SAY CORNS

And We Show Cure

Say corns to us just so we'll know you're bothered and we will hand you the means to a perfect cure. A cure (in our meaning) means the actual removal of the corn itself, which is easily accomplished by a few applications of Nyal Corn Remedy. Even though said corn was too tough to remove, the ache can be eased. This, in itself, is a recommendation for the use of this preparation.

SEWAGE IN OLD DITCH CONSTANT HEALTH MENACE

McKinley Street Bridge Threatened With Cave-In If Present Drain Is Stopped At Township Line.

Anyone who doubts that the present disposal of sewage from the village of Chelsea is not a constant menace to the health of the community should make just one trip to the spot where the stream passes under the McKinley street bridge and see (and smell) for themselves the deplorable condition existing in that neighborhood. Here, for considerable distance, the stream is literally blocked with filth and stench gathered from lack of sufficient current and outlet to carry it on downstream.

That this condition prevails almost the entire distance from one village limit to the other throughout the stream is the statement of some who are anxious that adequate outlet be provided which will carry sewage and surface water on downstream.
The present condition will not be bettered so far as the village is concerned, according to authorities, if the dredging now being done from the township line east to the railroad is not continued on past the village and possibly to the railroad west of the Old People's Home.

Another consideration that enters into the drainage question now is that of bridges. While most of those which span the creek are in good condition the bridge on McKinley street is in the process of crumbling
at the present time, one buttment being broken in two, and according to experienced men on the scene Monday, will cave in inside of another year. If completion of the drain to the township line should lower the water in the old drain (and it undoubtedly will) washouts under the buttments will increase so rapidly that this item alone will hasten the cave-in of the bridge.

With these factors in mind, Drain Commissioner Deake has gone over the situation in an endeavor to arrive at the cost of completing the drain to the railroad west of town, or at least past the village limits. Six bridges would have to be considered if the drain is extended to the railroad. Four of these are in good condition and would not be damaged by the dredging. Two of them, however, would have to be replaced, including the McKinley street bridge which undoubtedly will have to be rebuilt whether or no. The cost of dredging the first mile which would take it past the village outlets, including replacement of two bridges would approximate $9,000, according to Mr.
Deake's estimates, while the entire length-to-the-railroad, estimated to be nearly three miles, would total something less than $20,000 and four bridges would be saved.

While these figures are estimates
it is well to bear in mind that, compared to the benefits to be derived by farmers as well as the village, the cost, spread over the entire drain area would be extremely low. On the drain being dug at the present time, costing $7,460 for approximately two miles, the cost to farmers other than those adjacent to the drain is about ten cents per acre and village property in proportion.

A petition for the extension containing the names of ten taxpayers within the drain district would start the ball rolling, even though that does not assure the extension. But it puts the drain commissioner in position to proceed on an accurate basis for procuring figures and facts necessary before the drain can be accomplished.

ing the dinner.

HAROLD A. STORMS WEDS VALLEY CITY (O.) GIRL

At the home of the bride's parents, at Valley City, Ohio, on Saturday evening of last week occurred the marriage of Harold A. Storms, son of Frank A. Storms of Chelsea, and Miss Evelyn Miller, Rev. Sparr, pastor of Berea, Ohio, Methodist church, performing the ceremony. Only immediate families of the contracting couple were present, Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Storms stopping at the Ohio city on their return from a trip east.
The groom of Saturday's wedding is a native of Chelsea, is widely and most favorably known here, having spent the years of his boyhood and young manhood in this vicinity. He is a graduate of the local high school, class of '19, spent one year in college at Berea, Ohio, during which time he made the acquaintance of Mrs.
Storms, and since that time has spent four years in school at the University of Michigan, graduating with the class in mechanical engineering last week.
The bride is a popular young lady of Valley City, and a graduate of Baldwin-Wallace College, Berea.

Mr. and Mrs. Storms motored to Chelsea Sunday and will spend a few days here, after which they will go to Cleveland and be at home to their many friends at 15223 Detroit Ave.
Mr. Storms is employed by the Bailey
Meier Co., Cleveland.

DUNKEL SEDAN BADLY DAMAGED MONDAY NIGHT

While returning from Ann Arbor late Monday night during the heavy rain the sedan of M. J. Dunkel and driven by him was run into by a light truck driven by an Ann Arbor man, and considerable damage done to the sedan.

Driving in the blinding rain which literally fell in sheets, Mr. Dunkel states that when the machines were about to meet the driver of the truck swerved his machine directly across the road and into the Dunkel car, the latter being so far to the right that one wheel was off the pavement in an effort to avoid the collision. The fact that both machines were moving slowly is probably the reason why greater damage was not done. As it was the truck was upset, and the sedan, a new custom built Cadillac recently purchased by Mr. Dunkel, suffered smashed fenders, bumpers, lamp, torn top and a large hole torn in the body, beside smashed glass in doors and windows. No one was injured.

The Dunkel car was taken back to the factory Tuesday where it will undergo repairs and be returned as good as new.

America making the trip in 19 days.
They stayed in New York a few days and then came to Lima to locate first on the farm now known as the Klein estate where they remained until March 1881, when they moved to the home where Mr. Koch passed away.

trade and until a few years ago worked at his trade.

CAR CRASHES INTO TELEPHONE POLE

Fred Wellhoff, while driving on M-92 Saturday evening, met with an accident which might have proved serious. Mr. Wellhoff, driving at a high speed struck loose gravel and hurled his machine against a telephone pole. The machine was badly damaged, but Mr. Wellhoff escaped with several cuts about the face.

PALMER TENANT PROPERTY BADLY DAMAGED BY FIRE

Early Morning Blaze on Friday Causes Loss on House and Contents;
Origin of Fire Undetermined.

Fire, breaking out during the early morning hours on Friday of last week, partially destroyed the tenant real-estate property owned by Dr. G. W.
Palmer, at the corner of Madison and Park streets. Walter Harper and family were occupants of the residence.

Discovery of the fire was made shortly before one o'clock in the morning when Mrs. Harper was awakened by falling timbers. Rousing her husband, the latter made his way to a window where full view of the rear of the house was obtained and discovered the entire kitchen wing of the house to be enveloped in flames.
Electric wires had been burned out so that the house was left in darkness and the Harpers were forced to make their way downstairs through dense smoke which was almost suffocating. By this time neighbors had been roused and a call sent in to telephone central where the alarm was given.

Beside damage to the residence,
considerable loss was suffered by Mr.
and Mrs. Harper, kitchen furniture, clothing, and other articles being burned beside damage done by smoke and water throughout the house.

Within ten minutes from the first discovery of the fire two streams of water were being poured onto the flames and within another ten minutes firemen had gained control of the situation and had it well in hand.
Adequate water supply, together with excellent service on the part of firemen possibly saved the adjoining residence properties. As it was the heat scorched the east side of the Chesley-Freeman property. Lack of wind currents also was a lucky factor, inasmuch as flames and smoke rose perpendicular so that no fighting was necessary to prevent spread of the destruction.

Origin of the fire seems to be unknown. Either faulty electric wires or gas pipes are blamed by Dr. Palmer, although there is no evidence available to prove either to blame.
Dr. Palmer said today that repairs would be made as soon as insurance had been adjusted and settlement made.

Editorial

WARREN S. STONE

The death of Warren S. Stone, head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers at his Cleveland home takes from Labor one of its most substantial friends and leaders.

For half a century the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers has been one of the strongest, one of the most conservative, safe and sane union organizations in the world. It has stood for the advancement of labor, the betterment of wages and workmen's conditions throughout this country. It has held sacred its contractual obligations, and has never countenanced violence or infractions of the law. It has led the movement of labor to higher wages, better working conditions, and a place of power, esteem and respect.

Under the direction of Warren S. Stone, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers went into the banking business as a means of helping the condition of the members of the brotherhood. The venture into finance was so successful in Cleveland that other banks were established, and all of them are highly successful.

In this undertaking to handle their own finances, Mr. Stone a pioneer in finance for labor organizations, made good, and put his brotherhood far ahead in the march of progress made by organized labor all over the country. He has not only added dignity and prestige to the labor movement, but he has added financial power to it—a thing that will, in its last analysis, cause labor to be recognized in the world of finance, commerce, transportation and industry as it has never before possessed. It will eventually weed out the outlaws and the hold-up men that have unfortunately crept in occasionally, to the disgrace of labor, and the dishonor of the leaders.

The possession of property and money is the most stabilizing thing in the world. It will do for labor what it has done for commerce, transportation and industry, and always, the name of Warren S. Stone must lead all the rest, for it was he who took the plunge, assumed the responsibility and made good.

THE CHINESE MENACE

China is entering the limelight as the potential hatchery of a world war. Starting with a strike and rioting following in the wake of that, the Chinese have taken the fight to the foreign element, and all the great nations are threatened with involvement.

The American gunboat Pampanga was fired on at Hong Kong, and returned the fire—a serious situation for this country thus created by our being an innocent bystander endeavoring to perform offices of peace and good will.

In the meantime factions fight for the control of the Chinese government. Foreign nations, especially European countries have their warships in Chinese waters, looking for an opening wherein they would be justified in stepping in to get a foothold in the way of concessions, or make assessments of indemnity.

It will end, if it ends without bringing several nations into a general war, with the United States performing most of the work, standing the greater part of expense and abuse, and at the last holding the bag while European countries and Japan demand their pound of flesh and get it.

Our Chinese policy is and has always been a fool's policy. Why should the American people be taxed, furnish soldiers, marines, and warships to protect a country that will not protect itself?

DEMOCRATS IN LINE

Senator Underwood of Alabama, in a speech delivered at Montgomery on Friday night advocated a greater cut in tax rates than has yet been advocated by either Democrats or Republicans. He favors a maximum—surplus of 13 per cent, a figure far below that advocated by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon.

Senator Glass of Virginia is said to be in favor of the Underwood tax reduction program and other Democrats are reported to be in line.

It is quite probable that a greater tax reduction than that suggested by Secretary Mellon will be made by the next Congress.

FLAG DAY IS OBSERVED

The 148th anniversary of the selection of the American flag as the flag of this country was more generally observed than it has ever been. If the war brought us no other compensation than a reverence for our flag and the things for which it stands—for a pride in our government, and a determination not to allow any foreign country or ism to come here and preach disorder, disruption and destruction, then the war was not fought in vain. America was sorely lacking in much that constitutes patriotism and national loyalty. To have overcome that is to have made a long step toward nationalism.

A Southern automobile booster organization has for its motto, "Fill a hole a day." A lot of reckless Michigan drivers seem to be trying to do the same thing—in a cemetery.

JULY FOURTH DEFENSE DAY

The Mayor of an eastern city brought down on his head the condemnation of citizens when he refused to name a committee to co-operate with state and national officers in celebrating "Defense Day" on July 4th. He was told, "It is just as important, or even more important, to be prepared to maintain our independence as it was to declare it. The best way to maintain that independence is to be prepared at all times for any emergency. In the past we have paid too little attention to genuine observance of the natal day of the Declaration of Independence and very much less attention to national defense preparation than we should have."

We believe every official in America, great or small, should co-operate with President Coolidge's program to observe July 4th as National Defense day. If there was ever a time when America needed to be prepared to defend herself and perpetuate her declared and established independence, that time is the present.

MEXICO IS WARNED

Washington indications are that we are to have a stronger policy in Mexico. Secretary of State Kellogg has warned President Calles that American rights and American property must be respected in the Southwestern Republic. If Secretary Kellogg and President Coolidge secure anything approaching protection for American citizens or American property in Mexico it will be the first time it has been secured in history. The United States owes to the American people a simple duty, and that to take over Mexico and make it a part of the United States.

No better service could be rendered to the American people, nor to the Mexican citizens, than such action on the part of the government.

So long as Mexico exists, as it has always existed, it will be a menace and a thorn in the side of the American government, and will afford no opportunity whatever for the Mexican citizens to advance.

ARE WE GROWING PRACTICAL?

Representative Ogden L. Mills spoke at Rochester, N. Y., declaring there should be a national convention at which every state should be represented to consider a sound and equitable division of taxes as between the Federal and State governments, and that all double taxes should be done away with. This is the first sensible suggestion we have seen coming from any member of Congress on the subject of taxation.

There is every argument in favor of such scientific arrangement of a division of taxes to be assessed by states and taxes to be collected by states and state governments and to be collected by Federal government for the exclusive use of maintaining and operating the national government.

There is nothing secret or mysterious about taxes. All governments must have money for their needs, but no one can justify the loose system of taxes we now have in state and nation which permits millions to go untaxed, and puts upon others a double, treble or quadruple burden.

REFUSES TO REDUCE TARIFF

President Coolidge has refused to reduce the tariff on sugar in spite of the fact that such reduction was recommended by a majority of the tariff commissioners. He stated that to reduce the tariff at this time would be to deprive the United States Treasury of $40,000,000 of income from that source alone.

He stated further, that when the inquiry started on the price of sugar in 1923 the New York wholesale price of granulated sugar was 8.4c per pound compared with the pre-war price of 4.9c per pound, and that on May the 7th of this year the wholesale price of granulated sugar was 4.27c per pound. With these great price reductions, the President declared the tariff should not be lowered at the present time.

LARGE INCREASE IN INCOMES

The preliminary report of statistics of incomes earned in the calendar year 1923 and filed in 1924 made public by the Internal Revenue Bureau shows the largest number filed income tax reports and the highest earnings in incomes ever reported. The report was that 7,998,321 persons filed income tax reports. This number earned $26,336,337,843 in the year 1923 by far the largest income ever earned in this country. 910,940 more persons filed income tax reports in 1924 than were ever before filed. This shows the greatest condition of prosperity that has ever existed in any country in the world.

TO EXCHANGE RADIO PROGRAMS

The Radio Corporation of America has made an agreement with the German government at Berlin, whereby the radio programs of New York and Berlin will be exchanged. It is expected the powerful plants for broadcasting now being constructed in New Jersey and in Germany, may be completed in time for the American people to hear the German Christmas carols over the radio.

TELEGRAPHING CHECKS

Several of the large New York banks have arranged with the American Telephone Company to telegraph checks by the use of the new telephotograph mechanism which will reproduce a check in any other city equipped with the mechanism for reproduction.

THE DEAF TO HEAR

Walter W. Oehm, one of the graduates of the New York institution for the instruction of the deaf and dumb, read a paper on the application of radio to enable the deaf to hear, and stated that in a little while radio will be so perfected that the deaf can hear through the sensitized appliances used in radio broadcasting and receiving.

A Chinese Proverb

There is an Old Chinese Proverb to the effect that "A journey of a thousand miles begins with one step."

In these days when all things move rapidly, it is well to consider this bit of Oriental wisdom.

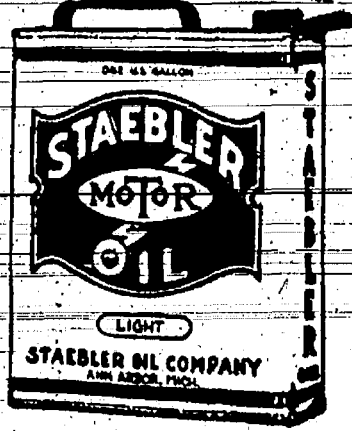

We are apt to forget that to save a thousand dollars we must first save one.

A single dollar saved has been the basis of many a fortune. Save the first dollar and then another and another and the fortune will soon be reached. This bank gladly accepts deposits of one dollar.

Question: Why is a used Buick the next best buy to a new Buick?

Answer: Because the correctness of Buick design and the quality of Buick manufacture are not altered by use. A used Buick is a better investment than many new cars of other makes.

BREVITIES

PINCKNEY—The board of education has awarded a contract to a Howell firm to install the plumbing for a water system in the public school building.

PARMA—Chas. E. Baggerly, of the State Highway Department, was in Parma the first two days of the week getting estimates and options on property for a proposed new routing of M-17.—News.

POWELLVILLE—Nature has produced some wonderful things in this world, but how about the Montcalm county man that sold his automobile the other day to pay the mortgage off the old homestead?—Review.

DEXTER—At a special business meeting at the Baptist church Tuesday evening, the church voted to federate with all churches desiring to federate on an impartial or equal basis. That is not showing any favor to any one denomination.—Leader.

GRASS LAKE—Mrs. Carrie Hobart, of Detroit, who passed away recently and was buried in Oak Grove cemetery, in her will left the Congregational church of this village $2,000 and the Cemetery Association $1,000. Both societies appreciate the gift very much.—News.

BRIGHTON—Warning is given to the residents of Brighton that they must cut down their speed in the village limits to conform with the traffic ordinance or they will suffer the consequences. If you expect transients to observe the laws, you must do the same. Help to make our streets safe.—Argus.

GRASS LAKE—At a meeting of the members of the Federated church, which was burned on Tuesday of last week, held in the parsonage last Thursday evening, a committee was appointed to make investigations as to the cost of rebuilding the church. The walls of the main part of the church were but slightly injured by the fire.

MANCHESTER—Joe Weiss is becoming known as the turtle king of this section because of his skill in capturing the ugly snappers and leatherbacks, also dressing and cooking them. He has caught several so far this season, including a snapper weighing 20 pounds. Going out early Tuesday morning to try fishing, he was not successful, but down the river caught a large turtle, so he didn't feel disappointed.—Enterprise.

MANCHESTER—Confused by the whistle on the locomotive of the incoming 8:20 Lake Shore train, Mrs. William Koebbe, 60-year-old widow, was killed instantly last Thursday morning. Mrs. Koebbe was struck when, while crossing the tracks, she ran along them ahead of the locomotive. She is survived by a son, Fred, of Manchester, and a daughter, Mrs. Malvina Solt, of Clinton. Coroner Edwin G. Ganzhorn, of Ann Arbor, was called to investigate the accident.

BROOKLYN—Cement pouring on M-23 is making good progress. The state gang that started at the Siam school and working west has now passed Cambridge Junction and is pouring the new cement at the rate of approximately 400 feet a day. The gang working east from Siam is now east of Will Brighton's. State requirements are 21 days for the cement to properly cure before opening to traffic. About the first of July the stretch between Siam and Cambridge Junction will be opened.—Exponent.

SALINE—A small flock of young wild mallard ducks was discovered on the front lawn of George W. Seeger's residence Saturday. It is something of a mystery as to where they came from. There were seven in the flock and they were too young to fly. As a general rule wild ducks lay their eggs near some watering place. It is believed they were hatched about half a mile from town, in an old swamp, which on account of the dry weather had dried up and the old ducks with their young were hunting a new watering place.—Observer.

HOWELL—The Howell Rotary club has volunteered to make arrangements with the Detroit Community Union for the placing of fifty boys and girls from the city in Livingston county homes some time during the latter part of July, for a few weeks' outing. Every child sent out of the city for these outings will have a health inspection by the city health department and will be accompanied by a health certificate. Boys and girls from the ages of three to fourteen years are selected and only children requested will be brought to the county, and will be taken from the congested tenement districts of Detroit.—Democrat.

Camphor for Stains
Camphor removes many stains. Fruit juice will often disappear when rubbed with a dampened bit of camphor; and a few drops of camphor on a soft duster removes some marks from a mirror.

The Planet Mercury
Mercury is the smallest planet, and the nearest to the sun. Owing to its proximity to the sun it is difficult to see it with the naked eye. Its mean distance from the sun is 36,000,000 miles, while that of the earth is about 94,000,000 miles. Mercury completes a revolution of its orbit in 88 days; it is about 8,000 miles in diameter; and its mass is only about one-eighteenth that of the earth.

Able to Hear Noises

Made by Electrons

By means of the radio vacuum-tube amplifier, scientists have been able to hear the noises made by electrons, the infinitely small units of electricity as they are "bombarded" against the plate in the tube from the hot filament, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. These electrons, it is held, carry the current and make possible the operation of the tube, which is capable of tremendous amplification. Through this, a new way of measuring the value of the electron charge has been developed and a method of research opened which may lead to valuable knowledge concerning the electron and its properties. Previously, it has been studied by means of tiny drops of oil, observing their movements between two electrically charged plates. Droplets are made to fall slowly or rapidly or are held stationary between the plates, according to the presence of charged electrons in them and the voltage applied to the plates. With proper amplification, the roar of the electrons in the tube can be magnified to produce a volume like that of Niagara. It is said, and this action is to be studied in the hope that facts not presented in the gravity tests will be learned.

Explaining Origin of the "Vegetable Dinner"

The death of Patterson M. Vegetable, one of the most cordially hated men in North America, brings to light for the first time the story of the invention which earned him the position he occupies, "C. F.," writes in the Kansas City Star.

It was the old, old story, yet ever new, of two men and a girl; in the ensuing triangle poor Patterson found himself hopelessly the hypotenuse. Soured and embittered in love, he turned to the soil; and in his little truck garden on Long Island he devoted long hours to raising obnoxious species of plants and herbs. This morbid tendency led eventually to his famous invention of a platter with various compartments, into which he fitted one species of each unpleasant plant he had produced, calling the whole affair, in his dryly humorous way, a "dinner."

The comparative economy of this idea appealed to the restaurants; and the embittered old man found the last years of his life considerably brightened by the sight of thousands of restaurant patrons seated before these tables of "dinners," or "vegetable dinners," as they came in time to be called.

Man Worth While
There is something solid and doughy in the man that can rise from defeat; the stuff of which victories are made in due time when we are able to choose our position better and the sun is at our back.—Lowell

The tires that eliminate the worry and fatigue of rough roads and save car depreciation. You will find their initial cost more than justified by final results.

Scotch Terriers

The first pair of Scotch terriers ever exhibited at a bench show in this country were shown to the public in 1883, at which time there was a decided dislike for the dogs, and the show was criticized for admitting the pair. But after Doctor Ewing of St. Louis and other men began developing the dogs and were able to show their finer qualities, public sentiment developed in their favor and Scotch is a welcome dog at all bench shows and has won his way to national popularity.

Pertaining to Ages

A century begins with the beginning of the first day in its first year, and does not end until the close of the last day in its hundredth year. The mode of reckoning is often confused with the common mode of stating the age of a person. A person born at the beginning of the Christian era would be called one year old during his second year, that is during the course of the year two; he would be called two during the year three; and forty during the year forty-one, etc.

Expensive Cup of Coffee

The first cup of coffee made in France was drunk by Louis XIV about 260 years ago. The price then was about $25 a pound.

Cartier, the Pioneer

The first effort to cultivate the soil of Canada was made by the discoverer, Jacques Cartier, who, in 1534, had an acre of land cleared near where Quebec now stands, and had it planted with turnips, cabbage and lettuce seeds. The first public garden was Adam's garden in Halifax, N. S., established in 1733. The present public gardens in Halifax are the pride of the city and the admiration of all visitors.

Set Civilization Back

The Vandals were a Teutonic race formerly inhabiting the southern shores of the Baltic, who, about the beginning of the Fifth century, ravaged Gaul and overran Spain and northern Africa. In 455 they pillaged the city of Rome, mercilessly despoiling it of its treasures of art, literature and civilization. The Vandals established themselves in northern Africa, but their kingdom was overthrown in 533 by Belisarius.

Observations on Rivers

There are a large number of stations reporting on the daily stages of the rivers, probably from 500 to 1,000, and in addition there are other stations maintained to study the general climate of the country. These are known as co-operative weather observing stations and probably number between 4,000 and 5,000, well distributed over the United States.

FORD SALES INCREASING

Sales figures of the Ford Motor Company for the month of May show a continued good domestic demand for Ford cars and trucks, the last ten days of the month showing a substantial increase over the previous ten days. The figures also disclose record-breaking sales abroad and in the high-price car field a growing demand for Lincoln cars. In fact, the Lincoln sales in the United States during May went to a new record with 688 deliveries to customers, exceeding by more than fifty the record established in April.

Ford car and truck sales for the month reached a total of 201,924 of which number 19,576 were foreign sales. This is a record for foreign deliveries and is more than 1,100 above the April sales.

There's little rest or peace for the backache sufferer. Days are tired and weary—Night brings no respite. Urinary troubles, headaches, dizziness and nervousness, all tend to prevent rest or sleep. There were times when I could hardly get about because of the sharp, shooting pains across my back, and many a night I was kept awake with my back. I was dizzy and felt tired and nervous. After using two boxes of Doan's Pills from Freeman's Drug Store, I was better." 60c. at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Geologist Explains Causes of Landslides

In describing some troublesome landslides that have taken place in England owing to wet weather, Mr. William Platt, author of "A Popular Geology," says:

The causes are simple enough. Whenever the geological formation is that of alternate hard and soft rocks, and when this occurs in any sufficiently steep bank, hill or mountain, there will always be the risk of a landslide, especially after heavy rains, which soak into the softer layers and make them loose and slippery.

Landslides may be divided into two classes—natural and artificial. The former occur in the wear and tear of nature.

That picturesque mountain in the Derbyshire Pennines called Mam Tor is so liable to landslides that it has been nicknamed locally "The Shivering Mountain." Another celebrated instance is the landslide near Shanklin, Isle of Wight.

At Merok, in Norway (Norangsdal) a huge landslide dammed up a river valley, causing the water to pile up and form a lake. The people who lived in the village in the valley managed to escape, but their red-roofed cottages can be seen today under the clear waters of the huge tarn thus formed.

Exactitude of Little Consequence in Map

An amusing story is told in Berlin by the publisher of geographical maps. A Mongolian prince recently visited Berlin to place an order for maps of his country. The publisher was glad to get the order, but told the prince that the latest maps he had were published before the war.

"I must confess," said the publisher, "that I don't know the exact boundaries of your country at present. Haven't you some material that will tell me how to draw the boundary lines?" "No, I haven't," was the reply. "But it doesn't matter. Just you draw the boundaries as wide as possible, so that my people may see how large their country is."

Explaining Law of Motion

The first law of motion, one of the cardinal discoveries, which contributed to the fame of Sir Isaac Newton, is that a body continues to move at the same speed so long as no force is applied to retard or accelerate it. It was a surprise to his contemporaries and continues to be to any one who hears it for the first time. Experience leads us to suppose that the natural condition of a body is stationary; but Newton asserted that neither rest nor motion is more natural than the other. Bodies set in motion by human agency always come to rest before long, because friction and resistance of the air are always operating to retard them; but the earth is surrounded by empty space, so that there is no friction.

Chairs and Their Makers

It is probable that very early in American cabinet making rocking chairs were introduced. It is not unreasonable to attribute their origin to a date previous to the Revolution, but after 1760. Not until the Nineteenth century was well under way, however, did that type become common as an article of furniture. It is probable also that Windsor chairs were the first to be fitted with rockers. The Windsor chair itself was invented in England, and its comfort quickly made its appeal. The old chair makers knew how to adapt their furniture to the human anatomy and the American inventor of the rocker added still more comfort.

Chinese Religion

Chinese religion, like Chinese art and literature, is quite indigenous, a natural expression of the Chinese philosophy of life. Indeed, the Chinese notion of religion is very slight. The thought of the entire population is permeated by a definite ethical code, but it is not fierce or persecutory. "Religions are many but reason is one." Chinese religion is more tolerant, more reasonable and less dogmatic than the religions of any other people. It is hardly more than an ethical code. In China there have never been religious wars. Chi-Fung Liu, in Scribner's.

Ancient Golf Club

The Royal Blackheath Golf club of London is said to be the oldest. Records date back to 1787 and tradition carries the club back to the reign of James I. 1603-1625. The old Royal Blackheath course has been closed since it was no longer possible to keep it in playable condition. It was crossed and recrossed by roads and railways and surrounded by buildings. The course consisted of seven holes, a match consisting of three rounds of twenty-one holes.

Insect Civilization

That insects do almost everything known to mankind, whom they excel in skill, is the belief of a well known nature student, who spoke before a meeting of the American Institute of Phenology. While the less developed species live under rocks or in the earth and exist by hunting, trapping and fishing for prey, others colonize in large communities and keep herds, raise crops and use leaves for clothing and shelter. Many insects even build tiny streets and highways.

Groveling Punishment

Our idea of a nifty guy is the bird who found two armed burglars under his bed and made them hunt for his collar button.—University of Georgia Cracker.

Cause and Effect

"Do you always think before you speak?" "Yes," answered Senator Bagham. "But not as hard as I am sometimes tempted to think afterward."—Washington Star.

PUZZLE SECTION OF THE STANDARD

HOW TO SOLVE A CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

When the correct letters are placed in the white spaces this puzzle will spell words both vertically and horizontally. The first letter of each word is indicated by a number, which refers to the definition listed below the puzzle. Thus No. 1 under the column headed "horizontal" defines a word which will fill the white spaces up to the first black square to the right, and a number under "vertical" defines a word which will fill the white squares to the next black square below. We letters go in the black spaces. All words used are dictionary words except proper names. Abbreviations, slang, initials, technical terms and obsolete forms are indicated in the definitions.

Halted Gun to Save Heroic Mother Bird

One day during the World War I was taking a battery of artillery along a grassy road, a writer in London told a relative. The horses were trotting, and behind them the guns rumbled and swayed over ruts and stones. Suddenly there appeared not fifty yards in front of the leading horses a dozen fluffy brown partridge "cheepers," tiny mites no bigger than sparrows, running hither and thither in the wildest panic before the approaching danger. With them was the mother bird. She chivvied them off into the grass on either side of the road, and then, when the last one had made its escape, turned and with open beak and half-spread wings faced the battery, daring them to come on. Had the battery not been halted the bird would have given her life in an endeavor to ensure the safety of her chicks. As it was, she achieved her object by a display of real heroism in the face of hopeless odds.

This is a typical example of the way nature makes heroines of animal mothers, no matter how timid they may be when they have no family to care for. In defense of their helpless young, nature's heroines will face any creature that threatens their safety.

Species Unchanged for Eight Million Years

The longest pedigree in the world so far as science can discover belongs to the "sphenodon," which can boast an ancestry of eight million years duration. The sphenodon is found on a tiny island off the coast of New Zealand. There is nothing quite like it anywhere else. The sphenodon is a reptile and is a mixture of crocodile, snake, turtle, and lizard. As a matter of fact, it is probably the ancestor of all these creatures, but in the process of evolution through countless ages, the "children" have altered and split up into a hundred and one different "families." The sphenodon, however, has gone on its way unchanged and is exactly as it was eight million years ago. This phreostic creature shows greatest similarity to the lizard. It has four short legs and a long tail. Its face is rather like that of a fish and there is a hard ridge on the top of its head and down its back. The dinosaur and other prehistoric animals are of quite recent date compared with the sphenodon. It is generally supposed that the dinosaur disappeared off the earth a mere three million years ago.

First to Foresee Eclipses

The first man, so far as historical records show, to calculate the time of an eclipse in advance was Thales of Miletus, who lived 640 to 546 B. C. He prophesied an eclipse which, according to modern reckoning, took place March 28, 585 B. C.

Historic Sherwood

The original Sherwood forest of Robin Hood fame was twenty-five miles long by ten miles wide; but included pastures, heaths and even barren tracts, with here and there a densely wooded grove.

OUR GLORIA GONE!

NOT BY A LONG SHOT!

SEE "MANHANDLED"

Screen Star Very Much Alive in New Paramount Film at the Princess.

If you are one of the millions who have loaned an ear recently to the mysteriously recurrent rumors of Gloria Swanson's demise, we say, yes, indeed, you, to take a trip down to the Princess Theatre some day next week and see "Manhandled." Gloria's latest production for Paramount. And if after that you still think Gloria's a dead one, then we say that she never was alive.

But we admit ourselves that it is a different Gloria Swanson you see on the screen at the Princess. That is, different as far as picture characterizations are concerned. She's the liveliest person you ever saw in your life in this Allan Dwan production, an adaptation from Arthur Stringer's Saturday Evening Post story by that name.

Here's a picture with a climax as sensational as its title—a story of a salesgirl in a big New York department store, who is out for a good time, willing to receive everything but give nothing in return. She falls in with men who misjudge her—misinterpret her idea of a good time, manhandle her, and then the girl comes around to her right senses with a bang, realizes what, unwittingly, she had almost brought upon herself and goes back to the safe and sane life, happy in the love of an honest-to-goodness sweetheart. He may not have jewels and a car to offer her, but she's seen the rest and knows when she's got the best.

Tom Moore is Miss Swanson's leading man in "Manhandled," which will be shown Wednesday and Thursday, July 1 and 2. Others in the cast are Frank Morgan, Ivan Keith, Paul McAllister, and Lilyan Tashman.
