COMMITTEE APPOINTED FOR COUNTY PAGEANT

P. G. Schaible, S. P. Foster and Geo. P. Stallan, at a meeting held in the directors' room of the Farmers & Merchants Bank Monday evening, were appointed as a committee to arrange the local plans for the proposed county pageant to be held the coming summer.

Among one of the proposed days for the pageant is one to be called Chelsea Homecoming day, at which time it is expected that all schools, churches, lodges and clubs will take part in welcoming all former residents of what will be called the Chelsea district of the county pageant.

There has been considerable discussion at several gatherings held in Ann Arbor recently, for and against the proposition and the Chelsea committee will meet Friday evening with other committees from all parts of the county, at the court house in Ann Arbor, when further arrangements will be discussed.

One of the objects of the pageant is that the present residents and former residents of Washtenaw county may get together and make the event one grand homecoming and get better acquainted with the people from all parts of the county.

Beet Institute Each Year.

Sugar beet growers and manufacturers of Michigan will meet at M.
A. C. each year in the future to discuss methods of increased production, it is announced following the sugar beet institute held last week at the college. E. B. Hill, assistant to the dean of agriculture, has been made executive secretary and plans are already being laid for next year's conference.

All phases of production were covered in the two days' discussions.
Dr. G. H. Coons of the botany department of M. A. C. took up "Sugar Beet Diseases." Dr. M. M. McCool, head of the soils department talked on "Removal of Fertility by Beets."
"Beets on Muck" was the subject of an address by Ezra Levin, muck farming specialist, while "Cultural Methods" were discussed by C. O.
Townsend and Prof. J. F. Cox.
Other topics were "Beet Nutrition," by H. C. Young; "Fertility and Beets," by Secretary Hill; "Seed Production" by Mr. Townsend and W.
H. Burns; and "Work of M. A. C. on Seed Production," by Prof. F. A.
Spragg.

An interesting feature which served an educational purpose as well as a motion picture film showing the operations of beet factories.
Since the entire program was purely educational, no other problems of the industry came up for discussion.

New Auto Tax Bill.

State Senator James Henry of Battle Creek, has a bill to be introduced which puts a fee of $2 on every new automobile driven out of the state. The bill would hold the manufacturer responsible for the collection of the fee at the factory where a receipt would be given to each drive away. Any officer would have the right to stop such a machine to find out whether the fee had been paid. F. F. Rogers, state highway commissioner, is co-operating in the drawing of the bill. It is said that the drive-away traffic is so heavy that in many sections new roads are destroyed more rapidly than they can be repaired. Last year many complaints were heard of the damage done to country roads
by the hundreds of cars which passed over them daily on the way to other states. Senator Henry plans to have the money the highway department turned over to the state highway department fund, which would be enriched should the bill become a law by many thousands of dollars annually. Cars destined for points in Michigan would not be affected.

To Study Oriental Art.

Fifty thousand dollars was bequeathed by the late Charles L.
Freder of Detroit, to the University of Michigan for the purpose of stimulating interest in oriental art.
This gift has made possible the organization of an oriental art course to be offered during the Summer session of the present year. In view of the fact that study in this field has been almost negligible in American colleges, it is expected that the new course will attract many students of art.

The course will comprise a general survey of the art of the Near East, including Arabia, Egypt and Persia, and of the Far East, including India, China, and Japan. It will embrace architecture, sculpture and painting.

Purchase Spraying Material.

A meeting of the Chelsea Cooperative Association was held in the town hall last Saturday, at which time a contract was entered into with a manufacturing concern to supply the Association with spraying material. Manager G. W. Coe will have charge of the distribution of the spraying material. A committee consisting of O. C. Burkhardt, G. W.
Coe and Jacob Lehmann was appointed to investigate the proposition of either buying or building a warehouse for the use of the Association.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steinway wish to thank the Lafayette Grange for the farewell reception given them
Tuesday evening, February 16.

B. V. R. C. will meet with Mrs.
Hoag, February 21.

MUST SEND DRAIN ORDERS TO FLORIDA

The drain commissioners of the counties involved in the building of the new Portage river drain held a meeting in the office of Jackson county drain commissioner, Emmett Cochrane, Thursday morning for the purpose of signing orders and auditing bills.

All papers will have to be sent to St. Petersburg, Fla., for the signature of C. E. Deake, drain commissioner of Washtenaw county, who is wintering in the south and without whose signature no orders are valid.
Deake recently nullified a contract for a temporary bridge because he was not present when the contract was let.—Jackson News.

Charles Hamilton.

township, died at University hospital,

ruary 15, at the age of 59 years, 4
months and 16 days.

and has been a resident of Waterloo township for a number of years. He

SEMI-ANNUAL INSPECTION OF COUNTY JAIL.

The Washtenaw county jail was inspected last week by Judge Emory
E. Leland of the probate court, J. J.
Goodyear, county agent, Michael Stuebler, C. C. Dorr and P. W. Ross, superintendents of the poor. The jail is required to be inspected by the above men twice each year,
once in September and once in February.

The report of the inspectors was submitted Saturday, calls attention to the poor condition of the bars on the windows, and states that previous recommendations in this regard had been made. The inspectors assert that there is no criticism as to the management of the jail.

The inspectors found that since last September there has been confined at the jail at different times 148 prisoners charged with offenses
as follows:

Murder 1, vagrancy 2, drunkenness 24, concealed weapons 2, breaking and entering 1, driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicants 3, the prohibition violations 19, body attachment 5, petty larceny 8, assault and battery 4, grand larceny 9, robbery 2, manslaughter male none, female 1, gambling 2, violation of the game law 2, insane male 3, female 1, driving away automobiles 4, violations of city ordinances 1, scalping tickets 3, obtaining money under false pretenses 2, disorderly 9, fugitive 1, larceny by trick 2, wife desertion 1,
on suspicion male 19, female 1,
adultery male 2, female 1, capias 1, bastardy 1, avoiding the payment of a board bill 1, stealing train rides 1, burglary 3, resisting an officer 1, parole violation 1, indecent language
1, non-support 1, cruelty to animals
1, and wife beating 1.

In the above report all held were men unless otherwise stated. The inspectors report that all laws regulating the management of the jail have been complied with.

For the same period a year ago
the inspection showed that only 73 prisoners had been held in jail, and in September, 1919, 167. It is interesting to note that since September only four women have been arrested and confined in the county jail. For the same period last year the jail received nine women prisoners, and at the inspection in 1919, there were records shown that involved 14
women.

Jackson—Anthony J. Klok, former clerk of the county treasurer's office in Detroit, who was sentenced September 1, 1917, to serve four years for embezzling county funds, was Saturday paroled by Governor Groesbeck from Jackson prison. Klok was released late Saturday afternoon.

Pinckney—Pinckney went on record Thursday with a total of 200 votes, the largest number by far that has ever been cast at any previous village election, unanimously for the Edison service. Only one vote was uncounted, having evidently been marked to vote both Yes and No by mistake.—Dispatch.

Jackson—The attorney member of the Chamber of Commerce advice committee is F. M. Freeman. This committee meets every Monday afternoon from 5 to 6 o'clock at the Chamber's offices. Mr. Freeman was a former resident of Manchester and a brother of Chauncey Freeman of Chelsea.

Ann Arbor—Vincent, the 12-year-old son of Prof. and Mrs. V. C. Poor, of this city, was drowned Sunday afternoon near the Detroit Edison power house below the Argo dam. The boy jumped into the mill race to save his little sister who had fallen into the water. The little girl was saved by bystanders. The body of the boy was recovered after a two hours search.

Ann Arbor—Dean Victor Vaughan, head of the University of Michigan medical school for thirty years, today tendered his resignation to take effect in June. He has been connected with the medical school 45 years. He is recognized as one of the leading authorities on hygiene and communicable diseases in the United States. He served as a colonel in both the Spanish and the world war. He will retire in June.

Ypsilanti—Mr. and Mrs. John Hochrein are in Beyer hospital suffering from injuries received when an automobile driven by Mr. Fisher of the Ray Battery company, ran into their car as they were returning from Detroit. Mrs. Hochrein has a broken wrist and injured fingers. Mr. Hochrein was cut about the head and had several ribs broken. At the hospital Thursday evening it was said they would both recover. Fisher was not badly hurt.

Dexter—Robt. McGuinness was severely injured Tuesday afternoon. He was engaged with Hugh Shields and son Clarence in cutting down a large tree on the Shields farm. The tree had been felled but held up by some limbs, and as these were cut, it rolled over, a large limb striking Mr. McGuinness who was standing beside the tree. His left leg was broken above the knee, his face cut and he was severely bruised about the body.—Leader.

Ypsilanti—Burt Marken, 20, alleged auto thief who escaped from the jail here Saturday night was expected to be returned Monday from Bowling Green, O., where he was recaptured Sunday according to advices to the sheriff. Marken, wanted for the theft of a car belonging to a Ypsilanti man, was traced to Bowling Green by Chief Connors from letters Marken had written to his wife. He had been employed in a local motor shop for the past six months.

Milan—The dates for the sixth annual Milan Farmers' Institute have been set for Friday and Saturday, February 25 and 26. If the program that has been arranged is any indication of the crowds that will be in attendance, the hall should be filled to capacity at every session. Although the complete program has not yet been announced, some speakers of national reputation have been secured for the meeting. From M. A. C. will come some of the country's best experts in their particular line.—Leader.

CANT DO THE WORK

It's too much to try to work every day against a constant, dull backache, or sudden darting pain in the small of the back. Be rid of it. Try Doan's Kidney Pills. Your neighbors recommend them. Ask your neighbor.

Jacob Houk, 211 Lincoln St., Chelsea, says: "I was in bad shape about two years ago and had lumbago and rheumatic trouble. For awhile I was compelled to lay off work as the pains across my back were so severe. The rheumatic trouble was worse in the spring and in damp and cloudy weather, especially in my lower limbs. My kidneys didn't act regularly and I knew something would have to be done. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in the papers so I went to Fenn's Drug Store and got two boxes and used them until my troubles left me entirely."

Stiff? Sore?

A lame back, a sore muscle or a stiff joint often is considered too lightly by the sufferer. It should be remembered that backache, rheumatic pains, stiffness, soreness, sallow skin and puffiness under the eyes are symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble—and these certainly should not be neglected.

Foley Kidney Pills

help the kidneys eliminate from the system the poisonous waste and acids that cause these aches and pains. They act promptly and effectively to restore weak, overworked or diseased kidneys and bladder to healthy, normal condition.

J. E. Simmons, 400 E. 20th St., Portland, Ore., writes: "I was troubled with backache and urinary trouble. I tried Foley Kidney Pills and will say that I highly recommend them to any one troubled in that way, as they are excellent."

Nulyne Laboratories originated and manufactures Chlorox Tooth Paste, which is extensively advertised, and which is being sold and distributed by more than 25,000 retail druggists throughout the United States.

Nulyne Laboratories has a manufacturing capacity of 5,000,000 tablets and 300,000 tubes of Chlorox Tooth Paste per day. The margin of profit in the manufacture of private formula products and Chlorox Tooth Paste is probably as great or greater, than any other line of manufactured commodities. The object of the present offering is to provide working capital, and to handle additional large contracts for private formula products.

The Charter of the Company provides that 50% of the Company's net earnings, as reported to the Federal Government, after deduction of taxes, shall be declared and paid in dividends each year. After 8% has been declared on the Preferred and 8% on the Common Stock, the Preferred and Common Stock share equally. (See provisions of Charter and Stock Certificates). The above provisions, in view of the Company's established business and opportunity for profitable operation, make the issue, with its bonus of Common Stock, a most desirable investment.

Most wise investors are buying, right now, all the sound securities they can. They realize that the general market situation has brought about a condition where good, safe investments can be bought on a basis of high yield. If your available cash is low you may be able to take advantage of my time payment plan, or perhaps you may be able to take advantage of this unusual condition by re-investment. Look into your safety deposit box and see if there are not some securities that you could profitably exchange for higher-return (and equally safe with the 50% clause) investments.

GOVERNOR MAKES CHANGES AT MICHIGAN REFORMATORY

Major Marsh and State Troopers in Charge Temporarily; Tax On Corporations Looked For.

That the Michigan Reformatory at Ionia was conducted as a workhouse instead of a reformatory is the conclusion of the legislative committee, accompanied by Governor Groesbeck, and Attorney-General Wiley, after a personal investigation and examination of the institution and its inmates. Otis Fuller, warden for 27 years, handed in his resignation to the Governor early last week and the resignations of Jerome Walker, acting warden, Walter Rich, captain of the night guard, Dr. E. F. Beckwith, reformatory physician and two members of the board of control were announced soon afterward.

BAN DUNGEONS AND STRIPES.

Major Robert E. Marsh, head of the State Police, was placed in charge as temporary warden and several members of the state police force replaced guards against whom charges of cruelty and mistreatment of inmates are now pending. Major Marsh has announced several changes which were put into effect as soon as he took charge. Dungeons and stripes were discarded and the educational facilities of the institution are to be expanded. Dr. Richard H. Olin, state health officer, will remain at the reformatory to direct the medical examination of the inmates, something that has been sadly neglected according to the testimony before the investigating committee.

Following his return to the capitol, the Governor announced that a report of the investigation would not be made to the legislature until Otis Fuller, former warden, and his attorney, George E. Nichols, have had an opportunity to go over the testimony. Mr. Fuller has issued a statement in which he promises to submit testimony which will show up the matter in its true light. "I simply ask that the public await the time of full hearing before passing judgment either way," said Mr. Fuller.

Limitation of the terms of prison wardens as a means of preventing conditions that developed at Ionia, is now being discussed by the committee and other representatives, who believe that the present system of unlimited terms until the head of a penal institution for the work he has to do by hardening his nature through constant contact with convicts.

SUPPORT FOR COMMISSION.

The law corporation act, which is a reorganization of Michigan's corporation laws, was introduced by Rep. George Lord, Detroit. The act covers 112 pages of typewritten copy, being drafted in the attorney-general's department, part of it having been drawn up under the administration of Mr. Groesbeck and completed by Meritt Wiley.

Rep. Danx offered an amendment to the general motor tax law, raising the tax on weight from 35 cents to $1 per hundred.

The existence of the Michigan commission to the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater congress would be continued under the provisions of a bill offered in the senate by Senator Vandenberg. It carries an appropriation of $10,000 a year for two years, "To promote the establishment of a deep sea route from the Great Lakes to the Atlantic."

The joint legislative committee named to investigate the activities of the Michigan Community Council commission returned from Grand Rapids without having anything definite to report. Senator Herbert Baker, chairman, was informed by Carol Sweet, head of the community council, that all the cash the committee has handled, $1,530, was turned over by the Women's Council of National Defense to the state of Michigan.

WOULD ABOLISH CAUCUSES.

Michigan's first lady senator, Senator Vera Hamilton, Grand Rapids, introduced her first bill of the session. It would allow the state to contract with child caring agencies for the care of dependents.

Senator Davis would amend the general tax law to permit city and county treasurers or other collecting officers to charge two per cent extra on taxes paid any time after January 10.

In committee of the whole the senate passed Senator Penny's bill to allow cities of over 50,000 population to bond up to eight per cent for water works improvement and this bill was approved by the senate. Senator MacArthur's bill to prohibit the unlawful wearing of the American Legion badge was passed by the senate committee.

Party caucuses would be abolished according to the provisions of a bill introduced by Senator Arthur Wood, Detroit. It calls for the election of delegates to the county and state conventions at a regular primary and candidates for the county convention must petition to have their names placed on the ballot. Delegates to the state convention would be elected from the list of those elected to the county convention.

Registration of legislative counsel and punishment of improper lobbying is provided for in a bill introduced by Senator Mellae. A fine of not more than $5,000 and one year imprisonment is fixed.

PLAN CORPORATION TAX.

A bill is now being drawn up providing for a tax on corporations which, it is said, would net the state approximately $12,000,000 annually. The raising of this amount would practically eliminate the state tax on the individual home owner.

Governor Groesbeck, in advocating the adoption of a tax on corporations, calls attention to the fact that corporations now pay a tax of only one-half a mill on their capital stock, and this is paid only once during its existence, which under the Michigan constitution may be as long as 30 years, except for municipal, railroad, canal, insurance or cemetery purposes.

The services of David Friday, professor of economics at the University of Michigan, have been secured for the purpose of making an extensive study of the financial and tax conditions of the state.

Dealers who sell shoddy for all-wool and those who sell imitation for genuine leather shoes will be put out of business if a bill introduced by Rep. Benz, Iron Mountain, is enacted into law. It provides that all goods shall be labeled properly upon penalty of a fine of from $50 to $500 with 90 days imprisonment.

CHANGE IN PRIMARY.

Indication that the sentiment in the house is favorable to the retention of the direct primary law, was given in a vote on Rep. Warren D. Byrum's bill empowering the Governor to call a special local primary when one is needed to nominate candidates to fill a vacant office. The house committee of the whole voted an amendment to the date of the primary from August to September.

Rep. Lee, Port Huron, has introduced a bill authorizing the establishment of a separate school for colored children where there are at least 25 such children. The same course of instruction would be followed.

A joint resolution calling for a constitutional amendment to allow county sheriffs to become candidates for election for more than two terms has been submitted by Rep. Brame. A similar measure in regards to county treasurers will also be considered.

Rep. Liddy offered a bill providing that the certificate of a teacher who refuses to fulfill his or her contract, may be forfeited by the superintendent of public instruction.

SENATE PASSES CABINET PLAN.

The state administrative board bill, embodying Governor Groesbeck's proposal for a consolidation of state departments and the elimination of superfluous administrative bodies was passed by the senate on its third reading, every member present voting for it.

The senate rejected an amendment proposed in the committee of the whole, to the Governor's bill creating an administrative board. The vote was 26 to 1. This suggested change was to require a two-thirds vote to make effective an order by the board. Senator Charles Turf, Ludington, who introduced the measure, predicts a benevolent revolution in the administration of state affairs. Those who do not share such great hopes were satisfied to give it a trial. The outlook in the house is that the same disposition prevails.

Five bills were passed in the first session of committee of the whole, held in the lower house of the legislature. Few minor amendments were made in the following bills, all of which were placed upon the order of third reading:

NEW BILLS INTRODUCED.

Representative Devitt's bill amending the general highway law, to require trucks of more than one-ton capacity to be equipped with a mirror or reflecting device to show the condition of traffic behind, passed without amendment.

Representative Olmstead's amendment to the district road bill of 1907, was also passed with the insertion of a single word to clarify the meaning of the text. The amendment as proposed, provides for the transfer of good roads district funds to county funds in the case a county operating under the district plan adopts the county road system.

The bill to amend the existing law providing for the distribution of laws and documents passed with an amendment including boards of county auditors as regular recipients of the session laws.

Representative Bryant's measure, introduced to meet an emergency that exists in Ingham county to allow the governor to order a primary election in cases where the general law does not provide for the election of a certain officer, was passed.

The Aldrich bill to allow any school district, whether organized under general law or special charter, to vote to hold its annual meeting the second Monday in July, was passed without amendment, and Representative Read's bill fixing a penalty for the importation of diseased sheep went through with only two words changed. Representative Hoskins, of Manistee, presided over the committee of the whole.

GEORGE WASHINGTON

"First in war and first in peace"—
"With love we speak of him again"
Whose praises with the years increase—
"And first in the hearts of his countrymen."

Remarkable Honors Paid Washington on His Inaugural Trip

At the time he was unanimously elected President, Washington was the idol of his country, and his name and fame were known to the entire civilized world. His trip from his beautiful home on the Potomac was interrupted by receptions, fetes, addresses and dinners. Every person who was able to reach the roads along which he was to pass, or the cities selected as stations on his slow journey northward, joined the throngs that made his trip the most triumphant procession this continent had witnessed. To those thousands who lined the roads from Virginia to New York, the great, serious figure of the "Father of his Country" was the center of all their national hopes.

On April 6, 1789, both houses of congress met in New York city, at the time the capital, and elected George Washington President of the United States. No other name had been proposed. For Vice President there were eleven nominations. John Adams receiving the highest vote—thirty-four—was announced elected. Washington received sixty-nine votes. As soon as it could be arranged, Charles Thomson, secretary of congress, was dispatched to Mount Vernon to apprise General Washington of his election. Thomson, who had been secretary of the continental congress, reached Washington's home on April 14, between 10 and 11 o'clock in the morning. The master of Mount Vernon was making his usual tour of his farms and Mrs. Washington entertained the messenger of the congress.

Before sunrise on the morning of April 16 a messenger had come from Alexandria with an invitation to a public dinner there, and in his diary for the day Washington wrote:

"About 10 o'clock I bade adieu to Mount Vernon, to private life, and to domestic felicity, and with a mind oppressed with more anxious and painful sensations than I have words to express, set out for New York, in company with Mr. Thomson and Colonel Humphreys, with the best disposition to render service to my country in obedience to its call, but with less hope of answering its expectations."

Of Washington's reception in Philadelphia a chronicler of the day wrote:

Old City Tavern, Philadelphia.

"Thousands of freemen, whose hearts burned with patriotic fire, fell into the ranks almost every square we marched, until the column swelled beyond credibly itself and, having conducted the man of our hearts to the City Tavern; he was introduced to a very grand and plentiful banquet, which was prepared for him by the citizens. At dinner thirteen patriotic toasts were drunk."

The night of the 20th the President spent as the guest of Robert Morris, then one of the senators of Pennsylvania, and better known as the financial genius of the country, having founded its first bank and financed the cause of liberty at a time when the outlook was chilling.

The trip through New Jersey was continued through Princeton, New Brunswick and Elizabeth, where Washington boarded a barge and was rowed to New York. Flags and floral decorations marked each step; everywhere he went Washington heard shouts for a conqueror's ears. He was hailed as a deliverer and acclaimed as a deity, but throughout all the heart-felt adulation paid him by those who almost worshiped him, the greatest of the man was revealed by his artless modesty, his composure and his graceful, tactful acceptance of the honors paid him.

Washington arrived in Elizabeth on April 23, just a week from the day he set out from Mount Vernon. A "propitious gale" was blowing when the party set out across Newark bay for New York. A barge, built for the purpose, and rowed by "twelve old captains of vessels who had retired from business," conveyed the President and party. The oarsmen wore white shirts adorned with ribbons. One after another vessels fell into line behind them and by the time they were nearing the Battery there was a small flotilla. Every ship and sloop bore a holiday appearance save one, a Spanish vessel. It was with some concern the committee noted its solemn aspect. They feared some discourtesy, but, as the barge approached, its captain gave a signal at which flags of all nations were burst into view, and from its battery a salute of thirteen guns was fired.

A large sloop joined the procession off Redhook island, and as it neared the barge the party of ladies and gentlemen aboard her sang an "eloquent ode appropriate to the occasion and set to the music of 'God Save the King.'" The wharves from the Battery to Wall street ferry, where the landing was made, were filled with welcoming boats. Boatmen estimated their number as tens of thousands. The ferry stairs were crowded and the railings covered with crimson bannings. The President, preceded by the committee, was received on the landing by Governor Clinton and some of the foremost citizens. The streets were so blocked with eager citizens that it was half an hour before the committee could fulfill its commission by escorting their eminent charge to the house prepared for his reception.

Acid Stomach for 10 Years

NOW A DIFFERENT WOMAN

Earnestly Praises Eaton

"My wife was a great sufferer from acid stomach for 10 years," writes H. D. Crippen, "but is a different woman since taking Eaton's." Sufferers from acid stomach—let Eaton's help you also. It quickly takes up and carries out the excess acidity and gases and makes the stomach cool and comfortable. You digest easily, get the full strength from your food, feel well and strong, free from bloating, belching, food repelling, etc. Big box costs only one a trifle with your druggist's guarantee.

ONE WAY TO DO IT

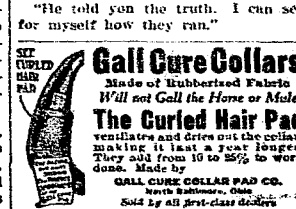

"I don't see how you can afford to run an automobile."
"Easy enough. We've quit eating meat."

Nothing Like Style.

She'll take a car to ride a block. If her dress is not the latest style. But let her take the latest frock. And she'll foot it many a mile.

No Deception.

"The salesman I bought these goods from deceived me when he told me the colors were fast."
"He told you the truth. I can see for myself how they ran."

His Method.

The negro men were discussing the eloquence of a certain member of the faculty of an educational institution for negroes in the southern states.

"That Professor Biggs sure does like to use high-soundin' words, don't he?" asked one of them.

"Maybe dat's jest an affection on his part," said the other darky.

"Some folks do like to put on airs in talkin'."

"No; I don't figger it out dat way," said the other. "I kinda thinks he uses them big words because he's afraid dat if people knew what he was talkin' about they'd know he didn't know what he was talkin' about."

"—Harper's Magazine.

It is better to be single and dream than to be married and wake up.

Back Given Out?

There's surely some reason for that lame, aching back. Likely it's your kidneys. A cold or strain oftentimes congests the kidneys and shows them up. That may be the reason for that nagging backache, those sharp pains, that tired, worn-out feeling. You may have headaches and dizzy spells, too, with annoying bladder irregularity. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. They have helped thousands. Ask your neighbor!

A Michigan Case

Albert Carroll, 37, Lock St., Oxford, Mich., says: "I have a very weak back and I suffered quite a bit from irregularity of my kidneys and bladder. It felt as though a heavy load were resting across the small of my back and I was hard for me to stoop. My night sleep was broken and mornings I got up feeling I hadn't slept at all. I had frequent dizzy spells, headaches and frequent urinary irregularity. Three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of all the trouble."

GHOSTLY LOVERS ON WATCH READY FOR THAT PROSPERITY

Legend of the City of Mexico That Makes Peculiar Appeal to Superstitious Residents.

One of the strange legends of the City of Mexico has to do with the Calle de los Parados (Street of the Two Lovers). According to the story there was a beautiful girl Donna Maria Ysabel de Vallejo y Vezan, who lived on the street, and was beloved by two men, one a young officer and the other a young merchant. After the custom of the land at that period (about 1550) they indicated their love by standing, one at each corner of the block until the donna appeared.

A plague fell upon the city about this time and the girl died without it becoming known to her lovers. She was taken out and buried by night, also unknown to the suitors. The next day they stood at their respective posts waiting in vain. The day after they stood, and the day after that, week after week, month after month, and year after year. They at last died, still on their posts, and their ghosts are said to still stand at night, cloaked and ghostly, in the darkest shadows of the streets.

Mr. M— talked of Republican prosperity and Mrs. M— of Democratic peace. Eagerly on election day they both watched the election reports. And as one after the other came in Mrs. M— was visibly disappointed. But she said nothing, and went quietly to bed.

The next morning she was up early, cheerful, smiling and dressed in her Sunday best. Mr. M— was plainly surprised. "Why, mother, all dolled up," he exclaimed. "What does this mean?"

"Oh, nothing," was her calm reply, "except that I am getting ready to enjoy Republican prosperity with my husband."—Indianapolis News.

Railway Labor Board Refuses to Abrogate the National Working Agreement.

IS WITHOUT JURISDICTION

Senate Committee Report Against Naval Holiday and Suspension of Immigration—Germans Are Preparing Their Counter-Proposals on Reparations.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD.

This year's first big labor fight, between the railways and the rail workers, really opened last week when the national railroad labor board took up the appeal of the rail executives for immediate abrogation of the national working agreements. The hearing drew to Chicago the heavy guns of both the executives and the railway brotherhoods. The board decided against the railways, which, however, have not abandoned the fight.

As was foreseen, President Wilson declined to intervene, though asked to by both sides, stating he would not take any action "which would interfere with the orderly procedure of the interstate commerce commission or the railway labor board."

Frank P. Walsh, counsel for the rail unions, and B. M. Jewell, head of their department of the American Federation of Labor, are leading the fight of the brotherhoods. Their first action was to question the jurisdiction of the labor board in this matter, on the ground that a question involving the financial ability of the roads to pay is within the province of the interstate commerce commission, the labor board being limited by law to questions of wages and working conditions. This point the board decided was well taken.

Chairman Barlow said the board for several months had been considering the national working agreement, clause by clause, to determine whether any parts were unreasonable, and he urged that it be "not further interrupted by the introduction of unwarranted demands by either party."

The second part of the general argument of Mr. Walsh was that the move by the railroad executives is part of a "Wall Street conspiracy" to kill the power of the unions, establish the open shop, crush collective bargaining and reduce wages.

"Twelve New York banks," said Mr. Walsh, "through interlocking directorates, control 92 class I roads, which have 80 per cent of the class I mileage and 76 per cent of the total rail-road mileage of the United States. In the hearings of the Lockwood committee in New York the testimony revealed a movement on the part of certain interests to crush unions and establish the 'open shop.' It is directed first at the two basic industries of building construction and transportation."

A great many persons not directly concerned in the present controversy believe with Mr. Walsh that there is a concerted movement to establish the open shop, and, likewise, a great many persons are in sympathy with such a movement. These persons see the impending conflict as a fight not between labor and capital, but between tyrannical labor unions and industry. Most of them have suffered and are suffering from the intolerance of both organized labor and organized capital, and they are very tired of it.

What railroad men said was one of the most far-reaching decisions made by the labor board was handed down last week, the ruling being that it was the duty of the Boston and Maine railroad to confer with the committees of the American Federation of Labor over the grievances of its workers. Employees said the decision upheld the right of independent organizations of railway workers to prevent their grievances to road officials. In the Boston and Maine case it was said a conference was refused because those with the grievances were not a party to the national agreement.

Inspired by the conviction that the United States should have a navy as strong as that of any other nation, the senate naval affairs committee reported against the Borah resolution for a six months' naval construction holiday. The report, presented by Senator Poindexter, said the committee was as anxious as possible to bring about a reduction of armaments, but that no disarmament would be of value unless it were general and, in the case of the great maritime powers, universal. "Unhappily this is not the case at the present time," continued the report, "and we must deal with conditions as they exist. For one nation to leave itself exposed to attack while another is preparing all the engines of war would be not only folly, but the greatest danger to the peace of the world that could be imagined."

A temporary suspension of building, it was pointed out, would cost the government immense sums through deterioration of material and dislocation of contracts; would throw large numbers of workmen out of employment, and, by rendering it difficult or impossible to reassemble these forces should work vessels be resumed, would give an immense advantage to powers that had not interrupted the construction of their fleets.

The committee upheld the contention of the navy board that the capital ship is not obsolete. It recommended that twelve destroyers and six submarines, authorized in 1916 but not yet contracted for, be eliminated from the building program. These 18 ships were expected to cost the government about $55,000,000. The committee suggested the use of this amount for the construction of two airplane carriers of the most modern type and of the most advantageous size.

Another senate committee—that on immigration—also took important action when it rejected, by a vote of 5 to 4, the bill passed by the house providing for the suspension of immigration for one year. Senators Johnson, Washington, Harris, Georgia; Harrison, Mississippi; and King, Utah, voted for the bill, and Colt, Rhode Island, chairman; Dillingham, Vermont; Sterling, South Dakota; Keyes, New Hampshire; and Phelan, California, against it.

Next day the committee began consideration of the Dillingham substitute for the house bill, and the indications were that it would be acted on favorably. This measure provides that the number of aliens of any nationality entering as immigrants in any one year shall be limited to 5 per cent of the total number of persons of such nationality already in the country, as determined by the latest census. The legislation would not apply to immigrants from the American continents and adjacent islands, nor to the Asiatic "barred zone," from which immigrants already are excluded, nor to Japan, immigration from which is regulated by agreement. Some of the radical restrictionists will make a fight to have the percentage cut down, perhaps as low as 2 per cent. In Washington it was said there was no likelihood that the bill would get through congress before March 4.

Frequent charges that thousands of sick or disabled ex-service men are being inadequately cared for by the government had their effect on congress. The senate adopted an amendment to the sundry civil bill appropriating $12,500,000 for five new buildings and $6,000,000 for the enlargement and improvement of existing hospitals. The house, by unanimous vote, passed a bill carrying an appropriation for $13,000,000 for additional hospitals and enlarged facilities. Under this bill five new hospitals are to be located: one in the central Atlantic states, one in the region of the Great Lakes, one in the central south-western states, one in the Rocky mountain states and one in southern California. In addition, the secretary of war is instructed to take over at once and equip for hospital use Fort Mackenzie, Wyoming, and Fort Walla Walla, Washington.

Foreign Minister Simons has notified the allies that the German government will send qualified delegates to the reparations conference in London March 1, "provided negotiations are based on proposals which the German government reserves to itself the right to lay before the conference." This acceptance being satisfactory, Doctor Simons called into consultation a large number of experts in finance, industry and economics, and they proceeded to frame the counter-proposals which Germany will submit.

Premier Briand has obtained from the French chamber of deputies the support he required before going to the London conference. The chamber voted 365 to 83 to approve the reparations terms framed by the supreme council, and then gave a vote of confidence in Briand, 387 to 125. The opposition was led by members of the former Clemenceau cabinet. The premier closed the debate with the statement: "The fate of Germany lies in her own hands. Should she, after May 1, 1921, refuse to fulfill her pledges the French government can be relied upon to take all measures to make her."

The Hansa league, the great economic association of Germany, says many of its members urge a boycott of French and English goods in favor of goods from America, and adds that the directors of the league may adopt the suggestion if Great Britain continues to support France in the reparations claims.

Of the two great military operations in the Near East that are believed to be impending, one, that of the soviet Russians against Poland and Rumania, has not yet been started. The other, the conflict between the Greeks and the Turkish nationalists, may already be under way. The news from Asia Minor that comes through Paris is carefully censored, and advice by other routes are conflicting at this writing. There is no doubt, however, that the Greeks have been concentrating large forces for this fight, and that Kemal Pasha also has gathered together most of his troops for what he hopes to make a decisive operation. Greece relies on financial assistance from the allies for this warfare, and without it she will have great difficulty, for her expenses are now vastly greater than her revenues. Chronic trouble-makers and trouble-seekers are trying to find in the Greek operations in Asia Minor a cause for serious conflict between France and Great Britain; but there is no reason to believe that their hopes will be realized.

Walter Lyman Brown, director of American relief work in Europe, has been making a tour of all the countries in his jurisdiction, and is skeptical concerning the expected Russian offensive this spring. He thinks the Bolshevik government would scarcely dare to undertake an attack on Poland that would lose to its cause the support of the workers of western Europe. He says Hungary and Latvia are sure the attack is coming, Poland is nervous, and Czechoslovakia and Estonia believe the Russians will refrain.

The loyalists of South Africa, headed by General Smuts, won a great victory in the recent elections, and as a result the provinces of the Cape of Good Hope, Transvaal, Natal and Orange Free State will continue as one of the self-governing dominions of the British empire instead of setting up an independent republic. The opposition was led by General Hertzog, who asserted the right of South Africa to secede from the empire despite the act of union.

In India a more liberal self-government was put into effect last week when Prince Arthur of Connaught arrived at Delhi as personal representative of the emperor, King George, and issued a proclamation announcing the surrender of much government power to the native princes.

R. C. Roper of Nebraska makes the interesting announcement that William J. Bryan and his brother, Charles, whom Mr. Roper represents, are planning to reorganize the Democratic party so that the Cox-White and McAdoo-Woolley factions shall be eliminated and the control put in the hands of the "middle class Democrats." The program, said Mr. Roper, will be made public on March 18, W. J. Bryan's birthday.

WELL TO DO FARMER GAINED 20 POUNDS

H. W. Boring Says He Is In Better General Health Than He Has Been in Years Since Taking Tan-lac.

"Since Tanlac has overcome my troubles I have gained twenty pounds in weight and am in better general health than for years past," was the straight-forward statement made a few days ago by H. W. Boring, a prominent and well-to-do farmer living at Overland Park, Kans.

"During the two years I suffered I tried everything I knew of to get relief, but nothing seemed to reach my case until I tried Tanlac. My appetite was poor and my digestion was so bad I could hardly retain my food. Nothing agreed with me; in fact I was almost a confirmed dyspeptic. My whole system seemed to be out of shape. I would have pains across the small of my back so bad at times I could hardly move around."

"My nerves were all unstrung and I would become up-set at the least little thing. I seldom slept well at night and, finally, became so weak and run-down that I lost weight rapidly. I was also troubled a great deal with catarrh and of mornings had to spend a half hour or more clearing up my head."

"This is just the condition I was in when I began taking Tanlac and it certainly has been a blessing to me. It just seemed to be made especially for my case. I improved from the very first. My digestion now is perfect and regardless of what I eat I never suffer any bad after effects.

"The pains across my back have entirely disappeared. The catarrh has left me, too, and my head is perfectly clear. I am no longer nervous and rest well every night. I have regained my lost weight and am feeling better and stronger than I have in years. I am going to keep Tanlac in my house so it will be handy at all times."

Dangerous to Boast.
Little Eleanor vehemently announced her intention of giving up her French lessons with her governess. Her father, however, was very anxious that the child should learn French and did not intend to humor her.

"She hugs and kisses me to make me do my lessons"—and—ugh—I do hate lessons!" cried the little girl.
"See here, my dear," retorted her father in a reasoning, diplomatic way, "I have read French with your governess ever since she has been here, and she has never tried to hug and kiss me."

"Father," observed the child gravely, "you'd better knock wood."

A Limited Clientele.

Human Equality.

The teacher of a juvenile Sunday school class had been talking to her pupils about death and concluded by asking: "Now, who can tell me where all men are equal, and there is absolutely no distinction between the rich and the poor man?"

"I can," replied one little fellow. "Where is it, Sammy?" she asked. "When they go in swimmers," was the unexpected reply.
