

VICTORY DAY WAS A BIG SUCCESS

Chelsea and Vicinity Staged The Big Celebration In Honor Of The Ex-Service Men.

Good weather, a trifle too warm but fair, good-natured fun loving crowds, an excellent parade, close and interesting sports, fine band music, a series of stirring and intensely interesting speeches, a big banquet for all ex-service men, two big dances in the evening on the pavement and at Macabee hall, and aeroplane flights all day, all contributed to make the Community Victory Celebration here yesterday one of the really big days in Chelsea's history.

And there was plenty of amusement for the youngsters, too, including the always alluring and popular merry-go-round, and many vendors of toy balloons, rubber return balls and kindred gala day novelties.

Fine Parade in Morning.
The parade started shortly after eleven o'clock, led by Herbert Schenk on a pure white charger, and George Griswold as trumpeter. The several units in the parade were as follows:

Representation of "tank" by Lewis Spring & Axle company, many parts of the Hollier car being used in the construction of the "tank."

Grand Army of the Republic in decorated automobiles.

Float, representing the Goddess of Liberty. Miss Pearce impersonated the goddess, flanked on either side by Archie Willis, representing the army, and Warren Coe, the navy. Both of the latter saw active service in their respective lines of duty.

Wounded ex-service men in decorated car.

Ex-service men on foot, headed by martial band and in command of Lieut. A. A. Palmer. About 80 "boys" in uniform were in the line of march. Home Guards under command of B. B. Turnbull.

The Speakers All Excellent.

It was mid-afternoon when the speech-making started from the stand at Main and Middle streets. N. S. Potter, Jr., presided and introduced Rev. H. G. Pearce, now pastor of the Methodist church, who was in Y. M. C. A. service overseas; then Rev. P. W. Dierberger, who took a prominent part in the war work here at home, both of whom gave fine addresses.

Then the Border Cities Highland band, which served overseas with a Canadian regiment, played and the bag-pipes and drum music proved to be quite a novelty in Chelsea, so much so that to-day all the small boys in town are trying to pound a drum or mother's dish-pan just as that Highlander did his bass drum.

Following the Highlanders came a speech by Sergeant Carl Lehman of Ann Arbor, ex-prosecuting attorney, who served overseas. He made a strong plea for the support of the American Legion, which stands for 100% Americanism, nothing else.

Then the chief piper of the Highland band danced the Highland fling by request, which proved a very popular innovation.

Mr. Potter then introduced Mr. Jas. Stuart of Cincinnati, who made a brief but stirring address urging that the old-time Americanism of Revolutionary and Civil war days be retained. He questioned the wisdom of blindly accepting the League of Nations at the possible cost of independent Americanism.

The last and probably most popular speaker was Lieut. Col. Ganser of Bay City, who served with the 32nd Division overseas and who has been decorated for bravery in action repeatedly. He is of German parentage and came to this country when only nine years of age, after his father had been practically exiled in 1869 because his democratic ideas of personal liberty displeased the German war lords. He urged all German-Americans to give their undivided allegiance to America, the land of their adoption and the land which supported them. He said it's a fact that the German of today is the better off for having lost the war, she has thrown off the yoke of militarism which has been bending her for years. The military class has lost, but the rank and file of the Germans have gained their personal independence.

Aeroplane Attracted Many.

The aeroplane, Lieut. Goff piloting, was in the air at frequent intervals throughout the day, carrying passengers a part of the time. Owing to adverse winds, the plane did not take

AFTERMATH.

(By Rufus T. Strohm in Coal Age.)
Of old, when Monday rolled around,
As Mondays always do,
With drab monotony we found
But half a working crew;
And some of those were thick of head
And bleary as to eye,
But, happily, such days are fled,
For Miningville is dry.

Each party, wake, or like affair
Once ended in a fray;
But stabbing is becoming rare
And murder is passe;
For folks go calmly to their beds.
Nor seem to want to shy
Beer bottles at each other's heads
Since Miningville went dry.

The children look'd as though they had Scarce half enough to eat;
The womenfolk were coarsely clad,
And all were bare of feet;
But chubby kids are everywhere,
New dresses multiply,
And there are shoes enough to spare
Since Miningville went dry.

A mighty wave of civic pride
Has risen in the town,
And dirt and rubbish swept aside
Have brought the death-rate down;
The grocer toils with all his might,
The butcher's boy is spry,
The baker hustles day and night—
For Miningville is dry.

VIENNA SIGNS PACT, PROTESTING TERMS

VOTE IS 97 TO 23 TO APPROVE—SAY TEAMS IMPOSED BY ALLIES ARE TOO HARSH.

ENTENTE GETS BLAME FOR WAR

Resolution of Protest Says Union of Germany and Austria Will Take Place Later.

Vienna.—The national assembly, by a vote of 97 to 23, on Sept. 7 decided to sign the peace treaty. The assembly, however, protested against "the violation of Austria's right of free disposal of herself."

The German nationalists voted against signature of the treaty while some members of the South Tyrolese party abstained from voting.

The vote was taken after adoption without dissent of the government's resolution of protest, presented by the Christian Socialist Hauser, declaring the territorial clauses of the treaty grossly violate the national claim to self-determination and the basis on which the armistice was concluded.

"We raise once more our voices against a peace founded on brute force," said the resolution.

"As one man we decline the dividing up of our peoples into free and unfree, as is done by this peace."

"We further declare that the 4,000,000 Germans forced under foreign rule will for all time insist on self-determination as the only possible basis on which the modern state may be founded."

The resolution also declares that ultimate union with Germany is an absolute necessity and expresses the hope that when the hatred of the war dies down this union will be consummated.

It ends by placing responsibility for stepping Europe in revolution and confusion on the shoulders of the Entente and looks to the League of Nations to repair the wrong done.

RADICALS ENDORSE SOVIET

Socialists Favor Russian Plan—Two
New Parties Formed.

Chicago.—The National Socialist Party in a declaration of principles adopted last week unqualifiedly endorsed the Soviet republic of Russia and the international Socialist movement and condemned the League of Nations.

Another new party was organized and christened the Communist party. It is patterned after the Soviet republic of Russia and its membership will be limited to wage-earners. The platform, constitution and program adopted is even more radical than that of the Communist Labor party.

ACTORS' STRIKE IS SETTLED

Striking Stage Hands Adjust Differences With Producers.

New York.—New York's "great white way" has blazed forth again after the partial paralysis caused by the actors' strike. The problem of being all dressed up and nowhere to go was solved for thousands of theatregoers by the reopening of a number of houses which had been forced to close during the 30-day war between theatrons and managers which ended September 6.

According to the claims of the parties to the war, it ended in a victory for everyone.

WILSON WAS BEATEN—WALSH

Irish Leader Says President Failed to Get Hearing for Erin at Peace Table.

Washington.—The senate foreign relations committee last Saturday received a report of a spirited discussion of the Irish question at Paris last June between President Wilson and Frank P. Walsh and former Governor Danne of Illinois, who sought to secure a hearing before the peace conference for the Irish nationalists.

The report was transmitted by the Irish National bureau, supplementing recent committee hearings. It said Mr. Wilson declined to use his influence to get a hearing for the Irish representatives, declaring that Messrs. Walsh and Danne, by intemperate speeches in Ireland, had made it impossible.

Trenties in existence, the president also was represented as having declared, impeded his efforts to procure self-determination for subject peoples.

The Irish memorandum, described as notes on the conference between President Wilson and Messrs. Walsh and Danne, made by the latter afterward, teemed with sharp exchanges regarding the attitude of the president and others of the American peace commission on the Irish question.

LABOR-CAPITAL MEET OCT. 6

Tentative Plans Made For Discussion of Wage Controversies.

Washington.—The big labor conference suggested by the president, in which capital and labor will be brought together at the White House, for a "full and free conference," will convene October 6, according to the present plans.

Forty persons, probably women as well as men, will be asked to sit in. The president has written to the Farmers' organizations, to the American Federation of Labor, and to the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, asking those bodies to send delegates. Other delegates the president will probably invite on his own motion.

England to Aid Disabled Soldiers.

London.—A royal proclamation is expected shortly calling upon every employer holding a government contract to employ in the future, at trade union wages, not less than five per cent of men who have suffered some disability on active service. There is on one hand a desire to give preference to ex-service men but on the other hand it is felt that to employ men not capable of a full day's work will hamper industry at this time when a large output is imperative.

Washington.—Sugar shortages now experienced in many parts of the Country cannot be relieved for some time to come, George A. Zabriske, president of the United States Equalization board, said in a letter to Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, Nebraska. Germany Pays For Slain Frenchman.

Paris.—Germany has paid France an indemnity of $200,000 for the murder of Sergeant Paul Mannheim, who was killed in the streets of Berlin by a German in July. Germany originally refused to pay the indemnity. The course of the negotiations over the case has not been traced in recent dispatches, but it seems evident that France continued to press her claim to the point of success.

Washington.—The house subcommittee investigating ordinance expenditures during the war has made public testimony taken in its hearing showing that the government still loading plant at Fort Delaware, uncompleted when the armistice was signed, had cost the government to date $14,000,000, although the estimated cost when the contract was let on the cost-plus basis was placed at from $1,250,000 to $1,500,000.

According to commission men, grape growers of New York state have formed a combine and have announced their intention of charging $125 a ton for grapes, $10 to $15 more than in 1918.

In more than half a century he was absent from his duties but twice, once to attend a wedding and again to attend the funeral of his wife, who died in 1918. He was appointed to the revenue service in 1863 and since that time had made daily trips to Detroit, returning home in the evening. It is estimated that he traveled more than 1,325,000 miles in that period.

PUT MATTER TO THE TEST

Maid's Practical Demonstration That Her Employer Was Wrong in Statement She Had Made.

"Jealousy," said Dr. Mary Dorgan Lockwood in a lecture on domestic science in Chicago—"jealousy is a horrible thing."

"It isn't only lovers that get jealous. Let me tell you a story."

"I once had a capable cook and an incapable parlor maid. My husband rushed into my study one morning and said:

"Grab your medicine case and come quickly. The cook's hair is all turned off."

"Gracious! How did it happen?" "Jealousy," said my husband. "The parlor maid overheard you say last night that she couldn't hold a candle to the cook."

"Well?" "Well, she did!"

"Pop!"

"Yes, my son."

"Do you know why they call those things lightning bugs?" "Because they never seem to strike twice in the same place is my guess, my boy."

"I don't know whether you can or not," said Uncle Sam's man; "I have a registered letter here and somebody has to sign for it."

Urbana, Ill.—"During Change of Life, in addition to its annoying symptoms, I had an attack of grippe which lasted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. Important to all Women Readers of this Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease. If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition. Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be dependent; it makes any one so. But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions. Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine, will do for them. By enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., you may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase medium and large size bottles at all drug stores.—Adv.

ICEBOUND CABIN TOMB OF TRAPPER

Dies All Alone in Frozen Wilderness of the Canadian Northwest.

EPITAPH ON HIS DOOR

Wounded Policeman Makes Hazardous Journey of 2,000 Miles to Investigate Fate of Man Suspected of Being Murdered.

Saskatoon, Sask.—Emanuel Peterson, a Hudson Bay company trapper, fell asleep in his lonely cabin in the northern wilderness near Fond du Lac 12 months ago. He lies today just as he fell asleep, in his bunk with his blankets tucked around him. The wolves that howl about his shack and the roaring blizzards that pile the winter snows to the eaves of his roof will never awaken him from his sleep. There he will continue to sleep, possibly forever. His old log cabin, which he built himself, has become his mausoleum. A sheet of paper tacked on the door bears his epitaph written in English, French and Cree and Cheyenne.

"This is the grave of Emanuel Peterson. Let no man disturb it." Constable M. Chappin of the Royal Northwest mounted police traveled 2,000 miles through snow and storm to write that epitaph. His return to Saskatoon after a three-months journey is the last chapter in the tale. Suspected Slaying.

News that a man lay dead in a cabin somewhere north of Lake Athabasca trickled down out of the frozen North to Edmonton last February. The man had been dead then nine months. There was a suspicion that he might have been murdered. Chappin was assigned to make an investigation. It is such work as this that has built the heroic traditions of Canada's corps of Scarlet Riders.

He set out from Prince Albert. A branch line of one of the transcontinental railways took him beyond the farms to the northern end of the steel highway at Big River. He outfitted with a sled and dog team at Isle a la Crosse and with an Indian guide struck into the wilderness. The thermometer registered 30 degrees below zero. The snow was two feet deep. At Cree lake the snow was four feet deep and the mercury stood at

Has Become His Mausoleum.

50 degrees below. Packs of gray wolves hung on his trail. They killed two of his dogs in an attack on his camp. He killed them every day by the dozen. This, Chappin believes, saved his life, for the half-starved, desperate brutes feasted on the carcasses of their dead companions.

Faced Snow Alone.

A little farther on his Indian guide turned back. The frozen desolation that lay ahead struck him with panic terror. Chappin went on alone. He drove ahead two days in the teeth of a blizzard. His provisions ran low. He lived on short rations of pemmican and tea. At the silver camp at Darnier he obtained fresh supplies and a new guide and pressed on to the Hudson Bay post at Fond du Lac.

He found Peterson's body perfectly preserved in the cold, dry air. There were no signs of violence. Peterson's diary lay open on a table. The last entry, made March 29, 1918, read: "I am very sick. It would be hell if I should die out here among the snow-drifts all alone."

BABY IS LOST IN MOVING

Forgotten by Mother, the Child Is Found Smothered in Mattress.

Oakland, Cal.—Bused with getting her furniture ready for moving to another apartment, Mrs. Joseph Valado, placed her month-old baby on a mattress. She tossed a blanket over it to keep the baby warm.

The expression failed to see the child when he rolled up the mattress and blanket and threw the bundle into the wagon. The child smothered before it was missed.

Labor Leaving Farms Causes Shortage

Detroit.—Exodus of labor from the farms to the higher-paid jobs in manufacturing and commercial life of the cities is endangering the food supply of the country, and until higher wages and more recreational facilities are provided for farm labor no relief can be expected, declared Milo C. WILSON SAYS PEACE DELAY IS FOLLY

SAYS BOLSHEVISM IS RAPIDLY SPREADING WHILE SENATE DELAYS RATIFICATION.

LABOR AND CAPITAL UNEASY

Crowds Welcome President—Capacity Audiences Greet Wilson in All Cities Visited.

Des Moines, Iowa.—A possibility that bolshevism may spread in threatening proportions to the United States unless the peace treaty be ratified promptly was suggested by President Wilson in his address here Sept. 6.

The whole world was waiting, he said, while the poison which had wrecked Russia was spreading among peoples who did not yet know what guarantees there were to be for liberty in the new world order. Labor and capital in the United States, he asserted, could not proceed intelligently with their settlements, nor could great problems like the railroad situation be solved while the suspense continued.

Mr. Wilson defended the Shantung provision of the treaty and said the league covenant section referring to the Monroe doctrine had been inserted to "give the Monroe doctrine right of way in the western hemisphere." He declared his conviction that it would do so.

President Warmly Welcomed.

Washington.—President Wilson this week is well under way in his 10,000 mile tour of the country, made to crystallize sentiment in favor of the League of Nations covenant.

Accompanying the president in addition to Mrs. Wilson, are Joseph P. Tumulty, his secretary and Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, his physician. Nearly 30 newspaper correspondents also are aboard the train in addition to the force of official stenographers and secret service men.

The trip, perhaps the most arduous ever undertaken by a president, will carry Mr. Wilson and his party as far west as the Pacific coast, almost to the Canadian border on the north and almost to Mexico, on the south.

The president's reception in all the cities he has thus far visited has been enthusiastic, packed audiences being present at all the meetings.

The gist of Mr. Wilson's speeches is that it is necessary that America accept the peace treaty without amendments and a plea for the adoption of the league pact. He stated although he did not believe the League of Nations would make all wars impossible, but that he expected it to make war "violently improbable."

The economic and arbitration sections of the covenant, he asserted, would "keep war on the outskirts" and make it only a "last resort."

The president said the American delegates had gone to Paris with a definite errand and had accomplished it. He made a plea for acceptance of the treaty because he said it gave a new platform for world affairs.

Opponents of the League of nations, he said, had discussed only three out of 26 articles of the covenant. The articles which would make war improbable had been overlooked.

He then called on opponents of the league to present a "better program" for peace. President Wilson declared "it is a case of put up or shut up."

The president said his speaking trip was partly to point out how "absolutely ignorant" of the contents of the covenant some of those were who opposed the league.

"This league," he said, "is the only conceivable arrangement which will prevent our sending our men abroad again very soon."

HUGE CROWDS GREET PERSHING

Nation Honors Commander of Army On Return to U. S.

New York.—Thousands of people from all walks of life, some of them from General Pershing's home town in Missouri, arrived in the city to join in the nation's welcome to the commander-in-chief of the A. E. F., who landed at Hoboken Monday.

When the man who led America's millions to victory in France arrived in New York harbor he was met by a fleet of navy destroyers, and welcoming craft. As soon as the Leviathan was sighted ships and forts guarding the bay boomed out a 17-gun salute, and a few minutes later official welcoming and newspaper men boarded the transport at quarantine.

A SUMMER COLD

A cold in the summer time, as everybody knows, is the hardest kind of a cold to get rid of. The best and quickest way is to go to bed and stay there if you can, with a bottle of "Boschee's Syrup" handy to insure a good night's rest, free from coughing, with easy expectoration in the morning.

But if you can't stay in bed you must keep out of draughts, avoid sudden changes, eat sparingly of simple food and take occasional doses of Boschee's Syrup, which you can buy at any store where medicine is sold, a safe and efficient remedy, made in America for more than fifty years. Keep it handy.—Adv.

HAD TO GIVE UP

Was Almost Frantic With the Pain and Suffering of Kidney Complaint.

Doan's Made Her Well.

Mrs. Lydia Shuster, 1838 Margaret St., Frankford, Pa., says: "A cold started my kidney trouble. My back began to ache and got sore and lame. My joints and ankles became swollen and painful and it felt as if needles were sticking in to throw me. I finally had to give up and went from bad to worse. My kidneys didn't act right and the secretions were scanty and distressing. I had awful dizzy spells when everything before me turned black; one time I couldn't see for twenty minutes. Awful pains in my head set me almost frantic and I was so nervous, I couldn't stand the heat noise. How I suffered! Often I didn't care whether I lived or died. 'I couldn't sleep on account of the terrible pains in my back and head. Nothing seemed to do me a bit of good until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. I could soon see they were helping me; the backache stopped, my kidneys were regulated and I no longer had any dizzy spells or rheumatic pains. I still take Doan's occasionally and they keep my kidneys in good health. Sincerely to before me."

YES, CLERK HAD SEEN THEM

But Barbara Had No Chance of Getting a Colander in That Particular Store.

Our valued friend Barbara has moved out into the country. She finds that it is more exciting than living in the city, as we have always claimed.
Take this instance: She found that she needed some kitchen utensils in her new home, and she drove hastily to Chagrin Falls to procure them. She picked out a place that looked like a hardware store, and entered. To the pink-haired youth who greeted her, she said:

"I should like to buy a colander."
"A what?"
"A colander."
"Oh, you want a calendar?"
"No, no—a colander. It's a pan with holes in the bottom to strain things through."

A great light seemed to break over the clerk and he started a search among the tinware, agateware, porcelain ware, iron ware, etc. Then he called:

"Say, Henry, where did you put them blue sink strainers?"
"But I don't want a sink strainer!"
agitated Barbara. "I want a colander."

"What did you want it for?"
And when she told him, he said, oh yes, he'd seen 'em around home, but they didn't keep 'em in the store.—

Big Fees for Jazzers.

There are drummers today who are getting extraordinarily high salaries.
It is the outcome of the Jazz. Society doesn't mind if it pays for a jazz band, but it must be the "real" goods, the guys who can play anything from a saucepan and a tin can to the banjo and big drum. In some of the bands white musicians are included, but it is found that the negro bandman enters more into the spirit of the jazz. He does not hesitate to display his feelings. He feels all the rhythm of the dance, and plays it with a natural swing and abandon, which is irresistible to the dancers.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment.
Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One hundred dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

BARN AND SILO BURNED.

The barn and silo on the George Ward farm, just west of town on the Territorial road, were destroyed by fire Saturday morning. The fire broke out about 10:30 o'clock and the dry building burned very rapidly. About 50 tons of tame hay and the season's old crop were also burned. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

The high tension wires of the Consumer's Power company were damaged by the fire and the power was off
for a time.

Hugh cinders were carried to the buildings on the Elmer Weinberg farm and the buildings there were threatened but fortunately they were not ignited beyond control.

Making Sure of It.

present.

The Bridegroom—Good; then we'll have the wedding at noon instead of two o'clock.

The air for several hours during the mid-afternoon so that a number of those who wished to ride were disappointed. The plane landed in a field at South Main street and the Territorial road and there was a liberal sprinkling of the curious on the field all day. The aviators left for the home field in Battle Creek at 6:30 o'clock.

Big Banquet Pleased Boys.
The banquet at the Methodist church at 6:30 p. m. proved to be one of the most popular features of the day for the ex-service men and the Civil war veterans. One hundred and thirty five were served, the menu being as follows: Mashed potatoes and brown gravy, roast beef, fried chicken,
cabbage salad, fruit salad, pickles,
jelly, rolls, coffee, friedcakes, apple pie a la mode. The service, too, was excellent. Following the banquet, Rev. Pearce led the boys in the singing of several of the most popular wartime songs.

The banquet closed with three cheers for the women of Chelsea and vicinity for the "fine feed." Lieut.
Col. Gansser led the cheering.

Financial Success Too.
Just how much will be left for the Legion after all bills are paid is still something of a guess, but a conservative estimate is that at least $500 will be turned over to the boys for furnishing their hall.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
This is not only one of the best and most efficient medicines for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, but is also pleasant to take, which is important when a medicine must be given to young children. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been in use for many years and has met with much favor wherever its good qualities have become known. Many mothers have given it their unqualified endorsement. Wm. Scruby, Chillicothe, Mo., writes, "I have raised three children, have always used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and found it to be the best for coughs, colds and croup. It is pleasant to take. Both adults and children like it. My wife and I have always felt safe from croup with it in the house." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic. Adv.

LINER ADS EFFECTIVE.

One of the most effective forms of advertising is the "liner" or classified column where an investment of a few cents is certain to give prompt results. Tribune liner ads are always run under the heading, "Wants,
For Sale, To Rent," in the same position on the front page where they are easy to find and invariably catch the eye. Only five cents the line for first insertion, 2½ cents the line for each subsequent insertion. Next time you want to buy something, or have something for sale or rent, try a Tribune liner.

"A Community Can Prosper Only By The Support of Its People"

Make Your Dollars Have More Cents

In these days of so-called high prices, it is up to you as an individual to see that the purchasing power of your dollar is developed to the highest degree. You cannot bring about this development by buying cheap merchandise at ridiculously low prices.

The Real Worth of Your Money Is In the Quality of the Goods Purchased
Back of this to make assurance doubly sure must stand the reputation of the merchant.

The merchants of your district are your neighbors and friends. They are interested in your welfare and in the development of the community. They realize that the better the merchandise and the fairer the prices, the more chance there is of your money remaining in the district where it works for the betterment of the whole community.

There's Absolute Safety in Home Buying
No sense of feeling is more satisfying than that of safety. And nothing is dearer to the home merchant than the confidence his customers repose in him through a sense of safety in whatever they buy.

Under the searchlight of careful scrutiny, before your home merchant places goods on sale, he tests them carefully to make assurance doubly sure that they are worth the selling price. Hence he does not fear critical examination of either his goods or prices, and cheerfully invites comparisons. In fact he will urge you to pass judgement on the styles and feel the goods to determine textures. He is confident of satisfying you, because his confidence lies in the safety of the goods he sells.

Co-operation and Organization are two of the most pregnant words in the English language. You are taking advantage of both to the fullest extent when you patronize your district stores, as the benefits accruing are neither to you or the merchant alone, but they are mutual, as every dollar you spend in the district enhances the value of your property and labor because it is helping your district to grow, expand and progress.

Perhaps in some instances your neighborhood store cannot supply "Just what you want." In that case, Jackson Community Service Bureau invite you to see what they have to offer.

Attention for the New Lustrous Satins
and Lovely Woolens

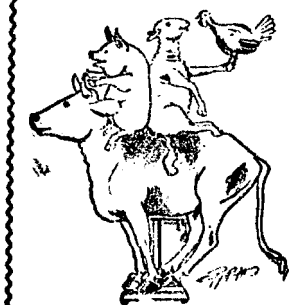

We have just laid in a supply of silks and satins that will tempt the home dressmaker beyond measure. There are beautiful dull shades of satin, the fall material for afternoon dresses, so lovely that little other trimming is necessary besides puffing, flutings and bandings of the same materials. We have brilliant silk plaids—just the thing for the separate skirt; also, for the same purpose some stunning fabric in a smart block pattern in brown, navy and black.

Fashion Has Turned to Woolens

Of course serges and tricolettes lead the fall woolen materials, with navy in the foremost rank, although the dark shades are smart. Next comes broadcloth, shrank and pressed and already for the needle, with its charm of coloring. And have you seen the new velours, in all the latest fur shades of mole, taupe, beaver, Petrol blue, brown and green, and plum?

The tweed mixture is exceedingly smart for the sports girl for suits, coats and skirts. It will mean a delightful half hour to look out new goods over.

(1st floor.)

And smiling over the harvest
of fine crops and the prospect of excellent late crops
still to be garnered.

And while you are thinking about the good things, don't forget that the finest meals are on sale at this market—they'll make you happy at any time.
