LARGEST NEWS PAPER PRESS BETWEEN ANN ARBOR AND JACKSON

Chelsea Standard Installs a Big Machine With Which to Better Serve the Community.

Quite a little excitement and curiosity was aroused Saturday morning when a big truck belonging to the Ypsilanti Cartage & Storage Co., became stalled on the steep incline in the alley between the rear of Freeman's store and Martin's livery.

The truck contained some heavy pieces of machinery and in endeavoring to move from the rear of the Standard building through the alley, the rear wheels of the trailer slipped sideways into a washout and it was all off until afternoon when the oil pull tractor of E. Bahnmiller was engaged and pulled the big truck out of its predicament.

This truck was one of two that brought from Ypsilanti a large newspaper and job printing press—the largest press between Ann Arbor and Jackson. This machine has been used in late years for high grade book and catalogue work in the office of the Ypsilanti Daily Press. The Ypsilanti Press will soon move into new headquarters, hence the sale of the press.

The big press is purchased with a view of enlarging the capacity of the Standard office equipment. With it a better and larger paper can be printed, for the bed will take on four full pages at one time. Besides printing the newspaper, the press is adapted to book and catalogue work, large cards and mammoth posters. This week's issue of The Standard is somewhat delayed on account of the installation.

CITIZENS FAVOR PURCHASE OF ELECTRIC CURRENT

Expression Given by Vote at Well Attended Mass Meeting Friday Evening

After pretty thorough discussion of the municipal lighting problem at the mass meeting called by the village council and the electric light and water works commission at the town hall, Friday evening, a motion was made and carried without dissent that the meeting recommend that the change to purchase power be made, provided the authorities could make satisfactory arrangements with the Consumers Power Co.

When the meeting was called to order by President Wurster about 8 o'clock a fairly good sized audience of men was present. Mr. Wurster gave the object of the meeting, stating that the council and commission had for some time been considering whether to repair or rebuild the electric light plant or whether to purchase current from the Consumers Power Co. The meeting was called to discuss the question and get an expression from the taxpayers.

Mr. Wurster first called upon Supt. Boehm of the electric light plant who briefly stated that the plant was too small, the engine bearings worn in the 25 years of service, valves and pistons worn, new smoke stack needed and building in bad shape. In his opinion the village needed a new plant or else purchase current.

President Wurster next introduced Engineer A. H. Lovell, whose services the authorities had engaged to investigate the local lighting situation.

Mr. Lovell quoted from his report printed in these columns June 29, giving the total cost of operating the municipal plant last year, estimate of construction cost of new D. C. plant, estimated operating cost of new D. C. plant, and the cost of purchasing current from the Consumers Power Co. The figures showed a saving to the village of nearly $4,000 if power is purchased. Mr. Lovell, speaking of the offer of the Consumers Power Co. of paying $10,000 for the existing distribution system, stated that it would not be long before the village would have to go to the expense of replacement. Chelsea, he said, was very fortunate in the recent sleet storm, but damages from such sources must be considered and the loss does not show on operating expense.

The engineer also called attention to the fact that the Consumers Power Co. are offering $5,000 toward changing privately owned equipment. The actual cost of this, he said, would be about $7,000. Motors that have been run ten years are not as good as new ones and a certain per cent allowance should be made for this. Alternating current motors, he said, are better machines, more rugged and require less care. After giving some of the advantages of the alternating current, Mr. Lovell spoke of Chelsea as a town bound to grow, well located as it is for shipping facilities. Factories will come here and they want power. If you turn over your problem to a public utility company you will be equipped to furnish that service and help the industrial growth of the community, he said. As the people are now protected by the state utilities commission there is now no danger of receiving poor service.

A number of questions were then asked by members of the audience. One asked if the town would be supplied with a loop or end service. Mr. Penn of the Consumers Power Co. replied the line here would be from Jackson. Into Jackson the company has two lines from Battle Creek and one from Livonia.

To the question of rates Mr. Penn replied the rate would be the same as in other communities. Maximum lighting rate would be 9c and the average about 8½c per k. w.

H. D. Witherell told the men he went over to Mason with a prejudice against giving a franchise. Mason had a plant in worse condition than ours and their expense was greater than ours. The consensus of opinion in that place seemed to be that the people are well pleased with the change to purchased power.

Edw. Vort asked the question whether it had been definitely decided to have a long franchise. He did not believe the people of Chelsea wanted to give a 30 year franchise, stating they had one now working hard, and under the utilities commission, too.

Mr. Penn stated the matter of length of franchise is largely taken out of their hands. The company can only buy new property by borrowing money and must sell bonds that will satisfy buyers. He called attention to the privilege of the village to re-take the plant after 10 years. A franchise, he said, is only a permission to operate, there is no rate fixed in the franchise.

The gas franchise came up for some discussion also the price now charged for gas.

In regard to the financial condition of the plant Supt. Boehm gave figures that showed the expenditures have exceeded the receipts since 1918. He explained that some improvements had been made, stock purchased and that several years the village was not charged for lighting streets or water hydrants.

"Why not buy power direct and distribute ourselves?" was asked. Mr. Lovell answered it would involve us into a secondary power, would have to have new poles, buy transformers; it would be quite an expense.

Howard Holmes stated a franchise was merely a right to operate; the gas franchise stipulated the rate to be charged; this franchise makes no rate. If you wanted to you could install another municipal plant and run in competition with the Consumers.

M. J. Dunkel of the Chelsea Screw Co. stated he had used power from the Consumers Co. since 1916 and has yet to make his first complaint of the service. If anything was wrong there was always some one on the job to make it right.

The matter of new pumps and standpipes for the water system was discussed and the cost asked which Mr. Lovell gave as about $17,000.

Howard Holmes stated the commission had another session with the Consumers Power Co., and that the latter had agreed to raise the amount to $20,000. This will give money enough to put the power and water system in fine shape.

President Wurster, in speaking about the equipment around town, said he did not believe people would expect new machinery used a long time. He also stated that the Consumers Power Co. had offered their assistance in purchasing equipment, thus giving the village low price advantages.

There were also other questions of interest discussed and the motion by H. H. Fenn that the meeting recommend the change from municipal to purchased power, if satisfactory arrangements be made, was carried.

John Bauer, a farmer living in Sylvan, died at his home at 10 o'clock Monday morning, July 10, from the effects of rat poison which he took Sunday afternoon. His son residing with him, had come to town with the laundry and upon his return home found his father in agony from the effects of the poison. A local physician was called, but his services were in vain.

Mr. Bauer had been in a rather nervous condition for several weeks and claimed to his son that he was unable to sleep. He was about the streets of Chelsea Saturday.

Justice of the Peace Howard F. Brooks was called to the home of Mr. Bauer and after viewing the scene and the remains decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

Mr. Bauer was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, August 24, 1842, and came to America in 1885, settling at Milwaukee, Wis., where he resided one year. He came to Sylvan in 1886, which has since been his home. He was twice married, his first wife dying in Germany 41 years ago. His second marriage was with Mrs. Anna Gruner in 1900, she dying in 1908. He is survived by one son, John Bauer, one brother residing near Whitmore Lake, and several nephews and nieces. The nephews and nieces residing here are George Bauer and Mrs. Chas. Clark of Lynn, Mrs. Albert Nicolai and John Bauer of Chelsea.

FOUR TRUSTEES ELECTED AT SCHOOL MEETING

Only One Member of Old Board Remains Over—M. J. Dunkel Resigns.

Four new trustees, one a lady, were elected to the board of education at the annual meeting of School District No. 3 Fr., Sylvan and Lima townships Monday evening thus leaving only one member of the old board, John Kalmbach, in office. The new trustees are Walter F. Kautlehner, Dr. Henry W. Schmidt, Eugene P. Steiner and Elizabeth Depew. Mr. Kalmbach has since the meeting declared his intention of resigning from the board.

M. J. Dunkel, the president of the board, was not present at the meeting, and during the session a communication from him tendering his resignation was read by the secretary and on motion the resignation was accepted.

John Kalmbach called the meeting to order, remarking that the president of the board would not be present and suggested that the meeting appoint the only other member of the board present, Edwin Koebbe, chairman. A motion to this effect carried. On motion the chair appointed S. P. Foster and R. D. Walker tellers, the officers then being sworn in by Justice E. D. Chipman.

Chairman Koebbe stated the next business in order was the reading of the secretary's and treasurer's report and asked if it was the pleasure of the meeting to read the report in detail or summary. A motion was made and carried that the reading in detail be dispensed with.

Secretary Kalmbach then read the notice calling the annual meeting, following with the annual statement as published in The Standard last week. On motion the report was accepted.

The secretary read the estimates of next year's expenses as compiled by the board, which totaled $25,926. Receipts from primary money and other sources were estimated at about $10,000, and the board recommended that the district raise $15,500, which is $3,000 less than last year. After some discussion it was voted to raise $15,500 as recommended.

It was stated that all the teachers for next year, with the exception of one or two, had been engaged.

The next business in order was the election of a trustee for three years to succeed Dr. G. W. Palmer. The name of Walter F. Kautlehner was the only one presented and all the ballots, 81, were cast for him.

Then came of Dr. Henry W. Schmidt and Edwin Koebbe were presented for trustees for two years, the ballot resulting in a total vote of 100, Dr. Schmidt receiving 59, Mr. Koebbe 40 and Mr. Dancer 1. Dr. Schmidt was declared elected.

To fill another vacancy for trustee for two years the names of Eugene P. Steiner and Dr. G. W. Palmer were presented, the ballot showing a total vote of 100, of which Mr. Steiner received 52 and Dr. Palmer 39. Mr. Steiner being declared elected.

At this point the resignation of M. J. Dunkel was read and accepted. To succeed him Elizabeth Depew was elected. 24 ballots being cast.

This concluded the business and the meeting on motion adjourned.

PRINTER RESTS AFTER SIXTY-THREE YEARS

Capt. John Snyder, 79, printer for 63 years in more than a score of cities throughout the middle west and south, and veteran of the Civil war, started to play Monday.

He retired from the Ann Arbor Times-News Saturday after 12 years' service. Fishing, reading and writing will be his only occupations from now on, he declares.

Snyder has never affiliated with the G. A. R., although he enlisted as a trooper in Co. B of the Twelfth Pennsylvania cavalry at the start of the Civil war and was later promoted to the rank of Captain. He was a member of the Army of the Shenandoah when General "Phil" Sheridan made his famous 20-mile ride from Winchester to Cedar Creek.

Mr. Snyder recently purchased of H. D. Witherell, the residence on South Street, known as the Martin Howe place, and is having it remodeled. When the work is completed Mr. and Mrs. Snyder will move from Ann Arbor to Chelsea where they will make their home. Mrs. Snyder is a sister of O. L. Hoffman.

MRS. ADELBERT PIXLEY

Mrs. Martha Pixley, aged about 80 years, died at her home in Mt. Pleasant, on Saturday evening, July 8, 1922, after an illness of several weeks. She was born in Sylvan and her father Mr. Denman, died and was buried at sea when she was a small girl.

She was married twice, her first husband, Edwin Pierce, died about 35 years ago. She was united in marriage the second time with Adelbert Pixley in 1891.

She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Eugene Foster of Chelsea, two half brothers, N. F. Prudden of Chelsea and E. S. Prudden of Merrill, and several nephews and nieces.

The remains were brought here and the funeral was held Tuesday afternoon, Rev. H. R. Beatty conducting the services. Burial at Vermont Cemetery, Sylvan.

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Maintenance of Way Men Postpone Strike and Shopmen May Return to Work.

CHANCE FOR A COMPROMISE

President Harding's utterances on the industrial situation—Irish Republicans routed in Dublin, still fighting—Russia's amazing budget submitted to the Hague conference.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD.

LABOR troubles, present and prospective, continue to absorb much of the interest of the American public. The railway shopmen are out—practically all of them, according to E. M. Jewell, head of the six federated shop crafts; not nearly all of them, according to the railway executives. The maintenance of way workers, who were expected to strike last week, are still at work. E. F. Grable, president of their brotherhood, and six members of his executive council, held an all-day conference with the members of the railway labor board and then issued a statement saying they had concluded "it is not wise for our membership to leave the service of the carriers until every resource has been exhausted that affords hope of a peaceful adjustment." The chairman on each carrier is to take up at once with the management all grievances, and if controversies are such as cannot be adjusted are to be taken before the labor board. Pending these efforts at peaceful settlement the men are to continue work under the present wage decision of the labor board under protest.

Mr. Jewell celebrated his fourth of July by putting forth a long statement in which he bitterly arraigned the labor board because it had "outlawed" the striking shopmen. He declared the board had outlawed itself as the friend of the unions and had "adopted a tragic attitude in attempting to compel American workers to accept a wage scale below decent living." True, the board had in effect declared the strikers outlawed and had invited recruits to fill their places, promising them protection and urging them to form a new shopmen's union within the American Federation of Labor. But in a day or two both Mr. Jewell and Chairman Hooper of the board became milder and the peace prospects brightened somewhat. The former said he was not adverse to dealing "with any authorized person on any reasonable basis," and the latter issued a statement in which he undertook to show that the board was protecting the interests of the striking shopmen by advising carriers against contracting out shop-work, and also wrote a letter to Mr. Jewell repudiating the charge of injustice on the part of the board and concluding:

"I am yet quite hopeful that your organization will recover their equilibrium and discern that it is vastly better for them to go along with the railroad labor board, patiently when it makes mistakes, but confidently at all times that it profoundly desires to do justice to the men, the carriers, and the public, without fear, favor or affection."

Toward the end of the week W. L. McMenamin, one of the labor members of the board, held conferences with the heads of the railway clerks and freight handlers, and it was predicted that those unions would follow the example set by the maintenance of way men.

Though most disorders last week due to the shopmen's strike were of minor importance, reports reached Washington in increasing numbers that strikers were interfering with the dispatch of the United States mails in various parts of the country. The administration is disposed and prepared to deal vigorously with any persons who hamper the movement of the mails. Postoffice inspectors were sent to all points where trouble was likely to arise, and doubtless every federal agency necessary will be used to protect the mail trains and facilitate their regular movement.

PRESIDENT HARDING'S conference of representatives of the coal mine operators and striking miners in the White House brought no immediate results, but hope of peaceful adjustment was not abandoned and the conference agreed to get together again July 10. They know that Mr. Harding has in reserve some drastic government action if they fail to agree, though he has not revealed its exact nature.

In Kansas the coal miners who supported the program of Alexander Howatt and who, with their officials, were expelled from the United Mine Workers of America, have decided to return to work, that being the only way they could recover their autonomy and be restored to membership in the union.

IN HIS fourth of July speech at the celebration in Marion, O., President Harding had some significant things to say of the industrial situation. For instance: "A free American has the right to labor without any other's leave. It would be no less an abridgement to deny men the right to bargain collectively. Governments can not tolerate any class or group domination through force. It will be a sorry day when group domination is reflected in our laws. Government, and the laws which government is charged with enforcing, must be for all the people, ever aiming at the common good."

Disclaiming any note of pessimism, he asserted that the republic is secure. "Menaces do arise," he added, "but public opinion will efface them. Meanwhile government must suppress them." These of course are truisms, but it is well that they should be repeated from time to time by the voice of highest authority.

General Pershing, who also spoke at the Marion celebration, was loudly applauded when he advocated fearlessness of "the strong arm of the law" in communities which "openly sympathize with ruthless murder of innocent people in the exercise of the right to earn a livelihood."

CAPTURE of the Four Courts building in Dublin by the troops of the Irish Free State by no means ended the bloody conflict with the republicans. The latter took refuge in hotels and other buildings in O'Connell street and there continued the battle until the shells of the regulars set fire to almost every structure in that part of the street. The conflagration could not be stopped and most of the rebels surrendered. De Valera, who was with them, was said to have escaped in disguise and fled to County Wicklow. Cathal Brugha, minister of defense in the De Valera cabinet, refused to surrender and was seriously wounded. Among the prisoners was Mrs. Terence McSwiney, widow of the late lord mayor of Cork, and Rory O'Connor, commander of the irregulars. The provisional government is now putting its entire military establishment on an active service basis and has issued a proclamation calling for recruits.

The republicans are preparing for a final struggle in the vicinity of Cork. That city is in their hands and, having Skibbereen, they claim control of the entire county, as well as of Counties Kerry and West Limerick, Waterford, East Limerick and parts of Tipperary and Kilkenny.

DESPITE the vigorous action of the government in Berlin, the monarchists have been stirring up trouble in many places in Germany. These were aggravated by the anti-monarchist demonstrations that were staged on July 4 by the Democrats and Socialists. One of the incidents of the week was the attempt to assassinate Maximilian Harden, the famous editor who is so thoroughly hated by the reactionaries.

There is a movement on foot in Germany that is likely to upset the cabinet of Chancellor Wirth and result in the formation of a purely socialist government in place of the present one, which is a coalition of minorities. To forestall this, an offer has been made to the Independent Socialists of a share in the government. The bourgeois parties fear that this would interfere with Germany's obtaining financial relief abroad.

IT LOOKS at this writing as though the conference at The Hague would come no nearer to settling the Russian problem than did that at Genoa. The soviet delegates in response to the demands of the allies submitted what they called the Russian budget, but Chairman Alphonse of the commission characterized it as a "project" and the British called it "an amazing document." This budget admitted that one-fifth of the entire revenues consisted of new issues of paper rubles and undertook to show that the more rubles were printed the more valuable they became—amazing indeed. The budget figures, which were in gold rubles, were calculated on an arbitrary rate in paper rubles every three months. The allied experts were amazed by all this.

The Russians caused further disension by putting out two questionnaires demanding to know the social positions, the professions, the revenues and the family positions of all previous holders of property, bonds and securities who have claims against Russia. Though told this was practically impossible and unnecessary, Litvinoff insisted his government must have this and other information as a basis for concrete proposals for the settlement of each case. Finally a list of the private agricultural claims of French, British and Belgian nations was presented to him, and the matter was taken under further consideration.

Representatives of large financial groups have arrived at The Hague, and it may be that Litvinoff will be able to trade a lot of concessions for private credits and so carry back certain valuable results to Moscow even if the formal negotiations fall through.

WHEN the League of Nations assembly meets in September it will have a definite program for reduction of land and sea armaments. The league's commission on disarmament has been in session in Paris and has approved Lord Robert Cecil's plan providing for a general reduction of air and land forces under the supervision of the league, and for continental alliances against aggression. The commission also adopted the British scheme for extending the Washington naval accord to all nations. Objection to limiting the alliances to continents was met by the statement that no nation would be barred from aiding a country that was attacked, no matter on what continent.

SETTLEMENT of the Tacna-Arica dispute in the conference at Washington is delayed by the action of the Peruvian delegates. Chile had accepted the plan offered by Secretary Hughes, but the Peruvians have qualified their acceptance in such a way that further negotiations are necessary. Chile's attitude is explained by her spokesmen as a thoroughly conciliatory one, embracing a willingness to accept Peru's suggestion for any minor changes in the American formula so long as the major principles laid down by Secretary Hughes are accepted by Chile are not disturbed.

HEAVY tariff debates in the senate grow acrimonious occasionally, and now and then even interesting. Last Wednesday, for instance, Senator Shortridge of California found occasion to predict that a son of Ohio would sit in the President's chair for a good many years to come. Before he had a chance to explain that he was alluding to Mr. Harding he was interrupted by Senator King of Utah with the admission that the Californian was correct and the assertion that the son of Ohio who would occupy the White House next would be Senator Pomerehne. King's fellow Democrats seemed to approve the suggestion, so the Pomerehne boom may be considered as launched.

THE sporting event of the week was the prize fight between Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, and Rocky Kansas in Michigan City, Ind. It was Leonard's fight all the way and in the eighth round Kansas was technically knocked out, his seconds throwing up the sponge.

MAIL TRAINS ARE TO BE KEPT MOVING—MAILMEN AND ARMY IN READINESS.

FREIGHT HANDLERS WALK OUT

Militia Guards Railroad Properties—Brotherhoods Object to Working Under Troop Protection.

Washington—The federal government began a mobilization of its forces Monday to deal with the strike of railway shopmen when the attorney general announced that he would call into service an unlimited number of United States deputy marshals and when the postmaster general ordered all postoffice inspectors in his service to take the field.

At the same time it was learned that if these measures do not serve to facilitate the movement of United States mails and to maintain interstate commerce, the marshals will be ordered out, and if they are ineffective the government will fall back upon the army.

After 10 days of suspension of shop work in many hundreds of railway plants the government is realizing that it miscalculated, and belated means are being employed to overcome, if possible, the effect of the strike on the mail service and upon interstate commerce. With no other phases of the matter is the government immediately or officially concerned, it is declared.

Freight Handlers Join Strike.

Rosnoke, Va.—Sanction to call a general strike of the members of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, Station Employees and Freight Handlers on the Norfolk & Western railway was given Monday night by E. H. Fitzgerald, grand president of the brotherhood, in a telegram to Richard P. Doe, grand vice-president. C. B. Lane, general chairman of the organization on the Norfolk & Western railroad, issued a strike order effective Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

In a letter to local union officials calling the strike, Mr. Lane said the action was taken after a count of the strike vote of employees "with reference to the wage controversy and other conditions."

Guardmen Called Out.

Bloomington, Ill.—Five companies of Illinois national guardmen Monday night were holding the Chicago and Alton shops, where 2,000 men are out on strike, and the Union station headquarters for the Alton, Big Four and Lake Erie, prepared to protect volunteer workers.

Chicago & Alton railroad clerks Monday night adopted a resolution announcing they would refuse to work under the protection of state troops.

SEVERE STORM SWEEPS STATE

Crops and Buildings Destroyed By Rain and Wind.

Lansing—Barns were destroyed and state crops were damaged tremendously by the hurricane which swept a wide area in the Thumb district, accompanying the heavy rains Monday afternoon and evening.

Trees and buildings in certain sections were lifted in the terrific wind, followed by a veritable cloud-burst, which laid flat hundreds of acres of ripening grain, and filled many Flint basements with water. Thousands of dollars worth of merchandise, stored in basements of downtown stores, was inundated, when overtaxed sewers backed up.

Untold damage was done to crops by a windstorm which swept Sanilac county at 8:30 p. m. Monday. The driving rain and lightning left in its wake a devastated strip 10 miles wide.

FORD'S OFFER BEFORE SENATE

Senator Ladd Submits Bill to Lease Muscle Shoals Property.

Washington—A bill proposing acceptance of Henry Ford's offer to lease the government's water power property at Muscle Shoals, Ala., has been introduced in the senate by Senator Ladd, Republican, North Dakota, a member of the senate agricultural committee.

GERMANY WANTS MORE TIME

Evidently Boston Child.

"So this is the baby?" said the genial bachelor. "Bless his little tootie-wooties! Watch me tickle 'um ribs!"

The genial one proceeded to play ragtime on the unoffending infant's ribs, foolishly imagining the child was enjoying it.

The up-to-date baby stood it for some time and then plaintively cried out: "Mother, will you kindly inform me whether the deplorable condition of this person is due to permanent dementia or spasmodic and intermittent insanity?"

No man can accomplish anything great who doesn't begin on a small scale.

If one hasn't a good disposition there are several practicable tations.

Tact is often only the happy and thoughtful. Deliberation is an art.

And the more energy a person spends in talking the less is left to assist him in making.

It is better to have lost than never to have lost at all.

According to the Weather Bureau of the United States Department of Agriculture the Columbia River is on its good behavior, and will continue so unless hot spells melt the snow on the mountains too suddenly. Take care of the farm woodlands, advises the Forest Service of the United States Department of Agriculture. Keep the stock out—they injure the young seedlings and trees. Woodland and pasture land are most profitable when managed separately. The home forest, if well cared for, will supply all the timber which the farm needs for buildings, fences, and fuel.

Large and Enthusiastic Audiences Greeted Rising Young Vocalist Thursday Evening

Julius Niehaus, a Chelsea product, delighted a large and enthusiastic audience of music loving friends at St. Paul's church last Thursday evening.

With his splendidly cultured baritone voice and artistic musical ability, Mr. Niehaus held his audience throughout the program of classical selections, the interpretations of which were admirably pleasing.

Mr. Niehaus was capably assisted by Miss Loris Schmidt, an accomplished pianist, who played the accompaniments and also pleased the audience with finely executed selections on the piano.

Gas Vapors Ignite While Filling Auto Tank at Palmer Motor Sales

That lighting matches near a filling station is a dangerous practice was proven Friday morning when the gasoline vapors at the Palmer Motor Sales filling station ignited from a lighted match in the hands of Arthur Avery, who was sitting in his car awaiting the filling of his auto tank.

The blaze was a fierce one for a time, taking off the auto top in a jiffy and ruining the upholstery. The flames leaped into the air 20 to 30 feet and scorched a fine shade tree nearly to the top.

The oil station just north of the filling station was also severely scorched and damaged.

No insurance was carried on the car.

The fire department did good work in extinguishing the blaze.

CHELSEA WINS FROM

JACKSON—7 to 11

Hard Fought Battle Staged By Local Ball Team.

Five scores in the seventh inning in the ball game Sunday afternoon placed Chelsea safely on the winning side and three more tallies in the eighth cinched the game and the Hayes Wheel Co. team of Jackson was defeated by the score of 11 to 7.

The Jackson players started off with scores in the first three innings, goose-egged in the fourth and tallied in the fifth, while Chelsea secured their first score in the third, missed in the fourth and secured two in the fifth, making the score 3 to 4 in favor of the visitors, and it looked as though Chelsea was doomed to defeat.

Neither team scored in the sixth, but the seventh was a glorious one for the local fans and there was much shouting as the Chelsea boys brought in five scores.

Hanford of the left field made a couple of good catches that stopped the same number of runners and Dunn, short stop, made a clever one-handed catch that brought forth applause.

An overthrow at third spoiled a home run for J. Dunn, although he made the circle and that at good speed.

Wood did splendid work in the box, especially when it is considered this was his first game of the season.

street. Brooks, who was removed from the parlor, Mr. Smith to investigate and he found the body of the lad as stated above.

It is not known what train struck the lad, but when found indications pointed to the fact that he had been dead for several hours and that death was instantaneous.

The body was identified by his father and brother. When Coroner Brooks, Undertaker Staffan and Marshal Young called at the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Policht to inquire if it was a member of their family, they had not missed the lad and after looking around the home they found that he was not about the premises.

The father of the boy has been in the employ of the Michigan Portland Cement Company at Four Mile Lake for several years and speaks but very little English.

He is survived by his father, mother and a number of brothers and sisters. The funeral was held Saturday morning in St. Mary's church, Rev. Father VanDyke conducting the services. Burial at Mt. Olivet cemetery.

VICTIMS OF CLEVER COUPLE

A. R. Congdon & Sons were the victims of a bad check deal in which they lost $20 Thursday, July 8, when a man and woman came into their store on Pearl street and selected a lawn mower. They were very particular in their selection and wished it delivered to 402 South Washington street early Friday morning, so that he could rise early and do his mowing.

After having made his selection and had all the particulars settled the stranger, giving his name as Norman Williams, searched his pockets in vain for the necessary $10, the price of the lawn mower. This was his accomplice's clue, for she suggested that he give Mr. Congdon the check for $30 on Mr. Foley that he had in his pocket. He tendered the check and Mr. Congdon gave him $20 and the promise of having the lawn mower delivered on time Friday morning.

Early Friday morning the lawn-mower was delivered and the check taken to the bank. Later a call came from 402 S. Washington street asking the reason for the gift. Then it was discovered that Mr. Foley had no account with the bank. Mr. Congdon got his lawn mower back and Chief Connors got the check. The couple have not been found.—Ypsilanti Record.

Mr. Condon and son were former well known residents of Chelsea and are frequent visitors here.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

SAYS H. H. LYONS

H. H. Lyons, proprietor of the Lyons Shoe Market, says it certainly pays to advertise, for not only has been his sale a splendid success, but things were also busy at the home giving a royal welcome to a new son, arriving Monday.

Mr. Lyons had printed at this office 1,000 bills, which he said were insufficient in number to cover the field. But the advertisement was also printed in The Standard, and the excellent circulation of this paper brought in rural residents from directions that the bills did not reach. He is perfectly satisfied with results obtained and says he knows he has gained many satisfied customers.

A second big allotment of picric acid, totaling 1,250,000 pounds, has been made available to Michigan farmers for land clearing work, according to an announcement of L. F. Livingston, land clearing specialist of the Michigan Agricultural College. The explosive will be delivered to farmers of the state in cars lots, county agricultural agents pooling orders from their districts under the direction of Mr. Livingston, who is in charge of the distribution.

The picric acid is distributed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Public Roads.

A large assignment of the explosive several months ago proved inadequate to meet demands for stump pulling material.

"Our experience with picric acid last fall and this spring has shown that this explosive is beyond a doubt suitable for land clearing work," says Livingston. "A thousand pounds is the maximum which can be allotted any one farmer. The cost will be seven cents a pound, f. o. b. at Ft. Winate, New Mexico, where it is to be carted, plus the freight rate to the consumer."

Addition of hundreds of acres of cleared land to Michigan's total will result from the picric acid shipments. The explosive, while effective, is comparatively cheap, and will make possible land clearing operation which could not otherwise be attempted.

The manufacture of peanut oil has been stimulated a great deal in recent years because of the ravages of the cotton boll weevil reducing cotton growing in certain sections. Peanuts are grown in place of cotton. Before 1914 very little of the oil was made, only 450,000 pounds being produced in 1912, but by 1918 the quantity turned out by crushers in this country was about 50,000,000 pounds. At the same time imports increased from 7,600,000 to 27,400,000 pounds.

Cucumber growers in Florida, South Carolina, and North Carolina are evincing much interest in the permissive standards for cucumbers recommended by the United States Department of Agriculture. A number of marketing associations have adopted the grades and are labeling packages with the grade name. Federal inspection at destination is also being made.

At the annual school meeting it was unanimously voted to submit to a vote of the people the proposition of bonding the school district to purchase property north of the high school building.

Dexter—Notwithstanding the paved state road three miles south of us, there is still considerable traffic through the village. Especially is this noticeable Saturday afternoon and Sundays when the lakes to the north are a week-end attraction.

Leader. The Leader in its last issue states that the Village has, at last, felt the results of the railroad shopmen's strike. On Wednesday the Wabash railroad laid off two trains running between Detroit and Montpelier. One of the trains that has been discontinued for the present from Detroit brought most of the parcels post mail for the merchants.

Jackson—Francis P. Miller, garage owner, charged with hiring Charles Gifford to burn the fair grounds grand stand in order to collect insurance on automobiles, he had stored there, will be given a hearing July 25. Bail fixed at $2,000 was furnished. The first case against Miller was dismissed in circuit court several months ago due to the prosecution's failure to establish that the fire was of incendiary origin.

Manchester—The telephone company now have all the country lines connecting with the Manchester exchange nearly completed. They, together with the trunk lines, were seriously damaged by the ice storm and it has been a long and expensive job rebuilding them. The local exchange needs more operators, as the present force is inadequate to the demands of prompt service, which has been its slogan.—Enterprise.

Adrian—The chinch bug has made its annual appearance in Lenawee county wheat fields, according to reports received by C. L. Coffeen, county farm agent. The summer pest cannot do any noticeable damage to wheat or barley at this time, says the county agent, but farmers should exert every effort to prevent the movement of the insects into corn fields. Protecting trenches through which strips of tar may be poured are used by many farmers to effectively check their travel from one field to another.

Schools in Villages Pay Higher Rate Than Rural Districts

The village school districts in Washtenaw county pay about twice as high a school rate as the rural districts.

This is one of the outstanding facts in the 1920-21 annual report just filed by Evan Essery, county school commissioner. "Per capita cost of rural schools, taken alone," says Mr. Essery, "gives no basis for argument either for or against closing a school."

"The per capita cost of the rural schools of Ypsilanti township, for example, is the highest in Washtenaw county, being $95.35, but the average tax rate per $1,000 assessment valuation is $4.30. On the other hand the per capita cost of Seio township is $31.16, while the average tax rate is $3.81—one of the lowest in the county," Mr. Essery said.

Variation in school tax rates in different school districts in townships in Washtenaw county for the year 1920-21 show the following fluctuations:

Ann Arbor township, variation in school districts on rate of $1,000 valuation, $3 to $6; Augusta, $2.60 to $7.30; Bridgewater, $2.50 to $6.50; Dexter, $1 to $6; Freedom, $1 to $5; Lima, $1.50 to $7; Lodi, $1.50 to $3.50; Lyndon, $2.50 to $7.50; Manchester, $1 to $9; Northfield, $4.33 to $11; Pittsfield, $2 to $4.33; Salem, $3.50 to $10; Saline, $2 to $7.50; Seio, $1.20 to $9; Sharon, $2 to $6.60; Superior, $2.70 to $6; Sylvan, $3.60 to $7.50; Webster, $1 to $7; York, $3.50 to $9; Ypsilanti, $1 to $6.10.

WEATHER BUREAU HELPS BANKERS

Evidence of the connection between banking and weather was afforded recently when a Federal Reserve Bank in a middle western city sent to the Weather Bureau of the United States Department of Agriculture for climatological reports on certain sections in another state. The bank is interested in the effect of local weather on crops. It can afford to lend money if the rain-fall is satisfactory and other conditions make the prospects bright for a good yield. A dry season means poor returns and an unsafe risk for the bank. One of the jobs of the Weather Bureau is to furnish accurate information of this kind.

Requests for information on weather conditions of every description, past, present, and future, come to the Weather Bureau of the United States Department of Agriculture. Recently a correspondent "What would happen if all vaulting winds were reversed at a point equal to molar mass for furnishing energy to those who have to think about."

"1900" flour is Bread and Pastry better.—Adv.

The most prominent objection to the change, the 30 year franchise, is the provision allowing the village to purchase the line at the end of a ten year period has had its influence in changing the minds of quite a number who were formerly against long franchise privileges. The additional $5,000 concession by the Consumers Power Co., also had some influence with people favoring municipal ownership. No predictions can be made absolutely, but the tendency favoring purchasing power is gaining strength. Study the problem on the point of best for Chelsea and be prepared to do the right thing at the polls.

BUSY TIME AHEAD

Just ahead a few weeks The Standard is predicting a busy time. Soon the preparations will begin for the paving of South Main street to the territorial trunk line pavement. This will mean activity at a time when one can expect a slackening up. Then, too, we can look forward to renewed activity in the manufacturing line.

While here moving the big press into The Standard office, the proprietor of the Ypsilanti Trucking & Storage Co., informed us that he had been engaged to move over here from Ypsilanti the machinery from the Guy Disc Valve Motor Corporation and his instructions are to hold his trucks and paraphernalia ready at a moment's call.

Farmers have been busy bringing grains harvested in abundant crops and all indications point toward a prosperous time ahead.

ENJOYING VACATIONS

Many of our citizens are enjoying outings at the beautiful lakes near Chelsea, among them the popular Cavanaugh, where every day labors are forgotten and real relaxation is indulged in. Chelsea is fortunate in having such restful places near at hand, thus saving long and tiresome trips. But one can enjoy himself right here in beautifully shaded Chelsea, without going from home, and without stretching the imagination to any considerable extent.

GETTING LINED UP

We mentioned last week that it would take some time to get acquainted with our new big newspaper press. For a time it looked as if we would be compelled to issue one day late, and this was not the fault of the press, but because of the driving mechanism. A drive to Jackson at the time we should have been printing the paper, however, furnished us with the proper pulleys and by nine o'clock in the evening the edition was printed. It required some hustling to get the heavy machinery assembled and in running order. Every effort is being made to make the favorite old Standard the best there is.

Procrastination is the thief of time. Retrogradation is the prince of stagnation. Don't stand still, keep a moving.

If thou testest not thy own horn, no one will too it for you. Mr. Merchant, too it in The Standard where the tooting will carry the farthest.

Three families read one Chelsea Standard. Four in a family. How many actual readers has The Standard?

According to City Attorney Roscoe O. Bonisteel of Ann Arbor that city will save a large sum of money for the telephone users by the recent state-wide cut in telephone rates as ordered by the public utilities commission.

Mr. and Mrs. Donner and son, who have occupied the residence of Mrs. Mary E. Depew, corner of Congdon and Summit streets, for the past few months, have moved to their new home in Ann Arbor, which has just been built.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Johnson and daughter, Mrs. Edith Contant and daughter, Arleen, and Miss Marjory Welkenbach of Wyandotte returned to Chelsea Friday, after spending a week at the Smith Log Cabin at Grand View Point, Cavanaugh Lake.

James W. Speer, the day telegraph operator at the Chelsea passenger station of the Michigan Central railway, drew his salary on Monday, July 10, and on Wednesday evening he discovered that he had lost $60 of the money during some of the trips to the stores about town.

The East Chelsea section crew of the Michigan Central were kept quite busy Saturday putting out fires along the sides of the tracks between Chelsea and the track pan at Four Mile Lake. The men recently cut the weeds growing on the sides of the roadbed and sparks from passing engines set the dried weeds and grass on fire.

Jackson has the only Michigan member of the executive committee of the National Theatre Owners association. Wirt S. McLaren of the Capitol theatre has received notification from the national president of the organization that he has been appointed to the position. Mr. McLaren is a former Chelsea resident and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. McLaren of East Middle street.

The Michigan Central has had a new push cart placed at the Chelsea passenger station for the use of employees in delivering the United States mail to the postoffice. The cart looks as if it would hold a weight of about one ton. The three operators who handle the mail would have appreciated it, if the cart had been equipped with a gasoline motor and pneumatic tires.

Flint—Station WEEA, radio broadcasting station for Flint operated by the Flint Daily Journal and Frank Fallain and Thomas Lathrop, officials of the Flint Radio Association, has been opened. The station has a radius of 60 miles.

Detroit—Five tons of steel crushed Hugo Nelson to death at the plant of the Mansfield Steel Corporation. Employees said Nelson was working under a crane, which was loaded with five tons of bar steel. A chain slipped and the entire load fell on Nelson.

Dowagiac—To Miss Geneva Jenkins, of Dowagiac, graduate of Oberlin college, goes the honor of having caught the largest pickerel of the season in this section of the state. Miss Jenkins, while fishing for bass on Indian Lake, caught a 14 1/4 pound pickerel. A frog bait was used.

Lansing—Protests against the $63,300,000 appraisal put on Pere Marquette property by the engineer of the Interstate Commerce commission have been made by the Michigan public utilities commission. The state commission seeks a lower appraisal with the view of cutting state railroad rates.

Flint—A confession clearing up burglaries which have been police puzzles here for seven years, police say, has been secured from Lawrence Waller, held on a charge of burglary. Waller, it is said, admitted robbing every large drug store in the city since 1915, the main loot he obtained being whisky.

Cadillac—Campers on the huckleberry plains of Wexford county have equipped themselves with canning outfits, and are canning their daily pick of the berries. The berry crop is unusually heavy but prices are high, due to the big demand from cities out of the state. Few berries are offered on the local markets.

Port Huron—The board of supervisors has voted unanimously to instruct the county's representatives to the state legislature to work for enactment of a law that would regulate motor vehicles using the state highways for commercial purposes, and to compel operators of truck lines and motor busses to pay a part of the expense of maintaining the roads.

Plainwell—Before a large audience at the Baptist church, Rev. John Fletcher last Sunday repeated the same sermon which he delivered in the same pulpit 46 years ago at the centennial of American Independence. He is 90 years old and is still pastor emeritus of the church. He is a Civil war veteran, having been a chaplain in General U. S. Grant's army.

Detroit—Voters at the primary election on Sept. 12 will have an opportunity to vote on acquiring a tract of 100 acres of land for zoological purposes. More than 12,000 signatures have been obtained to petitions favoring the park-zoo plan, according to Richard E. Follett, secretary of the Detroit Zoological society. The society offers the city 100 acres at the Ten-mile road and Woodward avenue.

Pontiac—Mrs. Margaret Waken has filed four suits in circuit court here for $50,000 damages each against the Standard Oil Co., of Indiana. Mrs. Waken is the widow of Victor Waken, who, with his four children and three other children, was burned to death Dec. 13 last when the Waken home, 10-mile road, was destroyed by fire.

The fire was caused by the explosion of kerosene that had been used with gasoline by a Royal Oak boy of the company.

Mountain—While shocking his farm four years ago, Russell Schultz lost his silver watch. One day ago, while working in a field, his foot struck an object covered with dirt, which proved to be the watch. Every year when he went to this field he has been looking for the watch. The day when he found it, he was subjected to four years of looking, dragging and pulling the works were in the watch. Schultz wound the watch and it started ticking.

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Railway Executives Refuse to Enter Negotiations to End Shopmen's Strike.

PROCLAMATION BY HARDING

He Warns Against Interference With Mails and Strikers Reply—France Opposes Moratorium for Germany—Attitude of Russians Disrupts The Hague Conference.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD
STRENUOUS efforts to bring to an end the strike of railway shopmen were made last week by Chairman Hooper and his colleagues of the federal labor board, but up to the time of writing these had been entirely unsuccessful and the status of affairs did not give much hope of an early peace. Late Wednesday night the railway executives took action that in the minds of many placed on them the burden of blame for the failure of negotiations. They flatly refused to enter into a parley with B. M. Jewell, leader of the strikers, and their reasons were held by Mr. Hooper to be in the main quite insufficient. They demanded that the shopmen abandon their strike and then proceed to settle their grievances through the labor board. They declined to meet Jewell on the ground that, the men having struck in defiance of the decision and order of the board and the controlling provisions of the transportation act, "the issue thus raised is not one for consideration between the carriers and the representatives of the organized crafts on strike, except through the further orderly processes before the United States railroad labor board, as contemplated by the transportation act."

Unbiased opinion will agree with Mr. Hooper's statement that the executive gave no reason that would satisfy the public. He continued: "In so far as the declination is based on a desire to preserve the authority and dignity of the railroad labor board, it is superfluous. The labor board will endeavor to take care of itself in that regard. The statement in the letter that 'the strike is a refusal to accept the results of the arbitration of the railroad labor board,' falls a little short of accuracy. One of the questions involved in the strike is violation of the board's decisions by certain carriers. It is true nearly all of the carriers have discontinued this practice, but some of them have not."

Chairman Hooper intimated that new peace plans of the board involved appeals to the railway lines individually.

In many parts of the country, especially the Middle West, Texas, and on the Pacific coast, the disorders due to the strike became increasingly violent, and a number of men were killed. In several states the militia was called out, and in some localities, notably Bloomington, Ill., the engineers, firemen and trainmen rebelled against working under military guard. Sympathetic strikes were talked of. The leaders of the brotherhoods held several conferences and said their men would continue to operate trains up to the point where the military occupation began.

President Helt of the railway signalmen announced that his organization had postponed striking pending negotiations with the labor board which are now under way. On one Eastern road all the clerks struck.

Determined to guard federal interests, the administration at Washington has been keeping close tab on the developments, and President Harding issued a proclamation "directing all persons to refrain with all interference with the lawful efforts to maintain interstate transportation and the carrying of the United States mails." This was done after Postmaster General Work had submitted to the cabinet numerous instances of interference with the transportation of the mails and the information that a number of roads had been forced to abandon some of their mail trains. In case the proclamation were ignored, the administration laid plans for the institution of civil and criminal proceedings against individual offenders and the unions. It was understood that for the present the various states would be relied on for protection of workers and trains, but if any failed, the federal troops would be called out, and possibly soldiers and marines would be placed on the mail trains. The President is determined to back up the federal labor board to the full extent of his powers.

On Thursday, at the direction of the President, Secretary Wood ordered troops held in readiness to protect the lines of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas road in Texas, where operations were impeded by lawlessness and violence. This was in response to an appeal from the receiver of the railway who was appointed by a United States court.

Announcement was made by the Post Office department that if every mail train should cease to run, it would continue to transport mails by motortrucks and airplanes. The department has 56 planes, and the government owns thousands of trucks belonging to various departments.

In response to the President's proclamation the executive council of the shopcraft unions sent him a long telegram, setting forth the grievances of the strikers. The labor board was, by implication, charged with partiality, and the railroads were accused of specific violations of the law and of disregarding the orders of the board. The workers, it was asserted, have been and are ready to negotiate with the railway executives and struck only as a last resort. "We respectfully insist," continued the telegram, "that no interruption of commerce or interference with the mails is caused by direct or unlawful acts of organized employees. Such interruption and interference results inevitably from attempts of railroads to operate with insufficient, incompetent and unskilled workmen."

At the close of the week all that prevented an immediate strike of the maintenance of way men was the determination of their president, E. F. Grable, to keep them at work for the present. A majority of their general chairmen had requested that they be called together to plan for a walk-out. The stationary firemen and oilers decided to quit work on July 17.

CHICAGO was facing an almost complete tieup of its local transportation facilities. The surface street car men already had voted to strike against a wage reduction of 20 cents an hour, and on Thursday the employees of the elevated roads also voted for a walkout. The unions agreed on a joint policy and plan of action, and there was hope that further negotiations might avert a strike. The situation was complicated by local politics and the desire of some of the city officials that the municipality should take over the surface roads and operate them.

THUS far, only partial success has been achieved by President Harding in his attempt to end the coal strike. The anthracite operators submitted what he regarded as a complete acceptance of his plan of arbitration, but the bituminous operators and the miners' union had not at this writing sent in their reply. Government officials thought both sides were evading an immediate decision with the intention of rejecting the settlement plan if public opinion seemed to approve such a course. Two conditions to the anthracite operators' acceptance were that a separate commission consider wage scales, and that the commission render its decision by August 10, they agreeing to pay in the meantime the scale of March 17.

PREMIER MACKENZIE, KING of Canada, went to Washington last week and submitted to Secretary of State Hughes an interesting and, on the face of it, a reasonable proposal. This was that the Rush-Bagot agreement between Great Britain and the United States concerning the Great Lakes and the other boundary waters between this country and Canada be modernized and made permanent. The agreement, which has stood for 105 years and is terminable on six months' notice, limits the armament on the lakes and St. Lawrence to four vessels, each not to exceed 100 tons burden, each not to exceed 18-pound guns. Mr. King thought this an opportune time to suggest to our government that the agreement be given permanency in a formal treaty. Some of the authorities in Washington thought the Canadian prime minister was "trying to take a flier of his own in the disarmament market for political purposes."

NOTWITHSTANDING the strong opposition of France, it appeared probable the allied reparations commission would grant Germany's formal request for a moratorium on cash reparations payments, after the payment by Berlin of the $8,000,000 due on July 15. The amount was reduced from $12,500,000 by the crediting of Germany with $4,500,000 on delivery of coal and dyes. The moratorium asked is for 30 months and the prediction was that it would be granted on condition that the allies be given control of Germany's finances during that period.

The French asserted the collapse of the mark and the threatened financial downfall of Germany is due to the German policy of issuing unlimited marks and to extravagant government expenditures, and that the granting of a moratorium would not change the basic factors. They believe, in fact, that Germany has deliberately engineered her own insolvency in order to obtain a reduction of the reparations bill. In Paris it was said the chamber of deputies would overthrow any cabinet that consented to a moratorium unless there was a remission of the allied debts.

GREAT BRITAIN has no intention of asking that her war debt to America be cancelled. Premier Lloyd George has decided to name delegates at once who will come to Washington to confer regarding the refunding of the debt in accordance with the terms of the Mellon act. These delegates are to have plenary powers and are to assure the United States officials that Great Britain does not consider the American debt as involved in Europe's war debts, or in the reparations. Gold shipments to pay the interest will begin in August.

DODGING and squirming and evading direct replies to direct queries, the Russian delegates in the international conference at The Hague had, by the end of the week, brought that conference just about to the breaking-up point. Their efforts were directed toward rupturing the solidarity of the non-Russians so that they might lay the blame for failure on some and then enter separate negotiations with others, especially the British. In this they seemed to have failed, for the British stood solidly with the French and others in the demand that the Russians recognize the pre-war debts, give guarantees for the credits they asked, and state definitely on what terms they would restore foreign property to its owners. All this the Russians refused to do, and their attitude made so useless further continuation of the conference that many of the delegates arranged to start for home at once.

ALTHOUGH the Irish Free State forces are successfully "mopping up" the rebellious republicans, the disorder in the island is still such that the first session of the new parliament has been postponed again until August 15. By then, it is believed, conditions will be normal and there need be no involuntary absentees.

Ulster has thrown another monkey wrench into the new Irish machinery. Premier Sir James Craig says Ulster will not participate in the joint commission which, under the treaty, was to have carefully marked out the frontier between the north and the south. The border, as it now stands, is a continual source of strife.

ON THE recommendation of Senators McKinley and McCormick and the Illinois Bar association, President Harding has named James H. Wilkerson of Chicago to be federal judge of the northern district of Illinois to succeed Judge Landis. Mr. Wilkerson has had a long career as county attorney, member of the Illinois legislature, assistant and later United States district attorney and assistant to Attorney General Brundage of Illinois.

The strikers, numbering about 250, swept down on the small band of county officers and mine guards stationed in the tipple. After a sanguinary struggle, the great odds told against the deputies protecting the mine, and the strikers swept over the ground, conquerors.

Poses headed by state troopers, deputy sheriffs and mine guards, were combing the district Monday night to make certain that no wounded were left lying in the woods. More than 40 men, members of the mob of strikers that attacked the mine defenders, have been arrested. Some have been brought here and others have been taken to Wheeling.

Cliftonville is a small town, populated entirely by mine workers, situated in a natural amphitheater, and cut into four sections by Cross creek and the lines of the Wabash railroad, the creek and the tracks running at right angles. The Richland-Marshall mine, the principal operatin of the district, is on a hill above the town.

During the first few weeks of the miners' strike, the mine which had been operated by another company was shut down. Late in June the mine was taken over by the Richland-Marshall interests, and July 5 work there again was started. Men from the Pittsburgh district were taken into the mine, and later a number of outsiders were added to the short force.

RE-OPEN MINES, SAYS HARDING

Workers' Refusal to Arbitrate Exhausts Patience of President.

Washington—President Harding told a delegation of bituminous coal operators who called at the White House late Monday to present their acceptance of his offer of arbitration in the strike, to go home and begin at once the operation of their mines in order that the country's supply of fuel might be assured.

The president in a statement issued after the delegation of bituminous operators left the White House said that "we have now reached a point, owing to the refusal of mine workers and a minority of your operators to accept the proposed arbitration, where the good offices of the government in seeking a voluntary adjustment of the dispute between mine operators and mine workers are without avail."

SEVENTY RAIL MEN POISONED

Strikebreakers in Chicago Made Ill—Quiz Called.

Chicago—Seventy new shop employees of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, and seven city policemen, are suffering from poisoning, having eaten food prepared for strike breakers.

A score of health department workers were assigned to cover every railway yard in Chicago and rigidly inspect all food served to workers, to prevent recurrence of the trouble. The policemen said they had eaten lunch in dining cars provided by the railroad.

It was indicated that Dr. Louis J. Veit, in charge of the investigation, had information he expected would lead to the discovery of the poisoners. Examination of milk served to the workers also has been made.

POTENTIAL OBTAIN SIGNALS

What This May Be Done
With Three-Electrode
Vacuum Tube.

For every filament current there is a definite plate potential that will give the strongest signals. When using fairly hard tubes—high vacuum—drawing out taps from the individual coils of the plate of "B" battery will give variations that are fine enough. For very soft, gaseous tubes, low

A finer regulation of "B" battery potential is required and is most easily obtained by means of an "A" battery potentiometer. Fig. 14 shows how an "A" battery potentiometer is connected in the circuit of a three-electrode vacuum tube to give fine variations in the plate circuit potential. The resistance of an "A" battery potentiometer should be between 200 and 500 ohms. By moving the slider on the "A" battery potentiometer a variation of plate voltage equal to the "A" battery, or about six volts, can be secured. If the tube contains gas, too high a plate voltage will cause the tube to "buck-over"—that is, the gas is ionized and becomes a conductor, aljusted. The material which will be required to do this is as follows:

One standard vacuum socket.
One 6-10-ohm filament rheostat.
One grid condenser and leak combined.
Three binding posts.
A source of filament current and a source of plate potential.
Schematically the set is connected up as shown in Fig. 15 when used with a three-electrode tube as a detector. This set, too, can be very conveniently mounted on an 8 by 10-inch base, mounting the tube socket with the filament rheostat beside it. In a great many of the usual receiving circuits used the so-called delowing an excessive current to flow to the plate circuit which will destroy the elements.

In using a vacuum tube circuit for the first time, always check the circuit to see that "A" and "B" batteries are connected to their respective terminals on the socket. The markings on the socket are plain and cannot be mistaken. Interchanging the plate filament tube functions not only as a detector, but as an amplifier and as an oscillator, as will be explained later.

There will also be printed a table of symbols used in drawing diagrams and thus the different parts and materials used in these diagrams will be readily understood by those who are unfamiliar with these terms.

SUN DUST IS A "RADIO NET"

London Professor Evolves Novel Theory of the Atmospheric Envelope.

Electrified dust thrown off by the sun forms an atmospheric envelope about the earth about 100 miles which prevents wireless waves from escaping into infinite space, according to Prof. J. A. Fleming, University College, London, whose work in wireless is known all over the world.
The screen made by the dust, he says, acts as a sort of wireless speaking tube and enables waves used for long-distance work—which are about ten miles in length—to travel 6,000 and 12,000 miles.
If it were not for that screen, according to the professor's theory, the wireless energy thrown out by the broadcasting towers would not cling to the earth, but would pass away into space.

How Big Is an Electron?
The very noteworthy experiment of the electron was performed by Professor Millikan and a student at the University of Chicago.

TIPS FOR FANS

A meeting of representatives of stations within 360 meters of New York and New Jersey was called to prevent radio "jam" in the air. Some of the sweet things that come through trust have gummed up the ether.
For use across the secondary of a tuner, such as the honeycomb coils, use a condenser of twenty-three plates or less. The less capacity used in the secondary circuit, the better will the set work.
If, after wiring up a set, you hear nothing but a steady hum in the receiver, you may be very sure that there is an open circuit somewhere. Trace out the wiring carefully and you will find the fault.

Small Girl's Ingenious Plea for Her Pet Bantam Should Have Softened Daddy's Heart.

Five-year-old Mary Jane had a pet bantam hen. Recently the latter hatched six little chickens, but she proved herself to be an unnatural mother and wouldn't take care of them.

The family was provoked and Mary Jane's father threatened to sell the hen if she didn't take care of the chickens. That brought Mary Jane to strategy. That evening when her father came home she was waiting for him.

"Where's your hen?" he demanded. "Is she caring for her chickens?"

"Oh, no," Mary Jane was very serious. "She's in the hen coop getting ready to lay some more eggs, to hatch some more chickens."—Indianapolis News.

BRIGHT IDEA NOT PATENTED

Generous Marine Willing All Should Have the Benefit of His Really Brilliant Thought.

The marine and his best girl were seeing the sights of New York. The temptation to steal a kiss was strong, but he knew that people do not stop to kiss on the street in broad daylight, even if it is one of those rare occasions when a marine has a chance to parade Broadway with his lady friend.

Suddenly the leatherneck had a bright idea. He knew it looked all right to kiss a person good-by on the street.

"Lissen, Lucille," he suggested. "What do you say if we shake hands, kiss each other good-by then walk around opposite blocks and meet again?"

"You're on," said his lady love. The scheme turned out to be a success that several blocks were gottled in the same manner, and entire trip up town was a series of meetings and partings.

Now the leatherneck is wondering why he was so dumb he never thought of it before.—The Leatherneck.

"THE GREAT MOMENT" ROMANTIC AND THRILLING

Gloria Swanson's First Paramount Starring Vehicle Has Continental Flavor.

A story of romantic quality, with that continental flavor which has been imparted to most of her stories by Mme. Elinor Glyn, is included in "The Great Moment," in which Gloria Swanson makes her debut as a Paramount star, and which will be shown at the Princess Theatre next Wednesday.

The story opens at an orgy in St. Petersburg when a British aristocrat is captivated by and marries a woman of the plains of Tartary—a Gypsy. The latter leaves him a daughter, Nadine, and in this role Miss Swanson has one of the greatest of her screen career.

The tempestuous nature of her mother is transmitted to the child; the longing for the nomadic life is an inborn passion and she takes the Knight Bayard of history, "without fear and without reproach," as her ideal. A love story follows—a vivid, colorful, fervid romance, the story shifting across oceans and continents to America and the wilds of Nevada.

Lager the scene of the story is taken up in Washington and the strict official life of the capital. Finally, the lovers find happiness in the Nevada hills—tasting of heaven and becoming equals of the gods.

FISH RECEIVED FOR CAVANAUGH LAKE

Ten 25 Gallon Cans of River and Black Bass Planted.

George P. Staffan on Saturday received a ten 25 gallon cans containing river and black bass, weighing from 3-4 to 2 pounds, from the State fish hatchery at Cheboygan. The cans were taken to Cavanaugh Lake, by F. E. Belser and were planted by the members of the Cavanaugh Lake Club.

The cottage owners at the lake have received word from the State Fish Commission that they will furnish 500 black bass from 2 to 5 pounds each, provided the lake is closed for one year, prohibiting fishing of any kind during that time.

From present indications a petition signed by the cottage owners will be prepared and signed by them to have the lake closed for one year. This, if done for one season, the State Fish Commission says, the lake would be supplied with fry for years to come.
