Maytag
Gyrafoam Washer
WITH CAST ALUMINUM TUB

It's the blessing and relief of a washer that washes 50 lbs. of dry clothes in sixty floating minutes (twice the capacity of ordinary washers)—tubful after tubful, as quickly as a woman can wring them out. And mark you, sparkling, hygienically clean—and in addition, it eliminates that most trying task, the handrubbing of cuffs, wristbands and collars.

And these are only some of the wonders of the Gyrafoam principle, that genius soul of the Maytag Washer. No other washer has it.

Make no mistake about the washer that's "wished for" this Christmas. Think of the Mondays that are to come. Your wife or your mother needs the Maytag—more perhaps than you may think.

For homes without electricity, the Maytag Gyrafoam is available with Multi-Motor (the famous Maytag Gasoline Motor) attachment.

DETROIT MAN PAYS FINE FOR DRIVING WHILE DRUNK

Officer Leach Called to Whipple House on M-17 When Tourist Becomes Unable to Drive Car

Harry Randall of Detroit, on Monday paid a fine and costs amounting to $15 in Justice E. F. Steiner's court, on the charge of driving an auto while intoxicated. The arrest was made by Constable F. A. Leach at the home of E. J. Whipple on M-17 about 9 o'clock Sunday evening.

The car that Randall was driving was a new Nash and beside the driver, there was a man and a woman in the car. The driver had ditched the car twice between Jackson and the Whipple home. The man was said to have been driving about 80 miles an hour and when called upon to drive slower he stopped the car and started east on foot, but was said to be so drunk that he could hardly walk.

One of Mr. Whipple's sons drove the car into the yard off the pavement. The drunken man after a short time returned to the Whipple home and attempted to back the car onto the highway but in so doing ran onto the curbing at the approach of the driveway where the rear of the machine was considerably damaged, but not sufficient to effect the motor.

After officers had taken the man in charge Mr. Whipple's son drove the man and woman (neither of them could drive the car) to the electric station, where they boarded a car for their home in Detroit. The Nash was placed in a local garage and was driven away by Randall after his session with Justice Steiner.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO BELIEVE THIS

A minister in a certain town in Alabama took permanent leave of his congregation in the following manner:

"Brothers and sisters, I come to say good-bye. I don't think God loves this church, because none of you ever die. I don't think you love each other, because I never marry any of you. I don't think you love me, because you have not paid my salary. Your donations are moldy fruit and wormy apples, and by their fruits ye shall know them."

"Brethren, I am going away to a better place. I have been called to be chaplain of a penitentiary. Where I go ye cannot come, but I go to prepare a place for you, and may the Lord have mercy on your souls. Good-bye."—Fallure Magazine.

THE FARNUM TRIO WILL APPEAR MONDAY EVENING

The Farnum Trio, which appears here on the Lyceum Course, given under auspices of the Congregational Brotherhood and St. Paul's Evangelical League, at the town hall, Monday evening, December twenty-first, features delightful variety and individual ability in its program of instrumental trios, violin solos, violin duets and interpretative readings.

Doris Farnum, who heads the company, is a remarkably gifted young entertainer. Her readings are notably diversified. Whether she is heard in such a powerful dramatic number as Goodman's "Dust of the Road," or in her inimitable Italian character sketches, she is equally effective. Songs sung in costume, together with her own accompaniment upon the Irish harp, are always program favorites.

Edwyn Hames, well-known Australian violinist is a brilliant member of the Farnum Trio. Mr. Hames is a graduate of the Melbourne (Australia) University Conservatory. His violin solos will be a notable treat to music lovers.

Darlette Yost, the third member of the company is a talented violinist and pianist-accompanist. In violin duets with Mr. Hames she contributes greatly to the success of the program.

WOMEN INTERESTED IN IMPROVED EQUIPMENT

Several hundred Washtenaw women from rural districts in Washtenaw county are studying the problems of household management.

A series of six meetings have been arranged for local leaders to receive information from the household management specialist from Michigan State College.

These leaders in turn pass on this information to the women interested in their community.

The third meeting of the series will be held in Ann Arbor, December 17 and 18. Special emphasis will be given to household equipment, its selection and care.

Kitchen equipment is constantly needing replacing. It becomes a question of the important points to keep in mind while choosing; as the size and shape for purposes needed, its convenience in handling, its durability, etc. The care of equipment is also of much importance, both from an economic and utilitarian standpoint. Household tools cannot be neglected any more than farm tools can be left out of doors all winter.

There are organized groups from the following townships: Lyndon, Sylvan, Lima, Seis, Saline, Freedom, Pittsfield, Ann Arbor, Salem, Superior, Ypsilanti, and Augusta.

At the last meeting there were representatives from Bridgewater and Sharon townships. Work is not restricted to the communities mentioned. Any community which is interested in the work and will select a local leader, who will attend the training school meetings, are welcome to receive the work.

A specialist from the college giving instructions in this work is scheduled for meetings in different counties each day of the month, and the plan of local leaders training schools which is being used seems to be the best method for spreading the gospel of home convenience among the women of the county.

What is more wonderful than the beautiful Carols on Christmas Eve. The Camp Fire Girls, from 9 to 10 o'clock, will sing to all those who place a candle in the window.

Wealth in Peanuts

The peanut is a native of South America and came to North America by way of Africa as food for prisoners on board slave ships. It is now a $80,000,000 crop in the United States.

CHELSEA FOUNDRY CO. BUYS LEWIS FACTORY BUILDING

Building in Which Foundry Has Operated for Year Becomes Permanent Home for Manufacturing Business.

Another of the Lewis Spring & Axle factory buildings changed hands on Wednesday of this week when the Chelsea Foundry Co. purchased the plant occupied by them for the past year for foundry purposes. The deal just consummated has been in the making for several weeks while papers were being drawn and agreements settled.

Purchase of the building which they occupy assures Chelsea the permanent location of a business which has been prospering from the day on which they opened for operations less than thirteen months ago. Beginning in a modest manner with only a few men employed the company has gradually expanded until today there are twenty-five persons on the payroll with prospects of many more being added within the next few months. Orders for foundry products have kept them working to capacity continually. Wide acquaintance in the market with splendid location near that market, shipping facilities second to none, coupled with energetic and aggressive business methods have combined to reach the success already attained by these experienced foundry people.

While no additions are to be made at the present time it is expected that within the near future the foundry property will be enlarged to take care of the rapidly increasing demand for their product.

S. F. J. HELD CHRISTMAS PARTY MONDAY EVENING

On Monday evening, December 14, the S. F. J. club held their Christmas party at the home of Miss Lillie Wackenhut.

A delicious dinner was served at 6:30, the table being prettily decorated with the Christmas colors. The centerpiece was a tiny lighted Christmas tree, and red candles and sprigs of holly added to the festive appearance. The place cards were in the form of Christmas booklets.

A program followed, consisting of poems, stories and songs. Also a piano duet by Mrs. J. N. Strieter and Mrs. W. Kusterer.

Christmas cards were exchanged and several appropriate games followed. Each one drew a gift from a tiny sleigh and the program closed with the reading of a poem written by each member about their gift.

FRED SCHULTZ DIES SUDDENLY IN CALIFORNIA

The following was sent to the Standard by A. C. Watson, a former resident here, and at present a resident of Los Angeles, Calif. The article appeared in the San Bernardino Daily Sun of Sunday, December 6:

"Fred Schultz, assistant foreman in the mechanical department of the Pacific Electric shop, died suddenly at his home early yesterday morning a victim of a stroke of apoplexy.

Returning from his day's work at the shops Friday evening, Schultz was in apparently the best of health according to his fellow workers. On reaching his home he complained of an ache in his arm but later in the evening told members of his family that it had disappeared. At 4 o'clock yesterday morning, Mr. Schultz died. He is survived by his widow and daughter, of San Bernardino, and two sisters and four brothers, residing in Michigan. Funeral arrangements have not been announced and it has not been decided whether the burial will be in Riverside or this city.

Coming here from Ann Arbor, Mich., where he had been general foreman in a large machine shop for several years, Mr. Schultz had been in the employ of the Pacific Electric company for a period of five years at the time of his death. He was one of the most popular men among the P. E. employees and had gained a wide acquaintanceship because of his jovial disposition.

Nearly two years ago he was appointed as assistant to C. F. Rockoff, day foreman. Mr. Schultz was rated as one of the best machinists employed by the railway company, a tribute given by James Gilbert, general foreman. During the past few months he had attended the San Bernardino high school night classes of electricity with other employees of his company.

"Schultz had been living at 17 Bungalow Court since coming here from Riverside two years ago. The boyhood days of Mr. Schultz were spent at the family home in Dexter township and from there he moved to Chelsea where he resided for several years, moving from here to Ann Arbor. Mrs. Schultz is a sister of Mrs. P. E. North Lake.

SCHOOL NOTES

Last Friday the Athletic Association for 1925-1926 was organized. Talks on "Why we should have an Athletic Association" and "The value of athletics to the school and to the individual" were given by several of the students. The following officers were elected: President, Dwight Beach; secretary, Mae Hamp; treasurer, Elwin Hulce.

The boys' and girls' basketball teams started the season right. The girls won over their opponents by a score of 48-18. They displayed good team work and good spirit. The boys won by a margin of 69. Their floor work was very good. The Gory boys were unable to work the ball to their end of the hall when they did get it. This, however, was the first game Gregory had played. The school wishes to express their appreciation of the good work given by the township and the city.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Clark delightfully entertained the faculty, the school board members and their wives at their home on South street.

Next Friday night a Christmas program will be given by the grades in the high school auditorium.

The Senior class will hold a fair Tuesday night in the high school. Fancy work, baked goods, candy and popcorn will be on sale.

The Schick Test (the Schick Test is a test for diphtheria) was given to the students of the Chelsea Public School. The results were as follows: 100% of the students were found to be free from the disease.

A new bus has been purchased by the Chelsea Public School. It is a new bus, 25 miles to the school, 6 to 25 miles in 8 seconds. The Chelsea Public School is now the Chelsea Public School.

FIGHT ON WILBUR

The New York Herald-Tribune, strong republican newspaper and supporter of President Coolidge is represented at Washington by Carter Field, an able writer, a rock-ribbed republican himself. Mr. Field has this to say in Sunday's Herald-Tribune about troubles that will face President Coolidge during this session of congress, which he predicts, will hold on until election day in 1928:

"With a grip on the front pages of most of the newspapers of the country that even the Rhineland case has been able to threaten only once or twice, Colonel Mitchell, whose court martial seems to have been marking time for the last few weeks awaiting the opening of the 'peep's forum' up on Capitol Hill, is ready for the new publicity fray. He is handicapped a bit by not being able to make any statements while his court martial is in progress, but he is girding up his loins, and making lots of notes for statements once his trial is concluded.

"Further, there is something about a drive to oust a member of the President's cabinet which always stirs the popular imagination, and the Mitchell forces, reinforced by many who do not agree with the very air crusader, are concentrating for an effort to send Secretary of the Navy Wilbur back to California, or 'kick him up stairs' to the Supreme Court bench. They do not care much which.

"There is plenty of ammunition for the attack in the opinion of the general in command of the anti-Wilbur camp. Plenty will be made of the critics of the Naval Secretary of what they will call the persecution of the widow of a gallant air officer—Mrs. Zachary Lansdowne. This case of course, fitted into the Mitchell battle as though it were made to order. Mitchell predicted that the Navy Department would attempt to whitewash the Shenandoah and lay what blame there was on the dead commander.

"Along comes Mrs. Lansdowne with the charge that the judge advocate of the naval court attempted to get her to 'twist the facts.' No denial is made by this officer that he attempted to dissuade her from charging that the last voyage of the Shenandoah was a perilous flight. No denial is made of the fact that he wrote out a statement which she would read to the court of inquiry. The judge advocate was acquitted by the court of any wrongdoing, and as a matter of fact even his enemies do not charge him with anything save being a bit zealous on behalf of his chief, Secretary Wilbur. But how that story is going to be told and related as the battle against Wilbur proceeds! Incidentally the Democrats are chuckling over the use they will make of Governor Richardson's offer last week to reappoint Wilbur Chief Justice of the California Supreme Court. They are going to say that Richardson was doing his utmost to entice his party chief, President Coolidge, from an embarrassing situation, but that Wilbur didn't know enough to be afraid.

"Although it appears that the Democrats on the Ways and Means Committee, headed by John Garner of Texas, have laid down cold on the public it might have protected in the tax bill, there promises to be a fight led by a coalition of republicans and democrats which may give the tax measure a rougher passage than has been predicted.

"There is certainly enough in the criticism of Secretary Wilbur, of the Navy Department, to make a feast for a holiday of enemies of the Coolidge administration.

MITCHELL SAYS NAY

Democrats of Wisconsin have formulated a plan to nominate Colonel William Mitchell, now being court-martialed in Washington, for the senate seat of Senator Lenroot next year. They would run him on an anti-platform—that is, anti-prohibition, anti-administration and anti-world court platform. The colonel says no, that he has troubles enough of his own.

"This thing of one political party taking up a man whom another political party has tried to crucify, has not worked well in American politics. Colonel Mitchell has rendered a great service to his country by attracting attention to some of its direct necessities for defense and he can further serve in continuing the exposition he has so well started. Let him alone to that accomplishment.

"PRESIDENT FOR LIFE"

As he is the only man who has ever done anything sensible or worth while for his country, he is elected president, and Turkey

WORK INSURANCE

Haley Fisk, head of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, with two billions of dollars back of it, announces that his company is ready to write "work insurance," whenever proper legislation is passed making it safely legal to do so. The Metropolitan plans to insure all workers against idleness. "If it can be done, it will be the greatest step forward in the history of insurance, and will do more to stabilize the country and its working population, than anything that has ever been done.

The fear of losing their jobs has made millions of men less efficient. To cover his job with an insurance policy will put much more backbone and interest in every man who has a job, because such insurance would of necessity, require that every man insured would have to do his best at all times, or his insurance would not be collectible. There could never be a policy written which would cover the shiftless, the careless and the indifferent worker.

"MA" ESCAPES

The threatened impeachment of "Ma" Ferguson of Texas has blown into this air since Attorney General Dan Moody of Texas rendered a decision to the effect that it would be "against public policy for rich men to finance a session of the legislature for impeachment proceedings," and that it would not be legal to draw warrants for the session, since it was not and would not be called by the governor.

It was announced in the same breath that Moody is a candidate for the democratic gubernatorial nomination next year, and that neither of the Fergusons will run.

The Texas political boss, like the political boss anywhere else, "moves in devious ways his political interest to serve."

DOHENY CASES VALID

The United States Court of the District of Columbia quashed indictments against Albert C. Fall, former secretary of the interior and Edward L. Doheny, in the California oil land transfer cases, some months ago. The District of Columbia Court of Appeals holds that the indictments are valid, and that the indicted men must face trial on the charges.

"We haven't rubbed off all the odor of oil from our political 'scutcheon,' yet."

AIR SURVEY

To Rear Admiral C. H. Hughes has been entrusted the task of making a survey of the 40,000 square miles of Alaska, as yet unsurveyed and snow capped mountains, and icy rivers have so far held up the work of making a complete survey of the terrain of Alaska. The air survey in pictures is expected to complete the work undertaken many years ago by the use of land methods of surveying.

FESSENDEN SUES

Prof. Reginald A. Fessenden of Boston, has sued eight corporations for restraint of trade. He asks damages in the sum of $60,000,000, and names the following:

The Radio Corporation of America, the General Electric Company, Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, American Telephone and Telegraph Company, the Wireless Specialty Apparatus Company and the International Radio Telegraph Company, the Western Electric Company, and the United Fruit Company.

The grounds on which he sues are that these companies have formed a combine to prevent the use of new inventions, thus destroying his property rights in valuable radio and electrical patents.

There has been little doubt in the public mind for some time, that there is a powerful combination of capital in the radio and electrical fields, seeking to control all inventions for radio, and all transmission through the air.

It is believed by many people, that if there were a free and open field, that inventions which have already been perfected, would put in the field many improvements for the transmission of messages.

There are, and have always been, defects in our patent laws, which have permitted profiteers to exploit the public by buying patents and manufacturing "patented" articles which are a monopoly under our laws.

For many years an effort was made to so amend the patent law that all patents would be free to the use of anybody who had the capital and enterprise to manufacture under them, and pay a royalty to the inventor for the manufacturing privilege.

Henry Ford is the only man on record who successfully battled a largely capitalized patent and won out, thus giving to the American public an automobile at a price that the humble worker could enjoy its use and possess the pleasure it afforded. If Henry Ford had not won the Edison patent suit, the public would be paying two, three or four times as much as it is for its motor cars.

The time will come, ultimately, when patents will be used for the benefit of inventors and the public which buys the patented article rather than by great corporations to pile up greater profits.

PUT TURKS TO WORK

Reports from Turkey are to the effect that the country has been greatly benefited by the proclamation of President Kemal that "all Turks must work. They have turned to various useful occupations at which they have never worked before, and are making good."

This is looked upon as the beginning of a new era in Turkey, where labor can be had at low cost where the living costs are low and when trained in the various trades, the Turks can be competitors with the whole world in the matter of price.

When an institution is distinguished by fifty years of public service there is little question as to its strength. An unsound bank will not go down the decades carrying the honest approval of good and careful people.

On January 7th, 1926, Dodge Brothers, Inc., will announce a tremendous reduction in the prices of their complete line of motor cars.

These reductions will apply on all cars bought after midnight December 15th, 1925.

When the new prices are made known on January 7th, the full amount of the reductions will be immediately refunded to purchasers since December 15th.

These revolutionary reductions are made possible by a recently completed $10,000,000 expansion program---new buildings and equipment that nearly double the capacity of Dodge Brothers factories in 1926.

There is no change in the policy upon which Dodge Brothers established their leadership 11 years ago ---the policy of constant improvement without yearly models.

NERVES ALL UNSTRUNG!

Chelsea Folks Should Find the Cause and Correct It.

Are you all worn out? Feel tired, nervous, half-sick? Do you have a constant headache, sharp twinges of pain, too, with dizzy spells and annoying urinary disorders? Then there's cause for worry and more cause to give your weakened kidneys prompt help. Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys.

Chelsea folks recommend Doan's for just such troubles.

Lewis Eschelbach, farmer, R. F. D. No. 2, Chelsea, says: "I was in bad shape with kidney trouble. My back was painful and there was a constant weakness and soreness just over my kidneys. My head ached and I was nervous. I didn't get any relief until I started taking Doan's Pills from Freeman's Drug Store. Three boxes of Doan's cured me."

Entrance to the building was gained by cutting a piece out of one of the window panes on the first floor and raising the catch. They then went into the janitor's room and procured some tools with which they forced entrance into the other rooms, which are kept locked. The door to the high school room was taken off by removing the pins from the hinges and that of the superintendent's office by cutting a hole through a panel in the door. Several of the other rooms were entered and an attempt made to force entrance into the laboratory.—Leader.

A doctor friend tells us there is nothing to the scheme to measure the brains of congressmen to find out how much they know, that the most brilliant senator New York ever had had a very small head. Patents

The extension of a patent and the re-issuance of a patent are entirely different from each other. Under the patent laws, by an extension of a patent is meant a prolongation of its life, so that the patent remains in force through an extended period of time. When the term of a patent was made 17 years in the year 1881, the law respecting extension was modified so as to provide that an extension shall be granted only by special act of congress, the effect of which has been that extensions have not been granted since such modification took effect. A re-issue of a patent consists of the grant of an amended patent in the place of one which the patent office permits the patentee to surrender because it is inoperative or invalid on account of a defective or insufficient specification or on account of the patentee having claimed in the original patent as to his invention or discovery more than he had a right to claim as new.

Coleridge

Great in his writings, he was great in his conversation. In him was disproved that old maxim, that we should avoid every one his share of talk. He would talk from morn to dewy eve, nor cease till far midnight, yet who ever would interrupt him, who would obstruct that continuous flow of converse, fetched from Helicon or Zion? He had the tact of making the unintelligible seem plain. Many who read the abstruser parts of his "Friend" would complain that his words did not answer to his spoken wisdom. They were identical. But he had a tone in oral delivery, which seemed to convey sense to those who were otherwise imperfect recipients. He was my fifty-year-old friend without a dissension. Never saw I his likeness, nor probably the world can see again, Lamb.

Ever Thought of That?

A lady, examining a Sunday school class about Dives and Lazarus, asked whether it was not very bad of Dives not to give the crumbs to Lazarus. All the children said "Yes" except one little girl. "Perhaps, mamma, Dives kept chickens," she suggested.

Escaped by Camouflage

Mattina, daughter of Henry J. of England, used camouflage to escape from Oxford in 1914. Clothed in white, under cover of a heavy snowstorm, she passed unnoticed through the besieging army of King Stephen.

Doubtful Record

The greatest age at which a man is said to have become a father is one hundred and two. This was stated by the age of Thomas Beatty of Drimadree, near Dublin, when his young, erst-born, came into the world.

Makes Candle Last

If you want candles to last try the following plan: "Take each candle by the wick and give it a good coating of white varnish. Then put away for a day or two, to harden. The varnish prevents the wick from running down and so preserves the life of the candle."

The Consumer's Dollar

Of the consumer's dollar, 70.8 per cent is the average required for necessities, including shelter, food, clothing, light and heat. This leaves 29.2 per cent for savings, entertainments, de-velupment and sundry expenses. Good Hardware.

NORTH LAKE M. E. CHURCH
Rev. Frank Snooks, Pastor
Sunday, December 20—
10:30—Sermon by Rev. Frank Snooks, followed by communion service, assisted by Rev. H. G. Pearce.
12 M. The Christmas lesson. Rev. H. G. Pearce will teach the lesson in the Golden Rule class again this week. All who were present last Sunday to enjoy the masterly treatment of the lesson, will welcome this news.

Mrs. H. G. Pearce has promised to give a short talk for the young people. Mrs. Pearce has given this talk in many Sunday schools and you are fortunate in having her with us. Christmas services will be observed Sunday, December 27, at 10:30. The service will consist of individual prayer and singing.

Identifying Artists
One way of proving the identity of a canvas is by the examination of the brush stroke. As one critic has said: "The brush strokes of a painter are as individual as the handwriting of a writer."

Nothing to Worry About
To hear some young women talk they would be very choosy in selecting a husband. When it comes to domestic ability, men are not so finicky, if we may believe this paragraph from Judge: The ceremony over, the wife began to weep copiously.

"What's the matter?" asked the new husband. "I never told you that I don't know how to cook," sobbed the bride. "Don't fret," said he, "I'll not have anything to cook. I'm an editor."—Capper's Weekly.

Indian Summer
There are no definite dates for Indian summer, which is a period of warm or mild weather late in autumn or in early winter, usually characterized by a clear, cloudless sky, and by a hazy or smoky appearance of the atmosphere, especially near the horizon. The term is commonly applied to such period occurring in October or more commonly in November, after a definite frost.

Meteoric Visitors
It is computed that between 10,000,000 and 20,000,000 strike the earth's atmosphere daily. Two or three meteorites are seen to fall yearly. Since a large part of the earth is covered with water or uninhabited, it is thought probable that about 100 strike the earth annually. It is not known positively that meteoric and meteoritic are composed of the same materials.

Offering will be taken.

Giant Locusts
In certain parts of Africa the locusts attain a length of four inches and feed on trees—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Must Be of Metal
Metal railway sleepers have to be used in many parts of India. Wooden sleepers would be eaten by insects.

Sable Philosopher
Some say that poverty is a blessing in disguise, but when I see him comin' I pray that I won't be blessed out o' house an' home.—Atlanta Constitution.

Too Risky
The stern parent was admonishing his offspring not to be effeminate. "Don't be a mollycoddle," he said. "Talk like a man." "Yes, and then you'd give me a kickin' for cussin'." whimpered the kid.—Philadelphia Record.

Nor Would Mortician Be
"Sing at your work rather than grumble and you'll make friends and get on," says a writer of inspirational literature. But the mosquito sings at his work, and he isn't popular.—Louisville Times.
