SALEM METHODIST CHURCH

HELD ANNUAL HOME-COMING

More Than Two Hundred People Gather for Services in "The Old Home Church."
More than 200 members and former members of Salem Methodist church, near Francisco, gathered at the church Sunday for the annual homecoming.
Sunday school was held at 10:00 o'clock, followed by the regular service at 11 o'clock, with Rev. Henry W. Lenz of Detroit, former pastor, delivering the sermon. A chicken dinner was served by the Ladies' Aid Society at 1:30 o'clock.

A program in the afternoon was presented as follows: Music, Chelsea orchestra; invocation, Rev. W. K. Komor of Ann Arbor; reading of scripture, Rev. H. W. Lenz of Detroit; piano solo, Miss Hazel Wahl, historical sketch, Mrs. Henry Gieske; music by orchestra; brief addresses by former pastors; diet, Walter and Alma Kalmbach; remarks by the pastor, Rev. Fred Ross; music by the orchestra, and benediction.

The church is 74 years old this year. Former pastors attending the homecoming included: Rev. H. Ban of Ann Arbor, Rev. Henry W. Lenz of Detroit and Mrs. Mary Miltner of Toledo, widow of the late Rev. C. Miltner, former pastor, also was a guest.

In 1853, Rev. John Schweinfurth, then pastor of the German Methodist church at Ann Arbor, organized the Salem-German Methodist church in Sylvan township, near Francisco. Mrs. Gieske said in telling of the history of the church.

"For five years the little group of worshippers met at the home of the pioneer settlers," she continued, "As immigration increased and more and more German families came into the community, it became necessary to have a more adequate meeting place."

In 1858 during the second pastorate of Rev. John Schweinfurth, the first church was built, the land for the site of the building and adjoining cemetery being donated by William Kalmbach and Philip Riemen-schneider.

The pastors in charge resided in Ann Arbor for 17 years, until 1870, when a parsonage was built. Since then the church always has had a resident pastor. For many years all services were conducted in the German language, but with the increased population and merging of nationalities, a gradual change in the language was made, and all services now are in the English language.

In 1888, during the pastorate of Rev. George Mitter the present church edifice was erected. The church has an active Epworth League, a Ladies' Aid Society, missionary society and Sunday school.

The following pastors have served the church: John Schweinfurth, Emil Raus, G. A. Fisher, S. Barth, A. Wobler, A. Maier, Theo. Schumann, H. Reith, George Mitter, G. Beffram, A. Krummrich, V. Johannes, C. Miltner, J. Raus, Paul Wurzel, C. G. Horner, J. S. Katterberg, G. A. Reuter, H. W. Lenz, C. W. Jones, J. L. Beal, J. Senneker, George Nohrdy, H. Bau, Carl Ebel, Fred Schweinfurth and Fred Ross. Special mention should be made of William Riemen-schneider, who for more than 50 years, as local minister, served the church in the absence of the pastors.

The oldest living member of the church is Mrs. Christine Wobler, who joined the congregation in 1857. The present membership totals 117.

Officers of the church and its auxiliaries are: Pastor, Rev. Fred Ross; recording secretary, Mrs. Philip Riemen-schneider; church treasurer, Wal-menscheider; president, board of trustees, Henry Kalmbach; superintendent of Sunday school, T. G. Riemen-schneider; president, Epworth League, Lloyd Heydlauff; president, Y. M. Missionary Society, Tapela Lovan; president, Ladies' Aid Society, Mrs. George Heydlauff and chairman, Mrs. Walter Kalmbach.

The church and parsonage were renovated in 1924.

BASEBALL LEAGUE ENTERS SECOND OF SEASON'S SERIES

Following a meeting of baseball captains with President Miller of the league last Thursday evening, decision was reached whereby the "first series" of the season closed with last week and a new series, comprising 15 games, was started on Monday evening of this week. Following this series a third will be played, and at the end of that time, September 2, a "World Series" will be played by winners of the first two series and the two high teams of the third and last series.

Because of arguments, disagreements and hard feelings which have arisen between players and teams, broader powers have been granted the umpires, and hereafter any player starting an argument may be ordered from the game if the umpire sees fit. This is expected to settle in a large measure the "scrapping" which has featured many of the games played during the past few weeks.

The I. O. O. F. team emerged winners of the first series and in the first game of the second series they were defeated by the Methodists 8 to 0. On Tuesday evening the K. of P. team was defeated by the Masons 6 to 3.

JACKSON WOMAN ARRESTED AFTER CRASHING INTO WAGON

Florence Ward, 26, Jackson, was arrested by Constable Frank Leach Friday afternoon after the automobile belonging to her crashed into a farm wagon of Henry Clark's, near the Grass farm. Clark suffered broken ribs and other injuries.

Arraigned in Ann Arbor, the Jackson woman was fined $72.75, or ten days jail sentence. Constable Leach took her to Jackson where she believed she could raise the money. The camp committee elected at last year's camp, consisting of Mrs. Ruth Curvingham, Mrs. Evelyn Mayberry, close friends of the bride, and Mrs. George Cook, Saline, Mrs. Albert Koeh, Dexter, and Mrs. Fred Leverette, Ann Arbor, met with H. S. Osler, county agricultural agent, and Miss Julia B. Hake, assistant state home demonstration leader from Michigan State College, at the home of Mr. Osler, on Saturday, June 25. The committee discussed ways and means of carrying on this year's camp. A special effort will be made to bring the attendance up to fifty or more this year.

A number of the women who attended last year have enrolled again for this year's camp. According to the report of the committee, the program this year will be of interest to everyone. Some of the subjects which will be stressed are food preparation demonstrations, canning demonstrations, poultry raising and music instruction.

Miss Brooke will be present again at this year's camp. She will have charge of the day net and general work, and will also act as general camp advisor. Mrs. Osler served a delicious luncheon to the committee.

LOUIS R. EDER WEDDED TO JACKSON GIRL TUESDAY

Morning Ceremony at St. John's Church, Jackson, Joins Lives of Two Popular Young People.

Tuesday's Jackson Citizen-Patriot contained the following concerning the marriage Tuesday morning of Louis R. Eder, Chelsea, and Miss Lucille A. Fleming, Jackson:

Nuptials for Miss Lucille A. Fleming, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fleming, 1814 Michigan Avenue, K., and Louis R. Eder, of Chelsea, were solemnized Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at St. John's church, Rev. John G. Wall celebrating solemn high mass.

Clarence McGraw and Howard Riley sang the mass and after the ceremony, Mrs. O. D. Olmstead of Detroit, sister of the bridegroom, sang "O Promise Me." Gustave Strehlow played the Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin," as the wedding party entered the church.

The altar of the church was banked with white peonies and palms. were placed on either side of the center aisle.

Miss Fleming entered the church with her father and was given in marriage by him.

Miss Loretta M. Fleming attended her sister as bridesmaid and the best man was Herbert Eder, brother of the bridegroom. Paul Conlan, of Detroit, and Jay Fleming, a brother of the bride, were the ushers.

White satin combined with champagne lace made the lovely gown which the bride wore for the wedding ceremony. The bodice of white satin had yoke and cap sleeves of the lace. The lace skirt was finished in points where it joined the bodice and with a band of satin scalloped at the hemline which was uneven. The points of the yoke and the bodice where it joined the skirt, as well as the band of satin at the hemline were elaborated with a beaded design in pearls and the pattern of the lace was traced with pearls, rhinestones and sequins.

Large fluffy white bows with clusters of orange blossoms in the center, was caught on the left side, the ends falling to the hemline of the gown.

Miss Fleming's hat was a becoming model of white Swiss braid with orange blossoms outlining the brim and the crown. A large white rose was caught on the right side near the edge of the brim. Long white kid gloves, white hose and white satin slippers with rhinestone buckles completed her costume and she carried white bride's roses and lilies of the valley arranged in a shower bouquet and tied with a white tulle bow. Miss Fleming's only ornament was a collar of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

The bride's gown was a straight model of shell pink georgette beaded with pearls and rhinestones. Narrow panels, finished at the hemline in points, fashioned the skirt and the bodice had cap sleeves. Hose slippers with rhinestone buckles and hat matching the gown were worn by the bridesmaid. Her hat, also of white braid, was trimmed with narrow ribbon and a large rose and silver flower on the right side. The bridesmaid's flowers were Columbia roses and delphinium, tied with a shower of blue ribbons and a blue tulle bow.

At the conclusion of the breakfast at the church, a wedding reception was served at Mrs. Eder's home. Covers were placed for 35 guests at two long tables. In the center of the tables, white bride roses were arranged in a crystal bowl and on either side were tall lighted white tapers in crystal holders. The name cards were decorated with a bridal design and miniature bride and bridegroom marked the places for the bride couple.

The guests were served by the Misses Ruth Curvingham, Anna Murphy, Katherine Richards and Evelyn Mayberry, close friends of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Eder left for an extended motor trip through the West, including Yellowstone Park. Mrs. Eder traveled in a lace dress in the popular monkey skin shade. The dress was chiffon trimmed and had a tiered skirt. A two-tone felt sports hat and a sports coat with badger collar completed her costume.

"HOME OF PURE MILK"

chats"A WATCHED POT
NEVER BOILS

This homely old adage has a real foundation in the fact that every lift of the cover allows part of the heat to escape and lengthens the time required for cooking. The same principle applies to the frequent peeps in the oven that are necessary when there's no scientific regulation of the heat.

It not only seems longer when you have to watch the pot; it actually is longer!

But thanks to modern science, the up-to-date gas range assumes this burden and controls the heat at exactly the right degree for whatever you are cooking. You need not even stay at home during a long, tedious baking. Nothing will overcook. Nothing will undercook. The little heat regulator keeps a sharp watch, controlling the heat more accurately than you could do it. Of course you'll have one of these ranges in your kitchen, sooner or later. Why not get it now and enjoy its helpfulness through the hot months.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

The Fourth is the holiday of holidays. It will be a day of shout and play, of the pell-mell rush of restless energy, a day dedicated to joy and celebration.

It is well. We have a right to make merry on Independence day. We have a right to cheer and to bombard the clouds with bomb and rocket. For it is the birth of a great nation we acclaim, its lengthening honorable life and the rosy prospect for its future.

It is not a day for soberness, though it will be well, indeed, if we bear in mind why it is we shout and what it is we herald. It is fitting, too, that we keep in thought the honor that is due the brave whose blood and courage made possible this day of days, this national natal day.

Independence day gave us liberty, a chance to live our national life in our own way, freed from the dictates of any distant power. It did not give us license, and as we celebrate with consideration for the rights of our neighbors we are reminded that while we may have liberty in our joy there can be no license. License encroaches upon liberty, nullifies it.

Independence day gave us a charter of individual manhood. The founding fathers might have set up a government that was administered from the top down. They chose to agree that every man should have a voice, and that one man's voice should be equal with that of every other.

Independence day gave us opportunity, opportunity to live our individual lives as we would live them, opportunity to enter any field of endeavor, opportunity to develop, to grow better as well as stronger, and—above all—opportunity to serve, cheerfully and willingly, our fellowmen in the up-building of a great democracy.

The priceless heritage of our freedom is still inviolate. Our people have met every challenge from without and have repeatedly demonstrated their capacity to withstand every incursion against freedom within. So great has been our security, so conscious our realization of power, that the only apparent menace of the horizon of today is that we may rest too easily upon the too much self-assured fact of those influences which would honeycomb our institutions.

TODAY IS HERE—USE IT!

A man must make good or make room—go forward or drop back. No man can stand still in any position. To mark time in modern life is impossible. This statement applies to class, creed, sex or circumstances—rich, poor, comfortable or cramped.

In an interview with one of America's most successful men, the statement was made that not one man in 50 renders intelligent service. Look around you. Check them up and see if this is true.

If it is true that clerks watch the clock, secretaries fail to remember, department heads lack initiative, superintendents fall in a rut—if this be true, it is not time to think that this condition creates for you a field that is undeveloped?

The next successful man interviewed doubled the number of people who are incapable or indifferent. He claimed there are 99 who lack intelligent enthusiasm, and a sincere desire to serve, to every one that is eager and ambitious, conscientious and courageous.

You may not be ready to accept a position of responsibility today, but today is the day to begin to get ready.

And the one thing that you must do in order to fill a position of responsibility is to find what faults are holding you back, and then correct those faults. Gloss over your faults, excuse your shortcomings, and you are not yet ready for greater responsibility. You will belong to the 99 or the 99.

CHELSEA GARDENS LOVELY

The forehanded gardener is contemplating the lovely mallow blooms in his garden, the late roses, the rippling tomatoes and that profusion of long-blooming flowers with which Nature perfumes the fall, and he is reflecting that now is the time to steal a season and plan for another year. There is a surprising number of things that winter does not harm but which, if planted in the fall, gather strength and substance underground and so are a season ahead when spring comes.

The whole art and science of amateur gardening is comprised in patience and thoroughness. Hardy bulbs can be planted in the fall, the crocuses and hyacinths which gladden Easterday. Most perennials profit by fall planting.

Chelsea gardens are lovely this year as anyone who takes the unaccustomed exercise of walking through suburban streets and avenues can not help noticing. The glories of one's own garden should be sufficient stimulus to lay the plans for a colorful setting next year, and it is almost time to begin the work, while the planning is due now.

Fortunately, a book that improves your mind seldom makes you as dull as the author.

The farmer has his troubles, but it doesn't take forty acres of corn to pay the rent on a habitation the size of a hen house.

Too Much
"Acid?"

Excess Uric Acid Glues Rise to Many Unpleasant Troubles.

AUTHORITIES agree that an excess of uric acid is primarily due to faulty kidney action. Retention of this toxic material often makes its presence felt by sore, painful joints, a tired, languid feeling and, sometimes, toxic backache and headache. That the kidneys are not functioning right is often shown by scanty or burning passage of excretions. Thousands assist their kidneys at such times by the use of Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic. Doan's are recommended by many local people. Ask your neighbor!

FITS ANY REFRIGERATOR

Kelvinator can be installed in any good refrigerator. It requires but a short time to make the installation and the necessary electric connection, and from that time on you simply forget it. Your refrigerator actually keeps it cool.

THE KELVINATOR

The Kelvinator is a compact refrigerating unit for small homes and apartments.
It is delivered to your home like an ordinary refrigerator, and requires only an electric connection. The Kelvinator is ideal for the small family.

After her wonderful dinner—she told them about KELVINATED FOODS

Kelvinated foods are foods that have been kept for some time in the frosty, dry cold produced by Kelvinator electric refrigeration. In this dry cold they undergo a remarkable change.
Meats become mellow, tender and flavorful. Green vegetables "crisp up" until they are deliciously fresh and inviting. All foods stay wholesome and appetizing. You can prepare dainty sherbets, ices and other desserts without using ice. Or you can freeze sparkling cubes of ice, just the right size for chilling beverages. Kelvination is refrigeration that requires no attention. Day and night—month after month—it keeps the refrigerator very cold with none of the care demanded by ice. We can put Kelvinator in the refrigerator you are now using. Phone or call for information.

Dry Cream for Candies

To prevent the drying out of cream candies confectioners usually "crystallize" them. This is accomplished by dissolving sugar in water, then boiling until the hot sirup registers about 83.5 degrees on a Baume saccharomter; this sirup is allowed to stand in a moderately warm place for about 24 hours, when the sirup is drained off and the candles allowed to dry. It will be found that a thin skin of crystals has been formed on the creams, and this crystalline coating is very efficacious in retarding the drying out of cream candles.

Area of New Orleans
The city of New Orleans occupies a strip of land between the river and Lake Pontchartrain, with the latter of which it is connected by two canals. The corporate limits of the city embrace the whole parish of Orleans, which includes a portion of the west bank, where is located the town of Algiers. The official boundaries thus enclose an area of almost 200 square miles. However, the inhabited portion, located for the most part near the river's bank, covers only about 40 square miles.

Shakespeare an Italian?

An Italian professor, Padua, has just written a monograph to support his view that Shakespeare was born in Italy of Protestant parents and was called Michael Angelo Florio. He argues that Shakespeare was the author of a volume of verse called "Second Fruits," which came under the ban of the Roman church. In consequence of this religious opposition Shakespeare fled to England where he set up in business as a playwright. In support of this the professor quotes passages of "Second Fruits" which he has given in full in Hamlet—Macbeth (Mardian).

Historic Building

White Tower is the name given to the largest and most important of the buildings composing the Tower of London. It was built about 1066 by King William I, the Norman conqueror, and was added to and strengthened by several of William's successors. Until the time of the Stuarts it was used both as a palace and as a state prison. A menagerie existed in the White Tower down to 1831, when the animals were removed to the Zoological gardens. The tower contains a fine collection of armor.

Patterns of Beauty

There is a certain pattern of charm and beauty which consists in a certain relation between our nature and the things which please us. Every thing fitted on this pattern pleases us, whether it be a house, song, dress, picture, prose, woman, birds, flowers, trees, rooms, dress, etc. Any thing not according to this pattern displeases those who have good taste. There is a perfect relation between a song and a house which are made on a good pattern, because they are like this good pattern, though each after its kind.—Pascal.

Lasting Building Material

Burnt clay brick, when properly produced, whether in this or any other country, is for all practical purposes a permanent building material. Its durability, being a matter of centuries, has therefore never been scientifically established, except when some house, erected in pre-revolutionary days or in Europe in the Middle Ages, is demolished and the brick found as good as on the day when it was laid.

Greeks Prefer Beauty

Greeks as a people have a philosophy of life that is quite different from that of Americans. Their desire is to be rounded out human beings, and having no interest more in beauty and life itself than in material success. Harshness in personal relations is exceptional and as a rule their habits are temperate. They show a liking for the mere process of thinking.

DENY STATE BAN ON OHIO CORN PRODUCTS

The request of the State Department of Agriculture for a quarantine on shipments of corn products from Ohio into Michigan has been denied by the Federal Horticultural Board, according to word received the past week from Washington by Herbert E. Powell, commissioner of agriculture.

Lower court decisions in Ohio adverse to corn borer regulations prompted Commissioner Powell to ask the federal authorities for a ban on Ohio corn products to protect the interests of Michigan farmers who have cleaned up their corn land in a satisfactory manner.

The Federal Horticultural Board pointed out in its decision that, after the request was made, the appellate courts in Ohio had reversed the decrees rendered by the lower courts and had upheld the validity of the Ohio corn borer law. As a result, enforced clean-up was not hindered seriously and the regulatory forces have continued to carry out the regulations.

Now that the higher courts of Ohio have sustained the validity of the corn borer law and clean-up operations are in full swing, Commissioner Powell agrees with the contention set forth in the decree of the Federal Horticultural Board that there is no immediate need for a ban on shipments of Ohio corn products into Michigan.

FLOWING DONE NOW HALTS ARMY WORMS

Precautionary measures taken by Michigan farmers now will save serious losses from the invasions of the threatened invasion by the army worm, according to a statement given out by the entomology department at Michigan State College.

Farmers can find whether or not the army worm is present on their farms by examining the oats in low spots in their oat fields. The army worm is a cut worm and prefers to have its food wilted before eating it. The worm cuts the leaves from the oat plants during the night and hides under clods or rubbish in the daytime.

If the oats show that army worms are present, the area where the damage is being done should be plowed immediately to keep the worms from maturing and spreading to a larger area.

Although the loss of the leaves from the oats may not appear serious at first, it should be remembered that later the worm will eat the entire top of the oat plant. Unless the worms are brought under control the entire field of oats may be lost, according to the college specialists.

A state of preparedness now will stop the worm before its myriads are ready to start on their devastating march through Michigan crops. When the march is once begun, control measures are difficult and expensive and crops in fields invaded by the army worm on the march disappear as if by magic.

The army worm is only one-half inch in length now, and any increase in size which it makes is made at the expense of crop yields.

FARM WOMEN PLAN SUMMER INSTITUTE

Farm women of Michigan will gather at Michigan State College July 27 to August 1 for the second annual Farm Women's Institute, to study the problems of the rural home.

The questions to be studied during the conference include home improvement, child training, citizenship, nutrition and the farm income. Mrs. Dora H. Stockman, member of the State Board of Agriculture and a leader in Grange activities of the state, will be general chairman of the program.

Speakers of state wide and national reputation will address the various meetings. Discussions will be lead by outstanding farm women of the state and members of the staff of the home economics department at M. S. C.

The Farm Women's Institute will be held this year during Country Life Week, scheduled for July 31 to August 6 at East Lansing. Seventeen other organizations interested in the problems of agriculture and rural life will meet during this occasion, which is expected to bring together the largest and most representative group of its kind ever assembled.

The American Country Life Association, holding its tenth annual meeting, and the American Farm Economics Association will be two of the prominent groups which will gather during the week, together with the International Country Life Association and many other organizations of national and international scope.

Modern Type of Girl as One Man Sees Her

The modern girl is more alluring than any feminine type of history—and serious-minded, reasoning young men are avoiding matrimony more than ever before.

That's the conclusion of a young business man, eligible, earning $3,000 a year, who, writing in Smart Set Magazine, points to three types of girls as his reasons for dodging the marriage bond.

First of them, he says, is the one who believes that a girl has the right to freedom in her sex life as a man. Not only believes it but acts so. And does so, for all I know, maybe she will make some man a mighty good wife—but not me.

No. 2 is the girl, usually a poked only daughter, restless and with the idea that "money is just made to be spent. As a wife she'd be a wonderful sweetheart, but we'd both be in the poorhouse inside of a year or two."

And third is the intellectual girl who insists upon knowing it. "She'll insist upon knowing about everything and believe about everything. As from Rochester to birth control. As a wife she'd have her clubs, she'd have her political meetings, her papers on various subjects to prepare. I'm afraid we wouldn't be happy together."
