HERE SUNDAY

Kerr Brothers Will Hold Services in M. E. Church For Two Weeks.

The evangelistic meetings which will begin in the Methodist church next Sunday morning promise to be of more than ordinary interest.

The Kerr Brothers are both splendid preachers, fine singers, and down-right in earnest. They held a series of meetings in Governor Sleeper's town recently, and captured the crowd the first Sunday and held it with increasing interest to the close, with good results to the entire community and the uplift of all the churches.

Chelsea, we believe, is fully as responsive to good things as the town of Bad Axe, and will give an equally good report of itself.

The pastors and people of all the churches have been invited and a brotherly spirit of co-operation is assured.

It is seedling time, but just jump into your auto, after a good day's work, and meet awhile each evening with the rest of us at 7:30, and we will all be fitted for a better day's work on the morrow, as well as for a better life.

The singing will be fine. A new song book has arrived and a chorus choir is being trained.

CLOVER SEED SHORTAGE

An unprecedented shortage of clover seed demands the general use this year of emergency crops for hay purposes, if the farmers of the state are to escape serious loss, according to Prof. J. P. Cox, head of the farm crops department at the Michigan Agricultural college.

"The danger lies not only in a shortage of the clover crop this year, but also in the prospect of serious future loss in cultivated crops such as corn, beans, beets and potatoes, and in decreased production of grains, since on a majority of soils vigorous clover seed is necessary for the success of these crops."

Alfalfa and sweet clover can be substituted where clover seed cannot be obtained. The use of corn (as a forage crop), millet, soy beans, sudan grass, oats for hay, peas and oats, and sorghum is also possible to meet the shortage of clover. Corn is counted on to supply the largest amount of acceptable forage which can be substituted for hay.

TRACTOR DEMONSTRATION MAY 5

On account of the heavy rains, making the land unfit for plowing, the big county tractor demonstration which was to have taken place April 25, has been postponed two weeks, until Friday, May 5.

The demonstration will be held as scheduled, at the E. J. Wagner farm and one-half miles west of Ann Arbor and two and one-half miles east of Dexter on the Ann Arbor-Dexter gravel road.

At this time ten to twelve different makes of tractors will be plowing in the same field at the same time. This will afford an excellent opportunity to see what the different makes of tractors will do operating under the same field conditions. A number of the outfits which were shipped in have been stored and will be available for the demonstration on May 5.

During the forenoon the different machines will be on the field and those interested will be able to give

MORE REVENUE TAXES

On and after May 1st, purchasers of all sorts of patent medicines will have to pay the druggist or dealer a tax of one cent for each 25 cents or fraction of the retail price of the article. The revenue act of 1918, according to Collector of Internal Revenue James J. Brady, of Detroit, requires the dealer to collect the tax from the purchaser at the time of the sale. To facilitate the collection of this tax adhesive stamps have been prepared and may be procured by dealers from the revenue office. On selling any preparation subject to tax, the dealer will attach a revenue stamp of appropriate value before handing the goods to the customer.

Perfumes, toilet waters, essences, tooth washes, hair dressings, aromatic cachous, toilet powders, etc., are also subject to a similar tax beginning May 1. Toilet soaps and soap powders are not subject to the stamp tax, but the manufacturers will pay a tax to the government of three per cent of the price for which they sell the goods.

Collector Brady is advised that the tax on admissions under their revenue act of 1918 applies to charges for rides on roller coasters, merry-go-rounds and other like amusements, there being no exemption as under the revenue act of 1917. Proprietors of these amusements are required to collect one cent tax for each ten cents or fraction of the price of admission to the ride or other amusement machine.

NATURALIZATION DAYS

Naturalization Examiner Gallier, of Chicago will be in Ann Arbor May 2, for the purpose of examining candidates for admission to citizenship. He will meet these candidates in the supervisors' room in the court house. The next session of the circuit court for the hearing and granting of applications for citizenship will be held on June 4, at which time it is expected that a class of fifty or more will be before the court.

Among the applications for citizenship at that time will be returned soldiers, enemy aliens and presumed citizens, besides many friendly aliens. Men who have served in the army during the present war are entitled to citizenship papers without being required to wait the usual ninety days provided by the naturalization law.

BEAUTIFY SCHOOL GROUNDS

As a step in furthering the statewide movement to improve and beautify the rural school grounds, a bulletin giving plans and rules for planting trees, shrubs and plants, together with a complete list of varieties which are adapted for the purpose, has just been published by the horticultural department of the Michigan Agricultural College. The use of native plants is urged, and directions for digging and transferring to the school grounds are given. The work should be done as early in the spring as possible.

The planting of home grounds is considered in other bulletins, which may be obtained from the Director of the Experimental Station, East Lansing.

HOME BREWER TAKES A CHANCE

In view of the fact that it is said that some Chelsea people are brewing their own beer through the medium of a hop or malt extract, the following dispatch from the revenue department at Washington may be of interest to some of our readers:

People who are making liquor in their own homes are warned by revenue authorities as to the penalties to which they may be subjected. The internal revenue bureau has sent to revenue collectors and agents a summary of laws and penalties, with the suggestion that they be made known widely. The schedule of penalties for various violations is as follows:

For failure to register still, $500 penalty, fine of between $100 and $1,000 and imprisonment of between one month and two years; for making liquor in a community where it is prohibited by local or state laws, tax of $1,000; for violating wartime prohibition, $1,000 fine or one year's imprisonment or both; for making a whisky mash or a beer, fine of between $500 and $5,000, and imprisonment of between six months and three years.

P. M. WILL AID RECRUITING

Postmasters will co-operate to the fullest extent with recruiting officers of the army and navy and marine corps.

This message was flashed to postmasters throughout the country by the postoffice department to get their aid in the campaign for recruits to fill up the ranks of the army and relieve the men drafted for the emergency. The air service of the war department, having also inaugurated an aggressive recruiting campaign in an endeavor to recruit the air service to its authorized strength, postmasters will be expected to aid this campaign also, it was stated.

Mosquito Fleet.

Among naval men the mosquito fleet is known as "the second line of defense." It is used in protecting the fortifications and harbors along the coast line, and, like the insect from which it is named, annoys the enemy in every way, at the same time preventing the possibility of a blockade. In the war against Germany the British navy was augmented by several thousands of small and sometimes very speedy vessels, and to this mosquito fleet, manned chiefly by naval reserve men and fishermen, the admiralty paid tribute for its patient and laborious work in laying and sweeping up mines, chasing submarines and patrolling the home waters.

Literary Rocks.

Theodore Dreiser is a novelist of repute, but his novels are apt to be very long—700 or 800 pages in fact. "There are scumms in stones," Mr. Dreiser said at a Greenwich village tea, whereupon a young lady sculptor interrupted him: "Yes, that is very true," she said, "but you ought to remember that the precious stones are all small, and that they require a lot of cutting."

History Reports Itself.

A charming little incident has taken place in Doctor Johnson's house, Gough square. A party of soldiers visited the Mecca and they got a colored member of the party to read aloud from the famous dictionary. He did so in excellent style. An inquiry revealed the fact that he was a native of Jamaica. All lovers of Johnson will remember it was Francis Barber of Jamaica who was the doctor's faithful servant, to whom he left a handsome bequest. And Barber once went to sea. The coincidence of a Jamaican sailor reading aloud the dictionary in the old house was certainly curious.—London Daily Chronicle.

"Golden Bell," Famous Irish Relic.

Curio collectors had an opportunity of obtaining a famous Irish relic at auction recently, at London, England. This is the "golden bell" which, according to tradition, descended from heaven and was used for obtaining information when all other means failed. In one occasion a pair of saddlebags with $1,700 was stolen, and as all inquiries were useless the priest stated he would swear all his flock on the bell on Sunday.

On the Saturday night a man came and said: "Father, there is no occasion for the golden bell—there is the money, every bit of it, all safe and sound."

Pony Twenty Years in Mine.

A mine pit pony called Fulmen (after the winner of the Loughborough handicap in 1880) has just completed 20 years' continuous service in a South Kirby (Eng.) colliery.

Fulmen was taken down the South Kirby colliery in April, 1899, and only once has he since been brought to the surface.

This remarkable pony has never had a day's illness, and never met with an accident. The animal's eyesight remains perfect.

BARBERRY IS GOING.

Reports on the amount of barberry existing in the country districts of Washtenaw county, the results of a census which has been taken by the school children in the rural schools all over the county, are now coming in to the office of County School Commissioner Esery.

These reports seem to indicate that there is very little of the common barberry in the county. Nearly all of it has been removed as the result of previous campaigns against this shrub as the breeding place of the rust of wheat and other grains.

Through the rural schools and under the auspices of the county commissioner of schools, the entire county is being canvassed by the older children of the schools, children of the seventh and eighth grades, for the location of any barberry bushes which have not already been destroyed, and reports are being made on specially prepared blanks. Most of the blanks which are being received report no barberry.

There is a small amount within the limits of the village of Chelsea, but promises have been made that this will be destroyed at once.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected.

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview of the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. It is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

Robert and Germs.

Robert has been in kindergarten just one week. In that week he has learned of many things, the existence of which is new to him. Among them is the subject of germs. He looks for them in water, in milk, and in almost everything he eats.

But the other day he found a new abiding place for them. Grandfather had just come down the alley from the square above after a wheelbarrow. Robert eyed him with horror. "You can't go back home that way," he ordered. "Don't you know that alley's just full of germs?"

FRECKLES

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as Othello—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these hateful spots.

Simply get an ounce of Othello—double strength—from your druggist, and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have faded entirely. It is so simple that more than one ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and also a beautiful clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength Othello, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Adv.

Physicians Recommend Castoria

YOU know the real human doctors right around in your neighborhood: the doctors made of flesh and blood just like you: the doctors with souls and hearts: those men who are responding to your call in the dead of night as readily as in the broad daylight; they are ready to tell you the good that Fletcher's Castoria has done, is doing and will do, from their experience and their love for children.

Fletcher's Castoria is nothing new. We are not asking you to try an experiment. We just want to impress upon you the importance of buying Fletcher's.

Your physician will tell you this, as he knows there are a number of imitations on the market, and he is particularly interested in the welfare of your baby.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Do the People Know?

Do you know why you are asked to call for Fletcher's Castoria when you want a child's remedy: why you must insist on Fletcher's? For years we have been explaining how the popularity of Fletcher's Castoria has brought out innumerable imitations, substitutes and counterfeits.

To protect the babies: to shield the homes and in defense of generations to come we appeal to the better judgment of parents to insist on having Fletcher's Castoria when in need of a child's medicine. And remember above all things that a child's medicine is made for children—a medicine prepared for grown-ups is not interchangeable. A baby's food for a baby. And a baby's medicine is just as essential for the baby.

The Castoria Recipe (it's on every wrapper) has been prepared by the same hands in the same manner for so many years that the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and perfection in the product are synonymous.

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Italians, Being Refused Fiume by President Wilson, Bolt the Peace Conference.

RESULTS MAY PROVE SERIOUS

Success of League of Nations is Imperiled—Bolsheviks and Communists Losing Ground—Victory Loan Going Well—Carranza Denounces Monroe Doctrine.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD.

President Wilson declared flatly last Wednesday that Italy should not have Fiume because that outlet to the Adriatic was essential to the prosperity of the Croats and other Jugo-Slav peoples.

Premier Orlando promptly announced the withdrawal of the Italian delegates from the peace conference and on Thursday himself left Paris, his colleagues remaining for the present in the vicinity of the French capital. "We do not break with our allies, but hand over our interests to their hands trusting they will loyally fulfill their mission," said Orlando.

The seriousness of the situation was recognized by all, and France and Great Britain renewed their efforts to bring about an agreement. The Italian delegates endeavored to throw on Mr. Wilson personally the blame for the break, asserting that just before the president issued his statement they had received from Clemenceau, Lloyd George and Wilson proposals that Fiume should be a free port, all the Dalmatian island cities going to Italy and the hinterland to Croatia. This plan, they declared, would have been accepted by them with the exception that the city of Fiume should be Italian and the port only internationalized. While their ambassador was on his way with a reply to this, said the Italians, they were astounded to read in a Paris newspaper Mr. Wilson's statement and appeal to public opinion in Italy. They asserted that Mr. Wilson made a grave error in diplomatic etiquette and that nothing was left for them except to withdraw from the conference.

Lloyd George and Clemenceau, it was said, read and approved Wilson's statement before it was given out, but neither of them signed it. The document called attention to the fact that the treaty of London gave the Dalmatian coast and cities to Italy because she needed protection against Austria-Hungary, but that the Austro-Hungarian empire no longer exists and so the necessity has passed; that Italy gave her adherence to the 14 points, and that to give Fiume to her would not be in accordance with them. The Italians replied that Wilson already had compromised some of those points, notably in the case of the freedom of the seas and the Saar basin, and that Italy was being discriminated against. This really was the crux of the dispute.

Mr. Wilson may have acted too impetuously and may have violated diplomatic courtesy in appealing to the Italian people over their government. But it is likely that in the matter of the disposition of Fiume he is backed by the great body of public opinion in this country, and probably in Great Britain and France. The justice of the claims of the Jugo-Slavs are generally recognized. Italy asserts Fiume is an Italian city, but this is only half a truth for a large part of it is inhabited by Croats.

What would be the result if Italy's withdrawal from the conference were permanent? It was believed there would be no consequent delay in the treaty dealings with Germany, and there were intimations that Italy would undertake to make a separate peace with Germany. Of course Italy would cease to be a charter member of the league of nations and would be admitted later only by vote, like the enemy nations. If she chose to remain aloof from the league, the strength and value of that association would be greatly impaired, according to some authorities. In political circles in Rome it was predicted that Orlando and Sonnino would offer their resignations to the parliament and would be unanimously confirmed in the tenure of their offices. The king lost no time in giving his absolute approval of the course they were pursuing in Paris, and they were given ardent support by the Italian press and by public demonstrations.

Italy already is in possession of Fiume as well as the Dalmatian coast territory she claims, and declared she intended to hold them, by force if necessary. In such case the league of nations could not act militarily because it does not yet exist. Nor would any of the allied nations take up arms against Italy, according to opinion in Paris. It was believed there that if either Great Britain or France took sides with Italy in the dispute, the United States might withdraw from the conference and make a separate peace with the enemy countries.

In such case the league of nations could not act militarily because it does not yet exist. Nor would any of the allied nations take up arms against Italy, according to opinion in Paris. It was believed there that if either Great Britain or France took sides with Italy in the dispute, the United States might withdraw from the conference and make a separate peace with the enemy countries.

It was reported that Italy was hurrying more troops to Fiume, and the early opening of hostilities between them and the Jugo-Slavs there and in other points was freely predicted.

Closely resembling the Adriatic issue, and scarcely less difficult of solution, was the matter of Kian-Chow, far Japan relies on secret agreements with Great Britain, France and Italy to support her claim to the concessions in Shanghai which were held by the Germans. The council, reduced to three by Orlando's defection, gave much time last week to this controversy, but its conclusions, if any were reached, were not known at the time of writing.

It appears that the peace treaty will not be ready for the signatures of the Germans so soon as had been expected, because of the long task of completing the drafting, and as the German government announced its delegates would not arrive at Versailles as early as former plans contemplated. The treaty may be presented to them in place, so that it can be signed about May 15. In that case peace would be effective throughout the world about July 15, for a clause will be inserted providing that the pact shall go into effect 60 days after it is signed. The German party, headed by Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, will include about 75 persons. It is the present plan to keep them virtually incarcerated at Versailles, but both the Germans and the American correspondents are protesting against this.

The first of General Haller's divisions, transported through Germany by train, began to arrive in Poland last week to the great contentment of that rather hard-pressed country. The Poles and Czech-Slovaks will be required to settle between themselves their dispute over the Teschen mining region. Polish forces recaptured Vilna, the Lithuanian railway center, from the Bolsheviks.

Bolshevism and communism had a hard week of it. The Russian soviet First army surrendered to Ukrainian troops under General Petlura in the region of Homel, giving up large stores of munitions, and a few days later the Ukrainians drove the Bolsheviks out of Kiev, being aided by many of their prisoners, who volunteered to serve against their former comrades. Along the Petchora river the Bolshevik troops were driven far back by the loyal Russians and Siberians, who were not far from a junction with the allied forces in the Archangel district. The latter had several successes and took much material, and they were joined by numerous deserters. In southeastern Russia, in the region of Ural, the Ural Cossacks, apparently acting in conjunction with Admiral Kolchak's Siberians, forced the Bolsheviks to retire a long way to the north.

Beni Kuni and his soviet government of Hungary seemed approaching their end, and there were intimations that that leader was ready to retire in favor of the socialist, Brunszvik, acting under the instructions of the allies.

was steadily moving into Hungarian territory with the purpose of stemming the Bolshevik advance, and there was a serious crisis in Budapest.

The communists still held on in Munich, but the government of Premier Hoffman was pressing them closely and most of the Bavarians seemed against them. In Munich itself terrorism, rioting and great distress ruled, and nearly all the workers were idle. Elsewhere in Germany, especially in Hamburg and Bremen, there was a continuation of the fighting and disorder that have been prevalent for months. The details are uninteresting.

An attempt to seize Vienna was made by communists led by Hungarian agitators. It was foiled and the Hungarians were arrested and ejected from the city.

The plan of the allies to withdraw their troops from Russia and to supply the anti-Bolshevik elements with munitions met with the hearty approval of the governments of North Russia and Omsk, but they protest earnestly against Doctor Nansen's proposal that the Bolsheviks be supplied with food provided hostilities are entirely stopped. The loyal Russians have no intention or desire to cease their warfare on the Lenine-Frontier forces and are confident the Bolsheviks will be defeated. In this view the Russian representatives in Paris and Washington concur. According to the present plans of the allies, the Omsk government will be recognized by them soon after the peace treaty is signed, and in the meantime any diplomatic advances by the Bolsheviks will be ignored.

According to documents published in a Swiss paper, Lenine has his eye on Switzerland now. The papers were marked "very confidential" and entitled "General instructions for a revolution in Switzerland." According to Lenine's orders, "all the federal authorities and also the military staff must be captured and held as hostages. He also directs that the banks, railways, factories and newspapers be seized and placed under the control of Comrade Radek. That is the man who has been directing the movements of the Spartacists in Germany.

Hjalmar Branting, the Swedish socialist leader, addressing the socialist congress in Paris, warned his hearers of the results of soviet government, which he said meant absolute economic decomposition, misery and famine. The congress passed resolutions demanding the return to the state of excess war profits and the levying of special taxes on wealthy establishments, financial monopolies, concerns dealing in luxuries, railways and large enterprises such as mines and banks. A reduction in the hours of labor, the fixing of minimum wages and rigorous protection of mothers and children were also demanded.

The Victory loan campaign was launched last week and the results of the first few days were so satisfactory that the treasury officials were almost surprised. The slogan, "Let's Finish the Job," has caught the public mind and the enthusiasm displayed all over the country is no less than that displayed in the former loan campaigns. The drive is greatly aided by the presence of returned fighters and of captured German submarines, cannon and airplanes.

President Carranza threw his supporters into the ring last week with an attack on the Monroe doctrine. In a formal statement his foreign department said: "The conference now meeting at Paris has considered the recognition of the Monroe doctrine. Some governments, friends of Mexico, have asked Mexico for its opinion regarding the doctrine, and the Mexican department of foreign relations has answered that the Mexican government has not recognized and will not recognize the Monroe doctrine or any other doctrine that attacks the sovereignty and independence of Mexico."

But who cares? Carranza also ordered his minister to France to withdraw to Spain because, though he has been in Paris since December, he has not yet been permitted to present his credentials to the French government.

Banish Pain

THERE is no use talking—no one can work or play when they are not feeling well and strong. Life, without health and strength, is a mere painful, pleasureless existence.

One of the most important conditions of good health is to keep the kidneys sound and active. When weak or deranged, they do not filter out of the blood the impurities that should be eliminated from the system. When these impurities remain, the blood becomes impure and pain and suffering result.

Foley Kidney Pills

and assist Nature. They strengthen and invigorate weak or ailing kidneys and help them keep the blood stream pure and clean, banishing backache, rheumatic pains, stiff or swollen joints, sore muscles, and other symptoms of kidney trouble.

W. B. Fox, 125 W. Washington St., Noblesville, Ind., writes: "After suffering many months with kidney trouble, and after having the doctor prescribe for me the most powerful medicine I have ever used, I purchased a bottle of Foley Kidney Pills and took them. They not only cured my kidney trouble, but they completely banished my backache, rheumatic pains, and all my other troubles. I feel like a new man. I am now able to do all my usual work with similar results."

HEALTH INSURANCE ON WAY

Many Reasons for Assuming That the Nation is About Ready to Take Important Step.

It is only fair to assume that our country is steadily moving in the direction of compulsory sickness or health insurance. The reasons for this assumption are many, but among the most important are the following: (1) The force of the example of England and of eight other European countries with whose social insurance laws the people of this country are rapidly becoming familiar; (2) the general favor with which the proposed legislation is regarded by the extremely active and influential body of social workers in the United States; (3) the appointment of no less than eight commissions to investigate health and other forms of social insurance; (4) the support of the movement by numerous public health administrators and experts; (5) the gradual but irresistible swing of organized labor from opposition to support; (6) the present sympathetic attitude of the leading political parties toward the demands of labor; (7) the willingness of labor, of itself expressed through state labor federations, to assume half the cost of the proposed insurance; and (8) the readiness of various state legislatures to act upon social reform measures which do not threaten to add to the troubles of the overburdened taxpayer and incidentally to those of the legislator.

These reasons, declares Modern Hospital in an editorial on the subject, are clearly indicative of the fact that the trend of the country's thought is in the direction of health insurance.

NOTHING SACRED TO YANKS

Ancient Edifices, With Their Historic Memories, Have No Power to Overawe American Soldiers.

You can't awe a Yank. You can feast his eye and his mind on history and castles and things that are so old they are sacred. But you can't awe him. Stephen Doughton writes in Chamberlain's.

You can, as has been done, for instance, take him to Warwick castle and show him the moat, the portcullis, Caesar's tower and wonder that date from 900 A. D. Then when he sees the broad rampart on the castle wall he thinks what a fine place it would be to dance, and he does.

Recently a hundred Yanks on leave in England made a two-day tour. They played baseball at the home of the late William Shakespeare, Stratford-on-Avon; visited Leamington Spa, Coventry; Warwick castle and the ruins of the famous Kenilworth castle. Just to add a sort of finishing American touch to the tour they and penants at Warwick—think of it, penants at a castle!

But best the Yanks he fully accused of carrying penants to Warwick let it be noted that Harry Gordon Selfridge, a former Chicagoan, now a department store man in London, sent 50 pounds of the delectable snobbers just to make the boys feel at home while cultivating about the castle's moats and ramparts and towers and places.

Our Language.

A French soldier, enthusiastic over the beauties of his best girl, was endeavoring to convey an idea of some of her charms to an English comrade.

"She is pretty," the Frenchman said. "Yes, I see, fairly pretty, eh?" the Englishman replied.

"Ah! that is the word! She is fair." "O, yes, pretty fair!" the Englishman responded.—Cartoons Magazine.
