Timely Discussions of various facts that may interest you.

What do you say about getting the old football logs out and getting ready for that season.

If this weather continues much longer we will know that the seasons have changed and that the North Pole must have come south a good many miles.

It's past the middle of May and we still have to have a furnace fire to keep from shivering to death.

And frosts at this time of the year in no way welcome callers.

Chelsea had her first tent show of the season the other night and despite a fair sized crowd were there, neither all get their money's worth an individual matter but those that can't wait until the next one and what luck they have.

Over in Stockbridge the Village Board put a notice in the paper warning the people as follows: "If you keep a dog, know where it is, or there have been several complaints.

Not that that isn't all right, but about a chain on a dog, how are you going to know where he is, and even if you will not be sure. If an order is put out in Chelsea like that, the dog sound would have to be called to do their duty.

The tower clock is going to stop very soon unless some kind souls descend to go up and wind it. The war committee have resigned.

Charlie Sweeney and his wife Elizabeth have been married fifty years, all that time have been employed by day, side by side, in a mill in Easton, Me. Mrs. Sweeney arises at 6 o'clock in the morning, and calls her husband an hour later, so that she may be ready for work at 6 o'clock. Speaking of their young ones of a half century ago, they say were sweethearts then, and are "hearts now". Well, the first three years, etc.

Wish the housewives hold out on a boycott on sugar their husbands may have to cut down on the cost of violation of the 18th amendment this year. Sugar will go but not if the sugar profiteers help it. Supply and demand as an economist would say.

According to reports in some of the papers most of the townships had here have had the rats exterminated. One woman from this place says that she believes it must be because she has not seen any rats long time. Neither have I.

There are funny things sometimes, can twist them to do what is and again they can be made abused. In the case of the sales who were going to Canada a salute over the grave of a dead member, the enforcement of law certainly was carried to the prevention of the fire arms cartridges being brought into that town on such an occasion would make most people good and mad.

A little girl in Chicago was afraid home after losing $10 with which she supposed to have purchased an order. So she wandered the loop district and was found on some steps near the Auditorium, and persons there made a purse of $10 for her to take. That isn't a bad idea either, some of us weren't too weak losing $10 we might try the

KATHRYN HOOKER, PROMINENT RESIDENT, DIES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

MANAGED MILLINERY BUSINESS IN CHELSEA FOR MANY YEARS

In the death of Kathryn H. Hooker, which occurred at Maplehurst hospital Friday morning, May 18, Chelsea mourns the loss of one of its life long residents.

Kathryn Hooker was born in Chelsea and was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fisher Hooker. For about 30 years Mrs. F. Hooker conducted a millinery shop and at her death, her daughter continued the business, also making a home for her father until about 2 years ago when she sold her business, and of late was employed as trimmer at Mack & Co's., Ann Arbor. Illness causing her to resign a short time ago. She was taken to Maplehurst hospital where she could receive the proper care and attention.

Kathryn Hooker was one of the best known and most respected residents of Chelsea. Her unselfish character and many talents surrounded her with a large circle of friends. She was known for her practical ability, absolute sincerity and broad hospitality. Every case of need that was brought to her attention was alleviated not only by kind words but also by practical help. Her time and her talents were at the disposal of every good cause. Her place, her personality and her influence will be greatly missed by all. Her Christianity was that of practicality which was seen in business uprightness and in openhearted charity. Kathryn Hooker is survived by one sister, Mrs. J. C. Higgins of Muscadine, California, three nieces and one nephew in California and one niece, Merry Shaw of Ypsilanti, who was with Miss Hooker until the time of her death. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, May 20th, from the home. Burial at Oak Grove cemetery.

Just the day before Mr. Klingler had thrown his ticket away and someone else had picked it up for him. He was much elated over his winning the set.

TALES OF METHUSALEH (Special)

Listen, my son, and I will tell thee a wondrous tale of my wanderings through Jazzland.

It chanced that I strayed into a magnificent heathen temple of worship, that the natives dedicated to the great God, Movic. Like unto a palace was this wondrous temple and filled with silent worshippers. Some moved their lips as if reciting the prayers that were magically inscribed on a silver screen. Others carried away by their religious zeal spoke them out loud.

Presently lights flared up and a man whom they called manager stepped upon the stage. "Ladies and gentlemen," said he, "in the audience here is a man with some other man's wife. Her husband is outside with a gun. A man of peace am I and desiring to avoid bloodshed and scandal I will permit the couple to leave by the back door.

"Thinketh thou this is an old story? Nay—save thy snorls, my son, for this is yet another manager of another temple in another town from that thou knoweth about. Hear what befell—

No sooner had the manager spoken when a multitude arose—clamoring for the exit, and in the zeal to avoid bloodshed—seven persons were killed in the rush to get out.

PNEUMONIA FATAL TO GEORGE GOULD

George Jay Gould, the American financier, who has been ill at Cap Martin, near here for some time died at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning in Mentone, France.

Mr. Gould was stricken with pneumonia at his villa on March 20. For several days his condition remained critical but he rallied and on April 3 was said to be out of danger. Three weeks later, however, he suffered a relapse and on May 3 took a turn for the worse.

The end came peacefully. Mr. Gould's wife and two children were at his bedside.

Mrs. J. Howard Boyd and Mrs. Earl Updike were in Ann Arbor Thursday.

Mrs. Lewis Hayes and Mrs. Herman Hayes and daughter, were in Jackson Thursday.

Mrs. E. D. Brown and son returned to their home here the first of the week after spending some time with relatives in Cleveland.

Miss Jessie Everett was a Jackson visitor, Tuesday.

Women with natural curls are apt to have a few kinks in their dispositions.

One sign of wealth, these days, is to be able to stay at home in summer without exciting comment.

TRIBUNE SMILES

Bizards are like bananas. They come in bunches and they "ay" heavily.

Men with short memories should not make long promises.

Reforming, like charity, should begin at home.

Even sensible men like to nibble atattery once in a while.

Too much pie is apt to make a man more crusty than pious.

An orator ought to be a man of his word.

A shrewd man may be both wise and honest, but the odds dare against his being either.

When our caller says, "Now let's get down to business," he is usually going to propose something you don't want to hear.

PLANS ARE MADE MEMORIAL DAY

Joint Meeting of W. R. C. and American Legion Committees.

A meeting was held last evening of the committees of the Woman's Relief Corp. and the American Legion in the Legion club rooms where plans were discussed for the Memorial Day celebration.

Vance Ogden is chairman for the day and has charge of the program, and Mrs. N. Dancer is chairman of the W. R. C. committee. Appointments were made to look after the various particulars for the celebration and an extensive program and service will be held.

From the sentiments expressed it is thought that the program will be held in the afternoon in place of the morning as has been the custom during the past couple years. Complete announcements will be made a little later, when everything has been decided upon.

The Chelsea band will play at the services both in town and at the grave. The services in town will probably be held in the town hall, and the school children will also participate in the program. Further announcements will be made in the next issue of the Tribune, and all are requested to watch for it.

Through a mistake in proof reading the time of the evening shows here was misprinted and also the evening prices. The mistake resting entirely with the paper.

People in the community were indeed fortunate to have this wonderful production brought here. The management of the Princess are planning on securing several more of the prominent screen productions in the near future for the benefit of their patrons.

OUR POLICIES

Let us all get together for a bigger and better Chelsea. A sewerage system for Chelsea. A building program that is bound to build.

COST OF CURIOSITY.

A railroad man figures out that it costs 24 cents to stop a freight train going five miles an hour. Wear and tear and overhead increase with speed of the train when brakes are thrown, reaching $1.44 as the cost of stopping when running 15 miles an hour.

Far off, in Sweden, Dr. Svante Arrhenius, astronomer, estimates that our sun 86 billion years from now will be shining on our earth as brightly and warmly as now.

The human body is chained to earth, but its brain is exploring the universe. Curiosity is back of it all, with nothing too big or too little to be worth investigating. What is your brain most interested in now?

TALKING BY MEN.

Women talk more than men, says Dr. A. A. Brill, the psychoanalyst, John W. Raper, humorist, suggests that Brill should attend a session of the United States senate, which might change his view.

If women really do talk more than men, it's because custom and courtesy make it easier for them to get an audience. Only reason the average person ever listens to anyone else's talk is because he knows it'll soon be his turn.

The chief thing that keeps Europe from returning to normal is that most of its politicians are primarily interested in talking to the galleries.

OUR GRANDPARENTS DAY.

Inland cities in April and May will celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the first trip of a steamboat on the Mississippi.

The orators will concentrate their eloquence in comparing 1923 with 1823. We certainly have progressed on a stupendous scale in the last century. But a lot of the progress has been backward not forward. The only achievement that can really be called progress is one that makes people better and happier.

On the average, are we as sensible and contented as our great great grandparents.

THE BOY COOK.

Massachusetts offered a prize for the state championship in bread baking. Francis E. Days, 16, high school senior, wins the prize. How did he beat out the girls? By experimentally baking 436 loaves of bread, until he produced the prize winner.

The most interesting angle of this story is the picture of Days. He's a husky chap, looks more like a football fullback than a chef. Read this to son if he fears he'd be a sissy to help mother with the dishes, window washing or other house chores. There isn't much manhood in a chap who lets ma do the heavy work and dodges helping her on lighter tasks.

LIKE SOME STORIES YOU HEAR.

Rodger rushed over to our house the other night, out of breath, so excited he could hardly get the words out: "Hurry, I've got China tuned in—a Chink delivering a speech."

We followed him on the run. The Chinese speech turned out to be a mixture of static and Morse code interference. Remindful of a lot of stories you hear.

WOMEN GOSSIPS AND MEN.

A prominent society woman in an eastern city, accused of gossiping maliciously and falsely about another woman, is sued for $10,000 damages. The charge is slander.

Not mentioning any names, but if the slander laws were rigidly enforced, we wonder how many women would be in jail or paying heavy fines. Probably as many men as women. Men gossip as much as women, but more to the point and less lingering on details.

If the Chicago man who paid $20,000 for a kiss asks us we know where they cost one ice cream soda.

Bobbed hair may come and bobbed hair may go, but making hairpins uses up 25,000 tons of steel yearly.

Even tho the Chinese New Year is in February, they are much more than six weeks behind the times.

In Reading, (Pa.) about 600 gallons of booze was seized in one raid. Reading maketh a full man.

Among the modern home inconveniences are gas heaters, around which is no place to spit.

Trying to pronounce Tutankhamen has increased the number of stutters in this country.

George Washington was the father of his country and Johnny Rockefeller is its rich uncle.

Every man should have a dog to cuss when he misplaces his slippers.

Turks have made marriage compulsory. Another Turkish atrocity.

WHISPERS

Hail, memory, hail! in all thy exhaustless mine, From age to age unnumbered treasures shine; Thought and her shadowy brood thy call obey, And place and time are subject to thy sway! Lull'd in the countless chambers of the brain, Our thoughts are link'd by many a hidden chain, Awake but one, and lo, what myriads rise! Each stamp its image as the other flies. Rogers.

PEGGY'S CORNER.

Please may I introduce myself. I am Peggy—and although they have given this corner to me it belongs to you, dear housewife, and oh! I do so want you to feel that it is your corner. Dad, brother and sister, yes, and even granddaddy may read it, but—it is your very own. Be sure and hunt me out every issue and I will try to fill my corner with things of interest to you. At the head there will always be one recipe, and we might co-operate in that in this way, if you have a "pet" rule in something your family is especially like, send it to "Peggie," Tribune office, Chelsea, Michigan, or if there is some recipe you would like, ask for it, or any household problem. I will do my best in trying to solve it for you. My recipe for today is for left over meat. This is a good supper dish.

Grind meat, ham, veal or any left-over meat, mix with small amount of salad dressing. Have slice of bread spread with small amount of butter. Then spread mixture. Fold bread and dip in egg which has been beaten. Fry on both sides in spider with hot fat. Serve hot.

CAPTAIN SAZARAC

Charles Tenney Jackson

A TALE of old New Orleans this, in the days when fair ladies were still the cause of duels at sunrise, when young bloods of French and Spanish regime blithely gambled away their last penny at Maspero's.

Mr. Jackson does his bit toward bringing the historical romance back to popularity. His theme is one to inspire a writer, and he leaves nothing to be desired in the rendering of it.

As already proven in his earlier novels, he has steeped himself in not only the history but the atmosphere of those Homeric days when fearless, if often lawless, men were strengthening the life of the young Republic of the West, and the stories of whose deeds have a blood-stirring appeal which time but makes the stronger.

This Charming Romance Will Be Printed Serially in The Chelsea Tribune, beginning Tuesday, May 22

—But You Can't Ride on the Paint!

Imitation diamonds can be made to look so real and sparkle so brightly that it is difficult to tell them from the genuine. But try to sell one and you will find out its real worth in a flash. Same with automobiles. Weaknesses of construction in a closed car can be hidden, for a time, with paint and varnish and fancy fittings. But all is not quality that glitters. You can't ride on the paint. And when you place such a car in the second hand market, you suffer a heavy depreciation because it lacked real intrinsic value at the outset. Use will never improve a mediocre product. The second hand floor is the melting pot for automobile values. Cars are stripped of artificial values and only inherent worth counts. Motor car owners tell us that the trade-in value of any Studebaker car at the end of three or four or five years of useful life is greater than on any other car built today—the percentage of depreciation is the lowest. No wonder the Studebaker Light-Six Sedan is the fastest selling quality Sedan in the world! The name Studebaker stands for quality, durability, comfort and integrity.

One of the last bills to pass the Legislature before adjournment was the American Legion's bill providing for an appropriation of not more than $25,000 each of the next two years for the equipment of the Legion's home at Otter Lake, in Lapeer county, for orphaned children of former service men. The home, which was damaged by fire last week, and which was first reported to be a total loss, was valued at more than $80,000 and is a gift to Michigan's war orphans from the counties of Lapeer and Tuscola, and the seventh district of the Michigan Legion.

The Western Confer- ence annual outdoor meet will be held these two days at the University of Michigan and practically all of the athletes who have established new records this year will compete at the meet.

Charles Brookins, hurdler of the University of Iowa, is counted as a sure winner in the 220-yard low hur- dles. WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH MARY?

Have you mothers ever stopped to think that the most serious thing might be Mary's mother? A pretty hard thing to say of any girl's mother, but let's look at the facts. Mary, of course, is the much discussed, pink-checked, until recently bobbed-haired, short-skirted young miss known as "the flapper." Taken as a class she may be a vain, entirely too sophisticated, smart young lady who thinks she knows better than her elders. But taken as the little girl who has grown up next door, or in the corner house across the street, she's just Mary, "a nice child really, it's her mother's fault she's so useless." How about your Mary? Have you given anybody the right to say that of your daughter? Have you brought her up to be an "ornament to society," or can she do the things that need to be done in every home in the land? If your Mary can cook a palatable meal, make her own simple dresses, and keep a business-like account of her allowance, she is not useless. And if, through your neglect and example, she has learned to take a genuine pride and interest in the practical business of living efficiently as well as joyously, then not only her husband but the future generation will rise up to call you blessed.

Lumbago. This is a rheumatism of the muscles of the back. It comes on suddenly and is quite painful. Every movement aggravates the disease. Go to bed, keep quiet and have Chamberlain's Liniment applied and a quick recovery may be expected. Mrs. F. J. Dunn, Brockport, N. Y., writes: "I can honestly say that Chamberlain's Liniment cured me of lumbago a year ago last summer. When I began using it, I was flat on my back in bed and could not turn to the left or right. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment in the house and this was applied to my back. It promptly drove away the pains and aches."--Adv.
