

SIXTEENTH YEAR—NO. 31

CHELSEA, MICHIGAN TUESDAY, JANUARY 9, 1923.

$1.50 THE YEAR

CHELSEA LOSES WHEN OVERTIME PERIOD IS NECESSARY

Saline Wins Hard Fight 32 to 27.

A five minute overtime period was needed to decide the game last evening between the St. Mary Regulars and the Saline Independents. When the game ended the score was 26 to 26.

Both teams put up a hard fight for the game but neither team nor players were given a chance because of the referee. His lack of knowledge of basketball was so much in evidence that both teams were disgusted. Chelsea had a great deal of hard luck in shooting for baskets. G. Brooks seemed to jump about the basket with much more grace and ease than it would go into the circle.

Saline played a fine game using the five man defense with skill and perfection. They too were unlucky in the shooting of baskets. G. Brooks a strong point with the Chelsea team was completely guarded all the time.

The mild voice of the referee often saved him for unpleasant decisions. The players seldom heard his decisions and used their own judgement as to the play.

Saline will play here on Thursday evening, January 18. The game will be played in St. Mary hall.

Thursday night of this week, January 11, the St. Mary Regulars will meet the Dundee Independents. The game will be played here. This promises to be a good game. Last year Dundee defeated the Chelsea team by one point in the game staged on the local court.

The summary of the game with Saline:

Chelsea	Pos.	Saline
Brooks	c	Stang
J. Cannon	g	Schodemaster
Ike Reidel	g	Schlah
J. Munroe	f	Koch
A. Kaercher	f	Schmidt

Field goals, Koch, 5; Brooks, Stang, 4; Schlah, 2; Kaercher, Munroe, Schoenhals, Schmidt, 1. Free throws, Brooks, 9; Schmidt, 8. Substitutes, Eder for Munroe, Schoenhals for Reidel.

RESERVES FEARED BY JACKSON TEAM

According to the Jackson News the St. Mary Reserves of Chelsea are one of the best teams in their class in the state. (We all knew it before this though.)

The St. Mary team will meet the Jackson high school Reserves Friday evening of this week at the West Intermediate gymnasium, Jackson, as the preliminary game to the Jackson high-Cass Tech game.

Last year the St. Mary Reserves were defeated by the High School seconds in the opening game of the season by a small margin, but this is not to their discredit for the Jackson team had in their lineup several of the present regulars.

The Jackson paper almost predicts defeat for their own team. They feel that the team is not as strong as it was last year and that there is more chance for defeat. The St. Mary Reserves have made a name for themselves in playing great basketball and many a team considerably out of their class has fallen before them.

INFANT SON DIES

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Slano of Buchanan street died Thursday, January 4, 1923. The body was taken to Paulding, Ohio, where the funeral and burial were held Friday.

START TO CUT ICE

E. L. Benton will start to cut ice on Cedar Lake Thursday of this week if the weather conditions hold out. Ice on the lakes around here now is a good thickness and unless the weather conditions change considerably there should be a good ice crop this season.

A postoffice and police station have been established on Craig Island, 850 miles from the north pole and the most northerly point so provided.

DILLON AND ALBER HEAD BOWLING TOURNAMENT

The standing of the teams in the bowling tournament took several changes last evening when three games were played and the percentages changed considerably.

In the first game of the evening Steel and Toburen beat Seitz and Schmid. The winners were defeated by Dillon and Alber who also won from Moserva and Alber.

Tomorrow night Ypsilanti will bowl here and the match promises to be an interesting one for several reasons.

The standing of the bowlers:

	GP.	W.	L.	Per.
Dillon, G. Alber	3	3	0	1000
Steel, Toburen	5	3	2	600
Seitz, Schmid	4	2	2	500
Moserva, H. Alber	5	2	3	400
Udike, Reidel	3	0	3	000

RESERVES WIN FROM HUSTON BROTHERS

The St. Mary Reserves added another victory to their string Sunday afternoon when they defeated the Huston Brothers of Ann Arbor on the local floor.

The Reserves were to have met the Detroit Arrows, a team that last year gave them the closest run of the season. The Huston Brothers were to have met the St. Mary Regulars but because the Detroit team did not show up the Ann Arbor team played the Reserves. The Hustons outweighed the Reserves considerably.

The game ended with a score of 18 to 13 with the Reserves in the lead. Madden was the chief scorer of the game. Phil and Paul Hoffman starred for the locals on the offensive. The Eder brothers showed great skill in keeping the Ann Arbor forwards well covered.

The same kind of a game that won from the Hillsdale high last week was the reason for success.

The summary:

St. Mary (18)	Pos.	Huston Bros. (18)
Madden	rf	Cummings
Paul Hoffman	lf	O'Brien
Phil Hoffman	c	Finn
E. Eder	rg	Stoddard
J. Eder	lg	Vogel

Score at end of first half, St. Mary 12, Hustons 5.

Field goals: Madden, 4; Paul Hoffman, Phil Hoffman, Cummings, O'Brien, 2; Stoddard, 1. Goals from fouls, Phil Hoffman, 2; O'Brien, 3. Referee, G. Brooks.

NEEDLE JABBERS ARE POIS- ONING PARIS WOMEN.

Shopper Stuck in Arms by "Demons" Who Work in Stores and Subways.

"Needle Demons" is the title given to the originators of the latest crime wave in Paris, which police reports show has been growing in intensity for the last two weeks until now dozens of women daily are being pricked with poisoned needles by unidentified monomaniacs.

The terror began among the women Christmas shoppers in the big department stores, but the needle jabbers are now operating in the auto busses, the subway, and other places where crowds congregate, and it is possible to inflict the injury and escape without identification.

The theory advanced today that the "Needle Demons" were using air pistols from which the needles were discharged.

Another aspect of this particular crime wave is that many of the women show no signs of wounds. The police claim this is due to auto suggestion. Some of these women, when jostled in crowds make an outcry and after demand the arrest of innocent men. They insist they have been stabbed and complain of severe pains, but when no traces are found of needle wounds.

The police are as much mystified as they were by a last winter's epidemic of dress and fur coat slashing and so far no arrests have been made.

While the needle points are believed to be poisoned, the effect on the victims is not serious, the women usually escaping with slight swellings and muscular pains.

EUREKA!

What are you making, dearie?" said her catty friend.
"Christmas presents," the other replied.
"And what is this?" the friend persisted.
"This is supposed to be a necktie for my husband," the accommodating lady explained.
"But why waste your time, dearie? You know husbands never wear Christmas neckties," objected the other woman.
"I have had that experience in the past," admitted the wife, "but I think I have solved that difficulty. This is a combination necktie and penwiper."

RESERVES DEFEAT HILLSDALE HIGH 13 TO 11

Phil Hoffman's field goal from the center of the court in the final minutes of play gave St. Mary Reserves of Chelsea a 13 to 11 victory over Hillsdale high school at Hillsdale Friday night. The game was hard fought from start to finish, with neither team having a large lead at any time during the game. The first half ended with Chelsea leading 5 to 4. Paul Hoffman led in the scoring with three field goals to his credit. Stitt of Hillsdale was the leading scorer for Hillsdale, his five points from the foul line and afield goal accounting for seven of the high school points.

Although outweighed, the Reserves presented a remarkable fast passing game which baffled the Hillsdale guards. The game was a bit rough at times, Madden, forward on the Chelsea team, being injured and forced to retire from the game.

The summary:

St. Mary (18)	Pos.	Hillsdale (11)
Madden	RF	Gascorrell
Paul Hoffman	LF	Watkins
Phil Hoffman	C	Hagerman
J. Eder	LG	Collet
E. Eder	RG	Stitt

Score at end of first half, St. Mary 5; Hillsdale, 4.

Field goals, Madden, Paul Hoffman, 3; Phil Hoffman, Hagerman, 2; Stitt. Goals from fouls, Phil Hoffman 3 in 3, Stitt 5 in 5. Substitutions, Reidel for Madden. Time of halves, 16 minutes. Referee, Fairgroves.

LUCKY PATRONS OF PRINCESS GET PASSES

The prizes given at the Princess Theatre Sunday evening to the holders of the lucky numbers caused considerable comment and a well filled house. All waited anxiously to hear the outcome.

J. Parrish was the winner of the first prize which was passes to the next 18 Sunday night performances. Joe Haefner won second prize which was 10 tickets; Audrey Harris drew the third lucky number and received 8 tickets; and William Haefner won fourth prize of 6 passes.

The luck of the several patrons made them happy. The two brothers who won came to the show at different times and were sitting on opposite sides of the house.

GIRLS PLAY GOOD GAME LAST NIGHT

The Chelsea high girls defeated the St. Mary girls last evening in a fine basketball game. The game was played at the St. Mary hall before a good sized crowd. The score ended 21 to 6 in favor of the high school girls.

Friday night of this week both the boys and girls teams of the high school will journey to Dansville where they will play the teams that were here at the first of the season.

If good weather hold out it is expected that a large crowd will accompany the team to Dansville and give all the support possible.

Michigan Happenings

Traffic through the canals in St. Mary's river, Sault Ste. Marie, during the year 1922 amounted to six times the amount handled through the locks at Panama. Another interesting feature is that the traffic through the canals here in Oct. 1921, alone amounted to more than was registered through the Panama canals from Jan., 1922, to Oct., 1922. Since Jan. 1, 1923, to Oct. 1, 1922 the Panama canals locked through 10,419,125 net tons of freight, while the Sault locks recorded 11,332,688 net tons of freight for the month of Oct., 1922, alone.

Investigation by city officials shows that the gas fumes which caused the illness of 11 persons in two homes in Grand Rapids came from an underground fire at the city dump. The gas was driven through subterranean channels formed as the result of piling rubbish in heaps and worked into the basements of nearby homes. All of those made ill by the gas have recovered. The rubbish pile is located on low ground which has been built up several feet during a dozen years. The city department put out the underground fire.

THE COMMON LOT.

Doughboys, who remember the terrific devastation they saw in France, will be especially interested to learn that France is finally getting the damages repaired.

It is important news to all of us, that France is more than halfway back to normal. Why important? Because our prosperity depends to considerable extent on Europe's comeback. And France is as much a key nation, as Germany, to the general European situation.

For instance, 741,888 buildings in France were destroyed or suffered serious damage. The French government reports that only 500,000 of these buildings had been rebuilt by September 1, the date of the last checkup. Later figures are not available, but it takes several months to round up the information.

And, of the 22,900 French factories destroyed in the war, 10,000 had been rebuilt September 1.

About 5,000,000 acres of French farming land were rendered unfit for cultivation by battles. Nearly 4,400,000 acres of these have been cleared of shells, leveled and again are bearing crops.

The war trenches totaled 436,230,000 cubic yards of earth excavated, and about 365,000,000 cubic yards have been filled in. Barbed wire entanglements at the close of the war totaled 108,000 square yards. Doughboys wondered how the French could ever manage to coil the wire. Well, 341,000,000 square yards of wire entanglements have been coiled and removed.

And over a million abandoned shells have been gathered up and destroyed or stored.

France loafing on the job? They have been as active as ants, repairing the damages of war.

Damages in the French devastated regions, according to French officials estimates, totaled 102,000,000,000 francs. France spent 44,000,000,000 francs repairing the damages, and on this point Germany has paid 4,000,000,000 francs. These are the French government's figures.

The devastation of France, as revealed by these statistics, is almost beyond human imagination's grasp.

If we'd had similar destruction in America, no doubt we'd be coming at the mouth and generally acting emotionally in a way that other countries would find hard to understand. All this must be kept in mind, in judging the present French attitude.

CHICKEN TALK

Chicken (the poultry kind) talk. They have 21 sounds in their alphabet. So claims the Rev. Dr. Fairbank B. Stockdale of Bayside, N. Y.

Stockdale began investigating chicken language 30 years ago when he read of Professor Garner studying the monkey language.

If you doubt that chickens communicate with each other, listen to the mother hen clucking to her chicks when no danger is near. Then observe how her clucks change (and the results on the chicks) when a hawk or rat approaches.

Animal life unquestionably has some means of communication that proves the existence of intelligence.

AVERSION TO SOCIETY

A woman sues for divorce in Brooklyn, N. Y., claiming her husband hates "society." She says: "We came home from a social event. My husband, for some unknown reason exhibited violent temper. He used profane language and said, 'This—business must be cut out.' Thereafter, on an average of three times a week, I came home under the influence of liquor and threatened to shoot me."

If husbands' aversion to "society" is to become a cause for divorce, we'd better stop all other building construction and concentrate on erecting new divorce courts.

WEEDING OUT.

Maybe you had hard luck during November. But you can be sure you weren't among the men who went into bankruptcy or receiver's hand. Commercial failures in November, the country over, totaled 1768. That was more than in any November ever, except a year ago when the Grim Reaper removed the heads of 1970 businesses.

The weeding out process is still continuing on a big scale. It's for the best, or it wouldn't happen. Providence never makes mistakes on a big scale. Too many in business.

Where There Is A Will—

Do you read the bank advertising? Some of the most interesting and ingenious bits of reading matter to be found anywhere are coming from the hands of the advertising men nowadays, and the bank advertising has come to hold its own with that of the department stores and the rest of the selling news that makes newspapers and magazines so entertaining.

"They Never Found His Will" announces a big bank in a large city, and tells a story of unnecessary difficulties. He had left his wife about having made a will, but it could not be found. He died after a short illness, leaving the wife and three children.

The real property which, in the absence of a will, belongs to the children subject to the widow's dower, cannot be sold until the youngest comes of age, 19 years later, unless the mother goes through complicated court procedure. It is going to be difficult, in the interim, if not impossible, for her to educate and keep the three children on the insurance and the income from her third of the property. Yet he meant to leave her in control of the property.

The moral drawn by the bank is—have your will drawn, with the bank named as executor. It's a good plan.

All sorts of complications are likely to arise in case of sudden death, and minor children need to be protected. Wives, also, who have shared in the early struggles, ought to be assured their just share of the later rewards.

No man wants to leave his affairs in a tangle for his heirs to wrestle with, particularly if his means are modest. It might be said that the smaller the fortune, the greater need for clear and explicit will.

Wills aren't for old people in their dotage to make. They're for young people to help keep their affairs in order.

Two Incomes

When John D. Rockefeller was a struggling young bookkeeper in Cleveland he laid the foundation for his now great fortune by putting into operation a very old but positive law of success.

He wasn't satisfied with a $9.00 per week salary. He naturally wanted more—but he had only one pair of hands—and one head. So he saved AND PUT MONEY TO WORK for him—his savings. Then he had TWO incomes—instead of one.

Two incomes are better than one. Your wage, salary or crop profit may be fine—but when money comes to you in the form of interest—as well as the other—then you are on the road to a comfortable old age.

TODAY is never too late to start a saving account.—It will pay you 3 per cent here.

BLONDE VAMP DISPLACES DARK HAIR LURES

Light Colors in Ascendancy Put Black Eyed Brunet on Shelf.

Has the vamp of the dark eyes, slicked black hair and long jade earrings lost her lure?

Has she been forced to take a back seat by her fairer rival—the decided blond?

It seems so, for the interesting party of the third part who gets most of the publicity when the cases of man vs. wife are aired in court these days is usually light haired and blue eyed.

Black Clad Vamp Gone.
No, as a breaker of hearts and a fomenter of domestic difficulties, the lady with the clinging black gown and the uplifted shoulder blade is taking the one two three.

In fact, says Joanne Engles, Broadway star, of Gotham, and a blond herself—

"The professional vamp was only a myth anyway. Cleopatra had red hair and, I imagine, quite a disposition. She'd have to have a nice disposition or the men wouldn't like her."

"If blonds seem to predominate over the affections of men I would attribute it to the fact that their dispositions are milder. If I were going to be a professional vamp, it would be something like this:

"Dress well.
"Be as brainy as you can.
"Be as beautiful as you can.
"Never, never, lose your temper.
"And give your jade earrings to the ashman."

Hope isn't lost.

But the dark haired vamp needn't give up all hope.

Dr. S. A. Tannenbaum, noted psycho analyst, comes to her rescue.

"If we could get a complete list of vampires through all history," he says, "we would probably find that it is 60-60 between the blonds and brunets."

"At different times one or the other of these colors would be in favor. The vamp would adopt the popular style."

"These women want to keep up with the latest in their makeup, dress and appeal."

"Light colors seem to be in the ascendancy now, so we have the predominance of blonds."

"But the color has little to do with their lure."

Constipation.
Constipation of the bowels is a stoppage of the sewerage system that removes waste matter from the body. It is as necessary that your bowels move regularly once each day, to carry off this waste, as it is that the waste pipes of your home be kept open and carry off the waste from the house. If you would enjoy good health, keep your bowels regular by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed.—Adv.

BERTHA

BERTHA, signifying bright, has an extraordinary ecclesiastical flavor. In old German chronicles the feast of Theophania is translated by a word meaning brightened night, and the root of that word is "bertha." How persha, or bertha, became an individual character is too involved for space here, but it is sufficient to say that Persha, or Bertha, was a sacred being, called, in an old Aesopian poem, the mild Bertha, in whose honor all young farmers dance, ring cattle bells and blow whistles throughout the night of the feast.

She is pictured as an old, white-haired woman, with a long nose, who creeps into nurseries and comforts the children neglected by their nurses. In other stories, she is used as a figure of terror to frighten children and is the avenger of idle spinners. Frau Bertha is undoubtedly the impersonation of the Epiphany, though there is an effort to connect her with the old mythical Huld, and other etymologists believe her to be another name for the Goddess Freya, wife of Odin.

One of the most famous Berthas was the wife of Peleus and mother of Charlemagne, known as "Bertha aux grands pieds." Another Bertha of historical fame was her daughter, sister of Charlemagne and wife of Orlando, who, being in great want, supported herself spinning until her son won recognition from his powerful uncle.

Because of Queen Bertha of Switzerland, the name has always been very popular there. It has also had great vogue in England since the Norman conquest, and even before that time it was in use, having named the daughter of Chilperic, king of Paris, and wife of Ethelbert of Kent, who smoothed the way for St. Augustine's mission. It is used quite commonly in France and Germany, and in Dante's time was so frequent in Italy that he places Monna Bertha with Ser Martino as the chief of the gossips. Southerly gave it additional vogue in England by so-called one of his heroines, and it even penetrated Greece by the marriage of a German princess of that name to a Greek emperor.

Bertha's talismanic stone is the beryl, which is said to keep its wearer amiable and with inconquerable charm. Wearing a beryl will reawaken love in married people. Sunday is her lucky day and 2 her lucky number. (© by the Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

His Opinion.
Smithers—I see by the paper that they caught a girl on a freight train dressed in masculine attire.

Ben-Peck—That's what I call a wolf in sheep's clothing.

Thieves aphoned 100 gallons of kerosene out of a tank, which supplies the engines in the Sunfield Municipal lighting plant and almost caused the town to be thrown into darkness.

Floyd Osborn received burns on his face while lighting a fire in a stove at a garage in Albion. He used motor oil to heaten the flames and the resulting explosion threw the flames into his face.

The Port Huron council, Knights of Columbus purchased a site in the business section of the city, on which will be erected a three-story building, combining stores and lodge rooms.

The first auto show ever held in Owasco will be given by the Shiawassee County Automobile association, from January 12 to 16.

HUMOR AND PATHOS
BLENDED IN "MY BOY."

"My Boy," an Associated First National attraction which is scheduled to star a two day run at the Princess Theatre, Wednesday and Thursday, is one of the most fascinating stories ever shown on the screen.

The star of the production is Jackie Coogan, made famous through his work with Charlie Chaplin in "The Kid" and as a star in his own right in "Peck's Bad Boy."

Pathos and humor have been skillfully blended by the director into a production that grips the heart and compels one to return to the theatre to see the picture again.

As an orphan, who has arrived in New York, friendless and homeless, Jackie makes an appealing figure.

The story, written especially for him, furnishes this little star with a part that fits him to perfection and allows him full sway to demonstrate that he possesses exceptional histrionic ability.

Claude Dillingwater and Mathilda Brundage are in the supporting cast.

At the Princess Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 10 and 11.

We swear off on New Year and after that we swear off and on.

CATARRAH DEAFNESS
Is greatly relieved by constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a constitutional remedy. Catarrh of the ear is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and assisting Nature in restoring normal conditions. Circulars free. All Druggists. THE CHURCHLESS CHURCH

THE title of this article ought to convey greater truth than perhaps the space will permit me to express.

We are speaking of churches that have lost their church position, have become cheap, second rate, inefficient, and have dropped into the rut of the cheapness of the world to get the attention of man. The church that has to make itself cheap in any way to induce people to attend its services has lost its churchness and the cheaper it makes itself the more disgusted people become and the less they attend it.

Take the publicity of some of the ministers. The very titles of their sermons are disgusting. They do not know how to write the advertisement. They do not know how to put a title to their sermons. The titles do not convey the subject matter of their would-be discourses; consequently, the titles are frauds, the advertisements are false, and the church becomes cheap and loses its churchness.

The church constantly bragging, threatening, coaxing, begging, pleading, advertising, has reached the low level of the cheap, vulgar world. The slang and loose language often heard from the pulpit as well as seen in the advertisements cheapen the church.

The man who says that the public would rather sing jazz than hymns has libeled the public, perjured himself for the purpose of cheapening the church. People want to hear the hymns. They want a dignified service. They want the gospel. They want the church to come back into her own and take her dignified place.

There is no subject on earth that will hold the people like the doctrine of the vicarious atonement, the blood of Jesus Christ, the only means of salvation. God save the churchless churches of the country.

NOTICE LIMA TAX PAYERS.
