"CHEER UP, CHAD" PRESENTED BY SENIORS

Annual Play Makes Big Hit With
The Public: Other School
News.

Friday evening, before a packed house, members of the Senior Class of C. H. S. presented the Annual Senior Play, "Cheer Up, Chad." The play was one of the best that has ever been put on in Chelsea, most of the characters being particularly adapted to the roles carried. The players held the interest of the audience from the minute the first curtain rose, till the last one dropped.

The curtain rose on the office of the Barnett Company, the owner of which was to make his stately appearance on the same day. Very unexpectedly Chad Barnett (Jay Weinberg) entered by the side door. Susie (Luella Cox) the only "reception committee" present, presented him with some of Sadie's chocolates. Many things have probably started with a box of candy but never before has a mere box of chocolates plus a few well placed remarks, given a "raise" to a whole office force.

The second curtain rose on the living room in Sam Warren's home, in the country. Here several members of the office were having a vacation and with them was Chad and his friend Ramsey. Fullerton (Ralph Kinney) appeared, "Ram" became interested in politics, a phase of life which had never before interested him. However, in the last act, Chad succeeded in winning June to his side, in more ways than one, while Ram became interested in Sadie.

Before the end of the play "Widow Burton (Oleta Hutzler) was able to "rope in" Sam Warren (Clayton White), Vivian Westerman (Glen Gage), Lawyer Bunker (Charles McDaniel), and Dexter (Lloyd Heydlauff), served to complicate the plot. When the last curtain fell every one was happy, even Sam, who had reasons for being sad and cross.

Music between acts was furnished by the High School Orchestra, "The Like Club, and vocal selections by P. F. Niehaus.

It has been the plan that the grades should appear before the High School some time during the year.

Last week the third grade gave the program and this week the kindergarten, first and second grades entertained. The program was in charge of Nicolas Panattis. The program was as follows:

Kindergarten Band.
Nature Song—The Kindergarten.
The Birdie With a Yellow Bill—Four Kindergarten Children.
The Lullaby—Kindergarten.
Flag Exercise—First Grade.
Spring's Awakening—Second Grade.
The program was very interesting. The flag exercise helped to impress patriotism on all who saw the program.

The Senior Annual is well on its way. About half of the book will go to press this week. A new section is being added this year, an attraction which will interest the whole town. Several pages will be devoted to pictures of Chelsea, and a town booster.

GEORGE W. SIMMONS DIED AT U. OF M. HOSPITAL

George W. Simmons was born in Ionia, February 5, 1855, and died at the U. of M. hospital in Ann Arbor, Friday morning, May 8, 1925, following an illness of several weeks' duration.

STOCKBRIDGE MAN TAKES OWN LIFE SUNDAY

Roy DeWitt, of Stockbridge, about 40 years old, was found about 8 p. m. Sunday by his wife, hanging in the loft of the barn. The man had used wrapping twine to hang himself and a rope, which he evidently had thought of using and then discarded, was found on the floor near his body. No cause for his act can be determined by relatives and friends.

The widow and three children, two girls and a boy, all in school, are the survivors.

DeWitt worked in the Michigan Seating Company plant until it closed and since that time had been employed in the saw mill.

CONVICT ENJOYS TWO HOURS OF FREEDOM

Two short hours of freedom were ended for Vito Mangalpane, inmate of the Michigan State Prison, when after escaping from the State cement plant at Chelsea at 9:15 a. m. Monday, he was taken into custody by a Grass Lake constable at about 11 a. m. He was a passenger on a westbound interurban car when he was arrested at Grass Lake.

Mangalpane, who is serving a life term for first degree murder, was working in a clay bank outside the cement plant proper Monday morning and he simply walked away at the first opportunity. He was returned to the main prison at Jackson immediately after his capture.

The prisoner was sentenced from Detroit, February 11, 1921. He has a wife and four children residing in Wyandotte.

FLORENCE ABDON, FLOYD GENTNER MARRIED FRIDAY

AUTO RACES AT JACKSON ON SUNDAY, MAY 24

Jackson will be the scene of the first auto race of the season when twenty or more of the crack dirt track drivers clash there on Sunday, May 24th. Veterans and new-comers alike will circle the Jackson oval in quest of the day's laurels and the big event promises to be unusual in the realm of gasoline sport as indications point to a high entry list with the country's best topping the list of pilots entered. Jackson was selected for the initial race principally because of the splendid track, which that city boasts and the half mile speedway affords great possibilities for the many drivers who anxiously await the chance to try out their new cars and see the results of many months of toil that the driver spends on various new ideas received during the past year's experience. The length of the race will be 75 miles, considered by the speedway officials to be the best distance for a race on a half mile track and the same time hold all the thrills that are apparent in a short race. By the time entries close next week-end officials believe that there will be at least five states represented in the qualifying heats that will determine the actual starters for the feature event of May 24.

FARMERS' CLUB MEETING

Following is the program for the Farmers' Club meeting which will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Davis, Friday, May 15th:

Roll call—Responded to by Mother's Day Questions.
Solo—Mrs. Gilbert Clark.
Reading—Mrs. Elmer Smith.

Question for discussion—Does the woman who goes out into industry aid as much to the income as she loses by having to buy food, clothing and shelter, and can any mother really delegate to any other person even in a well organized and trained nursery school to take the place of her own job in training her children and what is the effect in the home where the mother works regularly at some outside task?

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC
Please do not dump any more automobile bodies on my lot near the cemetery.
Dr. G. W. Palmer.

SCHOOLS WILL RECEIVE $10,110,750 IN STATE

Public Utility Companies Valuation Increased in Nearly Every Instance; Ann Arbor Railroad Decreases.

Daily papers carrying the Associated Press leased wire service on Tuesday carried an article relative to the Primary School fund which is of general interest to every taxpayer in the state of Michigan. $10,110,750 will be available for the primary school fund, the figures being made public following completion of final valuations of the several utility companies throughout the state. The article says, in part:

The final valuations upon which the companies will be assessed were fixed following hearings on the tentative valuations announced by the commission some time ago. There was only approximately $5,000,000 out as the result of the protests of the utilities against the tentative figures. The total valuation was placed at $366,887,200. Last year the valuation was $352,272,050, which yielded a tax of $10,088,849.

Railroads will be the biggest contributors. Their combined valuation was placed at $284,873,000 as compared with $288,450,000 last year. The final valuation figures for some of the principal utilities are:

Michigan Central $94,425,000, as compared with $90,000,000 last year; Ann Arbor decreased from $7,800,000 to $7,000,000; Copper Range $3,000,000, same; Detroit, Toledo and Iron- ton, increased from $1,425,000 to $3,250,000; Pere Marquette increased from $36,750,000 to $38,300,000; Grand Trunk decreased from $35,615,000 to $29,065,000, principally because last year the D. G. H. & M. assessment of $7,500,000, which the supreme court ruled illegal, was in the Grand Trunk total; Michigan Bell Telephone company increased from $45,000,000 to $52,000,000.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN TO HOLD PROGRAM

The committee of women who have been conducting the Clothing Project during the past winter and the boys and girls enrolled in club work are planning a joint celebration at the County Fair Grounds, Saturday, May 23rd. The boys and girls will exhibit part of their work which they have done in their clubs during the winter. All winners in first, second, third, and fourth year Garment clubs will compete for county championship. County championships will also be selected from the boys winning in the local Handicraft clubs. The schools engaged in Hot Lunch clubs have been making a special study during the past winter and will have on display a large number of interesting and instructive posters, which the clubs have prepared.

The women who have been interested in the clothing project in the different townships are also planning to prepare an exhibit. All these exhibits will be displayed in the Merchants' Building on the fair grounds. Over 500 women have been interested in the Agricultural Extension Clothing Project which has been conducted during the past winter. A picnic dinner will be served at noon.

In the afternoon a very interesting program has been prepared consisting of games, songs and stunts by the boys and girls and women from the different groups. Addresses will be given by Dr. Eben Mumford, Professor of Rural Sociology, M. A. C.; Mrs. Louise Campbell, State Director of Home Economics Extension Work and A. G. Kettunen, State Boys' and Girls' club leader.

All those interested in this Extension Project are welcome to attend the Achievement Program May 23rd.

EXTENSION WORK BRIEFS

The appraiser for the Federal Land Bank, St. Paul, Minn., was in the county last week investigating a number of applications for farm loans. During the spring there has been considerable inquiry for these loans. Some have already been closed and a number are in the process of being completed.

O. J. Weisner of the M. A. C. Poultry Department will be in the county May 21st and 22nd to visit poultry demonstration farms.

The Freedom Big club held their second meeting Monday evening at the home of Wm. Uphaus. Freedom township. Roy Bartha, president of the club, had charge of the meeting. The county club agent was in attendance.

The Washtenaw Wool Growers Sheep club met at the home of Edward Buss of Freedom Tuesday evening, May 5th. Geo. Needham, president of the club, had charge of the meeting. Edwin Knapp and Wayne Clement read interesting articles on care and fitting of sheep for the fair.

"A BUNCH OF FUN"

The annual Junior play, entitled "A Bunch of Fun," will be given at the town hall on Friday evening, May 22.

Insane germs are in the air and Christina swallows a mouthfull. You can't afford to miss it, but watch out for Mary when she gets "flustered on occasions." If you think you are good at creating "scandal" for your home town preacher, you must see the way in which Mrs. Selma Blair handles it.
Don't forget—May 22.

When Better Automobiles Are Built, Buick Will Build Them

Question: Why does Buick use a one-piece front axle?

Answer: For safety and strength and care-free service. The Buick type is a one-piece, drop-forged I-beam. There are no brazed or welded parts to break off. In case of accident it can be easily straightened without the necessity of replacement. You can depend on a Buick axle.

OVER OPTIMISM IS DANGEROUS

President William E. Knox of the American Bankers' Association regards the recent set-back in wheat and stock prices as nothing more serious than a "deflation of over-optimism."

That is a good phrase and the result is a good thing. Over optimism is dangerous and when inflation can be brought about without danger it is an excellent thing to do. Let us hope there will be no more inflation of optimism to the danger point, but let us equally hope that there will be a maintenance of the enthusiasm which actual conditions inspire.

Method of Obtaining

New Plant From Old

A simple method of propagating the rubber plant, is by mossing. A branch is selected with ripe wood, or in the case of a lanky old plant with a long bare stem the top may be rooted and cut off. In either case making use of a cluster of leaves that will make a well-shaped young plant.

Make a slanting cut upward half way through the stem with a sharp knife. Slip a match or other small stick to hold the wound open. Then wrap moss around it. You can get a little sphagnum moss from any florist or seedman. It should make a knob about as big as one's fist. Tie it in place with string and keep it moist but not dripping wet. In a few weeks many new roots will have been formed just above the cut. Then the moss can be removed, the stem severed at a point below the roots and the plant potted in the usual way.

The operation is best performed in a room where the temperature remains at nearly 70 degrees and where there is considerable moisture in the air—in other words, the kitchen.

Precious Metals

Statisticians compile some enormous figures at times when they are seeking a total for something, as for instance the amount of gold and silver in circulation accounted for. They have set forth that the value of gold is, roughly speaking, $18,100,874,338, while the value of silver is about $18,206,918,158.

THE little old man set a cautious foot on the topmost step and let his face twist away with the pain of the climb, before he saw the slatternly figure standing at the head of the rickety stair.

"Sofsy, Mrs. Harraday," he said, "but it was you that guessed right after all when you—" He stopped there. The lady was not the only one waiting in the smudgy hall. He saw a head or two at nearly every door except his own. "Oh, you needn't have got me up a party," he exclaimed. "I told you I'd give up the room today if I didn't find a job!"

The woman's fat fingers clutched his wasted arm.

"Oh, Mr. Dicks," she whispered, "he's shot 'er! Why don't the police ever come?"

"What's that?" he asked in surprise.

A man, clad only in trousers and a red undershirt, came edging toward them. He stopped at arm's reach from a closed door and called harshly, "Come out o' that!"

In a moment he leaned and his fist struck the door a blow that was promptly answered by a shot from within.

The man in the red undershirt fled, hands vanishing, and doors slammed. Mrs. Harraday's stopping heels clattered down the stairs; but from below she looked back at the little old man left alone in the hall.

He stood quite still for a time; then she saw his face take on something like a smile, and he moved away. Hearing his limping step, she took courage and crept back. She saw him standing before the door in which a white flick now appeared, heart-high, in one of the panels, where he stopped and tried to peer through the newly made bullet-hole.

"Open up," he said gently, as he squinted. "Open up and come out!"

"Lord o' me!" Mrs. Harraday gasped. She put her two fat, grimy hands before her eyes, and turned away. She heard the old man's halting step on the bare floor before she dared to look again. She saw him go into his own room and return with a chair.

"Come out," he called, "or I'll be climbing in to get you!"

At last the old man got his leg through the transom and was squeezing himself under the open sash when a sergeant and two patrolmen came.

"Oh, officer!" Mrs. Harraday sobbed. "Such a deal for anyone to give a poor widow woman like me! As they only took the room a hour ago. Murder, not suicide, no! An old Mr. Dicks is goin' in to open up the door!"

One of the patrolmen mounted the chair and looked into the room. With a quick movement, he drew his gun.

"What is it, Dicky?" asked the sergeant, in a whisper.

The officer, with his eyes at the transom, waved back a warning. He saw a young man, chalk-white, crouching in a corner, a revolver held steadily before him. He saw an old man limp toward the crouching figure, swerve toward the single window to avoid stepping over a slippy, grayish heap on the floor, turn and stand as if waiting. Then, an open, slow-swinging hand hid two staring eyes for a moment as it landed against the white face.

The crouching youth straightened, slunk back, let the revolver fall.

Dicky, the patrolman on the chair, had shoved the barrel of his gun over the edge of the transom frame. He waited, then brought the weapon down. He eased himself to the floor and moved the chair aside. When the key in the lock turned, he sprang into the room.

After the ambulance surgeon had gone in, Dicky came out, notebook in hand.

"The woman's dead—murder, all right," he said. "Attempted suicide, too, mebbe—or I guess wrong!"

He looked sharply, rather wonderingly, at Dicky who, twisted and bent, stood leaning against the wall. The old man had his hat and his coat on now, and held a small bundle tightly under his arm.

"Singed stiff!" Dicky said to him. Dicks straightened.

"Rheumatism," he answered feebly. "Oh, was that it?" exclaimed the patrolman. "Well, I thought you was sure goin' to get cured! Him inside I meant was scared. Three shots left and he lost his nerve! Say, but rheumatism must be mighty bad! I was lookin' in the transom when you hit 'im."

"The old man glanced about in quick alarm.

Mrs. Harraday was bustling toward them.

"He can't be a witness!" she volunteered. "He wasn't here the time it happened!"

"No, I didn't see anything," Dicks quickly put in.

"Neither then did I, if you like," Dicky answered softly.

"And besides," the old man added, "I'm leaving."

"No, but you're not!" cried Mrs. Harraday. "You can stay right here now till you find a job."

"Oh, that's it!" bawled Dicky. "Well, you've got a job! See! You're a watchman—workin' right now for a d—n good friend of mine! Unless—"

He grinned. "It's workin' nights, pop. Mebby you might be scared!"

"The old man met him smile cheerily. "But I guess I'd better try—mebby it mightn't mind."

What are the Protestant Churches Coming to?

ARE YOU A PROTESTANT CHURCH MEMBER? Are you aware of the fact that American Protestantism is fast slipping from the rocky heights of true Bible faith? Do you know that scores of theological seminaries, where your future ministers are being trained, have ruled out an infallible Bible; that thousands of ministers are preaching a man-made gospel; and that literally hundreds of thousands of church members are being swept along by this ever-rising tide of "modernism"?

Do you know that this country today is thickly dotted with churches that are mere shells of their former selves? Do you know that a general collapse of American Protestantism was actually threatening some time ago; that a mighty counter-movement has started; and that we are IN THE GREAT CRISIS right now?

We want to reach EVERYBODY that calls himself a church member—also those who do not read a church paper, and they are legion. Hence this general announcement in your secular paper. Men and women, are you in favor of retaining the Bible that your fathers believed in and that your mothers trusted in, that was their hope and stay in times of grief and sorrow, that gave them cheering visions of a heavenly rest—the rest that your liberals do not believe in because it belongs to the "supernatural" and, therefore, "unknowable"? Will you join us in saying "Whatever you do, or don't do, but HANDS OFF THE BIBLE!" Will you help save the Bible for America? Will you join in the fight for its integrity? Will you, too, deny modern scholarship the right to rob us of the only sure foundation upon which our feet can stand, in these shifting sands of time? Then you are interested in the news that we are now able to convey to you—the greatest piece of news heralded for a long time. It is this, THAT A NEW REFORMATION IS COMING! There are rumblings everywhere of the approaching battle—the battle between faith and unbelief, between true religion and false science, between FUNDAMENTALISM and LIBERALISM. And there is yet more news. It is this—that A GREAT GENERAL MAGAZINE is now being published, which is here to keep its readers promptly informed of every new development in the "new Reformation" movement, and which is blazing the way to a "new Protestantism" in America! The magazine is bigger than any denomination; it has nothing to do with this sect or that. It is inter-denominational. It is here to fight, on a huge, nation-wide scale, for the sanctity of the Bible! It is here to place the Bible where our fathers placed it—far above all the thoughts, and philosophies, and imaginations, of mere men! And it is here to adore a DIVINE CHRIST in that DIVINELY INSPIRED BIBLE! That is the only Christ men and women would want for their Saviour in the hour of death; that is the only Bible they would care to rely on when the chilly waves begin to strike their feet, weary of travel.

TO KNOW WHAT IS GOING ON IN THESE MOMENTOUS TIMES, READ

The New REFORMATION

A Monthly Magazine for All the Churches, Representing the Nation-Wide Movement against Modernism and for the Positive Recognition of the Sanctity of the Scriptures.

EDITORS: JOHN CLOVER MONSMA, editor-in-chief; WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN, former U. S. Secretary of State; HORACE M. DUBOSE, Bishop Methodist Episcopal Church, South; LEANDER S. KEYSER, Professor Lutheran Divinity School; CLARENCE EDWARD MACARTNEY, Moderator Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.; MARK A. MATTHEWS, Minister of largest Presbyterian church in the world, Seattle, Wash.; GEORGE MCREADY PRICE, expert Geologist, of Englewood Baptist Church, New York; GEORGE WHEATON TAFT, President Northern Baptist Seminary, Chicago; MARTIN LUTH. BR THOMAS, Minister First Presbyterian Church, San Pedro, Cal.—and numerous contributors of note.

This is not a church paper! It is unlike anything you have ever seen; it is bold, but not radical. It is fearless, but not rude. It is powerful in its true, deep, clear faith, but not bigoted. It is conservative, and yet sanely progressive.

One of the paper's greatest features is the Practical Comment on the Sunday School lessons, by the editor-in-chief, Dr. Monsma. It's unlike anything else ever published in the Sunday School line—not an exposition (you will still need your lesson helps) and yet something that will enable you to grasp the lessons and to apply them practically like never before. "Practical Comment" is written in a snappy style, reads like a story, and goes right to the heart of every lesson.

Rubber Crisis Threatens America; Firestone Seeking New Sources of Supply

Left, Thomas A. Edison and Harvey S. Firestone watching a plantation expert tap a rubber tree on the Edison estate in Fort Myers, Fla. Right, Mr. Edison and Mr. Firestone, with a rubber plantation expert, examining a young rubber tree on the Henry Ford Farm near LaBelle, Fla.

HARVEY S. FIRESTONE more than two years ago predicted a rubber shortage, and said the British rubber restriction act would cost the American people millions of dollars. The British colonial possessions in the Far East produce about 80 per cent of the world's supply of rubber, while American manufacturers consume about 10 per cent of the world's supply.

Mr. Firestone has just returned to Akron, Ohio, after making a survey of possibilities of growing rubber in Florida, where he was accompanied by rubber plantation experts. On one of the tours of Florida he was accompanied by Thomas A. Edison, who made some important suggestions relative to new methods of extracting the latex or sap from rubber trees, plants and shrubs.

Rubber trees growing on the Edison estate in Fort Myers were examined, as well as those on the Ford estate in Fort Myers and the Ford farm near LaBelle, Fla. A great deal of time was spent on the Government's Experimental Farm near Cocoa Grove, Fla., where many varieties of rubber trees are being grown. Some of these appear to be very promising.

"Rubber is of vital importance to highway transportation," said Mr. Firestone, "and is largely responsible for our business prosperity. The British restriction act now limits production and exportation to one-half of normal production. Rubber today is about 200 per cent higher than it was when the restriction act went into effect. Rubber restriction this year will cost American car owners at least $100,000,000, and very likely $200,000,000. Every ten-cent advance in the price of crude rubber means an additional burden of about $75,000,000 to the car owners of the United States."

Mr. Firestone was instrumental in having Congress appropriate a half million dollars for the investigation of new sources of rubber supply, and he sent out several expeditions at his own expense to visit rubber producing countries, including the Philippines, Central America, Mexico and Africa, and he has today in Liberia, on the west coast of Africa, a complete organization operating a plantation and making plans to produce rubber on an extensive scale.

American Bulldog

The American bulldog—or pit bull dog, because of the old sport of fighting them in pits—is one of the few breeds of dogs of distinctly American origin, and one of the first developed in this country. It is the product of a crossing of the English bulldog with the bull terrier, the subsequent introduction of an additional strain of English bulldog ancestry giving the American bulldog its weight and shorter muzzle and larger head.

But the breed now runs very true and has for many years, and there is not much experimenting with it.

Chance for Experiment

It was between dunes. They were sitting in a dim corner.

"You have wonderful eyes," he murmured.

"Yes?" she inquired expectantly.

"They are like stars," he went on. Her lips brushed his as he murmured: "They are so bright."

His hand fumbled in his pocket and he drew forth a glittering object: "They are so very bright," he repeated. He thrust his watch before her. "See if you can see the time in the dark."

Value of Self-Control

No man whose appetites are his masters can perform his duties with strictness and regularity. He that would be superior to external influences must first become superior to his own passions.

When the Roman general, sitting at supper with a plate of turnips before him, was solicited by a large promise to betray his trust, he asked the messengers whether he that could sit on turnips was a man likely to sell his country.

Superstition

"Why did you discontinue your auto trip so soon?"

"Well, you see, my wife is superstitious; and after we had run over 13 people she thought we had better turn back, as it might mean bad luck."

BREVITIES.

Tecumseh—The authorities of this village are considering the purchase of a new fire truck that will cost the taxpayers about $10,000.

Dexter—Mrs. John Hoey went to Dubuque, Iowa, on Saturday to be present at the ceremonies in which her daughter Genevieve was received into the order of Sisters of Mercy.—Leader.

Saline—The Board of Education are to be congratulated upon their success in engaging another very capable staff of teachers for our school. E. H. Bremer will again head our school as superintendent.—Observer.

Milan—John Mooney was arrested Monday morning for being drunk and disorderly. He was taken to Monroe by Deputy Sheriff Tom Goodridge and arraigned in Justice Court. He was found guilty and given sixty-five days in the Detroit House of Correction in which to sober up. He was given the alternative of paying a fifty-dollar fine and costs. The fine was not paid.—Leader.

South Lyon—When arraigned before Justice Calkins Monday on a charge of killing six robins and a brown thrush, a Detroit party paid a fine of fifty dollars and $10 costs.

His partner was fined $50 and $5 costs for shooting squirrels. Guns of both men were confiscated. The men were placed under arrest in a woods north of New Hudson, Sunday, by Deputy Game Warden A. C. Wilkinson.—Herald.

Easton Rapids—Monday afternoon, eleven girls of the Girl Scout organization here, received their membership cards from the national headquarters located in New York City.

These eleven girls now may enjoy the privileges open to members of the Scout family. Within another month, seven more girls will probably have qualified themselves for passing the "Tenderfoot" or preliminary test, and will be eligible to wear the Trefall Pin.—Review.

Manchester—The county road commissioners desired to straighten the road entering the village from Chelsea and have purchased a part at least of the Arbeiter grove, north of the village, and will continue the road on a line with that running in front of the Frank Dressethouse and W. A. Albertson places to a point nearly in front of Wm. Steinaway's residence on Ann Arbor street.—Enterprise.

Brooklyn—Celebrating the 80th birthday of E. J. Ennis and his 20th anniversary as bank president, a delightful dinner was given in his honor by his daughter, Mrs. Inez Greene.

The party was held at the Brooklyn hotel, and a fine dinner was served at tables made gay with spring flowers. Mrs. Ennis, the devoted wife and mother, shared in the honors and joys of the occasion that brought the immediate family members and the banking family together for this rare celebration.—Exponent.

Ypsilanti—Many Ypsilanti followers of the gentle art of angling have gone to northern lakes for the trout fishing season, among them George Watterhouse, who is at East Tawas for two weeks' fishing, and W. A. Ven Wegien, who is with the Dowagiac Fishing club, with whom he has fished for the last 20 years or more. Exceptional interest is reported in the opening of the trout fishing season and indications are that Michigan anglers are flocking to the banks of creeks in all parts of the state.—Record.

Cement City—The narrow gauge railroad is now in operation between Cement City gravel pit siding and the Herbert Watkins place about seven miles east on the Chicago pike. The railroad is a part of the cement road-building equipment of the state in the improvement of the pike, known as M-23. The railroad will transport gravel and cement as soon as the road bed has been placed in proper shape to receive it. Pipe lines for water for the big mixers have been laid along the right of way.

Jackson—Claiming that the terms of a contract permitting the cutting of a certain quantity of timber on a farm, a portion of which is timbered, had been violated, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bracey secured a temporary injunction in Judge Williams' court Thursday, restraining woodchoppers from further cutting. The application for an injunction set forth that the Bracys are holders of a land contract on the farm and that an agreement was entered into by the freeholders and E. Reedy, whereunder a certain amount of timber might be cut; but it was alleged the contract had not been observed by the cutters, hence the appeal to the court.—News.

Mason—County Treasurer Hubert R. Bullen, at the annual tax sale held at his office here Tuesday offered approximately 600 parcels of land left of the 1510 on the original tax sale list, the others having been redeemed from sale by payment of the delinquent taxes previous to the day of sale. About twenty-five buyers were present and bidding was keen and competitive, many of the parcels being sold for less than one per cent of the entire parcel. The treasurer's department has been very busy for several weeks and for the past several days there has been from $6000 to $1000 taken over the counter daily.—News.

Holidays

If all the year were playing holidays, to sport would be as tedious as to work; but when they seldom come, they wished for come, and nothing's pleasanter but rare accidents.—Shakespeare.

No Increase in the Price of Firestone FULL-SIZE GUM-DIPPED BALLOONS

The extra quality built in by the extra process of Gum-Dipping, the economy of these wonderful tires and the added mileage obtained from them during the past two years, has created such a large demand that over 75% of Firestone's mammoth production is now Balloon Gum-Dipped Cords.

This has greatly increased the total sales volume and the huge Firestone factories are now working on a 24-hour schedule to supply the demand.

This large volume, produced under the most economical tire manufacturing methods, permits Firestone to sell these extra-process Full-Size Balloons at no extra cost to car owners. And this in the face of greatly advanced cost for crude rubber brought about by the operation of the British Rubber Restriction Act.

Gum-Dipping means longer mileage—greater economy—at no extra cost to you!

Enjoy the safety, economy and comfort of Balloon Gum-Dipped Cords this summer. Let us equip your car now at low cost—with liberal allowance for your old tires.
