KALAMAZOO BOYS SEE FATHER
AND MOTHER CRUSHED
UNDER MACHINE.

THIRD ACCIDENT IN MONTH

Two Other Drivers Met Death Within Five-Mile Radius of Plainwell—Bad Roads Blamed.

Plainwell, Mich.—The three little sons of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Scott, prominent residents of Kalamazoo, saw their parents instantly killed when the automobile they were driving plunged over an embankment and turned turtle. Both Mr. and Mrs. Scott, who had been occupying the front seat, were pinned beneath the car.

The Scotts were returning from Pine Lake where they had taken an older son, Russell, to join a camping party. When Mr. Scott, who was driving, attempted to get the wheel out of a rut, the car lurched over the side of the embankment. Nathan, aged 10, and Donald, aged 11, escaped unhurt, while their brother, Gerald, aged 8, received minor bruises and a sprain. The boys were in the rear seat.

This accident was the third fatal automobile mishap within a five-mile radius here in a month. An Indiana family of three met death here a month ago, and about two weeks ago the body of H. L. Bellinger, well known automobile dealer, was found pinned beneath his car, having met death in much the same manner the Scotts were killed.

MICHIGAN CHAPLAIN RETURNS

Father Dunigan, Ex-Mayor of Lapeer, Decorated For Bravery.

New York, N. Y.—After a long service in the 126th Infantry of the Thirty-second division and as senior chaplain in the army of occupation, Major (Chaplain) Patrick R. Dunigan formerly mayor of Lapeer and one of the most popular officers that went out of Michigan, is back home.

Father Dunigan is a Michigan National Guard chaplain of 14 years' standing. In the old Thirty-second Michigan Infantry, and later in the 126th Infantry, he was the idol of doughboys. In France he won their high respect in the early action when he followed them into battle and administered to their wants.

The chaplain wears the French croix de guerre with star, which he says was awarded at Juvigny because he was "too old and too fat to get out of the way of the German fire."

Fact of the matter is, according to army records, he scorned the danger of a shell-swept field and stuck with the wounded men, helping them to places of safety and administering first aid while shells burst all around him.

Hornace Cole, a bookkeeper, was alone in the place, when the six entered about 9:45 a. m. He said the men shambled in, all of them searching their pockets, as though for money or papers. A signal was given by the leader and every one of the six drew an automatic pistol and Cole found himself looking into an arsenal.

One of the number kept him covered, while the rest made a search of the bank.

The robbers made their escape in a large touring car.

Mr. Cole said he believes the men are Sicilians. They were all undersized, he says, and appeared to be between 23 and 26 years old. They wore tan shirts and soft collars and all were careless.

INDUSTRIAL PEACE DEPENDS ON SUCCESS OF WAR AGAINST HIGH PRICES.

GOVERNMENT IS OPTIMISTIC

Attorney General Says That Fight On Hoarders and Profiteers Is Showing Results.

Washington.—Industrial peace in the United States depends to a great extent on the results the government can show in the next 90 days in its campaign to reduce the cost of living. That time limit was tacitly set last week by the executive council of the railroad shop crats, in suggesting to union locals throughout the country that President Wilson's compromise offer in response to their demand for higher wages should be accepted, pending the outcome of the effort to restore a normal price level.

If the cost of living does not come down, the 500,000 members of the shop crats would reserve the right to strike for money, and with them probably would be associated the remainder of the 2,500,000 railroad employees.

WHOLESALE MEAT PRICE LOWER

Witnesses Testify Price Has Been Cut
But Retailer Absorbs Profit.

Lansing.—Evidence that the reduction of wholesale prices is not reflected in the retail market has been brought out in the food cost hearing before Judge West here.

If evidence is accepted at its face value retailers have maintained their high prices irrespective of the fact that they have been able at frequent periods to buy at substantial reductions in the wholesale market.

Harry A. Timmins, secretary of Morris & Co., one of the "Big Five," testified that although the wholesale price of dressed beef of a certain grade in May was 21 cents a pound, it had varied so that for three and a half months previous it had averaged only 17 1/2 cents a pound and on August 9 it was actually down to 14 1/2 cents.

Another witness, H. R. Chapman, district manager of Armour & Co., quoted wholesale prices showing variations at different periods running from 20 1/2 cents to 15 1/2 cents.

None of these reductions have been reflected however in the prices charged by retail meat dealers.

in a rising tide on the slippery growth. The moments passed, each hour long to the anxious boys, who watched the tide rising against them with every fresh roll of the sea. Miraculously the fog briefly lifted, and far away two fishermen, Elijah Estes and Frank York, caught a glimpse of the stranded lads and went to their rescue—just in the nick of time.

Dyer and Griffin say they prefer any other perch to seaweed six miles from shore in a Maine fog with an incoming tide.

SHATTERS MORALE OF JAIL

Prisoner is Robbed of $20 While Awaiting Arraignment in New York Court.

New York.—While awaiting arraignment in the court of special sessions in the Bronx, Frank Fatagano, driver, forty-seven, of 2520 Arthur avenue, the Bronx, was robbed of $20 in the pen leading to the court room. Fatagano was charged with failure to support two children who were city charges. The amount involved was $47. An acquaintance visited him in the prison pen and gave him $20.

When arraigned Fatagano pleaded guilty with the idea of making a partial payment as evidence of good faith. When he reached for the money it was gone, and he cried out that he had been robbed in the court room. William Cullen, clerk of the court, quieted him and Justice Daniel F. Murphy, who was presiding, exclaimed: "The morale of the jail has gone to pieces; there are evidently some thieves around here."

Fatagano was paroled and received time to make the payment for the support of his children.

Lightning Wrecks House, but Family Is Unhurt

Hazleton, Pa.—During a severe storm lightning played an odd prank at the home of Leonard Ferrari of West Hazleton. A bolt entered the house, ripped off most of the plastering, smashed nearly all of the windows and brought out soot in such quantities from the chimney that it almost smothered the family, but Ferrari, his wife and six children escaped without a scratch. Their bodies were covered with debris as they were awakened in bed.

SOW TORE BABY TO PIECES

Older Children Rescued Infant From Animal Too Late to Save Its Life.

Pretty Rock, N. D.—Annoyed by the screams of an infant brother, five young children of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Prechod of this place, awoke to find the three-month-old baby being torn to pieces by a sow.

The children rescued the baby from the animal, but not until after it was so badly torn that it died a few hours later.

Washington.—Liquor dealers who have been violating the prohibition law, secure in the belief that department of justice agents were too busy in the high cost of living investigation to give attention to them, are due a rude awakening, according to Attorney General Palmer. Recent arrests in New York and other cities, Mr. Palmer said, were only forerunners of what is to come and those who believe prohibition laws can be evaded will be shown differently.

No More Worries Over Excessive Coal Bills

It is not generally known that even the small coal consumer can have his coal shipped direct from the mines, thus saving the profits that otherwise would go to wholesale and retail dealer, besides saving hauling expense. Of course, big manufacturers and other large consumers have always bought this way, but the man who buys only enough for his household is now in position to take advantage of the same purchasing privileges. The well-known BURNACE COAL CO., 236 South Dearborn St., Chicago, is doing an enormous business in supplying small consumers as well as the big ones—with all grades of hard and soft coal at mine prices.

That these customers are highly pleased is evidenced by the letters they write after receiving and trying their coal. The following are extracts from several such letters: "Have found your coal entirely satisfactory and your dealings courteous and fair. I shall continue to buy my coal from you."—Ed. C. Gorka, Burlington, Ia. "More than pleased with it. Please quote me prices on same coal for December."—Arthur Churchman, Alexandria, Ind. "Well pleased with it. Expect to buy more from you."—Fritz Bros., Pompeii, Mich. "Coal arrived on time; has given entire satisfaction; am exceedingly well pleased. Wish to thank you for your courteous treatment in our dealings."—M. B. Ford, Franklin, Ky. Adv.

Walking for Pleasure.
The old-fashioned person who used to walk mile after mile on pleasant Sunday afternoons through the countryside, has practically disappeared. This is the inevitable conclusion drawn by anyone who still pursues this ancient pastime and who has spent Sunday after Sunday drilling by foot over macadam and dirt roads frequented by automobilists and an occasional farm hand traveling to a neighbor's.

Walking for the sake of the walk has nearly passed out, along with the one-horse rig, the glass-encased artificial flowers in the parlor and hair-covered furniture. It had its day before the bicycle and the automobile and with the advent of these quicker, easier means of transportation it dropped from the human scheme of things with a dull thud.—Omaha News.

Proof that Some Women do Avoid Operations

Mrs. Etta Dorion, of Ogdensburg, Wis., says:

"I suffered from female troubles which caused piercing pains like a knife through my back and side. I finally lost all my strength so I had to go to bed. The doctor advised an operation but I would not listen to it. I thought of what I had read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and tried it. The first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

How Mrs. Boyd Avoided an Operation.

Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well."

"My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. It relieved me from my troubles so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them."—Mrs. MARIE BOYD, 1421 6th St., N. E., Canton, Ohio.

PREPARED FOR NEXT FLOOD

Derrigan in No Danger of Losing Any More of His Flock by Drowning, Anyway.

Derrigan lived in an old cottage which stood in a field near the high road to Dublin. The foundations of the house were lower than the road,
through which ran a great water main.
As the living floor of the house was raised on posts to make it level with the highway, it left a large cellar underneath, where Derrigan kept several hens. One day the water main burst, flooded the cellar and drowned the hens.

Derrigan immediately put in a chain for damages. After a long delay and much trouble influential friends assisted the old man to get $10
in settlement of his claim.

That evening he saw Mrs. Cassidy, his next door neighbor, sitting on her back steps.

"I got me money from the district council," he called to her.

"Did yez then, Mr. Derrigan? It's glad I am. How much did yez get?"

"Two pounds."

"Glory be! An' hev' yez the money?"

"I hev not, but I had it."

"What did yez do with it?"

"Sure, I bought $10 worth of ducks wid it."

a friend who has a kid live or six years old, who is known as a bright child.
And the other day the mother of the kid of our friend's friend came home and found that the child had been naughty during her absence. The occasion seemed to call for corporal punishment, so the child was sent to the yard to cut a switch to be tanned with.
He was gone about a half an hour, and finally came back without the switch.
He said:

"I can't find a switch—" (no, gentle reader, not "but here's a stone you can frow at me!" It isn't that old favorite) "I couldn't find a switch big enough to whip me with. We'd better wait a month or two for one to grow bigger."
