Heatrola Is Here!

Come and See the Sensational New Heater Which "Looks Like a Phonograph and Works Like a Furnace"

Here it is at last! The final solution of the heating problem for small homes—with or without basements. Not a stove but a pipeless furnace no bigger than a stove. Installed in one of the living rooms, it will heat three to six connecting rooms, and heat them better than the ordinary stove heats one.

Estate HEATROLA

—The Parlor Pipeless Furnace

Words can't picture it. Pictures can't describe it. Come and see it. You'll be surprised and delighted. No iron parts to "black." No nickel parts to polish. The beautiful grained mahogany finish is a vitreous enamel—hard and smooth as glass. You can rub it and dust it with a cloth, just as you do your furniture. Come in soon.

CAPTURED STILL WHEN IN FULL OPERATION

Local officers at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning secured a search warrant and about 3 o'clock they raided the residence of John Greiza on West Middle street. When they arrived at the home they were refused admittance and the officers were obliged to force a door open.

Upon their gaining admission, they found Mrs. Greiza and Andrew Holdwick engaged in operating a still. Mrs. Greiza seized the outfit on the stove and threw the boiling hot mash on the floor and cast the worm out of the door and also tipped over a gallon of the home brew but the officers succeeded in saving about half of the contents, and they also secured a full two gallon jug of the home brew.

After the raid, Andrew Holdwick, who is employed at the cement plant, and the distillery outfit with jugs of home brew were taken to the village jail. When Holdwick was searched, over $200 in cash was found on his person.

The home brewers had two kinds of the illicit liquor on hand. One kind was made from corn and rye and the other from hops, lemons and other decoctions.

Mrs. Greiza and two children and Holdwick were taken to Ann Arbor, Wednesday forenoon, and placed in the county jail.

For some time past the premises have been under observation by the officers, and when the raid was finally made, the officers secured evidence enough to convict all parties concerned. Mr. Greiza was absent from the house when the officers made their forced entrance, and so far has not been arrested. All of the parties are natives of Russia.

Auxiliary Organized.

A large number attended the organizing of the new Auxiliary of St. Paul's church, of Chelsea, Friday, September 16, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Krause.

The afternoon was spent in framing the constitution, and electing officers for the coming year. Besides, many very interesting and instructive discussions were enjoyed. This first meeting was well attended, enrolling twenty charter members, and promises to be a thriving busy bee in the near future. The following officers were elected:

For the president chair, Mrs. Ernest Hutzler was caught there, and to the stool of vice president, Mrs. Fred Goebel's back was bent. Then to the bench of secretary, Mrs. A. Koch a pencil did carry. On the treasurer box from the bank was seated, Miss Cora Feldkamp. COM.

Mrs. Charles H. Allyn.

Mrs. Jennie Allyn was born in Canton Center, Steuben County, New York, November 19, 1849, and died at her home on Railroad street, on Wednesday morning, September 21, 1921.

Mrs. Allyn had been a resident of Chelsea for many years. She was united in marriage with Chas. D. Allyn in 1871, at Canton Center, her birthplace. Mr. Allyn has been dead for several years. To this union was born four children, one of whom is living.

Her surviving relatives are Miss Minnie Allyn of Chelsea.

The funeral will be held from the home at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Rev. Rufus Osborne, of Coldwater, will conduct the services. Burial in Oak Grove cemetery.

"Humoresque" Is Coming.

"Humoresque," the greatest story, Fannie Hurst's greatest story, has been adapted to the screen and will be shown at the Princess Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday. It is a tale of youthful genius and mother-love, with the scene laid chiefly in New York's Ghetto and Fifth avenue. Miss Hurst, as is well known, is right at home in portraying with a realistic touch the characters of New York's humbler inhabitants, and "Humoresque" is said to contain intense heart-appeal. Humor and pathos are deftly mingled in the picture.

Jurors for October Term.

Nanry, Superior township; Oliver Cushman, Sylvan township; Charles Knopf, Webster township; George K. Weller, York township; Herbert K. PLEASANT CONCERT GIVEN LAST THURSDAY EVENING

The concert given by the J. L. Hudson Company at the M. E. church last Thursday night was appreciated by the large audience present and also by Olive Lodge, No. 156, F. & A. M., under whose auspices it was given.

The evening's entertainment was opened by a Chopin number by the brass octette. This was followed by songs by the male quartet.

The Grand Opera Medley, from Aida, Faust, and Carmen, by the brass octette was very much enjoyed. The songs by the women's quartet were very good.

Gustav A. Heim, famous trumpet soloist, then played "The Lost Chord," by Sullivan, with orchestra accompaniment. His playing took well and he responded to encores.

The grand climax of the concert was a xylophone solo, "The Glow Worm," by Mr. Arthur Cooper. This was, without doubt, the most entertaining feature of the program, and Mr. Cooper was obliged to respond to the second encore.

At the close of the program the brass octette stood and rendered "The Star Spangled Banner" in a spirited way.

Made Good Showing.

James Geddes, Chelsea, won premiums on white, black, blue and yellow Fantails, a number of kinds of Tumblers, blue and white hen pigeons, white and black dragons, red Carneau, white English Pouters, Strawberry Pouters, Silver and A. C. F. Pouters, Hamlets, Blackheads, black Nuns, red wing Fulls, a number of Turbits, Ice Pigeons, Jacobins, English Carriers, Magpies and many kinds of bantams, at the Jackson fair last week. Dr. Gibson, who has judged pigeons in all parts of the United States, says that Mr. Geddes has the finest collection of pigeons at the Jackson fair this year that he has ever judged.

H. Ahnemann, of Chelsea, won premiums on Fantails, Red Carneau, Crested, Jacobins, Magpies, and Henner's Blues.—Jackson News.

TOURING CAR WRECKED

EARLY SUNDAY MORNING
A Ford touring car was wrecked about six o'clock Sunday morning on the Fletcher road opposite Walter H. Dancer's farm in Lima.

As the territorial road trunk line is closed between the Fletcher road and Lima Center, it is necessary for drivers of all kinds of vehicles to detour. The man who was driving the car must have been going at a lively clip. The machine left the road bed just before it struck the railing of the iron bridge, as the wheel tracks showed on the grass very plainly. The auto was overturned into the ditch on the east side of the driveway.

The machine had three license plates on it, one of which was a Michigan plate, one Illinois plate, and the other a Chicago vehicle license.

The men claimed that they had left Benton Harbor Saturday morning, and were on their way east. The machine was not a very old. The top, body, fenders, windshield, and frame were badly smashed and bent. The machine was taken to Palmer's Garage.

One of the occupants of the car had his collar bone fractured. After the spill, two men went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Eiseman, who reside on the W. H. Dancer farm, and called a Chelsea doctor for the injured man.

The men took the first eastbound car on the D. J. & C. line at the Fletcher road. There were four men who boarded the electric at this point and from all indications they were all occupants of the wrecked car.

Shortly after leaving the Detroit city limits for down town, the four men were taken from the electric car and taken to the police station, where they were held on suspicion.

Mr. Notten will add to this purchase from time to time until this community can again boast of the best herd of Jersey cattle in Washtenaw county.

TOOK THE WHOLE SECTION

Girl Availed Herself Thoroughly of Courtesy Extended to Her by Fellow Traveler.

Some of us remember the story of the camel that wanted to put his nose into the master's tent to warm a bit. Well, that camel is still alive. The other day she got on the train, dressed very prettily and looked as if she were used to having half the world whenever she wished it. But she didn't get it, for all the Pullman seats were taken.

Finally a middle-aged man, noticing her discomfort motioned to the Pullman conductor. "I have this whole section reserved," he explained, "and since this young lady only goes to Evansville she may have a seat in it."

Courtly, he rose from his seat facing the engine and indicated that she was to have it while he would ride backward. While he stood waiting for her to settle herself in it she lifted her grip, put it on the seat facing her, draped her coat beside it, also her hat, magazines, purse and a box of candy. Then she stretched herself in the choice seat, leaving not an inch of room for any other person to occupy.

For a long minute the man stood regarding the bit of space beside the hat and candy box. Then he turned on his heel and went into the smoking car to stay until the train reached Evansville.—Indianapolis News.

JOY THAT COMES BUT ONCE

Statesman Recalls Thrill of Delight That Came to Him in His Schoolboy Days.

William C. Redfield, former secretary of commerce, says that he can recall with microscopic distinctions the moment that gave him the biggest thrill of delight in his whole life. It was when he was going to school and trying to master long division.

Three or four aisles over from where he sat a boy yawned. It was not an ordinary yawn, but one of such genuine expression of feeling toward things in general that it attracted Redfield's attention.

He was fortunate in having a paper laid right at hand, ready for any emergency, and he aimed this at the boy's cavernous mouth. By one of those rare exhibitions of magnanimity on the part of an inanimate object, the paper went right square into the yawn, and Redfield's joy knew no bounds. He had played the one chance to a million and won.

Encouraged by his dexterity in that instance, Redfield then tried throwing rings at knives at county fairs, but never again did he exhibit such wondrous aim.

Caruso of China.

Lou Hoong-Shen, the Caruso of China, is dead. You never heard of him? Yet, he died in a Shanghai theater that had contracted to pay him $10,000 a week. That's a big salary. It is phenomenally big in China, where a few cents a day will hire a strong man. Born of poor parents, Lou Hoong-Shen had to scramble for a living. But, though China is a land of musical voices (as anyone will testify who has listened to the songs of the hawk and the cuckoo), the boy Lou stood alone. He had the most wonderful voice among 400,000,000 Chinese. Despite this, he had to work hard before he became great. For many years he was a mummery—a Chinese actor. Ten years ago he was "discovered" in Shanghai. At once he quit the paint and weird garb of a Chinese actor and became a musical star. By odd coincidence, the great Chinese tenor died from a burst blood vessel in his throat, similar to that which threatened to take the life of Caruso, now convalescent.

Fox Ranching in Europe.

Although it is not generally known, quite a number of foxes were sold last year to parties residing in Europe, mainly throughout Sweden, Norway and Switzerland. One rancher who has supplied a number of pairs to these Europeans, states that the industry is spreading in a truly wonderful manner in these countries, and that this year he expects to be able to sell practically all his foxes abroad. There is only one drawback at present to a general spread of the industry there, and that is the rather high cost of feeding, but this is being overcome, and the sale of breeding stock at good prices will amply cover the higher expense. The present rate of exchange is also a disadvantage, but this does not seem to affect those who want to start in at the business, as the Europeans are now used to this. There is most certainly a big field in Europe for the fox industry, and that it will some day amount to something big is a surety.

The Lobster's Path.

The special dispatch from New London which told of the Noank fisherman who sold 2,700 pound of lobsters for more than $300, thus enabling him to pay all the expenses incurred last spring when he started to build pots, buoys, etc., probably gives only the first chapter in an interesting story. It is fair to assume that the dealer who resold them to the summer hotel was enabled to pay the expenses he incurred when he erected his new warehouse, wharves and office buildings, last fall; while, it may be presumed, the summer hotel owner in retelling them to his guests cleared off the half-million-dollar mortgage he contracted when he added the ten-story marble wing earlier in the season.—Hartford (Conn.) Courant.

ALSACE BEGINNING TO LIVE

Writer Finds a Feeling of Relief Pervading the People of the Province, With Reason.

It is a strange, yet stimulating experience for anyone who is interested in the relations between peoples to visit the much-contested strip of land known as Alsace. The last time I was in Alsace was more than twenty years ago. It was the day after Bismarck's death, and everywhere the black-white-red flags were hanging out at half-mast in honor of the man who had made the two provinces a Reichland—part of the new German empire.

Today Bismarck's work is undone; gone, even from Germany itself, is the black-white-red flag; gone are the Prussian officers and officials, the red-hatted station masters, and all the other paraphernalia of imperial German routine. The older order survives but here and there, in the great official buildings erected and arranged on the grandiose German (or, as the Germans now call it, Wilhelmian) scale, in the familiar square blue German letter boxes, in the neat blue street signs which have been left standing with a neat new French sign affixed above or beneath. No doubt the minor officials have been but little changed. The village station master and the postman have but doffed their German insignia to don its more easy-fitting French equivalent. But if the men are the same, the faces, as well as the uniforms, are different. There is a feeling of relief, of detente, in the air. One has the sense of a people that has returned to the normal. At last, after a long ordeal, they can be themselves. They are free to settle down and to begin to live.—Alfred E. Zimmerman to the Manchester Guardian.

At first I didn't know what was wrong with me until my kidneys began to show signs of disorder. My back had a dull pain in it and there was a sharp pain through my right side. Every time I would stoop I would get dizzy. I tried different remedies but Doan's Kidney Pills did me more good than anything I ever used. Two boxes cured me up in good shape. NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Delegates and Agenda for the Armament Conference Are Being Determined.

FOUR SELECTED FOR AMERICA

Secretary Hughes suggests topics for discussion—League of Nations, Elects Moore Judge of International Court—Senate completes its draft of tax bill.

Preliminary work on the conference on limitation of armaments and far Eastern problems is going on steadily, and before long it will be known just who will take part in the meeting, and in a general way what they will discuss. The several nations concerned are selecting their representatives, those for the United States being the first to be announced. President Harding has appointed for that high duty Secretary of State Hughes, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Ethel Root and Senator Oscar W. Underwood—three Republicans and one Democrat. As Premier Hara will be unable to come, Admiral Baron Kato has been selected to head the Japanese delegation, and Ambassador to the United States Shidehara will also be a member. It is still believed Premier Lloyd George will lead the British contingent, and it is likely that his associates will be Andrew Bonar Law, Secretary for War Evans and Lord Lee of Fareham, first lord of the admiralty. The British dominions, especially Australia, New Zealand and Canada, have been strenuously arguing their right to representation in the conference in view of their great interest in matters concerning the Pacific and Far East, and it is believed that some of their leading statesmen will be asked to attend in the capacity of advisers.

Two more nations have been added to the list of those invited to the conference. With the consent of five principal powers Holland and Belgium will participate in the proceedings insofar as their interests in the Far East are concerned. Their status thus will be the same as that of China, for it is not to be supposed they will take part in the discussion on armaments.

Diplomatic conversations and informal exchanges between the governments concerned have progressed so far that Secretary Hughes has been able to send to the other four great powers and to China a suggested outline of the topics for the conference. This proposed agenda has not been made public, pending its acceptance by the other governments, but is believed to include, aside from limitation of armaments, these suggestions:

Territorial integrity of Russia, the open door, and equal opportunity for economic activities, the powers acting as trustees until Russia shall have recovered and set up a central, representative government.

Territorial integrity of China and the "open door."

The substitution of international co-operation for the past practice of seeking selfish, monopolistic advantages in China.

Assistance to China in achieving administrative, fiscal and judicial reforms.

A Tokyo newspaper says Mr. Hughes also includes in his suggestions mandates if they have not been previously settled, and Manchuria and the Chinese Eastern railway. That question of mandates, meaning in this case especially Japan's causing the Japanese a lot of worry. They don't want it brought up in the conference and are doing their utmost to get it settled before the Washington meeting opens. Their continued occupation of Shanghai is another matter they desired to keep out of the conference, but in this they are likely to be disappointed. They have asked China to enter into private negotiations for the settlement of that controversy, but the more intelligent elements in China rely on the Washington meeting to right their country's wrongs, and the Peking government has refused Japan's proposition, fearing that it would be overthrown if it accepted. Some of the leaders in that government have long been suspected of being pro-Japanese. An interesting report in Washington is that Robert Lansing, former secretary of state, under President Wilson, will be an adviser to the Chinese delegation.

The assembly of the League of Nations continues to function, in disregard of the assertions of various persons that the league is virtually dead. Paraphrasing it may be said that the treaty of Versailles guarantees the league's life for 30 years for the purposes of administering the Saar basin and the control of Danzig. The chief accomplishment of the assembly last week was the election of judges of the international court of justice. Ethel Root having declined, for personal reasons, to be a candidate, the Latin-American group brought about the election of John Bassett Moore of New York. He and ten others were accepted by the council. Three deputy judges also were elected and confirmed, but there was trouble over the choice of the fourth deputy. Three times the assembly elected Senor Alvarez of Chile, and three times the council voted for M. Descamps of Belgium. At last the deadlock was referred to a committee. Senor Amador of Panama threatened to withdraw his delegation if Alvarez was not accepted by the council.

The question of the league's competence to judge the Tacna-Arica dispute and the Chile-Bolivia treaty was referred to a committee of three jurists. Senor Edwards of Chile stated that he was not prepared to admit that the league was licensed to intrude in purely South American affairs to violation of the Monroe doctrine. Senor Aramayo of Bolivia, having received new instructions from La Paz, withdrew his demand that the dispute with Chile be included in the agenda of the assembly.

The Irish—meaning the Sinn Féin—were willing to hold a conference with the British cabinet at Inverness this week, as proposed by Premier Lloyd George, but, as was easily predicted, they didn't want to submit to the only condition imposed, that the Sinn Féin must abandon its demand for separation from the empire. De Valera sent Harry Boland and Joseph McGrath with his acceptance of the invitation, but in his letter he made several reservations, chief of which was his objection to admitting Ireland's allegiance to the British crown before entering the conference. He also argued that if the premier objected to the secession of Ireland from the empire he should not support the secession of Ulster from Ireland.

Mr. Lloyd George sent the couriers back to Dublin with a message to De Valera that his note was unsatisfactory and he had better write another. This the governor supplemented by a telegram to De Valera cancelling the arrangements for the Inverness conference because he felt that, in view of the Irish attitude, negotiations would be useless. The premier was as conciliatory as he could be consistently, but at this writing it is uncertain whether the negotiations for peace will continue. The Bull Financé, however, named its delegates for the conference. If it is held, and De Valera is not one of them, the delegates are: Arthur Griffith, founder of Sinn Féin and republican foreign minister; Michael Collins, minister of finance; Robert Barton, secretary of economic affairs; Eamon Duggan, chief Irish republican army liaison officer, who helped to arrange the truce; and George Clavan Duffy, the Irish envoy to Rome.

Several of these men are classed as moderates. The Freeman's Journal of Dublin says: "Their task may have its difficulties, but its successful accomplishment will be the crown of a great achievement. Both nations have their hearts set on an honorable ending here and now to the struggle of centuries. Their desire is well within the realm of possibility and practicability. All the efforts of the would-be wreckers in Great Britain hitherto have failed. There is then enough statesmanship in the Irish delegation to confirm that failure and to complete a fabric of peace."

Director of the Budget Dawes has informed the senate finance committee of the details of the cut of $350,000,000 in the ordinary government expenditures for the current fiscal year. Reductions for the War department, shipping board, railroads, veterans' bureau and miscellaneous places will provide $345,000,000 of this. The remainder will be saved by better co-ordination in handling departmental purchases and sales of supplies.

The finance committee completed its redrafting of the house tax bill and experts began getting the measure ready for presentation in the senate on September 21. Disregarding the recommendations of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, the committee voted to repeal the excess profits tax beginning January 1, 1922, and the capital stock tax effective in 1922, and to substitute for these a flat corporation tax of 15 per cent, effective January 1, 1922. Among other changes in the house bill voted by the committee are retention of freight and passenger transportation taxes at half their present rates and those on express shipments and oil pipe lines at their present rates for another year, and continuation of many miscellaneous taxes which the house voted to repeal.

The fight against the Ku Klux Klan is growing more interesting and more widespread every day, and the Klan is fighting back against its enemies with vigor. Various papers in many parts of the country have undertaken "exposures" of the organization and its methods and aims, and the Klan has started or says it will start libel suits against those publications that misrepresent it. In Chicago an organization called the National Unity council has been formed with the avowed purpose of suppressing the Klan and its so-called "invisible empire." The council, which is to be extended throughout the country, is headed by Edward F. Dunne, former governor of Illinois. He says the Ku Klux are a menace to the nation because they "avowedly prosecute millions of their fellow citizens solely because, either they worship God in a manner permitted by the Constitution of the United States, or because they were born without the United States. They place the black man without the pale of the law. Such organizations foment racial, religious and political enmities instead of encouraging civility and friendship between all classes of American citizens, which should be the aim of every broad-minded American."

Meanwhile the Klan continues to grow in numbers with extraordinary rapidity, now having, it is said, more than half a million members, and being organized in every state in the Union except New Hampshire, Utah and Montana.

The great packing concerns of Armour, Swift, Wilson and Cudahy last week put into operation the newly devised "American shop representation" system, their government-sponsored agreement with their workers having expired. All disputes are to be submitted to shop councils comprised of employees' elected representatives and persons selected by the employers, and national councils, to which shop councils may appeal, are to be formed in similar manner. Employees' representatives must be employed in the shop and must be citizens or have taken out their first papers. Any person is eligible for employment, whether a union member or not. While this is "open shop," the packers say it is not a change of policy since they always have been open shop. Ninety per cent of their workers, they say, assented to the plan.

The terrific flood that struck San Antonio and other parts of Texas has subsided, but its full results are just beginning to be realized. Several hundred persons, mostly negroes and Mexicans, perished. The property loss in San Antonio is placed at $3,000,000 and elsewhere at $10,000,000. The mayor of the city appealed to Washington for army tents and cots for the thousands of homeless refugees.

The British cruiser Dauntless, bearing the bodies of the American victims of the ZR-3 disaster, arrived at New York Friday, escorted by a fleet of aircraft, destroyers and other vessels. Saturday afternoon the dead were accorded the full naval honors due those who gave their lives in the line of duty.

FORCE PAYMENT OF UNPAID TAXES

ATTORNEY GENERAL MERLIN WILEY SAYS STATE WILL SUE TAX LAGGARDS.

ONE COMPANY 6 YEARS BEHIND

About $125,000 Now Due From Southern Michigan Phone Company Which May Be Seized.

Lansing.—Merlin Wiley, attorney general, has instructed his assistants to start suit against telephone companies, car loaning companies and other corporations subject to the specific tax law and delinquent in payment of taxes for former years.

This action may result in the state taking over the Southern Michigan Telephone company, which has the largest tax delinquency of any of the public service corporations paying taxes into the primary school fund. The Southern Michigan company owes its taxes for the past six years, the amount with accrued interest being $125,000.

The telephone company is understood to be a subsidiary of the Michigan State Telephone company. The parent company has sought to have the Southern Michigan adjudged bankrupt. It is believed that a judgment for the $125,000 taxes and interest would exceed the present value of the properties and force the state to take over the lines.

There are 60 telephone companies that have failed to pay their 1920 tax, the total of their delinquency amounting to $37,000 for the year. A total of $5,000 is owed by 42 car loaning companies delinquent in the 1920 tax. The delinquency of several small railroads brings the total of unpaid specific tax for 1920 to $473,000.

O. B. Fuller, auditor general has forwarded the list of delinquent companies to the attorney general for collection. A reasonable time for payment has been allowed by the attorney general, and suits will now be started to collect the tax remaining unpaid.

Some of the car loaning companies have flatly refused to pay the tax, alleging that they own no property but do business with cars that they rent and are not subject to taxation. Under the law the state can attach the cars themselves in case the tax is not paid.

SENSATIONAL SUIT IS SETTLED

Stokes Denied Divorce But Mrs. Stokes Is Granted Separation.

New York.—The sensational legal tangle, and his pretty young wife, battle between W. E. D. Stokes, captain, and Helen Elwood Stokes, ended in the supreme court Monday when Justice Edward R. Finch denied the suit of the millionaire for a divorce and granted Mrs. Stokes an interlocutory decree of separation on her counter suit.

Justice Finch, in his decision, a lengthy document, took occasion, however, to rebuke Mrs. Stokes for parts of her testimony against the aged millionaire as "exaggerated if indeed some of it really happened at all."

Washington.—President Harding has announced the names of 38 members of the conference which, with an advisory committee of 20 experts and Secretary of Commerce Hoover as chairman, will meet here next week to devise measures for relieving the present stress of unemployment and business depression.

The president hopes that the conference will be able to ameliorate existing conditions and avert sufferings of an army of jobless the coming winter and to recommend policies to prevent the periodical recurrence of widespread unemployment.

PRISON DELIVERY PLOT HALTED

Leavenworth Officials Discover 11 Bombs in Prisoners' Possession.

Leavenworth, Kas.—Seven inmates were in solitary confinement at the federal prison here Monday following discovery of a plot to blow open the gates of the prison in a general break for liberty.

Eleven bombs, made from pipe and filled with explosives, a quantity of chemicals, a 28 calibre revolver and a formula for making explosives were found in the prison carpenter shop.

CRAZED SON SHOTS MOTHER

Moonshine Is Cause of Shooting Affray, Officers Allege.

Iron Mountain, Mich.—Arthur Woods, of this city, 22 years old, alleged to have been crazed by moonshine, shot and seriously wounded his mother late Monday afternoon, according to the police. He chased her into the street and then fired on her with a revolver, witnesses declared.

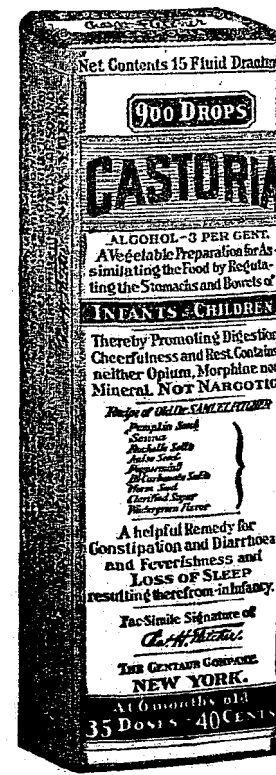

Some More Truths.

WOULD you use a steam shovel to move a pebble? Certainly not. Implements are built according to the work they have to do.

Would you use a grown-up's remedy for your baby's ills? Certainly not. Remedies are prepared according to the work THEY have to do.

All this is preliminary to reminding you that Fletcher's Castoria was sought out, found and is prepared solely as a remedy for Infants and Children. And let this be a warning against Substitutes, Counterfeits and the Just-as-good stuff that may be all right for you in all your strength, but dangerous for the little babe.

All the mother-love that lies within your heart cries out to you: Be true to Baby. And being true to Baby you will keep in the house remedies specially prepared for babies as you would a baby's food, hairbrush, toothbrush or sponge.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Are You Prepared?

A doctor in the house all the time would be a good idea. Yet you can't afford to keep a doctor in the family to keep baby well or prevent sickness. But you can do almost the same thing by having at hand a bottle of Fletcher's Castoria, because it is a wonderful remedy for indigestion, colic, feverishness, fretfulness and all the other disorders that result from common ailments that babies have.

Fletcher's Castoria is perfectly safe to use. It is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. Children cry for Fletcher's Castoria, and mothers recommend it because they have found it a comfort to children and a mother's friend.

If you love your baby, you know how sweet it is to be able to help baby when trouble comes. You cannot always call upon a doctor. But doctors have nothing but good to say of Fletcher's Castoria, because they know that it can only do good—that it can't do any harm—and they wouldn't want you to use for baby a remedy that you would use for yourself.

By Way of Explanation.

"Ah," sighed the presiding elder, "why do so few parents nowadays sing to their children?"

"One reason I don't," replied Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge, "is that the last time I tried it they ganged me till their jaws had to ding hot water on 'em to make 'em turn loose."

—Kansas City Star.

Do you discriminate at the dining table—or are you thoughtless?

In thousands of homes, a "line" is drawn at the breakfast table. Tea or coffee is served for "grown-ups" and Postum for children. But some parents do not discriminate. Caffeine and tannin, the injurious contents of coffee and tea, seriously retard the development of the delicate nerve tissues in children.

Consequently, instead of rich, satisfying Postum, children are over stimulated by the drugs in tea and coffee; and so may grow up irritable and nervous. Any doctor can tell you that this is a great evil and should be corrected.

Although some parents feel a certain justification for the personal indulgence in coffee, yet the harm to them may be equally serious. It may take a little while longer for the drugs in coffee and tea to affect an older person, but in many cases the nervous system and allied bodily functions will become weakened. The surest way to avoid such possibilities is to quit coffee entirely and drink Postum instead. The change permits you to get sound, restful sleep.

Postum is the well-known, meal-time beverage. Like thousands of others you will like it because, in flavor, it is much like a high-grade coffee.

Do away with the distinction at the table. Serve delicious Postum, piping hot, to all the family. One week's trial and it is likely that you'll never return to tea and coffee.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in time) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages) of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.

"Millions Now Living Will Never Die"--Judge Rutherford

"MILLIONS NOW LIVING WILL NEVER DIE."

In less than a year this proclamation has found its way into thirty languages and the message is being heeded to millions of people in thousands of cities in every land of the earth. "Millions Now Living Will Never Die!" Who ever heard of such a thing? Preposterous," you will say. So said the scoffers to Noah; they had never seen rain—but the flood came on time. "Millions Now Living Will Never Die," but will enjoy unending human life on earth and ascend a highway of righteousness to full perfection of body, of mind, of character, in company with their loved ones returned from the grave. When the kingdom of God is fully established mankind will have no more fear of sickness or accident, old age or death; no more dread of loss of home, or loved ones, or livelihood; no more sorrow or tears.

"MILLIONS NOW LIVING WILL NEVER DIE."

You may be one of them. Go! Hear the proof of these most marvelous tidings. Testimony upon testimony, evidence upon evidence, Biblical, historical, scientific—appealing to your reason as well as to your heart—will be presented without cost in the lecture by

E. H. Ehrich, of Jackson, at Sylvan Town Hall, Sunday, Sept. 25, at 7:30 p. m.

This lecture has comforted multitudes bereaved by the world war, epidemics, and attending sorrows. So great has been the demand that it has been amplified and published in book form, including 500 Scriptural proof Texts. Those unable to hear the lecture may have a copy by sending 25 cents to T. B.
