DR. RICE, DETROIT, COMING MONDAY FOR ADDRESS HERE

Considered as One of Most Prominent Speakers in United States, Detroit Pastor Will Deliver One of Famous Speeches at Methodist Church.

Appearing under auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church in the reopening of their dining room and kitchen, Dr. M. S. Rice, pastor of Metropolitan Methodist church, Detroit, will deliver one of his famous addresses to an audience which is expected to fill the enlarged dining room on Monday evening of next week. The evening will include banquet and program, is celebrating the completion of remodeling of the kitchen and dining room of the church, which have been enlarged and redecorated, re-furnished with excellent up-to-date fixtures and otherwise made convenient for the public and the ladies who expect to make use of the rooms.

Dr. Rice, who is considered one of the most outstanding speakers in the United States, and who is in great demand within hundreds of miles of Detroit, has been asked to give his great address on "Junk" at the Monday evening affair. However, it is not known whether this or some other subject will be treated by the visiting pastor. Whatever his subject, it is certain to be of vital importance and interest to his audience.

In addition to Dr. Rice's address there will be musical features, including solo numbers by Mrs. A. A. Palmer and the Kiwanis quartet will appear in a group of selections.

HIGH SCHOOL WILL SPONSOR YPSILANTI BAND CONCERT

A program which promises to be different than that commonly heard here will be given under auspices of the public school on Tuesday evening, of next week when the Ypsilanti high school band, under the direction of Prof. Barnhill will appear in the public school auditorium in a program of musical numbers, speaking, and acrobatic stunts. The program which is to be given here will be the same as one given in Ypsilanti one evening this week and is said by Ypsilanti folks to be excellent in character.

The proceeds of the Tuesday evening performance will be turned over to the Chelsea school in its entirety, and aside from the financial side of the question is the probability of creating enthusiasm for a high school band in the local school which would open the way for some very profitable musical instruction on a wide variety of instruments. Advertising matter is already distributed announcing the concert and tickets are on sale. It is hoped everyone will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear this forty-five piece band.

MILDRED OKER, JULIUS HAAS MARRIED TUESDAY EVENING

A very pleasant home wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Chris Haas of Freedom, Tuesday evening, February 21, 1928, when her son, Julius Haas, was united in marriage with Miss Mildred G. Oker, daughter of John H. Oker of Chelsea. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. W. Breckner, pastor of Zion church, Rogers Corners.

The young couple were attended by Miss Norma Messner and Mr. Waldo Messner, both of Chelsea, and was witnessed by the immediate relatives. Following the ceremony, a wedding supper was served to the assembled guests. For the present the young couple will make their home on the Haas homestead farm.

SCHOOL NEWS

Folks in Chelsea and vicinity will be given a real treat Tuesday evening, February 28, when a forty-five piece band from Ypsilanti under the direction of Professor Barnhill, will give a concert at the high school auditorium. In addition to the band selections a short address and stunts in juggling will be given. This promises to be an evening worth while spent to all those who attend.

Chapel exercises were held at Chelsea high school Wednesday morning in commemoration of our first president's birthday anniversary. Musical selections were offered, in the way of a telephone solo "Indian Love Call" by Katherine Fletcher, accompanied by Mrs. G. Walworth, and a song by the girls' quartet, "The Monks." The speaker of the morning, Rev. Walker of the M. E. church gave a very inspiring address on those two prominent American statesmen whose birthdays we celebrate this month, namely, Abraham Lincoln and George Washington. The period was closed by singing the Star Spangled Banner. The High School Reserves added another victory to their credit Monday by defeating St. Mary's school, 14 to 0. This is the 7th victory in a row and by defeating St. Mary they have beaten every team they have played at least once. The first game of the season was lost to St. Mary's and the second to C. O. C. Holmes was high point man for Reserves and scored for St. Mary. An excellent consolation game played by the Reserves, St. Mary's breaking through for only one point.

SCHNEIDER & KUSTERER OPEN IN NEW LOCATION SATURDAY

In a full page announcement elsewhere in this issue Schneider & Kusterer, formerly O. D. Schneider & Co., announce formal opening of their new store in the Freeman building, to which they have moved this week.

In preparation for the re-opening in the new location the firm has gathered together an enormous lot of special bargains which they are offering the public on Saturday only. Wholesale houses are co-operating with them in making this a memorable occasion, both for the firm and their customers, and special demonstrators will be on hand to assist in serving the public. In anticipation of one of the largest crowds ever to enter any one store in one day in Chelsea extra help will be on hand and there will be no waiting to be served during the entire day. The invitation is given to "Come early, stay as long as you like, and make yourself at home," an invitation which is quite liable to be accepted generally among the large clientele of these grocers.

In addition to the grocery line, Schneider & Kusterer have added package drugs, one side of the store being devoted to that department, and within a few weeks they will offer a complete line of bazaar goods in the basement of the store.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS HAVE ENJOYABLE AFFAIR MONDAY

Annual Banquet Attended by One Hundred and Sixty Knights, Their Ladies, Pythian Sisters, and Friends; Dance Followed Banquet.

A banquet and program, followed by dancing, made up a most enjoyable evening for Knights of Pythias, Pythian Sisters, families and friends, Monday when one hundred and sixty persons, members of these two fraternal bodies, gathered at the public school auditorium for their annual get-together and party. The banquet was served by ladies of the Methodist church and included a tempting menu efficiently served.

Presiding as toastmaster of the evening, Carl H. Stuhberg, prosecuting attorney of Washtenaw county, introduced the various features of the evening's program which opened with a welcome from Gerald Luick, C. C. H. D. Withers addressed the gathering on the subject "Our Ladies" and F. E. Stothers, the second speaker, took for his subject "Force of Habit," both delightfully entertaining their audience.

Musical selections were given by Mrs. M. J. Baxter, soprano, with Miss Hazel Baxter accompanying, and Miss Katherine Fletcher on the xylophone, with Mrs. P. E. Niehaus, accompanist.

Hunt's orchestra of Jackson, furnished music for the dance program which followed.

FIRE DESTROYS A. SCHULTE HOUSE ON S. MAIN STREET

Fire, believed to have started around a defective chimney, completely destroyed the residence property of Arthur Schulte on South Main street, shortly after noon Monday. All the household goods of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Debacher who were occupying the house, were also destroyed.

Partial insurance is reported to have been carried by Mr. Schulte and Mr. Debacher.

The blaze had gained considerable headway when discovered and treated with the nearest hydrant, compelling firemen to lay a hose line from another farther away, which caused added delay in getting water on the scene. However, with the wind directly in the west, efforts of firemen and others were able to save adjacent homes from burning.

Mr. and Mrs. Schulte moved to Grand Rapids a few weeks ago and rented the home to Mr. and Mrs. Debacher.

JOHN FARRELL DIED TUESDAY MORNING, RESULT OF ACCIDENT

Oldest Business Man of Chelsea, and One of Most Highly Respected Citizens Passes Away at Age of Eighty-four Years.

Chelsea lost its oldest business man, perhaps its oldest resident, and one of its most highly respected citizens Tuesday morning when John Farrell passed away at the local hospital as the result of an accident suffered last Friday afternoon when he fell while ascending the stairs in the Kempf Commercial & Savings Bank building, fracturing his skull. Mr. Farrell, who was the youngest and last survivor of nine children, was eighty-four years of age at the time of his death.

Mr. Farrell, who had been in business in this village for 32 continuous years and was one of the founders of the Farmers & Merchants Bank in Chelsea, was born December 23, 1843, in Longford county, Ireland, coming to the United States with his parents

In 1848. He was married in 1870 to Fannie Doyle of Kalamazoo and they moved to Chelsea in 1880.

After the death of Mrs. Farrell in 1886 he went west and was engaged in sewer contracting for 10 years, returning to Chelsea in 1896 and the following year marrying Ellen Galvin of Jackson. Thirty-two years ago he started the Pure Food store located in the C. H. Kempf building on North Main St., operating this firm for 23 years, and then selling his interest to Keusch & Fahrner.

Mr. Farrell later purchased the Wunder block on West Middle St. operating a grocery store there. He disposed of his grocery stock in 1921 and since that time, Mr. and Mrs. Farrell had owned and operated the Farrell shop, hosiery and notions, also located in the Wunder block.

When the Farmers & Merchants Bank was organized in 1908, Mr. Farrell took an active part in its formation, and always had been a director of the bank. He also was a member of St. Mary church and Holy Name society.

He is survived by the widow. A daughter, Margaret, died eight years ago.

Funeral services will be held at St. Mary church Friday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Fr. Van Dyke officiating. Burial will be in Mt. Olivet cemetery. The remains will lie in state in the family home in the Freeman building until the funeral hour.

J. O. O. E. ANNUAL BANQUET FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 9

Odd Fellows' Rebekahs and their families will hold their annual banquet and program at the public school auditorium on Friday evening, March 9. Plans for the affair have been completed by both organizations and a good time is predicted by officers in charge.

The address of the evening will be delivered by Rev. A. E. Potts of the Congregational church. A short program of music will supplement this address and dancing will take up the balance of the evening.

THE AVERAGE

The world's work is carried on by average folks. Occasionally we have a Burns, a Shakespeare, a Caesar, or a Napoleon, but they are rare. The output of humanity is, on the whole,
only fair; fair sermons, fair poems,
fair manufactured products, fair crops raised, fair business, and professional accomplishments.

This is because most people are not willing to put forth the utmost effort.
They are content with the average.
Not "somewhat better," but "that will suffice." Instead of most of us giving all we can of self, we try to figure out what the smallest amount is that will answer.

The average in people is seen in two things—inheritance and attainments.
Some people are blessed with about 100 per cent native ability, and their attainments are 50 per cent of what they should be. Sometimes there are those who rank about 50 per cent in endowments, but their returns are 100 per cent. Others are blessed with about 50 per cent of what we like to call "genius," and their attainments are about in that ratio.

Now the trouble with our world is that most of its people are in the third class, when they could just as well be in the second class mentioned.
A mediocre kind of work is being accomplished, when it should be first class. The reason for this is that those of limited endowments claim exemption from responsibility. That principle is not only wrong, but it is perilous.

The person most highly blessed is not he with many endowments, but it is he who uses what he does have.
The first may be spectacular, but the latter is far more useful.

An average person who fixes his eye on an average standard will do average work—which is far below the standard that should be maintained.
About 90 per cent of the world's work is attributable to second-rate methods in the hands of one whose creed is,
"I'm as good as the average." He is right, and that is the reason he is not farther along in the world.

The average person is needed for the reason that there are precious few of those above the average. But the second need is the greater.

DO WE HAVE THE COURAGE?

Do we have the courage, or the sense, to face our own shortcomings to admit to ourselves and to all concerned our errors and mistakes?

If we do not have, there is little chance that we shall ever be much better equipped to fight our battles than we are today.

Only obstinacy refuses to confess error and only vanity declines to admit defeat. Obstinacy and vanity are dragging upon the chariot of progress.
Unless we cut them loose we do not get very far.

The same truth holds for the individual, the group, the community, the nation. History is replete with instances of fine heads battered against the impenetrable wall of unalterable fact, of fine causes lost by enthusiasts who clung tenaciously to original error, of cities stunted because they were too proud to change their habits, of nations wrecked upon the shoals of their selfish desire.

There is no shame in admitting failure or mistakes, either to ourselves or to observers. We cannot long delude those who watch, and they will respect us the more highly if we frankly confess, when we miff the ball, that it was our fault.

As long as we are not too vain to face the facts of our conduct there is hope for us. But we will never be useful to our teammates in life, as long as we hypnotize ourselves into belief that we have made a home run with the bases full after we have just struck out.

WHAT WE NEED

There are many things we need in Chelsea, but a few are vital and outstanding above all others.

We need stability—the will power to determine what is right and a determination to see that only that which is right prevails.

We need a spirit of unanimity—
the ability and willingness to agree upon what we want and then go after it.

RHEUMATISM

While in France with the American Army I obtained a noted French prescription for the treatment of Rheumatism and Neuritis. I have given this to thousands with wonderful results. The prescription cost me nothing. I ask nothing for it. I will mail it if you will send me your address.
A postal will bring it. Write today.

Always Stiff and Achy?

Too Often This Warns of Sluggish Kidney Action.

LAME? Stiff? Achy? Sure your kidneys are working right? Sluggish kidneys allow waste poisons to remain in the blood and make one languid, tired and achy, with often dull headaches, dizziness and nagging backache. A common warning is stuffy or burning secretions.

Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, increase the secretion of the kidneys and thus aid in the elimination of bodily waste. Users everywhere endorse Doan's. Ask your neighbor.

and get it.
We need aggressiveness—for without aggressiveness, indolence and stagnation will be our lot.
We need loyalty—for without loyalty we will be enriching commercial interests at distant points and impover-ishing our people at home.
Some communities thrive and grow
because of their natural advantages.
Others are made only through the dogged energy and perseverance of their citizenship.
Ours will be what we make it, and we should make it all that we can.

All is expensive in love and war.

BREVITIES.

CLINTON—For the first time in years there will be two tickets in the field at the coming village election.

GRASS LAKE—Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon from the home of Mrs. Mary Carlton, who died at her home in Grass Lake, Tuesday. She had been a resident of the village more than 70 years.

GRASS LAKE—Grass Lake was host to between 75 and 100 boys and girls of the Epworth League Institute February 17 to 19, 18 leagues being represented from Washtenaw county and part of Jackson, Ingham and Livingston counties.—News.

BROOKLYN—Earl Mulholland of Brighton has purchased Mr. and Mrs. Will Delaware's 55 acre farm on the Brooklyn-Napoleon road. Possession will be given about the first of March.—Exponent.

SHARON—There has been considerable movement of Sharon real estate recently, as farms in the vicinity of the Hollow on which options were taken have been transferred in the past few days. A real estate firm takes them over so the real owner is still a mystery. Some of the farmers are out looking for new farm homes.

JACKSON—Fifteen cases of liquor, he is accused of having transported in a large sedan, led to the arrest of Harvey Beckman, 27 years old, of Detroit Thursday afternoon. Beckman was halted by sheriff's officers south of the city and was taken to jail after a search of his car revealed the liquor.—Citizen-Patriot.

PLYMOUTH—Two Plymouth women were among those nominated for places in Michigan's Hall of Fame for Women contest which the Detroit Free Press is sponsoring. Justice Phoebe Patterson was one of the nominees in the field of politics, and Mrs. Ruth E. Huston-Whipple in education.—Mail.

MASON—The board of education at its meeting held Monday appointed Donald A. Murray as superintendent, the position made vacant by the resignation of Carl E. DeMerritt announced last week. Mr. Murray has been principal of the high school for three years and had served two years as teacher of science and director of athletics in the Mason schools previously.—News.

POWERSVILLE—The University

inspector recently made his annual official visit to our school and reports that he found the school in the best condition of any he had yet inspected and gave the school a two year rating instead of the annual rating that had been granted in the past years, which certainly speaks volumes for Superintendent Douglass and his efficient corps of helpers.—Review.

SALINE—A most daring and expensive trick was sprung on Sherman Cook one night last week, when a party of unscrupulous fellows entered his barn yard in the night, captured a young critter, took it back of the barn and killed it. They then cut off the head and left it as proof of their daring. They dragged the body of the animal across a field to a waiting car. Mr. Cook has no idea of who would stoop so low, nor did the thieves leave any clue.—Observer.

HOWELL—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knight have resigned as keeper and matron of the Livingston County Farm. Under their management the farm has been a paying proposition. Not only have the poor of the county been well taken care of but about $12,000 has been turned over to the county treasurer during the five years they have been in charge. The change is made necessary because of Mrs. Knight's health. They expect to return to their own farm near the county farm.—Republican.

PINCKNEY—Last Friday eve some one drove up to the granary on the Floyd Reason farm south of town with a truck and helped themselves to 50 bushels of wheat belonging to Henry Reason and sons. As the granary is some distance from the house no one noticed it. Deputy Sheriff Sarge-son of Howell came over but about all the clues found were a couple of empty bags left behind by the thieves bearing the name of a Whitmore Lake farmer, also believed to be stolen. Suspicion was directed towards one, Finley Hubbard, and he and William Richards were arrested in Ypsilanti Saturday and brought to Howell, where Monday they were bound over to the circuit court for trial.—Dispatch.

NORTHVILLE—Postmaster Frank Neal states that the shipment of city carrier routing cases has been heard from and the department at Washington says they will arrive this week or the first of next so that carrier service can be commenced the first of March. It will no doubt be ready before that time but the service should begin only at the first of a month.

Thos. B. Gillan of Royal Oak, took dinner with Dr. and Mrs. Balmer, on Tuesday.

"7th HEAVEN" IS ACCLAIMED BY CRITICS AS ONE OF THE GREATEST SCREEN DRAMAS

Courage, the Theme Exemplified by Two Youthful Players, Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell, in One of the Most Human of All Pictures. Directed by Borzage.

"7th Heaven" has been brought to the screen and will be shown at the Princess Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, February 29 and March 1. This picture, based on the play by Austin Strong, is said by all critics to be one of the finest productions of any type ever screened. Taken from every angle it is perfection, and more than that it has lost none of the appeal or beauty of the original play.

The atmosphere of the Paris Montmartre, where the plot of the story is laid, is accurately carried out in the settings and the photographic effects. The story follows the play itself, but bringing into actual view those things that could only be talked about in the play, thereby heightening the interest and adding greatly to the entertaining value of the picture.

The characterizations of the players are said to be inspired, particularly that of Janet Gaynor, who appears as the winsome, frightened and finally glorified "Diane," and Charles Farrell, who is the handsome, egotistical, generous and thoroughly lovable "Chico."

"7th Heaven" is the story of two of the lowest types of Parisians, a worker in the sewers of Paris and a waif of the Paris streets. But because of the glorious doctrine of courage which it preaches and the marvelous things it does to both of their characters it has been called one of the greatest and one of the most beautiful love stories ever written. The play created a sensation when produced for a record run on Broadway, and the picture is surpassing the reputation established by the play.

Besides the two principals, the cast includes Ben Bard, David Butler, Albert Gran, Gladys Brockwell, George Stone, Emile Chautard, Marie Mosquini and Brandon Hurst.

Frank Borzage directed the production.

M., February 29.

Rack Brains to Find Names for Animals

Giving names to the thousands of animals newly discovered each year is a problem with which scientists are confronted. An international commission on zoological nomenclature has since 1895 been engaged in the gigantic task of working out the rules for assigning to each sort of protozoa, worms, echinoderms, mollusks and vertebrates its proper designation.

With close analogy to the rules for priority of patents on human-made inventions and trade-mark registrations the scientist who first recognizes and describes a new zoological genus or species by publication has the right to give it at the time of its publication its technical Latin name by which it will be known for all time.

The commission has decreed that beginning in 1931 the scientist must not only name the new genus or species, but also state its characters that distinguish it from others with which it might be confused.

It is estimated that more than half a million different genera and species have been named since Linnaeus in the early seventeenth century created the beginnings of systematic zoology and zoologists believe it probable that there are still several million additional that will be differentiated and named in the future.

Two Causes Found to Predispose to Death

For some time conclusions have been drawn regarding the times of day when most births and deaths occur. The question was studied in different countries and the results indicated that conditions differed with environment. No biological law was found to exist.

The inquiry has been carried on in various hospitals for a year past. Hourly statistics of births at La Pitte hospital, kept under Professor Jean's show that every month the number of births is greater between midnight and noon than between noon and the following midnight. As for deaths, they are more frequent during the period of sleep, from six o'clock at night to six o'clock in the morning, than during waking hours.

In a single year 113 patients died in the night and only 83 in the daytime.

Besides, of these 113 deaths 59 occurred between six o'clock and midnight, in the early part of the sleeping period. There is thus a cosmic influence of night on births and deaths and perhaps sleep also does its part.

These two causes, by increasing the extensibility of the pneumogastric nerve, work together to predispose to death.—La Science Moderne, Paris.

The Short-Lived Pin

By a series of experiments conducted on his estate a French investigator has discovered that pins go the way of all flesh and are dissolved in dust. Hairpins, which the experimenter watched for 154 days, disappeared at the end of that time, having been resolved into a ferrous oxide and a brownish rust, which was blown away by the wind.

Bright pins took nearly 18 months to disappear, polished steel needles nearly two and a half years, brass pins had but little endurance; steel pens at the end of 15 months had nearly gone, while their wooden holders were still intact.

Pencils, with which he also experimented, suffered little by exposure; the lead was unharmed and the cedar almost as good as new.

Sympathetic Understanding

A young American mother went to stay with Mr. and Mrs. Rudyard Kipling in England. Necessity had forced her to leave in America her two little girls, from whom she had never been parted before. Upon arrival at the Kipling home, much worried at not having heard from the children, she was lured by a cable saying they were well. Relieved tears arose in her eyes. G. B. Burgin relates in "More Menorahs and Some Travels," Kipling saw them and said to his wife:

"Take Mrs. — up to the nursery, and show her the children. What she wants is baby talk."

Martin Haller, a man of remarkable foresight and keen business ability, founded in 1881 The Martin Haller Furniture business of Ann Arbor, Michigan. It was located on the corner of S. Main and Liberty Street, the present site of Mack & Co. After seven years of successfully conducting his business, he moved to their present location on East Liberty. In order to satisfy the rapidly increasing demands of his customers Mr. Haller was forced to continually expand until now the business occupies three well-stocked floors, including a complete line of well known Grand Rapids Furniture.

Mr. Haller was an active member of the firm up until the time of his death January 18th, 1927. However, his son, Paul Haller, had been in active charge of the business since 1919 and is now manager. Twice a year Mr. Haller attends the Grand Rapids and Chicago Furniture Mart. The Haller firm is very much interested in antique styles and carry a complete selection of most exact reproductions of antiques on the market today.

The Martin Haller firm can be recognized as a most progressive business, due to the boosting of its satisfied customers throughout the county, which can only be derived from the keenest of competition. We can readily see how through years of satisfactory serving the public it has made rapid progress and is one of Ann Arbor's leading furniture stores.
