"Bellevue No. 10 Spreader"

It is our desire that the "Bellevue No. 10 Spreader" set a new standard of satisfaction. We positively know it will create surprise rather than disappointment, when placed in operation by the most exacting farmers. This surprise will be brought about not only by the excellent work it performs in thoroughly diffusing, scattering and spreading the manure over a wide area, but by the unusual strength of its design and general construction and by the care exercised in assembling and finishing. We feel perfectly safe in claiming it to be the best all-around spreader on the market from points of efficiency, workmanship, materials and finish.

We have just received a car of Genuine Oliver Chilled Plows and Repairs. It always pays to buy the genuine parts—they cost no more and always fit.

MARSHAL WM. ATKINSON ROUNDS UP BURGLARS

Attempted Entrance to Henry H. Fenn Drug Store Drives Unsuccessful and Landa, Outlaw Couple in County Jail.

Wm. Cathel, aged 21, and Walter Cathel, 32, brothers, were arrested here early Tuesday morning by Marshal Wm. Atkinson and Deputy Sheriff L. C. Palmer, after an unsuccessful attempt had been made to enter the Fenn drug store on South Main street. Captured by the marshal and deputy sheriff about 4:30 on Tuesday morning the pair were immediately taken to Ann Arbor and turned over to the sheriff. At the hearing held Wednesday morning a signed confession of guilt was secured from both and they were remanded to the county jail to await trial.

According to report of the capture as given the Standard by Marshal Atkinson, he discovered the pair attempting an entrance at the rear door of the drug store about four o'clock on Tuesday morning. Seeking to make sure the burglars did not escape through the exit while he entered the marshal called Deputy Palmer and together the two traced the outlaws, who had left the drug store in the meantime, to the McKune house on South Main street where they had hastily gone to their room and to bed. Having been tracked in the newly fallen snow there was no question in the minds of the officers as to the right parties and with very few preliminaries the couple were loaded into an automobile and taken to Ann Arbor where they were safely lodged in jail.

Evidence that the burglars had the Fenn store spotted was found in the fact that a window in the rear of Schneider's grocery had been broken and when the mistake was discovered they proceeded one door to the north and made an effort to enter the Fenn grocery. From there they went one door farther north and forced the lock on the outer door of the drug store. According to the story told authorities the outlaws were afraid to force the inner door to the drug store because they knew occupants in upstairs apartments over the store might be awakened by the noise. It was at this time and during the brief absence of the marshal when he notified Deputy Palmer that the two men escaped up the alley and by a circuitous route landed in their bed at the McKune house.

According to their story told at Ann Arbor Wednesday the men had been visitors at Chelsea frequently and were quite familiar with the interior of the Fenn store. They gave their home as Chicago.

FLOYD WARD PASSES AWAY SATURDAY NIGHT AT DETROIT

Native of Chelsea Succumbs to Relapse Following Operation Performed Two Weeks Ago at Harper Hospital.

Relatives, friends and acquaintances here were shocked on Sunday to learn of the sudden death at Harper hospital, Detroit, of Floyd Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ward of Chelsea. Mr. Ward, who had undergone an operation for hernia about two weeks ago and was thought to be well on the road to recovery, unexpectedly suffered a relapse on Saturday evening between nine and ten o'clock and passed away before either a physician or members of his family could reach his bedside.

Mr. Ward was well known in Chelsea and vicinity where he was born May 17, 1881, and where he passed the early years of his life, residing at the home of his parents until he attained his majority when, after finishing his studies at the local high school and three years study under Prof. Marshal Pease, vocalist, of Detroit, he traveled for six years with an opera company as baritone soloist. Following this period he settled in Detroit where he has since resided.

At the time of his death the deceased was employed by Dodge Brothers Motor company, a position which he had held for the past seven years. For two years past he has been a member of a quartet choir singing at the Highland Park Congregational church. Radio concert work has also been a part of Mr. Ward's musical efforts he having been heard a number of times by friends here during the past few months.

Mr. Ward was united in marriage to Mrs. Jessie Jones, at Detroit, in June, 1920.

Surviving, beside the widow and one son, are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ward, a sister, Miss Florence Ward, at home, and a number of other relatives along with a host of friends both here and in Detroit who mourn the passing of a valued associate and friend.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at the late home in Detroit. Rev. Sweet, pastor of the Highland Park Congregational church, officiating. On Wednesday morning the remains were brought to Chelsea and placed in the vault at Oak Grove cemetery. Short services were conducted at the cemetery here by Rev. E. L. Sutherland of Chelsea.

AGED COUPLE OBSERVE SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Ladies' Aid Society and Cavanaugh Lake Grange Meet Jointly to Honor Aged Sylvan Township Couple.

On Wednesday, February 6, about 70 members of the Ladies' Aid Society of Salem M. E. church and Cavanaugh Lake Grange met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Richards, in Sylvan, in honor of the 60th wedding anniversary of Mrs. Richards' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Webber. A bountiful dinner was served at noon after which a program, in which the Ladies' Aid Society led, was given. Mrs. Geo. Heydlauff gave a very appropriate reading after which the Grange contributed their bit toward making the occasion an enjoyable one for the honored guests.

Mr. Dwight, a former member of the Grange and a former resident of Chelsea, gave a most interesting address on the life of the Grange. Other members of the Grange and Ladies' Aid Society were present. After the luncheon a social hour was held. Mr. and Mrs. Webber were presented with a beautiful plant by the ladies. Both Mr. and Mrs. Webber are well and happy.

TAX COLLECTOR WILL BE AT KEMPFF BANK

Married Persons With Income of $2,000 Must Make Out Reports. Single Persons Have Exemption of $1,000.

In a communication to The Standard received this week, W. J. Lourim, department collector for the internal revenue department states he will be at the Kempff Commercial & Savings Bank on Friday and Saturday of this week to assist local taxpayers in making out their returns for the year 1923.

If you are married and your income is $2,000 or more it is necessary that you file an income tax return. The fact that you are married and have children does not relieve you of this liability. Therefore, if your income is $2,000 or over you should file an income tax return even though your personal exemption and credits leaves no tax to pay.

If you are single and your income is $1,000 or more it is necessary that you file a return. The fact that you are allowed exemption as head of family, or exemption for support of one or two relatives, does not relieve you of this liability. Therefore, if your income is $1,000 or more you should file an income tax return.

AMERICAN LEGION LOSES

GAME TO SALINE MONDAY

Second Place in Southern Michigan Basket Ball League Won in Monday Night's Game.

Saline went into second place in the Southern Michigan Basket Ball League Monday night as a result of a victory over Chelsea, 40 to 17. Saline simply outclassed the Chelsea five, keeping a close tab on Brooks, star Chelsea center.

Saline led at the end of the first half, 18 to 5. Cook of Saline caged eight baskets from the field and assumed the lead in the individual scoring records of the league. The lineup: Saline—Cook, Tanner, C. Schoolmaster, Westphal, W. Schoolmaster, Schleh, Barkhart, Chelsea—Kaecher, Madden, H. Brooks, Schoenhals, Monroe, J. Eder. Referee: Rychnier.

Field goals: Kaecher 2, Madden 1, H. Brooks 2, J. Eder 1, Cook 8, Tanner 2, Schoolmaster 5, W. Schoolmaster 2. Free Throws: Kaecher 2, Madden 1, H. Brooks 2, C. Schoolmaster 1, W. Schoolmaster 4, Schleh 1. On Sunday, February 17 at 2 p.m. at St. Marys hall, the Chelsea-American Legion will play the Jackson Slipperies. The American Legion team has eleven games to play yet and surely hope they can have the support of the whole town for the rest of the season. Money is needed to back the team, to pay for a coach, traveling expenses, and rent of a hall. The only way they can get the money is to have a big crowd out to all of the games, and give the team the best support possible. It is expected a large crowd will witness Sundays game when the fast Jacksonites make an effort to carry home the scraps of the local players.

Editorial

DEPARTED KNIGHTHOOD

Gilbert K. Chesterton, British writer who satirized almost everything from love to liverwurst, pokes fun at the ease with which any crook with plenty of money can buy a knighthood in his homeland. The spirit, morals, high ideals, and nobility of the old knights are no more, he wails. He might add, neither are torture chambers and the stake.

Saying that knights are no more, however, is like berating the modern girl. Generalization like that is always dangerous and usually untrue. Man didn't abolish morals when he doffed the helmet, nor did his soul become defiled without protection of armor.

A fireman who saves another is a knight, as is he who helps a child find a penny, or lifts one end of a baby carriage for a woman at a curb. Few modern knights carry trumpets, nor would they be knights if they used them. Most knightly deeds remain unknown except to one or two grateful persons, and even these sometimes misunderstand and blame.

A knight need not be gaudy-plumaged; his good deeds need not be confined to aiding beautiful damsels; his reward need not be a gold-lipped sword. He is as noble in a worn suit as in evening clothes, and to a true knight the smile of a faded old woman is more beautiful than the seductive invitation of a coquette.

Modern knights need no round table at which to exploit their deeds. Their conscience is their confessor and rewarding king. They die as gloriously in a garret as others perished in the field, and are as sincerely mourned by as noble friends as any who fall stricken from chargers.

No, Sir Gilbert, knighthood is not dead, but lives and blooms in its perfect flower as in the days of King Arthur. There is less show, less grandeur, less public acclaim. But whenever you see a man being gentle with a woman, or fixing a child's toy, or holding his temper when others rile him, go home and reflect for you have seen a knight.

THE CHURCH AND THE RADIO

Small city pastors protest that congregations stay at home Sundays to hear radio sermons while their metropolitan brethren praise the wireless which can send the gospel into isolated homes and communities. Like every other invention, both good and evil are immediately discovered in it. Many still regard the automobile as a Satanic agent.

The Pope is the latest to recognize the advantage of speaking once to millions, and a broadcasting station is being erected at the Vatican. Naturally his voice will add weight to his message. The same is true over here. There are scores of ministers whose fame and weekly messages derive a far bigger audience than the few scores who can hear them. If they reach a hundred thousand instead of a hundred, who would dare suggest that they are wasting time? We have had many Sabbath slayers. The bicycle was one; the piano, phonograph, automobile, and movie have had their wheel at it. Yet Church and Sunday School still exist withal. The radio is having its turn. It is inconceivable that anything so imperfectly developed as wireless should keep any from church who really wanted to go. Bedtime stories waited on other waves can easily be surpassed in attraction by any pastor who realizes that, because man's nature demands religious impression and expression, something is radically wrong where worship is not made attractive.

ONE MUST BE CAREFUL

Mayor Hart, of Wilkes Barre, Pa., upheld a mob which broke up a meeting of Communists who convened to pay tribute to Lenin. It was charged that the Reds said things against our Constitution, and the mayor declared that henceforth the American Legion must consent to every public gathering.

The Communists to a man declared they said nothing disrespectful to this country, but the Legionnaires insisted that any Red gathering here was wrong, so the Reds must henceforth meet in secret and conduct their transactions out of the public eyes.

The demand for restored free speech may involve action by the Governor of Pennsylvania and several organizations. It revives an old question which must be settled as an individual problem in each case, it seems. For on one hand we have our Constitution guaranteeing and encouraging free speech, and on the other is society—which means an organization wherein the acts of any individual or group affect the rest. We cannot follow our Constitution literally; bedlam would follow. We cannot say offhand that theories we don't like, to which we're not accustomed, must be silenced. We must think always of the larger body, yet recognizing that any individual or group, no matter how different from us, has rights as sacred as ours. It is when we know for sure that society is being harmed, not merely taught a new theory, that we apply the silencing force. And just as we guard our speech, we must be careful what we do.

Klumpp for the past five years. Mr. Klumpp and family having decided to move to town. By all indications there will be several vacant farms in this vicinity this season and if farming conditions do not change for the better very soon there will be a lot more farms vacant as farmers are getting tired of working for a mere living.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor of Ann Arbor, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller Tuesday.

Saturday of last week about fifty of the relatives of Mrs. Philip Schweinfurth met at her home to help her celebrate her 74th birthday. All wished her many more returns of the event. Rev. Schweinfurth, her pastor, gave a very interesting talk and the day was spent in visiting and singing.

THE NEVER-DO-WELL FILMED IN PANAMA

Sparing no expense to provide a proper setting for Thomas Meighan's latest Paramount picture, "The Never-Do-Well," Director Alfred E. Green took his company of players to Panama where the principal scenes of the photoplay, based on Rex Beach's celebrated novel, were filmed. The company spent six weeks in the Canal Zone, the result being a picture of extreme interest and novelty.

Scenes for the picture, which will be shown at the Princess Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, February 20 and 21, were made in Panama City, Colon, in the Canal Zone and on the island of Tobago. Among the interesting places used were the ruins of Old Panama, which was destroyed in 1625 by Morgan, the pirate; the old Cherokee prison, famous in early Spanish history of the country, and the celebrated Union Club. Scenes of the Panama Canal locks were filmed both from the aid by Government planes and from ships passing through the locks.

On the return trip the company spent two days in Costa Rica, visiting San Jose, a mountain resort, where the most beautiful Spanish women in the world are said to live. While in Costa Rica a baseball team, composed of members of the Paramount company with Alfred Green as pitcher, played two games of baseball with the city team, winning one and losing one game.

In Panama the Paramount company was so well liked that the president of the Republic, Senor Parraz, entertained the members at a San Gocho, a native festival, and at the Panama race course the Thomas Meighan handicap was run and a Lila Lee cup was presented to the winning jockey.

Those who made the trip to Panama were Mr. and Mrs. Meighan, Director Alfred E. Green and Mrs. Green, Lila Lee and her father and mother, Gertrude Astor, Sid Smith, John Miltner, Laurence Wheat, Jules Cowles, George O'Brien, Ernest Haller, William Miller, E. Pfizmaier, Don O'Brien, Herman Doering, Ed Ellis, George Cheneple and George Hinners.

NERVOUS & HALF-SICK WOMEN

Relieved by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

(These Three Letters Prove It)

Lowell, Mass.—I am sending you a few lines to let you know what good your medicine has done for me. I want you to let every one know that it has helped me in nervous troubles. I have four children and you know there is a lot to do where children are. They would come in from school and they would start telling me about their little troubles but I could not stand it. I had to send them away. I could not even walk on the street alone I was so nervous. I found one of your books and read it and then I saw in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I got it and had taken one bottle when I saw a change in myself. I was surprised. The children can talk all they want to now and it does not bother me. I am still taking the Vegetable Compound. —Mrs. JOSEPH LAMANA, 64 South Street, Lowell, Mass.

Felt Like A New Woman
Springfield, Missouri.—"For four or five months I was run-down, nervous, my back ached and I did not feel like doing a thing. Sometimes my legs ached and felt like they would break and I had a burning in my sides. I had been reading in the newspapers the letters of other women who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the advertising of it appealed to me so I bought some and saw results in a few days." —Mrs. MARY E. SANDY, 438 W. Franklin Street, Hagerstown, Md.

Not Interested
"When you found you hadn't your share did the conductor make you get off and wait?" asked the inquisitive man.
"Only get off," was the sad reply.
"He didn't seem to care whether I walked or sat down."

most no time. I had hardly been able to do my own work and after taking the Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman. I recommend it to my friends who have troubles like I did, and hope they will find the same results. —Mrs. M. CARPENTER, 607 W. Chase Street, Springfield, Missouri.

40 Years Old, Feels Like 20
Hagerstown, Md.—"I was very bad off with backache, a bearing-down feeling in my body and a pain in my left side. I could not be on my feet at times and once I was so bad I walked bent over to one side for three weeks. My sister read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got me a bottle. I got so much relief that I took more until I was well. I am 40 years old and feel like 20. I am sure this medicine will help all women." —Mrs. MARY E. SANDY, 438 W. Franklin Street, Hagerstown, Md.

Over 100,000 women have so far replied to our question. "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?" 98 per cent of these replies are "Yes." That means that 98 out of every 100 women who take this medicine for the ailments for which it is recommended are benefited by it. All druggists are having increased sales of this medicine.

Given a job in a machine shop, he quickly proved himself a skilled mechanic, although he does not remember ever having worked at the trade. He appears to be between thirty and forty years of age.

TEST BY TEST

Villainage
Villainage was a system of land tenure introduced into England after the Norman Conquest (1066 A. D.) whereby the occupants of the soil were kept in a condition of servitude and were permitted to hold land only on condition of performing menial services for their lord and superior. Such persons were called villains (of or pertaining to the vill), whence is derived the common English word villain. Villenage, although never formally abolished in England, ceased to exist in the sixteenth century.

Yes, Why Not?
"If the world's chemists and the world's engineers would hold annual meetings in a friendly spirit, for the salvation of mankind! If they could agree together that to exercise their ingenuity on the perfecting of destructive agents for the use of governments was a crime; to take money for it a betrayal of their species! If we could have such exchange of international thought as that, then indeed we might hear the rustle of salvation's wings. And after all—why not?" —John Gale worthy.

It is unfair that a dumb creature like a cat should have nine lives, while an intelligent pedestrian has only one.

An Amazing Fact

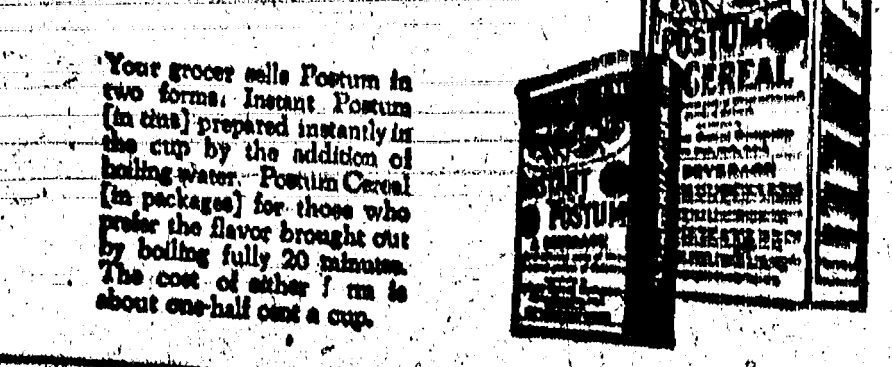

To many people it may seem incredible that a habit so common as coffee-drinking can be harmful. Yet if your doctor were to enumerate the common causes of indigestion, headache, and run-down condition, he would be likely to mention coffee.

If you are troubled with insomnia, nervousness, or are inclined to be high-strung, try Postum in place of coffee for thirty days, and note the difference in the way you feel, and how much better you sleep.

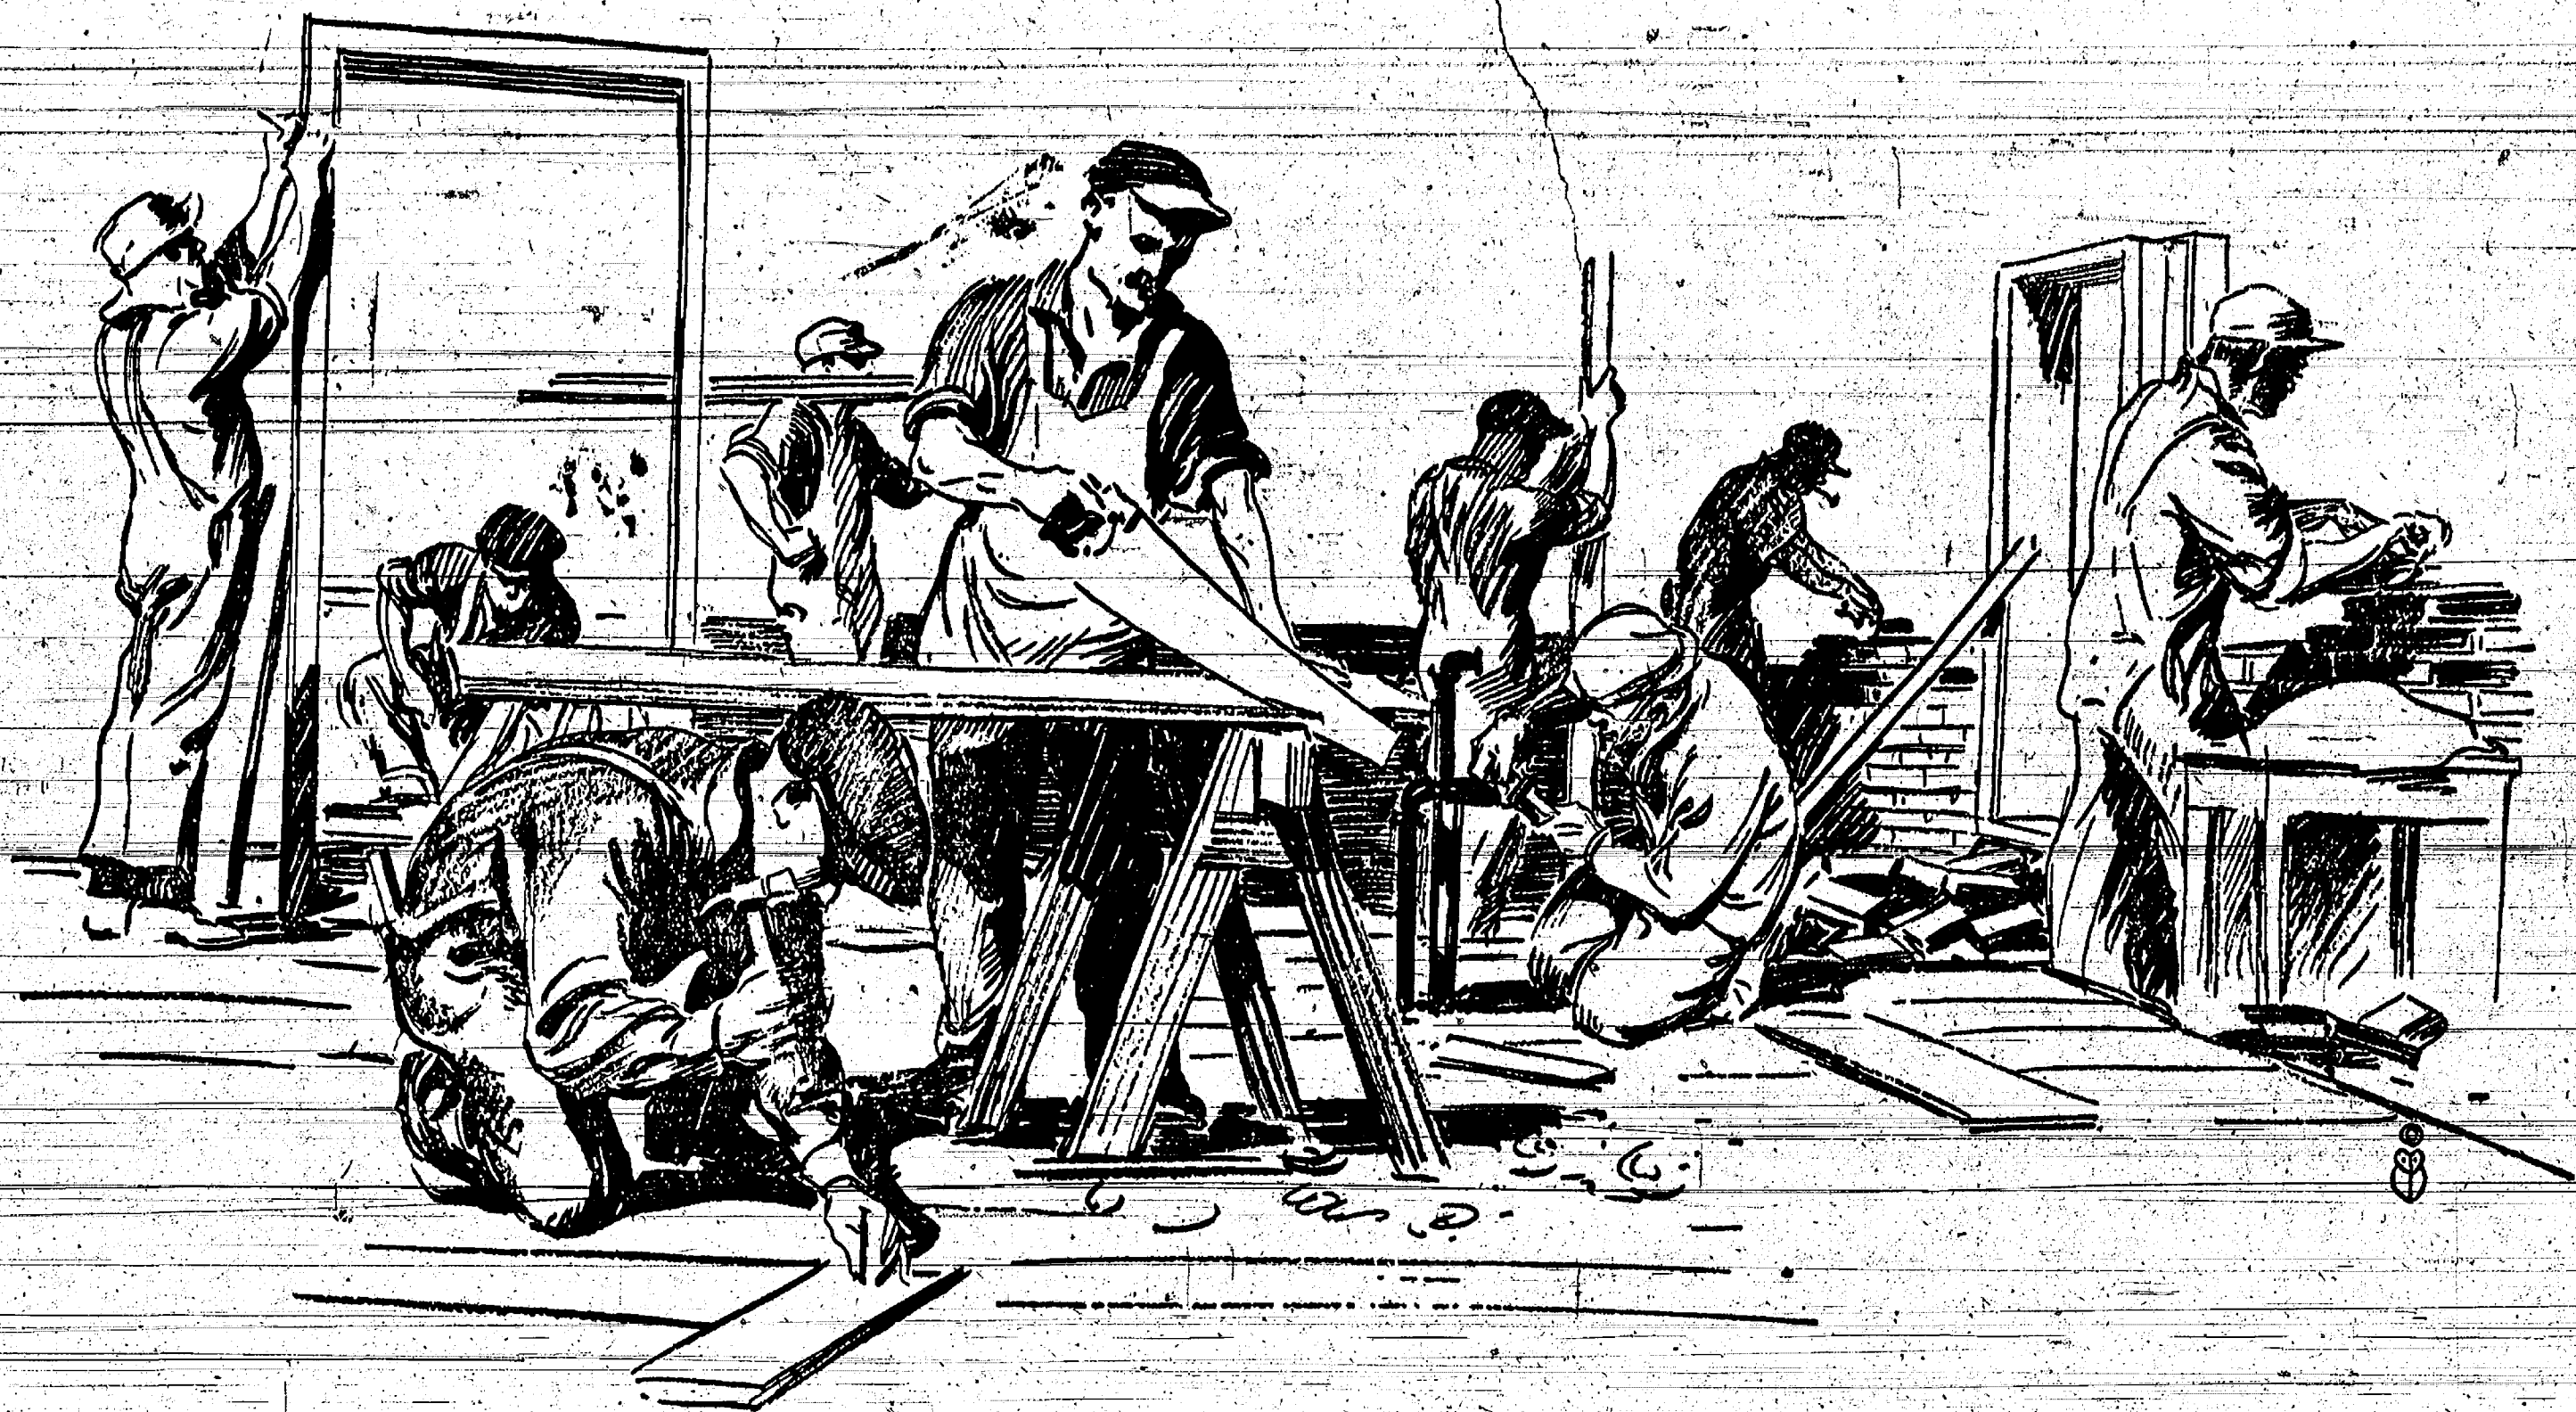

Postum is a pure cereal beverage, absolutely free from caffeine, or any harmful drug.

Postum for Health

"There's a Reason"

Your grocer sells Postum in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages) for those who prefer the flavor brought out by boiling fully 20 minutes. The cost of either 7 ms is about one-half cent a cup.

WHOLE-HEARTED CO-OPERATION with those who help you, and DETERMINATION to attain greater comforts and education

Those are the materials of which GREAT COMMUNITIES ARE BUILT.

Of these--"Good Will toward your neighbor" has a significant meaning. It means not only having a kind word and a smile for him at all times, but it means--ACTUALLY HELPING HIM. He'll do the same for you, thus creating the Spirit so absolutely essential to the Progressive Community

Yes there is another interpretation to that clause. It lies in cultivating that form of neighborliness that comes with PATRONIZING YOUR HOME MERCHANTS. In doing so, you help them to become stronger and, therefore, better able to serve you more economically and Efficiently.

FEB. 22 LAST DAY OF ESSAY WRITING CONTESTS

Large Number Contestants Turning in Essays on Washington's Experiences During Winter at Valley Forge.

Notification is given by the Kempt Commercial & Savings Bank that on February 22, Washington's birthday, all essays on the subject "In the Hour of Trial" must be in the hands of officers of the bank so that decision may be made as to the winners in the contests.

It is hoped that all pupils will study that famous Moran-estendar picture, a copy of which is hanging in every public school classroom. Surely none of them can neglect this fine opportunity of winning a prize. For a brief essay of 600 words or less on the condition of the early American Army and the defeats that led to victory and the final Great Victory can surely be written by any boy or girl who is taking best advantage of the teachings offered by our public and parochial schools.

Before the judges decide upon the prize winners, it would pay all contestants as well as every non-contestant, old or young, to make another searching study of that famous calendar picture. See what that eventful period meant to the brave ancestors, and what Faith accomplished for the little army of only 11,000 poorly fed, half clothed, suffering American men.

The public may be interested to know that the names of the prize winners will be published in the Standard, and if possible, the winning essays in full.

Judges who will pass on the merits of the essays submitted have been announced as follows:

For the rural school contests: Mrs. Barbara Allen Dewey and Mrs. Jennie M. Keach, address, 443 So. Division St., Telephone 1284-M, Ann Arbor.

For the village public schools: Miss Josephine Hoppe, and Miss Cornelia M. Keach, both of Ann Arbor.

For the parochial schools: Geo. P. Staffan, and Vincent Burg, both of Chelsea.

"Lost—A Chumney," staged by students of Michigan Center high school at Friday night here on Tuesday evening, proved to be quite entertaining and drew a much better audience than that present. From an audience standpoint, it pleased the folks in attendance, providing many a laugh during the playing. Speeches between acts deserved special mention for their snappy and pep, the best of these numbers being put on by two girls, eighth graders, who brought down the house with their character songs and dances. CHELSEA HIGH WINS DOUBLE-HEADER FRIDAY

Boys Win 15-9 and Girls 22-13 in Speedy Games at Sylvan Town Hall Friday Evening.

In two of the fastest games played here this year Chelsea High defeated the fast Dexter high school basketball teams with decisive scores last Friday night. The boys displayed the fastest passing game they have yet been able to produce. Determination, coupled with excellent playing, put the boys on the long end of a 15-9 score. The boys got a good start and piled up a considerable lead in the first half, the score at that time being 8-2. Poor foul shooting was the main weakness of the Dexter boys while they could not muster up defense enough to stop the fast Chelsea boys.

Eighteen personal fouls were called during the game. Mayer and Schairer were the chief offenders, both being put out on "personals" in the final quarter. Withrell capably filled Mayer's position.

Summary:
Chelsea 15
Kinner f, Dexter 9
Mayer f, Walsh f
Brooks c, Schairer f
White c, Beard c
Vogel g, Slayton g
Ernest g

Substitutions: Withrell for Mayer, Casey for Schairer, Blanchard for Beard.

Field goals: Kinner 1, Brooks 3, Walsh 1, Schairer 1, Blanchard 1.

Four goals: Mayer 1, Withrell 3, Brooks 2, Vogel 1, Walsh 1, Schairer 1, Slayton 1.

Referee: Yakey.

The girls lived up to their reputation and decisively trounced the Dexter girls to the tune of 22-13. A decided improvement in the girls' playing was shown over the past few games. They took an early lead holding the Dexter girls scoreless in the first half. The score at the end of the first half was 8 to 0. The defense weakened somewhat in the latter period, the Dexter girls ringing up thirteen points to the local's fourteen. Foul shooting was a decided weakness of both teams.

Score and summary:
Chelsea 22
Ellsworth f, Dexter 13
Wolman f, Cushing f
King c, Beard f
Graham c, Withrell f
Auderson g, Slayton g
Brooks g, Ernest g

Field goals: Ellsworth 4, Wolman 3, Graham 1, Cushing 2, Withrell 1.

Foul shots: Wolman, Beard, Withrell, Yakey.

Fights during the high school games have a curious engagement with nature. Everyone is urged to go and support the team. It is reported the Dallas teams have strengthened their line-ups.

TIPS FOR TAXPAYERS

Losses arising from fires, storms, shipwreck, or "other casualty"—for example, a flood or frost—whether or not connected with the taxpayer's business, may be deducted from gross income in his 1923 income-tax return. If his home or automobile is destroyed by fire, the loss is deductible for the year in which it occurred.

Loss of property by theft or burglary is an allowable deduction and need not be incurred in trade or business. A loss for embezzlement is also deductible.

All losses are deductible only to the extent by which they are not compensated for by insurance or otherwise.

REDECORATING COURT

HOUSE ROOMS

Workmen have started redecorating the second floor of the county building. This work was authorized at the fall meeting of the county board of supervisors.

The electric wiring on the second floor never has been enclosed and electricians are going over this, eliminating the unnecessary wires and making changes where needed as well as placing all wires in tubes. As soon as they have finished the plumbers will start in on the redecorating.

The first floor of the building was redecorated last year but it was thought best to wait until this year before starting in on the second floor. The building has not been redecorated for about 20 years, according to county officials.

Wilson Buried as All the World Except Germany and Italy Mourns.

WOODROW WILSON'S death

The services for Mr. Wilson in his home were private, attended only by President Coolidge and the relatives and close friends. Then, through the silent city the funeral procession moved slowly to Mount St. Albans, where stands the unfinished Protestant Episcopal cathedral. In the Bethlehem chapel gathered a throng of notable personalities of this and other countries, and all about the altar and the casket were heaped the many floral wreaths, shields, and clusters that expressed the sorrow of nations and organizations and individuals. The casket was carried in by three soldiers, three sailors and two marines—the same men who bore the coffin of President Harding last August. Among the honorary pall bearers were former associates of Woodrow Wilson in college and in official life. Bishop Freeman conducted the simple services, the choir sang as recessional "The strife is o'er, the battle done, the victory of life is won; the song of triumph is begun." Then, after the chapel had slowly emptied, a slab in the aisle was raised and the casket was lowered into the vault beneath, accompanied by the members of the faculty. Mrs. Wilson entered in a crypt, and as the final part of the Latin service was recited there came from without the music of the hymn "O God, our Father," which was sounded by Staff Sergeant Withey of the Third cavalry, on the same bugle he used in sounding trumpet at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier on Armistice day of 1921. The casket was echoed by another bugle far across at the shrine at Arlington.

MAKE WORK EASIER

Chelsea People Are Pleased to Learn How It Has Been Done.

It's pretty hard to attend to duties with a constantly aching back. With annoying urinary disorders, Doan's Pills have made work easier. So thousands have gratefully testified.

They're for bad backs.

They're for weak kidneys.

Chelsea people gratefully recommend Doan's. Ask your neighbor! Mrs. E. Hooker, N. East St., Chelsea, says: "I was in bad shape with kidney trouble brought on by hard work. There were times when I could hardly get about because of the sharp, shooting pains across my back and many a night I was kept awake with my back. I was so dizzy I had to catch hold of something for fear of falling, and I felt tired and nervous which interfered greatly with my work. I read about Doan's Pills and went to Freeman's Drug Store and got two boxes. After using them I was better."
