Mr. Geyer had been a resident of Freedom since he was four years of age. He was a member of the board of directors of the Farmers & Merchants Bank, of Chelsea, and a member of St. John's church, Rogers Corners, Freedom.

Pardoned Lifer Arrested.

John Higgins, of Detroit, 57 years old, said to have served part of a life term at Jackson prison following his conviction on a murder charge, was arrested Monday and held for investigation in connection with the robbery of Halfway State bank at Halfway, Michigan, last December 13. Four bandits are said to have participated in the hold-up, escaping with $12,500. Higgins was arrested on information furnished by a private detective agency and according to reports has confessed to taking part in the robbery.

Higgins, according to the officers in Detroit, was sent to Jackson prison for life on June 17, 1898, on a charge of having slain James Ladd, of Adrian, in an attempted robbery.

Higgins spent his early life in Chelsea and is well known to many in this vicinity. He was given a pardon a few years ago and went from Jackson to Detroit, where he conducted a bird store for some time.

GOOD PROSPECTS FOR FACTORY PROPOSITION

The Chelsea Board of Commerce will hold a meeting tonight in the American Legion rooms, at which time two new factory propositions will be submitted for the discussion of the board. Both of the propositions are well worth careful consideration.

At the meeting of the board last Thursday evening, Mr. Casey of the Casey-Hudson Co. of Chicago, was present, and submitted a proposition that was readily endorsed by the membership and most of them signified their willingness to guarantee a loan of $30,000 to the company that will be used to cover the expense of moving their plant from Chicago to Chelsea.

The assets of the company are over $1,000,000, with an outstanding debt of $210,000, which is not due and according to the report of an auditing company the assets of the company are better than four to one. The company at present employs about 250 men and under normal conditions upwards of 700 men.

Their products cover a large range of articles for which there is ready sale. Let all throw away the hammer and get together and boost the factory propositions. Chelsea has some of the finest factory buildings in the state and there are good prospects for them to be occupied if all who reside here and the surrounding country will work together for the good of the entire community.

Meeting of School Officers.

At a recent meeting of the Executive Committee of the County School Officers' Association, held in the office of the chairman, Evan Essery, there were present: F. E. Leeson, Manchester; A. C. Stein, Ann Arbor; Mrs. M. F. Abelson, Superior; R. C. Lamkin, Whitaker; Frank M. White, Pittsfield; John C. Schultz, Dexter; John Young, Lyndon; Charles Lambarth, Lodi; R. C. Campbell, Pittsfield; Albert Pielemier, Lima; and Lorenzo Seaman, Ypsilanti; and Willits Derbyshire, Augusta.

The Committee discussed the general subject of a larger taxation area for school purposes. The County Unit area seemed to meet with some favor.

The possibility of having two ten-grade schools in a township elicited considerable discussion. The Committee adjourned subject to the call of Commissioner Essery in May.

It was rather unexpected to see so many of the Committee present. It argues well for the interest that they manifest in rural school conditions as well as the educational interests of the county generally. Each village in the county is represented on the committee.

Increased Fares.

On Wednesday, February 1, increased fares will become effective on the D. J. & C. Ry. The new rates are based on a rate of two cents a mile instead of one and a half cents as formerly. The increase was made in accordance with the Glaspie act and with permission of the State Utilities Commission. The company's gross revenue under the old rate of fare fell below $14,000 a mile of main track and it was therefore, according to the act, entitled to increased fares. The Utilities Commission is now making an appraisal of the company's interurban lines for the purpose of fixing a permanent rate of fare.

"The new rate in accord with and under the authority of the Glaspie act governing interurban fares," explained E. J. Burdick, assistant general manager of the combined system. "The Glaspie act authorizes the commission to appraise interurban railway properties and fix rates of fare in accord with operating expenses, maintenance of the property and a fair return upon the investment. This appraisal is now under way and when completed the commission will be able to officially act as to the necessary rates. The Glaspie act, however, has an interim provision fixing certain temporary rates in accord with the gross receipts of the lines but absolutely without regard to the expense of operation. Under this temporary provision when the gross receipts per mile of main track exceeds $14,000 a year then the fare rate shall be one and a half cents. The Detroit United earnings in 1920 were such as to compel this cent and a half rate. In 1921, however, there was a marked recession in business with the result that our gross interurban earnings fell to slightly over $12,000 and this gross earning automatically placed our temporary rate at two cents a mile."

While it would be permissible for the company to collect an interurban rate to and from the interurban depot in Detroit the company will continue to apply the present rate of fare within the so-called one fare zone. The interurban mileage rate will continue from Addison on the D. J. & C. Ry.

Interurban fares for children under 12 years of age will continue at half rates with a minimum collection of five cents.

Wireless Grand Opera.

With arrangements completed for a fifteen minute program of "wireless" Grand Opera to feature each evening meeting, and exhibits rapidly assuming final form, the stage is all set for thousands of Michigan farmers who will gather at M. A. C. from January 30 to February 3 for the annual Farmers Week and Housewives Congress. Final programs of speakers have been announced, entertainment features are ready, and all that remains to make the conference the greatest in the history of Farmers' Weeks is favorable weather, according to college authorities.

The heads of Michigan's two great universities, M. L. Burton of the U. of M., and president-elect David Friday of M. A. C., will address the general meetings. H. R. Howard, president of the American Farm Bureau; Congressman J. C. Ketcham, of Michigan; G. I. Christie, of Purdue University, and many other famous speakers have sent final confirmation on their engagements to speak.

Prominent agricultural associations of the state have completed plans for their individual meetings. These include the State Farm Bureau, the Crop Improvement Association, the Muck Farmers Association, the State Branch of the American Poultry Association, the Beef Producers Association, the Potato Producers Association, and others.

Exhibits as announced are to be unusually instructive and attractive: Horticulture, farm crops, soils, farm machinery, livestock, poultry and rabbits, and many other phases of agriculture are to be covered in the displays.

Plans for entertainment of women guests have been finished by the college Home Economics Department. Exhibits on clothing, nutrition, and home furnishing will be on display, special speakers and meetings will be held, and every effort will be made to give the women as good features as the men enjoy.

Among entertainment features will be the annual parade, in which more than a mile of movable equipment of M. A. C. lines up for a great pageant.

To Safeguard Crossing.

As a result of the auto accident at the East Main street crossing of the D. J. & C. railway at Grass Lake, last Friday afternoon, when a party of Kalamazoo people who were motor-ing through were hit by a freight car, the town council took up the matter with the Public Utilities Commission at Lansing to see if the crossing could be guarded in some way.

The commission issued an order to the D. J. & C. to have all cars stop before crossing East Main street until adequate danger signals have been installed.

Both the East Main street and Church street crossings have been regarded as not sufficiently safe for the public to cross.—Grass Lake News.

Charles E. Stimson.

Charles E. Stimson, a former well known resident of Chelsea, died at Harper hospital, Detroit, on Monday, January 23, 1922.

During his residence here he was at the head of one of the departments of the Glazier Stove Co., and when the company went out of business he moved to Detroit, which has been his home for several years.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Alice E. Stimson, a sister, Mrs. Geo. P. Glazier of Jackson, and several nephews and nieces.

The funeral was held from his late home at 11 o'clock Wednesday forenoon. The remains were taken to Howell for burial.

Mrs. Sophia Walz.

Sophia, wife of Jacob Walz, of 418 Hill street, Ann Arbor, died Monday morning, after an illness of several months. She was 55 years of age, and had lived in Ann Arbor seven years, moving there with her husband from Francisco.

Surviving Mrs. Walz are her husband, two sisters, Mrs. Jacob Niedling of Okama and Mrs. Emma Springham of Lansing, and by three brothers, Jacob Horning of Clayton and William and John Horning of Grass Lake.

Edward Foster.

Edward Foster, aged 19 years, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Foster, of Grass Lake, Thursday evening, January 19, 1922. He is survived by his parents, two brothers, three sisters, his grandmother, Mrs. Frank Staffan and several uncles, aunts and cousins. The funeral was held Monday forenoon from St. Mary church, Rev. Fr. VanDyke conducting the services. Burial at Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Sylvan Taxpayers.

I will be at the Farmers & Merchants Bank, Chelsea, every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday to receive the township taxes.

POPE BENEDICT XV SUCCEUMS TO PNEUMONIA

Illness That Was Not at First Regarded as Serious Has Fatal Ending.

PONTIFF HAD BRIEF REIGN

Elevated to the Papal Throne in 1914,
His Life Was Saddened by the Atrocities of the Great War—Ordained Priest in 1874.

Rome, Jan. 21.—Benedict XV, the 260th sovereign pontiff of the Church of Rome, died late today at the Vatican. The end came after a day of extreme agony and delirium, relieved at times by merciful periods of sleep.

At one time during the day there was slight hope that the pope might survive, as he lapsed into apparently peaceful and refreshing slumber. This hope was shattered later when, on awakening, there was a return of pain and suffering.

He had lapsed into delirium earlier in the day and failed to recognize any one at the bedside, and during the early hours of the forenoon death was expected within a few hours.

The pope was in extreme weakness and restless.

Lying with closed eyes, he murmured "Peace, peace," evidently alluding subconsciously to the great mission of the pontificate in war time.

Tragic Scene at Dawn.

Other undistinguished messages fell from his lips from time to time, but his vitality had sunk so low that he spoke in the weakest of whispers.

The day dawned upon a tragic scene at the Vatican. The papal court joined the cardinals in prayer. Outside in the piazza of St. Peter's a crowd of reverent men and women, mostly kneeling with faces heavenward, uttered their supplications for the recovery of the Holy Father.

The four attending physicians did all in their power to relieve his sufferings, but they could hold out no hope for ultimate recovery. The strain was telling on all. In the anteroom off the sick-chamber high prelates of the church, faces drawn with the agony of their sorrow, prayed without cessation.

Suffers Great Pain.

At 8 a. m. the Holy Father was still breathing, but was in great pain and suffering agonized contractions of the throat. A brief bulletin was issued saying:

"His holiness is weaker. The symptoms of pneumonia have extended." By this time all hope had been abandoned and the most optimistic of the Vatican entourage had come to realize that the end was a matter of hours if not minutes.

Realizes Approach of End.

When the pope lost consciousness late Friday afternoon the attending physicians did not hesitate in expressing their fears that death was at hand.

The pope had been sinking all day, due to inflammation of the lungs and weak heart action, but had retained consciousness. When he sank into a state of coma, after many hours of patient suffering, all preparations had been made and all pre-death ceremonies completed.

Shortly before noon the Vatican announced that the pontiff had requested the last sacraments, realizing that he was dying.

Throughout the afternoon he was kept alive by use of oxygen and artificial heart stimulants. At night the four physicians at the pontifical bedside administered these restoratives at frequent intervals.

Shortly after noon Mr. Zampani administered the last sacrament. Cardinal Merry Del Val, who, as cardinal chamberlain, assumes papal functions, said the pope died at 10:30 a. m. on Saturday morning.

Cardinal Giorgi began recitation of the prayers for the dying at 10:30 a. m. on Friday morning. This was the official beginning of the grand penitentiary ceremonial.

At 11 o'clock official notice of the grave condition of the Holy Father was sent to the Italian government.

Cardinal Gasparri was notified as soon as it was ascertained that the condition of his holiness was critical. The cardinal, in tears, hurried to the bedside of the pontiff.

When the papal secretary of state arrived the pope was resting tranquilly and immediately requested that the last sacraments be administered. His holiness was conscious and calm as Mr. Zampani read the ceremony. The pope then continued fully conscious, but owing to his weakened condition, only a small drop of holy water was placed on his tongue. The few cardinals gathered about the pontiff's bedside recited the Psalms in subdued tones while the ceremony lasted.

The grand penitentiary of the sacred college, surrounded by assistants, then approached the bedside and read to the pontiff the profession of faith as formulated by the Vatican and the Trent councils.

Monks Recite Formula.

Cardinal Giorgi, after reading the profession of faith, gave to the pontiff the absolution in articulo mortis. As though to impress on every one within hearing the solemnity of the occasion, the words of the formula were pronounced slowly.

The heads of all the various religious orders in Rome then entered the sick-chamber. One by one they bestowed on the pope the indulgences of the various orders which each represented. Throughout the ceremony a profound silence pervaded the room, which was broken only by the low voice of each aged monk as he recited the formula for his order.

Following the ceremony the procession slowly returned to the Basilica of St. Peter. Only the domestic prelates, whose duty it is to assist the pontiff until his death, remained around the sick man.

Groups of nuns and monks belonging to nearly all of the religious orders having convents or monasteries in Rome gathered in the space extending from the great bronze doors of the Vatican to the top of the Scala Regia, praying for the pope.

HAD FILLED HIGH POSITIONS

Pope Benedict Prominent in Church Councils Before His Elevation to the Papal Throne.

Pope Benedict XV rose to the supreme head of the Catholic church Sept. 6, 1914, less than six months after he was elevated to the cardinalship. He was born of noble parents at Pogli, near Genoa, Italy, Nov. 21, 1854. His father was Marquis Della Chiesa.

Educated at Caproni college and the Academy of Ecclesiastics, he was ordained to the priesthood in 1878. He was taken to Madrid, Spain, by Cardinal Rampolla, and for four years was secretary of the nunciature in Spain. In 1901 he was appointed counselor of the holy office and in 1907 Pope Pius gave him the appointment of archbishop of the see of Bologna. He was made a cardinal in May, 1914.

Pope Benedict was much affected by the horrors and sorrow of the World war and many times tried to bring about peace negotiations. Germany's violation of Belgium's neutrality filled him with great sorrow and after the sinking of the Lusitania, he telegraphed the German emperor telling his abhorrence of the deed.

Pope Benedict's first appeal for peace was issued one week after his coronation. The appeal failed to bring results, as did also his later plan for a Christmas truce. In January and in July, 1915, he again tried to bring about peace negotiations. In March, 1916, he repeated his attempts and in May of the same year suggested that America should act as conciliator between the warring nations. His note to President Wilson to this effect reached Washington when Germany and the United States were involved in a diplomatic crisis. The Vatican approved of President Wilson's peace note in 1917, but three months later the United States entered the war.

The pope's most memorable appeal for peace was issued in his own handwriting on August 8, 1917, and asked belligerent rulers to end the struggle. During the peace conference his pleas were issued in behalf of weaker nations.

Just before the conference President Wilson had a private conference with Pope Benedict at the Vatican in which many questions of a social and international nature were discussed.

The settlement of the 700-year-old Irish problem was received with great pleasure by the pope, who issued a message congratulating the principals in the negotiations.

History of Pope's Illness. By Professor Battistini, chief medical adviser of the pope and head of the group of physicians attending him.

Rome, Jan. 21.—The Holy Father's illness began on Tuesday. He at first suffered only from slight inflammation of the bronchial tubes but unfortunately failed to pay sufficient attention to it with the result that the illness gradually developed into lung trouble.

The inflammatory process was very rapid so that while at first only the left lung was affected, it spread to the right lung yesterday morning.

HE HAD SOMETHING COMING

Five-Year-Old Got Drawing He Wanted, but Retribution Was Stalking Behind Him.

R. S. Grable, a St. Louis newspaper man, celebrated his fiftieth birthday in a unique way. He gave a birthday party and invited 75 children.

Cobb Shinn was in St. Louis at the time, and was asked to help entertain the youngsters by drawing pictures on the large paper hats which were given to each child. He would draw whatever the children asked for, and the subjects were many and various.

Finally a five-year-old handed to his hat and said:

"I want a pig."

The drawing was started, when a brother about a year older, spoke up:

"Aw, he don't want a picture of a pig"—and the argument was on.

When the drawing was finished, the five-year-old stuck out his chest and boasted:

"See, I got what I wanted!"

"Yes, but just wait until I get you home and see if I don't ruin you," replied the brother.

Cow Didn't Want It.

Mother had been seeking by every possible means to stimulate her son's somewhat undeveloped sense of gratitude.

"Now, Harold," said she on one occasion, "don't you think that you ought to be very grateful to the cow for the milk she gives you every morning?"

"Well, mother," said Harold, "I don't know I should. She has no use for it herself."—Harper's Magazine.

The Surprise.

Jurd Lopp, a birthday surprise party tuffer night, related a resident of the Straddle Ridge, Ark., region. "Somehow the word sorter punctuated around to Jurd that they were coming, and on the morning of his birthday he woke up with the grip. He got worse during the day and by night he was feeling meaner than thunder and plumb hostile. He loaded up his old shotgun and 'lowed, b'gud, if anybody surprised him these days, run their selves ragged there."

"Well, did him?"

"You bet I felt about it," said City Star.

BREVITIES

Pineckney—St. Mary Parish has bought two acres of land adjoining the cemetery from Wm. Collier. Several buyers offered to buy the land, which would make fine residence property, as it is washed by the mill pond on the rear side, but Rev. J. A. Crowe was successful in securing the property for his parish.—Dispatch.

Ann Arbor—Ann Arbor will be host to at least three conventions during 1922, according to Theodore Trost of the Chamber of Commerce, who announced Monday that the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Legion with over 1,500 delegates and the Michigan State Association of Letter Carriers will meet in Ann Arbor during the coming year.

Ypsilanti—A warrant was issued Thursday evening by Judge M. D. Stadtmiller for Carl Clark on complaint of Ralph Kimmel of Superior township, who alleges that Clark stole 19 bushels of oats from him and also took his team to take the oats to market in Ypsilanti. Clark was employed at the Kimmel farm and is said to have taken the grain while the Kimmels were away from home.

Ypsilanti—Two warrants were issued Thursday by Judge M. D. Stadtmiller for Arthur E. Toupin, alias John J. Lyon, alias Harry J. Wells on complaints signed by the First National and Savings Bank of Ypsilanti, which accuses Toupin of fraud, by the bogus check method. Toupin posed as a student and had drawn the checks on the Merchants Bank of Canada, located at Walkerville, Ont. The amount of each check was $46. Toupin is said to be under arrest in Detroit.

Jackson—Another man has paid the penalty for drinking "moonshine" whisky. His name? Oh, that is not necessary. He was a hard working man and a good citizen who had $2,000 on deposit in a local bank when he died in the police ambulance en route to a hospital Tuesday. His body was conveyed to his former home at Toronto, Canada, where the funeral and interment took place. Maybe it will serve an example to others who are willing to drink that poison.—Saturday Evening Star.

Ann Arbor—Patrick H. Kilmartin has filed papers with Emory E. Leiland, judge of probate, contesting the will of the late John Coyle, Webster township, who died November 20, 1921. In his petition, Kilmartin swears that Coyle was not of sound mind when he made the will in 1913, and that he was unduly influenced in its making. Kilmartin further states that the will drawn up by John W. Dwyer, Ann Arbor attorney, appointing Eugene C. McNally of Livingstone county as executor, was not the last will of the late John Coyle. The property left by Mr. Coyle, who was 92 years old, is valued at $50,000, of which $30,000 is real and the balance personal property.

Manchester—The big question with many of our citizens right now is, "What is the town to do for a hotel?" With the failure of various owners to keep the Manchester hotel open and in running order, and the closing of the Koz-Inn by Mrs. Miller, on account of illness, Manchester is without hotel accommodations and transients are obliged to take rooms at private residences, as far as they can be obtained. Those who cannot be accommodated are obliged to jump the town quickly. The brick hotel, for many years known as the Good-year House, and afterward designated Manchester hotel and Manchester house, was sold last year to J. Fred Schaible, mortgagee, and allowing one year for redemption, some change in the status of affairs may be looked for next month. We understand that should the hotel fall into Mr. Schaible's hands, he has a buyer in view. Let us hope a good live hotel man gets it and gives the village a first-class place.—Enterprise.

Jackson—Warden Harry L. Hulburt Thursday was informed by the governor that negotiations had been completed for the purchase of two barracks from Camp Custer for removal to Jackson prison. Work of dismantling the buildings will commence immediately, the warden declared, as congestion is increasing daily at the penitentiary. The buildings will be erected on the North prison farm, about three miles from Jackson. Thirteen inmates will be paroled from the institution this month, it was announced Thursday.

Ann Arbor—H. M. Todd of Kalamazoo has donated to the University of Michigan library 79 rare volumes, according to an announcement by the librarian. Most of these volumes are very valuable, containing a total of 3,162 colored plates of full size. The books will be placed on exhibition soon. Included in the donation are three sets of works by John Gould, English ornithologist. "Birds of Australia," in a seven-volume set published in 1848 and containing 681 plates, and a supplement to this set published in 1869, are included.

Holstein Listed in Record.

Washtenaw County Holsteins are continuing to make good milk and butter production records as is indicated by the official tests reported from the office of Malcolm H. Gardner, Delavan, Wisconsin, Superintendent of Advanced Registry of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

This week's bulletin has two pure bred Holstein-Friesian cows, owned by R. B. Waltrous of Chelsea, listed.

His best cow, Midland Jenetta Ormsby, is reported as having made at the age of six years and eleven months, a record of 550.1 pounds of milk and 21.145 pounds of butter fat, in seven days, equivalent to 26.4 pounds of butter.

His other cow, Tula Segis Pieter, made a record in seven days at the age of two years and five months of 442.6 pounds of milk and 15.934 pounds of butter fat, equivalent to 19.9 pounds of butter.

The Champion Holstein for Michigan in the Full Aged Class for seven day production is Northern Fobes Denver, whose record of 563.1 pounds of milk and 31.899 pounds of butter fat, equivalent to 39.8 pounds of butter, surpasses all others, according to the records of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America. This record was made at the Emblagard Dairy, Marquette, Michigan.

The State Championship in the Junior two year old class is credited to Pauline De Nijlander, whose seven day record is 437.2 pounds of milk and 20.901 pounds of butter fat, equivalent to 26.1 pounds of butter. This record was made at the G. L. Spillane Farm, Flint.

Frank O. Lowden, former Governor of Illinois, is president of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America. This Association has a membership of over twenty thousand breeders in the United States, and is the largest pure bred cattle Association in the world, representing over one-half million pure bred animals.

J. A. Kaercher, insurance agent, 515 S. Madison St., says: "I was all run down when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. At first I didn't know what was wrong with me until my kidneys began to show signs of disorder. My back had a dull pain in it and there was a sharp pain through my right side. Every time I stooped I got dizzy. I tried different remedies but Doan's did me more good than anything I ever used. Two boxes cured me up in good shape so I am only too pleased to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

DEAN W. J. LHAMON

Dean Lhamon, of Drury College, is of that type of men who have given to the American Lyceum platform that peculiar and distinguished place which it holds in our intellectual history. His very presence leads one instantly to think of the better things. He combines the scientific and thoughtful spirit and methods of modern scholarship with the charm and grace of the best of popular lectures.

His quiet conversational style captivates both old and young, and has the effect of splendid oratory. It is at once a feast and a benediction to listen to his wise counsel and sallies of wit which are intermingled in the most pleasing manner. The promoters of any Lyceum course may work with the full assurance that they are presenting to their community a man of unusual force and character.

The Miffler Point (Wisconsin) Tribune has this to say, after a recent lecture:

"Dean Lhamon is a most wonderful platform talker. He is fascinating, instructive, eloquent, strong—all embodied in simplicity of manner and language. As the program assured us, few men come to the platform with better equipment or more engaging personality."

Dean Lhamon will appear at the Town Hall, Chelsea, Saturday evening, January 28, 1922, at 8:00 p. m. this being the third number of the Lyceum Course. Reserved seats on sale at Vogel's Drug Store Saturday morning.—Advertisement.

is Maitias Sealarbach Na Heireann. The government for the present consists of Michael Collins and seven associates. Griffith, who is president of the Dail Eireann, believed that body should be kept separate from the new estate organization and so declined to head the provisional government. As rapidly as is practicable the British troops are being removed from the island, and as they leave there are many outbursts by the irreconcilable republicans. Collins and his colleagues are planning to send a commission to Canada to study the Dominion's form of government and draft a constitution along Canadian lines. The Bank of Ireland has agreed to lend the new government a million pounds.

AN ENCOURAGING start has been made in the collection of the million-dollar fund which the Woodrow Wilson foundation will administer by making annual awards to persons who distinguish themselves by their service to humanity. All over the country the pledges came in thick and fast. One of the most significant contributions was that of $1,000 by the railroad shop crafts unions. The resolutions accompanying it said the contribution was "a testimonial to Woodrow Wilson for his unselfish ideals in behalf of not only the people of the United States but of the entire world who loved liberty and happiness, and for his fairness in dealing with facts that so vitally affected the welfare of the American people."

more or less general aching. Swallowing is painful and difficult.

The chiropractor finds tenderness of spinal nerves beginning at the spine and leading to the tonsils. Chiropractic spinal adjustments at the point of tenderness, at stomach place and at "kidney place" in the spine are given in the average case. The adjustments for nerves leading direct to the tonsils reduce the heat and inflammation, and the adjustments at kidney place and stomach place help restore normal digestion and elimination to get rid of the suppurative poisons and wastes.

ENLARGED TONSILS CORRECTED

"My oldest boy aged eight years had enlarged tonsils and could not breathe at night, except with his mouth open. He was badly run down and ordinary remedies did him no good. I started him taking chiropractic spinal adjustments and the boy now is all right and has picked up weight."—Mrs. Cornelius Swartz, Chiropractic Research Bureau Statement No. 1296R.

Studebaker

LIGHT-SIX
NOW $1045

*Only the Studebaker Method of Quantity
Production Makes This Price Possible*

The automobile is no different than any other commodity insofar as the factors that determine its purchase price are concerned. If there are a number of profit-taking middlemen strung out along the path between raw material and consumer, the price must, of necessity, be higher than it would be if it passed through only one hand and were forced to yield only one profit.

Studebaker makes its own drop forg-ings and castings, manufactures its own motors, bodies, tops, frames, axles, transmissions and other vital parts.

Middlemen and middlemen's profits have been practically eliminated. The Studebaker LIGHT-SIX as it is delivered to the buyer represents one standard of engineering, one standard of manufacture and one margin of profit.

Only under such manufacturing conditions would it be possible to produce a car of the known value of the LIGHT-SIX at its new low price.
