FATAL ACCIDENT AT THE CEMENT PLANT

Frank Biscoe, an Austrian Caucian in Stone Conveyor.

Frank Biscoe, aged 45 years, was killed at the plant of the Michigan Portland Cement Co. at Four-Mile Lake, Saturday night. His body was found by fellow workmen at 11:20 o'clock, but the accident was not witnessed by anyone. When found he was dead.

The man was at work cleaning under the stone conveyors, and it is thought that his clothing caught on a sprocket of the conveyor buckets and he was carried to the shaft where he had been revolved for a considerable time.

The back of his skull was crushed, both legs were broken and his feet were badly mangled.

He had been in the employ of the company for more than a year. He was a native of southern Austria, where he has a wife and several children.

The body was taken to Staffan's undertaking rooms, where the funeral was held Tuesday forenoon, a Greek Catholic priest from Detroit conducting the services. Interment at Oak Grove cemetery.

Justice of the Peace Howard Brooks was called to the plant and the following coroner's jury was empaneled: Geo. P. Staffan, Elmer Lindemann, J. P. McCarthy, Verne Combs, H. M. Moore and Clarence O. Rahmiller. The inquest was held in H. D. Witherell's office Monday evening. The verdict was that the death was accidental.

Identified Safety Deposit Boxes

The State Bank at Metamora, Mich., has identified the safety deposit boxes which were found a week ago last Sunday by Reuben Heiber just west of Chelsea, as belonging to that institution.

Identification was made through a description of the boxes sent out by the sheriff, the return description of the Metamora officials tallying identically with the boxes found here.

It is stated that the boxes contained $10,000 worth of Liberty bonds at the time they were stolen in July, when robbers forced the vault and made off with the bonds, which have never been recovered.

The distance from Metamora to the place where the boxes were found is about seventy-five miles.

She is survived by two sons, William and Charles Moore, one granddaughter, one niece and a stepister. The funeral was held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Rev. H. R. Beatty officiating. Interment at Oak Grove cemetery.

Complimentary Concert.

An interesting program has been provided. Mrs. George R. Rhead, of the piano faculty of the School of Music, will appear as soloist offering Grieg's A Minor Concerto.

Parents are also requested to refrain from bringing small children.

The concert on this occasion will consist largely of audience singing under the leadership of Russell Carter, head of the public school music department of the University School of Music, and director of music in the Ann Arbor public schools.

War Risk Insurance.

The Bureau of War Risk Insurance wishes to emphasize the importance to service men of one of the provisions of the War Risk Insurance Act upon the fulfillment of which may depend the validity of their claim to compensation under the act.

The War Risk Insurance Act provides that "No compensation shall be payable for death or disability which does not occur prior to or within one year after discharge or resignation from the service, except that where after a medical examination made pursuant to regulations, at the time of discharge or resignation from the service, or within such reasonable time thereafter, not exceeding one year, as may be allowed by regulations, a certificate has been obtained from the director to the effect that the injured person at the time of his discharge or resignation was suffering from injury likely to result in death or disability."

Many discharged men are not familiar with or are inclined to disregard this provision of law and are allowing their rights thereunder to lapse.

Request for the certificate mentioned above should be made to the Chief Medical Advisor, Bureau of War Risk Insurance, Washington, D. C.

Hunters, Keep Off Posted Farms.

Many farmers have posted their farms against hunting to protect the fox squirrels and other game. They say the squirrels ate considerable corn for them a few years ago, but the law protected the animals. They couldn't kill them and now they have going to see that no one else does.

The following from section 3 of Act 275 of the Public Acts of 1911, will be of interest:

No one shall hunt with dog or firearms or in any other manner, in any public park or public game preserve, at any time. No person shall hunt with firearms or dogs, or in any other manner, on enclosed lands of another, or upon any farm lands or farm wood lots connected therewith when notices have been posted on such lands by the owner or lessee thereof forbidding hunting thereon. No person shall deface or destroy any notices posted upon such enclosed lands, farm lands and farm wood lots in accordance with the provisions of this act.

This makes hunting with dogs or firearms on posted lands a violation of the game law. The hunter also subjects himself to an action for trespass under the general laws of the state.

COMMUNITY ORGANIZATION PLACES SMALL BREEDER ON SAME BASIS HELD BY LARGER

The Kind of Dairy Cows That a Small Farmer Can Be Proud Of.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Time was—and not so long ago—when the small farmer could not afford to breed purebred animals.

The time has come—just now, perhaps—when the small farmer can hardly afford not to breed purebred animals, and at least he should use purebred sires.

That is particularly true if his line of live stock is cows and, more particularly, if they are dairy cows, according to men in the United States department of agriculture who have given their lives to the study of dairy farming.

What has brought about the change? Principally, community organization. The small farmer who has to operate alone and unaided—as practically all of them did ten years ago—has a rocky road if he aspires to purebred stock. Now the whole situation is changed, or is rapidly changing. The small farmer does not stand alone, and he has all kinds of aids. There, to start with, is the county agent, ready to bring the accumulation of expert knowledge to bear on the problems of the small farmer. There is the county farm bureau, perhaps. There is the cow-testing association. There is the co-operative bull association. There are enough things, if they are used, to pull the community together and make it possible for the smaller scale breeder to enjoy many of the advantages formerly obtained only by the largest scale breeder.

A Land of Pure-Breds.

"Why not," inquire the dairy experts of the department of agriculture, "make the United States a purebred country, put it in the mind of the world as a purebred country?" People do not think of it that way now. Try it out with yourself. You think of the Island of Jersey, say, as simply a breeding ground for pure Jersey cows, of Scotland as the top notch in Aberdeen-Angus cattle, of Clydesdale horses, even of Collie dogs. Your picture of England is likely to be one of purebred Herefords or Shorthorns. And you have a sort of feeling of reverence toward them.

Do you think of America, from a live-stock standpoint, in that way? Of course not. You think of it as a meat-producing country, a range country, a grade-cattle country.

Both estimates are, in a manner, correct. But to the individual farmer on the Island of Jersey or in the white-face country of England or the black-cattle country of Scotland, the matter of having his animals pure bred is a matter of doing what everybody else is doing. It is easier—or, to say the least, just as easy—to do it as not to do it.

Until just now that condition never existed in the United States; it does exist now. Communities have organized and are organizing still more closely. Breeding associations are being formed with secretaries who can give help in keeping the records of all animals straight one of the things with which the small farmer operating alone has greatest difficulty. When a community organizes and starts raising purebred stock of any kind it brings a market for that kind of stock to the door of every farmer in the community. The man who operating alone, could not have sold a purebred animal for a dollar more than he could have got for a good grade animal can get the worth of every animal he raises under the community system.

Opportunity Is Here.

America has the opportunity just now to develop as a great breeding institution. South America was purebred "stuff." As an indication of how active the want is, Argentina recently appropriated $100,000 to encourage the importation of pure-breds. If the United States gets any considerable portion of the business in South America, department experts say. It must be because American animals compete successfully on final test with animals from anywhere else in the world. They see no trouble in doing that with dairy cattle where production is the test. The thing to be done is to give the South Americans what they want in dairy cattle.

There is likely, also, to be a pretty big market in France for American purebred dairy cows. The problem of supplying the demand is somewhat different from the South American problem. France wants a general-purpose cow, while the United States is the home of the specialized cow. The thing that is to be done in that case is to give France the specialized dairy cow that most nearly meets the requirements, with the hope that when her production records show up they will be so good that other Frenchmen will want other cows like her.

Big Pure-Bred Market at Home. But after all, the big market for purebred animals is at home. The same facts that apply to foreign markets ought to apply to beginners in this country. Take the man who has been operating a dairy farm with grade cows. Let him have a purebred that not only looks better than any cow he ever owned before but also produces better, and he is pretty certain to start substituting pure-breds for his grades. If he gets a poor producer, of course, he is likely to make up his mind that "the pure-bred business is mostly bunk." Community organization tends to see to it that the beginner gets a good producer, which, in turn, tends to make him a steady customer for pure-bred cows until he has placed his herd on a pure-bred basis.

Now that he can afford to do it, the small farmer should give himself the pleasure—and the actual benefit—of having dairy animals that he can be enthusiastic over.

"You never saw a man," says one of the government's dairy experts, "just boiling over with enthusiasm about grade cows. The grade-cow man may think about getting up early in the morning to work with his cows, but the pure-bred man is perfectly willing to stay up all night with them." In all of this discussion the good purebred is understood, and not a scrub purebred, for there are some of that kind.

TYPES OF BABY-BEEF COWS

Three Very Important Factors Should Be Kept in Mind in Making Proper Selection.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

In selecting cows from which baby beef is to be produced, three very important factors should be kept in mind:

1. The cows should have at least a fair amount of beef blood. Purebreds are not necessary, but two or three crosses of such breeding is essential. Cows with a preponderance of dairy blood will not do for the production of baby beef.

2. Cows best suited for this type of breeding usually weigh 900 pounds or over in thrifty breeding condition. So long as early maturity is not sacrificed, the heavier cows are the most suitable for baby-beef production. Size of frame rather than weight should govern in selecting cows which are to be used for this purpose.

3. The cows used to produce baby beefs should produce enough milk to keep the calves fat and growing without much additional feed up to weaning time.

In addition to these three factors, such things as constitution, uniformity of breeding, color, size, and early maturity should be considered.

SMALL FRUITS IN ORCHARDS

Currants and Gooseberries May Well Be Planted Among Trees and Left There Permanently.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

In gardens where the available land is limited in extent, currants and gooseberries may well be planted among the tree fruits and left there permanently. The shade of the trees protects the fruits from sun scald, and the foliage is usually healthier in such localities than when grown where it is freely exposed to the sun.

LIVE STOCK NOTES

The breeding sows should be selected carefully.

A steady, even-tempered feeder makes tame cattle.

A good ewe is an asset to the farm; a poor ewe is likely to be a liability.

Grass is nature's feed for cattle and horses with a moderate ration of grain.

A water heater will cost much less than the loss of flesh occasioned by cattle drinking ice water.

Old Cannon Ball Found in River. A cannon ball of the type made for six guns of the days before explosive shells was used in warfare was brought up from the bottom of the Mississippi river, below the high dam at St. Paul recently and is to be turned over to the Minnesota Historical society.

When a United States engineering department dredge hauled up a dipper of rock the cannon ball was found in it. How it got into the river could not be learned, for guns of that type were never put to actual test at the fort and the ammunition always was carefully guarded.

Guns that used that type of ball are now used for decorative purposes only, some of them having been given to the Minnesota Soldiers' home and others placed on the grounds of the state capital.

ARE you one of those who believe that no phonograph can match the voice of the living human? An astonishing discovery awaits you—like the hundreds of Chelseaites who attended the Glen Ellison recital.

Thomas A. Edison gave his famous Tone-Test at the Methodist church recently. He had Mr. Ellison sing in direct comparison with the RE-CREATION of his voice by the New Edison. Music lovers were completely baffled. Their ears were unable to distinguish the RE-CREATED voice from the living. You have never heard any phonograph that approaches the New Edison. It RE-CREATES not only the musical notes, but every elusive quality of tone and color which identify original artist

Saline. A communication was presented to the village council by the Saline Woman's Club requesting the council to consider the matter of providing a skating pond for the young people by flooding some suitable place within the village, where danger from deep water would be avoided. After favorable discussion it was referred to the street committee to decide on the location and make arrangements for such skating pond.

BREVITIES

Saline. Despite the fact that the corn crop early in season seemed almost a failure, Irving LeBaron husked 483 bushels of nice ripe ears from a three-acre field, not counting about fifteen bushels which were taken mysteriously from one of the piles during a single night. Saline Observer.

Pinckney. A short time ago the village council made a trip to Hazlett, a small town near Lansing, to inspect the municipal lighting plant. They were favorably impressed with the Hazlett plant and it is understood a municipal lighting plant is contemplated for Pinckney. Pinckney Dispatch.

Tecumseh. The local doctors report a real epidemic of catarrhal jaundice in this vicinity this fall. Where it was not unusual to find five or six cases of this disease in the village in a year, one physician asserts there have been over forty cases here this fall. In some families there have been three or more cases at once. There seems to be no cause for the disease. Tecumseh Herald.

Ann Arbor. Following an illness of 24 hours, Edward D. Hiseock, of Ann Arbor, died early Sunday morning. Mr. Hiseock was one of the city's most prominent business men and a well known Mason, a lifelong resident of the city. He had sustained several attacks of heart trouble Saturday at his office, but fought them off until he returned home in the evening. Mr. Hiseock would have been 63 years of age on his next birthday.

Manchester. Many farmers around River Raisin Station are engaged in drawing gravel for E. R. Smith of Clinton, who is planning to construct a dam across the river between the farms of Wilbur Hogan and Jeff Jenkins. The work of construction will begin as soon as the weather conditions permit in the spring. It is estimated that 1,000 loads will be needed. The dam will be midway between Manchester and Clinton.

Saline. A communication was presented to the village council by the Saline Woman's Club requesting the council to consider the matter of providing a skating pond for the young people by flooding some suitable place within the village, where danger from deep water would be avoided. After favorable discussion it was referred to the street committee to decide on the location and make arrangements for such skating pond.

Ypsilanti. After many anxious months the body of Edward Schaffer was found last Sunday about one mile west of Rawsonville, near the river bank, by A. Raddick and his son, Donald. He had been missing from his home since Sunday afternoon, June 22. Three days were spent dragging the river, thinking he might have been drowned. Word had been sent to and inquiries made of the recruiting offices all over the United States, but to no avail. He was born on a farm just north of Denton, 19 years ago and was noted for his sun-

Tecumseh. It develops that in the death of George Miller at the Lena-wee county poor farm recently, Michigan lost its oldest resident, this man having been 108 years of age. He had been a resident of the county's refuge for the indigent for eight years. Just previous to being taken to the poor farm he resided in a shack near Cement City. Mr. Miller was born in 1811 in Alsace, and came to this country when a young man. He settled in Hillsdale county in 1835 and was a passenger on the first train running between Hillsdale and Detroit.

Mooreville. A company has been organized for the purpose of drilling for oil at Mooreville. The main office of the new company is in Toledo, and well known farmers of the vicinity of Milan have become financially interested in the project. Several farms near Mooreville, covering over 1,000 acres, have been leased, among them being the farms of George Saffell, N. Laskey, George Kinear, W. S. Day and C. E. Culver. Another 1,000 acres will be leased and it is planned to start drilling in a very short time, as soon as all of the land has been obtained and the machinery can be placed.

Monroe. When Trinity Lutheran church at Monroe celebrated its diamond jubilee Sunday, two of its three pastors who have guided the spiritual welfare of the flock through 50 years of the church's history were present, also three of the seven surviving charter members. They are Rev. Henry Frincke, present pastor, who has filled the pulpit since June 30, 1895, and Carl Franke, judge of Monroe county, his predecessor in the pastorate from 1884 to 1895. Rev. ## Tested 250,000 Miles Three-Point Cantilever Springs Greatest Improvement Since Pneumatic Tires

OVERLAND 4 has been put through the most thorough and severe test possible.

250,000 miles of mountain trails, desert sand, heat, cold, mud and dust, demonstrated the quality of every part of the car long before we began manufacturing.

This remarkable test showed conclusively that Three-Point Cantilever Springs, exclusive with Overland, are the greatest improvement in riding comfort since the introduction of pneumatic tires.

They protect the car from road shocks and prolong the life of every part.

They enable the wheels to hold better to the road. They give greater comfort under all road conditions.

They do away almost entirely with side sway and rebound which twist and rack the car.

Diagonal attachment of the Three-Point Springs at both ends of a 130-inch Spring-base gives the steadiness and smooth riding of the heavy car of long wheelbase.

Equipment is complete from Auto-Lite Starting and Lighting System to Marshall Divan Spring Upholstery.

Come in and see this car. Ask for Booklet. Overland 4 Touring, $845; Roadster, $845; Coupe, $1325; Sedan, $1375; Prices f.o.b. Toledo.

Criticism and Citizenship

It is the plain, public duty of every citizen to criticize proposed government measures believed to be harmful.

Swift & Company is in a better position perhaps, than others, to understand the meat packing business in all its relations to public and private interests, even though the others may have been giving the subject a great deal of sincere attention.

Swift & Company is convinced that interference with its legitimate business function by governmental agencies, however well intentioned, would be an injury to every man, woman and child who wants meat to eat, as well as to the men who raise the meat and to those who dress and distribute it.

Maximum service that cannot monopolize because of keen competition and lack of control over sources of supply is furnished at a minimum of profit—a fraction of a cent per pound from all sources.

Therefore Swift & Company is taking every legitimate step of citizenship to prevent such interference.

These advertisements are intended to help you, and to help Congress decide what is best to be done. Mistakes are costly and apt to be harmful in these trying times.

A THOROUGH TEST

One to Convince the Most Skeptical Chelsea Reader.

The Test of 1900 is the Test That Counts.

Doan's Kidney Pills have made their reputation by effective action. The following case is typical. Chelsea resident should be convinced.

The testimony is confirmed the proof complete.

Testimony like this cannot be ignored.

Mrs. S. J. Trouten, McKinley St., Chelsea, says: "I suffered from backache and distressing pains across my kidneys. I had headaches and dizzy spells. My kidneys didn't act right at all and caused me a lot of annoyance. I tried several remedies without relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. I bought Doan's at Fenn's Drug Store. They relieved the backache, strengthened my kidneys and did me good generally."

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Government Refuses to Vacate Legal Proceedings Against Coal Strikers.

GOMPERS APPEAL IS IN VAIN

Operators Declare He Has Misrepresented the Facts—People's Attitude Toward Radical Labor Leadership Shown in Massachusetts Election.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD.

Firmly refusing to be put in the position of compounding a felony, the federal government has rejected the proposition of the union labor leaders that it abandon the legal proceedings against the coal strike as a preliminary to negotiations for peace.

On Saturday Assistant Attorney General Ames asked Federal Judge Anderson at Indianapolis to make permanent the restraining order, thus establishing the illegality of the strike. If this is done, according to the leaders of the miners, the strike will be of long duration because the men "will resist to the last any attempt at wrongful compulsion."

In most of the bituminous fields there was little change in the status, though operators in Colorado and West Virginia reported gains in production.

In several states the shortage of coal began to make itself felt and there were appeals for the release of coal confiscated by the railroads; a number of trains were consigned to save fuel; in some places the schools were closed for short periods.

President Wilson gave to Fuel Administrator Garfield full authority over prices, distribution and shipment of all fuel. Doctor Garfield delegated to the railroad administration his authority over distribution.

Such broadly was the coal strike situation at the time of writing. There was little sign of yielding on either side. The operators of Illinois were of the opinion that the strike would last two weeks longer and that then public opinion and the government would compel the miners to call it off and accept arbitration, in which case the operators would agree to the five-day week, if assured of adequate supply of cars, and would grant an increase of wages.

Samuel Gompers, who with W. S. Stone, head of the locomotive engineers, has been working to bring about a compromise, made the appeal for vacation of the injunction against the strike, and issued a statement designed to justify the demands made by the strikers and accusing the operators of much wrongdoing and unfairness. The latter retorted with a statement saying that Mr. Gompers' pronouncement was full of misrepresentations, continuing:

"It is not true that the operators' representatives walked out of Secretary Wilson's conference, leaving Mr. Lewis with no alternative but to call a strike. The operators' representatives accepted President Wilson's proposal in its entirety and withdrew from the conference in order that their presence might not embarrass Secretary Wilson in his effort to persuade the miners to take the honorable course thus opened to them."

"At the time of their withdrawal, the operators advised Secretary Wilson that they would remain in Washington, awaiting his call to further conference."

"It is not true, as Mr. Gompers implies, that the miners are not permitted by the operators to work full time. The operators have no control over the demand for coal. They can merely stand ready to produce and furnish it when the public requires and is willing to accept it."

1914. On the contrary, the price was reduced.

"It is not true, as Mr. Gompers states, that for the past several years the miners have averaged only 167 to 170 working days a year."

"It is a fact, however, and Mr. Gompers could easily have ascertained it—that virtually every bituminous mine in the country has on its payroll a substantial number of men who deliberately lay off from one to three days a week when they have an opportunity to work."

Samuel Gompers and his conservative associates among the leaders of the American Federation of Labor deserve commendation for their efforts to keep the radicals and anarchists from gaining control over organized labor in this country, but they are not doing their cause or themselves any good by giving their full support to such movements as the coal strike, the steel strike and the strike of Boston policemen. Public sympathy is being rapidly alienated by some of the methods adopted by union labor, and in America public sympathy is absolutely necessary to success in such matters.

That the people really are waking up to the perils of the situation was fully demonstrated in the Massachusetts election. Governor Coolidge, who had taken a firm stand against the striking policemen and had insisted on the maintenance of law and order, was up for reelection and was opposed by Richard H. Long. The latter, running on the Democratic ticket, had promised to reinstate the policemen if elected, and the contest really centered in the strike. The result, of course, everyone knows—Coolidge was returned by an overwhelming majority and the radicals, who had gathered their forces to the support of Long, were crushed.

Of the other elections of the week the most interesting was in Kentucky, where E. P. Morrow, Republican, defeated Governor Black by a large plurality and the state-wide prohibition amendment won. In New Jersey E. I. Edwards, Democrat, who ran on a wet platform, was elected governor; and Ohio voted wet on all four of the liquor propositions presented, according to incomplete returns. Maryland and Mississippi were carried by the Democrats. In New York City Tammany sustained a terrible defeat, losing ten aldermen and eighteen assemblymen besides various other offices. The Oyster Bay district sent Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt to the assembly with a whopping big vote.

President Wilson warmly congratulated Governor Coolidge on his victory over the forces of misrule, as do all good citizens regardless of party. The Republican leaders also rejoiced because they looked on the results in the Bay state and in Kentucky as a forecast of the results in the next presidential election. Democrats were elated over New Jersey, and the wets derived much comfort over the vote in that state and in Ohio.

Despite the apparent deadlock over the peace treaty in the senate, the indications are that an agreement for early final action is at hand. Secretary Tumulty arranged with the president's physicians for a visit by Senator Hitchcock to Mr. Wilson in order to lay before him the entire situation, explain the evident intentions of the majority concerning reservations and obtain the president's word as to what he would accept in that line. Over and over again Mr. Wilson has said he would accept no change in the treaty or reservation which would compel the resubmission of the pact to the other nations, and the majority senators are taking cognizance of his determination. Already they have changed the Lodge reservations by a sentence pointing out that the acceptance of the reservations by the other powers, as required by the proposed ratification resolution, may be obtained through an exchange of diplomatic notes. They also planned to strike out the fourteenth reservation, declaring the United States is not bound to submit to the League of Nations questions of vital interest or national honor.

According to Paris advices the treaty of Versailles will become effective on November 28, when the exchange of ratifications between Germany and such nations as have ratified the pact will take place. Germany has not yet fulfilled a number of the provisions of the armistice and was instructed by the supreme council to send a delegation to Paris on November 10 to sign a protocol guaranteeing to carry them out, and also to surrender certain vessels and floating docks as a penalty for the sinking of the warships in Scapa Flow.

Germany is excited over the revelations in a leading Berlin paper of a big communist plot for an uprising this winter which, beginning with strikes to cripple industry, shall end in the establishment of a soviet form of government in close association with the present bolshevik government of Russia. The conspiracy, it is said, is led and financed by Russians. The outbreak is to have its beginning in the Ruhr coal-mining district, already full of Spartacists, and Munich and Brunswick will be among the main centers of uprising. The communists believe a large part of the national defense army will desert and join their red army.

The pendulum of civil war swings back and forth with considerable regularity in Russia. At this writing it is the bolshevik that are winning. General Yudenitch and his white army of the northwest not only failed to reach Petrograd but are now said to be in a most precarious situation. The reds assert they are surrounding him, that they are receiving heavy reinforcements and that bolshevik troops are attacking him in the rear from Luga. This, however, came direct from Trotsky, and he is a notorious liar. Consideration must be given a report from Helsinki that 30,000 Finns have secretly volunteered to join Yudenitch and are well equipped. Demikhin's artillery has destroyed Derbent on the Caspian sea, and he claims the Don Cossacks in the latter part of October captured 55,000 bolsheviks. But he does not seem to be getting much nearer to Moscow. Admiral Kolchak's Siberian armies, which were defeated on the Tobol river, have retired far to the east and likely are still on the move.

The bolshevik government leaders have reiterated their willingness to make peace and to pay the old Russian debt if they are let alone.

Congress had been dawdling along in the matter of railroad legislation, but was aroused to action last week when Director General Hines informed Senator Cummins that President Wilson had determined to return the roads to their former owners on January 1 whether or not congress had passed any bill for their regulation. It was recognized as impossible to pass the Cummins bill or anything like it at this session, so work was begun at once on a temporary measure to meet the emergency and to avert a threatened financial catastrophe. It will provide for the restoration of the roads to their former owners and for continuation of the government emergency, but all controversial matters, like the anti-strike provisions of the Cummins bill, will be omitted.

General Pershing, appearing before the senate and house military committees, opposed the creation of an independent department of aviation as proposed in the New bill, but urged the concentration of authority for the proposed arm of the army, navy and post office departments.

A special army board has just made a report recommending that congress enact an aviation policy based either on a ten-year program with large annual appropriations guaranteed to stimulate commercial aeronautics, or make appropriations for air development by the post office, war and navy departments. If the former policy is adopted the board recommended that a separate department of aeronautics be created; if the latter, that a commission under the director of aeronautics reporting directly to the president be formed to co-ordinate the work.

Secretary Baker transmitted the report to the senate committee, stating that he disagreed with both the proposals. He said if a single agency were to be created, it should be appointed and controlled by the cabinet members whose departments would be directly affected.

JUDGE ANDERSON ENDS COAL STRIKE

U. S. COURT SAYS LEVER ACT IS VIOLATED BY STOPPING FUEL SUPPLY.

UNION OFFICIALS RESTRAINED

Miners May Return to Work Without Interference From Any Source.

Indianapolis—The nation-wide strike of the bituminous coal miners, inaugurated at midnight October 31, was officially ended November 11 by Judge Anderson of the Federal court here. The decision was made at the hearing to sustain the injunction filed by the government to restrain the officials of the United Mine Workers' union from authorizing the strike.

Violation of the war-time federal food and fuel control act, as alleged by the attorney general's department, was affirmed by the court, who said the strike not only was illegal but under the circumstances it approached rebellion.

Union leaders can move only toward ending the big walkout and cancel the strike call.

Although allowed an hour and a half, Judge Ames took only 35 minutes in presenting the government case. He based his argument upon President Wilson's denunciation of the strike and said the structure of the government was endangered by the defendants' violations of the fuel control law.

"This case," Judge Anderson said, in issuing the injunction, "involves solely the question of enforcing the law. It is my absolute duty to uphold the law which no one man and no body of men has the right to override. Were we to admit to even the slightest degree a contrary right, we would undermine the foundations of the republic."

Attorneys for the miners indicated that they will take the case to the United States circuit court of appeals in Chicago at the earliest possible date. Such action, however, will not affect the injunction proceedings nor the government's plan to ask that the temporary injunction be made permanent November 20. In the meantime, it is pointed out, the court's order to call off the strike must be carried out.

BIG COAL MINE IS ON FIRE

Striking Miners Assist in Saving Property From Ruin.

Bicknell, Ind.—American No. 1 mine, said to be the largest bituminous coal mine in the world which was discovered on fire has been completely sealed after workmen had toiled frantically, practically all night.

Because of the size of the mine and the value of the machinery it contained, the fire is said to be one of the most disastrous in the coal annals of the country. The mine is electrically equipped, no mule power being used in it.

Ordinarily 850 men are employed, and the mine has a capacity of 6,000 tons of coal daily. Only 21 men, including pumpers and engineers, were employed when the fire was discovered and those were rescued.

The cause of the fire had not been determined. The squad of oxygen helmet men entered the mine as soon as smoke was seen issuing from the shaft, and found the fire was close to the bottom of the mine and that the entire working would have to be sealed over. The shaft probably will have to remain sealed from two weeks to two months.

Although the employees of the mine are on strike, more than 100 gathered about the shaft as soon as the alarm was sounded and volunteered to fight the fire, as evidence, they said, that they had no connection with the fire.

INDIANS WANT BACK PAYMENTS

File Suit to Recover Payments Stopped Many Years Ago.

Washington—The Ottawa and Chipewyan tribes of Indians of Michigan are prosecuting a claim for $168,000 before the court of claims of the United States. Albert Shannaguet, of Long Point, Mich., a member of one tribe of the Chipewyan, and a delegate of both tribes, presented a letter of introduction to the officers of the court from Governor Sleeper.

The claim arose out of the alleged failure of the government to continue payment of $1,000 to each tribe after the year 1836.

It is alleged that by the treaty of 1837 the government bound itself to give each tribe $1,000 a year but in 1836, payments ceased.

Sky Flyer Killed.

Kansas City, Mo.—H. O. Eviston, a passenger in an aeroplane, was burned to death here when the plane fell 60 feet and was destroyed by fire. Strapped to his seat, Eviston, who was making the flight at the invitation of the pilot, Ben A. Sweeney, a commercial aviator, was unable to free himself. Sweeney, who had loosened his belt, jumped clear of the plane as it fell and was only slightly injured. He attributes the accident to engine trouble. The plane was from Wabash, Indiana.

THIS WEEK, NERVOUS MOTHER

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I was very weak, always tired, my back ached, and I felt sickly most of the time. I went to a doctor and he said I had nervous indigestion, which added to my weak condition kept me worrying most of the time—and he said if I could not stop that, I could not get well. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's vegetable compound that I bought a box and took it for a week and felt a little better. I kept it up for three months, and I feel fine and can eat anything now without distress or nervousness."—Mrs. J. WORTHLINE, 2842 North Taylor St., Philadelphia, Pa.

The majority of mothers nowadays overdo, there are so many demands upon their time and strength; the result is invariably a weakened, run-down nervous condition with headache, backache, irritability and depression—and soon more serious ailments develop. It is at such periods in life that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will restore a normal healthy condition, as it did to Mrs. Worthline.

EASY NOW TO SAW LOGS AND CUT DOWN TREES

Only one man, or even a boy, with the improved Ottawa Engine Log Saw can easily cut twenty-five to forty cords a day, and at a cost of less than 2c per cord. This machine, which outdoes all others, has a heavy, cross cut saw driven by a powerful especially designed 4-cycle gasoline engine. It's a fast money-maker for those using it, and does more than ten men could do, either cutting down trees, sawing logs, or buzzing branches and logs to your camp. When not sawing, the engine can be used for other work requiring power.

The entire machine is mounted on truck wheels to make it easy to move to the trees or logs, and from cut to cut on a log without stopping the engine. For moving on the snow, the truck wheels are placed parallel with the skids and the rig hauled straight ahead. The wheels turn on a two-way spindle. You do not have to take them off, but can change direction of wheel travel by merely taking out a pin.

The Ottawa can be fitted for sawing down trees. It cuts level with the surface of ground, thereby getting all the timber and leaving no stumps sticking up. An automatic friction clutch stops the saw in case of undue resistance. Two men can fall forty to fifty trees a day in ordinary timber. The whole outfit is compact, simple, durable against a lifetime of hard wear. It sells for a low price and is fully guaranteed for reliable operation in the hands of every one who has tried to cut down logs to work up.

Full information and low factory prices to you can be had simply by addressing The Ottawa Mfg. Company, 2724 Wood St., Ottawa, Kansas.

BRIVITIES.

Monroe—When Trinity Lutheran church at Monroe celebrated its diamond jubilee Sunday, two of its three pastors who have guided the spiritual welfare of the flock through 75 years of the church's history were present, also three of the seven surviving charter members. They are Rev. Henry Frincke, present pastor, who has filled the pulpit since June 20, 1895, and Carl Franke, judge of Monroe county, his predecessor in the pastorate from 1884 to 1895. Rev. George William Hattstaedt, who founded the church and directed its activities for 40 years from 1844 to 1884, is not living.

Jackson—Just why five cases of butter weighing 50 pounds each should be returned to the Elmer Creamery Co. at Devereaux after it had been gone for several days cannot be learned, but men of the sheriff's office and a stockholder of the company living in Jackson believe that a troubled conscience is the cause. The butter was taken by the thieves Monday night. Efforts to trace them were unavailing. Imagine the surprise of Frank Martin, in charge of the creamery, to find the five cases Friday morning in the same position they had been when he last saw them Monday. None of the butter had been removed.—Jackson News.

Coldwater—The age of miracles is not past yet, as Mr. and Mrs. John Ambrose proved by escaping death when a New York Central west bound passenger train hit their auto and carried it several rods down the track on the pilot of the locomotive. The auto was so badly damaged it will not make even good junk. When the train halted at the station the engineer didn't know he had hit an auto, and was greatly astonished to find his involuntary passengers. When released from their perilous perch, after a wild ride, during which Mrs. Ambrose's head was only a few inches from the locomotive wheel, it was found that except for a few bruises, neither was hurt.
