

SEVERE WIND STORM

Does Considerable Damage to Smaller Buildings, Overhead Wiring, and Signs and Trees.

High winds Saturday afternoon did considerable damage in Chelsea and vicinity, mostly confined to smaller buildings and sheds, including chicken coops, garages and like out-buildings, telephone and electric light wiring, etc., aggregating into a considerable loss. Many fine apple and other fruit trees were destroyed.

In Chelsea the front doors and a corner tower of the Catholic church were damaged, several chimneys were blown down, windows in several residences were blown in, and trees were blown down. The heavy oak front door of the Crescent hotel was whipped open so violently that it was split in two pieces and ruined. Electric lights in the eastern part of town were off all the evening.

The D. J. & C. electric interurban car service was stopped and not resumed until Sunday morning, inconveniencing a number of Chelseaites who were in Ann Arbor or Jackson.

At Cavanaugh lake the Frank Newton and Warren McDaniels boat houses were wrecked and the front porch and chimney of the Bacon cottage were blown away.

It is said that the storm was especially severe south of Chelsea, and at Iron Creek the barns of Frank Trolz, Mrs. George Valentine and Will Martin are reported blown down. Several windmills were wrecked, it is said.

CHRISTMAS SEAL TIME

Campaign Now On For Their Sale In Washtenaw County.

As in years past, the Business Girls' club of Ann Arbor will again sell the Red Cross Seals for Washtenaw county. In 1918, the last year that these seals were sold, this club realized from its sale, $424.12 for the State of Michigan and $1055.36 for Washtenaw county. With your help they expect to do even better this year, and with the co-operation of all the people in Washtenaw county, to save some of the lives which would otherwise be taken by tuberculosis.

What Tuberculosis Does.

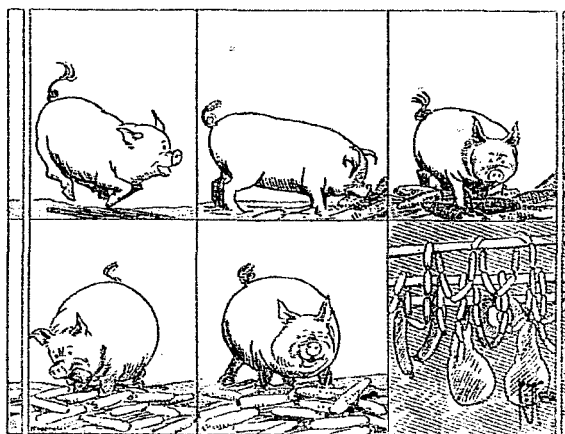

Tuberculosis kills producers—chiefly men and women between the ages of 15 and 45.

It claims workers—active men and women in the homes, the office and the shop.

It causes 150,000 deaths in the United States every year.

It costs the United States in economic waste alone about $500,000,000 annually.

The End of a Perfect Day

More than 1,000,000 persons in this country are suffering from active tuberculosis right now.

It menaces every community, every home and every individual.

And yet tuberculosis is curable and preventable.

It is spread largely by ignorance, carelessness and neglect.

The National Tuberculosis Association and its 1000 affiliated state and local organizations wage a continuous, winning war on tuberculosis.

The work of these organizations is financed chiefly by the sale of Red Cross Christmas Seals.

Drive the menace of tuberculosis from your door.

CHELSEA BOY HEAD NEW CURTIS AEROPLANE BRANCH

Has Charge of Headquarters of Curtis Southwestern Aeroplane Company At Waco, Texas.

George N. Belser, a former Chelsea boy, has recently been sent to Waco, Texas, by the Curtis Southwestern Aeroplane Co. to open a branch office, hangar and aeroplane service station in that city. Regarding the new office, the Waco News-Times of November 21st says:

"Waco is to be made headquarters of one of the main branches of the Curtis Southwestern Aeroplane company. This institution will place one of its representatives, George N. Belser, here, will sell aeroplanes, establish a service station for aeroplanes which will be passing this way, sell gasoline and supplies of all kinds, and make repairs. A big hangar will be secured at Rich field, or one will be built.

"This was the statement made Thursday afternoon to the chamber of commerce by Mr. Belser, who is stopping at the Raleigh hotel, and who is already in communication with the U. S. government authorities relative to securing a Rich field hangar. Mr. Belser stated, however, that in case the government is not in a position to let his people have the hangar, it will not halt plans at all, as the Curtis folk will at once put in a hangar and a service station and a sales place for the aeroplanes which will be sold here."

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Brief Items of Interest in Chelsea And Vicinity, From Nearby Towns and Localities.

JACKSON—Lowell Ford, 37, a farmer living nine miles southwest of this city, was shot and killed by his wife, Gertrude Ford, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Ford is said to have been a drug addict. Following the shooting she swallowed a quantity of carbolic acid, dying Sunday evening at a local hospital.

PINCKNEY—The Chelsea school teachers have asked for more pay and the school board is considering the matter. The Pinckney teachers received a 15% increase this fall and even at the increase, are not drawing as large salaries as are some of the Putnam rural teachers. The teaching profession is very poorly paid and no wonder the teachers are leaving for other fields of labor where they can get better pay.—Dispatch.

YPSILANTI—Elias Policht, aged 11 years, of Chelsea, was locked up early Wednesday morning by Deputy Sheriff Elliott, who found him wandering on the streets. The lad ran away from St. Frances' home for boys in Detroit, and was making his way back to Chelsea. He is considered to be the worst juvenile criminal in Washtenaw county by officers, having been caught in a number of larceny cases. While in the detention room at Ann Arbor he is said to have taken $10 from one of the prisoners. Officials are at loss to know what to do with him as he cannot be sent to the reform school until he is 12 years of age. Deputy Sheriff Elliott took him to Ann Arbor, Wednesday.

WISE OLD SPIDER.

A superstitious subscriber who recently found a spider in his paper, wants to know if it is considered a bad omen. Nothing of the kind. The spider was just looking over the columns of the paper to see what merchants were not advertising so that it could spin its web across the store door and be free from disturbance.

SCOUR TOWN FOR TALENT.

Selections for the various roles in the cast of "Oh, Oh, Cindy!", the big musical comedy which is to be staged here under the auspices of the American Legion, have been progressing rapidly. Chelsea is being scoured for the best available dramatic and musical talent, and, from the success reported by the talent committee, the show promises to be the best of its kind ever put on here.

The professional director is expected here about December 5th, at which time actual rehearsals will begin.

Prominent Women Testify

Hillsdale, Mich.—"I am giving this testimony regarding the merits of Dr. Pierce's medicines from the actual use of them and the good they have done me. I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for feminine trouble and it cured me in a very short time. I have also taken Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The doctor once heard my troubles with caution and they would not heal up; they would bleed, and 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured me when nothing else seemed to do any good. I have also used Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. I cannot say too much in praise of Dr. Pierce's medicines; they are all good."—Mrs. SARAH CULVER, 72 St. Joseph St.

HEALTH RESTORED

Mr. Knight Was Down With Kidney Complaint; Found Doan's the Remedy Needed.

"Kidney trouble put me in a bad way," says Thomas A. Knight, Retired Insurance Agent, 624 N. Ninth St., East St. Louis, Ill. "It came on with pain across my back and the attacks kept getting worse until I had a spell that laid me up. Myrine was the only relief and I couldn't move without help. The kidney secretions were scanty, painful and filled with sediment. I was unable to leave the house, could not rest, and became utterly exhausted. The only way I could take ease was by bolstering myself up with pillows. For three months I was in that awful condition and the doctor said I had gravel. Doan's Kidney Pills brought me back to good health and I have gained wonderfully in strength and weight."

COAL BREACH IS WIDENED AGAIN

MINERS REFUSE TO ACCEPT OFFER OF FUEL ADMINISTRATOR GARFIELD.

ALL OPERATING AGAINST IT

No More Conferences Unless Government Takes Firmer Grip On Situation.

Washington.—An abrupt end has come to all attempts to settle the nationwide coal strike by peaceful agreement.

Miners and operators spent a bleak afternoon in embittered debate over the government proposal for a 14 per cent wage increase, made by Fuel Administrator Garfield, rejected it and every other proposal that was forthcoming, and then dissolved, sine die.

Participants went home and where the break left coal strike conditions no one of them, miner nor operator, would say. Likewise, in official quarters, there was silence.

Acting President John L. Lewis, of the mine workers, though refusing to say one word as to the strike itself, which theoretically was called off in obedience to federal court injunction holding it a violation of the Lever act, for war-time food and fuel control, acceded the government roundly at the conclusion of the conference. So did William Green, secretary of the mine workers.

Operators, though accepting the government proposal definitively, in a letter of explanation to Dr. Garfield which they made public, intimated that the government refusal to allow price increases would bear reconsideration.

It was behind closed doors that the coal situation reached its climax, after involving the full attention of the federal government for two days previously.

The pronouncement of Fuel Administrator Garfield, speaking for the government, was:

1. No increase will be permitted in the price of coal.

2. Miners are entitled to an average wage increase of 14 per cent to make wages conform with an increase of 7.8 per cent in the cost of living since 1913.

"The miners will not return to work on a 14 per cent basis," said Edward Stewart, president of the Indiana district, council of the United Mine Workers' union.

"This proposition, if carried out, will break, will completely ruin many operators who are too old to start anew," said P. H. Penna, of the operators' association. "Many mines will have to close down."

"If this 14 per cent increase is the offer of the government, we'll go home and fight it out a while," said President Howat of the Kansas district council of miners.

"I can see no hope of a settlement," said President Thomas T. Brewster of the operators' association of the central competitive field and chairman of the conference.

In explaining his pronouncement on the wage question, Garfield declared it is not a mandate from the government. He emphasized, that the part of the proposal denying an increase in the selling price of coal is a mandate. Coal now is selling at prices fixed by the government in October, 1917.

U. S. POTENTIAL ARMY.

Washington.—A final study of the selective draft records just made public fixes the "military strength of the United States at 19,000,000 in potential military man power.

Registrations for the draft, between the ages of 18 and 45, totaled 23,908,576, almost 80 per cent of whom were listed as "physically fit for military service."

The medical reports indicated at the zone where men were found most healthy runs through the center of the country, from north to south. States in this belt showed the smallest percentage of physical disqualifications for active service.

DRASTIC LAWS ARE PROPOSED

State will Regulate Price of Food, Clothing and Rents.

Lansing.—Enactment of legislation to permit municipalities to engage in the retail sale of prime necessities, an anti-waste law, limiting of the profits on necessities with severe penalties for violations, state market and fair price commissions, establishment of state-owned warehouses by constitutional amendment and the curbing of profiteering in rents of city dwellers are some of the things included in the tentative legislative program decided upon to check living costs.

With this program determined it follows that Governor Sleeper will be asked by the prosecutors to call a special session of the legislature, probably early in January.

The issuance of bonds by the state to a limited amount to finance the warehouse plan would be provided for by constitutional amendment, to be passed at the special session of the legislature if held, and submitted to the voters at the general election in November, 1920, it is proposed at the conference.

A law to limit the rate of return on rental property for the protection of the tenant also was decided upon.

As finally outlined, this law will empower cities and villages to create commissions to hear and determine the fair value of rental properties, fix a fair rate of return, which action would be subject to appeal to the courts.

These bills will be prepared at once by the attorney general's department and drafts of them sent to each of the ten members of the prosecutor's legislative committee. A week from that time there will be a meeting of the full body at which the proposed legislation will be taken up and then it will be submitted to a meeting of all the prosecutors of the state in Lansing. After final action by the prosecutors the matter of a special session to be held early in the next year will be taken up by them with Governor Sleeper.

MEXICO REFUSES TO YIELD

Says U. S. Consul Has No More Standing Than Ordinary Mexican.

Mexico City.—The Mexican foreign office handed to the American embassy a note declaring Mexico cannot accede to the request for release of William O. Jenkins, American consular agent imprisoned in Puebla for alleged conspiracy with the bandits who recently kidnapped him.

The note, which was in reply to a demand by the American state department, declared the case was in the hands of the local authorities and that the constitution forbids the president to interfere in the affairs of the various states.

Jenkins will be released as soon as he gives bail, which has been fixed at 1,000 pesos (about $500), the note said. The demands of the United States have no basis in international law, it was contended. It was pointed out that an American should expect no more rights in Mexico than a Mexican enjoys in the United States. Americans in Mexico receive the same privileges and protection as Mexicans, it was said.

Candy Not a Weapon.

Louisville, Ky.—In the case brought against Miss Elizabeth Young, a woolen mills striker, charged with assaulting William Patton, a foreman, with a sackful of chocolate drops, the court ruled that candy is not a deadly weapon. The case was dismissed.

Lost Her Cure.

Chicago.—Mrs. Emma Gnacinski, with a speck of radium around her ankle for a cure, took a bath at St. Mary's hospital. She forgot to take off the precious anklet, and when she pulled the plug down went the radium, worth $12,000.

Heroism Rewarded.

Youngstown.—Elmer Flickington, of Columbiana, Ohio, is $169,000 richer because he saved the life of a Montgomery, Alabama, woman two years ago. Flickington, while a private in the Thirty-seventh (Ohio National Guard) division in training at Camp Sheridan, rescued the woman in a runaway accident. He was notified that, by the woman's will, letters of mining rights had been given to him.

UNUSUAL HAPPENINGS AND OTHER BRIEF NEWS

Shipyards Open. San Francisco.—Shipyards of the San Francisco Bay region will re-open after having been closed since October 1 by strike conditions.

Cigarettes Cause Fire. Montreal.—Main buildings of the University of Montreal were destroyed by fire with $400,000 loss. Lighted cigarettes are thought to have been the cause.

Agitator Deported. Nashville, Tenn.—John B. Lawson, labor organizer, was seized by a crowd as he was leaving the office of his attorney, put aboard a train bound for Indiana and ordered not to return.

Girl On Trial. New York.—Frances Sulinsky, 13 years old, is on trial charged with killing Solomon Kramer, 14 months old. It is said that the girl gave poison to the baby to get revenge on the child's nurse.

Wants Damages. Houston, Tex.—Claiming $8,612,057 as "consequential damages" because of the taking over of its vessels during the war, the Gulf Refining Co. has filed suit in the United States Court of Claims for that amount from the shipping board.

Legislators Gully. Columbus, O.—Rep. Frank DeLanty, of Cleveland, pleaded guilty in the Franklin County criminal court to charges of alleged bribery at last winter's legislative session, in connection with the attempted passage of the Chiropractic bill.

Get Liberty Bonds. Louisville, Ky.—Cracksman broke into the Jeffersonstown, Ky., 12 miles from Louisville, and got away with Liberty bonds, war savings stamps and cash valued at from $10,000 to $50,000. Efforts to reach the vault containing the safe with the bank's funds were fruitless.

Australia Suffers.

London.—Indications of losses to stockmen and farmers in Australia because of the drought are given by the Daily Mail. Of 27,000 sheep on one farm, only 5,000 have survived, while on another farm 6,000 sheep have dropped to 1,100 and elsewhere 80,000 head of beef cattle have dwindled to 15,000.

Quick Justice.

Le Mars, Ia.—Pete men who escaped from the County Jail after fatally shooting William Maxwell and seriously wounding his father, Sheriff Hugh Maxwell, were the next day on their way to serve life sentence in the penitentiary at Ft. Madison. The men were recaptured and indicted on a charge of first degree murder.

Wants More Pay.

Ann Arbor.—Professors and instructors of the University of Michigan appealed to the board of regents for relief from the increased cost of living in the form of salary increases. Professors pointed out that the 25 per cent increase granted them last spring is inadequate to meet a 90 per cent increase in the cost of living.

More Air Service.

Washington.—Extension of the New York-Chicago postal air service to Omaha by Dec. 15 and placing in service within a week of new twin-motor mail machines capable of carrying 60,000 letters—the average 24-hour accumulation of mail in New York for Chicago—has been announced that the service soon may be extended to San Francisco.

Wants Reserve Workers.

Washington.—Organization of a "railroad army reserve force" under the secretary of war to operate the railroads in time of emergency was proposed in a bill by Senator Thomas Democrat, Colorado. It would comprise 200,000 trained railroad operatives between 18 and 30 years of age subject to call by the government. The bill proposes joint state and federal training for the recruits.

Dead Three Times.

Toronto, Ont.—Although military authorities notified his wife three times that George Lee, her husband, had been killed in action, and sent her a death certificate dated October 16, with a message of sympathy, the "officially dead" soldier has been attending a vocational training class and his tuition fee is being paid by the government vocational training course at the technical school.

March Wants Big Army.

Washington.—The opinion of the army general staff is that a peace-time army of 500,000 men is the minimum necessary to care for the national interest. General March, chief of staff, declares, correcting an interpretation of his annual report, which placed the minimum at 250,000. General March emphasized that he never had changed his estimate of 500,000 as the smallest upon which to rest the military power of the United States.

900 FLU CASES REPORTED TO HEALTH SERVICE

Washington dispatches state that there were over 900 flu cases reported to the public health service last week. This is an increase over the previous week, and as cold weather draws near authorities are worried.

A recent public health report says: "City officials, state and city boards of health should be prepared in event of an recurrence of the flu."

Even if one recovers from the flu, the after effects are terrible. The only sure thing to do is to prevent the flu. Influenza can be prevented; last year's results prove that. It is important that a good remedy should be used frequently. Turpo is an effective germicide, combining the old-fashioned remedies of turpentine (which has for years been known as the best home remedy), camphor-methylol and pure mineral base. As a preventive for flu, Turpo has been a pronounced success.

Sniff a little Turpo up the nostrils several times a day, and the flu germs will have little chance of getting a lodging and breeding place. Many physicians and hospitals use and recommend Turpo.

The fact that more than nine hundred cases of influenza have been reported to the United States Health Service makes it important that you prepare now. Buy a thirty cent jar of Turpo of your druggist now while he has a supply on hand, and use as directed.

If in spite of all precautions influenza develops, go to bed and summon a physician. Influenza is a serious malady, and requires the best medical attention.—Adv.

Liked It.

Four-year-old Johnnie was in the habit of annoying his neighbor by standing on the register and shuffling his feet. One day the neighbor, in his desperation, grabbed Johnnie and lifted him roughly from the register, whereupon Johnnie exclaimed: "Do it again, doctor. I thought I was dying."

Some Kickers.

"Some men pride themselves on being great kickers," remarked the Observer of Events and Things, "and they never will concede that the mules are their superiors."

USE OF EVERGREENS.

The use of evergreens at Christmas time is older than the Christmas tree. The Christians seem to have copied it from their pagan ancestors. In a very old book we find this reference to the use of evergreens at Christmas time: "Against the feast of Christmas every man's house, as also their parish churches, were decked with holme, ivy, bayes, and whatsoever the season of the year afforded to be green. The conduits and standards of the streets were likewise garlished;

among which I read that in the year 1414, by tempest of thunder and lightning, toward the morning of Candlemas day, at the Leadenhall, in Cornhill, a standard of tree, being set up in the midst of the pavement, fast in the ground, nailed full of holme and ivy, for disport of Christmas to the people, was torn up and cast down by the malignant spirit (as was thought), and the stones of the pavement all about were cast in the streets and into divers houses, so that the people were sore agast at the great tempest."

The Spirit of Unrest

Reaction from the stress of war, the High Cost of Living, and the disturbed conditions in industry throughout the world have combined to lower the morale of workers in many lines.

In the factory, in the mill, the high degree of pep and enthusiasm is lacking and production lags. Even domestic service has caught the contagion, as every housewife knows.

We think the claim none too broad that employees of the Bell System have been less affected by the spirit of unrest than the majority of other workers. Yet its effects have been felt and will continue to be felt until the world begins to swing back to normal.

The telephone management is doing all in its power to remedy conditions and restore service to pre-war standards. It asks the patience and co-operation of the telephone users.
