CHELSEA KIWANIS ENJOYED REAL FEAST

M. J. Dunkel Contributed Moose For A Bountiful Dinner Monday Night
—Guests Present.

Some weeks ago when M. J. Dunkel was telling of his hunting plans at a meeting of the Chelsea Kiwanis Club he promised to supply enough moose meat for a real feast, and those who were present at the meeting of the club Monday night can testify to the fact that he always keeps his promise. Upwards of fifty men gathered about the attractively arranged tables in Kolb's mess hall at 6:15 and enjoyed one of the most bountiful dinners ever served in Chelsea. The meat was tender and sweet and the meal was splendidly served by Mr. Kolb and his assistants and the members and their guests were offered a second helping, so generous was the service. Before the guests were seated, Rev. F. I. Walker offered the invocation, "America" was sung by the large company of men and this was followed by a number of "peppy" songs under the direction of song leader P. F. Niehaus. Before the desert was served other songs were enjoyed and all joined heartily in this part of the evening's festivities, because if they did not they were promptly "fined." A double quartet of "trained voices" sang a popular number.

Mr. Dunkel was called upon to tell about his trip to the north country where the moose are the shy and proud habitants, and he related his experiences in a most interesting manner, telling in detail many of the minor happenings which made the trip of Mr. Dunkel and himself one of unusual interest and pleasure. The guides and packers who are employed by all hunters who go into the Canadian wilds are Frenchmen and half-breed Indians, and they are a most interesting, though a motley-minded lot. They appreciate a kindness and they soon become devoted friends if kindly treated. The cabin in which the Chelsea hunters were sheltered was about four and a half miles from the railroad and after Mr. Dunkel had killed his moose, the next thing was to plan some way to get the animal out of the woods to the station. The woods are very dense and the underbrush is thick and difficult to get through, with the result that it was necessary to employ men to cut a roadway into the woods so the moose might be loaded on a sled for hauling out to the "clearing." The "power" which hauled the sled into the woods and its precious load out was a "one horse," but a sturdy one, but he did not take kindly to the task to which he was put. The animal was borrowed for the occasion and it was necessary to bring him to camp over a railway track upon which there were several bridges, but the horse was able to travel over them with safety.

As he told about provisioning their camp he gave the list of articles of food purchased at a small grocery store located in Gaudreau and as he read off item after item—flour and sugar, eggs, and bacon, pepper and salt, coffee and tea, canned goods, ketchup and onions, bread and cookies, lard and butter, etc., etc., one surmised there must be something about the climate up in Canada that quickened one's memory as well as whetted their appetites, because the average business man cannot remember more than two articles the queen of their households requests them to bring home for dinner.

After he had related some of the hardships of such a hunting trip and recounted some of the items of expense necessary to enjoy an outing of that kind there were many about the table who declared they would be satisfied to remain nearer home and to continue to hunt rabbits and pheasants.

No one could have told the story of the journey better and Mr. Dunkel told a number of humorous incidents that kept his hearers in "fine spirits" as he related incident after incident in connection with the expedition. It had been planned that Mr. Vogel should tell part of the story but he was compelled to go to the New York market last week and was unable to be present. It was promised, however, that he should be given an opportunity at some future meeting of the club.

The club will meet next Tuesday night, instead of Monday on account of the annual Catholic fair and chicken dinner.

BURGLARS WHO VISITED

HERE SENT TO PRISON

Captured in Jackson And One Was Shot Trying To Make His Escape.

A Jackson dispatch to the Detroit News of Thursday stated that Eugene Harris and Arthur Hanson, 23-year-old bandits, were sentenced to serve eight years to life in the Michigan State Prison by Judge James A. Parkinson in Circuit Court Wednesday. The two were charged with breaking and entering in connection with the attempted robbery of a filling station here last August. Hanson was shot in the arm by a patrolman and was caught. Harris was captured later.

Harris' wife is in the County Jail here awaiting examination on a charge of aiding and abetting a jail break. She is accused of smuggling tools to her husband with which he cut window bars to gain his liberty several weeks ago with two companions. He later was recaptured in Indiana and returned here. Both Harris and Hanson had served previous sentences in Minnesota for grand larceny.

It will be remembered that these fellows visited Chelsea before going to Jackson and that it was because of certain finger prints they left here that they were identified by the Jackson police. They entered Morlock's Garage and the plant of the Ann Arbor Dairy Co. and made their get away only to be captured a few days later in Jackson for banditry.

CHELSEA DEFEATED BROOKLYN EASILY LAST FRIDAY

Last Friday the Purple and Gold giants outplayed the Brooklyn boys at Brooklyn.

On account of injuries to Jack Weber, our star fullback, some changes were made in the line-up. McLaughlin was shifted from left end to fullback and "Percy" Irwin stepped from tackle to end. Jerry Griffin filled "Percy's" position at tackle.

"Dud" Holmes took his brother's place at center and played a fine game.

Chester kicked off to Brooklyn and the ball was advanced to the 30-yard line. Here Brooklyn was stopped. They attempted to kick but fumbled and Steiner recovered.

In the second quarter "Arn" Fahrner made a spectacular run of 45 yards. This brought the score to 18 to 0.

McLaughlin made another touchdown in the last quarter and Fahrner passed to Steiner for the extra point.

This ended the scoring and the final score was Chelsea 25, Brooklyn 0.

This Friday the boys tackled the Jackson squad at the Holmes' Field. Everybody came. Let's equal the crowd we had at the Tecumseh game.

LYNDON RESIDENTS RETURN FROM WESTERN TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Goodwin of Lyndon recently returned from an extended visit with relatives in Washington and California. They went from their home to Wenatchee, Washington. One week after their arrival there they attended the funeral of Mrs. Chas. Cooper. They report that Frank Cooper harvested a bumper crop of apples from his orchard, consisting of 1600 boxes of delicious, 1940 boxes of winesap and several other varieties of apples. Both of the Messrs. Coopers were former residents in this vicinity.

TWO MEN MET DEATH SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Herbert and Paul Steinway Died As A Result Of An Accident Sunday
Afternoon.—Relatives Here.

Herbert Steinway, aged 24 years, of Port Huron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steinway, of Manchester, and Paul Steinway, aged 24 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Steinway of Freedom, died Sunday night in St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor, the result of a collision between the motorcycle on which they were riding and an automobile Sunday afternoon on the Plymouth road, about nine miles from Ann Arbor.

The motorcycle was being driven by Paul Steinway and Herbert was a passenger with him. It seems they went to pass an automobile traveling in the same direction they were going and in doing so met another car coming toward Ann Arbor. The on coming car and the motorcycle collided head-on with terrible consequences. The men were cousins and both sustained fractured skull and other injuries. A passing motorist rushed them to a hospital where they died a few hours afterwards.

The car with which the motorcycle collided was being driven by Sam Lazebnik of Jackson and had as its occupants his wife four children, Zed, 12; William, 11; Herbert, 9, and Jeanette, 7. Mrs. Lazebnik suffered a possible fractured jaw and a cut on the knee, while Jeanette received cuts.

Herbert Steinway is survived by his wife, one child, his parents, and three sisters. Paul Steinway is survived by his parents and four sisters.

Mrs. Floyd Walz of Dexter township is a sister of Paul. For a number of years Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steinway resided on the McEwen farm in Lima.

A double funeral was held at Emmanuel's church at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. Rev. C. H. Wittbracht of Saline officiating. Burial, Oakgrove cemetery.

FORMER CHASELSEA BOY HAS RESPONSIBLE POSITION

The Scientific American magazine for December contains a very interesting article on spectroscopic analysis written by Bart E. Schumacher, a former Chelsea boy. The article reveals how such a small quantity of material as one 3,000,000,000th of a milligram can be easily detected. In the column captioned "Among Our Contributions" the editor comments on the author as follows: Mr. Schumacher is a member of the technical staff of the famed Bell Telephone laboratories in New York where many scientists work on a multitude of problems in pure and applied science. His work there has pertained to new alloys for cable sheathing, alloys for vacuum tubes, thermionic activity, and many other very interesting problems.

FORMER SYLVAN RESIDENT DIES IN LODI

Mrs. Emily J. Skinner, aged 84, died at her home in Lodi township. She was born May 19, 1844, in Pennsylvania. For many years she was a resident of Sylvan township, moving to Lodi about two years ago. Mrs. Skinner is survived by two sons, John W. Craig, and A. B. Skinner, of Lodi, and three daughters, Mrs. W. A. Meacham of Norwalk, Ohio, Mrs. G. Barnes, of Dayton, Ohio, and Mrs. W. M. Rowan of Jackson. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. Fred I. Walker, were held at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon, from the Staffan funeral home with interment at Oak Grove cemetery.

LADIES' AUXILIARY ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The November meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of St Paul's church was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Mohrlock, with 58 in attendance. Officers for the ensuing year were chosen as follows: President, Mrs. Martha Schumacher; Vice president, Mrs. Elmer Mayer; Secretary, Mrs. Marie Shaver, and treasurer, Mrs. Otto Lucht. A short program followed the business session after which the meeting took the form of a birthday party, with those whose birthdays occur during the last half of the year as honor guests. A birthday cake with 23 candles featuring the dinner.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING SEASON APPROACHING

Advertisements are beginning to appear with decorations of holly and mistletoe and smiling faces of Santa Claus. To the observant, these advertisements tell their own story, give their own warning, hint at the important business from which none is barred and in which sooner or later everybody will be engaged.

In other words, Christmas shopping. The holiday is little more than a month ahead, fewer shopping days than fifty by a good deal. In no time these days will pass. The natural procrastinator will wait until Christmas Eve when store aisles will be jammed by other procrastinators, stocks picked out, clerks weary, customers in a flutter, clocks ticking time's rapid pace, all because the reminders of today have been neglected. Every year more sensible persons do their Christmas shopping early. They reap all the advantages in variety of selection and leisure of choice and when Christmas Eve comes they can proceed about their last-minute holiday task orderly, while the others fume and sputter.

The stores of Chelsea will have many things to offer soon.

TARIFF RESULTS OBVIOUS

"None of us who work day after day spend much time trying to learn about the tariff," says the Milford, Delaware, Chronicle. "The vast majority are not brought up to it, as it means digging into figures, which most of us dislike. We realize vaguely that there is a difference between a high tariff and a low tariff, even though we do not know everything relating to the tax on products shipped here from abroad and products shipped from here to other parts of the world."

"But this we know and are sure of: We get 10 times better wages than many working people abroad, and we live infinitely better than they even dream of living."

"We know this, too, about tariff: The pay roll for those of us who work for a living in this country is $600,000,000 a week. But for a protective tariff we would be down to the level of foreign labor and living conditions."

EVOLUTION OF THE HOME

Gas and electricity, the telephone, vacuum cleaners and other labor saving devices, have played most important roles in the evolution of the modern home.

Now, with the innovation of automatic oil and gas burning furnaces another great step forward is being made. The cellar that is grimy and dusty from wood and coal-fuel is being relegated to the past. New standards of efficiency, economy and comfort in home heating have been reached.

In modern industry the new and better has always replaced the old, and the same trend is now established in the equally important field of domestic life.

A GOOD TURN

Massachusetts has done the rest of the country a good turn if she has proved the breakdown of her compulsory automobile liability insurance law that the thing simply does not work. Obviously insurance companies are not going to continue in business where the outgo is more than the income. Obviously the element of safety has not been increased by such a law if collisions and fatalities have mounted in numbers since the passage of that law, as is claimed—New York Telegram.

KILL THE WORTHLESS DOGS

Is it not about time the farmers of this section were starting a united warfare on worthless dogs that visit their flocks? Why not set apart a day or a couple of days and have a real round-up of dogs for this whole section.

Kill every dog found away from its owner's premises and all those animals not properly "tagged."

Sheep killing dogs are costing the farmers in this section a lot of money.

GOVERNOR GREEN MADE THREE BOYS VERY HAPPY

The three boys from Fowlerville high school, Glenn Munsell, Theodore Ketchum and Harry Gibson, won the state judging test in the livestock department, also the cup at the M. S. C. which entitled them to a trip to the national show at Kansas City, Mo., November 19. The trip will include Prof. Charles Dynes and will cost something over $200. The boys did not have the money and were in something of a quandary and set about seeing what could be done, and finally went to Lansing a few days ago to inquire if the state had any fund that would help them out. Governor Green received them in his usual courteous manner and told them he would look into it for them and Monday they went there again and he told them there did not seem to be any fund that could be used for that purpose, but he thought they should go and wrote his personal check to cover the expenses and presented it to them and you can imagine just how the boys and all their friends appreciate the generosity of the Governor for his kindly gift. —Fowlerville Review.

Vermont a Republic for Fourteen Years

Vermont is to be congratulated upon the successful completion of her declaration of independence. It is almost forgotten that the Green Mountain state had its origin as an independent republic one hundred and fifty years ago. The difficulties of her citizens over the land grants issued by New Hampshire and New York led to the formation of a state which refused allegiance either to Great Britain or to the newly formed union of revolting colonies. Fortunately, these independent farmers asserted in their declaration a willingness to ally themselves with "our brethren in the United States of America to do our full proportion in maintaining and supporting the just war." For fourteen years, however, Vermont went her own way, compelling the Continental congress to extend a quasi-recognition of her independence. — New York Post.

Famous Colleges in Towns of Same Name

That the oldest and the newest women's college in America are in towns which originally had the same name is a coincidence brought to light recently in planning a calendar for Elmira, N. Y.

The original village, which was one hundred years old on April 21, was originally known as Newtown, but was changed to its present name in 1828 to avoid confusion with other Newtowns. Elmira college was opened there in 1829.

Peculiar Indian Tribe
Workmen connected with the Canadian National railways have discovered a peculiar breed of Indians in northern Manitoba. These Indians are short, broad and exceptionally strong. They have had to make long heavy portages all their lives, which has caused them to become this shape. They are located on the shores of lakes in northern Manitoba. Living in almost complete isolation at two separate villages on a strange lake dotted with 300 islands, they rarely go as far south as Lake Winnipeg, but do all their trading with the Hudson's Bay company at Norway House.

Sorting Mail in the Air

An airplane specially designed for the rapid transport of mails is being tested by the British air ministry. It will carry, besides the pilot and an engineer, a postal sorter, who will continue his work while flying at 100 miles an hour.

This latest type of mail airplane is fitted with parachutes, and instead of the usual tail light has a steampunk tail wheel, with powerful brakes to help pull the machine up quickly on altitude at small aerodromes. A central engine room contains two Napier engines, each of 500 horse power.

COURT DISPOSES OF A GOOD SUPPLY OF LIQUOR

A quantity of liquor, consisting of 127 pints of beer, 11 quarts of bonded whiskey, 3 3/4 gallons of moonshine, and a miscellaneous assortment of cider and wine, was confiscated Thursday when George W. Sample of circuit court granted the petition of Prosecutor Carl H. Stuhberg for eight liquor cases and signed orders that the stuff be turned over to the department of public safety.

The liquor, since the arrest of the several parties involved in the petition, has been in the custody of the sheriff. It now will be turned over to the state department for destruction.

In the case of Mike Schmidt, who was convicted of a liquor charge, 44 pints of beer, 2 gallons of moonshine and eight quarts of bonded liquor were seized. A half gallon of moonshine taken when Elmer King was arrested and later convicted also was confiscated.

The court ordered that five gallons of cherry wine, taken from Richard Hunavill, two pints of beer and a quart of moonshine, seized when June Casey was arrested, and 33 pints of beer, found when William Mahley was taken into custody, be turned over to the state officials. These three were discharged from custody following their examination on liquor charges.

A gallon of moonshine liquor and 24 pints of beer found at the home of Elsie Lucas, when she was arrested, three quarts of bonded liquor taken from Bruce Fisher, whose case was held pressed, and a half gallon of cider and two and a half quarts of wine, seized when Fred Steinway was apprehended, made up the remainder of the amount. — Daily News.

OH, LEASES BEING MADE IN GRASS LAKE

Indications are that eastern Jackson county will see much oil prospecting activity within the next few months. Leasing of land in the south half of Grass Lake township already being under way. The greater part of Napoleon township is also included in the quest.

W. H. Heydrick, representing Oklahoma oil interests, has been in this territory for some time obtaining leases, and contracts have already been signed on approximately 10,000 acres in Grass Lake township alone.

The abandoned test well near Napoleon has also been taken over and will be drilled deeper. This well was promoted by local capital and it is understood was abandoned at 1,800 feet. It is stated by men familiar with oil development that the well was not drilled to a sufficient depth.

State geologists, it is stated have declared that eastern Jackson county has all the earmarks of an oil field, the area including the highest altitude in the state.

Leases run for ten years, but the contract requires that drilling operations must be started within two years. Should oil be struck, one-eighth royalty will go to the owner of the land. In event oil is found in any particular block the company agrees to pay 50 cents per acre for all land within the block. The entire proposition is being financed by outside capital and no local subscription is asked. — Grass Lake News.

NEW CHEVROLET MODELS ON DISPLAY SATURDAY

Motoring America will be on its tip-toes Saturday as two of its large metropolitan centers are viewing for the first time the sensational new valve-in-head six cylinder Chevrolet, which was announced November 16. Interest was keyed to a high pitch in New York and Detroit as the financial and motor capitals of the country respectively, prepared to greet this most advanced offering of the world's largest automobile producer for 1928.

The two advance showings will open simultaneously at noon Saturday, November 24th. The New York preview taking place in a brilliant setting in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel and the Detroit debut in the Auditorium of the General Motors building. Both are to continue up to and including Thursday, November 29th.

Meanwhile the gigantic Chevrolet manufacturing organization is applying itself to a heavy production program so that cars may be shipped to dealers starting December 15, and deliveries to the public may begin promptly January first.

Chevrolet's dealers are in readiness to take care of a deluge of advance orders.

A parking space is where you leave the car to have those little dents made in the fenders. — Brooklyn Times.

Thanksgiving

The roar of the world is in my ears.

Thank God for the roar of the world!

Thank God for the mighty tide of seas.

Against me always lurked!

Thank God for the bitter and ceaseless strife.

Thank God for the stress and pain of life.

And oh, thank God for God!

SUBSCRIPTION ACCOUNTS

During the past two weeks we have sent statements to many of our subscribers and when a busy newspaper man takes time to send out such notices it is a sure sign he is in need of money. A good many have responded but there are still many more who have not. They have evidently laid the notice aside for a more convenient time. We trust all will pay promptly because the amount of real profit in a year's subscription is not very great if all accounts are paid without loss.

Just send a check or a money order for the amount of YOUR account.

LET'S JOIN THE NAVY

That the U. S. man-o-warship will not lag behind his competitors on the national feast day is shown by estimates gathered by the navy recruiting station at Detroit. An inspection of the navy's Thanksgiving menu reveals that many other things required by the fresh air appetite of the American bluejacket are: Twenty tons of turkey, 10 tons of ham, 18 tons of potatoes, 6 tons of tomatoes, 6 tons of green peas, 4 tons of lettuce, 4 tons of celery, 5 tons of pumpkin, 14 tons of spices, 14 tons of sugar, 2 tons of coffee, 400 barrels milk, 100 barrels of butter and 6,000 dozen eggs.

This list has a slight resemblance to the supplies Messrs. Dunkel and Vogel purchased for their camp in the Canadian wilds.

Odd Welcome for Visitor

Efficiency is the watchword at the hospital for seamen in London. Late yesterday there came a strange old man whose speech and actions could not be understood. They named his clothes, showed him a bath, and put him to bed with a sleeping draught. Next day it was found he had come to visit a friend.

THE FLONZALEY STRING
QUARTET FRIDAY NIGHT

The Flonzaley Quartet, founded in 1903 by Mr. E. J. de Coppel, will be heard for the last time in Hill Auditorium, Ann Arbor, on the evening of Friday, November 23. This organization is making its twenty-fifth and farewell tour as a string quartet. During the years of its existence it has attained a place in the front ranks of organizations of this nature. It has been heard in Ann Arbor on many occasions, always with distinct success. Early in its career, shortly after it had been organized, Ann Arbor recognized the merits of the group, and it was heard in the Choral Union series in one of its series of recitals. Since then it has been heard at periods of every year.

During the last century of its existence there has been but one change in personnel. Three years ago Nicholas Moldavan succeeded Ugo Aron as violinist. The other members of the quartet being Adolfo Botti, first violin, Alfred Pechon, second violin, Leon d'Archembeau, violoncello. For the last Ann Arbor concert the following program will be played: Beethoven, Quartet in B flat major, Op. 18, No. 6; Ernest Bloch: Pastorale; Schubert, Quartet in G major, Op. 161, this last number being of special significance since the present year marks the centenary anniversary of the death of the great composer, he having been born January 31, 1797 and died November 19, 1828, almost a hundred years to the day from this Ann Arbor concert.

How the Useful Plants

A. T. E. STEWARD

The Bean

IN THEIR differing varieties, beans and lentils are widely dispersed over the face of the earth, both the Old world and the New, and there are probably 20 species that are natives of tropical America. The bean which most people mean, however, when they use the word, the common white bean, is said by botanists to be as old as the earliest migrations of the Aryan race into Europe from its ancient home somewhere in southwestern Asia. For all we know, the bean is as old as any cultivated plant now known to man.

Homer's "Iliad" mentions the bean as a cultivated plant and the scientist, Vitruvius, found beans in a tomb at Troy. It was widely used in Rome. Even in very ancient Roman times people followed the rite of placing beans in the sacrifices to some of their deities.

Ancient inhabitants of Switzerland and Italy, in the age of bronze, cultivated a small variety of the common bean, some of which have been found in the kitchen-dumps of the very ancient Swiss lake dwellings. Beans were cultivated by the Egyptians of olden times.

Because beans are so abundant a crop in China, some have advanced the theory that beans actually originated there. One scientist has offered evidence that of the five plants which the Emperor Chiu-nong commanded 4,000 years ago to be sown each spring with solemn ceremony, was the bean.

It has been shown, however, that this was not the plant we mean when we say bean, but was the soy or soy bean. Soy beans are still one of the principal crops of north China and Manchuria and have been introduced profitably into Europe and America in very recent years.

Beans probably are nowhere found wild today. The best evidence goes to show that they originated in two spots, one south of the Caspian sea whence went the first Aryan immigrants into Asia Minor and Europe, and the other, in the northern part of Africa, lands such as Egypt, the hinterland of Carthage, and the rich coastal districts now held by the Moors and Berbers.

The native area of the bean as a natural plant probably has been growing less and less over a tremendously long period of time until today its extinction as a wild form is complete. So the bean joins the honored circle of things that have been, here "always," or at least as long as history and legend record, and even longer still than that. Though there may be but two places where it is a native son, it is at least an early and pioneer settler wherever mankind now lives, under civilization, and conditions favorable to its cultivation.

CIVILIZATION

A recent estimate states that over $9,000,000,000 has been spent for state, county, federal and local road construction in the last 10 years.

Highways were once luxuries; today they are absolute necessities. They bring prosperity and progress, growth and industrialism, the four great elements of our present civilization.

CORN BORER CAN

BE CONTROLLED

The report of the activities of the several states in their fight to control the European corn borer for the year 1928 has just been completed by the United States Department of Agriculture.

The data contained in this report gives for the first time information which is encouraging to the people of the State of Michigan. The figures show that the Michigan farmers have reduced the corn borer population 57.99 per cent from that of 1927. It also discloses the fact that where the farmers cooperated with the authorities and good work was done in handling the corn borer population was noticed while in counties where the farmers were not in sympathy with the rules and regulations, there was an increase.

Every county in the less than one per cent area in Michigan were compulsory clean-up was not attempted shows an increase of infestation while in the more heavily infested areas where enforced clean-up was the rule and where the farmers cooperated wholeheartedly, there was a big decrease and the decrease was so great as to reduce the general average of the state.

The results as a whole have some elements of encouragement to the Michigan farmer because they demonstrate that if he handles his corn crop in a manner prescribed by the Rules and Regulations, the corn borer population can be kept at a point where no commercial damage will be done to his corn fields. In other words, it has been thoroughly demonstrated in Michigan this year that the farmer can win over the corn borer if he so desires.

Everyone in the United States will have the opportunity of seeing the total eclipse of the moon coming Nov. 27—but the spectators will have to be up pretty early. For the moon will enter the earth's shadow at 2:24 a. m., eastern standard time. Total eclipse begins at 8:33 and lasts until 4:29 o'clock, when the moon begins to emerge. At 5:39 a. m. the eclipse will be over.

The moon will probably not disappear from view almost entirely within the shadow for nearly an hour. Considerable sunlight is refracted into the shadow through the ring of the earth's atmosphere around the base of the shadow. The moon at that time will be dim and noticeably red like the setting sun.

STATE LEGISLATORS TO BE PAID REGULARLY IN FUTURE

Michigan legislators will receive their pay at intervals of 15 days during the coming session instead of at irregular intervals, according to an announcement by Attorney General Wilbur M. Brucker.

The request that legislators be paid the same as state employees can be granted, Brucker said.

Under provisions of an amendment just passed, the legislators will receive $2,100 a term, instead of $800 a session, plus $5 a day for extra sessions.

Gas companies of Michigan cooperate with the department of conservation in halting pollution of streams throughout the state.

NATION'S BEST ENTERED

AT CHICAGO STOCK SHOW

From New York to California and from Manitoba to the Mexican border, the choicest of horses, cattle, sheep, and swine will be assembled for the opening of the 29th International Live Stock Exposition in Chicago on December 1.

Secretary-Manager B. H. Heide announces that the total number of entries, both of live stock and in the hay and grain department, are the largest ever received. Upon this he bases the opinion that the coming exposition, scheduled December 1 to 8, will surpass all that have gone before in the quantity of exhibits and in their quality as well—entries for the most prominent state fair winners on last fall's circuits having been received.

According to the secretary's figures, there are several hundred more entered in the individual live stock classes than at any time before. Shorthorns lead their last year's line-up by nearly 100 head, with a total of 642. "White Faces" will number 422; and Aberdeen-Angus breed will be represented by 346 choice individuals; Hampshires head the swine breeds for numbers, with 334, and the Chester-Whites are second with 212. A total of 1400 will take part in this division of the show.

PUSHING U. S.-12 AS A SUPER-HIGHWAY

Delegations representing the chambers of commerce of Kalamazoo and Battle Creek visited Chelsea Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of arousing interest in the proposed movement to make U. S.-12 a super-highway extending westward across the state. Kalamazoo was represented by Messrs. John H. Burke, Earl S. Weber, secretary of the chamber of commerce, L. C. Wright, president of the real estate board, and Howard P. Hall, representing the Kalamazoo Gazette, while the delegation from Battle Creek was composed of Messrs. R. Haberman, secretary of the chamber of commerce, Carl Montgomery and John I. Gibson. A number of Chelsea business men met the delegations at L. G. Palmer's office and listened to an explanation of the plan by which it is proposed to carry on the campaign in behalf of the proposed highway improvement. Committees will be selected in the various cities and towns along the highway and a little later a general meeting of all members of local committees will be held. Petitions will be circulated asking for the improvement and a general campaign of publicity will be inaugurated until the sponsors of the plan can be recognized and the project adopted by the state administration board. Doubtless, this will take some time, perhaps some years, but if nothing is attempted, nothing will be accomplished. The delegations were assured that the people of this section would do all they could to promote the enterprise.
