ORIGIN OF EARLY MORNING FIRE IS STILL A MYSTERY

C. F. Smith Grocery Store Suffers Loss Early Saturday Morning—Origin Unknown

Only the prompt response to the fire alarm and the very efficient work on the part of the members of Chelsea's fire department prevented a disastrous fire in Chelsea early last Saturday morning. Some one on passing through town heard the ringing of glass and as he stopped to ascertain the cause of the unusual noise he discovered flames issuing from a side window in the building occupied by the C. F. Smith grocery store on East Middle street. He immediately gave the alarm and the response of the fire department and the people generally was very prompt, with the result that the fire was held to the rear portion or store room of the store.

Hose connections were soon made and within a very short time water was being played upon the fire with splendid effect. Other lines were laid as a preventative measure should the fire get beyond control and four streams of water would have been ready had they been needed. The firemen were somewhat hindered in their efforts to subdue the flames because of the presence of a great pile of egg crates which were stored in the building and which, of course, were bulky, but it did not take long to throw them out the rear door and apply the hose to them.

The fire was a fierce one while it lasted and the ceiling and walls were badly scorched, in fact the former was burned through, but fortunately the fire did not break out on the upper floor. The stock was badly smoked as were also the rooms above the store occupied by Drs. A. A. Palmer and A. L. Brock. The smoke also found its way into The Standard office, but no damage was done. Dr. Palmer estimates his loss at $1,000 and Dr. Brock placed his at $800, while the building was damaged to the extent of $2,000 or more. The Smith loss was not estimated nor will it probably be known because it is a policy of the Smith management to carry their own insurance, but several hundred dollars' worth of goods were destroyed and damaged.

The store building is owned jointly by Messrs. Tia Palmer and J. J. Rault. The Standard desires to express its appreciation to the firemen and all other citizens who responded so promptly to the call for help with the result that a bad fire was averted and this office saved from destruction. Mrs. Lorenz Bugee, night operator at the telephone office, is to be commended for her promptness in turning in the alarm which aroused the people so quickly. At that hour of the morning nearly everybody is enjoying their soundest and "sweetest" sleep and it is a difficult task to arouse them usually.

The "second" by until all danger had passed and it was long after daylight before the crowd had dispersed and the people had returned to their homes by their usual morning "routines."

In all communities people usually make disparaging remarks about their volunteer fire departments, because it is natural to become impatient when the alarm is sounded. Just remember how long it takes you to dress and get to the scene of a fire when you are inclined to find fault with the other fellows.

The store is being cleaned and as soon as necessary repairs are made, a new stock will be received and the business will continue as usual.

There was nothing about the store to indicate how the fire started and its origin will always, doubtless, remain a mystery.

BURG'S DRUG STORE IS BEING REMODELED

J. V. Burg has had the interior of his store remodeled during the past week. The stairs in the center of the saleroom leading to the second floor and the basement have been removed, and the entrance to both the upper and lower parts has been placed in the rear of the store. The space formerly occupied by the stairway will be given over to the soda fountain department of the store. A number of sanitary tables and chairs are to be placed in the center of the store to be used in serving ice cream and soda fountain beverages. When the changes are completed the store will present a very handsome appearance. Matt Swickrath supervised the work of remodeling.

SYLVAN SCHOOL REUNION WAS AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

Many Former Pupils and Residents Of The District Came Back Home For The Day

School district No. 4 of Sylvan township held their first reunion Sunday on the school grounds at Sylvan Center, with a good attendance. The oldest person present was James Austin Gray of Windsor, came the greatest distance to attend the gathering. Dancer. A dialogue, "Fooling an Agent" was rendered by the pupils of the school. A poem, "Sylvan School Reunion," composed by Miss Lillie Wackenhut, was given by George Hadley.

This was followed by talks by former teachers, Jacob F. Fahrner of Ann Arbor, Samuel S. Straith of Detroit, John Kalmbach and George W. Beckwith of Chelsea.

The office and radio department has been moved into the rooms formerly occupied by Mr. Palmer as his residence, and the entrance to the office is from Main street now instead as heretofore from the entrance to the garage. The space in the least room formerly occupied as a stock room, about twenty storage bins are being installed and they will be used for the purpose of caring for stock and numerous parts used in the repair department and have a capacity for many hundreds of dollars worth of goods. The change is certainly a decided improvement.

FAR-REACHING GAS DECISION

A decision by the U. S. District Court of New York promises to be far-reaching in its effect on the service of gas throughout the United States.

The cost of piping gas to a consumer is the same whether the consumer uses a small amount or the maximum amount of gas that pipe will carry.

For this reason the practice has become general to charge each customer a service charge covering cost of bringing gas to them, and then charging the large consumer a slightly lower rate per thousand cubic feet than is charged the very small consumer.

The New York Legislature passed a law prohibiting the imposition of a service charge by gas companies, but the United States District Court has held that a company has the right and the power to determine reasonable forms of rates in the absence of discriminatory or excessive rates.

The court also held that a rate structure which fails to include the element of a service charge is unreasonable for customers using gas in regular and substantial quantities, and a "flat" or straight meter rate is for that reason condemned. Furthermore, it was decided that a statute prohibiting a service charge or preventing a form of rate based on a service charge, is arbitrary, configuratory and in violation of the constitutional rights of customers, and the gas company.

GOOD GOVERNMENT IS

UP TO THE PEOPLE

If popular government is effective, each citizen in the business must be intelligent and informed. The details of modern government are too varied to permit each citizen to know how each tax dollar is spent or to judge the effectiveness or ineffectiveness of the methods by which each public function is carried on, without the aid of some organized interpreting agency.

Public understanding and support of tax measures is necessary as a check on public affairs. Public administrators very often fail to ferret out and apply changes in procedure which would contribute to economy and efficiency. Changes in methods are usually impossible without organized activity and demand from citizens.
Personal interest in and knowledge of tax problems, are sentries at the tax exit gate. It is the means by which the public is kept informed on the progress of public business. Individual interest in the problems of government and taxation will bear fruit a hundredfold in improved governmental services to the people.

ORIENTAL TRADE—TRACTORS

TO BREAKFAST FOOD

The Department of Commerce shows a constantly growing trade between the Orient and our country, better-fed nations, higher standards of living, greater general prosperity, a growing demand for raw and manufactured American products.

China, Japan, India and Arabia, the Hindu and Mohammedan countries, are awakening to new visions of life, and want better things.

The world is no longer divided by a sharp line into rich and poor, but more light, better wearing materials, greater comforts are demanded by all.
Teaching the nations higher civilization, modernization and toleration, and the religion of love toward all mankind, is our mission.

The cannibal tribes in Africa and savages on the uplands of Asia are learning to use American oil products and cereals from Battle Creek, Michigan.

The Australian bush is being broken up with gangplows drawn by crawlertype American tractors.

DR FRANK LOOMIS

KILLS HIMSELF

The last chapter in the Dr. Frank Loomis case was written Wednesday when his remains were laid to rest in the family burial lot at Brooklyn. He killed himself by inhaling gas in a dental office in Detroit Saturday and left a letter to a Detroit newspaper in which he declared he was innocent of the crime charged against him and from which he was acquitted by a jury in the Wayne county circuit court several months ago.

The world may never know just who committed the crime which robbed the two Loomis children of their mother.

MICHIGAN MAY OWN SOME

OIL WELLS—SOME DAY

The oil and gas rights on several thousand acres of homestead lands which have been sold since 1900 and on which the mineral rights were reserved to the state, have been leased recently by the state of Michigan for exploration and development. More than a dozen other applications for the leasing of oil and gas rights on thousands of acres of similar lands elsewhere in the State have been received by the department of conservation. These applications are now being investigated for consideration in the near future.

Active exploration of the leased oil and gas rights is to begin within one year after the date of the leases granted. Thus Michigan steps into another landlord's role, and will collect royalties of one-eighth of any oil and gas discovered and produced.

The leases were prepared after much study and consideration by the Attorney General and Conservation department, and the people of Michigan may feel assured that their state will benefit if an oil field is found. In February the Attorney General's department gave an opinion that the state could lease the oil and gas rights on state homestead lands which is sold after 1900 so the state is operating within its legal rights in signing mineral leases.

Life is so short that it is not wise to take roundabout ways, nor can we spend much time in waiting. Thoreau.

now coming in was contracted last

EXECUTIVE PROCLAMATION

Public safety is a foremost American problem. Saving human life is the State's chief business. The forces of progress and of humanity in due to traffic accidents on streets and highways. There is great need of more uniform public understanding and official administration of the traffic laws. Inter-city motor vehicle transportation tends to increase hazards in any locality unless all localities experience, generally similar and equally regular safety education and statutory administration. To help effect this, a state-wide traffic campaign will be conducted during the months of May and June of this year. I sincerely believe that the people in all Michigan will give it their earnest and active support.

The question of safety in the public thoroughfares of the State is not debatable. Assurance of reasonable security to all is a public and private obligation. The State can do no less than give of its strength to such an enterprise. It is our duty to re-assert the supreme character of the law. Government is not the responsibility of the few, but of the many—and in insuring this I am endeavoring to call into action, for public safety, the man-power and woman-power of the entire commonwealth.

FRED W. GREEN, Governor.

MANY TWENTIETH CENTURY SOLDIERS BURIED HERE

The Gallant Regiment Was Recruited With Washtenaw And Jackson County Men—A Brief History

About one-half the men who composed the Twentieth Michigan volunteer infantry were from Washtenaw county and a great many of them lie buried in the local cemeteries. From The Standard of May 28, 1903, we take the following history of the gallant Twentieth.

The Twentieth Regiment left Jackson for Washington, D. C., September 1, 1892 with 2012 men on the roll. They first smelled smoke and heard the roar of battle as reserves at the terrible battle of Fredericksburg. That was the extent of fighting for that year but they suffered much from sickness in camp at Falmouth. In the spring of '93 the regiment was moved west to Kentucky, where it was there when they came in contact with Morgan's Raiders and suffered a severe loss. The fight lasted two days, only a part of the regiment being engaged on the first, but the day following the entire regiment participated with a loss of men.

The regiment next went to reinforce Grant before Vicksburg, and after the surrender of that place it went into the interior of the state, where it suffered a great deal from sickness. The next active service was at the siege of Knoxville. Then came one of their hardest marches to Blair's Cross Roads on which they suffered many privations and terrible hardships.

The regiment at this time rejoined the Army of the Potomac and immediately plunged into the awful battle of Wilderness under the leadership of Grant. As the winter of '64-'65 came upon them they were in the trenches before Petersburg within 200 yards of the enemy, and at the first approach of spring headed an assault which cost a considerable loss but effected much toward the final result at Appomattox.

When the evacuation of Petersburg was forced they entered that city. From there they were ordered to Alexandria via City Point. Here they remained until ordered to Washington where they participated in the grand review of the army of the Potomac.

The regiment was mustered out of service on the 30th of May, thirty-eight years previous to the coming Saturday, when the survivors, having their comrades gone before. On the 9th of June the regiment was paid off and disbanded at Jackson and the brave soldiers once more became the simple citizens of our town and country.

The regiment participated in 30 battles and skirmishes and the result of its camps, marches, campaigns and battles was 102 died of wounds or in action, 125 of disease, 37 wounded in action and four taken prisoners, making a total of 602 previously effected out of the gallant 1,102 that left Jackson so proudly.

The above sacrifice was stupendous but it was possible that there are some to-day who will hold it very lightly. Would that every loyal citizen should do his best that their deeds may be held in sacred remembrance.

TEST WELL BEING DRILLED IN LIVINGSTON COUNTY

Work on the test well for oil which is being sunk on the farm of Ross Robb, east of the Free Methodist church in Conway, has been progressing, a depth of 1,300 feet being attained. Just at present drilling is being held up by a cave-in and the loss of the drill but the workmen drove to Saginaw Wednesday night to secure the necessary tools with which to cope with the difficulty, and as soon as the drill is brought up, work will go on again. This well is a project undertaken by a number of Keweenaw business men, who pooled funds of $100 each to finance it, staking their money against the work of the drillers. The latter are working in constant touch with the geological department, who are of the opinion that valuable deposits of oil underlie Ingham and Livingston counties.—Brighton Argus.

JACKSON TO HAVE HORSE SHOW SATURDAY

Splendid success is showing the preparations for the Horse Show at the fairgrounds, Saturday afternoon and night, May 26th. This will be put on by the Jackson Riding club. Jackson and Lansing clubs are co-operating in the horse shows in their respective cities, with the result each will have an increased number of horses, and a greater show in every way. Of course patronage is a strong factor in the success of such an important undertaking. Interest in the show on May 26 is unprecedented, says the Tribune.

ANN ARBOR MAN HONORED BY ODDFELLOWS

Isaac G. Reynolds, city clerk of Ann Arbor, and well and favorably known to many Chelseans, was honored by the Oddfellows of Michigan at their meeting at Pontiac last week by being chosen grand patriarch of the grand encampment and patriarch militant. Jackson was chosen as the place for meeting next year. Owing to the rain the parade, which is usually a fine feature of such gatherings, was abandoned.

Oddfellows of Chelsea will join The Standard in extending their compliments to Mr. Reynolds.

Memorial Day

for Living as Well as Dead

On Memorial day, we honor and remember:

Farmers firing from behind stone walls at Lexington—lean men on lean horses, driving Ferguson at King's mountain—men in buckskin, riding with rifles held high, through miles and miles of flooded bottom land to get to Vincennes to strike a blow for the freedom of the West.

Hard-eyed Indian fighters peering through the sights of squirrel rifles over cotton bales at New Orleans—boys in baggy blue uniforms coming under fire for the first time at Bull Run—Stonewall Jackson's foot cavalry pouring off long miles up and down the Shenandoah valley—the long, gray-breasting and general fire at Gettysburg—farm boys from the corn belt living like sewer rats in the wet trenches around Vicksburg.

This line of khaki crawling forward in a wheat field in France—men crushed into a tortured sameness with the clay of torn-up trenches under the rain of high explosives—truckloads of Yankee infantry rolling over straight French roads to a horizon black with ruin—tired men, marching heads down in the rain, with raw feet and sagging packs.

All the Dead Remembered.

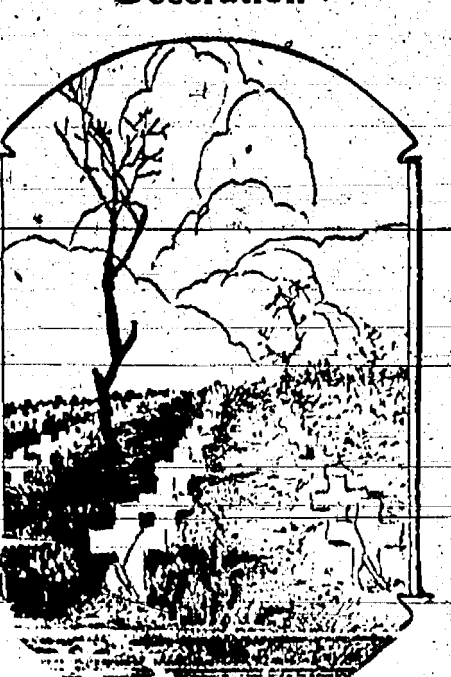

Once, Memorial day was only a day for the honoring of the memory of those who fell on the northern side in the Civil war. Its purpose has broadened, and the "Grand army," in whose name the day was founded, has helped in the broadening. Now Memorial day has come to be a day when we remember with gratitude and affection those Americans who served by land or sea in any of the nation's conflicts.

We have even gone a step farther. We have come to consider it a duty to remember those who have gone from among us, whether they served in war or not. There was a young man in '46 who quit medical college and went into the Mexican war; he served as a doctor in Fremont county, Iowa, during the fifties. He was a war veteran; he was a pioneer doctor; should more honor be paid to him as a soldier than as a doctor? A woman in Jackson county bore six children, raised them, made a rude farm into a home. Does her memory deserve less well of us than if she had been a man in the ranks at Pea Ridge?

Real Lesson of the Day.

The dead need no prizes, no laurel wreaths. They are serene, they want nothing. What we do in their memory is in the end for ourselves, not for them. It is good for us to remember that the virtues of courage, of endurance, of fidelity, of generosity, of love, of intelligence, go on through the generations, and to wonder at times whether those better traits have not been worn a little thin while in our possession. It is good for us to remember that life goes on, though the individual passes from the earth, and that just as men leave countries, so men leave the earth, and that men are forgotten, people like us, serve, and with something of the same blood in their veins, taking the same delight in the visible world that we do.

The Memorial day is to remember that life is an end, a part of the life process as birth, and that we are linked with the past just as much as we are linked with the future. It is a day on which to remember those who handed on to us the gift of life, and with it the gift of tears and joy.—Wallace's Farmer.

At Chickamauga

An inscription on the Kentucky monument in Chickamauga national military park says: "Erected by the state of Kentucky in honor of her sons who fought and fell on this field. There is another: 'As we are united in life and they united in death, let one monument perpetuate their deeds, and one people, forgetful of appetites, forever hold in grateful remembrance all the glories of that terrible conflict which made all men free, and retained every star on the nation's flag.'"

MICHIGAN'S PRISON POPULATION INCREASING RAPIDLY

Sheriff Boorn of Eaton county had occasion to visit the state prison at Jackson one day last week and while there he was told by Warden Jackson that the prison population at Jackson had tripled in ten years, says the Charlotte Republican.

"Two hundred and twenty-two new prisoners were received during March," said Warden Jackson. "A total of 185 were discharged paroled, or transferred, leaving a net gain in prison population for March of 50."

"Since January 1, 1926, the population of the prison has more than tripled. On that date there were but 979 prisoners here, while on January 1 of this year the population was 3,800, and increase of 2,821."

"The March population of the prisons by counties follows: Isabella, 14; Jackson, 14; Kalamazoo, 107; Alpena, 8; Allegan, 16; Bay, 26; Berrien, 77; Branch, 12; Calhoun, 71; Cass, 20; Cheboygan, 4; Emmet, 15; Genesee, 127; Grand Traverse, 8; Gratiot, 33; Ingham, 111; Kent, 134; Macomb, 37; Manistee, 10; Montcalm, 22; Oakland, 169; Ottawa, 20; St. Joseph, 16; Van Buren, 22; Washtenaw, 72; Wayne, 1,835; Wexford, 10; Midland, 8; Mecosta, 13; Chaire, 8."

Model T Fords

Expenditure of few dollars may enable you to get thousands of miles from your old car

THE Model T Ford is still a great car. It led the motor industry for twenty years and it is used today by more people than any other automobile. More than eight million Model T Fords are in active service in city, town and country, and many of them can be driven for two, three and five years and even longer at very small up-keep expense.

The cost of Model T parts and of necessary labor is unusually low because of established Ford policies.

New fenders, for instance, cost from $3.50 to $5 each, with a labor charge of $1 to $2.50. Tuning up the motor and replacing commutator case, brush and vibrator parts costs only $1, with a small charge for material. Brake shoes can be installed and emergency brakes equalized for a labor charge of only $1.25. A labor charge of $4 to $5 will cover the overhauling of the front axle, rebushing springs and spring perches, and straightening, aligning and adjusting wheels.

The labor charge for overhauling the average rear axle runs from $5.75 to $7. Grinding valves and cleaning carbon can be done for $3 to $4.

A set of four new pistons costs only $7. For a labor charge of $20 to $25 you can have your motor and transmission completely overhauled. Parts are extra.

All of these prices are approximate, of course, because the cost of materials needed will depend on the condition of each car. They show, however, the low cost of putting the Model T Ford in shape for thousands of miles of additional service.

See the nearest Ford dealer, therefore, and have him estimate on the cost of re-conditioning your Model T Ford. He will tell you, in advance, exactly how much the complete job will cost.

Davenport and his troupe were booked for an European tour, but Hagenbeck-Wallace offered a healthy increase, so this high class feature remains for the 1928 tour. CLARA BOW AT THE PRINCESS THEATRE

A gripping interpretation of the heart-breaking "Lally" of Great Britain, Clara Bow's contribution to the film made from this world-acclaimed story which will be seen at the Princess Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, May 30-31. That the girl who so heroically portrayed the star roles of "Hula" and "It" and "Get Your Man" should have been capable of doing a full justice to the tremendous emotionalism of Gene Stratton Porter's wisely loving "Lally" is a tribute to her histrionic genius.

"Keeper of the Bees" is undoubtedly one of Porter's most thrilling narratives. It embodies a charming and breathless love story, is interpreted by a steely-eyed and offers the glamorous scenic backgrounds for which Leo Meehan, director, is famed.

JACKSON MAN ROBBED WHILE GIVING MOTORIST A "LIFT"

Giving "the other fellow a helping hand" cost Les Morrison, endurance driver who thrilled Jackson last week, $310 cash when he was held up and robbed Tuesday afternoon.

"I was driving from Ann Arbor to Jackson," Morrison said, according to police, "and had reached a point about one mile east of Call's Cabs when I observed a woman carrying a gasoline can, walking down the road."

"She was carrying a can as I saw and indicated she wanted a 'lift.' She told me her automobile had stalled on a nearby side road. I gave her the 'lift.'"

"After turning into the side road and driving for perhaps a mile, 'I came to a Pontiac coupe bearing Ohio license plates."

"As I stopped my car to allow the woman to get out, a man stepped from the coupe and leveled a revolver at me."

"It was all over in a few minutes, and I was on my way to Jackson—out just $310 cash."

Jackson police searched the vicinity of the holdup, but were unable to find any trace of the highway bandits. The police and sheriff's department were continuing a city and county-wide search for the man and woman Tuesday night.—Jackson-Tribune.

How many steps do you take each day?

Keep your feet healthy for complete bodily comfort.

Wear

The Air-o-pedic Arch Shoes.

Specially priced at $5.98

Your foot consists of a structure of twenty-six small bones, held together in the resilient, flexing arches, by numerous ligaments and muscles interwoven with important blood vessels and nerves, which are a part of the nerve system running through the whole body. If any of these flexing muscles or bones are strained by poorly fitting shoes your feet tire and ache and if this condition continues for any length of time, the bones of your arch will gradually be displaced from their normal position; this is the breaking down or "falling" of the arch. This causes not only pain and distress in the foot, but, by pressing on any one of the network of nerves in the foot, causes pains in the calf muscles, thighs, hips, spine or back, and a general upset of the nervous system, being oftentimes the hidden and unknown reason for irritability and other abnormal conditions.

This AIR-O-PEDIC shoe is scientifically constructed to give each bone of the foot and both arches—which are nature's shock absorbers for the body—the necessary room for their normal placement; and at the same time holding them in such position that each ligament and muscle will function properly and to its full extent, without strains or pressure. This keeps a perfect and essential balance between ball, arch and heel of the human foot.

SECURE LICENSE THIS YEAR BEFORE YOU GO FISHING

Chelsea Fishermen Have Got To Study Law For A While

When fishermen take rod or pole in hand and start out to fish this spring they had better have in their left hip pocket a license from the great state of Michigan. And they had better know something of the new fishing laws passed by the state conservation department. There are many, many, many of them. In fact, it is hard to find a state law or regulation pertaining to fishing that has not been changed.

So that no local resident will run afoul of any of the fishing laws, following is presented a digest of the open season on various kinds of game fish to be taken in the state, together with the size and creel limit. It is unlawful to sell any fish taken in the inland waters of the state.

For the first time this year, male trout fishermen will be required to take out a rod license at a fee of $1.00. There has been some question as to the legality of the act, but as no one has contested it, the department has gone ahead with plans to issue licenses. Minors and female fishermen need no licenses.

Following is a compilation of the fishing laws:

Trout and Salmon—All kinds except Mackinac and lake trout, May 1 to September 1, seven inches; 16 in day; 25 in possession; with hook and line only.

Large and Small Mouth Bass—June 16 to January 1 (in upper peninsula) July 1 to January 1; 10 inches; five in a day; 10 in possession; with hook and line only.

Wall-Eyed Pike—May 1 to February 1; 10 inches; 10 in day; 10 in possession.

Grayling—Unlawful to take at any time.

Bluegills—June 16 to March 31; six inches; 26 in day; 25 in possession.

Calico Bass, Rock Bass, and Crapies—June 16 to March 31; seven inches; 25 of each in day; 25 in possession.

White Bass—May be caught in any season; seven inches; 25 in one day; 25 in possession.

Sunfish—May be caught in any season; six inches; 25 in day; 25 in possession.

Perch—May be caught in any season; seven inches; 30 in day; 50 in possession.

Whitefish, Ciscoes and Carp—October 1 to December 30; may be speared with permit and taken with hook and line.

Stickleback, Mudpuppy and Carp—Taken in any season; may be speared in designated non-trout streams of lower peninsula during March and April; also speared through the ice during January and February in inland lakes and streams designated as non-trout streams; may be dip-netted in rivers and streams during March and April; may be speared from March 1 to May 15 in designated non-trout streams of upper peninsula.

Grass Pike—Taken during any season with hook and line; may be speared through the ice during January and February in non-trout lakes and streams.

All kinds of fish except large and small mouth bass, wall-eyed pike and brook trout may be speared through the ice in inland lakes of the state and in streams designated as non-trout during January and February.

Frogs—June 1 to October 1; number and size unlimited; unlawful to spear with artificial light.

Clams, Mollusks and Pearls—June 1 to March 31; size and number unlimited; must secure license.

Hook and Line—Defined by law to be a single line of single rod and line with hook or hooks attached, held in the hand or under immediate control when being used for still fishing.

Casting or Trolling—Defined to mean a single line of single rod and line with hook or hooks attached with a natural or artificial bait, not to exceed six inches in length, and one or more hooks or lures or hooks attached, to be used for casting or trolling for fish and the method of capturing shall be by means of fish taking the bait or hook in the mouth; unlawful to troll from motor boat, excepting lakes directly connected with great lakes.

Non-resident Angler's License—Non-residents over 18 years are required to procure a license to fish. Fee for license to take all kinds of fish except brook trout and large and small mouth bass, $2.00. Fee for license to take all kinds of fish, $5.00.

Shipment by Non-Resident—One day's legal catch of fish may be taken or shipped out of the state by a licensed fisherman.

Public Lakes—Any size connected with any public waters by any means whatever by which fish can migrate to and from such waters for any length of time during any season of the year is a public lake.

EXPERTS SEARCH FOR CORN BORER SECRETS

Exhaustive Tests Being Made At Monroe Experimental Station In Order To Further Simplify Control Work

No effort is being spared to pry into the private affairs of the European corn borer by Michigan State College farm crops specialists and entomologists at the Monroe experimental station. Exhaustive tests to find the pest's weak points which would further simplify control work are now entering their third year.

More than 20 projects are in progress, the results of which will be announced after the fourth year. The date of planting project comprises 446 plots, using the dent, flint, pop and sweet types of corn.

A new experiment this year is the inter-laboratory crop project. The most important Michigan farm crops, vegetables and flowers will be subjected to corn borer conditions in an effort to determine what damage the pest may do to them.

It is hoped to make selections of the Maize Amargo crosses this summer with the possibility of obtaining some varieties. The Maize Amargo is a South American corn which has been crossed with Michigan varieties. The crosses have so far proved borer-resistant.

Other projects are the date of harvest, variety plots, fertilizer tests, and trap crops. Present indications are that much information will be obtained from the tests which will be of great value to farmers in their fight against the corn borer.

JUST RATTLES ON

"So you think that new hand of mine swears terrible, eh?" asked the gardener of his niece from the city.

"He certainly does," she answered. "No expression at all."—Exchange.

OUR NEIGHBORS

Brooklyn—The high rolling hills break down in a little valley to a wonderful beach at the new site of the Jackson Girl Scout camp on the west shore of Wampler's lake. Development has for some time been going forward at the fine site. The road going in from "Pink" street has been graded.—Exponent.

Saline—The Washtenaw County Brotherhood held a meeting in the M. E. church here Sunday afternoon and evening. Both sessions were well attended and many topics were discussed.

Grass Lake—Memorial Day is to be appropriately observed in this village under the auspices of the American Legion. There will be special church services in which the Legion will take part and a parade in which the Legion members and other organizations will participate. A band will furnish music and a speaker is to be engaged.—News.

Manchester—The new hall of Emanuel's church was dedicated here on Sunday, May 13th. The hall was started under the pastorate of Rev. A. A. Schoen, who came here from St. Paul's church of Chelsea, and is at present pastor of a church in Farmington. SHOW MODEL KITCHEN AND HOME EQUIPMENT

Truck Displaying Home Conveniences Will Visit Michigan Counties—Here July 11-13

A truck on which are carried a model kitchen, bathroom, simple water systems adapted for use in farm homes; an electric light plant, and a working model of a septic tank will visit 14 Michigan counties this summer.

Last year 14 counties were visited and 4,144 people inspected the truck and its equipment during the tour. Muskegon county people apparently were most interested in home conveniences, as the attendance of 696 in that county was high for the state.

Specialists from the home economics and agricultural engineering departments at Michigan State College will accompany the truck and give talks on the model equipment at each of the stops made.

The truck starts in June and the schedule for that month is Huron county; June 1 and 2; Tuscola, June 3 to 8; St. Clair, June 11 to 14; and Oakland, June 26 to 29.

The next month the truck will visit Ingham, July 2 to 6; Livingston, July 9 and 10; Washtenaw, July 11 to 13; Jackson, July 17 to 20; and Eaton, July 31 and August 1 to 3.

The remainder of the schedule is: Calhoun, August 6 and 7; Branch, August 8 to 10; Kalamazoo, August 14 to 16; Van Buren, August 17 to 21; and Cass, August 22 to 24.

GENERAL ELECTRIC Refrigerator

The hostess who has a General Electric Refrigerator has solved one of the hardest problems of entertaining. Now she can have smart delicacies to serve, without much trouble—and without much expense.

If she plans to have guests in the evening, she can prepare a simple mousse or a parfait in the morning—or even the day before. She knows it will be chilled to a point of perfection that only the finest confectioners can rival. She knows that her drinks will be really cold. That her gleaming ice cubes will be piled up—ready.

And for her every-day tasks she blesses the quiet efficiency of this refrigerator. She is glad it needs no oiling—that it hasn't a drain pipe to clog. She finds it so sanitary, so easy to clean, so roomy and so very economical to operate. She wonders how she ever lived without it!

You are cordially invited to come in and study the wide range of models.

Time payments, if you wish. Write for booklet.

ADVERTISING BUILDS BUSINESS

In 1883, the Mervin-Kahny Company store was founded at Bayne, Arcadia Parish, Louisiana. It now does more than $500,000 business a year in a community of 3,000 people. It started with one clerk; now it has 30. Its sales have a volume that many a city jobber would envy.

Writing of the facts, the company manager says: "We have done a general merchandising business, with dry goods as the bulk of the business, entering into the trade of 10 parishes, and advertising in every paper in our section."

Advertising invites and fixes a standard of comparison by which one's goods, methods, prices may be tested. Advertising creates demand; one who does not know of the advertised automobile, still drives the ox-team, or rides pillion-fashion, or walks through jungle paths; one who doesn't know advertising matches or electricity or gas, kindles a cave fire with a whirling stick, and gnaws half-cooked meat off the bones of the prey he has slain with stone or club. Advertising is information and goodwill investment.

ICE

In a Good Refrigerator

Meat, milk and other perishable food products are kept their best with ice. There is nothing cheaper nor better than this method of refrigeration.

Ice keeps the air cold enough, without being too cold; dry enough, without being too dry; just moist enough to keep food and food flavors at their best.

Twelve million families in this country have found that ice, intelligently used, in a good refrigerator, renders a superior service at very low cost.

Excellent Rule

Accusations are like stones—they can be picked up anywhere and hurled by hand, however solid. Why not follow the formula of the man who recently said, "I have made it a fixed rule never to utter anything derogatory to another's reputation?"

(©, 1928, Western Newspaper Union.)

The ideal life is in our blood and never will be still. Sad will be the day for any man, when he becomes content with the thoughts he is thinking and the deeds he is doing—where there is not forever beating at the doors of his soul, some great desire to do something larger, which he knows he is meant to do.—Phillips Brooks.

NATIONAL SOUPS

It may be interesting to study some of the foreign or national soups which are so well liked by these people.

German Rice Soup.—Prepare a white roux or sauce with four ounces each of butter and flour. Moisten with three quarts of chicken stock or veal broth and let it simmer on the side of the range for twenty minutes, removing the scum from time to time. Parboil three ounces of rice, drain and add to the soup and let simmer twenty minutes longer.

Just before serving, add one pint of cream, season with salt, pepper, grated nutmeg and minced parsley.

Russian Cabbage Soup.—Cut into very small squares three medium-sized onions and fry them in three ounces of butter; add one and one-half pounds of sauerkraut and stew together until all moisture is extracted. Sprinkle with a tablespoonful of flour and with three tablespoonfuls of sour cream. Season to taste and add three quarts of broth. When boiling, add one partly roasted duck, one pound of the breast of beef cut into three or four pieces; remove the fat from the soup and add one cupful of sour cream. Season to taste, add the meats, some chopped parsley and serve.

Batavia Polish Soup.—Boil one dozen cooked beets and place in a stone jar with one quart of warm water and one pint of vinegar. Let stand several days. The day the soup is to be served strain the liquid from the beets, add one quart of water and put it into the pot together with two pounds of beef; boil and skim. Cut up the beets finely as well as two or three onions and add them to the soup. Boil gently for three hours; take out the beef, cut it into half-inch square pieces and thicken with one pint of sour cream beaten up with four egg yolks.

DODGE VICTORY SIX,
GIVEN DRILLING TEST

Still weak from his record-shattering performance of driving a Dodge Victory Six for 100 hours without stopping the motor, Les Morrison, endurance driver, is recuperating from effects of the long grind at a local hotel.

Morrison is expected to be able to leave his room late Monday for the first time since completing the run at 4:02 Saturday afternoon before a huge throng at the Gilbert Loomis Dodge Sales rooms on West Corland street.

Les declares that he finished the drive in probably the worst nervous condition of his career. This was caused by the heavy storms that hampered him throughout, and had it not been for the superb fashion in which his car performed, and the excellent physical condition he maintained, Morrison says he never would have been able to finish.

"The final night of driving found Morrison meeting with a mishap that nearly ended the record-seeking attempt. Near Parma in the heavy fog the car tipped completely over on its side in a ditch. Motorists going by, noting Morrison's plight, righted the car to a 45 degree angle. It stayed in this position with the motor running all the time until the wrecker arrived, and righted the auto on the highway. Morrison says the engine of the Dodge Victory Six ran perfectly all the time the car was in a tilted position, and the oil pressure never varied in the least.—Jackson Tribune.

"SIAMESE TWINS" TO APPEAR AT JACKSON

"San Antonio's 'Siamese Twins,' Daisy and Violet Hilton, in their appearance at the Capitol Theatre, Jackson, starting Sunday, May 27th, for four days, are to offer what is said to be the most unusual natural attraction in the world,—themselves. In being born joined together at the base of their spines, theirs is a distinction that is without a rival. No other 'Siamese Twins' are alive today.

Yet these two charming, talented young girls of seventeen offer more than the opportunity of viewing in an artistically and tastefully presented offering of song, dance, music and comedy, they prove they are not 'freaks' but wholesome and charming young girls, skilled in all the arts of the theatre,—each with a personality distinct and individual.

Born in England, the Hilton girls were brought by their uncle and aunt to San Antonio, Texas, in their early infancy—hence the term under which they the known the world over, "The San Antonio Siamese Twins." Not only do they carry on their work in vaudeville, dancing, playing musical instruments, singing and other theatrical accomplishments—with ease and freedom of movement of almost every athletic diversion—they play tennis and golf, swim, even box. In addition to the Siamese Twins, the Capitol Theatre will offer their usual vaudeville bill, and Karl Dane and George K. Arthur, the noted comedy team, in a comedy of circus life entitled "Circus Rookies."

LAWN MOWERS SHARPENED
Elmer Dickerson, the lawn mower sharpener, of Stockbridge, will be in Chelsea next Thursday, at the McKune residence. Have your mowers put in condition for summer.

Michigan farmers will raise close to 700,000 acres beans this year. Charlevoix—Fire loss in Charlevoix County during 1927 was $21,778 less than in 1928.

BIRD LOVERS TO MEET

The Michigan Audubon society will hold its annual meeting at Battle Creek Friday and Saturday, June 1 and 2. The program will include an exhibit of new birds by Walter E. Hastings and a morning bird hike. The proposition of naming a state bird for Michigan will be discussed at this meeting, and delegates are asked to be ready with suggestions.

STILL SOME CLEANING TO DO

Chelsea people responded in a splendid way to the request of the village council and the health department to make the village clean, but there are still a number of unsightly and unsanitary piles of ashes and rubbish about town which ought to be removed. The expense of removing these will not be excessive and everybody ought to do their part in this campaign.

Some of our alleys need attention and a few back yards could be greatly improved in appearance with just a little effort.

WHIPPET SIX SETS NEW RECORD

A new world's speed record for 24 hours for cars selling under $1,000 was established recently on the speedway at Indianapolis when a strictly stock Whippet Six Coach traveled 1,357.5 miles for an average of 56.62 miles per hour.

The former record of 54,103 miles per hour was held by a six-cylinder car selling for a price far in excess of the Whippet Six. Its record was made on the Atlantic City speedway which is claimed to be a much faster track than the one at Indianapolis.

The Whippet Six was officially timed and checked by the Hoosier Motor Club of Indianapolis.

A Silent And Beautiful Tribute! FLOWERS

For Memorial Day

AGAIN the day nears when we feel duty-bound to revere the memory of a loved one whose presence we miss so much. Mayhap it's a son, a father or a grandfather who gladly laid his life on the altar of unselfishness and sacrifice that this great nation of ours might live in Peace and Security. And, mayhap, it's a sister or a mother whose smiling face was a joy to us in days-gone-by.

We owe them all a silent tribute on Memorial day—the beautiful tribute of God's own FLOWERS which so eloquently bespeak our innermost sentiments.

LARGEST CLASS IN HISTORY OF U. OF M.

According to figures announced the first of the week the University of Michigan will graduate 22,156 students in June, the largest class in the history of the institution. The class last year totaled 1,976. The degrees will be awarded the students at the annual commencement ceremonies to be held on Perry Field, June 18th. Dr. Chester H. Rowell, regent of the University of California, at Berkeley, will address the graduating class.

The list announced, shows a probable increase in the number of graduates over last year in the literary college, engineering college, dental college, school of business administration, graduate school, nurses school, law school and college of pharmacy. The new school of forestry and conservation, inaugurated last fall, will graduate ten students.

COUNTY HIGHWAY WORK IS PROGRESSING WELL

In spite of the recent heavy rains, road construction projects in Washtenaw county have been moving forward in a satisfactory manner, according to a report of the county road commission.

The Pleasant Lake road, started last year, about a quarter of a mile progress is reported by the contractor who is building the lower section of Huron River drive between Ann Arbor and Dexter. The rough grade on the Fletcher road is completed and 40 per cent of the finishing work done. Culverts are in place and the gravel contractor is well under way with his work.

With good weather, the commission expects that the grading work on the Willow road can be completed in about two weeks. The road has been rough graded west of Stoney Creek road and the right of way problems which faced the commission in the building of this highway have been settled.

A mile of the Cavanaugh Lake road has been rough graded and the commission now is working on the lake front problem which this road has presented.

VETERINARIAN HOLD CONFERENCE TO DISCUSS RABIES

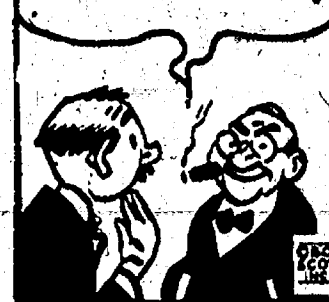

Rabies as they are affecting various communities near Jackson were the subject of an intensely interesting discussion at a meeting of the Jackson County Veterinarian society Wednesday afternoon and evening at Hotel Otsego. Dr. W. Cline of Wauson, Ohio, described the conditions in Ohio, stressing the considerable damage caused by the destruction of sheep. Dr. Cline urged that every good dog should be vaccinated and mongrels should be killed, if rabies are to be exterminated.

Dr. J. E. Kiffin of Lansing supplemented Dr. Cline's statements with a description of existing conditions in Michigan, citing the fact that 18 counties, not including Jackson county, are today under quarantine. One case mentioned by the speaker was that of the state hospital at Pontiac, where several hogs were bitten by mad dogs.

According to Dr. Pithill of Onsted, several hogs in his district have died after being bitten by dogs during the last few days. Dr. Pithill's statement concerning Chicago was most startling. During the first three months of this year, he said, 10,000 dogs were killed in that city. Four hundred and seventy persons were bitten and 300 dogs were known to have rabies. Jackson Tribune.
