INDEPENDENT PARTY ELECTS BY OVERWHELMING MAJORITY

Sixty-Nine Votes Cast for Ticket Headed by F. E. Storms; No Opposition Offered Present Administration.

Votes at $1.50 each, were cast at the village election here Monday when sixty-nine voters registered their approval of the Independent party candidates running for village offices. The ticket, the only one in the field, was headed by Frank E. Storms for president; J. C. Maroney, clerk; E. E. Winans, treasurer; E. H. Chandler, G. W. Palmer and Edwin Koebber, trustees; John B. Cole, assessor. Expenses of the election is expected to total approximately $90.

Because of the lack of opposition the election was merely a formality required by law, and little interest was shown. Members of the election board had the "snap" of their lives, waiting anxiously for arrival of the next voter who happened to stray from the beaten path of Main street into the sunbeam of election officials.

UNION MEETING AT M. E. CHURCH SUNDAY EVENING

The pastors have arranged for a union meeting in the Methodist church for next Sunday night at the usual hour, and they have secured as the speaker, Dr. W. S. Fleming of Chicago, who will talk on "Christ in the Schools or Chaos in the Nation."

He is speaking over Michigan at this time in the interest of the bill now before the legislature to provide for the return of the Bible to the schools of the state.

He is nationally known as an author, lecturer and preacher, and will be remembered in Chelsea for he spoke here some years ago one Sunday afternoon at a mass meeting in the Congregational church.

He is said to be the best informed man in the country on the Bible in the schools, and the pastors are expecting a large attendance.

NATIONAL FLOWER SHOW ATTRACTING LARGE CROWDS

The Standard office makes grateful acknowledgment of two beautiful flower files presented by the Chelsea Greenhouses, and with a greeting from Mayor John W. Smith, of Detroit, in honor of the National Flower show, now being held at Convention hall in that city. The flower show opened on the 12th and continues until March 20.

Many local people have attended the elaborate display of horticulturalists from all over the country, and all have been unanimous in unlimited praise of the luxuriant and brilliant flower gardens reproduced there. Literally acres of blooming flowers, beautiful foliage plants, artistically grouped in a very attractive manner greet the eye of the show visitor, these displays being shown by florists from one end of the country to the other.

From flowers of the more common variety to those rarely seen, the show presents a display of gorgeous grandeur never to be forgotten by visitors. Because of the richness of the display and beauty of the flower garden products, management of the show and those who have visited the display are urging those who can to be sure and see it. It is expected many from here will visit the show over the next weekend.

GOLF CLUB WILL ERECT PRIVATE TELEPHONE LINE

The Sylvan township board held a meeting last Friday afternoon at which time they granted permission to the Sylvan Estates Golf club and J. L. Lowry to erect a private telephone line from the club grounds to the intersection of M-92 at Hiemen-schneider's corner, where a connection will be made with the Bell telephone lines. All poles are to be set as far as possible, 25 feet from the center of the highway. No trees or shrubbery are to be destroyed, nor entrance to any farm buildings or fields are to be obstructed and the poles are to be of sufficient height so that there will be no interference with public traffic.

The Michigan Bell Telephone Co. have agents out securing the permission of farmers along the highways over which the proposed line will traverse, to set poles. Under the agreement as entered into all poles are to be set within two feet of the highway fences. At present the highways are working along the highway leading west from the red school house in Sylvan. The proposed new line is to be a cable constructed one. Later the town board will be asked by the company for permission to cross the highways along the proposed route.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends for the kindness shown us during the death of our baby; also for the beautiful floral offerings.

PROF. W. D. HENDERSON ADDRESSED BROTHERHOOD

Taking for his subject, "What Price Democracy", Prof. W. D. Henderson, head of the extension department of the University of Michigan, delivered a splendid address before the members of the Men's Brotherhood and their ladies of the Congregational church, at the regular meeting of that organization on Tuesday evening.

Supper was served in the church dining room by Cloverleaf Chapter, after which the audience went upstairs to the auditorium where a musical program preceded the address by Prof. Henderson. Vocal selections were given by Mrs. M. J. Baxter and J. H. Hoyt, and Miss Dorothy Cavanaugh, accompanied with saxophone solos. Approximately 135 persons were in attendance at the meeting.

CHELSEA KIWANIS WILL BE INTER-CITY HOST MONDAY

Jackson, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti Kiwanians and Ladies Will Attend Banquet and Program in Auditorium.

About 400 Kiwanians and their ladies are expected to attend a banquet and program at the public school auditorium here on Monday evening when the Chelsea Kiwanis Club will act as hosts to Ann Arbor, Jackson and Ypsilanti clubs. Capacity of the auditorium is expected to be taxed to care for the crowd.

Opening with a banquet to be served by the school, the evening's enjoyment will continue with musical selections by "Proddie and Teddie", WCHP radio entertainers who have made a real hit in entertainment programs here and elsewhere. The principal speaker of the evening is Dr. Chester B. Emerson, pastor of the North Woodward Congregational church, Detroit, and one of the outstanding speakers in this section of the state. Lewis Reiman of Ann Arbor, Kiwanis governor of the state of Michigan, is expected to be present and bring greetings of the state organizations, and Geo. Millage, of Ypsilanti, and Archie M. Case, of Jackson, district governors of Kiwanis, will be honored guests. President Howard Boyd of the local club, will preside at the meeting, while club singing will be directed by Paul F. Niehaus of the Chelsea club.

During the banquet and at the conclusion of the program, Shadford's orchestra of Ann Arbor will play the latter part of the evening being devoted to dancing on the auditorium floor.

This meeting, which is occasioning considerable comment, ranks as one of the outstanding Kiwanis social events to take place this year, in southern Michigan. Hard work and considerable time is being given by members of the local club in putting over this program which will bring to Chelsea a representative gathering from these neighboring cities.

LOCAL COUPLE UNITED IN MARRIAGE SATURDAY

The marriage of Miss Clara Miller to Mr. Lloyd Lantis quietly took place at the Methodist parsonage last Saturday evening. Both are well known and respected young people of Chelsea. They were attended by Miss Edith Trolley of Chelsea, and Mr. Lewis Wahl of Munith.

The young couple will make their future home on the Burkhardt farm south of Chelsea.

Their many friends and acquaintances wish them much happiness and success.

REAGER HATCHERY IN STABLES BIG INCUBATOR

Klager Hatchery of Bridgewater has recently installed a Mammoth Smith incubator which has a capacity of 45,000 eggs. This incubator is so designed as to occupy a floor space 10x13 feet. It is eight feet high, and virtually automatic, 1,680 eggs are lowered and turned in the course of a few seconds.

The machine is equipped with four constantly running fans which completely change the air every three minutes. This warmed air filters upward with precision, insuring a steady scientific process of incubation. Another instrument keeps a complete record of temperature variations throughout the incubating season.

The Klager Hatchery announces that its main breeds will be White Leghorns, White Rocks, Rhode Island Reds, and Barred Rocks, and that special orders will be given best attention. They invite inspection of the giant incubator.

TOWNSHIP CAUCUS ATTRACTS LARGEST CROWD IN YEARS

Town Hall Too Small to Accommodate Crowd Which Attends Annual Nominating Event for Sylvan.

With a crowd in attendance which rivaled in size those of the "old days", Republican electors of Sylvan gathered at the town hall Saturday afternoon to nominate for various township offices. Two candidates for clerk and six for treasurer created contests in which nearly everyone was interested, and it was in these many-cornered conflicts where the heavy vote was cast.

In the first ballot cast 240 persons voted, with Dale Claire receiving 129 votes, defeating Geo. S. Davis, present incumbent, who received 102. Nine votes were scattered. Inability of approximately 100 voters to enter the crowded hall was responsible for the small number of votes cast, the succeeding ballot for treasurer totaling 346 ballots.

In the race for the townshipship which was participated in by Wm. Fahrner, Miss Elizabeth Depew, Lynn Kern, Ed. B. Hammond, Oscar Kalmbach and Harold Spaulding, Fahrner, Hammond and Kalmbach proved the favorites, receiving 30, 133 and 69 respectively, on the first ballot. On the second vote 248 ballots were cast, Fahrner receiving 83, Hammond 131 and Kalmbach 69. Before the third ballot was taken Kalmbach and Miss Depew withdrew, and Hammond received 148 and Fahrner 99, giving a majority to Hammond.

Howard Boyd, present supervisor, was nominated without opposition for the same office. Wm. Pritchard was nominated without opposition for highway commissioner to succeed himself. O. J. Walworth for Justice of the Peace, O. C. Burkhardt for member of Board of Review, Leonard Loveland for overseer of highways, and constables nominated are: Edwin H. Chandler, George A. Young, Roy T. Evans and Frank Leach.

Township Republican committeemen appointed were: J. Hummel, J. Bacon and John Kalmbach.

Jacob Hummel acted as chairman of the caucus and Geo. S. Davis, secretary.

In the democratic caucus which was held immediately at the close of the republican meeting, Frank Sweetland was nominated for supervisor, but afterward withdrew; for clerk, Henry Ahmiller, treasurer was left vacant by vote of the caucus; highway commissioner, Gottlieb Bollinger; Justice of the peace, N. H. Cook; member board of review, Joseph Mayer; overseer highways, Jas. Dann; constables, George Leach, Matthew Harker, J. E. Weber and Clyde Main.

Township democratic committee: H. D. Witherell, Geo. W. Beckwith and N. H. Cook.

Republicans of Freedom nominated Wm. H. Eisenman for supervisor; for clerk, Ben J. Brinkenschwiler; treasurer, D. W. Schneider; highway commissioner, Edwin Hisher; Justice of the peace, Edwin R. Buss; member board of review, Oscar Staebler; overseer of highways, Chris Keubler.

Democrats: Supervisor, Godfrey Fitzmaier; clerk, George Loeffler; treasurer, Theodore J. Kuhl; highway commissioner, Gottlieb Horning; Justice of peace, Wm. J. Duerle; overseer of highways, Reuben Sott; constables, Theodore J. Kuhl, Edwin Kuhl, Alvin Niehaus, Paul Stricker.

In Ling township nominations were made as follows:

Republican: Supervisor, A. J. Easton; clerk, Glenn Barbour; highway commissioner, John Exeler; treasurer, Elmer Schiller; Justice of the peace, Henry Wilson; board of review, full term, Chas. Downer, to fill vacancy, George Rothfuss.

Democrat: Supervisor, Leigh Beach; clerk, Adolph Gross; treasurer, Edwin Kaercher; highway commissioner, Albert Eschelbach; Justice, Ernest Adams; board of review, full term, Robert Toney; to fill vacancy, Wm. Pidd.

THE POWER TO PASS THAT'S DIXIE GAS!

MICHIGAN LEGISLATIVE LETTER

March 11, 1927.
By Len W. Feighner
Weary with watchful waiting for the real business of the legislature to get under way, many of the members are complaining of the dilatory tactics which preclude prolongation of the session until spring planting. Two hour daily sessions for three days in the week, with a brief session Monday evenings and Friday mornings have been the rule, and while business lags both houses are growing restless. Much hope is expressed that another week will see things getting under way in earnest.
The main topic of discussion the past week has been the capital punishment proposition. The Armstrong bill, which passed the House 61-35, is still held up in the Judiciary committee of the Senate, which seems averse to reporting it out. Senator Cass Jankowski of Wayne has been the subject of much chaffing this week over his proposition to go over to Jackson prison to ascertain how many of the condemned murderers there will admit their guilt and to compile their views on capital punishment. It is said three of the committee of seven favor reporting the bill out for settlement on this floor and three are opposed, with one still undecided. There is an insistent demand for the bill and opinion now seems to be that Tuesday will bring matters to a head and that the bill will come before the Senate. At first it was thought the bill would meet defeat in the upper house, but two prominent members expressed the opinion Thursday that the bill would pass the Senate and go to the governor for his approval or rejection. So far no one claims to know what his decision will be.
The gas and weight tax bills and highway finance combine a question which is vexing the legislators. Dozens of propositions have come to light, some of them in the form of bills and others yet in embryo. A public hearing before the roads and bridges committee late last week has as yet borne no fruit, but present appearances are that a compromise measure will soon come up on which an agreement may be made. One thing seems certain and that is that the poorer counties will have better in the division of the funds than ever before.
Highway maintenance will be greatly increased this year over former years through the action of the administrative board Monday in releasing $4,500,000 for maintenance work in 1927. This will permit a more thorough care of the gravel roads and it is hoped will result in all of them being treated with dust-layers, which gave such good results last year on those roads which received the treatment.
Governor Green has the prison commission working to ascertain if it is good business to go ahead with the construction of the women's prison at Ontonagon or to continue the mode of farming them out to the Detroit institution, with its new prison for women.

Both branches of the legislature held short sessions Monday evening and adjourned out of respect to the memory of Representative Joseph A. Dziemgiewski of Hamtramck, who died from pneumonia at an Ann Arbor hospital Sunday morning. Both houses appointed committees to attend the funeral.
Senator Lennon's proposal to do away entirely with state taxes and meet expenses from a tobacco tax is bringing in floods of remonstrances and support from all over the state. Mr. Lennon's idea is in the form of a resolution putting the matter up to a state-wide vote at the November election.
Another proposition which is bringing both supporting and adverse petitions from all sections of the state is Rep. Ate Dykstra's proposition to have Bible readings in all public schools.
Great satisfaction is expressed by many of the legislators over the news from Washington that Senator Coughlin has recommended the appointment of Congressman Earl Michener of Adrian to the position of United States Judge for the eastern district of Michigan.
University of Michigan will receive approximately $15,000,000 during the coming two years if bills introduced by Senator Sink of Ann Arbor go through. One bill asks for $2,400,000 for 1927 and $2,525,000 for 1928, most of which would go to the purchase and new buildings which President Little says are badly needed. The other bill asks for the removal of the present limitation of $3,700,000 on the sixth-month tax.
The House passed the DeBoer bill reducing the privilege tax on building and loan associations, and on motion of Rep. Watson of Canby the bill was given immediate effect. The legality of the proceeding is seriously questioned, because the constitution provides that only such acts as are immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health or safety may be given immediate effect, a provision, however, that is ignored with more or less frequency.
The Senate Thursday passed the bill providing for the superintendent of public instruction giving bonds in the sum of $10,000. The bill had previously passed the House and now goes to Governor Green.
Under Rep. John Simpson's bill, which has now passed both houses, prisoners attempting escape from prison may be held guilty of felony and may be given not more than three years additional sentence.
A plan to move the Pontiac asylum to Lansing is proposed in a bill introduced by Senator Quimlan of Grand Rapids. The bill appropriates a million dollars to be spent within the next two years in erecting a new asylum on state-owned lands in Lansing. It is proposed to discontinue the Pontiac institution, wreck the buildings, which are said to be in poor condition, and sell the lands, which are claimed to be worth $2,000,000 or more.
Senator Chas. E. Green of Richmond is expected to continue the mode of farming them out to the Detroit institution, with its new prison for women.

Senator Jankowski of Detroit introduced a bill Thursday providing for state pensions not exceeding $1.00 per day to all persons over 70 years of age who have an annual income of less than $500 and owning property valued at less than $3000.
Under a bill introduced by Senator Pulver, it will be necessary for highway officials to hold a hearing before they can condemn private lands for highway purposes.
Senator Condon of Detroit has introduced a bill providing for an increase in the salaries for Supreme Court Justices to $15,000. The present salary is $10,000.
Senator Rushton of Escanaba would abolish the township system of caring for the poor, in counties with a population of less than 175,000.
Senator Binning, in a bill introduced Thursday, proposes cutting the limit to be loaned on mortgage in state banks from one-tenth of the assets to one-twentieth.
The car tax bill was passed by the House at the Friday session and given immediate effect. The bill had previously passed the Senate and is now ready for the Governor's signature. The bill provides for state cooperation with the federal government in the fight against what is undoubtedly the most serious insect pest which has ever threatened agriculture in America. Of the 3,000,000 acres now affected by the pest, 900,000 are in Michigan, so that practically one-third of the 10 million government appropriation will probably be spent in this state. The bill passed Friday carries an appropriation of $200,000.
The Senate passed the Condon bill, providing for severe penalties for planting stench and other bombs; and the bill now goes to the House for approval.
Representative Ate Dykstra of Grand Rapids has a bill in which he would abolish trading stamps, except those issued by individual stores.
A bill introduced by Representative Joseph T. Campbell of Hastings would make the law providing for organization of township school districts not applicable to places over 1500 population. The present limit is 750.
Villages are authorized to establish sewers and sewer disposal systems under a bill introduced by Representative Chas. H. Reed of Chgo. Mr. Reed has also introduced two bills affecting the publication of election and registration notices.
Both branches adjourned Friday noon until Monday night at 8 o'clock.

FORD VISITORS' LIST
LARGE IN 1926
The Fordson plant's reputation, figures show, is growing as the plant itself expands.
In 1925, the plant drew 24,790 visitors into its gates, along its roadways through the aisles and walkways of its numerous buildings. Last year, the visitor total went up to 40,782—a gain of 15,985.
Visitors to the number of 140,333 went through the parent plant at Highland Park during the year. The Ford Laboratories and the plant of the Stout Metal Airplane Division at Dearborn attracted 7,479.
Though the number of visitors to the Highland Park plant was less in 1926 than in 1925, due chiefly to the 5-day week closing the plant to visitors on Saturdays, the total number of visitors to the Ford plants in the Detroit area surpasses by about four thousand the total of the previous year.
Among the notable visitors of the year were Commander Richard E. Byrd, polar aviator, Crown Prince Gustavus Adolphus and Crown Princess Louise of Sweden, President Louis Borno of the Haitian Republic, and Prince Nicholas of Rumania.
Among the notable groups were five thousand Ford dealers from nearly every part of the United States.

The Rev. F. O. Jones of the Old Peoples Home was given a happy surprise on Monday evening by the inmates of the Home on the occasion of his birthday. The inmates gathered after supper in the parlor, filling it to overflowing, and when the guest of honor was escorted into the parlor, he received a genuine surprise. The Rev. W. Firth and family were honored guests at the party. Rev. Firth made a few fitting remarks with reference to the faithful and valuable services of Mr. Jones to the Home for the past thirteen years as chaplain, after which he was presented with a beautiful leather-seated combination Morris chair and rocker, as a token of the esteem in which he is held. When the recipient recovered from his surprise, he replied in a very pleasing speech in which he said among other things, that his services had been gladly given and he had never looked for any such recognition. After this a short program followed consisting of songs, special instrumental music by Mrs. Anderson, and readings by Mrs. Wheeler, all of which were very heartily received. The gathering concluded with ice cream and cake.

Not How They Look, But How Well They Serve That's the Important Thing About Glasses

Don't misunderstand us. We certainly do not mean that glasses detract from one's appearance. As a matter of fact, correctly fitted glasses frequently add to the wearer's personal attractiveness and charm, rather than otherwise. But always bear in mind that style is not the important thing about glasses. Their value lies in how well they correct your particular defect of vision.
Lenses are ground after a specific prescription based upon a careful examination of the eyes, and the vitaly important part of obtaining glasses is in securing a proper diagnosis of the existing defects. It requires specialized skill, knowledge and experience to render satisfactory and dependable service along this line, and when such assistance is required a visit should be made to a competent optometrist. You cannot afford to take the slightest chance with your eyes, so—don't experiment. We are equipped to give just the service needed.

Scene from "BIGGER THAN BARNUM'S"

"Oh, Queen of Heaven! Sure, we're in bad case."

"We are," I asserted grimly as I followed Peter inside. "Have you a light?"

She took a lantern from under a cloth, and its scanty rays played hide-and-seek with the shadows over the rude log walls and the piles of rum barrels and kegs of hard-tack and the clumsy stack of treasure.

Reter laid my great-uncle gently upon the earthen floor—there was no softer bed—and began cutting away the garments from around the bit of the knife, which was still fixed in his right side.

"And why didn't you go with them?" I asked. She gave me an indignant look.

"And be leaving the two of ye! I am not that kind of friend, Bob."

Peter looked up from his task.

"You got to watch dot door, Bob. Andt, Molra, you bring me some rum. Maybe Murray gets back his sense before."

I suddenly found myself unwilling to believe it could be so.

"He can't Peter!"

"Ja," replied the Dutchman patiently. "Pretty soon he goes. He bleeds inside."

I stumbled to the doorway with my head in a whirl. Murray dying? "Twas incredible! That tremendous personality, so masterful, so about, dominating all with whom he came in contact, so fully compounded of wickedness, greatness, wisdom and naïveté! And explain it how you will, for months beneath my surface resentment. Up to this moment! I had tested him. But I choked now at the thought of his death. Whether he was, he was no coward. And there was about his end in this awful, haphazard fashion, established by a blind man in the dark, a redeeming touch of high tragedy. He, whose dominions had vaulted the stars, to perish by the hand of Peter! And in a moment when apparently he had snatched victory from defeat!

Mechanically I carried chests of gold and silver ingots from the heap of treasure and built a barricade across the doorway. But nothing came. Feet shushed in the sand all around the blockhouse; voices called and questioned and argued; an occasional shot was fired—no more. Peter's triumph had been too amazingly complete for him to grasp, and evidently there were dissensions in the pirates' ranks as to what the next step should be.

"The hour-glass we had fetched from the royal James stood by the door, and I remember that I turned it twice before Peter tapped my shoulder.

"He wants you," he said.

Murray lay with his head in Molra's lap. On his face was stamped a waxy pallor. His nostrils were sunken and pinched in. A crimson froth showed at the corner of his mouth. But his twinkling eyes blazed with the unconquerable fire of his spirit. As I stooped over him—a mocking gleam radiated from their black depths, and his lips moved in almost voiceless speech.

"Sorry, eh?" I nodded, and the mockery became more pronounced.

"Would have—won you—boy—in time," Molra wiped the dreadful bubbles from his lips.

"You won't carry out—ph?" he asked.

"I would be dishonest to promise," I answered. "And I doubt if we are like to live much longer than you." The fingers of one hand fluttered strangely.

"Tut, boy—never—lose hope. Win yet—myself!"

His colorless lips parted in a ghostly smile at the shocked disbeliever in my face.

"This will be—end of—Fint! Kill me—kill himself!" His fingers fluttered again, and Molra whispered:

"I will be his—quid—his—after—writting, Bob."

And as I flinched for it in the week of his count, she added—

"But truth by his death does he use it the once."

I hesitated, but the look in his eyes impelled me to give it to him.

"Good lad!"

And his fingers closed lovingly on the jeweled trinket, picking at the lid he was wont to click open and shut in moments of perplexity. The twinkling eyes flared toward Molra.

"Take care—mud—good blood—in her. Family, Robert—breeding—land—marks in—mind world."

"I'll do what I can," I promised, seeing he expected an answer.

"Might do—worse—or more," he replied with the shadow of a smile.

"Pew's knife—kept you—being—dude—Molra—"

A pause whilst Molra wiped his mouth.

"A mad world," he repeated. "What will—Prince Charles—say?"

His eyes clouded, and he murmured a snatch of song, one of those ranting Jacobite ballads that spread like wildfire after the '45—

"Come bent a challenge frae Dunbar, Charles, meet me an' ye daur!"

A coughing fit interrupted him, weakened him so I thought he was sped; but the ghostly voice went on with a hint of the gay, reckless tune:

"Hey, Johnnie Cope, are ye waukin' yet?"

Or are ye drume a beatin' yae?"

If ye waur waukin' I wad—"

His voice strengthened.

"Ah, your royal highness! The procession is ordered—the heralds—wait—my lords—common—"

He struggled so to rise that he shook him. I propped him against my shoulder.

"A glad day—this—and long coming—Do you use snuff—sir?" (His lip-lift—a sound brand.)

He opened the box and raised a pinch to his nostrils.

"A glad day—sir—but a mad world."

And so he died.

Overdoing?

Hurry, Worry and Overwork Bring Heavy Strain.

MODERN life throws a heavy burden on our bodily machinery. The eliminative organs, especially the kidneys, are apt to become sluggish. Retention of excess uric acid and other poisonous waste often gives rise to a dull, languid feeling and, sometimes, toxic backaches and headaches. That the kidneys are not functioning perfectly is often shown by burning or scanty passage of secretions. More and more people are learning to assist their kidneys by the occasional use of Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic. Ask your neighbor!

CHURCH CIRCLES

METHODIST EPISCOPAL
Walter Fifth, Pastor

Next Sunday morning we shall continue our meditations for the Lenten season, when the subject will be: "The Supreme Purpose of Lent." According to many testimonies these messages are proving inspiring and helpful to all who are interested in a full gospel. A prayerful spirit and a heart hungry for the truth will bring great blessing to you and others at this season. We were greeted with a fine crowd last Sunday morning. Bring a friend with you next Sunday.

We look for every member of the Epworth League to be present next Sunday evening. Miss Dorothea Steiner will be the leader, and will discuss the sixth chapter of "Young Islam on Trek." Come and enjoy this interesting study.

Next Sunday evening the service will be in the form of a union meeting of the churches to meet in our own church. Dr. W. S. Fleming, who represents the National Reform Association will be the speaker, and will speak on: "Christ in the Schools, or Chaos in the Nation." Dr. Fleming is a very popular lecturer and preacher, and is well posted in matters of Reform. He addressed a crowded house in Battle Creek a few nights ago, and met with a very enthusiastic reception. A live speaker with a live subject, he ought to be greeted with a full house. Come and bring your friends. Service at the usual time, 7:30.

Stocking

In the ordinary stocking, runs caused by knee strain or garter clasps go down and ruin the stocking. In Rollins Improved Double Runstop Hosiery, one runstop at the knee is the same color as the stocking and protects against knee strain.

The other runstop, always red, but out of sight even when worn with the shortest skirt, is at the hem and stops all garter runs. It is a red dotted line, which positively identifies Rollins Improved Double Runstop Hosiery. If you wear round garters your finger nails cannot cause disaster in pulling tight and rolling the top of the stocking.
