BOARD OF COMMERCE

WILL MEET TONIGHT

The regular monthly meeting of the Chelsea Board of Commerce was held in The American Legion rooms last Thursday evening. Although the attendance was small, the meeting was a very interesting one and several matters of importance were discussed.

The matter of installing a wireless receiving station here was brought before the meeting. Such a station would probably cost about $300 and would enable people here to listen to reports, speeches, etc., from a distance. This matter will be discussed further when answers are received from inquiries which are being made.

The plans for heating the welfare building were discussed and figures for the cost of heating presented. One estimate was presented, which totalled over $1,000 and another of about $550 for the heating by use of the exhaust steam from the municipal plant.

The one great matter for discussion and the one that should interest every citizen in Chelsea and vicinity, is the proposition of a factory locating in Chelsea. We can get along without the wireless equipment and the heating of the welfare building for the present. Why not get together and work for the one great purpose? We have the excellent factory buildings standing here idle, and we have scores of men in Chelsea who have no work. There are factories that want to locate here and will locate here if we get behind them. It is to the interest of every business man and every property owner in Chelsea and to every farmer in this vicinity for it would stimulate business, increase property values and make a better market here.

The Board of Commerce will meet in the Legion rooms tonight. Let's all be there and be prepared to do something.

D. U. R. CAR CRASHES INTO AUTOMOBILE

Three People Are Dead As Result Of Accident Wednesday Afternoon.

THE DEAD

Mrs. Albert Eschelbach and child two years old.
Miss Sarah Flegel.

THE INJURED

Mr. Albert Eschelbach and daughter four years old.
Mr. Andrew Flegel.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Eschelbach and two children and Andrew Flegel and his sister, Miss Sarah, were badly injured when their automobile in which they were riding was struck by a D. U. R. westbound express car at 2:10 o'clock Wednesday afternoon on the highway crossing at the Parker school house.

The party were on their way from Mr. Eschelbach's farm in Lodi to Dexter village and a freight car on the siding shut off their view of the approaching express from the east. The auto was so completely wrecked that it is beyond repair and the electric car was put out of commission. The teacher at the Parker school, Miss Emma Lewick, and her pupils heard the passenger car blowing their whistle and also the crash when the auto was struck.

Three of the occupants of the auto are dead and the other three were badly injured. Mrs. Eschelbach and her two year old baby died as they reached the Homeopathic hospital in Ann Arbor and Miss Flegel also died in the hospital. Mr. Eschelbach had a rib broken and was otherwise badly bruised, his four year old daughter had a hip broken and received other injuries. Mr. Flegel had several ribs broken.

The Trojan laundry delivery car of this place was making their usual afternoon trip to their Ann Arbor branch and the worst injured of the party were taken to the hospital at Ann Arbor by Mr. Johnston, and an auto coming from the east took the remainder of the injured persons to the hospital.

Mr. Eschelbach is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Eschelbach of Lima, and resided on what is known as the Hirth farm in Lodi, which he purchased a short time ago.

STABBING CAUSED DEATH AT FOUR MILE LAKE

The negro settlement at the Michigan Portland Cement plant at Four Mile Lake was the scene of what may prove to have been either a case of suicide or murder, when the dead body of Mary Anderson, aged 22, was found dead by Albert A. White, with whom she resided, about one o'clock Monday morning. At 1:30 o'clock White called Dr. Woods, who upon his arrival at the White abode found the dead woman partly dressed, lying on the bed with a dagger jack-knife sticking in her breast, which had punctured the heart, and, although the body was warm, the knife thrust had been a fatal one.

Deputy Sheriff Martin was notified and about 2 o'clock placed White under arrest and took him to Ann Arbor where he was placed in the county jail, but as yet no charge has been placed against him. The man claims that the woman had been out late and when he returned to the home he found her lying on the bed and called a man and woman who lived in a part of the house to assist in reviving the woman whom they thought was in a drunken condition. While they were rubbing her they found that she was dead.

The woman was brought to the colored settlement from Detroit by David Mason, with whom she resided for a time, then went to live with White.

The body was removed to Mapes' undertaking rooms, where a post-mortem was held under the directions of Justice of the Peace, J. S. Cummings, acting as coroner. The county officials spent Monday here investigating the case.

Former Chelsea Resident.

Miss Marian Wellman, 81, a prominent church worker of 338 Buena Vista street, Los Angeles, California, was accidentally asphyxiated on Wednesday, January 4, in her apartment.

The woman, a cripple, retired Tuesday night and evidently failed to turn off a valve for a gas heater. She attempted to light the heater, but there was no gas supply and apparently left the valve open, according to persons living in adjoining apartments.

A woman neighbor detected the odor of gas. Miss Wellman had been dead about seven hours, according to a detective sergeant, who investigated.

For many years her parents resided on the farm in Freedom, at present owned by Michael Schiller, and Miss Wellman taught the Rogers Corners school for nearly 12 years and other schools in this vicinity. After her parents left the farm they resided in Chelsea on Railroad street, and later on Orchard street. Miss Wellman left here over thirty years ago.

Farmers Save by Tax Removal.

Transportation taxes were wiped out beginning January 1 by the terms of the new revenue act, signed by President Harding. Taxes to go are the 3 per cent tax on freight charges, 8 per cent on passenger fares and Pullman tickets, one per cent on express shipments and the special stamp tax on parcel post. Telephone and telegraph taxes are unchanged.

The transportation tax has been turning into the national coffers about $300,000,000 annually, of which the farmers have paid not less than $105,000,000, according to the American Farm Bureau. The farmers' share, distributed among the six million farmers of the nation, means that the farmers will be relieved of an annual average transportation tax burden of $17 per farm.

Banish Pain

THERE is no use talking—no one can work or play when they are not feeling well and strong. Life, without health and strength, is a mere painful, pleasureless existence.

One of the most important conditions of good health is to keep the kidneys normal and active. When weak or deranged, they do not filter out of the blood the impurities that should be eliminated from the system. When these impurities remain, the blood stream is poisoned and pain and suffering result.

Foley Kidney Pills

aid and assist Nature. They strengthen and invigorate weak or diseased kidneys and help them keep the blood stream pure and clean. Banishing backache, rheumatic pains, stiff or swollen joints, sore muscles, and other symptoms of kidney trouble.

W. R. Fox, 125 W. Washington St., Noblesville, Ind., writes: "After suffering many months with kidney trouble, and after having tried other remedies for the same, I purchased a bottle of Foley Kidney Pills and took them. They not only did me more good than any other kidney remedies I ever have used, but they positively set my kidneys right. Other members of my family have used them with similar results."

BREVITIES

Ann Arbor—The auto dealers of this city and Ypsilanti have combined and will hold an auto show in Ypsilanti from February 1 to 4. By this combine there will be but one county auto show instead of two as announced some time ago.

Munith—Five cases of smallpox were discovered at Munith and there had been one death. The family had recently come to Michigan from Kansas. Health Officer Town is taking every precaution to prevent a spread of the disease and a strict quarantine will be maintained.

Ann Arbor—Robert McKay, aged 14, a student in the high school here was drowned in the Huron river late Friday afternoon. The lad was skating, and when near the middle of the river, which is open, the ice broke. His body was recovered about one hour after the accident. His mother is a widow and moved here last fall from their home in Pittsburgh to enable her son to prepare for a course in the U. of M.

Ypsilanti—The Owen Sanitarium Company are now free to go ahead with their plans for their new sanitarium. Friday the state board of education at a meeting held at Lansing decided to drop the condemnation proceedings against the piece of land for the Normal college. Condemnation proceedings were started December 13, since which time several meetings have been held before the final decision was reached.

Dexter—An alarm of fire, which was caused by the burning out of a chimney on the Dexter House, was sent out about 7 o'clock Saturday morning. A heavy wind was blowing at the time and much alarm was felt. The response was prompt, and men were on hand with the fire hose, but fortunately, it was not needed. Had the building caught fire, it is possible that the entire business section of the village would have been swept.—Leader.

Saline—Reckless driving Tuesday afternoon brought another victim to his death at the bridge crossing east of town. A party from Detroit driving a Hudson Six sedan tried to make a "get-across" ahead of the motor on the Ann Arbor road, south bound, and the result—a dead man and a crashed up car. A party following close behind states that the bell alarm was ringing and that the first driver paid no attention to it, rushing on without slackening speed or giving any concern for the crossing. The victim was seriously injured and died during the night.—Observer.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

WITH its work almost completed, so far as it can be, the armament conference at Washington met in plenary session at the close of the week and heard a report of the progress of the work.

For the United States, Great Britain, Japan, France and Italy, the capital ship ratio is 5-5-3-1.87-1.87. The tonnage allowed America and Britain is raised from 500,000 to 525,000 each, and that of the others is proportionately increased.

Ann Arbor—Carl Lehman, former prosecuting attorney for Washtenaw County, was shot in the left hip and leg by his 13-year-old son, Cornelius, who discharged the gun filled with buck shot in firing a salute to the advent of the New Year.

Lansing—The average monthly wage, including board, paid farm labor during 1921 was $34 compared with an average of $31 for 1920, according to Verna H. Church, agricultural statistician.

Saginaw—Burrill Lauer, William Dallas and Adolph Lee, all of Saginaw, were arraigned before Justice W. J. Beagrie, charged with grand larceny and burglary of the Lewis general store at Ireland Jan. 2.

JAPAN and China, through their delegates, resumed the interrupted "conversations" over the Shantung issue, but so far as is now known they did not make notable progress toward agreement.

Tsinanfu railway were still the sticking point. Japan persists in her demand that Chinese borrow the necessary funds from Japanese bankers, which, as has been explained, would mean a continuation of Japanese control of the road's operation.

THE delegation from the Far Eastern republic, not being given a hearing by the conference, created something of a sensation by giving to the press copies of alleged secret notes and treaties revealing a military and political alliance between France and Japan for the purpose of establishing Japanese domination in Siberia.

On the week the Chita delegation produced another document, this time an alleged treaty between the Japanese army in Siberia and Russian officers connected with Semenov, anti-Bolshevik leader, whereby the Japanese agreed to support with arms and money an offensive against the Chita republic.

SENATOR HIRAM JOHNSON in an address in San Francisco set forth in considerable detail his objections to the Pacific peace treaty agreed to by the Pacific conference.

"The United States agrees within two years to grant complete independence to the people of the Philippine Islands, provided the high contracting parties will obligate themselves to respect the political independence and territorial integrity of the Philippine nation."

FRANCE'S attitude in the Washington conference had its reflection in the conference of the allied premiers in Cannes, France, for the purpose of discussing German reparations and the economic welfare of Europe generally.

Ambassador Harvey is present at the Cannes conference, but only in the capacity of official observer, for the United States has no vote and has taken the position that it will enter European affairs only when its interests directly are involved.

meeting of the allied supreme council was opened on Thursday.

DEBATE on the Irish treaty was almost overshadowed in Dublin by the kidnapping, presumably by supporters of De Valera, of A. B. Kay, correspondent of the London Times, and by a hot discussion in the Dail Eireann concerning the freedom of the press, provoked by an attack on the Freeman's Journal because it advocated ratification of the pact.

The strength of the opposition to the peace treaty in the Dail Eireann when it reassembled after the holidays was unexpected. De Valera, Countess Markiewicz and many others denounced the pact bitterly and were not at all abashed by the arguments of its supporters.

The alternative is not vastly different from the treaty arranged in London. It provides that the legislative, executive and judicial authority of Ireland shall be derived solely from the people of Ireland; that for the purpose of common concern Ireland shall be associated with the states of the British empire, with rights, status and privileges in no respect less than those states, and that for the purposes of the association Ireland shall recognize his Britannic majesty as head of the association.

THE death of Senator Boies Penrose of Pennsylvania not only deeply grieved his many friends and admirers, it also caused considerable dismay among those who do not approve of the so-called agricultural bloc in the senate.

Gov. W. C. Sproul of Pennsylvania was urged by some Republicans to resign and accept appointment to fill out Penrose's unexpired term, but this he declined to do.

PRESIDENT and Mrs. Harding revived the custom of holding a New Year's reception to the public, and all official Washington followed suit by keeping open house on Monday.

ACCORDING to a New York newspaper, Postmaster Will Hays has accepted the position of director general of the National Association of the Motion Picture Industry which was offered him some time ago.

CUTTING down the estimates of Prohibition Commissioner Haynes by $750,000, the house appropriations committee recommended the appropriation of $9,250,000 for prohibition enforcement during the next fiscal year.

BLANCHE BLAIR

THAT Tanlac is a wonderful medicine for delicate children is conclusively proven by the remarkable results accomplished in the cases of the three children shown in this picture.

Little Blanche Blair, of Providence, R. I., age 13, gained 10 pounds; Regina McCabe, at right, age 9, of Scranton, Pa., gained 15 pounds; little Richard Leary, Jr., of Philadelphia, who was very delicate, is now in fine, robust health.

Richard Leary, 2342 Palethorpe St., Philadelphia, said: "There is no doubt in my mind but that Tanlac saved my little boy's life. For two years I wouldn't have been a bit surprised to have seen him drop off at any time. He had stomach trouble and many a time the gas pressed up into his chest until his heart palpitated so I thought sure he couldn't breathe but a few more gasps. But Tanlac gave him back to us strong and well and we will praise it to our dying day."

Cities as Thunderstorm Spots. The conclusion has been reached by a well-known engineer who has given the subject considerable attention that certain cities, if not indeed most inland cities of say 100,000 population or more, appear to be "thunderstorm spots."

Old Court Has Much Power. In Liverpool (Eng.) there still exists one of the very few remaining medieval borough courts of record. At one time there were 215 in various parts of the kingdom.

Jewish Physicians to Popes. Many examples might be enumerated of popes who patronized Jewish physicians. An exception was Paul IV, who introduced the Ghetto into Rome, but at least a score of popes seem to have gone out of their way in extending friendly recognition to the medical members of this race.

A "balanced diet" may sound confusing to many people

The facts, as explained here, are simple.

The secret of a "balanced diet" is to have food containing all the elements needed for proper nutrition. These elements are protein, to nourish the tissues; starch and sugar to furnish energy; fat to supply heat; and mineral salts to provide the material necessary for building nerves, brain, and tooth and bone structure.

Grape-Nuts, the nourishing cereal made of whole wheat flour and malted barley, served with cream or milk, is a complete food for young and old alike.

Go to your grocer today and get a package of Grape-Nuts. Eat it with milk or cream for breakfast; or with stewed fruit, jelly or jam, as a delicious dessert for lunch or dinner.

Every member of the family will relish this palatable and nourishing food—nie a happy miracle... myself had taken any... or been inspired to ask by what... so small a boat had come to be... wrecked upon these desolate shores... Fortunately in her position in the shadow of the cliff she was inconspicuous, so that she might easily have been taken for the half of a large boat instead of the whole of a small one, or she must before this have drawn the questioning notice of the Scotchman. As to the captain, his attention was all set on the effort to discover the cave, and his intelligence was not lively enough to start on an entirely new tack by itself. And the Honorable Cuthbert viewed derelicts as he viewed the planetary bodies; somehow in the course of nature they happened.

So, dissembling my excitement and anxieties, I swung placidly in my hammock, and nearby sat the beautiful youth with his thumb carried tenderly in a bandage. Was it merely my being so distraught, or was it quite another reason that led him to open up so suddenly about his Kentish home? Strange to say, instead of panting for the title, Cuthbert wanted his brother to go on living, though there was something queer about his spine, poor fellow, and the doctors said he couldn't possibly— Of course I was surprised at Cuthbert's views, for I had always thought that if there were a title in your family your sentiments toward those who kept you out of it were necessarily murderous, and your tears crocodile when you pretended to weep over their ills. But Cuthbert's feelings were so human that I mentally apologized to the nobility. As to High Staunton manor, I adored it. It is mostly Jacobean, but with an ancient Tudor wing, and it has a chapel and a ghost and a secret staircase and a frightfully beautiful and wicked ancestress hanging in the hall—I mean a portrait of her—and quantities of oak panelling quite black with age, and silver that was hidden in the family tombs when Cromwell's soldiers came, and a chamber where Elizabeth once slept, and other romantic details too numerous to mention. It is a little bit run down and shabby, for lack of money to keep it up, and of course on that account all the more entrancing. The present Lord Garsmore lived up to his position so completely that he had the gong and sat with his foot on a cushion exactly like all the elderly aristocrats you ever heard of, only when I inquired if his lordship cursed his valet and flung plates at the footmen when his foot hurt him, his son was much shocked and pained. He did not realize so well as I—from an extensive course of novel-reading—that which is the usual behavior of these persons.

delightful, there in the hot... island, with the palms... overhead, to hear of... ancient place. I asked eager questions—I repeated glowing fragments of description—I wondered enviously what it would be like to have anything so old and proud and beautiful in your very blood—when suddenly I realized that, misled by my enthusiasm, Cuthbert was saying something which must not be said—that he was about to offer the shelter of that ancient roof to me. To me, whose heart could never nest there, but must be ever on the wing, a wild bird of passage in the track of a ship.

I sat up with a galvanic start. "Oh—listen—didn't you hear something?" I desperately broke in. "For somehow I must stop him. I didn't want our nice jolly friendship spoiled—and besides, fancy being cooped up on an island with a man you have refused! Especially when all the while you'd be wanting so to pet and console him!" But with his calm doggedness Cuthbert began again—"I was a bit afraid the old place would have seemed too quiet and dull to you—" when the day was saved and my interruption strangely justified by a shrill outcry from the camp. I knew that high falsetto tone. It was the voice of Mr. Tubbs, but pitched on a key of quite insane excitement. I sprang up and ran, and Crusoe and the Honorable Cuthbert at my heels. There in the midst of the camp Mr. Tubbs stood, the center of a group who were regarding him with astonished looks. Mr. Shaw and the captain had left their tinkering, Cookie his saucepans, and Aunt Jane and Violet had come hurrying from the hut. Among us all stood

"Eureka! He Repeated, 'I Have Found It!'"

Mr. Tubbs with folded arms, looking round upon the company with an extraordinary air of complacency and triumph.

"What is it, oh, what is it, Mr. Tubbs?" cried Aunt Jane, fluttering with the consciousness of her propriety.

But Mr. Tubbs glanced at her as indifferently as a sated turkey-buzzard at a morsel which has ceased to tempt him.

"Mr. Tubbs," commanded Violet, "speak—explain yourself!"

"Come, out with it, Tubbs," advised Mr. Shaw.

Then the lips of Mr. Tubbs parted, and from them issued this solitary word:

"Eureka!"

"What?" screamed Miss Higgleby-Browne. "You have found it?"

Solemnly Mr. Tubbs inclined his head.

"Eureka!" he repeated. "I have found it!"

Amidst the exclamations, the questions, the general commotion which ensued, I had room for only one thought—that Mr. Tubbs had somehow discovered the treasure in the cabin of the Island Queen. Indeed, I should have shrieked the words aloud but for a providential dumbness that fell upon me.

"Friends," Mr. Tubbs began, "it has been known from the start that there was a landmark on this little old island that would give any party discovering the same a line on that chest of money right away. There's been some that was too high up in the exploring business to waste time looking for landmarks. They had rather do more fancy stunts, where what with surf, and sharks, and bangles in the boat, they could make a good show of getting busy. But old Ham Tubbs, he don't let on to be a hero. Jest a plain man of business—that's old H. H. Consequence is, he leaves the other fellows have the brass band, while he sets out on the g. t. to run a certain little clue to earth. And, ladies and gentlemen, he's run it!"

"You have found—you have found the treasure!" shrieked Aunt Jane.

Contrary to his bland custom, Mr. Tubbs frowned at her darkly.

"I said I found the clue," he corrected. "Of course, it's the same thing. Ladies and gentlemen, not to appear to be a hot-air artist, I will tell you in a word, that I have located the tombstone of one William Halliwell, deceased!"

Of course. Not once had I thought of it. Bare, stark, glaring up at the sun, lay the stone carved with the letters and the cross-bones. Forgetting in the haste of my departure to replace the vines upon the grave, I had left the stone to shout its secret to the first comer. And that happened to be Mr. Tubbs. Happened, I say, for I knew that he had not had the slightest notion where to look for the grave of Bill Halliwell. This running to earth of clues was purely an affair of his own picturesque imagination.

I wondered uneasily what he had made of the unproved vines—but he would lay them to the pigs, no doubt. In the countenance of Mr. Tubbs, flushed and exultant, there was no suspicion that the secret was not all his own.

Miss Higgleby-Browne had a closed umbrella beneath her arm, and she drew and brandished it like a saber as she took a long stride forward.

"Mr. Tubbs," she commanded, "lead on!"

But Mr. Tubbs did not lead on. "Oh, no indeed," he said. "Old H. H. wasn't born yesterday. It may have struck you that to possess the sole and exclusive knowledge of the whereabouts of a million or two—ratin' it low—is a considerable asset."

"And it's one I ain't got the least idea of partin' with unless for inducements held out."

Aunt Jane gave a faint shriek. I had been silently debating what my own course should be in the face of this unexpected development. Suddenly I saw my way quite clear. I would say nothing. Mr. Tubbs should reveal his own perdy. And the curtain should ring down upon the play, leaving Mr. Tubbs felled all around, bereft both of the treasure and of Aunt Jane.

Little I dreamed what surprises ensuing acts of the play were to hold for me, or their astounding contrast with the farce of my joyous imagination.

I took no part in the storm that raged round Mr. Tubbs. His face adorned by a sardonic, buttery smile, he stood unmoved, while Miss Higgleby-Browne uttered cyclonic exhortations and reproaches, while Aunt Jane sobbed and said, "Oh, Mr. Tubbs!" while Mr. Shaw strove to nerve himself above the din. He did at least succeed in extracting from the traitor a definite statement of terms. These were nothing less than fifty per cent of the treasure, secured to him by a document, sealed and delivered into his own hands. To a suggestion that as he had discovered the all-important tombstone, so might some one else, he replied with tranquillity that he thought not, as he had taken precautions against such an eventuality. In other words, as I was later to discover, the wily Mr. Tubbs had contrived to raise the boulder from its bed and push it over the cliff into the sea, afterward replacing the mass of vines upon the grave.

As to the entrance to the tunnel, it was apparent to me that Mr. Tubbs had not yet discovered it. Even if he had, I am certain that he would have been no more heroic than myself about exploring it, though there was no missing Peter to haunt his imagination. But with the grave as a starting point, there could be no question as to the ultimate discovery of the cave.

I was so eager myself to see the inside of the cave, and to know whatever it had to reveal of the fate of Peter, that I was inclined to wish Mr. Tubbs success in driving his hard bargain, especially as it would profit him nothing in the end. But this sentiment was exclusively my own. On all hands indignation greeted the rigorous demands of Mr. Tubbs. With a righteous joy I saw the fabric of Aunt Jane's illustrious shaken by the rude blast of reality. For where was the Tubbs of yesterday—the honey-tongued, the suave, the anxiously obsequious Tubbs? Gone, quite gone. Instead, here was a Tubbs who cocked his helmet rakishly, and leered round upon the company, deaf to the claims of loyalty, the pleas of friendship, the voice of tenderness—Aunt Jane's.

Manfully Miss Higgleby-Browne stormed up and down the beach. She denounced Mr. Shaw, of Cuthbert Vane, of Captain Magnus, each and severally, that Mr. Tubbs be compelled to disgorge his secret. You saw that she would not have shrunk from a regimen of racks and thumb-screws. But there were no racks and thumb-screws on the island. Of course we could have invented various instruments of torture—I felt I could have developed some ingenuity that way myself—but too fatally well Mr. Tubbs knew the civilized prejudices of those with whom he had to deal. With perfect impunity he could strut about the camp, sure that no weapons worse than words would be brought to bear upon him that he would not even be turned away from the general board of browse on coconuts in solitude.

ARMS PACT SOON TO BE SUBMITTED

ONLY DETAILS REMAIN BEFORE FIVE POWERS ARE GIVEN TREATY TO APPROVE.

WILL PUSH FAR EAST PROBLEM

Negotiations on Shan-tung Turn to New Channels and May Result in Early Agreement.

Washington.—Only details of technical phraseology remain to be worked out before the treaty for limitation of armaments is ready for signature by the plenipotentiaries of the five great powers.

Passing on its last question of policy, the armament committee of the Washington conference early in the week decided against present attempt to limit or regulate aerial warfare and voted to refer the problem to a continuing commission for future study.

Separate Meetings of Delegates.

Then each of the five delegations, meeting separately, began an examination of the tentative treaty draft prepared by the sub-committee of experts. The delegation heads were to come together to compare opinions and it is expected that the complete text will be ready for publication to the world at a plenary session of the conference late in the week.

Questions of definition, particularly with reference to the status of merchant vessels in war time, are understood to be the chief concern of the delegates in their efforts to agree on a wording acceptable to every one.

With the armament end of the conference approaching final disposition, the delegates are preparing to press the Far Eastern discussions also to an early conclusion. The Shan-tung question still is in deadlock, but fresh hope of a settlement was aroused Monday night when it became apparent that the negotiations on that subject were turning into new channels. The other remaining elements of discord in the Far East are not generally considered of a character to lead to extended debate.

The important agreements up to this time include the four power treaty on Pacific Island possessions, the barring of submarine warfare against merchant ships and the outlawing of the use of poison gas.

Britain Offers Aid to France.

Cannes.—Great Britain's written pledge to France to come to her immediate assistance to the fullest extent of her military and naval resources in the event of unprovoked aggression on the part of Germany, has been embodied in a document by David Lloyd George, the British premier, and submitted by telegraph to every member of the British cabinet for approval.

FORD EMPLOYEES BACK AT WORK

Business Taken on New Life As 30,000 Men Return.

Detroit.—More than 30,000 Ford Motor employees went back to work Monday morning after a two-weeks' lay-off. Both the D. U. R. and the M. O. put on extra cars.

All departments of the Ford plant reopened with 40,000 men on the pay roll. The rotation plan of employment keeps three-fourths of the men working at one time.

Business in the vicinity of the plant was revived. Restaurants and stores dependent on the patronage of Ford employees took on new life, as the hurrying throngs crowded the streets on their way to work.

Michigan Senator Answers Foes Who Oppose Him in Senate.

Washington.—Truman Newberry, whose seat in the senate, to which he was elected in 1918, is being contested before that body this week, made an address on Monday in which he outlined his connection with the campaign, answering those opposed to his seating because too much money had been spent. Charles E. Townsend, senior senator from Michigan, had already delivered a three-hour speech defending his colleague.

A black satchel containing $55,000 in cash was found on the seat of a Paris omnibus one morning recently, writes a correspondent. COMPENSATION BILL TO PASS

Five-Fold Measure Scheduled for Favorable Action by Congress During Present Session.

Cash, paid up insurance, vocational training, farm or home aid and land settlement are options offered World War veterans in the five-fold adjusted compensation bill which congress is expected to pass during its present session.

According to National Commander MacNider of the American Legion, who bases his statement on information given him by Senator McCumber, North Dakota, author of the bill in the senate, and Republican Fordney, Michigan, who introduced the bill into the house, the legislation will become law during February, 1922.

The measure will become effective in July, 1922, as originally provided, Mr. MacNider believes. In connection with the bill, it is significant that the Legion has termed it "adjusted compensation" from the first as against the common term of "bonus."

When the bill becomes law, each ex-service man or woman will be entitled to any one of the following options: (1) Adjusted service pay, at the rate of $1 a day for home service and $1.25 for foreign service. Maximum of $300 for man without overseas service; $625 for man with overseas service.

(2) Adjusted service certificate (so called insurance feature), a paid-up 20-year endowment policy. The face value of this policy will be 3.38 times the amount that would be received in cash. The face value of this policy would be payable to the veteran at the end of 20 years, or if he dies before the expiration of 20 years, the face-value would be paid to the beneficiary of the policy. Loan values are also provided for.

(3) Vocational training aid of $1.25 a day while taking a course in vocational training. The amount thus paid in no case would exceed 140 per cent of what would have been paid in cash.

(4) Farm or home aid, 140 per cent of what would be paid under option No. 1. If the money is used to purchase, improve or make payments on approved farm or city or suburban home.

(5) Land settlement.

(A) Provides for the establishment of reclamation projects for the development and improvement of vacant land. This may be government land or may be land purchased by the government. If possible, projects will be located in each state, the state paying part of the purchase price of private lands bought for this purpose. Ex-service men to be employed on the project as far as possible.

(B) Provides for the sale of farm units on these projects when they are ready for settlement. Sale price is to include purchase price of land plus cost of improvements. Terms: part down, rest in 40 years at 5 per cent interest.

(C) Veterans may have their adjusted service pay applied as first payment on this land.

Carrying On With the American Legion

Families of police killed by Wichita (Kan.) bandits received the proceeds from a Legion benefit show.

Some $4,000 of the W. C. T. U.'s war-time fund has been turned over to the American Legion to aid sick and wounded.

Sale of tags bearing the name of Worthington, Minn., is being made by the local post of the Legion to advertise the town.

Bulletins and special announcements of the New York Legion will be sent by the Westinghouse Electric company's radio-telephone.

Bay Shore (N. J.) post of the Legion owns and publishes a weekly newspaper which devotes most of its space to local and county affairs.

Punishment of draft evaders to prevent wholesale evasion in another war is recommended by Major General Harris, adjutant general of the army.

Canoes will carry delegates from Bemidji, Minn., at the head of the Mississippi river, to the annual Legion convention next fall at New Orleans.

Protest against the use of the American flag for commercial purposes has been made by the Warsaw post of the American Legion, department of Poland.

Increase in vocational training for former soldiers costs the government $2,000,000 more now than before September, 1921, according to Director Forbes of the veterans' bureau.

Tubercular and nervous former service men will not receive the million dollars proposed in an amendment to the deficiency appropriation bill. The amendment was canceled and the hospital resultant will not be erected.

"He needs the money and I can pay him," is the statement of an ex-soldier who has asked the Oklahoma American Legion to locate Otis Kendall, formerly of the One hundredth and fortieth infantry, Thirty-fifth division. The questioner borrowed a "flock of francs" from Kendall while in France and fears that Kendall and his wife and children may be in straitened circumstances.

Help Your Kidneys Fight That Cold! Winter Colds and Chills Weaken the Kidneys and Are the Direct Cause of Many Serious Kidney Disorders

Is winter-time your backache-time? Does every cold, chill or attack of grip leave you lame, achy and all worn out? Does your back throb and ache until it seems you just can't keep going another day?

Then look to your kidneys! Grip, colds and chills throw a heavy strain on the kidneys. They overload the blood with poisons and impurities that the kidneys have to filter off. The kidneys weaken under this rush of new work; become congested and inflamed.

It's little wonder then, that every cold finds you suffering with torturing backache, rheumatic pains, headaches, dizziness and annoying bladder irregularities.

But don't worry! Simply realize that your kidneys are overworked at such times and need assistance. Get a box of Doan's Kidney Pills today and give your weakened kidneys the help they need. Assist them also by drinking pure water freely, eating lightly, and getting plenty of fresh air and rest. Doan's Kidney Pills have helped thousands and should help you. Ask your neighbor!

"Use Doan's," Say These Good Folks:

ALBERT JOHNSON, 183 E. Fifteenth St., Holland, Mich., says: "My kidneys were out of order and caused me considerable trouble. I caught cold which settled on these organs and made the trouble worse. My back ached and pained and the kidney secretions were profuse in passage, highly colored and scanty. I knew what Doan's Kidney Pills were and used them. It only took a few boxes to rid me of the complaint."

MRS. WM. BARKER, Gaylord, Mich., says: "I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my kidneys. Mornings my back felt lame and sore. A dull ache settled in my back. I felt tired, weak and worn-out. I was often troubled with black specks, which seemed to float up and down before me. I was also bothered with headaches and my feet were swollen. I saw how many were being helped by Doan's Kidney Pills and used them. A few boxes cured me."

TWO VALUABLE TO DISCARD

Why Pretty Young Artist Has Decided to Celebrate Her Birthday for Years to Come.

"I had a birthday recently," said the pretty young artist to the Business Woman, when they met for luncheon. "And the results were most pleasing."

"Gracious," said the Business Woman, "I thought you told me last year it was positively your last; mine come and go, and I've gotten to that stage where I really am in ignorance of the date."

"I had planned to let November 20 pass and not even think of it. But I suddenly realized I needed so many things, like: handkerchiefs, hose, gloves, etc.—things that somehow go with birthdays. I had an inspiration—a lovely, practical one. I'm the youngest of a big family—so I typed on note paper a subtle reminder, my name, November 20, 1897, and my present address—you see, nothing but suggestion! It worked beautifully—every day for a week I've been getting something. I've decided it's silly to give up birthdays—expect to keep mine every year."—New York Sun.

SWAMP-ROOT FOR KIDNEY AILMENTS

There is only one medicine that really stands out pre-eminent as a medicine for curable ailments of the kidneys, liver and bladder.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root stands the highest for the reason that it has proven to be just the remedy needed in thousands upon thousands of distressing cases. Swamp-Root makes friends quickly because its mild and immediate effect is soon realized in most cases. It is a gentle, healing vegetable compound.

Start treatment at once. Sold at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Advertisement.

Long Distance.

Sanibio, in heaven, had just got Rastus, far below, on the asbestos ouija board:

"Hello, Rastus; how you gettin' long?"

"Oh, I've havin' a fine time. Don't haf to work much; jest shovel in some coal now and then. How's you-all?"

"I've workin' purty hard. We haf to sweep up de clouds, pull in de stahs, switch on de light an' give de ole sun a shove every mornin'."

"How come you-all have so much work to do?"

"Well, sah, to tell the truth, we're kinda short o' help up heah."—Chicago Phoenix.

The Opportunity.

In this world, the one thing supremely worth having is the opportunity to do worthily a piece of work, the doing of which is of vital consequence to the welfare of mankind.—Roosevelt.

Utilizing a Calumny.

"Your enemies are now saying that you eat with your knife and use bad grammar."

"Don't contradict 'em," cautioned Senator Sorghum. "Out our way a great many people do the same thing, and the effect will be to convince 'em that I am not trying to act stylish or pose as a highbrow."

Urban Ignorance.

"Ever go chestnutting?"

"No; what do you do, follow a worn?"—Boston Transcript.

Don't be a miser; collins have no pockets.

Better a crying woman than a scratchy one.

Opportunity doesn't wait for the man who is late.

Growing Children

are often troubled with Feverishness, Constipation, Headache, Stomach troubles, Teething disorders and Worms. At such times thousands of Mothers use and find they give certain relief. They tend to break up colds. Cleanse the stomach, act on the liver and bowels and give healthful sleep. Easy to give and pleasant to take. Used by Mothers for over 30 years.

Do Not Accept Any Substitute for MOTHER GRAY'S SWEET POWDERS.

WESTERN CANADA Land of Prosperity

offers to home seekers opportunities that cannot be secured elsewhere. The thousands of farmers from the United States who have accepted Canada's generous offer to settle on FREE homesteads or buy farm land in her provinces have been well repaid by bountiful crops. There is still available on easy terms

Fertile Land at $15 to $30 an Acre—land similar to that which through many years has yielded from 20 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre—also barley and flax also in great abundance, with raising horses, cattle, sheep and hogs is equally profitable. Hundreds of farmers in western Canada have raised crops in a single season worth more than the whole cost of their land. With such success comes prosperity, independence, good homes and all the comforts and conveniences which make life worth living.

Farm Gardens, Poultry, Dairying are sources of income second only to grain growing and stock raising. Attractive climate, good neighbors, churches, schools, good markets, railroad facilities, rural telephone, etc.

For illustrated literature, maps, description of farm opportunities in Western Canada, ask for: Alberta and British Columbia, reduced railway rates, etc., write J. M. MacLACHLAN 10 Jefferson Avenue, Detroit, Mich. Authorized Agent, Dept. of Immigration and Colonization, Dominion of Canada.
