RAILROAD CONSOLIDATION
The arrangements of harmony for operating the American railroads while the federal government had them in charge, resulted in some good in the way of the use of terminals, the use of lines, to shorten hauls, and other union arrangements. The policy was sufficiently appealing to commend itself to railroad owners, and a general policy of consolidation and grouping has been talked of ever since. The Interstate Commerce Commission has advocated such consolidations.

The first big consolidation proposed is now up for final disposition. That would combine the old Nickel Plate, the Erie, the Pere Marquette and the Chesapeake & Ohio.

This is not a regional grouping such as has been recommended by the Interstate Commerce Commission for the better service of the public, but seems to be a financial linking up of some old unprosperous roads, with some of the more prosperous lines, and smacks a little of the financial rather than the service aim.

The Chesapeake & Ohio, a rich, prosperous road has a large minority stockholders' interest which is trying to prevent that system being taken into the combination, and their claims seem to be well grounded. The railroads are not sufficiently out of the woods now that they can afford to risk such scandals as resulted from some of the old methods of Jay Gould, and later from Harriman, who looked to their own interests instead of the interests of the public when combining rail properties.

The railroads passed through a very serious financial storm just before America entered the World war, and many people think the war saved them from complete bankruptcy. They are not sufficiently removed from that black cloud to undertake something new that would start a national scandal and react on all railroads.

WELFARE WORK
Wicked as New York City is conceded to be, she spends a large amount of money annually for welfare work. The city budget in an average year carries $31,678,984 for welfare work paid out of public funds. Private hospitals, charities and other organizations spend another $48,550,000 every year for welfare work.

It has been the aim of the bigger, broader-minded men who have to do with New York affairs to make it the model city of the world for its accomplishments in aiding such things as are counted among the items of human progress, better living conditions, and the uplift of humanity.

If such progress may be noted in dollars and cents, New York is accomplishing that.

RADIUM GAS
The Middlesex hospital, one of England's great institutions for the study of remedies and the application of disease treatments, has announced the discovery and confinement of "Radium Gas." Up to the present of the three rays, alpha, beta and gamma, known to be given out by radium, only the gamma rays have been used.

The discovery of Radium gas, which is confined in bottles no larger than a human hair, the gas is distributed to patients suffering from cancer, and the treatment is reported to be accomplishing benefits.

THE TRIAL OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT AGAINST THE LOANERS OF THE TROPIC
The trial of the case of the United States government against the loaners of the Tropic Dome oil reserve seems to have been more or less of a tempest in a teapot.

When the United States Senate had the matter under investigation, the public gathered that the government had been deprived of large and valuable oil holdings without proper compensation.

The trial would indicate that there was at least a question as to the wisdom of making the leases, and allowing the oil to be taken from the ground by private corporations.

AN UNJUST TAX
There should be no consideration of tax reduction that does not provide for the elimination entirely of unjust taxes.
The American people in February this year, paid the government $5,683,362.33 for the privilege of buying automobiles. The automobile has come to be as prime a necessity as anything we buy, with the possible exception of food and clothing. The industry is among the very first in our country. It employs millions of people at good pay. There is no reason why any American citizen should pay a tax to the government for the privilege of buying a thing that is a necessity, manufactured by an industry that contributes more than any other to our national prosperity.

A tax reduction bill that doesn't eliminate the whole tax on automobile sales should not meet with the favor of the American people.

A CONSTRUCTIVE GENIUS
The death of Newman Erb, in New York City last week, removed one of the greatest constructive geniuses in the railroad world.

Erb, coming to America from Germany, a small boy with no special life, compelled to learn a strange language and gain an education in it, accumulated a vast amount of wealth, became an English scholar, and left a record of constructive work behind him that few men have left.

Men have risen from time to time, and climbed through the wreckage of fortunes of stockholders of great transportation lines, to the throne of railroad rule. Newman Erb took hold of railroads that needed—consequently, income and prosperity, and he gave them all these. He not only made himself, but the stockholders prosperous.

It is such men as Newman Erb who have contributed most to the great growth, development and prosperity of America.

GERMANY REDUCES WAR DEBTS
The German government has made public its new Revaluation Law, which repudiates nearly all the pre-war debts of Germany. The new act proposes to issue bonds payable in gold marks, to the value of $500,000,000 for the surrender of 70,000,000 marks worth of bonds and securities held by German and foreigners prior to the World war.

These are in Federal, State and Municipal bonds, and would wipe out all old obligations with the new bond issue.

Such a proposal has been long promised, and long expected. While it has the appearance of being a drastic repudiation, it is, as a matter of fact, paying something for nothing. The bonds the government proposes to replace with gold bonds, became worthless with the depreciation of the mark and the destruction of values through the inflation which inundated Germany two years ago.

This ought to put Germany once more on a solid footing.

The manufacture of "pure Scotch Whiskey" for sale in prohibition America is reported to be a growing industry in almost every European country, and its ingredients contain everything from potato whiskey to wood alcohol. The danger of poisoning is so great that it should deter those who would drink these unknown concoctions, even if the law is not to be respected.

Premier Mussolini is growing to be as mysterious as Trotsky of Russia was awhile back. One group of American newspapers has Mussolini dying with cancer one day, and the next another group has him speaking to a group of his followers showing his old-time pep. It is a case of "your guess is as good as mine."

The crop of Chorus girls in England must be heavy. A chorus girl, appearing bare-legged in a musical production, was bitten on the calf by a dog. The jury awarded damages of $330. A Jersey calf would be considered worth more in our country.

Green Grocer
"Have you any nice fresh eggs today?" asked the breezy customer. "Madam," answered the man who had just started in the grocery business, "permit me to remind you that fresh eggs are necessarily fresh and fresh eggs are necessarily fresh. I have any I have them today. My possession of eggs yesterday or tomorrow does not affect the situation, therefore."

"Humph!" snorted the woman as she started for the door, "eggs are not the only fresh things in this store. I'll do my trading elsewhere."—Boston Transcript.

Blessings of Quarantine
I wish to thank the city authorities for quarantining my family and me recently for three weeks because one of our family had smallpox. During that time my wife caught up with her sewing. We had three square meals every day. As no one came in and she was not permitted to leave, we enjoyed three weeks of good nights' sleep, and best of all, a cousin with four children, who had arranged to visit us, saw the smallpox sign on the door and left town so scared that she will never come back again.

The above letter of thanks was received by a city health department recently.—From Hygeia.

Suspicious Confirmed
The story is told of an engraver in the government printing shops at Washington who, at the time the first $50 yellowback gold certificates were issued received his salary in these new bills and decided to take a short trip to New York.

When paying his hotel bill in New York he handed the clerk one of the yellowbacks, whereupon the clerk turned it over several times, then refused to accept it, as he could not accept it, saying that he had never seen such a bill and thought it of no value.

"Why," said the engraver, "of course it's good. I made it myself just last week."

"That's what I thought," returned the clerk as he rang for the house detective.—Forbes Magazine.

Submarines
There are a number of things which make a submarine stay at varying depths in the water. First, this depends upon the size and weight of the boat; second, the density and condition of the water; and third, the mechanism of the boat. Some are built to go deeper than others. The coast submarines are constructed so as to stay at a more shallow depth. Seagoing submarines are constructed so as to remain at a depth of from 200 to 300 feet.

Immense Statue
J. W. McSpadden in his book on American sculptors says that to carve such a huge figure as the statue of Lincoln in the Lincoln memorial from a single block would be impossible.

Twenty-eight blocks of Georgia marble, perfect and without fissures or seams, were used in creating this statue. The total mass measured over 1,000 cubic feet. The statue weighs 270 tons.

Care Needed to Keep Plants in Good Health
Gardeners are occasionally asked to inspect unhealthy window plants and to advise concerning their treatment. Very often it is found that the ill health of the plant is due to mistaken kindness on the part of the owner. For instance, it is deluged with water day after day, with the result that the soil turns sour and the plant becomes moribund.

Another not infrequent cause of trouble may be traced to erratic watering; that is, daily attention for a time and then a period of forgetfulness, during which the unhappy plant receives no moisture, says Gardening Illustrated. A third cause is not uncommonly traceable to the fact that the plant is placed directly in a draft. It is not, as many suppose, the easiest matter in the world to keep window plants in good health, and it is only by patient attention and close observation that the cultivator learns the exact requirements—the likes and dislikes—of individual varieties. Careful watering, occasional weak doses of stimulants and, in the case of aspidistras and other fine-foliated plants, occasional spongings of the leaves, will go far toward success in the case of most plants.

Camouflaged
A woman carrying something wrapped carefully in a blanket entered a Pittsburgh street car. No seat being available, she stood before an elderly woman, who evidently thinking it was a baby in the blanket, gave the other woman her seat. The woman with the large bundle sat down. After riding several blocks, she carefully turned back the folds of the blanket and disclosed the face of a black dog.

History of Lace
Lace was first made in the sixteenth century. Before that time the term lace described such articles as cords, narrow braids of platted and twisted threads, used not only to fasten shoes, sleeves and corsets together, but also in a decorative manner to braid the hair and to wind around hats. Later it was used as a trimming for costumes.

Bacilli
The longest bacillus recorded is about 1.500 of an inch long and 1.500 of an inch wide, while the smallest known form has an average size of 1.50,000 of an inch by 1.125,000.

Arithmetic's Origin
Mathematics as a science made first definite appearance among Egyptians. There are evidences of antiquity among the Chinese, the and Babylonians, but the earliest records of considerable mathematical progress are found in Egypt, give an interesting view of the science as early as part of the third millennium Christ.

OVERDRAFTS
The practice of overdrawing one's bank account is both unwise and unjust. It lowers the depositor's credit, because every time he overdraws his account, it simply means that he is using money that does not belong to him. This complicates book-keeping and is an attempt to borrow money from the bank without interest.
Overdrafts are unbusinesslike as well as unfair. Doing away with this practice will benefit the depositor and the bank alike.
Won't you help us do away with overdrafts in this, your bank? Keeping your balance here growing will do it.

As they neared a corner a car drove in from the left in front of Mr. Wuerthner's car, causing him to turn onto another street. The car skidded and struck a curb, smashing two wheels, but an iron watering tank kept the car from overturning.

Manchester—In the early days when a farmer came to town with a grist to be ground at the mill he went to the store and bought a few smoked herring, a hunk of cheese and a scoopful of crackers and sat by the stove to eat them for his noonday lunch. That is about what the farmer will have to do here in Manchester now—oh, no he will not, for we have no mill. Neither have we a hotel nor a restaurant. Ain't we primitive!—Enterprise.

Ypsilanti—Police were called early Sunday morning to investigate the suspicious actions of a couple of young men who had parked a large touring car near the Free Methodist church. The men were alone in the car and gave satisfactory reasons for their actions and were not held by the police. The car answered the description of one that Ann Arbor officials had asked Ypsilanti officers to be on the lookout for. It bore a Michigan license, however, and the one wanted has an Ohio license.—Record.

Eaton Rapids—On a motion made by H. O. Miller, the board of education voted at recent meeting to petition the City Commission to insist on the rigid enforcement of the anti-cigarette law prohibiting the sale of cigarettes to minors. It has been found that the smoking of cigarettes has been increasing at a dangerous rate among junior and senior high school boys. This has resulted in the serious curtailment of the mental and physical efficiency of the boys so addicted with the habit. Scholarship is suffering.—Review.

Earlier in the day they had short changed merchants in Blissfield and Britton. They were brought back to Clinton, identified by Marie Ferguson and taken to Adrian. They gave their names as William Loree of Detroit and Eugene Cole of Pontiac.—Local.

Howell—On Friday evening last while H. H. Darrock, foreman at the Borden Co. Condensed Milk factory of Howell, was raking his lawn he noticed what appeared to be a peculiar looking article lying on the lawn and on examination discovered it to be a shammy pouch containing about fifteen hundred dollars worth of notes, the property of Margaret J. Dean, which was taken from her the night she was waylaid and robbed a few weeks ago, and was discarded by the holdup man as it was of no value to him. The purse he took from her the same night was found shortly after the holdup in the same part of the city.—Republican.

Howell—Ezra Hertzler, a twenty year old boy residing near Long Lake, in Genoa, has confessed to setting the Earl school house on fire the night of February 27, also to burning the Ellis D. Miller tenant house last November. Hertzler is pronounced by physicians to be a pyromaniac, and set the fires just because he enjoyed watching them burn. In all he has admitted setting eight fires in the vicinity of his home which is near the Earl school house in Genoa. Among these are several brush fires which have caused much damage and loss of property in wood lots.—Democrat.

Grass Lake—The town hall was destroyed by fire about 1 o'clock last Thursday afternoon. The loss to the township is about $5,000, and is partially covered by insurance. The Palmer-Rowe Co. garage was also damaged. The fire is supposed to have started from a rubbish pile that was burning in the rear of the town hall.—News.

Names for Nautical Fare

The sailor resembles the quick order restaurant waiter in that he invariably has a pet name for articles of diet. Salt beef, that standby of the menu at sea, was known during the Nineteenth century as "junk," "old horse," "salt horse" or "salt junk." It was responsible, held one writer of sea stories, for the mahogany complexion of sailors, which was commonly attributed to a combination of rum and the weather. A stew answered to the name of "tobacco," and was made of salt beef, biscuits and potatoes, seasoned highly with pepper. A dish of cold fish and potatoes was labeled "twice-laid," while a pudding of dried peas boiled in a cloth was welcomed by the sailors under the name of "dog's body." Ship biscuits were even then called "hardtack," while soft, white bread was christened "soft tack" or "soft tommy."

Where London Is Dry

Mason—Following a conference between city and railroad officials held here recently with representatives of the state utilities commission present, an order has been issued by the state body that within ninety days the Michigan Central Railroad company shall install a flashlight signal system at the Columbia street crossing to warn the public of the approach of trains during the hours when watchman service is not furnished. Permission is also given the railroad company to install the same system at Jefferson street crossing, the latter to operate day and night and relieve the crossing of the present watchman service, both orders being received by Mayor Harry J. Bond Tuesday morning. The order is dated March 27.—News.

WEBSTER MAN ACCIDENTALLY FATALITY WOUNDS NEIGHBOR

Frank Thomas, about 40 years old, died early Monday morning at an Ann Arbor hospital as the result of an accidental shooting Sunday. In which a bullet from a German Luger revolver entered his forehead above the eye and embedded itself in the back of his skull.

Coroner Edwin E. Ganzhorn, with the prosecuting attorney and sheriff, decided the shooting was accidental and an inquest unnecessary. According to Coroner Ganzhorn, Thomas, who lived alone in Webster township, went to visit at the home of Gus Hanselman, also in Webster township. About 9 o'clock Sunday night, Hanselman took the revolver from a drawer to show his guest, believing it to be unloaded. The gun was discharged, the bullet entering Thomas' skull.

Thomas is survived by his mother and three sisters, who reside in Webberville. It is reported. The body was taken to the Muehligh undertaking parlors pending completion of funeral arrangements.

KODAK RESULTS

It is a waste of money, and a total loss of your time, and cherished pictures, if your kodak work is not done by an experienced photographer.

One who knows how to get the most from your exposed film, both in the development of your film, and finished prints. This you surely will not get when your kodak work is done by amateurs.

You may be offered developing of rolls free and a free enlargement thrown in besides, and then you are paying dear for what you get, as you are not sure of permanency, will be permanently ruined.

Before taking your kodak work anywhere, consider and weigh these facts, and if you want quality work, and permanency in your finished prints, we would be pleased to do your work, and at fair prices, for our labor—one cent cheaper per print than the Standard price.

Play safety first. Patronize your local photographer, where you know your work will be finished right.

We also carry Eastman Yellow Label Film, considered to be the best in the world. It costs no more than inferior film. But insures better results.

Optometry—Its Value To The Public

By A. E. Winaus & Son

How many different errors of vision are there?

The number is not great, though the VARIATIONS may amount to thousands. No two people have defects of the same degree and character.

That is why the closest attention must be given to every case?

Yes, the Optometrist grinds his lenses to the individual needs of the patient.

Name the principal defects of vision.

Far and Near-Sight and Astigmatism, and another condition caused by the steady ageing of the eyes.

Why is a person far-sighted?

Because the eyes are smaller than they should be. The degree of the far-sight depends upon the extent of the variation from normal.

Can a far-sighted person know he has the defect?

Not unless it is so extreme as to interfere with vision.

Then a person may suffer from far-sight and believe he has normal vision?

Yes, many (perhaps most) far-sighted persons have vision, especially distant vision, better than normal, so have no reason to believe they have an error of vision.

(To be continued next week)

STOP THAT ACNE!
Don't worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of that pain and lameness! Use Doan's Pills. Many Chelsea people have used them and know how effective they are. Here's a Chelsea case.

Mrs. P. Brower, McKinley St., says: "It has been some time since I used Doan's Pills but from past experience I feel justified in recommending them. My kidneys were weak and acted irregularly. My back had a weakness and soreness in it and I felt tired and drowsy. As one of my family had used Doan's Pills with good results I decided to try them and they helped me right away. The backaches left and my kidneys were regulated."

Explained by Doctor
Antitoxins are substances that work against or neutralize the toxins in any given case, and they are produced by the use of the bacteria of the toxins. These are injected into an animal, usually a horse, in increasing doses, until it becomes habituated to them and is no longer made ill by them. The immunity or resistance resides in the blood, which has now developed a defense mechanism against the poison.
The animal's blood is then drawn off in small quantities, filtered and purified. This blood is in turn injected into the blood of a man, where it exerts the same protecting influence against the particular toxin by which it was produced as it did in the horse. This is very briefly the nature and mode of operation of antitoxin serums.
The use of an antitoxin in diphtheria has already saved countless lives and has changed the once dreaded and fatal disease to a rather simple complaint, if diagnosed early and treated with antitoxin.
The discovery of the Dicks and of Ducheux promises to give the same result for scarlet fever, when methods originated only in 1924, are perfected for this particular disease.—Dr. Walter B. James in the Outlook.

"Prettiness" Makes No Appeal to Normal Boy
When nature hands on the good points of parents she invariably seems to be more generous to the boys than to the girls. Curly hair, long eyelashes and good complexion go to the boys more frequently than to the girls.
Notice the boys with natural "mascle" waves and curling eyelashes, and notice how they value them. A girl would be proud of them, but most men and boys are mortally ashamed to possess these advantages. They blush every time any one mentions eyelashes, while the curls are given frequent applications of water and hair lotion to restrain their wayward tendencies, says London Answers.
All this, while less fortunate sisters try vainly to play the coquette with scanty, sunny eyelashes, and spend a small fortune at the hairdresser's in an endeavor to take the likeness out of their untidy tresses!
Real Auburn tresses, too, are more often than not handed down to the boys. But there is one consolation. A girl thus endowed may refer to her tresses as "lilyan red," but a boy is never allowed to imagine that he is anything else but "ginger".

Cure for Blisters
Blisters, caused by the shoe rubbing the foot, develop into a real painful ulcer if they are not properly treated. Mr. Mann of Anytown learned.
It is picked, some disinfectant should be applied immediately. The best way to let the water out is to pass a bit of vaseline thread through the blister. When the blister is on the sole of the foot where the skin is thick, take a fine white thread and grease it well with borated or pure vaseline.
Thread a coarse needle and pass it through the blister from one end to the other. Cut the thread on each side and cover the spot with a bit of vaseline. Next day draw the thread out. The blister will be gone.
Blisters on the hand may be pricked with a needle and then covered with a layer of cotton one ounce, castor oil, eight grains, soft turpentine eight grains. Two or three coats are required.

Case on Guard
Wild geese are extremely wary, and take nothing for granted. While feeding they have a perfect system of sentries. Not content with this, every now and then two or three will fly round high up to see that nothing is even approaching them from a distance.
Their hearing is very acute, and it is said their sense of smell is also. Certainly, if they are approached down wind, they are up and away at once, even if the greatest care has been taken to keep out of sight.
They have a cry like a pack of hounds, which may have given rise to many of the legends of ghostly packs that are said to hunt an equally ghostly fox at night.

Teacher Blushed
It was a lesson on punctuation, and Jimmy was almost asleep at his desk. "Now," said the teacher, "if I say, 'I must leave, as I have an engagement.' By the way, what is the time? I place a 'dash' after 'engagement,' because the sentence is broken off abruptly." At that moment she caught sight of Jimmy.
"Now then, Jimmy, you are not listening. What was I saying?" she asked him.
"Please, Miss Smith," said Jimmy, with a start, "you were telling us you said 'dash' because your engagement was broken off abruptly!"

Wife Adds to His Fame
Hepplewhite was one of the eminent furniture finishers and designers who flourished under the reign of the Georges in England, and whose furniture was in vogue about the time of the American Revolution. When he died in 1788 his wife carried on his work and produced other pieces and original designs that were very popular for several decades. Much of the Hepplewhite work was done in mahogany and in light woods.

Expert Advice on How to Compose Love Poem
First of all, to compose a love poem it is necessary to know a few facts about the girl. Don't be alarmed—nothing intimate or risqué is useless. Color of eyes—hair—shape of mouth and general appearance are good facts to observe. The condition of teeth is another good point. However, it is not considered good form to pry open the mouth for a detailed inspection. This feat is another good point—if small—and the distance between the ankle and knee—only, however, if voluntarily exposed.
Next is to think of all the words that rhyme with "love." Incidentally don't forget that "you" and "true" are perfect rhymes. If you want to do the thing right it is better to borrow—or if you can't borrow, to buy, a rhyming dictionary which will give you words rhyming with "you," "evermore," "sweet," "passion" and others.
Write the poem with due precautions on the delicate questions of complexion and possible changes of color of hair. Pay some (but not too much) attention to neither extremities, as previously mentioned.
Revise the poem. Re-revise it. Copy it.
Stand up and read it aloud, with appropriate gestures, before your mirror.
Blush.
Tear it twice, once lengthwise and once across, and deposit the whole in a safe place.—From the Jester.

Water Is Literally Their Staff of Life
The most amazing race of human beings is undoubtedly the El Molo, a tribe of "fishmen" who inhabit the desert wastes bordering Lake Rudolf in Kenya colony, Africa. This tribe represents the only known specimens of semi-aquatic people and it is a curious fact that any tribesman does it he is kept without water for about three hours. As a rule they drink every hour during the day, for even an hour and a half without water causes cracking and bleeding of the lips, the nose, and throat.
The El Molo tribesmen spend their days swimming in the waters of Lake Rudolf and fishing from frail rafts constructed with palm branches. Fish is almost their only diet and they have no opportunity of varying their menu unless they are fortunate enough to spear a hippopotamus. The water of Lake Rudolf is undrinkable to anyone but the El Molo, for it contains a large quantity of soda and has an objectionable taste. The proportion of soda in that lake increases yearly, and it is believed to be this fact that has caused the "fishermen" to become a deformed race.

Man-Made World
"If I believed in change I would sketch a world where women would live upon shelves, shelves without ladders. One would take them down when one wanted them; they would be delighted to be taken down, clapping their little hands, cooing like babies, and yet understand one's deepest thoughts. One would also take them down in the morning to do the housework; at other times one would live sternly and bravely with other men as stern and brave, until one came to need again the women who would be said to those very expensive dolls who say 'Papa' and 'Mama' when you press a spring. When one got tired of their repertory one would send them to the shop to have a different repertory put in."—W. L. George in "The Triumph of Gallo."

The Gift Appropriate
"Your daughter," said Mrs. Oldcastle, after being conducted through the newly furnished wing of the magnificent palace occupied by the new-rich Bullingtons, "has such a splendid vocabulary."
"Do you think so?" her hostess replied. "Youth wanted to get her one of them scarves, but I made up my mind right at the start that a vocabulary would look better in a room furnished like hers, even if it didn't cost quite so much."

System Among Birds
Warblers, kinglets, chickadees, nuthatches and creepers while working through the branches in quest of tiny insect prey, keep up an insistent piping so that they need apply their sharp eyes only to the problem of catching game. Their ears tell them just where their nearest neighbor is located. In this way much confusion is avoided. A bird does not crowd upon his neighbor; he picks his territory to him and all the while he can keep in touch with his fellows.

Only in the Willows
A characteristic distinguishing the Willow family from practically all others is that both the pollen-bearing and the seed-producing flowers are arranged in drooping tassels, says "Habitat" from the American Nature association. Numerous other trees have their pollen-bearing flowers arranged in this fashion, but in no other family are the seed-producing flowers also grouped in this distinctive way.

Serving All Alike

We serve many customers at a loss. They use such a small amount of gas that were our business like others we would have good reason for dropping them from our books. But you can't do this in the gas business.

We must serve all alike—the cottage and the mansion, the rich man and the poor man.
And gas service must be of the same quality
and of the same price to all—except in special cases where very large quantities are used.

The gas business is thoroughly democratic.
Every customer is considered a good customer and treated as such. And we give just as careful consideration to the complaint received from the smallest customer as we do from the largest. That is the obligation of serving the public.

FORD DEALERS WILL GUARANTEE USED CARS

One of the most important steps
yet undertaken to protect used car purchasers and at the same time place the handling of such cars on a more business-like basis is the announcement by Mr. Edsel B. Ford, president of the Ford Motor Co., that operating under a company plan Ford dealers will hereafter place a guarantee upon used Ford cars disposed of by them.

The Ford Motor company is the first large automobile concern to take direct steps in the matter of used cars. Inasmuch as there are about as many Fords in operation in the country as all other makes combined, it is apparent that the action of the Ford Motor company will exert a wide influence on the marketing of used cars and in improving conditions generally in that phase of the automobile business.

"Every used Ford car represents so much transportation and is of value to someone," Mr. Ford said in his statement regarding the plan.
"The Ford dealer through his position and intimate knowledge of the car certainly is the best judge as to the value of this transportation—
the best to determine a price on the radiator the car may yet be expected to deliver—that is his business."

"With this advantage the Ford dealer is prepared to give his used car customers benefits not likely to be obtained elsewhere."

"If re-conditioning is necessary, he has the work done by trained Ford mechanics using improved equipment and genuine Ford parts, and with these economies and advantages he is able to offer the used car to the purchaser at low cost and with a guarantee covering its mechanical fitness."

The plan becomes effective at once and places a guarantee on used Ford cars purchased from authorized Ford dealers thereby insuring proper mechanical operation under ordinary driving conditions.

In assuming the direction and supervision of this plan to be carried out by its dealer organization, the Ford Motor company feels that it is embracing an opportunity to be of greater service to those who purchase used Ford cars.

BE A GOOD CITIZEN AND PLANT A TREE

It was Theodore Roosevelt who said in one of his masterly addresses on conservation: "People without children would face a hopeless future, and a country without trees is almost as helpless. When you help to preserve our forests or plant new ones you are acting the part of good citizens."

The State Department of Public Instruction of Lansing will this spring inaugurate a movement to conserve and beautify the great outdoors of Michigan. This movement will be introduced to the pupils of the schools, and it is hoped that the patrons will join in helping to make our State the most beautiful in the Union.

The week of April 27 has been set aside as a statewide clean-up, painting, and general planting week.
Plant a tree on Arbor Day, Saturday,
May 2. Every home owner has one or more places in the garden or at the edge of the service yard where fruit trees may be planted. As fruit trees are beautiful in bloom and bountiful in yield, two purposes are secured by using them for Arbor Day. Planting—beauty and food value.

eral days of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Rounde died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. K. Hadley, Friday evening, April 3rd.

The barn on the old Heatley farm,
which is owned by D. R. Atkinson, burned to the ground Wednesday afternoon, April 1st. The barn and contents were partially covered by insurance.

D. R. Atkinson was badly burned when trying to remove some of the contents from his barn, which burned
last week.

Lightning and Radio

Lightning is one of the causes of the
"static" that worries radio listeners.
In, though probably not the principal cause, as was formerly supposed, says Nature Magazine. While lightning flashes cause clicking noises in the receiver, the heavier and more troublesome rumbling sounds known as "grinders" are believed to be due to electrical disturbances in the upper atmosphere far above the level of the thunderstorm.

Times Have Changed

In the good old days, when a wagon broke down in the road we used to gather around it and put in several hours apiece inquiring how the contemplated repairs would be made, the tempers flared, sympathizing with the owner of the vehicle, and recalling the describing in the most minute detail sundry incidents of similar character which had transpired in the past. But nowadays when a motorcar blows out
a tire we go right on—eh-yah!—
Kansas City Star.

Color in the Household

Color has decided effect on the apparent size of a room. Light shades give an effect of space; also a distribution of colors will have this same effect; for example, a room with light walls and dark rugs and hangings will look larger than one done in dark color. Also a sense of space is created by using the same color on the walls of adjoining rooms.

Wooden Trays

Wooden trays, though labor-saving in the sense that they need no cleaning, are often marred by dishes and plates that are carried upon them. A tray marked in this way may be restored by gentle rubbing with warm linseed oil. Rub the oil in with a piece of cotton wool or some other equally absorbent material.

Old Nels

When Nels was a boy he was obliged to remove the feathers from the nest of eggs. Midway up the tree a nest of red field mice was sheltered from the blasts of winter. Near the top a big screech owl had taken up its abode. The strange neighbors had evidently been living peacefully
under the same roof-tree.

Guineas

In the days of the merchant adventurers the coins minted from the gold brought from territories—clustering around the Gulf of Guinea—were called "guineas," and they thus became as famous throughout the world as the Gold Coast itself.—Theodore Ruete in the Empire Review, London.

Child Health

depends upon

Protected Milk

Child Health Day is May first. Child Health programs extend throughout the month of May, but the actual protection of Child Health is with us every day in the year. Milk is the basis of all child feeding, but its healthfulness depends entirely upon its being kept properly cooled.

Few people realize how quickly milk spoils and just how important ice is to the proper protection of milk.

Milk protection is important for the adult as well as the child. Milk companies go to tremendous expense to keep milk well cooled until it reaches your door. Good health requires that this protection be continued in the home. By the all-year-round use of ice you can at slight cost make sure that the milk which reaches your doorstep in good condition will be served on your table with its natural fine flavor and health giving qualities.
