

CHELSEA HONORED HER SOLDIER DEAD

Ideal Weather and Excellent Program
Combined In Making Impressive Tribute To Warriors.

Ideal weather conditions prevailed in Chelsea, Sunday, and combined with a general public spirit and an excellent program to pay tribute to the memory of those men who have served the country in her time of need—the heroic soldier dead.

The general arrangements for the day were in charge of the American Legion and a large part of the work fell upon the shoulders of Dr. A. A. Palmer, the Legion commander.

The exercises were held in the open air beneath the stars and stripes floating from the municipal flag-pole at Main and Middle streets, where a speaker's stand was erected and chairs from the town hall placed on the pavement, provided for the comfort of the large audience.

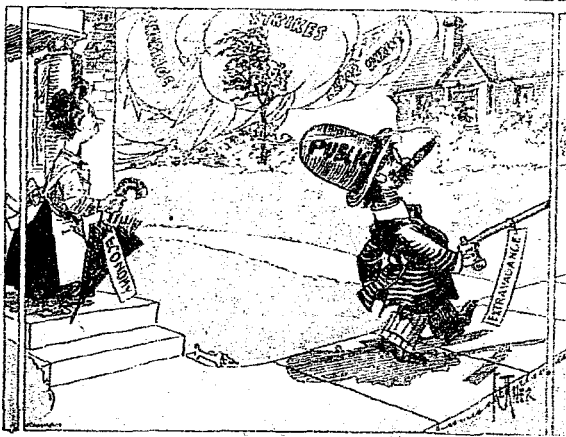

The music for the occasion was furnished by children from both the public and parochial schools, and by the Chelsea band, which made its first public appearance of the year, under the leadership of Wesley Smith. Herbert Schenk acted as chief marshal and was assisted by Messrs. J. C. Webster and W. K. Guerin. H. D. Withers was chairman and the program was as follows:

Music—Chelsea Band.
Invocation—Rev. H. R. Beatty.
Remarks—H. D. Withers.
Music—Public school pupils.
Address—"The Privileges of Citizenship"—Prof. Charles McKenny, President of State Normal college.
Music—Parochial school children.
Benediction—Rev. F. W. Dierberger.

The Excellent Address.
Prof. McKenny said in part: It is a great privilege to live under the stars and stripes—to be an American citizen. Were it the French flag that is floating over us today we would be living close to a hostile country, just over the line. We have no fear from our neighbor, Canada, and our relations have been friendly for many years. True, we had a "scrap" in '76 with England, but that does not imply that we are now hostile. We are compelled to acknowledge the greatness of England as a mother country and the peace and progress of her Colonies. England has made mistakes, but she has been in the governing business for a thousand years. We, too, have made mistakes in a few hundred years of governing. The future greatness of our country depends upon the Young American and the education we can give him. If we are to have a successful and illustrious nation tomorrow we must look after the education of Young America today.

corps presented the American Legion with a beautiful silk flag. Mrs. J. Bacon making the presentation speech and Emory Patterson receiving the flag for the Legion.

The line of march then formed, automobiles being provided by obliging citizens for the Civil war veterans and members of the W. R. C. Many of the local lodges joined in the march to Oak Grove and Mt. Olivet cemeteries, where the usual exercises, including a brief address by Rev. Dierberger, were held; concluding with music by the band, and taps.

WILL EXTERMINATE ALL UNTAGGED DOGS

Tax On Canines Must Be Paid By June 15th Or County Officials Will Go Gunning For Pets.

Sheriff Paek is calling attention to the new law which was recently passed relative to the collection of dog taxes. This law provides that a census shall be taken by the supervisors when assessments are made on the real estate of the townships and villages. Blanks are provided which give a record of the owner or keeper of the dog, markings and age. These blanks must be properly filled out and sent to the county treasurer.

Before June 15th every supervisor must report his list of dogs to the county treasurer, who then compares these lists with the list of dogs upon which a tax has been paid and in that way any delinquent dog tax is revealed. A list of the delinquent taxes is then sent to the sheriff whose duty it is to kill the animals not properly supplied with tags. The prosecuting attorney is also provided with a list of the owners who have failed to pay tax and he is obliged to commence the necessary proceedings against the owners of the dogs.

Dogs are taxable as soon as they are four months old. Therefore, if a dog should become four months old by July 1st, the tax would be one-half of the entire year tax. All dogs must have a tag and wear it, except hunting dogs when they are out hunting and accompanied by the owner or keeper. If a dog has lost its tag, it is not necessary for the owner to repay its tax, but to go before a notary public and have an affidavit made to the effect that the dog tag has been lost and another will be provided.

The act provides, also, that any person may kill any dog which he sees pursuing, worrying or wounding livestock and there shall be no liability on such person in damages for the killing. Any dog that enters any field or inclosure, outside of an incorporated city or village, unaccompanied by its owner shall be termed a public nuisance and may be killed while in the field.

Any person or police officer violating or refusing to comply with this new law is liable to a fine not exceeding $100 or to imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding three months, or both fine and imprisonment.

PIONEERS IN DEXTER.

Members of the Washtenaw County Pioneer and Historical society will convene June 8th in the M. E. church in Dexter. It was announced Saturday.

The ladies of the Dexter Methodist church will serve the luncheon at noon and a good program is being prepared for the occasion.

DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE.

We have all heard the old adage that a woman's face is her fortune, but has it ever occurred to you that the face of a movie actor is not only his fortune but his main stock in trade?

When a well known film corporation decided to produce a new version of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde it soon found that its mainstock would be to secure an actor who possessed a face which could express both the sterling manhood of Dr. Jekyll and the diabolical degradation of the odious Mr. Hyde.

Finally Sheldon Lewis' name was considered, and in three hours his name was affixed to an iron clad contract to appear as the star in the picture. That Mr. Lewis has justified the most earnest hopes of the producing company is amply borne out by the finished result.

The picture will be shown at the Princess theatre on Wednesday, June 2nd.

HAD CHRONIC BRONCHITIS FOR TWENTY-SIX YEARS NOW WELL AND HAPPY THIS IS WORTH READING

The experience of Mr. E. J. Tou-pain, 1438 Koss street, La Crosse, Wisconsin, is chiefly remarkable on account of the length of time he was afflicted.

He writes: "I have been suffering with chronic bronchitis for twenty-six years and every winter would catch cold and become so hoarse I could not speak for six or eight weeks. I could get only temporary relief.

"This winter I was taken with Grip and was in awful shape. A fellow workman advised me to take PE-RU-NA. By the time I had used three-fourths of a bottle, the hoarseness was gone, also that tired feeling. I am on my second bottle. Hereafter PE-RU-NA will be constantly in my house. It is the best medicine ever put up for the purpose.

For any disease due to catarrh or catarrhal conditions, PE-RU-NA is equally dependable. Coughs, colds, catarrh of the head, stomach trouble, constipation, rheumatism, pains in the back, side and loins, bloating, belching gas, indigestion, catarrh of the large and small intestines, are some of the troubles for which PE-RU-NA is especially recommended.

PE-RU-NA can be purchased anywhere in either tablet or liquid form.

DEATH WAS NEAR
Florida Woman in Critical Condition From Dropsy, But Doan's Brought Recovery

"Dropsy brought me right down to the shadow of the grave," says Mrs. Ida H. Atwell, 94 William St., Key West, Fla. "For fifteen years I was a hopeless wreck, struggling between life and death. The price was so severe in my back I screamed in agony. My head ached so severely I thought my skull was being crushed. Black specks floated before my eyes, and I had to grasp the bed to keep from falling.

"The kidney secretion had become so thick and soiled and I could pass only a few drops at a time. My back ached. The pressure of so much water on my chest almost smothered me. My feet were swollen and large and I could not wear my shoes. My stomach was aching and I was so weak I could not get out of bed. I became a nervous wreck.

"I found out about Doan's Kidney Pills and I felt so happy when I found they were so good. I had heard that Doan's Kidney Pills were the best. I bought a box and I was so weak I could not get out of bed. I became a nervous wreck.

New Order of Outdoor Clothes

THE chic young woman whose picture is just above, could rise and stand, we would probably ask her to turn slowly around, and let us sum up the details of her perfect costume. It is an example of the new order of things in outdoor summer dress—elegant and informal—an evolution that retains only a flavor of sport styles in street dress. It is spirited but quiet, and possesses both vivacity and dignity.

The suit, consisting of skirt and smock, may be imagined in linen, or in suitable silk weaves or in certain cottons, linen having the preference. Its long smock is set off by groups of tucks with an embroidered band between them, all done with unobtrusive neatness. Elbow sleeves make one wonder that anything else was ever tolerated for summer weather, and whatever the material used, four flat pearl buttons find a place on these turned-back cuffs. The smock is split and turned back at the throat.

with an embroidered sailor collar set on. This arrangement makes place for a dainty vestee of tucked organdie. A very heavy cord, ending in a single big tassel, disappears of the waistline in the best manner possible.

Above this smart suit there rests, on the lady's clever head, a smart sport hat with soft crown and rolling brim, trimmed with an embroidered motif applied at one side. Over this she is prepared to carry a parasol that does her judgment credit. It is made of stripes of silk joined and gathered to the frame and is bordered with velvet ribbon. There are gay butterflies embroidered on it and its general make-up proclaims fair Japan as its inspiration and perhaps its home. Altogether this costume is worth studying. It is a type that grows in favor, and is worn by matrons and maidens to advantage—it has a trick of outwitting time by a few years anyway, for it makes its wearer look younger.

Veils Are More Than Kindly

ASIDE from the beauty of a well-selected veil, there is the item of neatness to recommend the universally-worn face veil. This is so well appreciated that some women declare they do not feel themselves completely dressed for the street without a veil. Besides keeping the hair from being disarranged they do wonders for the complexion and eyes, but, like hats, they must be selected with discrimination.

Manufacturers make the becomingness of face veils a constant study and their elaboration with odd figures, to add interest and vivacity, reveals a world of ingenuity. Dots used to be the story of their embellishment, but now everything on the face of the earth appears to lend suggestion to the veil makers.

Just at this time veils with rather large mesh of soft, but heavy threads, seem to be favored. The mesh appears in oblongs, hexagons, squares, diamonds, circles and irregular forms, so that the individual may call her own fancy in this regard, providing it lights upon the most flattering weave. The heavier weaves are chosen by younger women as a rule and only for those who the eccentric fashions introduced on the mesh, sometimes in widely scattered spaces, and sometimes only in one place. Older women find the veils made of fine threads better suited to them and they wear the larger, flowing veils to great advantage. These are very much in evidence at present, some of them having scalloped edges and borders in floral patterns with a dash of dustiness in silk on the mesh.

Veils should be tried on where there is plenty of daylight and viewed from all angles. The group pictured here shows a variety of weaves and sizes—but a single picture cannot do more than suggest the really marvelous number of patterns which lend their aid to beauty.

Linen Bedspreads.
Hand-embroidered linen bedspreads ample enough to cover the bed, pillows—and dresser scarfs to match, are exquisitely dainty for the boudoir. Some of them are made of dimity and voile, but the majority are of a fine, firm quality of linen unexcelled for its laundering qualities. A voluminous spread may be made from five and three-quarters yards of linen divided into three lengths. An additional yard and a half will make two dresser scarfs. This material allows for wide hem, which should be double hemmed, with the initial embroidery in the center, plain or in an artistic scroll.

Newest Blouses in Black.
Some of the new blouses have been developed in black this season. Black lace and net are used for elaborate blouses of knee length, with skirts of satin or silk. Many are made of black georgette or crepe de chine. Black cotton blouses are also very smart. Black organdie waists are trimmed with collars of white organdie, while black dotted Swiss blouses have collars of white batiste or organdie.

THIEF HAD LOOT WORTH $500,000

Kept Card Index of Victims and Took Nothing but the Very Best.

Chicago—Seven hundred robberies, whose loot is believed to total more than $500,000, were cleared up when police examined the effects of Harry J. James, "Silk Stocking" burglar, who was killed after "shooting up" the Town hall police station, wounding two patrolmen. James' real name was James J. Harrison, and his home was Philadelphia.

In James' private warehouse, where truckloads of rare art works, oriental rugs, jewels, typewriters, adding machines and dozens of other articles were found, police uncovered a card index in which the loot robberies were listed, with the loot obtained.

Another section of the card file listed "prospects" and the wealth of data about each indicated that James had used an electric light inspector's card, found in his pocket, to gain entry to the houses.

A third file listed "gold coast" automobiles, with description, license number, owner's name and "fair," "good" or "swell" to indicate the valuation.

Police also found ledgers listing loot sold, with the price obtained, and a list of pawn brokers, with the type of goods each preferred to buy.

In a secret chamber in the basement were 120 oriental rugs appraised by an expert at $40,000.

When James was killed he was found to be wearing a suit belonging to former United States Senator William Lorimer of Illinois. The suit was one of 40 stolen from a tailor shop.

WOMAN FIGHTS A BURGLAR

Member of Athletic Class in Los Angeles Gives a Good Account of Herself.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Mrs. J. B. Statter is athletic. She is one of the star members of a woman's class at the athletic club and long has been regarded as a remarkably clever amateur boxer.

Recently she encountered a burglar in her home. Instead of running from the house, screaming for the police, she took the situation in her own hands. "Mr. Burglar, you may put up your hands and get ready for what probably will be the very worst kicking you ever had." With this warning she stepped in with lightning right and left swings to the head. The burglar was groggy in a few seconds. He tried ineffectively to guard against the rain of blows. Finally, with a wicked uppercut to the point of the jaw, Mrs. Statter knocked out the burglar.

He had not come to when the police loaded him in a patrol wagon and took him to a police station.

Girl Ends Life After Playing Phonograph

St. Louis—Miss Emma L. Reed, eighteen years old, of Peoria, Ill., a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Reed of Milan, Mo., ended her life by drinking poison at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harry Dee, 5172 Kensington avenue, where she had been visiting for a week.

Mrs. Dee told the police that her sister had been playing the phonograph in the living room with her young nephew, and about 8:30 retired to her room. Shortly afterward Mrs. Dee heard means, and going to the room, found the girl lying on the bed. A physician was called, but the girl died within ten minutes. Neither Mrs. Dee nor a sister in Peoria was able to offer an explanation, both stating that the girl had been in good spirits.

GREAT "FIXER" IS LARDNER

According to Chauncey Depew, Humorist is "All to the Good" as a Diplomat.

Chauncey M. Depew is a great admirer of Hing Lardner, and delights to relate an anecdote concerning the well-known sport writer and humorist. It was at a club in Philadelphia and a certain gentleman whom the crowd was trying to entice into spending the evening there declared he could not remain because he had promised his wife he would come home.

"I'll fix it for you," said Lardner, and darted into the phone booth. Presently he emerged, shouting:

"It's all right, old chap, your wife says you can stay."

"How in the world did you manage to bring her round?" asked the amazed man.

"Easy," replied Lardner. "I told her you were coming home and should bring her home or keep you here, and she said:

"You can have him, Mr. Lardner."

His Strange Way.

"Mr. Gloom," sternly said the candidate for alderman, "I understand that you have been saying that I am so big a fool you wouldn't vote for me even if there was nobody else running."

"You are an even bigger fool than I thought," snarled J. Fuller Gloom. "If you rush around notifying people every time you happen to understand something."—Kansas City Star.

Indignant.

In the corner of a drug store which bears the sign, "W. W. Hugh & Company," the circulating library of a small town is kept.

One day Fred, aged nine, came home very indignant, after returning a borrowed book, and said he would never go to the library again because the man laughed at him.

His mother said: "Oh, no; the man didn't laugh at you. What did you say?"

And Fred replied: "I didn't say nothing. I just said: 'Mr. Hugh, I brought your book back.'"

The street taker reaps a golden harvest every time he faces a crowd that wants something for nothing.

Guests of a day never know how a husband and wife really get along together.

Age Rapidly.
"Is that a genuine antique?"

"Yes," replied the dealer.

"Why, here's a mark which indicates it was made only twenty years ago."

"We are living in a very rapid age. It doesn't take nearly so long to make an antique as it used to."

How It Occurred.

"How did you happen to meet your wife?" we asked.

"Why—er—ah—er—coincidentally. She happened to be shopping at the store."

Huge Cost of Life Insurance.
There are nearly 15,000,000 life insurance policies in existence in various companies in the United States. The annual premium payments amount to about $1,000,000,000.

FRECKLES

It sends its harmful acids and gases all over the body, instead of health and strength. Day and night this endless damage goes on. No matter how strong, its victim cannot long withstand the health-destroying effects of an acid stomach.

Good news for millions of sufferers. Chemists have found a sure remedy—one that takes the acid up and carries it out of the body; of course, when the cause is removed, the sufferer gets well.

Heartburn, indigestion, sour, acid, gassy stomach, migraines, all removed. This is proven by over half a million willing folks who have taken EATON'S with wonderful results. It can be obtained from any druggist, who will cheerfully refund its trifling cost if not entirely satisfactory. Everyone should enjoy its benefits. Frequently the first tablet gives relief.

LINER "ADS" EFFECTIVE.

One of the most effective forms of advertising is in the "liner" or classified column where a investment of a few cents is certain to give prompt results. Tribune liner ads are always run under the heading, "Wants, For Sale, To Rent," in the same position on the front page where they are easy to find and invariably catch the eye.
Only five cents the line for the first insertion, 2½ cents the line for each subsequent insertion. Next time you want to buy something, or have something for sale or rent, try a Tribune liner.

pleased to hear that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the con-its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of

WHERE WORDS DON'T COUNT

Indians Who Know Nothing of Each Other's Language Easily Converse Together by Signs.

Most of us visiting a foreign land find it difficult to make our most ordinary wants known. The red Indian has no such difficulty; the problem has a universal language was solved centuries ago. Should an Indian from Northern Alaska go to Patagonia he could, by means of this universal language, converse with his southern brethren. This would also be the case if he visited Central America or met the tribesmen of our own eastern prairies and mountains.

When the language was invented no one knows, but every Indian learns it in addition to his own. Once two chiefs of different tribes met in Washington and held a conversation that lasted nearly three hours, yet neither one knew a word of the other's language.

This universal language is, of course, made up of signs.
