Hollar-Thompson.

Dexter Leader: The marriage of Miss Margaret Ellen Hollar, daughter of Mrs. George J. Hollar, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mr. Orren Sidney Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Thompson, of Dexter, Mich., was solemnized in the home of the bride's mother, 16 Richey avenue, Pittsburgh, at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, June 2, with the Rev. J. W. Claudy, pastor of the Watson Memorial Presbyterian church officiating.

The marriage is the culmination of a romance which began in France where the groom met the bride, who was an overseas nurse in Base Hospital No. 27, at Angers, where he was sent after being severely wounded at Chateau Thierry.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will make their home in Dexter.

Finish Work at U. of M.

Two Chelsea boys will be graduated from the University of Michigan this year. Lloyd Hirth has finished the course in the dental college, and will locate in Detroit. Lloyd R. Kalmbach will be graduated as a mechanical engineer and has secured a position in the engineering department of the Cadillac Motor Co. of Detroit. Two young ladies, former residents of Chelsea, will be among the graduates from the literary department—Misses Alice Walz and Frieda Wedemeyer.

Crop Prospects Good.

While the conditions of all of the small grains in from two to five per cent below normal for the United States, the lowest condition of any of them in Michigan is only one per cent below the ten-year average. This fact, together with the prospect for a good crop of fruit of all kinds, is the encouragement offered by the June crop report issued by the Michigan Co-operative Crop Reporting Service under the direction of Coleman C. Vaughan, secretary of state, and Verne H. Church, field agent, U. S. Bureau of Crop Estimates. The average of all spring crops upon which a report has been made to date, are below normal due to the decreased rural population. The rainfall during May was very light.

R. & S. M. Meeting.

Mat D. Blosser has received word that Blanchard Council, R. & S. M., of Tecumseh will come here on Tuesday, June 22, and confer the super excellent degree for Adoniram Council, on a class of forty members. All council members here and at Chelsea and Brooklyn are anticipating a fine time. The "work" will begin at 8 o'clock but supper will be served first, probably at 5:30.—Manchester Enterprise.

HOW WARREN G. HARDING WAS NOMINATED BY THE REPUBLICANS

Story of the National Convention at Chicago, the Struggle to Build a Platform and the Selection of a Ticket.

GOVERNOR COOLIDGE GIVEN SECOND PLACE

Wood, Lowden and Johnson, Leaders in the Early Balloting, Eliminated at the Behest of a Senatorial Coterie and a Dark Horse Wins the Race.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD.

For President—WARREN G. HARDING of Ohio.
For Vice President—CALVIN COOLIDGE of Massachusetts.

There is the ticket with which the Republicans hope and intend to regain possession of the national government next fall.
For president, a man from the home state of many presidents, a statesman of long experience and solid reputation, who has been a member of the United States senate since 1914, a member of the "old guard" who stands with the Republicans who are in control of the senate.
For vice president, the governor of the Bay state, who was virtually unknown to the nation at large until the attack of Boston policemen and his vigorous course in its suppression gave him a vast amount of publicity and made him the favorite son of Massachusetts in the balloting for first place on the ticket.

These gentlemen now stand before the electors of the country on a platform that is so broad that it embraces nearly every topic and issue of the day, though there are those who assert that in some places the planks are perilously thin. Its builders, however, maintain that there is no danger of the candidates falling through the weak spots, and it may be that, with some judicious straddling and side-stepping, this will prove true.

Struggle Over the Platform.
Seldom, if ever, has the choice of a presidential candidate been so closely connected with the building of the platform—or it might be more exact to say the rejection of a candidate. For if Hiram Johnson and his supporters could have compelled the adoption of just the plank they demanded on the League of Nations issue, the Californian senator, and he alone, could with consistency have consented to go before the people standing on the platform. As it was, his threat to bolt the party caused a long deadlock in the deliberations of the committee on resolutions and at last forced the adoption of a plank based on the alleged suggestion of Elihu Root. That wise man had gone to Europe, but kept in close touch with the doings in Chicago and at the crucial moment his opinion was presented to Johnson, Borah, McCullough and the other "irreconcilables" and accepted by them.

The resolution as finally incorporated in the platform, and swallowed by the convention, almost without a quiver, completely avoids any pledge to ratify the treaty of peace and the League covenant with or without reservations, strongly indorses the action of the Republican senators in that regard and promises that the party will work for some kind of international arrangement for the peaceful adjustment of disputes between nations without the sacrifice of American sovereignty. Thus, as will be seen, the way is left open for an administration elected on this platform to do almost anything it sees fit in this regard, except to ratify a treaty and League covenant such as President Wilson brought home from Paris.

Wilson's Policies Scored.
For the rest, the platform, in brief, scores President Wilson and the Democratic administration for their unpreparedness for war and for the equally unprepared condition of the nation for the reception of peace. Denouncing the automatic assumption of authority by the president, the platform pledges the restoration of constitutional government. The Republican congress is praised for its efforts to cope with the problems caused by the president's course.

The farmers gained their requested support for extension of farm loans and the right to engage in co-operative marketing and buying.
The industrial plank was the subject of much discussion. Some of the committee members, presumably speaking for the big business, favored a plank for the prevention of strikes by law. Governor Allen and others wanted the Kansas industrial court plan indorsed. And President Compers traveled all the way to Chicago to tell the co-operative Federation of Labor demanded.

Some of these requests were satisfied, but the plank adopted recognizes the practice of collective bargaining and continues:
"The strike, or the lockout, as a means of settling industrial disputes, subjects such loss and suffering on the community as to justify government initiative to reduce its frequency and limit its consequences."
"We deny the right to strike against the government; but the rights and interests of all government employees must be safeguarded by impartial laws and tribunals."

On Economy and H. C. of L.
The failure of the administration to retrench during the post-war period and the addition of thousands of swivel chair warmers are derided and the party pledges itself to a policy of economy and a carefully planned readjustment. The need of an executive budget and condemnation of the presidential veto that defeated this financial reform was coupled with caustic characterization of the manner in which the president, according to the Republicans, clings to his wartime powers. Revision of taxation also is demanded.

Coming to the great issue of the high cost of living, the committee drew up a declaration to the effect that the present conditions are the result of an inflation of the currency and of credit which the party pledges itself to correct by deflation, the prevention of unreasonable profits and the stimulation of private thrift by a change in the income tax law. The party reaffirmed its belief in the protective tariff, and pledged the encouragement of an American merchant marine by the application of the workman's compensation act and the exemption from canal tolls of the merchant marine.

Protection was condemned, government ownership of railways opposed, waterways encouraged and the regulation of industry and commerce promised in order to prevent monopolies. Resumption of trade relations with every nation with which America is at peace was pledged. No changes were promised in the existing immigration laws, but the bettering of naturalization laws was pledged, and the party went on record as favoring a policy by which American women who marry foreigners shall not lose their citizenship. The government's authority to deport and exclude undesirable aliens was upheld, but assurance was given that the rights of free speech, free press and free assembly will not be abridged.

Mrs. Warren G. Harding.

What They Said of Mexico.

A large number of minor topics were handled in the platform, and then came the plank on Mexico. It dealt very severely with President Wilson's policy and pledged that the party will not recognize any Mexican government unless the lives and property of Americans there are protected. America came next in the list of planks. Deep sympathy was expressed for the Armenians, but the president was condemned for asking for authority to accept an Armenian mandate and it was added that the Republican party was unalterably against the acceptance of a mandate for any country in Europe or Asia.

The men who fought in the great war were assured of the party's deep gratitude and were promised liberal legislation for the care of the disabled, blind and dependents.

Though William Jennings Bryan was present throughout the entire life of the convention with the avowed purpose of persuading the Republicans to insert a "dry" plank in their platform, he failed—possibly because the timely decision of the Supreme court seemed to render unnecessary any explicit declaration. The convention merely declared that all laws should be enforced, and let it go at that.

Women and Irish Displeased.

Two other elements also were disappointed. These were the suffragists

WARREN G. HARDING

and the friends of the Irish "republic." The former, under the leadership of the heads of the woman's party, were in Chicago in strength and during the entire week maintained around the Coliseum a line of pickets bearing banners that warned the Republicans that the women demanded the franchise and would be satisfied with no less. A plank was inserted in the platform urging Republican legislators that have not acted to ratify the suffrage amendment, but this did not appease the ladies. In the last few moments of the last session they dropped from a balcony a great yellow banner on which was the statement that they wanted votes, not planks. As for the Irish, they, too, made a big demonstration in Chicago and De Valera, the president of their "republic" was there to deliver a speech before a great gathering. But something went wrong with the plans; and the plank which was tentatively shaped for the platform suited them so little that it was omitted entirely and nothing put in its place.

There was a story that this resolution had been drawn up by Justice Coblentz of New York in the hope that it would be unsuitable and that the Democrats in San Francisco would be enabled to take advantage of the circumstance. So, though considerable space has been given to the platform of the Republican party, it is not because it is particularly strong pronouncement. Lots of men and women in the party are far from pleased with many parts of it, and it must be confessed that the writer failed to find anyone who was crazed with enthusiasm over it.

The story of this convention would be intensely interesting if one could tell all the truth about the secret influences that governed its actions. On the surface it was not a very exciting affair, and the enthusiastic outbursts that characterized some of its sessions appeared too often to be facetious. For five days the 14,000 delegates, alternates, seat-holders and possessors of tickets that allowed them to stand about the few open places and hamper everyone else gathered faithfully in the Coliseum, prepared to howl with glee over expected contests and triumphs. But most of the time all they could do was to cheer for their favorite on occasion and try to keep up with the strong-lunged cheer and song leader who had been brought up from Camp Devens.

Bossed by Senators.

From the first it was heralded as that most unusual thing, an unbiased convention. All the experts asserted that the delegates were going to do as they pleased and that the old-time leadership was impotent. For a day or two this seemed true, but then the senate coterie got into action, and from that time to the end what was done was generally what it wished done. To start with Senator Lodge was selected as temporary chairman, and was continued permanently in the place, the entire temporary organization being retained. On the administrative committee on resolutions there were numerous senators and ex-senators, and they pretty much dictated the makeup of the platform. In the selection of the ticket their influence was seen and felt in every move and every shift of votes, clear down to the moment when Senator Harding received the ballots that made him the convention's choice. All this time the greatest of the old-time party bosses still alive, Senator Boies Penrose, lay on a sick bed in his Philadelphia home. But a direct telephone wire was run into that room and there was scarcely an hour of the day or night when he was not in communication with his friend, John T. King. He knew all that was going on, and it is fair to assume that in most cases he knew beforehand that it was going to go on. What happened, happened because he willed that it should happen. This is not written exactly in criticism, for it may be that what Penrose decreed will suit the party and result in its victory in November. But the fact cannot be blinked that some eminent Democrats who attended the convention went away with grins of satisfaction decorating their faces.

Lodge Was Too Scholarly.

To go back to the beginning again, something must be said of the keynote address by Chairman Lodge. It was one of the most scholarly efforts of its kind, and the great mass of the delegates, to say nothing of the audience, utterly failed to comprehend it. The senator did not once descend to the level of most of his hearers, and consequently he failed to arouse any great measure of enthusiasm.

It was noticeable that this address, as well as every other speech and the platform as well, devoted its denunciations to the Democratic party, as is usually the case, but to President Wilson. It was always his acts and his policies that were condemned—and the language used in dealing with him was scorching. Of course, the reason for this is that, from the viewpoint of the Republicans, Mr. Wilson has been the Democratic party for the last seven years.

The first day found three candidates in the forefront of the race for the nomination, and while the preliminaries were completed their workers were straining every nerve to have them make the best possible show on the first ballot. These men were Governor Lowden of Illinois, General Leonard Wood, and Senator Hiram Johnson of California. From their elaborate headquarters in the hotels swarms of men and women flocked to the Coliseum with banners and buttons and literature. Each of them was certain of victory—for public consumption—but each of them knew in his heart that he could not win if the senatorial bosses had their way. All the rest of the possible candidates really ranked as dark horses. They included Herbert Hoover, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia university, Gov. Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts, Senator Polk Dexter of Washington, Senator Howard Sutherland of West Virginia, Governor Sprout of Pennsylvania, Senator Philander Knox of Pennsylvania and Senator La Follette of Wisconsin. A long enough list in all conscience. From these dark horses, it was predicted, would emerge the winner, and the prophecy was fulfilled.

Routine Work, Then Oratory.

It required three days to get through with the preliminary work of the gathering and to have the platform built, read and adopted. The latter took place on Thursday. As has been said, the resolutions met with almost unanimous approval. A young man from Milwaukee was the only dissenting member of the committee and he represented a minority report that embodied many of the policies advocated by La Follette. The audience did not want to hear him and he took advantage of their impatience to try to place himself in the position of a martyr, but Chairman Lodge cleverly forestalled this, and the minority report was speedily dumped into the waste basket.

Friday was the day of oratory. Men who thought themselves eloquent and others who really were eloquent mounted the speaker's platform in procession throughout most of the day to place before the convention the names and qualifications of the candidates. In many cases women were among those who seconded the nominations, and usually they acquitted themselves much more to the satisfaction of their hearers than did the men, for they were brief, snappy and graceful of address.

On the roll call of states Arizona yielded to Kansas, and Governor Henry J. Allen stepped up to nominate General Wood. Though obviously nervous and not quite adequate of voice, he did his excellent subject full justice, setting forth especially the fine record the general had made in Cuba and the Philippines, and his preparedness for war when the great conflict broke out.

"We heard from him no platitudes about a million men springing to arms over night," cried Allen, and everyone strained for a look at Mr. Bryan, who sat in the press stand close to the speaker.

The governor went on to describe Wood's skillful training of an army and his unselfish and uncompromising devotion to duty when he was kept from going to Europe in command of the boys whom he had taught how to fight and conquer. He also recounted the general's success in quelling labor and race disturbances within the last year or so, and gazed on his popularity with the very men whom he had been sent to quiet.

Wood's Feathery Ovation.

As the governor ceased speaking a storm of applause broke out, and another storm of red and green feathers fell from the rafters all over the house. The Wood delegates marched through the aisles, led by Beveridge of Indiana and Frank Hitchcock, and the tumult continued for half an hour. "If Wood drops feathers, I suppose Johnson will drop light wines and beers from the rafters," laughed Mr. Bryan, and someone said: "Get your cup ready then, William."

The demonstration was calmed at last—really it did not seem very spontaneous—and after Frank Knox of New Hampshire had made a seconding speech, the first of the convention's women orators appeared. She was Mrs. Corinne Roosevelt Robinson of New York, sister of the late Colonel Roosevelt. With much of the colonel's fire and vim, she told why Leonard Wood should be the next president, and she told it so well that prolonged applause rewarded her efforts.

Governor Lowden's turn came next, and the honor of presenting his name was entrusted to Congressman Rodenberg of Illinois, a big man with a big voice who made an old-fashioned speech that hit the audience in the right way. He, too, had an excellent subject, whose cause was handicapped only by the revelations of excessive expenditures brought out by the senate committee at the instigation of Johnson and his friends.

Lowden's ovation outlasted that of Wood, but was no more enthusiastic. It was featured by a display of banners and portraits of the candidate and by a pretty girl in a corset sweater who was carried on men's shoulders at the head of the paraders. Lowden, too, had a woman among his seconders, Mrs. Fletcher Dobyns of Chicago, a clever politician and good speaker. Then Governor Morrow of Kentucky told why the Republicans of his state loved Lowden and wanted him for president.

Johnson's Sponsor a Failure.

Charles S. Wheeler of San Francisco had been deputed to place Senator Johnson in nomination and much was expected of him, because a reputation for fiery eloquence had preceded him. But, though his address was smooth and his voice pleasing, he scored the worst failure of the entire convention. He evoked some cheering from the galleries by a denunciation of the League of Nations, but soon after made the gross mistake of twisting the reservationists on having been worsted by Johnson in the committee on resolutions. The delegates did not relish that, nor did most of the others in the hall. Then he made an unfortunate allusion to the campaign expenditure revelations, and as those had bit most of the candidates, their friends resented it with boos and hisses. Mr. Wheeler smilingly waited for the row to cease, and proceeded to finish an address that was fully twice as long as it should have been. His poor performance cast a wet blanket on the planned demonstration, and the Californian delegates, accompanied by a few others, marched rather sadly through the aisles, listlessly waving flags.

Far better than Wheeler's was the speech for Johnson by Thomas D. Schall, the blind congressman from Minneapolis, and better, also, were the brief talks by Richard Doherty of New Jersey, Charles P. O'Neil of Michigan and Mrs. Katherine Phillips Edson of California.

Now began the parade of dark horses. They were led forth as follows: Calvin Coolidge, by Speaker Gillette of the house of representatives and Mrs. Alexander Peffer; Butler, by Ogden Mills of New York; Pritchard, by Marlon Butler of North Carolina; Hoover by Judge Nathan L. Miller of New York; Harding, by Frank Willis of Ohio; Sprout, by William L. Schaffer; Polk Dexter, by George H. Walker, and Sutherland, by Joseph M. Sanders. When Wisconsin was reached on the roll call the clerk paused expectantly, but no one appeared to nominate La Follette, and the crowd seemed grateful.

Balloting in Begun.

The powers that were decreed that several ballots should be taken that day before adjournment, and in an excited hush the call of the states was begun. The hush did not last, however, for every considerable vote for any one aspirant was greeted with the cheers of his friends.

As had been foretold, Wood led on the first ballot with 287½ votes. Lowden was second with 211½, and Johnson gathered in 133½. The others in general were recorded the votes of their home states and a few more. Of the Wisconsin delegation 24 voted for La Follette; and it may as well be recorded here that those 24 delegates kept voting for La Follette to the bitter end. And every time the announcement was greeted with groans and hisses from the galleries.

In the following three ballots Wood climbed to 334½, which the wise ones said was about his maximum strength. Lowden also increased his vote, going up to 253, while Johnson reached 140½. The votes for the dark horses did not vary to any great extent though Butler lost steadily and Pritchard soon dropped out entirely. By this time everyone was ready for a rest and the convention adjourned to Saturday morning.

The Break to Harding.

The crowd filled the Coliseum to suffocation on what was destined to be the final day of the convention, for it was felt that the conferences of the preceding night would be fruitful. The senatorial coterie had been in session many hours and the word was passed around that they had picked on Harding as the nominee. In the early ballots of Saturday the Obolans did not rain rapidly, and all were waiting for the moment when the big delegations from New York, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts would find the time ripe for a break. The men from the Keystone state had been voting almost solidly for Sprout, for the bosses were not decided between him and Harding. And the New Yorkers really did not know to whom to throw their strength.

Johnson's vote dwindled gradually, and then the Lowden column suddenly began to go to pieces. He was really the victim of the shift, for the Wood delegations stood by the general almost to the last moment. On the ninth ballot it was seen that Harding could be "put across," so the uncertain ones clinked into the band wagon on the tenth and gave the Ohio senator a grand total of 674½, which was 181½ more than necessary to nominate.

The hubbub was deafening and after Pennsylvania put 60 votes in the Harding column the clerks could scarcely complete the roll call. At its finish the usual motion to make the choice unanimous was made, but those 24 La Follette men from Wisconsin voted in the negative and marred the love feast.

Coolidge Gets Second Place.

There still remained the task of selecting a vice presidential candidate. Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin, Governor Allen of Kansas, Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts and Col. Harry Anderson of Virginia were placed in nomination and the roll of the states was called. Lenroot received a good vote, but Coolidge was the evident favorite and long before the roll was completed his nomination was assured. The 24 La Follette men voted for Senator Gorman.

With some difficulty Chairman Lodge, whose voice was gone, managed to hold the delegates together long enough to pass the usual resolutions of thanks to the officials of the convention and to the city of Chicago, and then the republican convention of 1920 came to an end.

Convention Well Handled.

The management of the convention hall really deserved thanks, for the seating, the policing and the other arrangements were the best ever seen in such gatherings. The Coliseum was handsomely decorated and well lighted and the comfort of the delegates and guests was as well looked after as could be expected. Of course the usual swarm of sergeants at arms was present, clogging up the aisles and getting in the way of the workers, but that is inevitable, for the distribution of those badges is a perquisite of the local Republicans. It was no worse this time than usual. The doors were in charge of a force of ex-service men under the command of General Ryan, and their work was done with military efficiency.

Everyone had good things to say about the music supplied by Johnny Hand's band, which was stationed in a lofty little gallery. On occasion it was led by John Hand third, a sturdy chap in brilliant uniform who used the baton presented to his father, Armin Hand, by Theodore Roosevelt at the Progressive convention. It was made of wood from trees on the "Bliver of Doubt," which the colonel discovered. (Copyright, 1920, Western Newspaper Union.)

NERVOUS PROSTRATION

Mrs. J. Christman Proved That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a Remedy for this Trouble.

Binghamton, N. Y.—"I was in a very nervous condition for over a year, my mind was gloomy, I could see no light on anything, could not work and could not have anyone to see me. Doctor's medicine did not help me and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended. I took it and am now well. I recommend it to all afflicted with nervous prostration."—Mrs. J. CHRISTMAN, 183 Oak Street, Binghamton, N. Y.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from nervous prostration, displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feelings, flatulency, indigestion and dizziness. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

If there are any complications about which you need advice write in confidence to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

FARMING FOR PROFIT

The farmer plants his acres and reaps the harvest in order to do his part in the co-operative effort to keep the world going.

Aside from this, of course, he farms for personal profit.

More and more farmers realize that a system of financial accounting is necessary in order to know how they stand as regards profits.

Let us tell you how an account with us proves beneficial in the successful conduct of farming enterprise.

We issue FOOD DRAFTS payable in Germany and other European countries. Send one to your friends. We make no charge for this service.

LOCAL NOTES

Many of the farmers in this vicinity have commenced cutting hay.

Born, on Friday, June 11, 1920, to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spaulding, a son.

Stockbridge is making arrangements for a Fourth of July celebration.

Home grown strawberries are being brought to the Chelsea market this week.

The next meeting of the Washtenaw County Pioneer and Historical Society will be held in Ann Arbor.

The pupils of St. Mary Academy will give an entertainment in St. Mary hall on Friday evening, entitled "The Gypsy Queen."

The alumni association of the Chelsea high school will hold its twenty-fifth banquet in the M. E. church on Thursday evening, June 24.

Ivan, the ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin D. Baldwin, who has been very ill of pneumonia, is reported as being slightly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Janke, jr., arrived home Tuesday from a ten day auto trip in the eastern states. Mrs. Janke was formerly Mrs. Olive Clark.

Born, on Friday, June 11, 1920, to Mr. and Mrs. Ottmer Gerstler of Ann Arbor, a son. Mrs. Gerstler is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lambrecht, of Chelsea.

Harry E. Foster has purchased of O. C. Burkhardt the residence on the corner of Jefferson and Madison streets. Mr. and Mrs. Foster will move to their new home next week.

Married, on Saturday afternoon, June 12, 1920, in Highland Park, Mrs. Jessie Jones, of Charlotte, formerly of Chelsea, and Mr. Floyd Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ward of Chelsea.

Camp Birkett at Silver lake is being groomed for the appearance of the first camp Saturday night. A floating diving dock has been placed in position, a new well driven, and other improvements made.

The marriage of Frederick Janke of Green Oak, and Mrs. Olive Clark of Chelsea, was solemnized at St. George's Lutheran parsonage in Genoa, Tuesday, June 8, Rev. Sause of the Fowlerville church, officiating.—Brighton Argus.

A near cloud burst, accompanied by an electrical and hail storm passed over Jackson city and county Wednesday afternoon, doing considerable damage to the telephone service, crops and window glass. The highways in many places were badly washed out.

The rain of Wednesday morning did not scare all of Chelsea's fishermen who had prepared for the opening of the black bass season. Some of them went the night before in order to be on the "ground" early. None of them have been in, telling of the big ones they caught.

A truck belonging to S. E. Gooden, of Detroit, was badly damaged at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning when it was struck by a freight train on the Michigan Central crossing near Wm. H. Bahnmiller's farm in Lima. The pipe connecting the gasoline tank and the motor broke just as the truck reached the track, stalling the motor. Mr. Gooden endeavored to push the truck from the track but was unable to do so.

J. Vincent Burg has commenced the erection of a cottage at Crooked lake.

Rev. H. R. Beatty officiated at the funeral of an acquaintance in Grass Lake Monday.

The street committee has been giving the streets of the village a dressing of calcium chloride to keep down some of the dust.

Mrs. T. McElroy, of Highland Park, has sold the property on South street, known as the Martin Howe residence, to H. D. Witherell.

Miss Florence VanRiper has been elected record keeper of Columbian Hive, L. O. T. M., to succeed Mrs. H. M. Armour, who resigned.

Married, on May 23, 1920, Miss Elsa Marie Glenn, of Highland Park, and Mr. Otis L. Newton, a well known furniture dealer of Detroit. They are at home to their friends at 385 Richton avenue, Highland Park.

Some drop in temperature—45 degrees. For sudden changes in temperature, Michigan beats them all. Last winter it broke the record for steadiness, but it has overcome that.

A slight change has been made by the D. J. & C. Ry. in the running time of all west bound cars, they arriving in Chelsea a few minutes later than heretofore. There is no change of time on the east bound cars.

A. R. Traver, who has been in the employ of the Michigan Portland Cement Co. for several years, has accepted a position in Jackson. Mr. and Mrs. Traver will move their household goods to Jackson Monday.

Because of the activities of both church and the public school, the M. E. society will discontinue its movies for several weeks, after June 18. During the month of July, however, there will be some especially good features exhibited.

We hear that Detroit parties have purchased the resort portion and cottages at Bruin lake, and will neither allow outsiders to bring in boats on that side of the lake; neither will they rent boats they have to outsiders.—Stockbridge Brief-Sun.

At the children's clinic held last Wednesday afternoon, there were 20 in attendance, with eight negative examinations. Dr. Treadgold, of the University of Michigan hospital was the examining physician. In July there will be a tuberculosis clinic conducted by Dr. VanDerslice.

A picnic of the public health nurses of Washtenaw county was held at Cavanaugh lake Tuesday afternoon. There are nine nurses and all were present. Miss Havey, the supervising nurse, left on Wednesday for her new duties as Michigan field adviser, and is succeeded by Miss Stohl.

Miss Catherine Montague, aged 83 years, died at the hospital at Big Rapids, Friday, June 11. She was a sister of the late Mrs. Thos. Jackson, and was for many years a resident of Sylvan. Her remains were brought to Chelsea Saturday, and the burial was on Monday at St. Mary cemetery, Sylvan.

Mrs. Mary McGregor, aged 76 years, died at the Methodist Old People's Home Friday evening, June 11. She had been a member of the Home for the past five years and came here from Detroit. The funeral was held at the Home at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Rev. H. R. Beatty officiating. Interment at Oak Grove cemetery.

You may be rich in money, but if your soul knows not love, you are poor indeed. See "Rich Man, Poor Man" at M. E. church Friday evening.—Adv.

MIGHT TRY THE TOY SHOP
Certainly Youthful Swain's Income Didn't Run to Anything in Gold or Diamond Line.

A flashily dressed, effeminate young man entered a jeweler's shop, and in high speech informed one of the immaculate assistants that he wished to purchase a birthday present for his sweetheart.
No, he remarked, he hadn't any idea as to what he really wanted, but whatever it might be, he declared emphatically, it must be a suitable token of his esteem, and at the same time come within the possibilities of his income.
"And what," inquired the assistant,
"if I may ask the question, is your income?"
"Fifteen dollars a week," was the prompt reply.
"In that case," remarked the dispenser of gold and diamonds, in his most suave and charming voice, "I'm afraid you've come to the wrong place; you're more likely to be suited at the toy shop around the corner."

Her Wholesale Prayers.
Lucille, who is five, does not like to sleep her prayers at night when she is sleepy.
"Did you say your little prayer last night?" her mother asked her one morning at breakfast.
"No," said the little girl. "I was too sleepy last night, mamma, but Sunday night, when you put me to bed before I was sleepy, I prayed seven prayers—enough to last me all this week."

Hurt Twice.
"Are you hurt?" they asked of the man who had fallen.
"Hurt? I should say I am," he replied. "Internally and externally.
Hurt by the fall I got, and hurt more
by the fact that I had my flask full
in my hip pocket when I fell."

That Depends.
"Don't you believe the fruits of any hard work compensate for its toll?"
"Not when you are handed a lemon."

A Feeling of Security

You naturally feel secure when you know that the medicine you are about to take is absolutely pure and contains no harmful or habit producing drugs.
Such a medicine is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, kidney, liver and bladder remedy.
The same standard of purity, strength and excellence is maintained in every bottle of Swamp-Root.
It is scientifically compounded from vegetable herbs.
It is not a stimulant and is taken in teaspoonful doses.
It is not recommended for everything.
It is nature's great helper in relieving and overcoming kidney, liver and bladder troubles.
A sworn statement of purity is with every bottle of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.
If you need a medicine, you should have the best. On sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.
However, if you wish first to try this great preparation send ten cents to Dr.
Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

Just So.

that it is fashionable. There's heaven,
for instance.

The World, as a General Thing, Has Little Use for the Man Addicted to Self-Pity.

The trouble with the man in a little trouble is that he is inclined to pity himself and imagine that he is the only man who ever had a trouble.
All he can see in the moment of his trouble is his own burden. It seems not to occur to him that at the very moment he is wrestling with his difficulty thousands of people around him are fighting against far greater odds and in much greater danger.

Trouble, anyhow, is a part of the game of life. Nobody ever went anywhere or did anything worth while without meeting it in one form or another. Let others pity you if they will, but don't waste any time pitying yourself. The chances are that your next door neighbor would be tickled to death if such troubles as you have were all he had to worry about.—Exchange.

Hurt Twice.
"Are you hurt?" they asked of the
man who had fallen.
"Hurt? I should say I am," he replied. "Internally and externally.
Hurt by the fall I got, and hurt more
by the fact that I had my flask full
in my hip pocket when I fell."

That Depends.

hard work compensate for its toll?"
"Not when you are handed a

LIGHTNING KILLS FIVE IN DETROIT

SEVERE ELECTRICAL STORM TAKES HEAVY TOLL OF LIVES IN ONE DAY.

FOUR ARE KILLED BY ONE BOLT

High School Ball Players, Seeking Refuge From Heavy Rain, Stricken Under Tree.

Detroit.—A severe electrical storm that swept the city last Thursday killed six persons and injured 13 others.
One bolt of lightning struck down the baseball team of Northeastern high school in Pingree park, instantly killing four of the boys and injuring six other players and youthful spectators. A woman was fatally struck near her home. She died shortly afterward. Three men, two at Belle Isle and one in the city, were stricken by the deadly current. They will recover.

The dead were:
Killed by lightning in Pingree park.
Charles Ryseavage, 17 years old, 563 Grandy avenue; Anthony P. Schor-nack, 17 years old, 985 Chene street; Frank Owdyk, 19 years old, 737 Theodora street; Edward Skrzycki, 19 years old, 964 Russell street.

Killed on street: Mrs. Dora Petlich, 46 years old, Deguldrue street and Nine-mile road.

The tragedy in Pingree park happened near Joyce field, the baseball ground.

The boys had sought shelter under an Elm tree when the first heavy drops of rain started to fall about 5 o'clock. They were standing under it when the tree was struck, the lightning splintering the huge trunk.
They had gone to Pingree park to play a final game with Eastern high, one of a series of elimination contests for the championship.

As soon as the rain became a downpour, the boys sought shelter under a elm tree. Several spectators, too crowded under the tree, but the fact that they were on the edge of the circle perhaps saved their lives.

According to Wilmer Lamson, Jr., 346 East Warren avenue, who was sitting under the tree, the boys were looking about the storm when a terrific flash of lightning felled the group.
When Lamson recovered, the others were lying on the ground. They were found to be dead at Receiving Hospital.

All four of the dead boys were popular at school. Skrzycki was captain of the 1919-1920 basketball team, and a foot ball and base ball player.
Owdyk also played on the basketball and foot ball teams. Ryseavage, who with Schornack was a senior, was business manager of the school paper.
Mrs. Petlich, also a victim of the storm, was but a short distance from her home, toward which she was hurry, when there was a heavy thunder clap, a blinding flash and she fell to the ground. Neighbors saw that she made no effort to get up and went to her aid. She was carried home, where she died shortly after.

A. F. OF L TAKES IN NEGROES

Colored Workers Given Full Memberships in Labor Federation.

Montreal.—The American Federation of Labor in its annual convention here wiped out the "color-line" and warned its affiliated international unions that negro workers must be given full and equal membership with whites men.

The federation's action came at the end of a stormy session, which nearly resulted in a "race war" between delegates from the southern states and the negroes and their sympathizers.
Rejecting the recommendation of its organization committee the federation for the first time in history threatened the autonomy of an affiliated union by requesting the brotherhood of railway clerks to give the negro freight handlers, express and station employees full membership and eliminate from its constitution the words, "white only."

G. O. P. FORGETS IRISH PLANK

Fight of Irish Sympathizers Falls to Impress Platform Framers.

Chicago.—The Republican platform omitted all reference to Ireland.
Planks proposed by Irish sympathizers were lost before the resolutions sub-committee and not pressed in the full committee or convention.

The woman suffrage plank "exactly" hopes. Republican states which have not yet ratified the suffrage amendment will do so. It was a substitute for a clause calling upon the governors or states not having ratified to summon their legislatures in extra session to ratify the amendment.

Louisiana Senate Defeats Suffrage.

Hatou Rouge, La.—The resolution providing for ratification of the federal suffrage amendment was defeated in the senate of the general assembly of Louisiana last week by a vote of 22 to 19. This action of the senate does not mean the definite defeat of suffrage in the Louisiana legislature as a resolution exactly duplicating the one introduced in the senate is now pending in the house and if it passes will again come before the senate for final action.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

For the world in general food is prepared and eaten at home; and no matter how many farmers and butchers and sailors and teamsters and grocers have conspired to provide us with good food, the one cook in the kitchen may vitalize the product in an hour—Helen Campbell.

DISHERS WITH CHILL.

For all who like peppery dishes the following will be appreciated:

Mexican Hash.
—Take one half
pound of boiled
beef chopped fine,
one tomato and
two cloves of garlic, also chopped fine. Cook the tomato and garlic
in a little fat for a few minutes, then add the meat and one-half teaspoonful of chili powder, one onion chopped fine, salt and pepper to taste.
Then add the beef, in which the meat was cooked and cook for twenty minutes.

Boiled Ham.—Cover the ham with water and let it come to a boil. Add half a cupful of brown sugar, one teaspoonful of chili powder and set back to simmer for three hours, then remove the skin. Put the ham in a roasting pan, cover with bread crumbs stick in it a few cloves and sprinkle with chili powder. Put into a hot oven to brown.

Tripe Mexican Style.—Put tripe to cook in boiling water until tender.
Add one clove of garlic, chopped fine,
two tablespoons of chili powder and one can of hominy. Stir and let cook until well done. Serve hot.

Kidney With Chili.—Cut up the kidney into small pieces. Add one onion cut fine, put the kidney and onion into a saucepan with hot fat and let them fry. Add salt and pepper, one bay leaf, two tablespoons of chili powder and a little flour. When smooth set in broth or hot water for a sauce, with a dash of vinegar.

Carne de Olla.—Brown three or four pounds of rump roast in two or three tablespoons of lard, then add a teaspoonful of salt, pepper to taste,
two tablespoons of chili powder and one bay leaf. Put all into a casserole with a half cupful each of carrot, turnip, and one onion with three stalks of celery, all cut in bits.
Then add two cupfuls of soup stock or water. Cover and cook in a moderate oven three hours. A sauce may be made with the liquor in the pan.
Add flour and chili powder to thicken and season.

GOOD FOOD FOR THE FAMILY.
For that tired feeling which affects so many at this season of the year, a tonic is good, but take it
from dandelion
greens, spinach
and tender green vegetables. For sleeplessness a hot egg nog will be found most soothing. Beat an egg very light, add one cupful of scalded milk, a pinch of salt and a little sugar if liked, with a grating of nutmeg. Add the milk, a little at a time, beating well. Serve hot. The blood is drawn from the brain to the stomach and the sleepless sleep.

Baked Beans With Sausage
and Hamburger.—Take hamburger steak and pork sausage, half and half. Place parboiled beans in the bean pot, with a small onion, cover with a layer of meat, then a layer of beans, another layer of meat and beans. Add salt, mustard, molasses and water as usual to the bean pot and bake all day slowly.

Roast Beef With Onions.—Put a rolled roast of beef in a baking pan and surround it with even-sized onions. Bake, basting as usual, basting the onions as well. Serve with the onions as a garnish to the platter of roast. Potatoes may be added and roasted with the onions, if desired.

Stuffed Calves' Hearts.—Wash two hearts, removing arteries. Parboil in salted water for 20 minutes. Drain, stuff and sew. Season with salt and pepper, roll in flour and brown in a frying pan in any sweet fat. Put into a casserole, add small onions, carrots and new potatoes with broth to cook and bake until the vegetables are tender.

Carrot Salad.—Take one cupful each of cooked carrots and potatoes diced, one-half cupful of celery, one-half cupful of nuts, two hard-boiled eggs; marinate with French dressing for two hours. Serve with a thick cooked dressing.

Escalloped Tomatoes With Eggs.
—Prepare escalloped tomatoes using bread crumbs and the usual seasoning.
Place in a baking dish and over the top drop as many eggs to poach as there are persons to serve. Put into a hot oven and bake until the eggs are set.

Cabbage With Cheese.—Cook a hard small head of cabbage until tender in boiling salted water. Drain, place on a chop plate and pour over a rich white sauce in which one cupful of cheese has been melted. Cut the cabbage into pie-shaped pieces and serve with the sauce.

South America's Undeveloped Lands.
It is claimed for South America that it has greater undeveloped resources than any other continent. Its soil can produce any crop grown on the earth and its mines of gold and silver and coal have been scarcely touched.

INVESTMENTS

In the present period of the adjustment of the country's industrial and commercial affairs it is well for investors to exercise the utmost caution in the selection of investments.

Investors should scan these securities very carefully. Where there is the least doubt, caution will dictate looking a little farther for an investment where safety and peace of mind are absolutely assured. Preferring to sacrifice a part of big income to a greater degree of safety, the conservative investor prospers to a larger extent in the end than the investor whose first thought is income, the quality of the security being a minor consideration.

Write for booklet, "Investment Steps," and for detail circulars describing the First Mortgage 6% Real Estate Serial Notes of $100 and $500 denominations we are offering and recommend as conservative, high-grade, safe investments.

The Mercantile Trust Company is a member of the Federal Reserve System, and by reason of such membership is under the supervision of the United States Government. This means that every loan we make, including "First Mortgage Real Estate Serial Loans," is subject to examination by Government Bank Examiners. These loans are also examined by the St. Louis Clearing House Bank Examiners and the official Bank Examiners of both the State of Missouri and the State of Illinois.

We particularly invite comparison between these loans and the average real estate mortgage loans, with reference to excellence of location, class of construction and actual (not estimated) income.

Delivery of notes purchased by non-residents will be made at our own risk to any bank or post office. Send for Circulars describing the First Mortgage 6% Real Estate Serial Notes we are now offering.

ment between those who are planning a garden this year and those who are planning to keep chickens.

Lift off Corns!
Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet.
A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callosus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or cal-losus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly
No humbug!—Adv.

Furniture Oil.
To renovate scratched furniture, mix together in a bottle equal quantities of the best salad oil and vinegar.
Shake vigorously, then it is ready to use. Take a small pad or soft rag, dip it into the solution and rub well into the wood until all scratches have disappeared. Then polish with another soft rag. You will be delighted with the result.

FRECKLES

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as Othine —double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.
Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from your druggist, and apply a little of it at night and morning, and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than one ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

Keep Boot Buttons On.
Take a common shoe lace, make a hole in the lid of the boot large enough to take the eye of each botton. Then pass the shoe lace, which should be new and strong, through the eyes of the buttons, fastening it at each end with as flat a knot as possible.

The Cuticura Toilet Tip.
Having cleaned your skin keep it clear by making Cuticura your every-day toilet preparations. The soap to cleanse and purify, the Ointment to soothe and heal, the Talcum to powder and perfume. No toilet table is complete without them. 25c everywhere.—Adv.

Improved Living Conditions.
Perhaps, as the luxury taxes indicate, not far from $5,000,000,000 have been spent on indulgence since the war; yet there are signs that the masses are not wasting all their increased income. Living conditions for the laboring man have improved, and he will never go back to the conditions of the past. A Cincinnati company in the iron trade reports that there is a demand today for 12 bathtubs where there was a demand for one ten years ago. Certainly that is an indication of better living conditions and a sign of progress in the forward march of civilization.—World's Work.

Frantic With Pain

Doan's However Brought Complete Recovery and Trouble Has

"My kidneys were weakened by ex-posure in Alaska," says Hermann Schmidt, 325 Park Ave., Hoboken, N. J., "and my misery at times became so great I thought I would lose my mind. I had terrible pains in my back, and a constant desire to urinate. My back felt as if it were in sections with each crushing against the other. Finally I was taken desperately ill. It seemed as if something were crushing out my life. Before long I passed a gravel stone the size of a pea. If the pain had been any more intense I think I would have died. I was having practically no flushing of the kidneys and my weight had reduced from 170 pounds to 130.
The doctor told me I had gravel and small stones filling up the passage of the bladder. After all of this I began to use Doan's Kidney Pills and soon improved. In a short time I was well and my cure has lasted fifteen years.
Today I am in perfect health."

What Is Telephone Service

It is because the telephone is so intimately yours—because the daily benefits from this service are so far-reaching and vital, that we are coming to you with a message.

This is in line with our wish to give the people of Michigan the very best and most extensive telephone service that could possibly be desired. And to do this we must have your friendly and complete co-operation.

In order to give that co-operation you naturally need and are justified in asking an intelligent understanding of the telephone business.

It is our purpose, therefore, in this and succeeding announcements, to tell you, among other things, exactly what the Michigan State Telephone Company is, what the giving of service involves, and to discuss with you present conditions and plans for the future.

The conduct of any public service corporation carries its share of unending problems—problems that are as vital to the public which it serves as to the company itself.

These problems cannot and in fairness should not be solved by the corporation alone. The public is too vitally interested and where public interest is so intimately involved, the public's judgment must have every consideration.

It is our purpose, therefore, to make these announcements as though we were all in council, where all have free opportunity of discussion.

Among the problems that will undoubtedly come before us are matters of service—why it is that there sometimes are apparent delays in getting a number, why you sometimes get the wrong number, etc.

The problem of telephone extensions also is a very vital one. Everyone should know why it is impossible under present conditions to install apparatus promptly for every new subscriber.

And we will want to discuss with you very frankly the rate problem, and tell the real crisis that confronts us in the face of constantly increasing costs of labor and material.

But it is neither our desire nor our intention to limit the discussion to published statements of our own.

We invite you to ask us by letter about those points that we may overlook or may not have made sufficiently clear.

To care for these answers promptly, we have established a special service to provide you with the necessary facts.

Where a large number of questions on any one subject indicate a general interest in that point, we will publish the questions and answers in these columns.

We will likewise be pleased to have you visit any of our exchanges and see for yourself some of the things telephone service involves, and how we endeavor to meet the demands placed upon us.

It will be our purpose to speak frankly, to acquaint you with every phase of the "telephone problem," and to maintain this open-minded attitude permanently.

We believe that this will result in a relationship that will make our mutual ideal of good telephone service for Michigan a practical reality.

The following communication from the Electric Light & Water Commission was read:

At the regular meeting of the Electric Light & Water Commission, held at their office May 11, 1920, a motion was made and supported that a recommendation be sent to the village council suggesting a raise in the rate of electric current, as follows:—The rate on electric lights to be 12 cents per kilowatt or 10 cents if paid before the 30th of the month; and the power rate to be 6 cents per kilowatt for the first 50,000 watts, 4 1/2 cents per kilowatt for the next 100,000 watts, 4 cents per kilowatt for the next 200,000 watts.

Moved by Vogel, supported by Dunkel, that the communication of the Electric Light & Water commission be adopted.

Yeas—Vogel, Dunkel, Nays—Dancer, Koebbe, Bahnmiller. Motion lost. Motion made and carried to adjourn.

H. W. Freeman, Clerk.

FIGHTING RATS WITH VARNISH

New Form of Trap Used on London Decks Said to Have Had Gratifying Success.

It is computed that the London docks contain about 1,000,000 rats, which attack grain, food, and other cargoes, causing about $2,000,000 loss per annum. A society was established to exterminate this destructive enemy, but the congested state of the wharves made their schemes inoperative. Now a new benefactor has come forward with a "trap" that opens up a possibility of putting armies of rodents out of business. The process employed is simple. Traps are placed along or near rat holes. The trap is made of cardboard covered with lithographic varnish. The varnish is warmed by heating its container in boiling water till the varnish becomes sufficiently liquid, when it is spread 1-16 to 1-8 of an inch thick on pieces of straw-board or thickish cardboard, measuring about 15 in. by 12 in. A margin of about 1 in. is left clear of varnish, and bait placed in the center of the board, where it adheres to the varnish. Bags of 60 at a time have been secured. The medical officer of health for the port of London reports favorably of the antidote to the rat thief, and gives it as his opinion that once their tails stick on the board they are doomed, and that the majority die of fright. Another feature is that if two rats get on to the varnish together one of them kills the other, evidently thinking the other is holding him.

HELD BACK TIME'S PROGRESS

Announcing Hour of Noon Secondary In Importance to Mexican Servant's Other Duties.

A certain village in northern Mexico did not boast of a town clock. When twelve o'clock arrived the parish priest used to tell his servant to mount the belfry and strike the church bell twelve times, so that the villagers would know that it was high noon.

One of the neighbors, who had a watch, noticed that for some days twelve o'clock had struck a few minutes late. Thinking that perhaps the priest's watch was slow, he asked the mozo (servant) why it was that he had delayed in striking the hour. The mozo answered:

"It is this way: The padrecito tells me it is time to strike twelve; but just as I am to start up the ladder the cook tells me to get the tortillas. So I have to go after tortillas, and when I get back and climb the ladder again it makes the noon late."
