Drills Seed and Fertilizer in One Operation

The planting season is always a busy time for you. You are anxious to get the work done while weather conditions are favorable. And you are just as anxious to do the planting in the best possible way. You can do the work easily and get increased yields, if you plant seed and at the same time distribute fertilizer with one of our combined grain and fertilizer drills, the—

JOHN DEERE
VAN BRUNT FERTILIZER GRAIN DRILL

This drill makes horse power and man power available for other purposes. In one trip over the field it pulverizes the soil, makes the seed furrows, plants and covers the seed and the fertilizer. And, besides, it increases the crop yield because it does better seeding.

Come in and ask us to show you the patented adjustable gate force feed used on Van Brunt Grain Drills. This force feed is the construction that insures even seeding over the entire field. No seed is wasted, and there are no bare spots in the field. The "Van Brunt" does first-class work in any soil capable of being seeded. It does not choke up in mud, gumbo, sticky or trashy soil, and it handles any standard fertilizer just as positively as it plants the seed.

Save extra labor and seed and increase your crop yield by buying a Van Brunt Fertilizer Drill from us.

H. J. McKUNE'S BODY ARRIVES IN NEW YORK

Roland McKune received word Wednesday from headquarters in New York, stating that the body of his brother, Herbert J. McKune, had arrived in Hoboken on August 23. Herbert J. McKune was killed on the battlefield in France, October 4, 1918. He was a member of the 67th Company, 5th Marine Corps. The American Legion Post here was named in honor of the deceased. The remains are expected to arrive here during the coming week. Military funeral services, in charge of Herbert J. McKune Post, No. 31, The American Legion, will be conducted.

Detroit Clowns vs. Independents.
Next Sunday afternoon, at Wilkinson field, the Chelsea fans will have an opportunity to witness what will probably be the most unique team that ever played here. The local team will meet Howlett's Detroit Clowns team, each member of the visiting team being dressed as clowns when they appear on the field, and all kinds of fun can be looked for. The ball game last Sunday afternoon, at Wilkinson field, between Chelsea and Milford was won by the Chelsea team, the score being 27 to 3.

Higgins-Gray-Downer Reunion.
The fourteenth annual meeting of the Higgins-Gray-Downer reunion was held Saturday, August 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Higgins, of Ypsilanti. Twenty-eight members enjoyed the usual bountiful dinner. During the afternoon, pictures were taken and the election of officers were held, and a program consisting of songs and recitations was rendered. Each member responded to roll call with a quotation. Toward evening, ice cream, cake and fruit salad was served, after which the members adjourned to meet, in 1922, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cornell, of Ann Arbor.

Miss Lydia Bencke Complimented.
Complimenting Miss Lydia Bencke, whose marriage to Louis Faber, of Chelsea, is to take place September 1, Misses Martha and Elizabeth Handloser, 1011 South Milwaukee street, Jackson, gave a miscellaneous shower at their home Friday evening. The predominating color note was of yellow, prettily developed by large baskets of flowers. Progressive games were played during the evening. Several functions are being planned for Miss Bencke preceding her marriage.—Jackson News.

Mr. Faber is a son of Mrs. Hannah Faber of this place and is employed as a fireman by the Michigan Central railroad company.

Chelsea Picnic at Palmer Park.
About 150 former Chelseaites gathered at Palmer Park, Sunday, August 21, for their annual picnic. Several families drove in from Chelsea to see their friends. After renewing acquaintances everyone enjoyed a good picnic dinner. In the afternoon races were held. The winners were: Peanut race—Richard Swegles. Shoe race—Thomas Young. Little folks' race—Marguerite Page. Ladies' baseball throwing contest—Mrs. Lloyd Merker. Little girls' race—Dorothy Lehman. Ladies' race—Mrs. Carl Kress. Men's race—Carl Kress.

The feature event of the day was the three-legged race won by Tom Hughes and Mrs. Russell Jewett. At the business meeting, Al Marriott was elected president and Russell Emmett, secretary.

State Ranked High in Club Work.
With an enrollment of nearly 10,000 in boys' and girls' club work, Michigan ranks second in the entire northern half of the United States. Statistics for 1920, just issued by the United States Department of Agriculture, show Indiana in the lead, with this state a close second. Michigan stands first in two important phases of the club program—handicraft work and hot lunch preparation; while in three others—gardening, canning, and garment making, the Wolverine youths take second place among the 33 northern and western states.

Of the 9,919 members enrolled in the state, 2,481 are entered in Wayne county, Detroit's large garden clubs boosting the number up. Other counties where club work is especially strong are Kent, Bay, Calhoun, Gogebic and Lenawee, although the club program (which is the junior extension work at the Michigan Agricultural College) covers the entire state. Garden clubs have proved far and away the most popular during the last year, according to R. A. Turner, state club leader, more than half of all the Michigan enrollment coming under this division.

YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED HERE SATURDAY EVENING
A very beautiful wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Fletcher Prudden, Saturday evening, when Miss Bernice Prudden became the bride of John Austin Palmer.

At 7:30 a few intimate friends and near relatives gathered in the parlor, gorgeous with yellow and white fall flowers, and witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. H. R. Beatty, of the Methodist church. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white tulle and carried a shower bouquet of opelia roses and lilies of the valley, while her bridesmaid, Miss Gladys Bird, was charming in peach orpandy and wore a corsage of opelia roses. The groom was attended by his cousin, Elmer Hammond.

After the ceremony, the guests were invited to partake of light refreshments, at beautifully decorated tables, where the color scheme of yellow and white was carried out. The happy couple left for an outing, at a nearby lake, amid a shower of good wishes and rice. The bride and groom are very favorably known in literary and social circles, both having graduated from the Chelsea high school, the bride later attending the Normal at Ypsilanti, and the groom now being a senior at the University of Michigan.

Some Later Storm Reports.
As reports come in from various parts of Sylvan and Lima, the wind, rain and hail storm of August 17 caused considerable damage to the corn crop, orchards, timber, shade trees and many of the small buildings on the farms.

Some of the small buildings on the B. C. Whitaker farm were blown from their foundations and some of the timber on the farms adjoining was blown down. Just west of the residence of Walter Boone, several large trees were blown across the territorial road and the Postal Telegraph Co. had nearly a quarter of a mile of poles broken down and they fell across the abandoned Boland right of way. In fact, most all of the poles between the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Boone and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mohrlock, were down. All telephone lines both east and west of the Boone property for a long distance were broken down.

On the farm of E. S. Spaulding, besides the damage mentioned in the last issue of the Standard, the corn was broken off and many of the fields in the hop, skip and jump of the tornado suffered to considerable extent. In Lima, on the farm formerly owned by Lewis Mayers, and sold by Mrs. H. E. Fletcher to Mr. Stewart, the orchard was considerably uprooted and wind beaten. A number of small buildings were damaged and the corn crib was carried to the residence and the force was sufficient to drive the wrecked crib into a portion of the dwelling. At the Henry Clark farm, formerly owned by the Ward family, the orchard was almost entirely ruined, and from numerous parts of the township more or less timber and orchards are reported to have been damaged.

Brown Family Reunion.
The first annual reunion of the Brown family was held Thursday, August 11, 1921. Arrangements had previously been made to hold it in Frazier's grove at North Lake, but owing to the inclement weather, it was held at the home of Wm. Brown. A bountiful dinner was served and a general good time was enjoyed by all. Officers were elected as follows: Wm. Brown, president; Florence Vickers, secretary-treasurer. It was voted to hold the next meeting at Howell on the second Thursday in August, 1922.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Walnright, Mr. and Mrs. Don Martin and children of Webberville, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Haight and daughter of Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bristol and children of Fenton, Miss Jessie Brown, Mrs. H. M. Vickers and sons Lionel and Stanley of Chelsea, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Guenther of Ann Arbor, and Mr. and Mrs. William Brown and family of North Lake.

PARTY OF YOUNG PEOPLE HAD NARROW ESCAPE SUNDAY

Several young people from Milford had a narrow escape from serious injury or instant death at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, at the West Gutbrie crossing of the Michigan Central railroad. The party were in two autos and one of the cars was cut square into. Both cars were waiting for the passing of a westbound freight train and when the last car was over the crossing the driver of the first machine started across, not seeing the eastbound Wolverine passenger train on the other track. How the couple in the car escaped instant death is remarkable, but the driver, one of the Arthur brothers from Milford, was not even hurt.

Miss Pearl Woodworth suffered injuries to the jaw, her nose was fractured and her left hand and face were burned. First aid was rendered by a local physician, Miss Woodworth being brought here directly after the accident. Two others were in the first car, but when it stopped at the crossing they left the automobile and went to the car in the rear. Those comprising the party, all of Milford, were Frank, Chester and Charles Arthur, Miss Woodworth, Miss Bina Buell and Miss Jessie Davis. The crossing is protected by bells and it is said the young people admit hearing them ringing but did not know the reason therefor.

Jackson County Fair.

Many people say that Jackson Fair is the best county fair in Michigan, and from the fact of attendance and the general quality and number of exhibits their judgment is well based.

There are three predominant principles carried out by the Jackson Fair that, considering its size, almost puts it into a class by itself. First, it gives its exhibitors and patrons more for their money than any fair in Michigan. Its departments are open to all, with free entries. No membership is required from an exhibitor, and free stalls, pens and space furnished free, as well as straw for bedding. The gate admission is only 35c and it is often asked how a fair the size and quality of this fair can operate and pay the amount of premiums they do at so low an admission fee. The answer is, the enormous attendance, which last year exceeded 150,000 people for the six days.

Second, the cleanliness, the economical charges for meals; the dispatch with which the program and events are conducted, and the general management of the whole fair under the supervision of the superintendents is a wonderment to the public. Third, the predominant feature of the whole fair's policy is clean education, and the public have come to realize the immense benefit derived each year by attending, as the 300,000 feet of exhibition space in buildings, and the 40 acres inclosed are jammed to the fences with the last word in improvements in the 15 big departments of the fair, that reaches every interest, from childhood to old age. Men, women and children for miles around flock to its gates annually to receive its benefits.

Health Crusade.

The coming school year that opens in September will witness the biggest drive ever attempted in Michigan for recruits for the Modern Health Crusade. This movement has been taking big strides forward the past year, and the Michigan Tuberculosis Association hopes to add scores of thousands of children to the list the coming school year. The Modern Health Crusade has received the hearty support and endorsement of State Superintendent Johnson, and it is also supported by school superintendents in all sections of the state. With more than two hundred thousand of Michigan's children already enrolled, most parts of the state are beginning to be represented.

The Modern Health Crusade aims to inculcate in the minds of young children fundamental health lessons by appealing to their love of pagantry. As might have been expected, Detroit and Wayne county because of their large population are leading the state in enrollment. A total of 140,000 are enrolled in that city and county, and this number is expected to increase materially during the coming school year. And in every other county in the state it is expected to add thousands of children to the list.

At the adjourned meeting of the Lima township board last Friday, the Baldwin-Palmer drain was viewed and it was decided to have the tile and open ditch cleaned from E. E. Smith's farm to Mill Creek. The lands that the drain runs through are owned by E. E. Smith, George Estate, J. F. Alther, Ed Weiss, George Barth, A. D. Baldwin and G. W. Coe.

Shaw, dean of the department of agriculture will be acting president. Frank S. Kedzie the retiring president, becomes dean of the new department of applied sciences.

Manchester—The epidemic of hog cholera prevalent the past few weeks seems to be stamped out. Vaccination as a preventive has been quite general and losses from the disease have been largely confined to the Sortor farm and a few spots south of town where it is thought contamination was carried by birds or dogs.—Enterprise.

Ann Arbor—August 14, an automobile belonging to E. G. Hoag, a local merchant, was stolen here. Sunday Chief of Police Tom O'Brien, received a telegram from A. J. Lummis, chief of police at Texarkana, Arkansas, that the car was there and that he had arrested and was holding for Ann Arbor police, two young men who were driving the car.

Jackson—Keeping "hubby" away from the "bright lights" is more of a problem than ever for Jackson wives, according to circuit court records from January 1 to August 20, this year, when 217 applications for divorce were filed, the majority of them by women. Sixty-seven decrees were granted during the same period, the custody of 160 children being involved in the proceedings.

The stone wall was built in 1842, and new buildings were also started in that year. The year in which the stockade was erected was 1838.—News.

Ypsilanti—A complaint was made Friday over the telephone by a resident of Ypsilanti who did not want any publicity. The complainant told city officials that two men were beating a team of horses and desired to know if there was a humane officer in the city. She was informed there was none but that she could sign a complaint against the men. Just then the men ceased beating the animals as a big truck came along and pulled the load out of the mud.—Record.

Saline—The large barn on the farm formerly owned by Alphonse Schmid, south of town, was destroyed by fire Sunday afternoon. The origin is supposed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion. A quantity of alfalfa had been mowed away in the barn only a few days before. About four o'clock the family of A. F. Bender, newcomers on the farm, heard an explosion and hastening to the barn found it in flames and they were unable to save anything of the tools on the floor. One hundred tons of hay, 400 bushels of wheat and a lot of good tools were consumed.—Observer.

Health Hints for Plant Life.

Valuable tips on plant sanitation to prevent parasitic diseases and rotting of farm produce have been issued by Dr. G. H. Coons, plant pathologist at M. A. C. If they are heeded in time, many a threatened tree may be kept alive and many a bushel of vegetables kept from rotting. Following are the notes as prepared by Dr. Coons.

The raspberry patch should be caned to remove all dead and badly diseased stalks. This is more or less of a sanitary measure and it gives sound canes a chance.

In the fall pruning of apple orchards the farmer has a chance to rid the trees of cankered limbs. In deciding what cuts are to be made, the vigor and freedom from disease of a limb should be borne in mind.

Any pruning cut exposes the heart wood of the tree and opens the way for heart rot fungi. As soon as the cut surfaces are dry they should be painted with a white lead paste (not zinc white). Common barn paint or ready mixed house paint has small protecting value for pruned surfaces. The pruning cut should be made flush with the main branch. The healing of wounds comes about from a 'callus' growth from the cambium. If stubs are left the projecting parts prevent the healing.

Hold-over cankers of fire blight can be located by the blighted twigs on which the leaves have withered and dried. The canker is at the base of the twig. These should be located and removed. Through winter eradication coupled with vigilance in the early part of the growing season will control fire blight.

Ventilation is necessary in the storage cellar if disastrous rotting of the produce is to be avoided. Vegetable pits should be provided with a straw floor and a straw grate chimney. Black heart of potatoes and black specking of cabbage are due to lack of oxygen in the storage room.

A cleanup of all trash from the preceding crop should take place promptly in the garden. Many fungi survive the winter in such trash. Sanitation is the gardener's greatest protection.

In the field, sanitation is obtained by crop rotation. Those who followed corn with corn, beets with beets, or beans with beans have this year found that disease has been one important factor in their farming. Aside from its relations to soil fertility, crop rotation is necessary to avoid disease intensification.

Seed corn is best chosen in the field rather than from the bin, but must come from stalks which mature naturally and not prematurely as a result of root disease.

Our local dealers would not think of demanding the full price before showing goods. Yet that is what is required when you buy by mail.

Michigan News Tersely Told

Ann Arbor—Dental hygiene will be added to the course at the University of Michigan this fall.

Ann Arbor—The "Old Washtenaw" hotel, built in 1832 and used for many years as a tavern, has been condemned by City Engineer Sandeuburg as unsafe and unsanitary.

Escanaba—Two children met violent deaths in the Herman Bramer home at Nahma in a week. Calvin, 6 years old, was drowned while playing on logs, and his two-year-old sister was poisoned by taking pills which she found in the house.

Bay City—Jitney fares in Bay City have been reduced to 5 cents cash or six tickets for a quarter. The reduction is the result of increased business since street car service was discontinued when the Bay City-Saginaw Railway Co. went into receivership.

Battle Creek—Frank Holt, well known climber, farmer, struck and fatally injured near his home died in a local hospital without regaining consciousness. Mr. Holt's automobile stalled on a Grand Trunk crossing and was struck by an engine. The automobile was thrown nearly 50 feet.

Nashville—Three persons were killed and three injured, one quite seriously, at a crossing near here when a Michigan Central passenger train struck and demolished an automobile which had been stalled on the track. The dead are: Mrs. Otis Farr, Mrs. Eli Chatfield and three-month-old baby of Vermontville.

Saginaw—Alvin E. Best, a member of the board of county auditors, has been removed by Circuit Judge E. E. Snow when an order of ouster was issued on quo warranto proceedings instituted by Riley E. Crane, prosecuting attorney. Best is not a citizen of the United States, and on these grounds the prosecutor proceeded to remove him.

Kalamazoo—With an enrollment of 1,628 students, the Western State Normal here has broken all previous summer school attendance records this year. Of the students, 1,572 are from Michigan, while Alabama, California, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Louisiana, Minnesota, Ohio, Oklahoma, West Virginia and Wisconsin also are represented.

Pontiac—Leroy Aitken, 16, saved the life of his two-year-old niece from drowning when the girl fell into a cistern. The boy had been drawing water from the cistern through a hole in the floor and had left the room for a moment. He plunged in after the child and pulled her out. The fire department sent a pulmotor, which revived the child.

Battle Creek—Joseph Mellinger, is dead from the result of a gunshot wound received while playing with Cecil Runk and Willie McCutcheon. It is said that the McCutcheon boy put an old shell in an empty revolver and asked the Runk lad to try it. He did, pointing it at the bed on which Mellinger was sitting. The bullet entered the brain, making it impossible to operate.

Lansing—Curiosity that led Fred Williams, 18, to climb a city electric light pole at the grounds of a carnival resulted in his death. Witnesses say that Williams' attention was attracted by flashes from the chain by which the electric light is raised and lowered. Hardly had he reached his perch and reached out for the chain when he gave a sharp cry and his body hung limp.

Ann Arbor—Plans for a men's dormitory to house 150 students at the University of Michigan have been announced here by the Rev. Michael Bourke, Catholic chaplain. The structure will be four stories high, having an assembly, reading rooms and individual rooms for each student, and will cost about $250,000. It will be ready for occupancy in the fall of 1922. Work on the building will begin in the spring.

Lansing—All important crops, except corn, are below the 10-year average in Michigan, according to a monthly report compiled by Verne H. Church, of the Federal Bureau of Crop Statistics. Heat and drought are blamed by the report for this unprecedented condition. The only consolation offered by the report is the fact that comparison shows that Michigan has not suffered more severely than other states.

Pontiac—Forty-four years in the continuous service of the Pontiac police force is the record of Capt. John Fitzgerald, the city's veteran officer. It was in 1877 that Capt. Fitzgerald first accepted a position as Pontiac's police force. He was literally the whole force, because Pontiac was little more than a village and the town marshal looked after the city in the day time, while Capt. Fitzgerald patrolled the streets at night.

Richland—Mrs. Helen A. Barrett, believed to be the only original daughter of the Revolution still living, recently celebrated her ninetieth birthday here. Mrs. Barrett's father, Johannes Van Dolson, was born in New York city in 1752. When only sixteen years old, he became a member of the New York militia and served throughout the American Revolution. He was married three times and was the father of nine children by each of his three wives. The youngest child of the third wife was Mrs. Barrett, born in 1801 when her father was 78 years old.

Potoskey—A. J. Beese, 78, farmer, almost blind for years, while husking corn suddenly recovered his sight, he says. He can read fine print without glasses now.

Monroe—The bursting of a heavy fly wheel at the River Raisin paper mill caused the death of William C. Coternick, 48, engineer. The wheel burst when a belt collapsed.

Marcellus—Frank Brown, 52 years old, was walking to the mail box for his mail when he fell and died before medical assistance could reach him. Death was attributed to an attack of apoplexy.

Kalamazoo—The first double military funeral ever held in Kalamazoo was conducted over the bodies of Corporal Franklin Gates and his brother, Private John Gates, who were killed in service in France.

Lansing—Two hundred and sixty-one new state laws became effective last week. They represent that portion of the total of 440 measures enacted by the Legislature this year which were not given immediate effect.

Mt. Clemens—Mrs. Maud Burton, of Roseville, suffered a broken ankle and half a dozen other persons were slightly injured when an air tank on the ferry boat, Beatrice, burst, showering metal through the passengers' cabin.

Bay City—The Alpena County Farm Bureau which about 10 months ago bought an elevator, later erected another at Oshtemo, has filed a petition in bankruptcy here scheduling assets of $18,457 and liabilities amounting to more than $26,000.

Kalamazoo—When a motorist approaching from behind tried to pass C. R. Tetzlaff, of Sturgis, Tetzlaff stepped on the accelerator and lost control of the machine which went into a ditch, seriously injuring Mrs. Tetzlaff, who was brought to a Kalamazoo hospital.

Big Rapids—Woodbridge N. Ferris, Governor of Michigan from 1912 to 1916, head of the Ferris Institute here and president of the Greater Michigan Development Association, was married to Miss Elsie McLeod, of Indianapolis recently. Mr. Ferris' first wife died four years ago. Mr. Ferris was 68 years old last January.

Lansing—For the first time in history, Michigan's tuberculosis death rate has dropped below 80 per cent per 100,000 population. With 1,524 deaths from all forms of the disease reported to the state department of health during the first six months of 1921, Michigan now has a tuberculosis death rate as low as 79.8.

Conklim—As a result of infection from a fish pin, Marcus Emmons died at his home near here. He received the wound while fishing on Cranberry lake about 3 months ago and when infection set in was taken to a Grand Rapids hospital, where he stayed until physicians gave up his case as hopeless a short time ago.

Lansing—Fred W. Orr, yard conductor at the North Lansing station of the Michigan Central railroad, died as a result of injuries received when the railroad yard engine on which he was riding, collided at a street intersection with an automobile. At the time of the accident, the yard conductor was riding on the tender of the engine.

Manistee—Contract for the construction of the dairy and salt building and two warehouses for the new Ruggles & Rademaker salt plant has been let, building to begin at once. The costs will aggregate $1,000,000. Docks and railroad facilities will also be constructed. Ruggles & Rademaker aim to make their plant the biggest salt producing institution in the world.

Monroe—A first mortgage deed of trust of $2,200,000 from the River Raisin paper company, of this city, and running to the Cleveland Trust Company, of Cleveland, and Security Trust company of Detroit, has been filed here. The state and county tax totalled $11,000 and the stamps $1,100. The money derived will be used in connection with the paper business and improvements, it is said.

Manistee—One of the biggest real estate deals in some time here was consummated when 1,000 acres of resort property at Portage Pointe, belonging to the Portage Park Land company, were sold to the Regal Real Estate company, of Chicago. This company proposes to develop this tract which contains hundreds of resort lots, as a resort colony and also to investigate the bed of oil underneath.

Olivet—Three serious accidents occurred in Olivet within a few hours of each other. Clyde Ball, a business man, was driving a delivery car when he was seized with an attack of dizziness and drove his car off a steep embankment. He had several ribs broken and received various cuts and bruises. Robert Kellong, former mill owner, broke his arm while cranking his car, and Willard Love, the two-year-old son of Scott Love, was stopped on by a horse.

Lansing—Special contracts existing between the Peninsula Electric Light company, of Detroit, a subsidiary sales organization of the Detroit Edison company, and manufacturers in Detroit, were annulled and declared to be of no effect by an order issued by the public utilities commission. A number of Detroit manufacturers have contracts under which they receive electricity for less than the rates authorized by the commission. These contracts were made before the 1920 increases in the company's rates were put into effect.

PEACE OR WAR FOR IRISH?

Cresson Accused of Con-

By EDWARD W. PICKARD.

Ireland occupied the center of the world stage last week, and at this writing it is uncertain whether she will gain peace by accepting the British government's offer of dominion rule, or adopt the irrevocable attitude of De Valera and the other Sinn Féin leaders and thereby probably bring upon herself a suicidal war with Great Britain. In the closing days of the week Dai Eireann, the Sinn Féin parliament, was in secret session debating the momentous problem. There was a slight chance that it would not endorse De Valera's rejection of the Lloyd George offer, and another chance that the plan would be submitted to a plebiscite by which the people of southern Ireland might instruct their leaders to accept the dominion rule offer.

It was made evident that the Sinn Féiners were trying to bring Ulster into accord with the South so that the conversations with the British government might be renewed and possibly a counter offer made to Lloyd George. The attitude hitherto assumed by Sir James Craig and his colleagues did not promise well for the success of that effort. Indeed, Ulster has been the stumbling block all through the negotiations.

To the unprejudiced mind the British offer seems extremely liberal, giving to Ireland equal membership as a dominion in the British empire, with full control of its finances, posts, army and internal government, and demanding little except loyalty to the empire, control of the seas about Ireland and certain military and aviation rights. It was specified, also, that coercion should not be employed against Ulster, and De Valera has declared southern Ireland can be brought into an Irish dominion without the use of force. He meant by the use of the commercial boycott and similar measures, but General Smuts is confident that time and experience will bring about the same result amicably.

In addressing Dai Eireann, De Valera declared Lloyd George had not offered to Ireland the status of a dominion government, because no Ireland was mentioned in the terms, only two broken pieces of Ireland; and because dominions have the right to secede, but Ireland must stay within the empire whether or not it wishes to do so. Said he: "Only on a basis of our recognition as an Irish republic will we deal with any nation or foreign country whatever. The only government the people of Ireland recognize is the ministry of the Dai Eireann."

He bitterly scored the British government, declaring it was practically impossible to negotiate with it because of its "lack of principle," and cited the many "inconsistencies" of Lloyd George; but the reservations in his speech, expressed and implied, seemed to leave the way open for further negotiations.

Although Lloyd George declared his offer was the utmost the British government could make, it is just possible a way may be found to satisfy the Irish principle of independence. Dublin correspondents call attention to the fact that England already has practically recognized the existence of the Irish republic by the dealings of the premier with De Valera and in many other minor particulars. Therefore, they hold, Dai Eireann, instead of accepting Lloyd George's proposals, might offer the same terms to Great Britain by a treaty as between two free and independent nations.

One thing is fairly certain: If the British offer comes to naught and warfare is resumed, the British government will start in wholeheartedly to "clean up the Emerald Isle," and that with the practically unanimous support of the people of the rest of the empire. All factions in the United Kingdom now admit that the premier has made a sincere effort to pacify Ireland and right her wrongs, and if he feels compelled to defend the government's position by force of arms, his course will be generally justified. Throughout the world the real friends of Ireland who have been watching her struggle with interest and concern will regret deeply the irreconcilability of her leaders. Already the British are preparing for a possible resumption of hostilities.

The League of Nations council will meet in Geneva probably on August 27 to consider the Silesian problem, and Premier Briand is quoted as saying it undoubtedly will be able to settle the disputed questions conformably with the terms and spirit of the peace treaty. Its labors may be lightened by the present attitude of the German industrial and political leaders and the Polish labor representatives in Upper Silesia. They have held secret conference in Katowitz and pledged co-operation in the interest of their "common motherland." It was believed they would petition the league council to settle the Silesian trouble promptly by giving Upper Silesia all to Poland or all to Germany. All the conferees were opposed to the further use of force. Germans and Polish irregular troops had a fight near the villages of Sternitz and Kostelitz, and the Germans killed 24 Poles and drove the rest across the frontier.

The Greeks resumed last week their offensive against the Turkish nationalists, and four strong columns advanced far toward the Kemalists seat of government at Angora while a fifth moved north toward Ismid, which the Turks were said to be evacuating. It was reported again that the nationalists also were giving up Angora. The Turks made a stand at the ancient city of Gordium, near the confluence of the Porsak and Sakaria rivers, which was used as a concentration camp by Alexander the Great when he invaded Persia.

It is almost incredible, but true nevertheless, that the Bolshevik rulers of Russia were still haggling last week over the terms on which Americans should be permitted to undertake the relief of the starving and pest-stricken millions of the Volga valley and southern Russia. Day after day Maxim Litvinoff, head of the soviet famine relief commission, fenced with Walter L. Brown, chief of the European section of the American relief administration, yielding slowly and reluctantly to Mr. Brown's demands, suspicious like his fellow Bolsheviks that any foreigners admitted to Russia will take advantage of the opportunity to conspire to overthrow the soviet regime. At this writing Litvinoff has given in on all points save one. He still insists that the Bolsheviks shall have the right to limit the number of relief workers and to expel any of them. Meanwhile the Russians are dying like flies for lack of food and medicines.

It is interesting to note that soviet Russia has abandoned prohibition. A decree has been issued permitting the manufacture and sale of beverages containing up to 14 per cent of alcohol, which will be heavily taxed. Nationalization of real estate also has been dropped and individuals are now permitted to buy houses or land from the government. Having made pretty much of a wreck of the country, Lenin and Trotsky are gradually receding from their impossible position.

China has cordially accepted the invitation to the disarmament conference in Washington, and Japan's note of acceptance has been prepared and submitted to the cabinet in Tokyo for approval. The Japanese reply, it is understood, asks limitation on the questions to be discussed. The acceptance of France, which was a mere formality, also was received early in the week, together with the assurance of Premier Briand that he will accompany the French delegation. President Harding has named two of the American delegates—Secretary of State Hughes and Senator Lodge. That the administration will not make the conference the occasion for lavish expenditures is assured by its request for an appropriation of only $200,000 for expenses of the meeting. Of course the Republicans took advantage of their chance to make comparisons with the huge sum expended by President Wilson and his peace commission in Europe.

Mr. Dresel, our commissioner in Berlin, has been busy negotiating the terms of the peace treaty with Germany, and has run against several snags, among them a renewed opposition on the part of Germany to admit its sole blame for the war. America reserves to itself all the advantages accruing under the treaty of Versailles, and Germany demands several things, including restoration of all German property seized in America or the proceeds of the sale of such property.

The tax revision bill was introduced into the house and the fight for its adoption began promptly under a special rule which provided for final action at three o'clock Saturday afternoon. There was little doubt that the measure would be passed almost as reported, but there was a chance that it might be changed in one important respect. Just before it was introduced the Republican members of the house in caucus ordered that it be altered to provide that repeal of the excess profits tax, substitution of an increased corporation tax and reduction of the higher individual surtaxes should become effective on income of the calendar year 1922 instead of 1921. This was not in accord with the desires of the administration, which believed the party was committed to a revision of the tax laws which would apply to 1921 income, and it was thought the action of the caucus might be reversed. The Democratic members of the house also caucused and voted to fight the tax bill, declaring in a resolution that it is "subversive of the principle that should govern taxation for the support of this government" and that it "relieves profiteers and taxpayers of large incomes from their just share of the load of taxation and leaves an unfair portion of the burden to be borne by the people of moderate means." Fifty-two Democratic members did not attend the party caucus.

In a majority report of a special investigating committee filed with the house of representatives last week, Samuel T. Ansell, former acting judge advocate general of the army; Col. John E. Hunt and Col. C. C. Cresson were charged with conspiracy in connection with the escape of Grover C. Bergdoll, the most despicable of the draft evaders. Ansell, it is charged, was the master mind in the plot by which Bergdoll, whose attorney he was, was released from military prison under guard to dig up a pot of gold, and the report recommends that he be disbarred from practicing in the courts of the nation "above whose safety and integrity he placed gold." Colonel Hunt is held directly responsible for the escape of Bergdoll because he neglected to have him handcuffed and adequately guarded; and Colonel Cresson is severely criticized for his "pretense of prosecution" of Colonel Hunt, who was tried by court-martial. The majority report was signed by Representatives Lahring of Indiana, Republican, and Flood of Virginia and Johnson of Kentucky, Democrats. Chairman Peters of Maine and McArthur of Oregon, Republicans, submitted a minority report dissenting from most of the findings of the majority.

The field of athletic sports provided a minor sensation in the breakdown of Suzanne Lenglen, famous French tennis player, while she was contending with Mrs. Molla Mallory, American champion, in the women's national championship tournament at Forest Hills, L. I. Mile. Lenglen, who had landed only a day or so before, was suffering from a severe cough and after Mrs. Mallory had won the first set and two points of the second, the French girl quit, weeping, and defaulted. It is believed that these two remarkable players will have another match before Suzanne returns home.

SPOTLIGHT TURNED ON SHIPPING GRAFT

SECRETARY HOOVER REQUESTS
RESIGNATION OF SHIPPING
COMMISSIONER QUINN.

WILL REORGANIZE THE SERVICE

Drastic Measures to Be Taken to "Clean Up" Conditions Found in Federal Offices.

Washington.—Graft is rampant in the offices of federal shipping commissioners and there is to be a "clean sweep" in that branch of the bureau of navigation at Atlantic as well as Pacific coast ports, it has been officially stated at the department of commerce quarters.

Secretary of Commerce Hoover has requested the resignation of Shipping Commissioner Quinn at New York. Hoover said he "would clean up" the New York bureau with a "scrub brush" to remove all traces of corruption.

Special agents of the department found that in New York systematic grafts have been the rule among all of the employees there for several years, it was said. Reports laid before Secretary Hoover revealed that the graft secured by government officers in the form of securities of shipping companies far exceeded the salaries paid to government employees. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are alleged to have been so paid to government agents for special concessions to shipping concerns.

The "clean up" at New York is the forerunner of drastic measures at many other ports completely to reorganize this branch of the service. Commerce department officials said with regard to the New York situation that no evidence had been obtained to show that Commissioner Quinn participated directly in the graft, but other proof is before the department which tends to show that he was lax in eliminating these and other practices.

Marines to Enforce Terms
U. S. Government Backs Costa Rica
in Canal Dispute.

Washington.—American tolerance of Panama's defiance of the White award in the territorial dispute with Costa Rica has ended, and the Panama government has been notified by the state department that Costa Rica will proceed at once to take over disputed territory.

To guarantee Costa Rica protection in the execution of the terms of the territorial award, the United States government has ordered a full battalion of marines to Panama. The government of Panama was notified by Secretary of State Hughes on August 15 of the unalterable determination of the United States that the arbitration award coding disputed boundary territory to Costa Rica must be accepted by Panama.

Ex-Service Men.

Washington.—One hundred thousand dollars collected by the American Red Cross during the war for soldier relief work, has been turned over by the society to the American Legion to be used by the latter organization in searching out cases of former service men entitled to, but failing to receive aid.

The fund is to be used, together with sums donated by the Y. M. C. A., National Community Service, Knights of Columbus and Jewish Welfare board, in the formation of "flying squads" charged with aiding needy service men.

LEGION MEN VISIT FRANCE

American Party on Tour of Former Battle Sites; at Flirey Monument Dedication.

The new "A. E. F." is in France—on a mission much unlike that of the A. E. F. of 1917-1918. The new forces are only 250 strong. They comprise members of the American Legion who are touring the former battle sectors this summer as guests of the French government.

Every state and every branch of service is represented in the peaceful new A. E. F. They sailed from New York on the George Washington. There was a noisy "bon voyage" at the docks as the former presidential ship started on its course. Flags of the United States and the American Legion flew from the mast.

Commanding or rather heading the pilgrimage was John G. Emery, the Legion's national commander. Former commanders Frank D'Olier and Henry D. Lindsley were present.

Arriving at Le Havre, the citizen expedition was received with great eclat, after which it proceeded to Paris under tow of French officials. From Paris the party set out by special train for Blois to attend the dedication of the Joan of Arc statue presented to the French city by the Joan of Arc Committee of New York.

While at Blois, the veterans invaded the old headquarters of the army reclassification board, known better by the doughboys as the "benzene board." Here the Americans staged a burlesque of a benzine hearing during which a score of the pilgrims were "bloodyed" as they used to say in the days of the fighting A. E. F.

Every city visited by the former defenders has received them with arms wide-open. That France has not forgotten is everywhere evidenced by the cordiality of the receptions. At Bordeaux, the Legionnaires received the "freedom of the city" from the high officials. From there they went to Tarbes to visit the birthplace of General Foch. They placed a memorial tablet upon the house that first sheltered the famous generalissimo.

The former fighters were impressed by the rapidly with which many of the ruined towns have been rebuilt. Some Legionnaires have gone over the exact location where they fought the battle of liberty and where many of their buddies fell in action.

Probably the most impressive ceremony participated in by the Americans was the dedication of the Flirey monument. This memorial is a tribute to the valor of the doughboys who delivered the little town of German occupation. Flirey is familiar ground to many American soldiers. It is on the ridge which was the main line of resistance of the old Toul sector.

It was at Flirey that the Eighteenth, from Kansas and Missouri, went into conflict. Seventeen American divisions fought in the vicinity of the little town, which itself was occupied by regimental headquarters of troops holding the line.

At the close of their tour the Legion men will go to Paris where they will have three days A. W. O. L. after which they will sail on their return voyage. The party is expected to return about September 15.

YOUNGEST AUXILIARY MEMBER

Little Ruth Buell Thompson of Lewistown, Montana, Chosen Mascot of the State Department.

Her mother was a nurse and her father a doughboy, both having served in France. She is Ruth Buell Thompson, 31 months old, and the youngest member of the Woman's Auxiliary of Ruth Buell Thompson, the American Legion at Lewistown, Montana.

When the state department of the American Legion of Montana held its annual convention at Lewistown, Baby Thompson was unanimously selected to be the mascot. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Thompson, of Lewistown.

Brooklyn—The new Essex automobile which was completely wrecked and burned just north of Brooklyn near the home of Mrs. Cruise last Friday night is another warning to the speed crazy motorists who travel this highway day and night. That the occupants of the car were not crushed to death or burned to a crisp is a miracle. A young man and a girl from Jackson were in the car. They were little hurt. The man said he had been trying to pass a machine that was trying to keep ahead. Both cars must have been rolling at reckless speed. The Essex left the road on the right near Claude Holland's house and came up the ditch about 20 rods before the left front wheel smashed. The car turned completely around and bottom side up. The leaking gasoline immediately caught fire from the red hot manifold and the car burned in only a few minutes. The bursting of the large tires as they burned could be heard in Brooklyn.—Exponent.

YOUNG GIRL FINDS RELIEF

Wants to Tell Other Girls All About It

Evansville, Ind.—"I am eighteen years old and have been bothered for several months with irregular periods. Every month my back would ache and I always had a cold and felt drowsy and sleepy. I work in a millinery shop and I went to work every day, but felt stupid and would have such cramps. I had seen Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and had heard several women talk of it, so mother got me some. This Vegetable Compound is wonderful and it helped me very much, so that during my periods I am not now sick or drowsy. I have told many girls about your medicine and would be glad to help anyone who is troubled with similar ailments. You may use my testimonial as you like."—STELLA LINXWILER, 6 Second St., Evansville, Indiana.

Some girls lead lives of luxury, while others toil for their livelihood, but all are subject to the same physical laws and suffer in proportion to their violation. When such symptoms develop as irregularities, headaches, backaches, bearing-down sensations and "the blues," girls should profit by Miss Linxwiler's experience and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

Conservation.

"What is Canada doing? What are Canadians doing to stop this fearful waste of our country's precious lumber?" cried the fervent orator. "In there one Canadian here who can truthfully tell me he is doing anything at all to save our forests from depletion?"

Gravely the little man in the front row rose with upturned hand.

"What? Is there actually one?" exclaimed the orator, "and what may I ask, are you doing to save our lumber?"

"I," said the little man solemnly, "always use a toothpick twice."—Toronto Telegram.

Facilitated Melting of Snow.

Automobile highways which cross the Sierra Nevada mountains of California are usually closed to traffic as late as June on account of the slow melting of the deep snow which covers the higher levels. In order to accelerate the melting of the snow and thus to expedite the opening of the highways, the experiment was made this spring of scattering black soil and ashes on snow which covered the highways. As a result of the increased absorption of solar heat the snow melted rapidly, and the roads were opened several weeks earlier than would otherwise have obtained.

Jury Duty.

"Court procedure is very dull." "Yes, they offer very little to interest a tired business man."

No Room for Question.

"Your husband plays cards a great deal."

"Yes," said young Mrs. Torkins, "he is a brewhouser."

"He was last night. They used crackers and ginger snaps for poker chips."

Preparatory Training.

"Johnny," said the teacher reproachfully, "you mispelled most of the words in your composition."

"Yes'm, I'm going to be a dialect writer."

Difference Now.

Mrs. A.—Murriage certainly changes a man.

Mrs. B.—Doesn't it? Take my husband—he used to offer me a penny for my thoughts, and now he offers me $25 to shut up.

Still Going Thru It.

Wife—You said you would go through fire and water for me.

Husband—Well, haven't I? The two combined make hot water, and good for you, you've kept me going all that time.

ALL furnished up with new ideas in styles and trimmings, our favorite suitings return to us this fall, as interesting as they ever were. They are as welcome as our favorite actresses are when they come back to the footlights with a new play and a new wardrobe. There are few novelties among the fabrics used for suits and frocks, but this is of no consequence. We know the merits of those we have tried and they are here again—in styles that are charming and in decorations that are beautiful and more or less unfamiliar.

Tricot and pique will show how interesting they may become in such dresses as those pictured here and embroidery takes on a new aspect when it appears in such unusual designs.

Many new ideas are embodied in the dress of pique tricot at the left of the two shown. First, its underskirt is wider, but not much longer than underskirts have been. Over it there is a garment which appears to be a union of the redingote and tunic with pipples in a contrasting color along its seams and embroidery in the colors of both dress and piping. Pipples give a flare to the skirt of the over garment and finish the elbow sleeves. The sash of folded satin ribbon begins at the sides, under silk ornaments, and is finished with silk tassels.

The handsome dress of tricot at the right is a plainer redingote model, also approving a wider and somewhat flaring underskirt. It has three-quarter length sleeves, that just suggest the bell shape and are split up the outside seam. The plain body of this overgarment opens down the front revealing a satin vest and it stands by the vogue for narrow, strap belts made of the material. Neck, sleeves and bottom of the overdress are finished with silk embroidery—in a new and rich design. Part of this embroidery turns out to be a silk braid, but most of it is stitchery. Both dresses are much toned up by their decorations.

Acted as Wedge to Stimulate Dairy Interest and Promote Better Methods in South.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

An example of how bull associations, organized through the help of the United States Department of Agriculture, act as a wedge to stimulate dairy interest and promote better dairy methods in a community is illustrated by the work which has been done in Spartanburg county, S. C. Five years ago little dairying was done in this county, according to dairymen of the department, but now the industry is making rapid progress and up-to-date methods are being practiced largely as a result of the organization of a bull association.

The interest in dairying dates from the beginning of the purebred bull movement in the vicinity of Canaan, N. C. in 1916. At that time a breeder, in the hope of starting an interest in better stock and creating a demand for his animals, presented a purebred bull to the community. Little interest was taken, and the gift was accepted with reluctance. The community was made up of small farms and there were few cows.

Following this a dairymen's picnic and exhibition of live stock was held, and as a result of extension work carried on by the dairy division of the department in co-operation with Clemson Agricultural college more people became interested and bought cows. In 1917 a co-operative bull association was organized, from which developed a live stock show, and the members of the association developed a keen interest in comparing the dairy animals they raised.

Another show was held in 1920, at which prizes, offered by merchants and bankers consisting of cash, merchandise, and savings accounts were awarded. One of the features of the show was a program of short talks on local problems by the county agent, leading farmers, and representatives of the commercial club and the State Jersey Breeders' association. As an indication of the interest that was aroused those attending the show voted unanimously to hold a community fair next fall, to include not only dairy stock but other agricultural products.

SPRAY TO KEEP FLIES AWAY

Best Time to Apply Repellent is in Morning After Milking or Early in Afternoon.

To keep cows quiet and contented they should be sprayed to keep flies off. A good time to spray is after milking in the morning and before milking time in the afternoon.

With a portable cart, made from a half barrel by attaching wheels and a spray pump and nozzle, two men can spray 40 cows in five minutes. Thirty gallons of mixture will spray 40 cows twice a day for 10 days.

Formula: 4½ quarts coal tar oil, 4½ quarts fish oil, 3 quarts coal oil, 3 quarts whale oil and 1½ quarts oil of tar. Dissolve 3 pounds laundry soap in water, add the above ingredients and bring the whole up to 30 gallons with lukewarm soft water.

PUREBREDS REPLACE SCRUBS

Nothing but Registered Sires Being Used at the Louisiana State Normal School.

"Within the past ten days we have sold to the butcher five scrub cows. We are now keeping only high grades and purebreds." With this explanation an official of the Louisiana State Normal school in Natchitoches parish enrolled in the "Better Sires, Better Stock" movement conducted by the United States Department of Agriculture and the various states. All the live stock on the school farm, which includes cattle, swine and poultry, are being bred only to purebred sires.

BEST TIME TO SELECT CALF

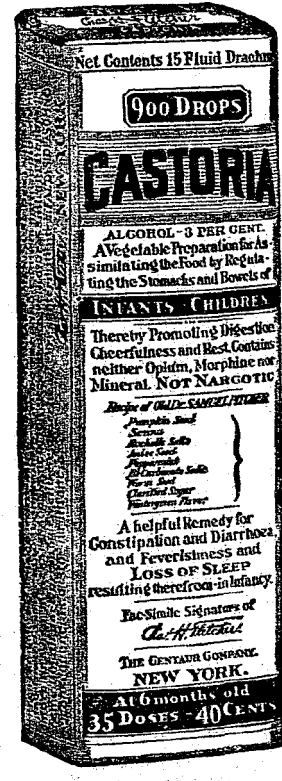

If Dam is Wide, Deep-Bodied Cow Giving Liberal Supply of Milk Useful Animal is Assured.

The best time to select a cow is at a few months of age, when it may be seen with its mother, or, at any rate, before it is weaned. Observe the calf's mother. If she is a wide, deep-bodied cow with plenty of size and is giving a liberal supply of milk, you may be reasonably sure that the calf, if sired by a good bull and properly cared for, will grow into a useful breeding animal.

Making History.

INFANT MORTALITY in past ages has been something frightful, something almost beyond belief, and even today it occupies the time and the mind of leading physicians in all countries. The death rate among infants is being gradually reduced through new methods of hygiene, new preventatives and new remedies for infants. This reduction in the death rate has NOT been accomplished by adapting the precautions taken and remedies used by adults. Rather has it been to keep clear of the old methods, and choose after long research the precautions and remedies specifically applicable to infants.

This being so, is it necessary for us to caution mothers against trying to give her baby relief with a remedy that she would use for herself? Will she remember that Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for infants and children?

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Of Course You Love Your Baby.

You love it because of its very helplessness, because it can't tell you what is the matter when it feels bad. It can only cry and look to you for help. But the more you love baby, the more you want to help baby, the more you ought to realize what a wonderful remedy Fletcher's Castoria is. It has been used for babies' ailments for over thirty years.

An experienced doctor discovered Fletcher's Castoria especially for babies' use. It is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. Doctors who know what is safe and best for babies have only good to say of it.

Don't neglect your baby. Get a bottle of Fletcher's Castoria and give baby a few doses of it. See how the little one smiles at you as if trying to thank you for helping it. Soon you will learn to depend on Fletcher's Castoria, made just for Infants and Children, and of course you would not think of using anything for them that was not prepared especially for Infants and Children. So keep it in the house.

NOT UNTOUCHED BY SORROW

Teacher Entirely Mistaken if She Imagined Small Girl Had Never Experienced Suffering.

Emily Margaret, a six-year-old Columbus girl, has straight blond hair. This is a source of much distress to Emily Margaret, as she is not too young to appreciate the advantage of curly hair, and she particularly admires black hair. She was at Sunday school recently, and the teacher was telling of the terrible plight of the children of the war-stricken countries. By the way of implanting a proper appreciation of their blessings in the minds of the children, the teacher called their attention to the contrast between their own condition and that of the unfortunate youngsters overseas.

"Why," she concluded, "you little ones have no idea of what sorrow means." Emily Margaret was impressed, but she could not let the statement go unchallenged. She addressed the teacher thus: "Miss Blank, I'm awfully sorry for them, but all the same I do know what sorrow means. Every time I see a little girl with dark curly hair I have to shut my eyes to keep from crying."—Indianapolis News.

Canadian Fisheries Rich.

Last year the fish products of her two coasts netted to Canada the sum of $26,163,644. The industry gives employment to between 80,000 and 100,000 workers, of whom about 70,000 are engaged in the sea fisheries, about 10,000 in the fresh water fisheries, and the remainder in canning, curing and otherwise preparing the product for the market.

ALL PAID TRIBUTE TO GUEST

And by No Means Least Were the Words of Praise Uttered by Grandmother.

In New England they tell of a pastor who had boarded for so long with a certain family that when he was called to new fields of labor that family felt his loss keenly.

"The best pastor we've ever had in this town," said the head of the family. "I don't expect to see his equal again."

"Such good company," said the wife, "and so sympathetic if the least thing went wrong."

"He was the easiest man to cook for I ever knew," said the maiden aunt. "He was always satisfied with what he had and never grumbled."

"He had such a nice disposition," said one of the younger members of the family.

While grandmother in her corner by the fireplace, shook her head dolefully as she added her tribute of affection.

"I'll miss him dreadfully," she observed. "He was the best hand at kitchen" moth millers that ever I did see."—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Precocity of Job.

"No difference how cunning you think your children are, you're likely any minute to hear tell of smarter ones," philosophically remarked Gap Johnson of Itasca Ridge. "I was all puffed up about the cuteness of my first boy, Benarat, till the presiding elder mentioned about Job, tuther day. 'Fears like Job cursed the day he was born, but Benarat war darn nigh four years old before he could swear no amount to anything.'—Kansas City Star.

Uncertainty of a Certain Game.

Two sweet young things sat in the grandstand at the baseball game. They were interested in almost everything but the game itself. Finally one of them observed:

"I don't care a lot for baseball."

"Nor I either," the other one joined in. "I'd rather read a book or a story or go to the movies. But an old ball game. You never know how it's going to turn out."

Everything for QUALITY —nothing for show

THAT'S OUR IDEA in making CAMELS—the Quality Cigarette.

Why, just buy Camels and look at the package! It's the best packing science has devised to keep cigarettes fresh and full flavored for your taste. Heavy paper outside—secure foil wrapping inside and the revenue stamp over the end to seal the package and keep it air-tight.

And note this! There's nothing flashy about the Camel package. No extra wrappings that do not improve the smoke. Not a cent of needless expense that must come out of the quality of the tobacco.

Camels wonderful and exclusive Quality wins on merit alone.

Because, men smoke Camels who want the taste and fragrance of the finest tobaccos, expertly blended. Men smoke Camels for Camels smooth, refreshing mildness and their freedom from cigarette aftertaste.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.
