

PECULIAR DROWNING AT CAVANAUGH LAKE

John Wilkinson, An Ex-Serviceman, Sank To Death Sunday.

John Wilkinson, a colored man employed by Judge Look of Detroit as a cook at his summer home at Cavanaugh Lake, was drowned Sunday under rather peculiar circumstances.

Wilkinson was an excellent swimmer and had been in bathing in the lake previous to the accident which resulted in the foundering of the canoe in which he and a dog were riding.

Several persons saw the canoe partially fill with water and sink at one end, but they were aware that Wilkinson was a good swimmer and at first paid no attention to him as he was only a little way out from the east shore of the lake and it was supposed he was fooling with the dog.

Later, when it was realized that Wilkinson was in distress an attempt was made to aid the drowning man, but it was then too late to reach him before he sank. He did not ask for help and the supposition is that he did not at first realize that he was in danger, himself. Probably the cold water had something to do with the accident, chilling him so that he was overcome before he realized his danger and was still able to help himself.

The body did not return to the surface after going down and it was nearly an hour and a half until it was recovered.

The deceased is said to have relatives in Kansas City and the American Legion of that city is trying to locate them.

Representatives of the company now here are reticent regarding the plans of the new concern, further than to say that for the present they prefer not to give out any information, at least not until Mr. Morrison is here, and that he is expected tomorrow. A heavy mixing and compressing machine was unloaded in the Michigan Central yards Saturday and is now being moved to the peat plant in the southeastern part of town.

Small Industrial Type Machine Tipped Into Ditch Yesterday.

One of the small gasolene locomotives used in the construction of the federal aid trunk line between Ann Arbor and Jackson toppled into the ditch yesterday near the Elmer Weinberg farm, just southwest of Chelsea.

The accident was due to the soft dirt fill near the edge of the new grade giving away and allowing the track to settle at one side. The machine now lies bottom side up and with the limited facilities at hand for righting it, presents something of a problem to the road builders.

Edward Frymuth was driving the locomotive at the time the accident occurred, but fortunately escaped injury.

SAVING WASTE FOR FUEL.

"Old rags, old bots" is a familiar call where the itinerant dealer in old "junk" or the tin peddler makes his rounds, and those who have dealt with him know that he buys also discarded or waste metal and rubber. His was one of the first industries in the United States that made a business of saving "waste material."

Among later similar industries is one that utilizes waste coal and waste petroleum residue in making fuel briquets. During the past ten years two and three-quarter million tons of fuel briquets have been sold for more than $14,000,000. The principal raw materials used in this industry are culm from the anthracite mines of Pennsylvania, slack produced by the rehandling of coal shipped by vessel to the head of Lake Superior, and carbon residue from the manufacture of oil gas. In 1919 twelve briquetting plants were in operation in the United States—five in the Eastern States, four in the Central States, and three on the Pacific coast. The output of these plants in 1919, according to the United States Geological Survey was 295,734 short tons, valued at $2,301,054.

PLEASURE HAD SAD ENDING

Four in a Tub, With Soiled Clothing, Too Much for the Patience of Mother.

My young brother Billie was mischievous, and had to be watched carefully. Mother was busy making a birthday gift one afternoon, and Johnny and I were playing near her, with our dog Jim. Suddenly mother said: "Where's Billie?"

We said we didn't know, so were sent to find him. I looked everywhere. When I came to the bathroom, there was Billie in the tub which he'd filled with water, and he had his clothes on. "In in," he said, and I scrambled at too.

We were enjoying ourselves immensely when in came Johnny, dragging the dog Jim. He managed to get Jim and himself in the tub, and we all had a fine time splashing.

Suddenly mother entered. "Out of that tub," she ordered. We got out. "Undress and go to bed at once." We went, supperless.—Exchange.

GIVING NATURE FAIR CHANCE

Sluggard Satisfied He Had an Admirable Excuse for Refusing to Be Up and About.

"Arise!" we said in a tone admirably adapted for declamatory purposes, addressing the sluggard, who was still slugging at an unconscionably late hour. "The lark is up to meet the sun. The bee is on the wing. Remember the manner in which the experienced school boy read aloud the admonition to Lucy. He had been jangled that when he encountered two letters of the same kind he should pronounce them 'double-a' or whatever they might be, instead of 'o.' 'o.' So he sternly recited, but 'Double up, Lucy! The sun is in the sky,' and so forth. Why do you not double up, and to your tasks away?"

"That is a very good story," replied the sluggard, "but it does not move me. We are told that nature does most of her repair work on us while we are in bed. It is my intention to lie here until she fixes me up so that I feel like going to work."—Kansas City Star.

A PROFESSOR OF CHEMISTRY SAYS HYPO-COD IS O. K.

Best Reconstructive Tonic Ever Produced, Says This Authority.

"I have been in the medical profession for quite a number of years as Pharmacist and Professor of Chemistry (Tennessee Medical College) and the truly wonderful results obtained by so many people through the use of Earle's Hypo-Cod caused me to decide to make an exhaustive research and I find it is one of the most extremely well balanced combinations of tonic, alterative and nutritive principles ever produced.

"It can be used with impunity without the least digestive disturbance owing to the complete elimination of the fishy taste of Cod Liver oil, while still retaining all the extractive elements so useful as a tonic and tissue builder.

"The extract of Malt, containing carbohydrates and Nitrogenous matter, cannot be surpassed as a nutrient and fat producing agent; Wild Cherry Bark, as everyone knows, has an extremely beneficial effect upon the mucous membranes, and with the small amount of strychnine present, acts as a stomach stimulating element.

"The Hypophosphites of Lime, Soda, Potassium, Manganese, Quinine and Strychnine are too well known for the powerful influence they exert upon the wasted nerve tissues and upon the lungs for me to dwell upon their efficiency. The iron so necessary to enrich the blood is also present in soluble form readily assimilated and the Sherry wine not only acts as a base to hold it in solution, but acts as a mild stimulant and appetizer.

"I consider Earle's Hypo-Cod a most valuable preparation, and can readily understand why so many people are obtaining beneficial results from its use. It is a most meritorious preparation." Signed—E. E. Early, Ph. G.

105,683,108, NOW U. S. POPULATION

NATION GAINS 13,710,842 INHABITANTS SINCE 1910, AN INCREASE OF 14.9%.

MICHIGAN INCREASED 857,049

State Passes Missouri and Takes Seventh Place Among States With Total of 3,667,222.

Washington.—The total population of continental United States is 105,683,108, an increase of 13,710,842, or 14.9 per cent. Michigan, with a population of 3,667,222, increased 857,049, or 20.5 per cent, almost doubling its previous record growth made in the decade ended with 1890. The state passed Missouri, which was seventh in the 1910 census.

Revised figures of Detroit's population show that at the time of taking the census the city contained 993,678 inhabitants, an increase of 57,912, or 11.3 per cent over the figures for 1910. Figures previously announced gave the city a population of 935,739.

There are in the United States 6,459,998 farms, an increase of 88,482, or 1.5 per cent, over the number recorded in 1910, the census bureau announced.

The figure given as the total population of the United States does not include approximately 12,250,000 people living in the country's outlying possessions. The population of Alaska and the total classed under the military and naval service abroad are yet to be announced.

Director Rogers, of the census bureau, in making the announcement of the country's population, said that while the figures were preliminary and subject to correction, the final official population as transmitted to congress in December, for apportionment purposes, was not likely to be greatly different, although it might be slightly larger through the addition of population for small sections of territory claimed not to have been properly canvassed by the census enumerators in January and which are now being investigated.

BLAST KILLS 5 IN N. Y. HARBOR

Score Injured As British Tanker Is Damaged By Explosion.

New York.—Five men were killed, five others are missing and believed to be dead and more than a score injured in an explosion which wrecked a forward compartment of the British tanker, G. R. Crowe of Toronto.

The blast, which endangered the lives of more than 200 workmen employed on the ship's deck, is believed to have been caused when gases from an empty oil tank were ignited by a blow torch.

The majority of the wounded were burned and lacerated, but all are expected to live, it was stated at the hospitals.

During the war the Crowe was used as a fuel replenishing ship for the British battle fleets.

MRS. MOTT GETS LIFE TERM

Jury Returns Verdict of Guilty Against Accused Poisoner.

Ludington.—Mrs. Blanch Mott was convicted in the Mason County Circuit Court of the charge of murdering her husband, Amel Mott, wealthy farmer, and sentenced by Judge Hal. C. Cutler to life imprisonment in the Detroit House of Correction.

When asked by the Court if she had anything to say before sentence, she regained her composure and replied calmly.

"All I have to say is before God I am innocent, and I forgive all for what they have said against me."

Mrs. Mott, 30 years old, was alleged to have poisoned her husband. Her attorneys will ask for a new trial.

DOWNWARD TREND TO CONTINUE

Dun and Bradstreet Reports Show No Sign of Checking

New York.—Downward trend of prices continues, according to Bradstreet's monthly average of commodity prices, and R. G. Dun & Co.'s review of commodity prices for last week.

A decline of nearly six per cent during September and of 19 per cent from the high level of the early part of the year was shown by Bradstreet's.

The review of R. G. Dun & Co. said:

"There was no check, as a whole, to the downward trend of prices in the primary markets, there being 82 recessions in the list of quotations compiled, against 15 advances."

New Decorators Union Recognized.

New York.—The New York Painters, Paperhangers and Decorators, a new union, has been recognized officially by the Building Trades Council, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. The action virtually outlaws the old union of painters and allied trades, members of which have been on strike for more than a month.

The strike, it was said, "did not meet with the approval of the sober, sane, and forward-looking element in the labor movement here."

HARDWICK NOMINATED FOR GEORGIA GOVERNOR

THOMAS W. HARDWICK

Atlanta, Ga.—Complete unofficial returns received by the Atlanta Constitution showed that Thomas W. Hardwick, former United States senator, had been nominated for governor of Georgia in the Democratic primary. On the face of the Constitution's returns, Hardwick carried 100 counties, with a total of 236 county unit votes, while his opponent, Clifford L. Walker, former state attorney general, carried 54 counties, with 148 votes. One hundred and ninety-four votes were needed for nomination. Hardwick long has been an outspoken foe of the League of Nations.

STATE TAX OVER 17 MILLIONS

Decrease of Only $52,527 From The Total 1919 Tax Total.

Lansing.—The total state tax for 1920, just apportioned to the counties by O. B. Fuller, auditor-general, is $17,378,328, a decrease of only $52,527 from last year. The state tax the second year after a legislative session is usually much lower than the fall following the session.

This year's tax is based on the same equalization as that of 1919, the Legislature having failed to provide machinery for carrying out its mandate that there be an equalization each year. This equalization, made in August of 1919, values the taxable property in the state at $4,500,000,000.

In arriving at the total tax, 103 separate appropriation bills had to be taken into consideration, all except five of them having been passed by the 1919 Legislature.

Wayne's share of the total state tax this year is $6,137,639. Kent is to pay $958,897.

BAN ON LIQUOR WITHDRAWAL

Illicit Sales in New York Reduced 75 Per Cent, Say Officials.

Washington.—In an effort to check illegal liquor sales Prohibition Commissioner Kramer has ordered withdrawal of whisky from bond temporarily suspended in New York city and parts of Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Kramer disclosed that the ban had been on for a month and that he had received a request from A. L. Dalyrymple, district prohibition agent at Chicago, for an order of similar nature to be placed in effect in the Chicago district.

Officials in the prohibition office estimated that illicit sale of whisky had been reduced about 75 per cent in New York. They were without definite reports as to its effect in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

WOODEN FLEET GOING TO ROT

More Than 300 Ships in James River Abandoned and Partly Dismantled.

Washington.—One hundred and sixty wooden ships, having a total dead-weight tonnage of approximately 600,000 tons, are anchored in the James river, near Clarendon, Va.

Those which have not already been stripped of their masts and rigging are being dismantled.

They can neither be sold nor operated at a profit. United States shipping board employees in charge of them believe the James river is their graveyard.

Through alleged negligence, two of the ships, the Okesa and the Chimo, have been destroyed by fire. Two others, the Saris and the Fort Leavenworth were badly damaged by flames.

Biggest Boat Destroyed in Yards.

Berlin.—The uncompleted steamship Bismarck, which would have been the world's largest vessel, has been burned at Hamburg, says a dispatch to the Zwelfohr. The gross tonnage of the Bismarck was to have been 58,000, as against 64,282 of the Leviathan, the largest steamer afloat. The Bismarck was building at the yards of Blohm and Vois at Hamburg, and would have been delivered to the allies under the terms of the peace treaty.

Macaroni Ends Hunger Strike.

Cook, for many years a justice of the peace of the town of Hornellsville, is dying in Bethesda Hospital as a result of injuries received when he fell from an apple tree on his farm. Judge Cook has been known as somewhat of a wag. Recently when the city received a new motor ambulance he saw it at a local garage. "I'm just dying to ride in it," he commented. ### WHAT THE TEACHER THOUGHT

Comment That Took a Whole Lot of Concert Out of One Small Coy's Daddy.

"The world is full of fault finders," remarked Professor Pritchard at a dinner recently, "and one of the most common targets is the modern educational system. No more common expression than, 'Well, they used to really teach us something when I went to school.'"

"I have a friend like that, but the other day he told me he was through. It came about in this way. He used to help his little son with his home studies. One evening, as they were about to begin, he asked the little chap what his teacher said regarding his home work."

"She says I'm getting stupider every day," replied the lad, and from then on he had to do his home lessons alone."

English Factory Farm.

A factory farm in Lincolnshire, England, instituted by Dennis Brothers, with its center at Kirton, possesses a capital running into millions of pounds sterling. Last year £30,000 (roughly $100,000) was distributed among the workmen on a profit-sharing system. By intensive cultivation 200 per acre was realized last year from a considerable number of acres. The farm possesses its own railroads, factories and machine-making shops.

POINTED OUT BRIGHT SIDE

Optimist's Brave Effort to Convince Afflicted Man That the Cloud Had Silver Lining.

Mr. Juergens had been suddenly afflicted with a stiff neck. Not only was it a painful stiffness, but it caused him to twist his head around until he seemed to be trying to look behind him over his left shoulder, and his head was rigid in that pose.

"Of all the confounded trials a man was ever subjected to," he said, "this is the limit. They say to look on the bright side of our afflictions, but I'd like to know how I could make use of this stiff neck."

"My dear friend," said the optimist, "think what a golden opportunity this is to sit for your picture without having to allow the photographer to twist your head around that way and jab those ice-cold tongues into the back of your neck!"

A Wet Hump.

Recently at one of the towns on the Canadian border a goat severely bitten by a hunchback, and a sharp-eyed customs official perceived that, succeeding the assault, the man's hump was out of place. Upon further examination it was found that the man was perfectly formed, though diminutive, and that his "hump," when detached, was a two-quart receptacle filled with whisky.—Brooklyn Eagle.

FACTS ABOUT PHILIPPINES.

The University of Santo Tomas is 25 years older than Harvard.

The Filipino people number 10,350,040, of which 9,305,272 are Christians and only 9 per cent non-Christians.

They have been Christians for 300 years and have a culture and refinement that will compare very favorably with that of other nations.

There are only 4,681 Japanese in the Philippines. There are about 100,000 Japanese in California alone, or 15 times as many as in the entire Philippine archipelago.

English is taught exclusively in the Philippine public schools. Two million natives now speak English fluently, and there are 700,000 English speaking children in the public schools.

Seventy per cent of the inhabitants of the Philippines over ten years of age, according to a census just completed, are literate. This is a higher percentage of literacy than that of any South American country, higher than that of Spain and higher than that of any of the new republics of Europe whose independence is being guaranteed by the Allies.

The Filipinos declare they have no grudge or grievance against the American people. Their opinion is expressed in a message of friendship and gratitude for all that America has done for them.

HOME SERVICE FOR EVERYBODY Do you know what the present day Home Service of the American Red Cross is?

Many people do not know that, besides completing the work for ex-servicemen, especially the disabled, it provides the same neighborly service to families in general that it formerly gave families of soldiers, sailors and marines.

"Home Service covers a wide and varied field," says Frederick C. Munroe, general manager of the American Red Cross. "It gives aid to families in solving such problems as budget planning, marketing, tiding over times of financial stress, keeping children in school, helping crippled children, widowed and deserted mothers, children backward in school and children in conflict with the laws. It renders service to the homeless and transient, to the illiterate, to tenement dwellers, to the unemployed, and gives friendly assistance and advice to foreign speaking groups."

In addition to helping families in the solution of their own problems, Home Service helps in strengthening the weak spots in the social life of communities. It joins hands with others to make communities safer, healthier and happier.

Organizing action along lines in which the community is already interested is one of the objects of Home Service. It has established community meetings, patriotic celebrations, parents and picnics, rest rooms, recreation facilities, play supervisors and moving pictures have been provided. Through Home Service other agencies are influenced to bring about improved commercial amusements and better school facilities and to promote traveling libraries as well as to secure county agricultural and home demonstration agents.

If you need assistance at any time, go to the secretary of the nearest Red Cross chapter and describe the situation. Your confidence will be sacredly respected and every possible effort will be made to aid you.
