SALEM M. E. CHURCH OBSERVED ANNIVERSARY

A Large Crowd Observed Seventy-fifth Anniversary Last Sunday—Inspiring Sermons, Bountiful Dinner

The Salem Methodist Episcopal church established in 1853 by Rev. John Schweinfurth, who was then pastor at Ann Arbor, observed the seventy-fifth anniversary of its organization last Sunday with very interesting and appropriate services. An audience that filled the church was present at the morning service at 11:00, following the Sunday school which also attracted a great many. Seated among the audience were a number of former members and attendants of the church and four former pastors were present and assisted in the services. Revs. Henry W. Lenz, George Mitter, Carl Ertle and Paul Mueller. The services were in charge of Rev. Fred Ross, resident pastor, and to whose untiring efforts a large part of the success of the celebration is due. He extended a very cordial welcome to the services and expressed his thanks to the friends who had assisted the church in years past and who are still carrying on in that vineyard of the Lord. The church hall and the pulpit were beautifully decorated with cut flowers and a cordial greeting was extended to all strangers present. A large choir under the direction of Walter Kalmbach led the congregation in singing the old familiar hymns and the choir rendered a pleasing anthem. Mrs. Kalmbach presiding at the piano and played the prelude and voluntary. . . . .

Kalmbach favored the congregation with a vocal solo. Rev. Carl Ertle led in the responsive reading following the singing of that inspiring hymn "Guide Me, O Thou Great Redeemer." Rev. Henry W. Lenz offered prayer in which he thanked God for His guidance during past years and asked that the blessings which have been showered upon the pioneer members of the church may be continued upon those who are following after, so that they may be sustained and strengthened in their efforts to support and maintain the church which had represented so much in the life of the community. . . . .

Rev. F. J. Baumann of Detroit, district superintendent, gave the anniversary sermon and his discourse was a thoughtful and inspiring one. He took for his text the words found in Acts 3:42-47. The speaker declared the real, live, aggressive church was the apostolic church, the church of prayer and communion with God and with His son, Jesus Christ, as the Apostles did on that memorable occasion nearly nineteen hundred years ago, when 120 "gladly received His word and were baptized." The benediction was pronounced by Rev. George Mitter, who was pastor of the church when the present edifice was constructed in 1888. . . . .

Mrs. Millitzer, of Toledo, the wife of a former pastor, was present to enjoy the occasion. Many visitors were present from Detroit, Ann Arbor, Jackson, Chelsea and other towns in this section. While the guests were waiting to be served dinner they strolled about the little cemetery adjoining the church where repose the remains of many of the former members of the church and a number of the founders of the society. Monuments there bear the names of many of the pioneers of that section who went into the wilderness to make homes for themselves and their families and who contributed liberally of their time and the material things of life to establish the church which has been a beacon light during all the passing years. . . . .

The land upon which the church property and cemetery is located was donated by Messrs. William and Philip Riemschneider who were loyal members and supporters of the church for many years. William Riemschneider was local minister of the church during the absence of the pastor for more than 50 years. The following pastors have served the church since 1853: Rev. John Schweinfurth, Rev. Emil Bauer, Rev. St. Barth, Rev. A. Muller, Rev. Theo. Schumann, Rev. A. Webber, Rev. G. A. Feidler, Rev. H. Krill, Rev. George Mitter, Rev. G. Bertram, Rev. A. Krumling, Rev. V. Jahnans, Rev. C. Millitzer, Rev. J. Braun, Rev. P. Wuertel, Rev. C. G. Herzer, Rev. L. S. Kettner, Rev. G. A. Reuter, Mrs. H. W. Lenz, Rev. C. Wehnes, Rev. J. E. Beal, Rev. J. Schneider, Rev. J. Schneider, Rev. George Neidhardt, Rev. H. Bau, Rev. Carl Ertle, Rev. Fred Schweinfurth and Rev. Fred Ross, the present pastor. . . . .

For the first five years after the church was founded its members met about from house to house in the neighborhood. As the number of German families increased in that section a need for a more suitable place of worship was felt and in 1858, during the second pastorate of Rev. Schweinfurth, a building was erected. From Ann Arbor Rev. Carl Ertle, pastor for seventeen years, and in

LIMA 4-H CLUB MET LAST THURSDAY

A meeting of the Lima 4-H club was held Thursday evening, June 28th, at the home of Walter Beutler. About 25 members were present, each of whom answered roll call by telling of the work they had done on their project. . . . .

It was decided that the Lima 4-H club try for the trophy which is to be given by the Ann Arbor State Savings Bank. A few of the points counting on the final score are: 1. Use of 4-H club pledge to adjourn meetings. 2. Entertainment of one or more 4-H clubs at a regular club meeting. 3. Attendance. 4. Meetings begun on time. 5. Number of finishers. There was a club baseball team organized Saturday, June 30. Six new members were formally initiated into the club. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and singing club songs. The next meeting will be held July 26th, at the home of Olney Outwater. . . . .

MARRIED AT THE METHODIST PARSONAGE

The marriage of Miss Mildred White, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert White, and George A. Titus, both of Chelsea, took place Saturday afternoon at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. F. J. Walker, pastor of the Methodist church. The attendants were Miss Dorothy Grabbill and Clayton White, cousin and brother of the bride. Following the ceremony, a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Titus will reside in Chelsea. . . . .

PRIMARY ELECTION TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4TH

Some are under the impression that the primary election to be held in September will occur on Tuesday, September 11—the second Tuesday in the month, but that is not the case. The election will be held this year on Tuesday, September 4th, being the first Tuesday after the first Monday in September, as provided for in the new election law enacted at the 1927 session of the Michigan legislature. . . . .

PLEASANT LAKE FRONTAGE SUBDIVIDED

The Freedom township board held a meeting Monday at which they accepted a plat for a subdivision of 468 lots along the shore of Pleasant Lake in that township. The owner of the subdivision has purchased land from Mr. Vogel, H. Lutz, and F. Brietenwischer, whose farms run to the shores of the lake. . . . .

COUNTY DEMOCRATS TO HAVE RATIFICATION MEETING

It is planned to have a democratic ratification meeting at the court house in Ann Arbor Friday evening at which Senator Copeland will be the speaker. The public is cordially invited. . . . .

Mrs. Bertha A. Pray, aged 67 years, wife of County Clerk Claramon L. Pray, died Monday afternoon. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon in Zion Lutheran church, Rev. E. C. Stelthorn officiating. . . . .

1870 a parsonage was built and since that time there has been a resident pastor on the field. For many years the services were conducted in German but with the passing of the years a gradual change took place and all the services of the church were conducted in English. . . . .

In the afternoon at 2:30 services were held and they were also attended by a large congregation. The services were opened with special music and by congregational singing, followed by prayer by Rev. E. Roser of Detroit. Rev. Henry W. Lenz of Detroit, read the scripture and special music by members of the choir and an orchestra added greatly to the pleasure of the program. A pageant entitled "The Rise of a Community" was given, during which the history of the church was read and two miniature models of the two church buildings were displayed—the old and the present structure. . . . .

It was late in the afternoon before the services of the day were concluded and the friends who had gathered to enjoy the happy event took their departure with the hope that the church may prosper in its holy labors and that it may continue to prosper during future years. . . . .

CHELSEA CEMENT PLANT MAY BE CLOSED DOWN

Matter Has Been Considered By Administrative Board For Some Time—Cement Prices Low—Deficit Of $870,756

A Lansing dispatch of Saturday stated that temporary closing of the Chelsea cement plant because of the present low price of cement will be considered at the meeting of the state administrative board Monday. Auditor-General O. B. Fuller will present a report showing that the cement plant deficit has jumped from $286,941 when the present administration took office a year ago last January, to $870,756 at the present time. The auditor-general is in favor of closing the plant for good and writing the deficit off the books if it cannot be sold. But the governor and Frank D. McKay, state treasurer, believe it a good investment, even if closed as insurance against high cement prices by private manufacturers. The whole matter is expected to be thrashed out at the meeting. . . . .

In the last few months, cement prices on the market have fallen below the cost of production at the state-owned plant. McKay believes the Chelsea plant should be closed for that reason, but kept in condition for reopening at any time the market should rise above a reasonable figure. "Chelsea has cost the state a whole lot of money and I am not so certain it has been worth it," Fuller said. "I never expected the present administration would continue operating it in the face of the growing deficit. I am in favor of disposing of it altogether." . . . .

Governor Green made an issue of the cement plant in his pre-primary campaign two years ago. In explaining his position now, he says: "I criticized the last administration for paying $500,000 for the plant and more than $100,000 for its equipment without authorization by the legislature. . . . .

"I believe the last administration board had no legal authority to buy it. That is what I said. I never said I would dispose of the plant. . . . .

"I believe it is a worthwhile investment as insurance against being robbed by the various cement manufacturers who apparently have formed a combine and operate on a system similar to the Pittsburgh plus plan adopted by the steel manufacturers. . . . .

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN OKLAHOMA

Charles Olin Churchill was born March 23, 1863, near Oswego, New York, and died at Broken Arrow June 20, 1928, at the age of 65 years, 2 months and 27 days. . . . .

In his early childhood he moved with his family to Michigan where he was married to Hattie Chipman in 1887. To this union four children were born, three boys and one girl. Two of the boys died in infancy. The daughter, Mrs. J. W. Oliver, lives at Webb City, Mo., and the son, L. C. Churchill, lives at Broken Arrow. . . . .

Mr. Churchill came to Broken Arrow in the fall of 1920 where he has since made his home. He was an active member of the carpenter's union and when in Kansas worked for the accomplishment of its purpose. He was also an active and enthusiastic member of the local Isaac Walton chapter and it is largely due to his tireless efforts that many of the improvements have been made. . . . .

Mr. Churchill had a jovial pleasant disposition. He had a very high sense of honor in things which he considered right and wrong. He was a kind and good father and husband while his wife lived though she has been dead many years. He was a good neighbor and a true friend. . . . .

Funeral services were held in the M. E. church Thursday afternoon at 3 p.m. Rev. Patton officiating. Funeral arrangements were in charge of J. E. Kennard of the Barth funeral parlors. The remains were taken to Topeka, Kan., for interment. . . . .

Mr. Churchill was a resident of this community for a number of years. Mrs. Churchill was a half-sister of J. D. Shipman of Chelsea. . . . .

Thirty-four Years Ago

July 5, 1894

Ex-Governor Winans died Wednesday afternoon at his home in Hamburg. He had been sick but a week with an attack of pneumonia.

A summary of the census enumerators gives Chelsea about 1,420 inhabitants, 350 families, 342 houses. In the township the population is 2,349 and 550 families. This is a gain of 34 inhabitants in the village and a gain of 91 in the township since the census of 1890.

Considerable damage was done in Chelsea and at Cavanaugh Lake by the high wind last Thursday.

The postoffice was moved to the new location in the Eminger building last Saturday night. The new postmaster took possession Monday morning and Miss Alice Gorman will remain for a short time until those in charge have learned the routine work of the office.

Born, Friday, June 29, to Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Glenn, of North Lake, a daughter.

C. S. Laird, an old resident of Chelsea, died this morning at his home on South Street after a long illness.

Sharon, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, was struck by lightning last Thursday and burned to the ground. A quantity of hay and grain and some farm tools were burned.

Mr. Healer was standing in the barn door at the time but was not injured. The building was new about two years ago.

George Service has received his diploma from the dental college in the U. of M.

SPECIALY CONSTRUCTED KITCHEN TO BE SHOWN

People Of This Section Will Have An Opportunity To Inspect The Same

This kitchen has been rebuilt on a truck by the agricultural engineering and home economics departments of Michigan State College. It is arranged to show how equipment may be placed to save steps for the homemaker. Studies made show women, performing their household tasks, spent 70 per cent of their working time in the kitchen. A pleasant, convenient room will assist in making this time a more enjoyable period for the housewife. The Home Convenience truck will have exhibits of attractive and easily cleaned floor and wall coverings for the kitchen. It is also equipped with a lighting system and an automatic pressure tank water system. A working model of a septic tank will be shown and an interesting feature will be a completely equipped bathroom. Miss Edna Smith, who gave a two years course of lessons in home management to the women of Washtenaw county, enrolled in the home economics project in 1925-26, 1926-27.

County Agricultural Agent Oster says that questions about the installation of any equipment shown will be answered by specialists from the college. The time and place for stops by the truck in the Chelsea community are at the home of Mrs. A. L. Bradbury, Lima township, at 10:00 a. m. Thursday, July 12, and at 2:30 p. m. at Rogers Corners, Freedom township. Other stops in Washtenaw county will be made on Wednesday, July 11, at the home of Mrs. Geiger at 10:00 a. m. and at Dixboro at 2:30 p. m. of the same day. On Friday, July 13, at 10:00 a. m. at the home of Miss Julia Gordon, Saline township, and at 2:30 of the same day at the home of Mrs. E. G. Mann, Bridge-water Station, Bridgewater township.

WOMAN IS CHARGED WITH ALIEN RUNNING

Girl and Father Are Accused at Detroit.

Detroit.—Accused of being responsible for the smuggling of at least 400 aliens from Canada to Detroit during the last 18 months, Casper Holtecker, fifty-two years old, and his daughter, Mrs. Rose Phillippi, thirty-one years old, were arraigned here recently on charges of conspiracy to violate the immigration laws and being accessories in aiding the smuggling of aliens.

John L. Zurbrugg, district director of immigration, estimated the two were responsible for bringing in 400 aliens here as members of an international ring whose ramifications are believed to extend to Europe.

Both admit, Mr. Zurbrugg said, that they have smuggled a number of aliens but gave no exact number. Holtecker, Mr. Zurbrugg said, told him that between 50 and 100 aliens whom he aided to enter the country illegally now are residing in New York.

Many From His Home

Suspensions of the authorities here were aroused when it was found that in the few months aliens caught, it was estimated the country here all came from Holtecker's home.

A month ago the authorities were informed that 75 aliens from England were aboard a steamer bound for Canada. On April 3, 12 and 14, the immigration border patrol apprehended a number of the aliens here and all showed they were interested in a man named Holtecker.

The women said they paid $50 a month for the smuggling of the aliens. The men said they paid $55 each. One woman said she paid $250. Mrs. Phillippi, Mr. Zurbrugg said, claims $75 of that fee was paid the man who brought the women over the river.

On April 19, Nicholas Tich and his wife, Anna, of England, were arrested in a taxicab at the foot of 42 Riverfront with Arthur Damm, a smuggler released recently after serving a sentence in the Leavenworth penitentiary for smuggling aliens, and Edward Quinn and his wife Edith, who live at the Riverfront address.

Tich told the authorities that when he came to Windsor he went to a certain hotel and gave a certain passport, whereupon he was told to wait on agent of the smuggling ring. The hotel, the authorities say they are informed, got $5 a head for this service.

Holtecker was notified of the alien's arrival and his daughter came to Windsor and collected $150 from the Tiches and told them they would be delivered to her home. Mr. Zurbrugg said the Tiches got in a cab at the hotel with Damm.

Holtecker, Mr. Zurbrugg said, claims he got $10 to $20 a head for his part in the smuggling. He said, according to the officials, that he shipped the aliens to the East after receiving them in the home.

Moscow's Two Millions

Overflow Red Capital

Moscow.—Moscow appears to be suffering serious scarcity of dwelling houses, according to an elaborate review of the situation made by the newspaper Izvestia. This is due to the fact that during the World war and the revolution the city lost about 20 per cent of such buildings, while the population considerably increased and is still increasing. In 1920 the city was estimated to have 1,500,000 inhabitants while now it is said to have 2,400,000—a phenomenal increase.

The existing houses provide an area of only 5.7 square meters for each person, or only about half as much as is required by the commission of hygiene to correct these congested conditions it would be necessary at once to provide at least 3,000,000 square meters of building space.

Meanwhile the newspapers are printing many communications upon the subject giving all sorts of suggestions for relief. Some urge that sleeping rooms be fitted with upper and lower bunks like sleeping cars. Others demand that every room shall have at least one window, a rule which does not now prevail, and yet others would limit the number of occupants to four in a room.

Earth Jars in Arizona Said to Be 2,000 Years Old

Nozoles, Ariz.—Ancient earthen jars, containing the bones of nephritis bone race, recently excavated by men working on the city streets, were dated to be more than 2,000 years old by Byron Cummings, dean of the University of Arizona, who made an inspection of the jars.

Many of the jars are inscribed with various designs and crude drawings of snakes, centipedes and birds. Dean Cummings attributed the articles found to the Phoenician people, a long headed race, predecessors of the later known as the Punic people, who built Casa Grande.

Excepting the cliff dwellers, the jars were discovered near Flagstaff. These jars were said to be the oldest ever yet unearthed in Arizona.

City Links Pay

Snoke, Wash.—With a budget for the city made a net profit of $3,000 from its municipal golf course last year.

WASHTENAW'S VALUE

PUT AT $110,873,995

Washtenaw county's equalized valuation for this year was set at $110,873,995 Thursday by the board of supervisors, the figure representing a decline of $439,405 from last year's total. The real property as assessed this year is $5,505,005 less than the figures of a year ago. The assessment on personal property is higher than it was in 1927, however.

The business of the two brothers was distinctly bad, and had been for some time, so they decided to hold a local meeting of their own.

"George," said the elder brother, "I expect you've noticed that things are pretty bad lately?"

"Burglary?" echoed the elder. "Why not the old-fashioned but simple fire?"

MASTER FARMERS DECLARE SCIENTIFIC FARMING PAYS

Leading Farmers Say Agriculture Is Profitable If Properly Directed Along Scientific Lines

An East Lansing dispatch to the Detroit Free Press of Sunday stated "Back to the farm" is the advice given to agricultural students by a group of Michigan's Master Farmers.

Each of the farmers whose success in agricultural lines has won them state-wide recognition agreed that while financial rewards may be uncertain at times, farming is the only profession for the college student trained in scientific agriculture, and with a background of farm life.

"Good farms are the cheapest they have been in years," said E. W. Lincoln, Greenville, elected to the group of Master Farmers this year. "I believe well-managed farms are paying as well on the investment as any other business. It should not be difficult for a young man of good character to obtain the necessary financial backing."

There is no other business so fascinating as modern farming with its improved methods, machinery, plans and livestock. There is no other business in which there is greater opportunity for service in leadership along business, social or political lines.

The farm will become a laboratory of scientific developments, for agricultural graduates, according to Garfield Farley, Albion.

"Agriculture has accepted science, and now the farmer who does not treat his seed for smut, use the proper culture for leguminous crops, lime his soil when needed, balance his fertilizers with commercial products, spray his potatoes for blight, and insects, and a great many other things not thought of years ago, is taking more than a gambler's chance against unprofitable crops and possibly failure."

"You boys, who have had training along many of these lines are years ahead of many old farmers who have been all their lives on the farm. In fact, the farm would become your laboratory. This would become so interesting that in itself it would be a big drawing-card."

Floyd M. Barden, South Haven, said: "To one who is interested in farming and has any kind of opportunity to return to a farm, there cannot be a better place on earth. The farm community offers unlimited opportunity to make use of a college training and the state has made an investment in him that demands he should be of service to others. Success on the farm demands hard work and strict application to the business at hand. Discouragements are sure to come but there must be a continual vision of the future that will enable the individual to fight on."

CAVAUGHAN LAKE

Mrs. Rollin Schenk, and family of Oak Park, Ill., are occupying the Glazier cottage at Cavanaugh Lake during the month of July.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bachner, who have been spending the month of June at their cottage at Cavanaugh Lake, departed on Monday morning for a visit with relatives in Ohio and West Virginia.

Warren R. Daniels has made his property at Cavanaugh Lake very attractive by the addition of a two-car garage and a well laid out lawn and garden.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Armstrong and son of Milwaukee, Wis., are spending the summer at Cavanaugh Lake.

CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF

George W. Gillespie of Ann Arbor, who has announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for the office of sheriff, made a tour of this section of the county on Tuesday, meeting old acquaintances and friends. Mr. Gillespie is a resident of Ann Arbor, his home being at 821 North Ashley street, and intends to make an active campaign for the honor he seeks.

He served for five years as supervisor in his home city, was deputy sheriff for a period of four years, serving under two sheriffs, was two and a half years in the World war as chief engineer on ocean-going steamers, giving him an experience that well qualifies him for the sheriff's office.

Mr. Gillespie stated to a representative of The Standard while in Chelsea that if he was elected he would live in the county jail as the law provides, and that he would endeavor to serve the people in a manner that would meet with their approval.

The primary election for the nomination of candidates for county officers will take place on Tuesday, September 4th.

YOUTH CATHOLICS DEDICATE NEW CHURCH

A little mission church, which once a month by Rev. Father Milford, the Catholic church at Plymouth has grown until Sunday by Bishop Gallagher of Detroit. Rev. Father Frank C. Le... became resident priest there in 1920 and under his guidance the parish has prospered and membership has increased until the little flock was able to re-model the church building purchased from the Universalists into a handsome structure with a seating capacity of 450, while underneath the church proper are an auditorium, ante-room, kitchen, check room and lavatories.

Father Lefever is a general favorite in the community and both in the church and among the people outside he has made many friends.

WHERE TO START TO REDUCE CRIME

More than two years has been spent in completing the first compilation ever made of existing state criminal laws governing arrests, preliminary examination, bail, methods of prosecution, grand jury procedure and indictment, by Dean William E. Mikel and Professor Edwin R. Keedy, of the University of Pennsylvania law school.

It is revealed that state laws relating to indictment probably are more diverse, more responsible for miscarriages of justice and more generally in need of reform than any other single group of laws governing procedure in criminal cases. The compilation illustrates strikingly the multiplicity of criminal laws in the various states and emphasizes the necessity for a uniform criminal code.

Attention is again focused by this work on the fact that simplification and clarification of the law and elimination of technicalities in criminal procedure are objectives that must be attained before delays incident to criminal procedure can be reduced to a minimum and justice expedited.

ADVERTISING HELPS BUSINESS

With the electric light and power industry on the threshold of developments surpassing even advances made in the last decade, it has reached the stage where it requires a widespread, comprehensive and consistent advertising program, in the opinion of J. E. Davidson, vice president and general manager of the Nebraska Power Company.

"We live in an era, where sound business turns wholeheartedly to advertising," he said. "It has been employed by great public corporations. Securities that show consistent market increases are those of organizations that advertise. Even most conservative bankers are not too proud to offer their wares in print and these same financial supervisors look askance at a would-be borrower who does not advertise his product."

GIVE ARSONIST HIS OWN MEDICINE

The elimination of arson would mark a great reduction in the nation's fire insurance bill. This abhorrent crime is a paramount destroyer of life and property and its cost must be defrayed by every holder of an insurance policy.

Some time ago a Delaware man, convicted of arson, was sentenced to a whipping as well as a long prison term. There are those who consider this penalty barbarous. But the arsonist is an uncivilized and barbarous being who must be fed his own medicine. It but makes the punishment fit the crime.

If corporal punishment will discourage arson, it should by all means be adopted. Arson is an outstanding menace to the safety and prosperity of industry, business and the home.

A WORTHY OBJECT

A fine arts foundation in the Richard J. Reynolds High school, Winston-Salem, N. C., has been established by a local citizen, chairman of the board of city school commissioners. The specific purpose of the foundation is to bring to the city each year recognized leaders in different realms of activity, who through inspirational addresses and the power of their personality, will be a constructive influence in the lives of students.

Lecturers for the past year included representatives of two important educational institutions in the south, a distinguished American poet, a naturalist and writer on scientific subjects, an American sculptor, a prominent minister, and an internationally known medical missionary.

PAVED STREETS SAVE MONEY

Highland, Illinois, a city of three thousand population, this spring embarked on a program to pave 13 or 14 miles of its streets. According to the mayor, this will actually save the municipality money, because of the tremendous upkeep cost of dirt roads. In the last eleven years their maintenance has cost $160,000.

It has been the repeated experience of cities and towns of all sizes that money spent for hardsurfacing dirt streets, or salvaging worn-out paved ones is not an expense. On the contrary it is an economy and a dividend-paying investment. In our modern life good roads and streets are as necessary as telephones and electricity.

VETERAN EDITOR, NEAR 100, DIED IN FLORIDA

News was received in Jackson of the death Thursday in Lakeland, Fla., of E. W. Barber, who for more than half a century was editor of the Jackson Patriot, the Marshall Statesman and several other Michigan newspapers. He would have been 100 years old July 8. In 1864 he was appointed reading clerk in the national house of representatives and in 1873 was named by President Grant as third assistant postmaster general. Mr. Barber was active in a literary capacity until a few years before his death.

A CORNERSTONE

Religious freedom, says a writer in the Woman's Home Companion, is the chief cornerstone of our government and that is what has made us the foremost among nations.

SMITH FAVORS MODIFICATION OF VOLSTEAD ACT

Raymond Clapper, staff correspondent of the United Press, sent out the following from Houston, Texas, last Friday, indicating the attitude of the democratic nominee for the presidency regarding the much-discussed prohibition question or more specifically the Volstead Act:

"The democratic party now goes to the country with a presidential candidate pledged to lead a movement to change the prohibition laws."

Governor Alfred E. Smith made this clear beyond all question in a brief message read at the closing session of the democratic national convention. He said:

"I feel it to be the duty of the chosen leader of the people to point the way which, in his opinion, leads to a sane, sensible solution of a condition which I am convinced is entirely unsatisfactory to the great mass of our people. Common honesty compels me to admit that corruption of law enforcement officials, bootlegging and lawlessness are now prevalent throughout the country. I am satisfied that without returning to the old evils that grew from the saloon, which I held and still hold was and ought always to be a defunct institution in this country, by application of the democratic principles of local self government and states' rights, we can secure real temperance, respect for law, and eradication of existing evils."

This utterance, delivered to the party and the country within twelve hours after the nomination, probably is destined to be one of the most important utterances of the campaign, for by it Governor Smith chooses to lead the democratic party into a national fight to change the prohibition law, now eight and a half years old.

Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas, a southern dry, was placed on the ticket with Smith as vice-presidential candidate.

It is becoming more and more apparent that the question of prohibition is to become the great issue of the presidential campaign.

THIS "PRACTICE" SHOULD BE SUPPRESSED

A dispatch from Oroville, Calif., of recent date stated that husbands of farm women in that district were given a new source of worry when they noted the skill the ladies displayed in a throwing contest held here.

The contest was won by Mrs. Maud McElroy of Durham, who hurled a rolling pin for a record-breaking toss of 100 feet, two inches. Second honors were won by a throw of 50 feet, six inches while the third place throw was a foot.

If this kind of sport becomes universal, husbands will do well to stop, look and listen.

Twenty-four Years Ago

July 4, 1904

The Fourth was rather quiet in Chelsea. In the evening many of the families about town had a display of fireworks. At Cavanaugh Lake a display of fireworks was the principal event of the day. Glenn's grove at North Lake was rather well filled with residents from near-by towns and a display of fireworks in the evening took place.

Louis L. Conk, a Civil war veteran, died at his home on East Summit street Friday, July 1. For the last 34 years he had been a resident of Chelsea.

The residence of Fred Wolf of Sylvan was totally destroyed by fire early Sunday morning. The fire was discovered by a son of R. J. West and a young man by the name of Hesel-schwerdt, who were diving by the place at the time the flames broke out. The young men went to the house and notified the family, who were at breakfast and unaware that the roof was burning over their heads. The insurance was $500 and will fall far short of replacing the building.

The Junior Stars and Plymouth Stars played two games of baseball here Monday. The first game was won by the Junior Stars by a score of 9 to 8. The Plymouth team won the second game by a score of 6 to 5.

A class of 50 boys and girls received their first communion in St. Mary church last Sunday. Rt. Rev. Bishop Foley will administer the sacrament of Confirmation at 7 o'clock tonight.

Two hundred residents of Chelsea left on the morning train Wednesday to attend the 175th celebration "Under the Oaks" at Jackson. The Chelsea band accompanied the delegation. The later trains and electric line carried large delegations to the celebration.

John Rafferty and Leonard Beissel were in Gregory Monday attending the celebration. Mr. Rafferty captured first prize in the tug-of-war contest.

Rev. Fr. Considine was called to Pinckney Monday to assist at the funeral of John Devereau, an old resident of that place.

Thursday night the barns on the farm of George Reade of Dexter township were struck by lightning and with most of their contents burned to the ground.

Each received a guest prize while Miss Weimann and Miss Dora Chandler won high honors. Two tables were in play, the tables being attractively decorated with roses and delphiniums.

A luncheon with charming appointments was given Saturday afternoon by Miss Dora Chandler, complimenting Miss Dorothy Haselswerdt, whose marriage to Gerald A. Luick will be an event of the week. Centering each table was a pink and white rose, while nut cups and place cards carried out the same color scheme, a miniature bride and groom marking the place for the honor guest. ## WHIPPET SIX MAKING A GREAT RECORD

"The outstanding performance of the new Whippet Six, which was introduced a short time ago by the Willys-Overland company at the lowest price ever reached by any manufacturer of light sixes, may result in a new and higher standard of design for cars of this type," according to Perry C. Gattley, manager of the Detroit Willys-Overland branch.

"Equipped with a seven-bearing crankshaft and other distinctive features that are new to cars selling in this low price field, the new Whippet Six, although it has been on the market but a few months, has established an unusual reputation for smooth and quiet action as well as a car of power, speed and remarkable acceleration qualities."

BAND CONCERT ATTRACTED A GREAT CROWD

STOP SIGNS NECESSARY ON STATE HIGHWAY SIDE ROADS

"Through highways" have the right-of-way over side roads only when proper stop signs are erected on the side roads, Attorney General William M. Brucker informed the state highway department in an opinion Tuesday.

By this ruling cars traveling on recognized arterial highways, both state and national, must share responsibility for crashes equally with cars coming from side roads, unless proper markers are erected on the side roads.

Hundreds of intersections in Michigan are not designated so as to give the right-of-way to the through highways, under this opinion, and it is expected action will be taken at once to mark all unmarked intersections so that the through traffic will be protected in accordance with general understanding and practice.

BATH CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL NAMED AFTER COUZENS

The new consolidated school recently erected at Bath will be named in honor of Senator James Couzens, it was announced recently if the senator's permission is gained.

The new school was built with funds provided by Senator Couzens, after the old school was destroyed by a dynamite explosion in May, 1927, in which over 40 children lost their lives.

The school district at the last meeting voted the name and as soon as possible permission will be secured from the Detroit senator to go on with the naming plans.

The school is nearly complete now and will be in readiness for the opening this fall. The teaching staff has been named and equipment has been purchased. The school is larger than before. The gymnasium and lockers were used by the students during this spring, but none of the rest of the building had been ready for use.

STATE CHERRY CROP PROMISES TO LEAD NATION

Michigan will lead the United States in cherry production this year, going ahead of New York for the first time, a survey completed by a canning company officials Tuesday at Traverse City showed.

Approximately thirty-five million pounds of cherries will be canned in Michigan, according to figures made public by Howard Morgan, vice president of the John C. Morgan canning company.

The figures credit Wisconsin with second place with from 17 to 22 million and New York with third place.

Due mainly to the retarded spring both Michigan and Wisconsin have bumper crops coming on, while New York, hit by an unsteady spring, has a short crop and will not can more than 15,000,000 pounds.

Traverse City factories will can 20 million pounds of cherries. The Hartly-Shelby district will can about 8,000,000 pounds and southern Michigan, its crop slightly below normal, will can about 5,000,000 pounds.

Prosperity and plenty will be celebrated in Mardi Gras fashion in Traverse City with the annual Cherry Festival, July 14, in which Governor Fred Green will take part.

Both Michigan and Wisconsin suffered short crops in 1927 and it has been several years since either has had a normal crop.

PRISON FUGITIVE FOUND NEAR GILLETTS LAKE

Joseph Joyce, Michigan state prisoner, who fled Thursday afternoon while loading a freight car, was captured late Friday afternoon near Gillett's Lake, five miles east of Jackson.

E. W. Corvill, identification clerk of the police department and Merritt Tawn, police record clerk, his captors, were in an automobile a part of a posse sent out to scour the lake region, after it was reported Joyce had broken into a cottage at the resort.

The prisoner wore only shirt and pants when he surrendered, and his feet were cut and bleeding from tramping through woods and thickets. He told his captors he had been frightened from the cottage while he was changing his clothing.

Joyce, 30 years old, was serving from nine months to 15 years for breaking and entering. He came to the prison on April 30, last, from Detroit. No trace has been found of two other inmates, one of whom left the Fowlerville road camp, and the other the north prison farm near Jackson last week.

BLACK TERNS FIGHT TO PROTECT THEIR HOME NESTS

Walter Hastings, tall, genial official photographer of the conservation department, has encountered the fiercest fighting specimen of Michigan wild life. Recently Hastings sought pictures of the black tern and before he had finished getting some excellent views of this beauty he had learned something about the bird's fighting ability.

The fact that he was intruding on the private life of a pair of these birds undoubtedly was the cause of the opposition he met. Never in his 15 years of experience in this fascinating business has Hastings encountered such bundles of fury. The word "bluff" evidently does not exist in the vocabulary of the black tern. As soon as Hastings and Mrs. Hastings, who, by the way, is also an expert of long experience on photographing wild life, put in their appearance at the terns' domicile, the battle opened. There was nothing offered in the way of ultimatum, the birds swooping to the attack with a willingness that left the Hastings astonished. Not until they had left the neighborhood did the relentless fighting cease.

Mrs. Hastings crouched low in the boat in which they were approaching the nest. It was necessary to let the craft drift to the birds' home, for a single move off the suffices to spoil plans that have taken hours to work out. She had pulled rubbers from the lake margin and covered her person completely. But the sharp eyes of the mother bird soon pierced the blind and she made a dive at the invaders. The bird flew swiftly at Mrs. Hastings and pecked her head several times, screaming out her protests. Persistence, a word that is the foundation for much of the Hastings' success in their chosen work, finally won out and the record of the birds' home ### life is now included in the pictorial history.

This feat is typical of "Walt" Hastings. He has never set out to secure a set of pictures but what he has conquered. For as many as 90 hours he has remained in cramped positions, pestered by insects and other pests while waiting to "shoot" his prey. He has never given ground to a single bird or animal encountered in his years of study.

CHOOSE NEW SITE FOR FARMERS DAY

A new site has been chosen for the annual summer Farmers Day meeting at the Michigan State College July 27. It will be an ideal location for the big general meeting in the afternoon and more conveniently located to the experimental plots, the livestock barns and the demonstrations and contests which will attract the interest of the visitors during the morning.

A platform for the speakers and entertainment features will be erected on one bank of the Red Cedar River near the farm lane bridge, while the audience will be seated on the opposite bank which forms a natural amphitheatre and affords ample shade. The front campus of nearly 100 acres and the shaded banks of the river which form an ideal picnic grounds will, of course, be available to the visitors as usual.

New and unusual forms of entertainment and contests are being planned for both the morning and afternoon programs. Among the demonstrations, the use of the combine harvester is expected to be one of the most important due to its recent use in the state and the general interest in more economical methods of harvesting in Michigan.

Valuable and interesting information, the result of experimental work conducted during the past year with livestock and crops, will be revealed by members of the college staff who will be stationed at strategic points to explain the work and the practical application of the findings.

WARNING GIVEN VACATIONISTS

The state health department in its monthly bulletin warns vacationists against going to extremes in outdoor activities.

After spending the greater part of the year cooped up in an office or home, the average vacationist is unfit for strenuous exercise, the bulletin states. Outdoor recreations should be begun gradually or sore muscles and severe sunburn will result, the bulletin says.

"One fact frequently lost sight of in considering vacations," the bulletin continues, "is that there are supposed to be periods of relaxation and rest. The temptation to crowd too many activities into a brief period of time—activities that are much more strenuous than one's accustomed routine—is almost irresistible. Sunburn, blisters and sore muscles are not the happiest accompaniments of a vacation, but they are sure to be the lot of the unwary vacationist," the article says.

To walk miles instead of blocks, to stay out of doors for hours under a mid-day sun when one is accustomed to being sheltered in a house or office, to play a vigorous game of tennis and swim when neither is part of one's usual activities is to court at least temporary disaster. "It takes self control not to avail oneself immediately and fully of unaccustomed freedom, but it makes a happier vacation," the bulletin says.

A gradual beginning in the matter of exercising little used muscles, the bulletin advises, is by far the most comfortable course.

OUR NEIGHBORS

Jackson—Two convicts escaped from the state prison here Thursday afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock.

Milan—The merchants and banks of this village have decided to close their places of business Wednesday afternoons during the months of July and August.

Brooklyn—The last gaps in the cement on U. S. 127 between Rome Center and Adrian were poured last week. It is said that quick drying cement was used and that travel will be permitted over this new section by next Tuesday. This furnishes a new and better route to Adrian by the way of Onsted. The route is also shorter than by Tipton and much Toledo traffic will benefit by this routing. Exponent.

Powdermill—Arthur Crawford, aged 15 years, met with a peculiar accident at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Crawford, about two miles west of Fowlerville Friday afternoon. He was running toward the barn and tripped over the tongue of a wagon, and fell, striking his head against a nail projecting out of the barn where a board had been removed driving the nail completely through his skull just back of the ear and paralyzing him so he could not talk. Mrs. Crawford was called and later he was taken to Lansing where the hole in the skull was enlarged and a piece of the bone that caused the pressure on the brain removed. He seems to be improving nicely. Review.

Tecumseh—Following the action of Tecumseh Commerce Club Monday night in voting for Wednesday night entertainments, Tecumseh Ladies' band appeared on the stand Wednesday night and opened the season with a splendid program of music which was appreciated by quite a large crowd of people. Herald.

Dundee—Mrs. Clara Cassidy, Main street, has a quarter acre of field corn over 30 inches in height. This we believe to be the record for this time of the year, as the old saying goes: "corn knee high by Fourth of July." Other vegetables in this garden show a splendid growth, also, although weather conditions have been very backward. Reports.

Dexter—More than 400 parents and friends of Scout campers attended visitors' day at Camp Newkirk, Dexter, Sunday afternoon of last week, when a program of swimming, boating, scout games and a ceremonial court of honor was carried out under the direction of camp officials. The court of honor held outdoors on the hillside proved of special interest to the visitors. Fifty-one scouts were awarded advancement in rank at this court, which was under the direction of A. L. McDonald local chairman of the court of honor. Leader.

Stockbridge—The daily vacation Bible school will open in this village on Monday morning, July 9.

Ann Arbor—Robert and Patricia McAuliffe, brother and sister of Ann Arbor township, have been announced as winners of the summer health contest in Washtenaw county, conducted by the 4-H club. The winter winners are Murray Fluh, of Superior township and Henry Armbruster of York township. These four will represent the county at the district health contest, to be staged at the Michigan State College July 9 to 13.

Howell—Joseph Kovacs, one of the men arrested in Detroit as suspected of being implicated in the recent bombing in that city, is an old Pinkney boy. His parents used to own "Bailey Castle." He was arrested for stealing an auto battery, in this county a few months ago, but was let go on a suspended sentence. Press.

Ann Arbor—The county road commissioners report that one of the bridges on trunk line 11, west of Saline has become weakened by the heavy truck traffic. The commissioners have had timber bents placed at the ends of the bridge to take some of the weight off the abutments.

Manchester—Sharon, skunks must be plentiful and bold, or the one observed Sunday feeding in the field south of the Gillett cemetery had an appetite that would not wait until the shades of night had fallen. He was close to the road, yet passing autos seemed not to frighten him until a horn was sounded, then he scurried farther from the road. Enterprise.

Pinkney—One of the prelates of the Autumn reunion recently was the arrival of the "Old Grange." At about 4:00 p. m. a strange vehicle was seen coming down Main street. It proved to be an ancient surrey of the 1890 vintage drawn by a couple of plodding farm horses. The carry-all was gayly decorated and its occupants were dressed in the raiment of bygone days. These on close scrutiny were found to be Mrs. M. J. Reason of this place and Herman Vedder of Detroit. Dispatch.

Howell—The board of commerce of this city have arranged to have printed a new rural route directory of the trading district of this city which will be ready for distribution the early part of July.

Brighton—Work on the new Presbyterian church is still progressing. A new and most attractive approach has been constructed and the work is moving along nicely and is fast nearing completion. The finishers are busy carrying out the plans of the architects completing what promises to be one of the most beautiful as well as one of the most usable churches to be found in this or any other section of the country. Argus.

Northville—According to Floyd Northrup, secretary of the Northville Wayne County Fair association, plans are rapidly being worked out for the first fair ever given under the direction of the local association. Always in previous years there has been a gate admission charged, but this year the association decided to make a trial of the free fair plan. Record.

South Lyon—While planting potatoes at the Joe McMahon farm Tuesday afternoon James McMahon of Northfield has the misfortune to have the ends of two fingers cut off of his right hand. The planter had clogged and he was attempting to fix it when the accident occurred. Herald.

WOMAN CONFESES TO THREE FIRES IN WEEK

Mrs. Emma Deverich, 23 years old, is held in Ann Arbor under $5,000 bail on a charge of arson as the result of the burning of three buildings last week on the farm near Dexter owned by Closser Brothers, Detroit. She is said to have confessed that she started the fires. She was taken into custody by Sheriff Ernest M. Wurster and Undersheriff Jacob Andrew Wednesday evening, shortly after the third fire.

She was arraigned by justice court Thursday morning, waived examination and was bound over to circuit court. In an affidavit which she made Thursday morning she stated that she started the fire which destroyed the family home Monday morning by placing a kerosene-soaked cloth in a clothes closet and lighting it. The barn burned, she says, as the result of her setting fire to a pile of hay on the ground floor Tuesday morning. The garage fire she started, she says, by throwing several rags on the floor near the cupboard, pouring kerosene on them and lighting them.

She says she has no ill feeling toward the owners of the property and is unable to explain her reason for setting the fires.

Mrs. Deverich and her husband, George Deverich, were taken into custody Wednesday night but the husband was released. They got employment at the Closser farm Saturday, the husband working the fields, having no knowledge of the fires until after they had been started, it is said.

The couple have been married three years and during that time have been employed on several farms. Mrs. Deverich was questioned closely in regard to a mysterious fire on a farm in Cambridge township, Lenawee county, in November, 1927, where she and her husband were employed. She denied setting that blaze, however.

MONEY ONLY A TOOL FOR WORK, SAYS HENRY FORD

Money, as it is considered in the accepted sense, holds little further interest for Henry Ford, the industrial genius revealed recently in an interview published in The American Magazine.

"You say I am already successful," said Ford. "I am not, except as an assembler of tools. The failure is that man, who with his tools at hand, locks them away and stops work. Money is but a tool. As soon as it becomes other than that in use it is a menace."

Ford does not consider that he has built a large private fortune, despite the fact that his money in the bank, after the new car was produced, totaled $250,000.00.

"He refuses even to regard himself as a rich man," says the magazine. "The simple fact that he doesn't think in terms of money any more than he thinks in terms of coal. His coal-pile and his money pile are in the same category; they are the raw materials of industry."

"It would be easy to quit," Ford said. "I could take a few thousand dollars and live comfortably for the rest of my life, in fact as well as I live now."

The motor magnate, the magazine says, doesn't spend $25,000 a year on himself and family. And there is no pomp and ceremony in his home.

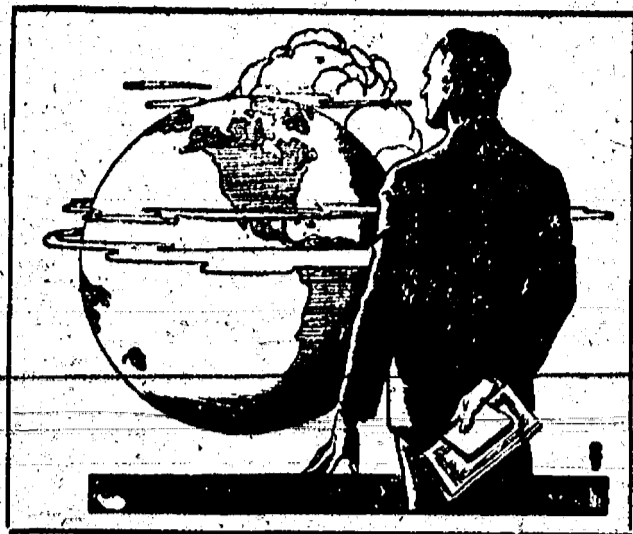

Williamston—Five new 4-H agricultural clubs have been organized in Ingham county this spring.
