The Meeting Ground of Town and Country— The Home Town Paper

THAT great part of non-city America which we call the country is in reality town and country. Sometimes the people of the farms have felt that the people of towns did not understand their problems any more than did those of the big cities. But there has been a common meeting ground for all in the home town paper. It has chronicled the activities of the village and of the farms and of the cross roads. It has told of the visits of the village banker and his family and of the farmer and his family, of the new pavement in the village and the improved highway in the country. No publication ever was more entitled to be called "a slice of life" of the people than the home town paper. Week after week, year after year, it has ministered to the natural craving for the homely, intimate news of the countryside, the kind of news which no big city paper can furnish. Now the country newspaper is to have a "week" all its own. The thousands of country papers the nation over have got together to observe "Subscribe for your home town paper week" November 7-12. It is a week for all who love country and village life and "just folks." If you have let your subscription lapse, renew it. If you are a newcomer to the community, subscribe. If you are far from the old home town, make sure that at least once a week you can live again the joys of other days through the visits of the home town paper.

George H. Mitchell.

George H. Mitchell was born in Lima, February 27, 1848, and died at the state hospital in Pontiac, on Friday, October 21, 1921.

After leaving the farm in Lima on which he was born, at present owned by F. G. Barth, Mr. Mitchell became a resident of Chelsea, and, although he was employed in Chicago as ticket agent on the elevated railway for many years, he always maintained his residence here. He was a member of Olive Lodge, F. & A. M., Olive Chapter, O. E. S., and Arbor Tent of The Maccabees in Ann Arbor. His wife died about 12 years ago.

He is survived by one sister, Dr. Mitchell, of Kansas City, Mo.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon from the M. E. church, Rev. H. R. Beatty officiating. Burial at Oak Grove cemetery, and the Masonic burial services were conducted at the grave by the members of the Lodge here.

Speer-Olson Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Speer announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lucile Speer, and Mr. Russell Olson, of Detroit, which took place in the Highland Park M. E. church, on Saturday, October 15. Rev. Milton L. Bennett, pastor of the church, conducting the services.

The couple were attended by Miss Effie Stocking, of Ann Arbor, and Mr. Chester W. Costello, of Redford.

Following the church service a wedding supper was served to a number of the friends of the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Olson will make their home in Detroit.

Anti-Trust Suit.

The Michigan Portland Cement company of Chelsea is again implicated in an anti-trust suit brought by the United States government, it being named with 23 others in a suit filed Monday in the Chicago federal court. The complaint charges that the 24 firms, through the Midwest Cement Credit and Statistical bureau, is keeping up an unlawful combination and conspiracy in restraint of trade. The charges are made in a suit in equity which seeks to enjoin the firms from continuing the alleged combination.

The Chelsea business men closed their stores during the funeral services of C. Klein, Saturday.

TRIED TO POISON HIS FATHER-IN-LAW BUT FAILED

Chester Covell, of Manchester, was arrested Thursday, charged with the attempted murder of his father-in-law, David Bauer.

Friday afternoon, October 14, Mr. Bauer was working in the field and Covell brought his dinner out to him. Mr. Bauer took one bite of a sandwich out of the lunch and it tasted bitter so he threw it down on the ground.

Mr. Bauer's dog ate the sandwich and immediately dropped dead. A physician was consulted and stated that the sandwich was poisoned. The dog's stomach was analyzed and found to contain strychnine.

Covell has lived with his father-in-law since last February when he married Lila, the youngest daughter of Mr. Bauer.

Covell was taken to Ann Arbor and when taken before the justice of the peace Friday afternoon, he waived examination and was bound over to the circuit court. His bail was set at $25,000.

He was taken before Judge Sample in the circuit court Monday forenoon and was sentenced to spend from 12 to 24 years in the prison at Jackson, with the recommendation of 12 years. He pleaded guilty to the charge to trying to poison his father-in-law and before his sentence was passed by Judge Sample, he said that he got his idea of poisoning from the movies.

Widmayer-Noah Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Esther M. Widmayer, daughter of Mrs. F. G. Widmayer, of Sylvan, and Mr. Lawrence E. Noah, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Noah, of North Lake, took place in Albion, on Wednesday, October 26. Rev. H. G. Pearce, alumni secretary of Albion college, conducted the ceremony.

The young couple left on an auto trip through northern Michigan, and expect to return to the "Ark" at North Lake, on November 1, where mother Noah will furnish a big spread for them and it is expected that the young people of the community will furnish the music for the occasion.

The young couple expect to spend the winter in Ann Arbor, returning to the farm at North Lake in the spring. The many friends of the couple wish them happiness and success.

Celebrated Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Foster, of Ann Arbor, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday at the family home, 803 Lawrence street. Both Mr. and Mrs. Foster were born in this vicinity, the latter having been formerly Miss Julia A. Hindelang. They were the first couple to be married in St. Mary Catholic church, Rev. Father Van Jenip performing the ceremony. Their attendants were Miss Elizabeth Foster, of Chicago, and Lewis H. Hindelang, of Chelsea.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster were former residents of Chelsea and moved from here to their present home in Ann Arbor in 1908.

There were fifty-four present at the celebration and the brothers and sisters of Mr. and Mrs. Foster gave them as a reminder of the occasion, a purse of $50 in gold. The children of the couple presented them with a purse of over $50 in gold.

Those from Chelsea who were present were Mr. and Mrs. C. Hummel, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Hindelang, Mrs. Clara Stapish, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wheeler and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Beissel and family. Mrs. Wheeler and Mrs. Beissel are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Foster. All of the children, and their families, of the couple were present, as were all of the brothers and sisters, except Miss Elizabeth Foster, of Chicago. Mr. L. H. Hindelang is the only surviving brother of Mrs. Foster. The day was as happy an event in the lives of the couple as the one of fifty years ago.

The Brotherhood of the Congregational church and the Young People's League of St. Paul's church have been very fortunate in booking such a fine number of artists as enumerated below. The first number will be the Schubert Concert Co., on November 18. If you like plenty of fun, good music, light music, funny music and just real music, better attend Schubert evening, when these talented young women present their varied program.

The second number, on December 14, is by J. Coates Lockhart and his Scotch Lassies, concert artists and entertainers in a program of classic, humorous and Scotch numbers.

The third number, on January 28, is by Dean W. J. Shamon, lecturer and educator. Dean Shamon combines the scientific spirit and methods of modern scholarship with the charm and grace of the highest type of popular lecturer. He has a message for everyone.

The fourth number, on March 10, is by D. A. Stewart, cartoonist and humorous entertainer. Mr. Stewart draws a variety of pictures, consisting of cartoons, comic pictures, lightning like evolutions and beautiful color illustrations. He draws rapidly and as he works, entertains the audience with humorous monologues, impersonations, and recitations, making his entire program a delightful entertainment.

Season tickets are now available and may be purchased from any of the local committee.

Lockwood; The University Band under Wilfred Wilson and Community singing led by George Oscar Bowen will be interspersed during the year. The general public is cordially invited but is requested for obvious reasons to refrain from bringing small children.

In addition to these miscellaneous programs a series of twilight organ recitals will be given under the general direction of Earl Vincent Moore, University Organist, every Thursday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock. These programs for the most part will be from thirty to forty minutes in length. Like the Faculty Concert Series, no admission charge will be made. From time to time distinguished guest organists will be heard.

BACK BAD TODAY!

Backache is usually kidney-ache and makes you dull, nervous and tired. Use Doan's Kidney Pills for weak kidneys—the remedy recommended by your friends and neighbors. Ask your neighbor.

Mrs. D. H. Adams, 532 McKinley street, Chelsea, says: "I got very good results through the use of Doan's Kidney Pills and I am glad to recommend them to anyone suffering from kidney trouble. My back was aching and pained so that I could hardly get through with my housework. Dizzy spells would also come over me, especially when I would stoop or raise up suddenly. Everything would turn black before me, too. My kidneys acted too frequently, especially at night and it was a great annoyance. As another member had used Doan's Kidney Pills with benefit I decided to try them. After taking one box I was all over the trouble and have felt well ever since."

An automobile accident that caused considerable excitement occurred at the corner of Park and East streets Tuesday evening. Glea Whipple was driving on Park street at the rate of about 15 miles an hour, and a son of Theo. Koebbe, of Sharon, who was driving a skeleton of a Ford, ran into the Whipple car and drove it into a telephone pole in front of the residence of J. S. Cummings.

The Whipple car was badly damaged. For several days young Koebbe, who is attending the Chelsea high school, had been driving about town when out of school, at a breakneck pace, and evidently the Whipple car was too slow for his pace. It is said that the Koebbe had no driver's license. A few days ago he nearly ran into the car of J. S. Cummings.

Adam Goetz, of Sylvan, had two stacks of oats and one stack of rye destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon. The blaze is supposed to have been started by sparks from the steam engine used in drawing material to the mixing machines on the construction work of the territorial road trunk line. The stacks were about 100 feet from the roadway, and within about 10 feet of the barns. In response to the alarm, men from the road construction work and neighboring farmers were soon on the scene and succeeded in saving the barns. They obtained water from the cistern and well on the farm and the water supply pipe line used on the road work. A strong southeast wind prevailed and it blew the flames from the buildings and it materially aided the men in saving them. On account of the road work Mr. Goetz had been unable to get threshing outfits to his farm to have his grain threshed.

JOY BROUGHT INTO HOME

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Restoring Mrs. Benz to Health

Altoona, Pa.—"I am writing to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. We have had six children die at birth. From one hour to nineteen days is all they have lived. As I was going to have another, I took a dozen bottles of your Vegetable Compound and I can say that it is the greatest medicine on earth, for this baby is now four months old and a healthy baby you would not want. I am sending you a picture of her. Everybody says, 'That is some healthy looking baby.' You have my consent to show this letter."—Mrs. C. W. Benz, 131 3rd Ave., Altoona, Pa.

No woman can realize the joy and happiness this healthy baby brought into the home of Mrs. Benz, unless they have had a like experience.

"Every woman who suffers from any ailment peculiar to her sex, as indicated by backaches, headaches, bearing-down pains, irregularities, nervousness and 'the blues' should not rest until they have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial."

Sweet Dreams.

Like most three-year-olds, Dorothy Jane is always very insistent on having her own solutions. One evening she decided she must have something to eat before going to bed, and on a survey of the pantry, decided on raw Irish potatoes. However, big sister objected to this choice, saying: "Dorothy Jane, you must not eat raw potatoes before going to sleep; you will have bad dreams."

"Well, then give me sweet potatoes; they make me sweet dreams," argued Dorothy Jane.

Christian Name.

In a certain primary class the teacher had been at great pains to explain the distinction between surnames and Christian names. Then she called upon the children to give examples of each kind from their own names and those of other members of their families.

When Charles was asked to tell in one statement the surname and the Christian name of his father, he responded, after some hesitation: "My father's surname is Tompkins, and his Christian name is a Methodist."

Case of Demonstration.

"I am thinking of buying a car." "Why buy? Have you had demonstration from them?" "Not quite, but the demonstrators are quite so demonstrative as they were at first. The last one that took me shopping was even more unenthusiastic than the one that had taken me calling the day before. I think he was the one who put the demon in demonstrators."—Retail Ledger, Philadelphia.

Not He.

"Look here, sir," ominously derided old Festus Pester, who had been disturbed by queer noises in the night. "Do you play the saxophone?" "No," retorting his hat and exposing a very bald head, replied the man who had recently moved in next door. "I lost my hair in the natural course of events."—Kansas City Star.

A Sure Way.

Ruth—"Only a foolish woman angles for compliments." Raphael—"Yes, a wise one depends more upon curves."

The First Case.

Adam and Eve were ejected. "We didn't think a whole apple a reasonable rent," they explained.

Lansing—James R. Davis, federal prohibition agent for Michigan, has made inquiry of the state administrative board as to whether or not he could be given an office of six rooms in the new state office building here.

The government would have to pay a reasonable rental for the office. Davis wants the main office in Lansing.

Ann Arbor—Mrs. Emily Drake, granddaughter of a soldier of the Revolutionary war, celebrated her 100th birthday anniversary here Oct. 20. She was born in New York and moved with her family to Marshall in 1835. Her father, Jacob Laberteaux, was the first farmer near Marshall to drive a pair of horses. She has lived here many years.

Battle Creek—Thomas Robinson, an employee of a local paper-making concern, found $10,000 worth of bonds for the Wellsville (N. Y.) Telephone Co. in waste paper that came baled to the plant. Now the Federal Telephone & Telegraph Co., which took over the Wellsville concern, is suing Mr. Robinson in Circuit Court here for the bonds. It claims they were sent back to printers for cancellation and were not canceled.

Waterford—D. A. Tynor, farmer near here, recently appointed deputy sheriff, was arrested on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon. It is alleged that Tynor shot William Brooks, highway commissioner of Berrien county, when the latter refused to submit to arrest for hunting without a license. One of the shots from Tynor's gun is said to have struck Henry Brooks, brother of the highway commissioner.

Albion—John Holaday, a young man of Homer, had his left forearm badly mangled in a hunting accident south of that village. The young man was hunting alone and caught the trigger of the gun when going through underbrush. The force of the charge cut away the muscles of the arm, but it is thought the member can be saved. The young man was rushed to the City hospital here by hunters who found him.

Coopersville—Jacob Smith, 36, was instantly killed when he is believed to have fallen or was hurled beneath his moving tractor on the highway about one mile south of this village. Neighbors who found his body lying in the road and the tractor going riderless down the road, believe he must have gotten off the machine to repair something on it while it was still in motion, and perhaps tripped, falling beneath the drive wheel which passed over his head. The coroner from Grand Rapids was summoned.

Kalamazoo—Robbers who held up Daniel Stark handed back his pocketbook with the request that he "keep it as a souvenir and have it filled again when we meet next time." The bandits got $22.50.

Athlon—William Wolcott and Clyde Hawkins, charged with assault upon John Taber, who was beaten and over $150 in cash taken from his farm shack near the city, were bound over to the circuit court.

Port Huron—Sheriff Harrison Malnes captured Kenneth Smith, Henry Stipe and Herman Essau, all waiting trial, who escaped from the county jail October 3, striking the jailer over the head with a bottle.

Saginaw—Clarence Adams, Saginaw paving contractor, confessed in the county jail at Caro that he murdered John Long in the woods near Cal Lake, Tuscola county, August 28, while the two were on a berrying trip, according to officers.

Mason—Two public health nurses who have been on duty in Ingham county under auspices of the Red Cross, will be continued on duty. It is announced by the supervisors at their annual meeting here, the county assuming the salary burden.

Cheboygan—Frank Fisher, charged with violation of the prohibition law, arrested by State Police last winter, was sentenced to pay a fine of $1,000 and serve six months in the Detroit House of Correction. He was proprietor of the Fisher Hotel here.

Lansing—The Michigan Securities commission received a request from several associations in the Oakes, Japan requesting a copy of the Michigan "blue sky" law, which, it was explained, the association is desirous of using as a model in drafting an act for Japan.

Flint—One thousand dollar damages are asked in a suit filed by five neighbors against Nicholas and Fannie Hoffman in circuit court because, it is claimed, a building they erected has shut off the neighbors' view of the street. They also ask that the building be torn down.

Ironwood—Ironwood is being called the "million dollar city" of the Upper Peninsula because of the announcement that taxes for the year show more than $1,000,000 will be raised in the city, even though the state and county taxes are not increased. More than $130,000 of the additional tax is for schools.

Lansing—Upon request from the Kalamazoo post of the American Legion, the state administrative board has donated $400 to the fund which will finance the construction of a soldier memorial building in Kalamazoo. The sum represents the state's share in the boxing show that was held in Kalamazoo during the state convention of the Legion.

Quincy—Finding of the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. John Markley, both dead of shotgun wounds, in their farm house five miles south of Quincy, brought to light a double tragedy. Investigation has convinced Sheriff Henry Kaiser, of Coldwater, that Markley shot and killed his wife with one charge of a double-barreled shotgun, then turned the weapon on himself, shooting himself through the back of the head.

Hastings—John Baverstock, found insane by a commission of alienists, has been committed to the Ingham State Hospital for criminal insane. Baverstock, a few weeks ago, strangled his wife, threw her body into a cistern, set fire to the farmhouse, and attempted to kill himself by slitting his throat. He still protests the crime was committed by three robbers disappointed at not finding any booty in the house.

Potosky—Charles J. Ditto, superintendent of the Bay View Camp Ground Association, received word that the association's ground, comprising 360 acres in Bear Creek Township, one mile north of Potosky, has been taken over by the State Department of Conservation, to be used as a state game refuge and bird sanctuary for five years. A large part of the tract is thickly wooded, an ideal place for a game refuge. Already there is considerable wild life in the territory. Signs forbidding hunting, fishing and trapping will be placed.

I AM THE COUNTRY NEWSPAPER

By BRISTOW ADAMS.

I am the Country Newspaper.

I am the friend of the family, the bringer of tidings from other friends; I speak to the home in the evening light of summer's vine-clad porch or the glow of winter's lamp.

I help to make this evening hour; I record the great and the small, the varied acts of the days and weeks that go to make up life.

I am for and of the home; I follow those who leave humble beginnings; whether they go to greatness or to the gutter, I take to them the thrill of old days, with wholesome messages.

I speak the language of the common man; my words are fitted to his understanding. My congregation is larger than that of any church in my town; my readers are more than those in the school. Young and old alike find in me stimulation, instruction, entertainment, inspiration, solace, comfort. I am the chronicler of birth, and love and death—the three great facts of man's existence.

I bring together buyer and seller, to the benefit of both; I am part of the market-place of the world. Into the home I carry word of the goods which feed and clothe and shelter, and which minister to comfort, ease, health, and happiness.

I am the word of the week, the history of the year, the record of my community in the archives of state and nation.

I am the exponent of the lives of my readers.

I am the Country Newspaper.

But
the Home Paper
Told It!

"Wasn't it fine about Priscilla getting honors in her school work last term?" said Mrs. Smith to Mrs. Brown.

"What?" asked Mrs. Brown. "I didn't know about it."

"But it was in the Home Town Paper," replied Mrs. Smith. "Don't you take it?"

"No," said Mrs. Brown, "but I am going to."

And she did, for this is a true story.

As much a part of the community life as is the school or church is the Home Town Paper.

Town Paper Week, Nov. 7-12

Strong for Home Paper

"No, I don't take the local paper any more," one farmer said to another as they were walking at the creamery to unload their milk.

They had just been looking at a poster advertising "Subscribe for Your Home Town Paper Week, November 7-12." "I take a daily paper, and that's about all I need. It has a few items every week from our community, and I feel that I save two dollars a year by not subscribing to the home paper."

"Well, that's one way to look at it," said the other farmer, "but I've always felt that a local newspaper was a pretty valuable asset to any community, and if everybody took the attitude you do, there couldn't be any local newspaper. Of course we could not get along without our daily papers, because they keep us informed about what's going on throughout the nation and throughout the world, but when you say that they take care of our local news, I don't think you are sticking close to facts. They simply can't, and the publishers haven't any personal interest in our community. The way our editor hns."

"I have always felt that I got value received for every dollar I've paid out in subscriptions to the local paper, and I don't have an idea that running a country newspaper is any more of a wealth-producing proposition than running a farm. So long as I've got two dollars I intend that the rural mail carrier is going to tuck a copy of the home paper in my box every week."

That farmer knows that the community newspaper is a necessity in his home; that without it his home would be incomplete and his part in the community would be unsatisfactory to himself and his family. He knows the full value of the local newspaper as an institution.

A Community Servant.

The local newspaper is the servant of the community in which it is published, but to be a good and efficient servant it must be fed by the people it serves. It is an institution of the town quite as much as are the schools and the churches, and quite as much entitled to support.

A Necessary Luxury.

The town newspaper is both a luxury and one of the family necessities.

Community's Archives

"Can you tell me the date the Baptist church burned—I mean, of course, the famous fire that all the old inhabitants talk about?"

The librarian looked up from her work. "No, I can't tell you the exact date, but I think I can find it for you quickly, for we have the files of the local paper since it was started. My impression is that the fire—the big fire, as they call it—was about 1873, and it won't be a very long job to look it up."

She went to the stacks in the rear of the library, pulled out a dusty bound volume marked "Herald, 1873," and spread it open on the table. "Ah, here it is," she said, after a minute spent in turning over the yellow leaves.

The person who had inquired for the date, a member of the woman's club of the town, sat down and read the article. "This gives me exactly the information I wanted," she said.

"I thought it would," said the librarian. "I fear most people do not appreciate how valuable is the local newspaper from the viewpoint of local history. In fact, it seems to me that it is about our only source. Only when an event gets into print is it officially recorded and filed for reference. Films as it is, the printed word of today is the counterpart of the ancient stone inscriptions that give us our records of a long-ago yesterday. I consider the bound volumes of our local papers perhaps the most valuable possession of this library."

There's at least one librarian who is giving "Subscribe for Your Home Town Paper Week," which will be observed November 7-12, the most hearty backing she can give.

OLD HOME TOWN PAPER TO HAVE A WEEK

Nation Wide Campaign Launched for November 7-12—Place in Community Life Emphasized.

November 7-12 has been set as "Subscribe for Your Home Town Paper Week," and this newspaper, together with the thousands of country newspapers the United States over—there are not far from 15,000 of them, weeklies and small dailies—is to participate.

The purpose of the campaign is not only to induce residents of the small communities and the home town folks who are far from their native hearth to subscribe to the home paper, but also to emphasize the important place the home newspaper plays in the life of its community.

This campaign has the hearty support and co-operation not only of the newspapers but thousands of ministers and school principals, and many state agricultural colleges and farm and home bureau organizations.

Some persons, it is pointed out, have been inclined to belittle the place and function of the country newspaper. They have not realized that in reality the home paper is a community institution and that it enables the other institutions, such as the church and the school and all the rest to function better and more effectively. That it is a necessity if the town is to advance.

During the time between now and "Home Town Paper Week," November 7-12, this newspaper in its columns will have much to say about the Home Town Paper—not this newspaper in particular, but the home town paper the nation over, the home town newspaper as a real and distinctive factor in American life.

A Messenger to Garcia.

The local newspaper is the messenger to Garcia for your town. It goes out to the world as an advertisement for the community. To be a good advertisement it must be a good newspaper. To be a good newspaper it must have the support of the people of the community in the way of subscriptions and advertising. Are you doing your part toward making your paper a good advertisement for this community, one that will carry the kind of a message the people of the community wish carried to the world?

BLOW THAT SHOCKED DADDY

Old Gentleman Now Naturally Fears He Has Lost the Confidence of His Neighbors.

Susan was having her first beau, a youngster who drove a truck. And often when he came to Susan's home at night, since he lived in the other part of town, he came in the truck. The family continually twitted her about it, saying such things as "I suppose the neighbors will think we're having our car hauled at night," or "our flour" or some other commodity.

But one evening even father was horrified when one of the ten-year-old boys in the neighborhood said innocently: "My pa said that your pa would get pinched some night if he didn't quit hauling so much booze hauled here after dark."

Investigation disclosed the fact that the truck that stood at their door one evening each week was an old brewery truck.—Indianapolis News.

A little girl whose father is widely known as a writer of humorous stories, was recently approached by a visitor who said:

"It must be nice to have a papa who knows so many fine stories." The little girl blushed and hung her head.

"Aren't you proud of your papa?" the visitor asked.

"Yes," the little girl answered, "but I think I ought to tell you something."

"What is it?"

"The stories of my papa's aren't stories at all."

"Not stories?"

"No."

And in a deep hoarse whisper, the child confessed.

"He makes them all up out of his own head."—Youngstown Telegram.

You remember the story of the Pitcher—

It made a good many trips to the well and it came back in good order.

"I can take care of myself," it said—"they don't need to talk about risks to me."

But it went once too often.

After that it was only part of a pitcher, and they didn't need to talk to it about risks—it knew.

A lot of people won't believe coffee can harm them until it does harm them.

"Nonsense!" they say, "it never disturbs me."

When it does disturb them, then they know.

Often the disturbance which they then recognize is the result of irritations to nerves and digestion which have been going on for a long time.

If you have to lie awake at night and count the clock ticks, after an evening cup of coffee, then you know that it's better to be safe than sorry.

The risk of coffee's harm is gone when the meal-time drink is Postum.

Here's a delightful and satisfying table beverage, with charm for the taste and without harm for nerves or digestion. You know you're on the right road with Postum; there's never the possibility that you'll go once too often.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tin) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.
