FORMER CHELSEA RESIDENT DIED IN DETROIT SUNDAY

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Hoover was born in Sylvan township, August 28, 1841, and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Hall, in Detroit, Sunday, July 25, 1920. She was the daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth Tichenor, pioneer residents of Michigan.

November 28, 1862, she was united in marriage to John G. Hoover, and to this union four children were born, two of whom survive her, Mrs. H. W. Hall, of Detroit, and Orrin T. Hoover, of Chelsea. Mr. Hoover died in 1912. For a number of years her home was in Grass Lake, but in 1879 the family came to Chelsea, which remained her home until five years ago when she moved to Detroit.

Mrs. Hoover was a member of the Baptist church, and also of Olive Chapter, O. E. S.

Funeral services were held at the home of her son, O. T. Hoover, on Garfield street, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. H. R. Beatty officiating. Interment at Oak Grove cemetery.

CHURCH CIRCLES.

Leaves and Fruit.
By Rev. H. R. Beatty.

Just as day was breaking over the Judean hills of two thousand years ago a band of men seeking food and rest were slowly making towards Jerusalem. Seeing, in the distance, a fig tree in full leaf they hastened their pace fully expecting to find ripe figs, it being the beginning of fig harvest. The leader, who had been the first to reach the tree, searched eagerly among the branches but found only leaves. Leaves could not satisfy their hunger nor sustain their lives. Disappointed and faint from hunger they passed on their way while the fig tree quickly withered and died.

Jesus taught two great lessons from this fruitless fig tree. When He saw that the tree possessed leaves His heart rejoiced for it told Him that the tree was alive. The leaves filled two purposes in the life of the tree: they were public profession of life and also helped to retain its life. A public profession of religious life is as essential to life as leaves to the life of a tree.

He condemned the tree because it did not fulfill the central purpose for which tree and leaves grow—producing fruit. The tree barren of figs was destroyed. Jesus taught the same destiny to men who grow only a profession of religion. Grow leaves but also grow fruit.

WOMAN KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Michigan Central Train Wrecks Auto Killing One and Injuring Three.

One of the worst accidents that has occurred in this vicinity for many months took place at the east Guthrie crossing of the Michigan Central railroad, about 1:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, which resulted in the death of one and the serious injury of three others.

The members of the party, were driving a Ford sedan and were on their way west. They were Misses Irene Gleeson, Mary Warren, Nellie Cunningham and Tillie David, of Burlington, Wis. The machine was driven by Miss Warren.

The party stopped at the Crescent hotel for dinner and left Chelsea at 1:05 o'clock, according to the entry in a diary which was kept by one of the ladies and which was found in the wreckage.

As they approached the crossing a westbound freight train passed them, and they drove onto the track and were caught by an eastbound American express train. The west bound freight shut off the view of the other train.

The automobile was thrown a considerable distance, and from the appearance of the wrecked car Miss Gleeson was thrown through the roof of the sedan. The fact that the car had a sedan body undoubtedly saved the lives of the others.

The running gear of the automobile was not so badly damaged but that it could be towed into town.

Dr. A. A. Palmer was called and the injured parties were placed in the day coach attached to the express train and taken to Ann Arbor. Miss Gleeson died in the baggage room at the Ann Arbor station shortly after her arrival there. The other ladies were taken to the Homeopathic hospital.

The accident was witnessed by Mrs. Samuel Hagadon and a young son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hagadon, and Mrs. Hagadon was given charge of the personal effects of the members of the party.

This crossing is a particularly dangerous one with no warning bells or any other protecting device, and has been the scene of a number of accidents. Coroner Heusel of Ann Arbor, was in Chelsea Tuesday evening, making an investigation of the accident.

From latest reports the indications are that the three survivors of the accident will probably recover.

Mrs. Charlotte Ann Lewis.

Mrs. Charlotte Ann Lewis was born January 1, 1867, in Octibbe county, Mississippi, and died in Chelsea, July 22, 1920, aged 57 years, seven months and 21 days.

When nineteen years of age she was united in marriage to Arthur W. Lewis and to them were born twelve children eight of whom are living.

When sixteen years of age she was converted and united with the Baptist church, remaining a faithful member until death.

About a year ago the family moved to Chelsea, and soon after she was taken ill and after months of intense suffering she passed away last Thursday.

She leaves besides the husband, five daughters, Emma, Hattie, Maggie, Lillian and Lucy, three sons, Senior, Simpson and Sylvester, also three sisters.

The funeral was held from the home on West Middle street Saturday at 4 o'clock, with interment at Oak Grove cemetery, Rev. H. R. Beatty officiating.

SUBSCRIPTION RATE TO BE INCREASED AUGUST 1

The announcement is made at this time so that subscribers who wish to do so may pay ahead for another year at the present price of $1.50.

The publisher of The Standard has been reluctant to make this raise, but is compelled to do so by the constantly rising cost of everything used in the getting out of the paper.

EXPECT TO START LAYING CONCRETE NEXT MONDAY

The Washtenaw County road commission expects to start laying the concrete on the Territorial road on Monday of next week. They expect to be able to lay five hundred feet of pavement a day. The work will be started at the east end of the bridge between the farms of George Ward and Elmer Weinberg, and will be pushed forward to the pavement that is laid about five miles west of Ann Arbor.

The concrete work will be under the supervision of the commission, and not by contractors.

Mr. Ryan, the grading contractor, has a force of men at work on the section where the work of concrete laying is to be done, and it is expected that he will be out of the way by the time the commission will begin its work.

The gravel will be drawn from the Baries pit in Lima township on a narrow gauge railroad, which will be laid across the Dancer farm, and then along the road. The gravel cars will be drawn by oil burning locomotives.

CHELSEA HARDWARE COMPANY

The Girl at Central

Not long ago, near Flint, Michigan, in a fire that threatened a huge loss of life and property, a brave telephone operator remained at her post sending out calls for help until her switchboard was put out of commission and her clothing enveloped in flames.

This is only one of hundreds of cases that are on record where operators, on their own initiative, saved entire communities from burning, floods or other danger by calling all available help from surrounding districts.

The Michigan State Telephone Company is naturally very proud of its operators—proud of their heroism and unflinching courage, but it is prouder still of this rare sense of duty that has always prompted the operators to stick to their posts in the face of danger, epidemics and storms.

It is this kind of devotion to service that has given telephone operators, not only a conspicuous place in the hall of fame, but a prominent place, too, in the hearts of the community they serve.

For your telephone operator, highly trained, as she must be, proficient to a wonderful degree in her work and unflinching in her traditional devotion to her service, is, after all, just an ordinary girl.

She is the kind of bright, active, intelligent girl that you, if you knew her, would go out of your way to show every courtesy.

In most cases she is a home girl and in every case, we know, she is the best protected girl in any kind of work in the city.

We want to tell you many things about your telephone operator—of the motherly care that is taken of her during working hours, of the care that is taken of her health in her work. We want everyone to know why a telephone girl finds her work so inspirational, personal and serviceful—of her opportunities and her happiness in her work that go so far to make your telephone service better.

Now, we are introducing your telephone girl to you, because we know that in this closer acquaintanceship you will find much that is helpful in your relations with the most personal service you command—your telephone.

BREVITIES

Milford—For the first time in 33 years there has been a change of the pastorate in the Milford Presbyterian church, due to the death of the minister, Rev. Alexander A. Wilson, who has served during that time. The new pastor is Rev. L. S. Brooke.

Whitmore Lake—Miss Frances Westcott of Galena, Kansas, a student at the University of Michigan, was drowned while bathing Friday afternoon in Whitmore Lake, where she was spending the summer. Her mother watched futile efforts of other bathers to rescue her.

Salline—A fire believed to have started in feed cooker located near a hog house, swept away seven buildings on the 200 acre farm of Ormond Feldkamp, five miles west of Salline early Sunday morning. The loss is estimated at $8,000. Two barns, a scale house and the residence are left standing.

Ann Arbor—Dean W. B. Hinsdale, resigned as head of the Homeopathic medical school Friday, after serving in that office for 25 years. His resignation was accepted at the July meeting of the board of regents the same day, to take effect at the convenience of the regents. Dean Hinsdale plans to retire as soon as his successor is appointed.

Ann Arbor—Jas. Pontz of Detroit, came out to Superior township to celebrate the birthday of his friend and former navy buddy, Burrell Downing, at the latter's farm home. During Pontz's stay he was attacked by a mad bull which attempted to crush him against a fence. The bull's horns were too long, however, and Pontz dropped unhurt between the horns to the ground. Downing came to the rescue and drove the bull away.

Ann Arbor—Lewis Reiman, secretary of the city Y. M. C. A., has resigned his position and accepted a similar office with the general Y. M. C. A. of the University of Michigan. His duties will be in the nature of extension work throughout the state, organizing and training university students to speak at meetings, dinners and conferences where speakers on "Y" work are desired. He will also serve as secretary for all Presbyterian men in the university.

Brighton—Max Buck, Brighton township supervisor, suffered a frightful accident Saturday, when he fell into the knife guards of a grain binder as the horses took sudden fright and started to run away. As he remembers it, Mr. Buck was thrown into the pointed guards and was dragged a short distance until he managed to grasp the reel of the binder, which threw him over the binder table. He was so badly lacerated that before his wounds could be bound up he had lost over half of his blood.

Brighton Argus—Brooklyn—Jack Nixon anticipates going to South America the first of October, having signed a three year contract with the International Products Co., a South American branch of the Armour interests devoted to raising cattle. Jack has left the employ of the Hayes Wheel Co., where he has been assistant manager in the Jackson office. He will be assistant to S. M. Strotz, who is general manager of the company. If everything goes well at the end of three years he wants to take up the cattle business for himself.

Brooklyn—In a decision given Friday, Justice Benjamin Williams denied a mandamus petition of three residents of Napoleon and Columbia townships to submit to the electors the proposal of abolishing the consolidated school in that district. Inadequate means of transportation is said to be responsible for dissatisfaction in the operation of the school. The court held that the question is one of legislative intent; that the little "red school house" is a relic of the early days and that the appeal for relief should be made to the legislature for a clear and specific provision for disbanding.

Tired Out?

Do you know that languidness, that "awful tired feeling," heaviness, lame or weak back, sore muscles, stiff or swollen joints, rheumatic pains, lumbago, in the great majority of cases, indicate kidney trouble?

Foley Kidney Pills

act promptly and effectively to restore weak, overworked or diseased kidneys and bladder to a healthy condition.

Mrs. Robert Elder, 401 S. 2nd Street, Terre Haute, Ind., writes: "I suffered two years with kidney and bladder trouble frequently getting bedridden. Morning I would arise feeling very tired and having headaches, and the following week before my eyes. I saw Foley Kidney Pills advertised and made up my mind to try them. After taking them a few weeks I found my trouble dispelled. The headaches stopped and my kidneys were restored to healthy, normal action. I am also free of those tired spells and headaches and my vision is no longer blurred. My recovery is entirely due to Foley Kidney Pills, which I gladly recommend."

The fire invaded the residence section, nearly a dozen dwellings being destroyed. The plant was the largest here, the sawmill a relic of old lumber days, but the salt block was comparatively new.

Bay City—Mrs. John Volker was fatally injured by an automobile driven by her son. The son, warned by a policeman that his lights were out, stopped to fix them. His parents walked on. Unable to get his lights going, the son started on in the darkness. At the first corner he ran into a man and a woman. He did not know until he stopped that they were his parents. Mrs. Volker was 50 years old.

Pontiac—Seeing a little leg sticking out of the water near the end of one of the many boat wharves at Lake Orion, Mrs. Frank Miller, of Ann Arbor, who is spending the summer at the resort, called for help and got the body out of the water. It proved to be that of her little son Bobby, 4, whom she was looking for. He is thought to have walked off the end of the wharf and landed in the soft mud head down.

Ferndale—Frank Price, Ferndale, is being persecuted by Ferndale village officials, he claims. He was arrested on a charge of reckless driving by Village Officer George Hughling at Woodward avenue and Nine-mile road, and for disorderly conduct and driving without a license. The village has retained Ray E. King, as special counsel to prosecute Price. He asked for a change of venue, alleging that Justice Hooley made some remarks about the case which might be considered prejudicial.

Saginaw—Raymond E. Thurber, 23, died of injuries received when several heavy beams fell on him at the Bliss and Vanauken lumber yard, fracturing his skull.

Kalamazoo—Arthur McLaughlin tried to crank his automobile while it was in gear. The car plunged forward and McLaughlin was crushed against his garage.

Pontiac—Mrs. J. B. Trember of Commerce was pinned under a car which she was driving and which turned turtle, suffering several severe cuts and bruises.

Port Huron—Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Beane, 22, celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary, when guests from Detroit and other Michigan points were present.

Ferndale—Justice Hooley fined Charles S. Escader $20 and costs on a charge of drunkenness, and fined Floyd Young $75 and costs for driving a car while intoxicated.

Ann Arbor—Twenty foreign countries are represented among the 2,200 students enrolled in the University of Michigan summer session. Canada leads, with China in second place.

Under the plan, 20 feet would be taken from properties on one side of the street. Another plan to widen three streets eastward from the center of the city would cost $295,000.

Camp Custer—Sergeant Otto Hugh, of the 14th infantry, died as the result of his pistol duel at Urbansdale, with Private Joseph Doyer, 14th Infantry. A charge of manslaughter has been preferred against Doyer. This is regarded as a purely technical proceeding, however, as it is the opinion of the military authorities that both men were acting within the line of duty.

Ladington—Though a playmate made an attempt to rescue him, Saul Homel, 9 years old, was drowned while swimming in Lake Michigan. His companion, Howard McElroy, narrowly escaped the same fate when the boy grasped him as he tried to bring him ashore. McElroy was forced to strike the drowning lad to free himself. Homel was the son of Maurice Homel, a Detroit, who recently moved here.

Grand Rapids—Merl Rader, 7 years old, who was cruelly beaten by his stepfather, Jacob Nemire, died at the home of Dr. William A. L. Dursum, after more than three months of suffering. From a robust boy he had wasted until he weighed only 24 pounds. An autopsy disclosed that death was due to a tumor on the brain. Nemire now is in jail serving a 30-day sentence following a plea of guilty in justice court to a charge of assault and battery on the boy.

Detroit—Droga Bolietic, who is a steadfast if unwelcome, admirer of Mrs. Stephen Welemlis, cannot take a hint, like being shot through the arm, to stay away from the object of his desires, but he will not bother her for the next 60 days, at least. Droga's latest expression of his feelings toward the woman of his desire took the form of a brick, which he is said to have hurled through the window at her husband. He was sentenced to 60 days in the house of correction by Judge Cotter.

Ribbons Deftly Used in Frocks

RIBBONS have always played a prominent part in the apparel of women, but they were never so important as they are now. Their manufacturers look to the ingenuity of designers of dress accessories, of millinery and of innumerable pretty furnishings to extend the demand for their products, and these designers have accomplished more than was expected of them. The beauty of the ribbons themselves, proves an inspiration and they have long since ceased to be used merely as decorations. In millinery they make entire hats and have for several seasons, so that the ribbon hat has an established place which it will continue to fill.

By way of showing what can be done with it in the hands of artists, several gowns in our American armament of dress creators have embodied ribbons in summer frocks—and in all sorts of frocks—for morning, afternoon and evening. The results were so good that the idea will carry over—we shall find ribbons in the styles for fall. It was at its best in summery afternoon and evening dresses and an adorable example for either afternoon or evening wear appears in the dress illustrated. It is of lace flouncing, on a net foundation, with very wide and very soft satin ribbon forming part of the bodice and skirt drapery. The ribbon is shirred in four little tucks at the front and in a single shirring at the side where it forms full panniers and falls in two long ends from under them. A few little blossoms made of narrow ribbon and having millinery character, find a resting place on the flounces, and the same blossoms set in a border and rows on a filmy parasol make it a sister to the lovely frock. After the accomplishments of these artists in summer frocks, curiosity makes whatever they will present for fall already interesting to the fashion reporter.

Late Summer and Its Brides

ALTHOUGH tradition gives June the preference for summer weddings and October proves to be the bride's next choice, no month is entirely forsaken by them. The maid that decides for late summer has some advantages, and among them is the chance to profit by the experience of June brides when she chooses her wedding gown. There were so many innovations in the gowning of this year's brides, great costumes made excursions away from the traditional all-white and gave us white with silver, white and gold and even wedding veils in pale gold. It is for the bride of tomorrow to say whether she will regard these new ideas with favor or fix her allegiance upon the all-white bridal costume.

Experimenting with the wedding veil brought out some new and ingenious adjustments of it and also the veil of chiffon instead of tulle. Premet gave to this particular June a chiffon veil embroidered in silver roses and edged with pearl beads, clinging to the head and revealing the uncovered face through a slit at the front. The bride shown in the picture has chosen this madonna-like draping of the veil, but clings to traditional orange blossoms in wreaths that encircle her head. Her frock of chiffon is laid in deep tucks below the hips, caught up a little at the sides and embellished with occasional clus-

CATERPILLAR IS CABBAGE ENEMY

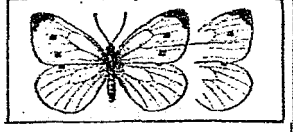

Imported Butterfly Is Most Destructive of Many Insects and Other Pests.

IS WELL KNOWN TO FARMERS

Frequently Secretes Itself in Immature Heads Where It Is Difficult to Reach With Insecticides—Sometimes Attacks Heart.

The most destructive of the many insects and other enemies of the cabbage family, is the caterpillar of the imported cabbage butterfly, sometimes called the white butterfly, a familiar object to nearly everyone. This is the imported cabbage worm, and is well known to farmers throughout this country and Europe as well, and the butterfly is generally recognized as the parent of the worms.

Bane of Growers.
This cabbage worm has been rightly termed the bane of the cabbage grower and the dread of every careful cook and housewife. It begins work early in the season; the principal damage is therefore to young plants, and accrues through the necessity of replanting, with attendant increase in cost of production, due to additional labor, cost of stock, and delay in getting the early or better prices in the market. After riddling the outer leaves, which remain afterwards attached to the stalk, the caterpillar attacks the tender inner leaves as they form, frequently secreting itself in the immature heads, where it is difficult to reach it with insecticides, and rendering the cabbage unfit for food because of the abundant dark green excrement which it deposits. As a result, cabbages before being sent to market must be examined carefully and the damaged leaves removed.

Look for Concealed Worms.
Before cooking it is frequently necessary to tear the heads apart to insure that no disgusting worms are concealed within, and even after the vegetable is prepared for the table there is danger of an admittance of animal matter with the vegetable food. In cool weather the caterpillar often feeds freely exposed on the surface of the leaves in the sunshine.

Frequently the caterpillar bores into the center of the cabbage, attacking what is commonly known as the "heart," and then the entire head is worthless for market.

ESTIMATE PLACED ON BEANS

Acres of 800,000 Expected to Yield 8,250,000 Bushels—Below That of Last Year.

The bean crop of the United States last year was about 12,000,000 bushels. While only about three-fifths as large as the crop grown on the exceptionally large acreage of 1918 and 1917, the 1919 crop was almost equal to the crops of 1914 to 1916, which averaged between 12,000,000 and 13,000,000 bushels. The planting is now indicated—about 800,000 acres—with a yield equal to the average of the last five years would produce a crop of 8,250,000 bushels.

DELICIOUS CHRISTMAS SALAD

Endive Is Hardy and Can Stand Right Smart Freeze—Bitter Taste Removed by Bleaching.

Endive is quite hardy and can stand a smart freeze. As winter comes on more covering can be added and the family will be supplied with the most delicious salad until Christmas or later if it is carefully killed and covered so as to turn the rain. This bleaching process not only insures tenderness, but takes out that bitter taste which is so objectionable to many.

PROPER STORAGE OF ONIONS

Diseases Can Be Controlled by Practice of Sanitary Measures and Right Packing.

In general, storage diseases of onions are to be controlled by the practice of sanitary measures, the sorting out of diseased bulbs at harvest, protection from rain after harvest, thorough curing and storage in a dry, well-ventilated warehouse at 32 to 35 degrees F.

GOOD KIND OF ADVERTISING

Neatly Worded Letterhead Is Favored by Progressive Farmer—Farm Name Important.

A neat well-worded letterhead is a good kind of advertising for the progressive farmer. The name of the farm is the big feature of the well-planned letterhead, the chief product second, and the farmer's name third in importance.

ACREAGE OF ALFALFA LARGEST OF LEGUMES

Greater Than That of Any Other Plant Cut for Hay.

Significant Fact That More Than One Half of Tame Hay Area Now Devoted to Nutritive and Soil-Improving Crops.

Alfalfa now has an acreage greater than that of any other legume or grass cut for hay, not growing in combination with another. Of the total tame hay acreage in 1919, alfalfa occupied 21.1 per cent, timothy and clover mixed 18.2 per cent, timothy 15.9 per cent, clover 12.3 per cent, pea 8.7 per cent, grain cut green, 7.7 per cent, and all others 10.1 per cent. If the acreage of the timothy and clover mixture is equally divided between those two plants, the timothy acreage becomes 25 per cent of the total of tame hay acreage, and clover 21.4 per cent, so that timothy is still the leading hay plant and the clovers have second place, a little above alfalfa.

The leguminous plants, alfalfa, clover, one-half of clover and timothy, and pea are 51.2 per cent of the tame hay area, and it is a significant fact that more than one-half of the tame hay acreage is now devoted to plants of the nutritive and soil improving properties of the legumes, whereas, ten years ago, as the census testifies, hardly one-third of the tame hay area was leguminous. This comparison has been established by the bureau of crop estimates.

KILL OUT CANADA THISTLES

Small Patches of Noxious Plant May Be Destroyed by Cutting Them Off During Summer.

Small patches of Canada thistles may be killed by cutting them off with a hoe or spade several times during the summer or by covering the patch with tar paper or building paper and leaving it in place several weeks. To handle larger fields without losing a crop it is necessary to grow some early maturing crop, like clover, winter rye or barley.

As soon as the crop is harvested, plow the land very thoroughly and then for the balance of the season keep the land so well disked and cultivated that the thistles never have a chance to show their leaves above ground. This is the only way in which the roots can be starved out. The cultivation may be continued the following season until about corn planting time, and the land planted to corn or other cultivated crop so that any plants that may have survived can be killed or dug out.

ADVANTAGE OF CATCH CROPS

Too Late for Planting Good Yielding Variety of Corn—Sudan Grass Meets Emergency.

It is now too late to plant a good yielding variety of corn, and resort must be made to such catch crops as Sudan grass, sorghum and millet. Of these three, sorghum will give the greatest yield, but Sudan grass yields a finer quality of hay and can be stored to better advantage in the stack or barn.

EXCELLENT CROPS FOR HOGS

Alfalfa and Clover Are Favored as Valuable Pasture for All Corn-Fed Live Stock.

Alfalfa and clover are both rich in protein, an element likely to be lacking in most of our farm feeds. It is for this reason both are so valuable as pasture for corn-fed animals, especially hogs. Another good hog pasture plant, which is not used nearly so much as it should be, is rape.

KEEP ALL GARDENS WORKING

Do Not Stop at Producing Spring and Summer Vegetables, But Get Supply for Winter.

Real gardeners will not stop at producing a crop of spring and summer vegetables, but will follow up the good work with a fresh supply for fall use. To make the garden more nearly efficient, do not permit good land to stand idle, so that fresh vegetables have to be bought from market in latter part of the season.

Important to all Women Readers of this Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be despondent; it makes any one so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine, will do for them. By enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmor & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., you may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase medium and large size bottles at all drug stores.—Adv.

Auto Numbers.
If you are inveigled into betting on the poker value of automobile numbers, don't let the other fellow fool you into paying him for every one that contains a pair. Most numbers show at least a pair, as a New Bedford man found to his sorrow the other day.

The terms of the wager were that he was to receive a quarter for every number lacking a pair, and to pay a quarter for every one that had a pair. It sounded all right to him, and he agreed. Of the first 35 cars there saw, 24 had numbers in which the same figures appeared twice against 11 in which all the figures were different. Since then the loser has tested the thing out and has satisfied himself that the pairs outnumber the others almost two to one.—New Bedford Evening Standard.

To Have a Clear Sweet Skin.
Touch pimples, redness, roughness & itching. If any, with Cuticura Ointment, then bathe with Cuticura Soap and hot water. Rinse, dry gently and dust on a little Cuticura Talcum to leave a fascinating fragrance on skin. Everywhere 25c each.—Adv.

Electrical Sterilization.
In a new report on electrical sterilization, Professor Battle and Lewis of Liverpool university, concluded that milk can be freed from disease germs without heating above 145 degrees to 147 degrees Fahrenheit. At this low temperature, the state of the milk is not altered and its properties seem to be in no way impaired, while the electric treatment greatly increases the time of keeping. The tests were made with two types of apparatus, different degrees of current and several quantities of milk.

Important to Mothers.
Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA, that famous old remedy for infants and children, and see that it bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher. In Use for Over 30 Years. Children Cry for Fletcher's Castoria.

No Cents.
"You seem very much impressed by all these explanations I have been giving you about banking and currency." "Yes, Charlie dear," replied Mrs. Torkins. "It seems perfectly wonderful that anybody could know as much as you do about money without having any."

Joyous Fire Drill.
The managers of a babies' home in Portland, Ore., have made fire drills a real delight for the children by installing a zinc-lined chute reaching from the second story to the ground.

War Disability.

Although Modern Medicine credits medical science with having accomplished wonders during the late war in eradicating or reducing diseases that have previously ravaged fighting armies, it maintains that disabilities resulting from the war are due in more cases to disease than to wounds. Figures compiled by the English ministry of pensions show that of all the pensions granted down to September 1, 1918, 58 per cent were on account of disease. Tuberculosis and chest complaints were responsible for 11.2 per cent, rheumatism for 6.5 per cent and heart disease for 9.9 per cent. Only incomplete figures are available concerning American experience, but of 7,710 cases dealt with by the federal board of vocational up to January 31, 1919, by far the greater portion were due to disease.—Youth's Companion.

Penitentiary Farm's Success.

Included in the report of the governor of the Edmonton, Alberta (Canada), penitentiary to the superintendent of penitentiaries is an interesting paragraph dealing with the farm operations carried on at the penitentiary as well as its mining operations. Some 70 acres were under cultivation during the past year and were farmed with gratifying results. From this small acreage, after buying a tractor and stable plow at a cost of $1,714, "we show a net profit of $4,191.17. From 9 1/2 acres of wheat we thrashed 45 bushels to the acre, and from 11 acres of potatoes, we sold 3,500 bushels. Our oats yielded 85 bushels to the acre, and the amount of small vegetables was exceptionally good. Our intensive farming has been very profitable."

Early Rising.

A Chicago advertising man drove through to the advertising convention in Indianapolis. A few miles outside of Indianapolis he had bad luck. His car skidded into the ditch and he had to wait till daylight to get someone to pull him out.

At 3:30 a. m. he went to a nearby farmhouse, knocked at the door and the farmer's wife answered the call. The advertising man asked: "Could I get your husband to pull my car out of the ditch?"

"Well, that's too bad," she replied. "You should have got here before breakfast. He took the horses over half an hour ago and is down the road two miles there and plenty by now."

HOT WEATHER

Hits the Stomach Hardest

Chicago, Ill.—Hot weather upsets the strongest stomach and causes serious trouble for the weak ones, so word is now going out to thousands of eatonic users that they should, during this hot weather, be on the safe side and take one eatonic tablet about half an hour before meals, as well as after eating. Do this and keep the excess acids and poisonous gases from forming in stomach and bowels. Eatonic acts quickly; it will help the appetite and take away the hot-weather, feverish, thirsty feeling from mouth and stomach, because it takes up the excess acids, poisons and gases and carries them out of the body and, of course, when the cause of the trouble is removed, there can be no bad feeling. Eatonic is like a bit of candy, and is recommended to all as a safe, sure remedy these hot days for stomach and bowels troubles, caused from overeating and drinking cold things. Adv.

More Than She Bargained For. She had been taught to pray for the things she desired. It was very dry and hot, and everybody was looking anxiously for rain. Suddenly it occurred to the little miss that she might pray for rain, and she acted on her impulse at once.

In a few minutes there came a terrific thundershower. Streets were flooded, trees were blown down, and other damage was done. After the shower the child's mother found her standing at the window looking out with a rueful face upon the debris, and heard her say in an awestruck voice:

"Oh, Lord, what have I done?"

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Entente Allies Discover They Must Defend Poland Against Russian Bolsheviks.

EAST PRUSSIA THREATENED

King Feisal of Syria Yields to French—Drys Nominate Watkins—Harding Is Notified and Cox Declares for Wilson's League Policy—Rail Workers Offered Wage Increase.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD.

International attention was centered during the week on the Russo-Polish situation, in which the diplomats found plenty to disturb their equanimity. In the first place, the Moscow government, replying to the British note asking if it would arrange an armistice with Poland, rejected in substance the British proposals. The Reds declined to go to London for any peace conference, holding that Great Britain is not impartial, and, in language so sarcastic that it hurt the feelings of the English statesmen, made it clear that they could deal with Poland direct. Their next move was to send a wireless message to Warsaw expressing regret that Poland had seen fit to deal through the allies and suggesting that conversations on peace be conducted between the two governments without consulting or considering outsiders. So far as is known at this writing, the Poles have not replied definitely to this invitation, but a London report said they had been told to apply for an armistice in order to test the sincerity of Moscow.

Meanwhile, the soviet forces opened a general attack all along the line from the Roumanian border to the Pripiet marshes, and though at first the Poles repulsed them in most places, at one point they broke across the border and were fighting on Polish soil. North of the Pripiet the Reds moved rapidly and took Grodno. Their evident objective was Warsaw, and the civilians of that city were preparing to take flight, some already having left. American relief organizations were ready to quit the city, and the Red Cross was shifting part of its headquarters to Cracow.

In their advance through Lithuanian territory the bolsheviks seem to be threatening an invasion of East Prussia, and the German government is preparing to defend that region desperately. Fifty thousand of the best reichswehr troops have been mobilized and Berlin feels confident they can prevent an invasion if they can be maintained near the border. The danger, however, is that as the soviet army draws near the bolshevik elements in other parts of Germany may break out and cause a scattering of those defense troops and leave open to the Russians the way into East Prussia. No doubt Germany will take advantage of the conditions to ask leave to mobilize more of her regular troops, and also it is likely the threat of invasion will bring to light vast stores of concealed arms, including artillery.

Early in the week Ignace Paderewski was made Polish plenipotentiary to Paris and his return to power was taken as evidence that the Poles were willing to make peace with the Russians direct. The musketeer-statesman was expected to placate Lloyd George and Millerand. Paderewski, Polish chief of state, had refused to withdraw his armies to the lines specified by Lloyd George, insisting that national safety required the holding of the line of Baranowitz-Pinsk-Dubno.

As a result of the Spa conference Great Britain and France are pledged to support Poland against Russian aggression, and they intend to give this support in the form of arms and munitions; men also will be supplied if this is considered necessary by British and French missions that have just been sent to Warsaw. But the British government is greatly vexed with the Poles. Premier Lloyd George on Wednesday gave voice to this feeling in a statement to the house of commons. He said, "If ever a nation in history has gone wrong mad, that nation is Poland" and characterized its course as reckless and foolish. This, however, he asserted, does not justify the crushing of the new nation, adding: "The whole fabric of European peace depends on an independent Poland. There is no time for the machinery of the League of Nations to interfere. If the bolsheviks overrun Poland and reach the German frontier, they deliver the allies of the entire fruits of victory." If the Russian bolsheviks decline to come to terms, the allies will give material aid not only to the Poles, but also to Gen. Baron Wrangel and others who are fighting the soviet government.

For the present France's trouble in Syria seems to be over. According to a report from Beirut, King Feisal of Syria has accepted all the terms of General Gouraud's ultimatum and it is believed the French can now occupy the territory assigned them without further attacks. Feisal had been informed that Great Britain would not support him, taking the position that his independence is not inconsistent with a French mandate over Syria. At the time he yielded the French troops were ready to move on Damascus by rail.

Operations in Anatolia ceased for a time, Kemal Pasha and his nationalists being held in check, but in Thrace there were signs of the outbreak of a new Balkan war. The Greeks, to whom western Thrace was awarded, had not advanced far inland, but according to reports Bulgaria, which claimed the territory, was getting into action against them, and had called the class of 1921 to the colors. The Bulgarians irregulars were helping Jafar Tayer, who, with headquarters at Adrianople, is trying to hold western Thrace for Turkey.

It was a lively week in Ireland. Several British officers were assassinated, at least one town was looted and partly burned, and there was desperate fighting in Belfast in which a number of persons were killed. The opposing forces in that city were Sinn Fein and Orangean employees in the shipyards.

Bloody battles in the vicinity of Peking marked the progress of the civil war in China early in the week, and then came the news that the rebels had been defeated and had given up the struggle against the government.

The Prohibition party met in national convention in Lincoln, Neb., and rather surprised itself by nominating William J. Bryan for president at the first session. The nomination was made by acclamation and came after a stampede of the delegates started by the adoption of a resolution "tendering" the honor to the Nebraskaan. On Thursday Bryan absolutely declined, so the convention named Rev. Aaron S. Watkins of Germantown, O., and gave the second place to D. Leigh Colvin of New York.

Formal opening of the Republican presidential campaign came with the notification of Senator Harding that he was the party's standard bearer and the delivery of his speech of acceptance. This took place in his home town, Marion, where most of the big party leaders and many thousands of others had assembled. Here are some of the salient points in the senator's speech:

"I believe in party government as distinguished from personal government. Individual, dictatorial, autocratic or what not."

"Our vision includes more than a chief executive. We believe in a cabinet of highest capacity, equal to the responsibilities which our system contemplates. In whose councils the vice president, second official of the republic, shall be asked to participate."

"I promise you formal and effective peace so quickly as a Republican congress can pass its declaration for a Republican executive to sign."

"We approve collective bargaining."

"Gross expansion of currency and credits has depreciated the dollar. We will attempt intelligent and courageous deflation."

"When competition—natural, fair, compelling competition—is suppressed, whether by law, compact or conspiracy we halt the march of progress, silence the voice of aspiration and paralyze the will for achievement."

"The human element comes first, and I want the employers in industry to understand the aspirations, the convictions, the yearnings of millions of American wage earners."

"War establishes its higher standard for wages and they abide. I wish the higher wage to abide, on one explicit condition—that the wage-earner will give full return for the wage received."

Governor Cox and Franklin D. Roosevelt began the week with a lengthy conference with President Wilson in the White House. After the meeting it was formally announced that the president and the Democratic nominees are in full accord on the League of Nations issue. Governor Cox said:

"We are agreed as to the meaning and sufficiency of the Democratic platform and the duty of the party in the face of the threatened had faith to the world in the name of America. His thought is still of the war and the pledges we gave to those who sacrificed. What he promised, I shall, if elected, endeavor with all my strength to give."

The president announced that he had found what he already knew, that Governor Cox and he were "absolutely at one with respect to the great issue of the League of Nations and that he is ready to be the champion in every respect of the honor of the nation and the secure peace of the world."

On Tuesday the Democratic national committee met in Columbus, O., to prepare for the campaign. Mr. Cox's choice for chairman was Edmund H. Moore, his pre-convention manager. Mr. Moore absolutely declined. The governor then asked the election of former Congressman George White of Marietta, and the committee, most of whose members were said to favor the retention of Homer S. Cummings in the place, yielded and named Mr. White. To comply with the rules laid down by the San Francisco convention, Mr. Moore resigned from the committee and Mr. White was elected in his place. Governor Cox is to be notified on August 7 and Roosevelt two days later.

Whether or not to accept a wage increase of $900,000,000 yearly, including about $140,000,000 back pay, was the proposition put up to the rail workers of the country last week by the United States railway labor board. The long awaited award was announced in Chicago to the representatives of eighteen brotherhoods and unions, and it really did not please them at all, as they demanded approximately twice as much. Some of the members of the grand council were not empowered to accept the award finally, so a referendum vote of the two million rail workers becomes necessary. The chiefs of one union, the Order of Railway Telegraphers, rejected the award, and they called for a referendum vote on strike.

Of course the railway executives at once began looking for means to pay the advanced wages, and they already have worked out a schedule of increased rates, both freight and passenger, for presentation to the interstate commerce commission. The passenger increase asked is from one half to one per cent per mile. That for freight will undoubtedly be heavy.

In the death of William K. Vanderbilt in Paris one of America's leading financiers and sportsmen passed. He inherited a large share of the vast estate of his father, and is believed to have left a fortune of between $50,000,000 and $100,000,000. Despite his wealth he worked his way up from the bottom in the railroad business.

Another death of the week, interesting but not important, was that of Joachim, youngest son of the former Kaiser. Distressed by financial difficulties, he committed suicide in Berlin.

TRUNK MURDER STILL MYSTERY

SEARCH FOR WOMAN'S SLAYER NARROWED DOWN TO MAN NAMED LeROY.

SUSPECT KNOWN TO POLICE

LeRoy, Also Known As O. J. Wood and A. J. Fernandez Has Record As Underworld Operator.

Detroit.—Slowly the tangled threads of circumstance that surround the murder of a woman, believed to be Mrs. Katherine Jackson, of Sturgis, Miss., whose nude body was found in a trunk shipped from Detroit to New York city, are being unraveled, but thus far the unraveling has thrown light only upon minor occurrences and conditions. The Detroit police have made little or no headway in determining the identity of the murderer, although circumstance points strongly toward a man calling himself E. LeRoy, and who probably went under the name of A. J. Fernandez and O. J. Wood in New York city. That the dead woman, who lived with LeRoy as his wife at 105 Harper avenue, feared death at LeRoy's hands, is now established. Also that she attempted to commit suicide. That LeRoy, or Fernandez, was at one time in Palatka, Fla., and had a sweetheart there, who wrote to him as late as the first week of June at his Harper avenue address, also seems settled.

Eugene LeRoy, for whom police all over the United States are now hunting, is an underworld operator well known to the police of New York and Chicago, according to a telegram sent from New York by Assistant Prosecutor Robert F. Speed, of Detroit, to Chief of Detectives Edward Fox. Allan A. Tatum, whose name and initials appeared on a shipping card in the murder trunk, voluntarily surrendered to the police at Birmingham, Ala., where he is employed as a linotype in a publishing house. He admitted knowing the "LeRays," but denied any knowledge of the crime. He visited Mrs. LeRoy in Detroit early in June.

NAVY ORDERED TO SEIZE OIL

Go to Court, Company Told As Ships Take 500,000 Gallons.

San Francisco.—Six United States destroyers drew up at the loading plant of the Associated Oil company here last week with orders to commandeer the plant and seize 500,000 gallons of fuel oil for their own use, following a contest over the price of the fuel between the navy and the company.

Navy authorities announced they were taking the oil at the navy's own price of $1.72 a barrel. The oil company was told to resort to court action if it wished to obtain its own prices, which ranged around $2. The commanders of the vessels were ordered to use all means within the navy's power to obtain the oil. When the vessels berthed at the company's wharf, the company, after a brief parley, connected the vessels with the tanks.

OFFICER FREE IN BERGDOLL CASE

Former Military Prison Chief Is Released From Arrest.

New York.—Colonel John E. Hunt, former commandant of the Fort Jay military prison here, was released from technical arrest in quarters immediately after the army court-martial which has been trying him on charges of neglect of duty in connection with the escape of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, wealthy draft dodger, had reported its findings. The decision of the court will not be made known until after it has been reviewed by the commanding general of the department of the east. The fact that Colonel Hunt was released from arrest, however, and not ordered confined or dismissed from the service was construed by army men as a virtual acquittal.

U.S. COLLECTS GREATEST TAX

Total, $5,410,284,874, Bigger Than Expected—Michigan Pays $283,748,648.

Washington.—The nation's greatest tax bill—$5,410,284,874—was collected during the fiscal year ending June 30. Of this sum Michigan contributed $283,748,648.

Official figures showed the tax paid in the last 12 months had exceeded all estimates, congressional and official, by approximately $300,000,000, and was nearly 75 per cent larger than the total of taxes paid in either of the war years of 1918 or 1919. The 1918 tax levy yielded $2,594,619,633 and the taxes in 1919 aggregated $3,632,950,619.

Collection of this record-breaking assessment cost the government $29,750,000, or about 55 cents for each $100.

BOUND TO DELIVER SPEECH

Guest at Banquet Must Have Something Astonished the Rest of the Gathering.

There was to be a banquet at an Indianapolis church and one of the parishioners felt sure that he would be called on for a speech. Realizing how poor he was at impromptu speeches he accordingly made ready for this occasion by writing one and then memorizing it.

The night of the banquet came and after rehearsing his speech to his proud wife the parishioner went to church, elated over his forethought. The crowd assembled and gathered around the table. And then—when the minister called on the parishioner to say "grace."

For a minute he was appalled—also his wife. But bravely he rallied and began to compose a grace. He gave one sentence, hesitated and then, to his wife's horror, plunged into the middle of his speech. He finished it, too. Of course every one was amazed, his wife most of all, for you see he even used his practiced gestures.

Mercenary Maid.

"The modern girl," said Miss Louise Bryant, the Socialist leader of New York, "is altogether too mercenary."

"I know a young Socialist who said to a beautiful girl of whom he was enamored: 'Shakespeare recommends that we grapple our friends to us with hooks of steel.'"

"But," the girl answered, "but if we tied them to us with ropes of pearls, wouldn't it be nicer, dear?"

After the Deluge.

"What was the result of the flood?" asked the Sunday school teacher. "Mud," replied the bright youngster. —London Tit-Bits.

WILL HONOR EARLY PRINTER WAS ALSO A VEGETARIAN

Anniversary of Birth of Christophe Plantin to Be Appropriately Commemorated in August.

The four hundredth anniversary of the birth of Christophe Plantin, the noted French printer of the sixteenth century, will be commemorated with appropriate ceremonies in Antwerp during August. Plantin was a son of Belgium only through adoption. He was born somewhere in historic Touraine.

It was the peculiar achievement of Plantin to bring honor and glory to the printer's trade in the days of its infancy. With a keen appreciation of the beauties of literature, Plantin delighted in perfecting his workmanship in order that these beauties might be published in the most attractive form possible, although his tools were those of a common workman. His chief oeuvre was the famous Bible polyglot—published in 1569-1573—an attempt at a scientific revision of the text of the Old and New Testaments. It was published in the Greek, Hebrew, Syrian and Chaldean languages. As a result of this monumental work Plantin received from King Philip of Spain the title "prototypographus regius," and the right to print all the liturgical books for the states embraced in King Philip's far-flung empire.

At Any Rate, George Bernard Shaw's Guest Showed Little Desire for Meat Dishes. "George Bernard Shaw has been a vegetarian for 36 years," said an editor. "Shaw told me a vegetarian story the last time I visited him in London. 'He said he was walking in the Strand one day when a beggar held him up and asked for a little money to buy food, claiming he had eaten nothing for 48 hours. Shaw gave him a note to Francis's for a full meal, and stopped in there the next day to pay the bill. 'I sent a poor beggar here yesterday,' he said. 'What do I owe you?' 'Seventeen and six, Mr. Shaw,' said the man with a smile. 'Seventeen and six, eh? And what were the items?' 'Eight beers, a plate of meat, three whiskeys, a plate of port, four cigars and a package of Virginia cigarettes. A true vegetarian like yourself, sir.'—London Tit-Bits.

When the train came in back in 1910

TEN years ago you might have seen one or two automobiles waiting outside the station, when the weather was pleasant.

Today the square is crowded with them. And most of the cars you generally see there are moderate-price cars.

Anybody who tells you that owners of moderate-price cars are not interested in the quality of their tires has never met very many of them.

We come in contact with the small car owner every day and we have found that he is just as much interested as the big car owner.

There is one tire, at least, that makes no distinction between small cars and large cars so far as quality is concerned—the U. S. Tire.

Every U. S. Tire is just like every other in quality—the best its builders know how to build.

Whatever the size of your car, the service you get out of U. S. Tires is the same. It isn't the car, but the man who owns the car, that sets the standard to which U. S. tires are made.

We feel the same way about it. That's why we represent U. S. Tires in this community.
