NEW FREIGHT OFFICE OF MICHIGAN CENTRAL LOCATED IN DEPOT

W. C. Smith to Maintain Charge As Freight Agent and Operator After Twenty Years of Railroad Service Here.

Chelsea shippers and consignees of freight who for the past sixty years have called at the Michigan Central freight office located at the east end of the freight warehouse, will, from now on, be cared for in a new modern freight office located in the west or men's waiting room in the passenger station one block east of the warehouse.

The change which was effected yesterday, will increase storage capacity in the freight house as well as providing better and quicker service to shippers by reason of increased office facilities that will be incorporated in the new arrangement.

Another contemplated change will be the consolidation of the freight agent and operator, both positions to be held by one man located at the passenger depot.

This position will be maintained by Mr. W. C. Smith, who for the past twenty years has been the operator for the Michigan Central at this station, with the exception of the past eight months, when he has been freight agent, the operator's office being occupied by Mr. Easterle who will be transferred elsewhere on the system.

A warehouse man will be on duty as heretofore at the freight house but bills for freight will be available only at the new offices in the passenger station.

The Chelsea Milling company was the first shipper to present a bill for shipment and W. L. Boone was the first one to receive a freight bill at the new offices. These first two transactions were made Wednesday shortly after the moving had been completed.

Chelsea is only one of the many stations on the M. C. lines that is undergoing this drastic change necessary to keep abreast of modern public demand.

MRS. ALICE VISEL PASSED AWAY SATURDAY EVENING

Mrs. Albert Visel, aged 44, of Sylvan township passed away at 5:30 Saturday afternoon, January 5, at St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor, after a brief illness.

Mrs. Visel, formerly Miss Alice Savage, was born in Sylvan township, November 28, 1884, the daughter of Edward and Catherine Savage.

For a number of years she was a successful school teacher in this vicinity and a portion of her school work was in the school in district No. 10, which is near the family home at the time of her death. She was one of the officers of the school district.

She was united in marriage to Albert Visel, January 15, 1920, and since their marriage they have resided on the farm in Sylvan. She is survived by the husband, a son, James Edward, her mother, Mrs. E. A. Roethlisberger, of Hillsdale, and a brother, Harry Savage, of Sylvan. ## VOTERS TO DECIDE FATE OF SUNDAY HUNTING IN COUNTY

Proposition As Demanded By Farmers Will Be Submitted To Vote At Election In April.

A proposition to prohibit hunting on Sunday in Washtenaw county will probably be submitted to the electors to be voted upon at the spring election in April.

The proposition as presented to the County Board of Supervisors on Monday, was given to a committee to draft the proper forms for the official ballot. This committee will make their report Friday and without a doubt it will be approved by the Board.

For a number of years past almost every community in this county has been the stamping grounds for hunters from the large cities and many of the farmers who have had their fences broken down and sometimes have had their stock injured by the hunters will give the proposed proposition their hearty support.

VERY INTERESTING FELLOWSHIP MEETING HELD TUESDAY NIGHT

Fine Musical Program, Good Fellowship, Instructive Talks and Lunch Make Up for Light Attendance.

One of the most severe cold snaps known in Michigan for the past two years, an epidemic of the now popular "flu" and an outstanding meet of two rival basketball teams at the school gymnasium Tuesday night were all contributing factors set against the attendance at the regular February Fellowship club meeting held in the basement of the Methodist church Tuesday evening.

Despite this organization of resistance more than forty were in attendance and enjoyed a two hour program including a buffet lunch planned and served by a master committee composed of Dr. Faye Palmer, John Cummings and Ed. Hammond.

No regular speaker was on hand, other appointments making it necessary for the Rev. Marshall Reed of Ypsilanti to cancel his scheduled visit here.

Guided by the club president, Supt. Clark, the program commenced immediately after the good things prepared by the refreshment committee were fairly tucked away, starting with an appreciated musical program by the M. E. Sunday school orchestra under the able leadership of Wesley Smith, followed by a solo song in a pleasing manner by George Atkinson. Short snappy talks with resolutions were made by S. P. Foster and O. C. Burkhardt.

The feature of the evening was an interesting and informative description of Michigan's rich iron and copper mines in the upper peninsula given by the Rev. F. I. Walker, pastor of the local M. E. church.

Beginning with how Michigan acquired this rich portion of her present domain, followed with vivid details of mine construction, stamping mills and treatment of ores would take columns of space to portray.

Rev. Walker illustrated his talk with various samples of iron, copper, tin and mica which he had gathered during four years of church work in Houghton and Marquette counties. Mining tools such as are used by workmen in the mines such as shovels, picks and drills were shown in miniature, ten of them made from virgin copper were shown encased in a glass jar four inches high sealed in mine water to prevent corrosion and keep the copper to its original color.

Plans are now being perfected for an unusual big meeting during the first half of February.

LOCAL SEWER PROJECT WILL BE COMPLETED BY AUGUST FIFTEENTH

Awarding of Contract By Council Monday Night Will Provide Eight Miles of Sewer to Care for Needs of Village.

Visualizing the Chelsea of the future and heeding the drastic demands of the state for more sanitary and healthful conditions, the council at its meeting Monday night authorized the construction of the whole sewer system to comprise approximately two miles of main and six miles of auxiliary sewer for the village of Chelsea and awarded a contract for its completion by August 15.

Nine bids were submitted to the council, ranging in cost from $87,500 to $119,000. The contract was awarded to VanPannel & Gekiere of Mt. Clemens at the lower figure mentioned above. Actual work on the project will commence as soon as weather conditions will warrant. Eight inch to 18 inch vitrified tile will be used in its construction.

Besides President Haselswerdt, all members of the council were present except Councilman Dancer and probably no action on the part of these gentlemen would or could mean as much to the progressive future growth of this village as the awarding of this contract calling for the immediate building of this very valuable and necessary public utility.

The awarding of the contract at this time also looks very much like a substantial saving to the tax payers in construction costs as in a few months the state's larger cities will commence huge sewerage disposal plants and in the rush for preferment of completion dates it would no doubt be hard to interest reliable contractors except at a much larger figure than is entered in the present contract.

FARMERS & MERCHANTS BANK SELECT OFFICERS FOR THE COMING YEAR

Increase Board of Directors to Ten Members in Place of Eight; Return Old Officers and Declare Dividends.

The stockholders of the Farmers and Merchants Bank held their annual meeting in their banking house on Tuesday of this week. There was a slight change in the board of directors which was increased to a membership of ten instead of eight as in the past. Since the demise of John Farrell there has been eight members on the board. O. D. Schneider and Dr. A. A. Palmer are the new members of the board.

At the session of the board of directors the following officers were elected for the year to follow: President, P. G. Schaible; vice president, Peter Merkel; cashier, Christian Grau; assistant cashier, H. W. Schenk, assistant cashier, P. F. Niehaus.

Secretary Jardine of the department of agriculture at Washington has endorsed the new McNary bill for agricultural relief that is pending in the senate and has urged its passage at the present session. The secretary insists there is no reason for delaying action until a special session next year, because there has been a general agreement on the fundamental ideas on which the bill rests and there is no evidence of an increasingly general agreement on the basic provisions. The formal approval by the secretary of agriculture has started a strong movement to have the bill passed at the present session. It will meet with some opposition by western members, who are inclined to await the coming of the Hoover administration. It may be necessary to have some statement from the president-elect before these men will join with others for immediate consideration. The McNary bill provides a revolving fund of $300,000,000 to be used in the better disposition of surplus crops, the funds to be lent for that purpose to organized agencies of the producers. It will be necessary for Congress to provide that sum, as the unincumbered balances in the treasury would not supply it. Methods for securing the funds may provoke disagreement.

The advantage of immediate consideration would be the operation of the law on the surplus crops that may be produced in 1935. If the law is held back for a special session it could not be put into operation until the crop of 1936 and any advantages it might have would be delayed for a year. There is a general agreement in both houses of Congress that some method of farm relief should be provided and, if there is agreement on the McNary bill and the wisdom of immediate consideration, there is no reason why it may not be passed before the session ends in March.

ONLY NINE LYNCHINGS

Only nine people were lynched by mobs in the United States during 1934, according to a report made by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People from its office in New York. That organization has been keeping a record of lynchings in this country for 40 years and the figures of 1934 are given as the lowest figures reported in the four decades. The importance of the low record is shown by comparison with 1893, when 175 people were killed in that manner. Many states have made their contribution to the national lynching record and the crimes have been distributed all over the nation. These outbreaks occur when some atrocious crime arouses human hatred and vengeance assumes the seat of justice should occupy. States in the South have contributed the greater number of lynchings but states in the North have had their share. Human hatred and human vengeance are not bounded by state lines or affected by climate or location.

In all states there has been strong opposition to lynching and sentiment has helped encourage officials to do more in protecting prisoners from mobs. Many lynching parties have been foiled or driven back. The public wish is that crimes shall bring quick punishment but that the determination of facts, the trial and sentence shall be handled in the courts in an orderly and lawful manner. That healthy sentiment is helping reduce the number of lynchings.

NEW YEAR'S RICH OFFERING

What does the new year mean to you, what is your appraisal of all it brings in opportunities, and how do you plan to use them that you may be better for the experience and the world no poorer?

On his recent birthday Thomas A. Edison said he would give all his accumulated fortune if he could be given the privilege of living for the next 20 years, close enough to understand the scientific development and material progress that would be made.

To him the world appears to be on the verge of the greatest developments affecting humanity in all its history. Scientists have bored their way deeply into the store of hidden things, they are near some of the wonderful revelations Nature appears to have in store for them, they are entering new fields, promising to open up treasures of which the scientist long has dreamed and speculated. Mr. Edison thinks it will be a great time to live. He would give all he has won from the world with his achievements, discoveries and inventions, just to have a chance to stay in the great scientific struggle and take some part in pushing back still farther the curtain. To his mind the most modest part in that campaign would be sufficient to thrill the soul of a man.

Science has begun to reach out, with more certainty, better understanding and greater courage, determined to wrest from Nature some of the facts hidden from man through all the ages. Invention has been making over the world in which we live, changing our views of life, but the great inventions, that will give basis for more wonderful achievements, the scientists feel remain to be made. Evidently Mr. Edison joins in that agreement.

The world is in the scientific age, the marvelous has become nearly commonplace to the unlettered, so simple are the truths that have been wrested from Nature that the commoner understands. Children are handling the radio, do that task of intelligence, yet the greatest of scientists cannot explain in full what it is and how the results are secured.

In that age it is our privilege to live, a time when life is made richer with each discovery, when our outlook changes and we view and consider the world as a whole. No longer are we isolated. All nations join to entertain and interest us. Through all these changes man remains the same, even if our understanding may be broadened as we gaze upon the new and study the changes in progress all about us. One obligation for all is to make certain adjustments to meet new conditions and correctly understand the larger privileges of life today and tomorrow over life in the past. And in this new age the world and all activities of man are hunting for those competent to lead on the march of progress. Each individual has that rich opportunity.

Home Gives First Impressions

The home is an educational institution. It is the place where children receive their first and most lasting impressions. The home gets them before the church or the school or the neighborhood life has an opportunity to influence them.

Saline—The smallpox scare seems to have spent its force. No new cases have been reported for two weeks and those who may have been victims are out of quarantine. Reports from outside sections greatly exaggerated the run of the disease here. The few who caught the disease had very mild cases and at no time was there one who was seriously ill.—Observer.

Clinton—Arrangements are being completed for the opening of classes in a night school at Clinton, according to an announcement by Superintendent A. R. Van Tassel. The classes will occupy only one evening of each week, and will open at 7:00 and close at 9:00 o'clock. Manual Training, Home Economics, Gym, English, Agriculture, Civics and Grade methods are the subjects offered on the tentative program now outlined. Entrance to the class is open to anyone.

Milan—After a big clearance sale that lasted throughout the month of December, the Benge Department Store early this week startled the entire community with the announcement that the big store on the corner would close on February first and that the entire stock would be sold out, including fixtures. It has been known for some time that the owners of the store were contemplating selling the store, but the announcement of the discontinuance of business came as a surprise.—Leader.

Tecumseh—George A. Rathbun, for nearly 20 years a practicing attorney in Tecumseh and a prominent member of the Lenawee County Bar Association, this week announced his candidacy for the office of circuit judge, succeeding Judge J. N. Sampson, of Adrian. Petitions placing Mr. Rathbun's name in nomination on the Republican ticket were being circulated Thursday by his friends, both in Tecumseh and in the county seat.—Herald.

Ann Arbor—Judge George W. Sample of circuit court has signed an order by which a car, recently confiscated when Ambrose K. Slosson, Detroit was arrested by police here on a liquor charge, will be restored to its owner. The order was signed following a hearing on a petition filed by Howard A. Kennedy, proprietor of the U-Drive It Co., Detroit.

Fowlerville—Ten cars and trucks were more or less smashed within three miles of Fowlerville Thursday morning, one man had his skull fractured and one boy had his arm broken. The pavement was very slippery but the speed was not diminished until the crash came.—Review.

Ann Arbor—A circuit court jury, hearing its first case since before Christmas and the first criminal matter of the present term, took just 22 minutes Wednesday to convict Lawrence Curtis, 27, Negro, 1825 North Main St., of a charge of unlawfully driving away an automobile. He was remanded for sentence. At the time of his trial in circuit court Curtis was serving a jail term for two traffic violations, running a red light and failing to stop at a through street, and is awaiting sentence on a third, drunk driving.

Mason—Circuit Court Judges Leonard W. Carr and Charles B. Collingwood will seek renomination and reelection to the judicial offices they now hold at the coming spring primaries and general election. Fritz Schoening landed 30 pickerel in two days. Spearing shacks are beginning to make their appearance on the lake but thus far most of the fish taken have been with hook and line.—News.

Esic, his wife and two daughters was on the way home when blinded by the lights of an oncoming car, the collision occurred. ## Farm Account School Will Be Held In Ann Arbor Next Tuesday

A farm account school for Washtenaw county will be held in the supervisors' room, court house, Ann Arbor, at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, January 15. H. A. Berg, farm management department, Michigan State College, will have charge of the meeting, and will outline the project which furnishes a simple method by which farmers may keep a financial record of their business with the least expense of time and effort.

The purpose of this record is to show results of the year's work on the farm as well as the relative efficiency of each part of the farm business, with a view to raising the level of efficiency and increasing the profits of the farm.

The project requires attendance at a one day farm account school, and after keeping a record of all expenses and sales throughout the year the farm management department of Michigan State College will assist in closing the books and analyzing the year's record. Inventory blanks, and farm account books for this project can be obtained at the agricultural agent's office, court house, Ann Arbor. County Agent Osler says that this project is designed for the business-like farmer who wants to make a systematic analysis of his business with a view of making it more profitable. He believes that those who enroll in the work under Mr. Berg will find it well worth their time and effort.

MICHIGAN BELL CO. PLANS $26,500,000 PROGRAM FOR 1929

EXPANSION IS IN LINE WITH POLICY OF ALWAYS PROVIDING ADEQUATE SERVICE

FORAKER TALKS OF PROSPERITY

Business Trend Considered Good, as Company Enlarges and Improves Local and Long Distance Plant Throughout State

Business conditions in Michigan are good, and Burch Foraker, president of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company, anticipates they will continue good. Mr. Foraker announces plans of the company to expend approximately $26,500,000 on telephone plant expansion throughout the state during 1929, while the tentative program for the next five years, 1929-1933 inclusive, calls for gross plant additions totaling more than $138,000,000.

BURCH FORAKER
President, Michigan Bell Telephone Company

Discussing business conditions, Mr. Foraker's statement says:

"Measured by the usual indicators, business activity in Michigan in 1928 has been at a very satisfactory level, being well above the average for 1927 and comparing favorably with 1926. Recovery from the recession of the latter part of 1927 began early in 1928 and this improvement has continued. Employment has evidenced an upward trend since the first of the year and this condition has been reflected in improved trade, construction and engineering projects have been in fact volume, the agricultural output in Michigan is fairly satisfactory. Automobile production for the year was substantially increased to the record output for the period of 1926. The steadily increasing production of a number of important companies will insure a good volume carrying into 1929.

"For the period 1929 through 1933, the average level of business confidence has been used in preparing our plans of plant expansion. It is the policy of this company to build in advance of need, in order always to be ready to give fully adequate service."

Big Plant Increase
In the $26,500,000 expansion program for 1929 are included items of $3,413,000 for land and buildings, $5,511,000 for central office equipment, $5,500,000 for telephones and associated equipment, $3,000,000 for exchange lines and $2,600,000 for long distance lines. Net gain of telephones is expected to be 45,000.

The $138,000,000 program for five years, 1929 and 1933, inclusive, contemplates expenditures of $10,187,000 for land and buildings, $37,094,000 for central office equipment, $35,303,000 for telephones and associated equipment, $40,290,000 for exchange lines, and $11,800,000 for long distance lines. Net telephone gains for the five years are expected to be 250,000.

To gain the 45,000 telephones estimated for 1929, past experience indicates it will be necessary to install 225,000, equal in number to nearly one-third of the 830,000 Michigan Bell owned telephones expected to be in service at the close of the year. The company had approximately 635,000 telephones in service at the end of 1928. To gain the 45,000 telephones the past year, it was necessary to install approximately 200,000. Moves, disconnections and other losses, therefore, totaled about 164,000 during 1928, and likely will reach 150,000 in 1929. Changes of address or telephone moves, during 1928 totaled 65,000, and will approach 75,000 in 1929.

Many New Offices Planned
The Michigan Bell Company's average investment in plant per telephone continues to increase. Replacement of low cost plant with higher cost equipment, and the installation of cables underground at many points are among the factors causing this upward trend. Another factor is the increasing average length of circuit required per telephone, because of the growing number of subscribers residing at greater distances from the central offices serving them. Copper wire used per telephone has increased from 28,000 feet in 1922 to 46,000 feet at present, and is expected to grow to 60,000 feet by 1933.

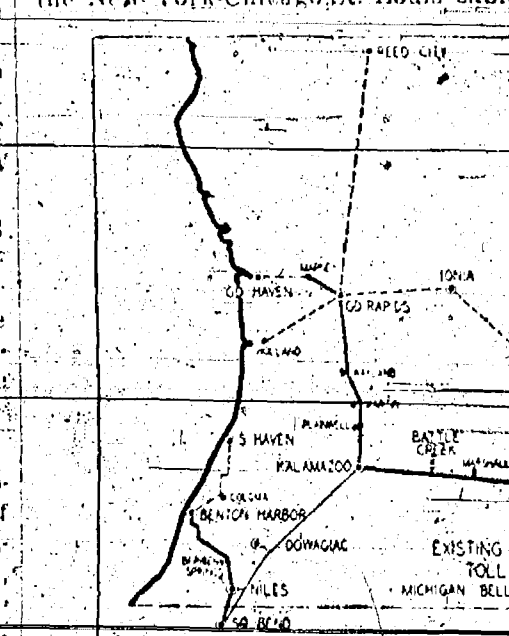

The five-year program contemplates that new central office equipment and new telephones will be installed at 28 points, nine exchanges to be converted to dial systems. Ten dial central office units are planned to replace manual offices at Detroit, together with 15 new dial offices to care for growth. Eighteen new buildings or major additions to existing buildings will be required to house the new units.

Outside plant work to provide additional facilities will be done at many points throughout the state, at a cost of several million dollars.

Enormous Long Distance Program

Under the plan the Michigan Bell plans completion of several long distance cable projects, designed to further speed and protect the service against possible interruptions. Notable advances in that direction were made during 1928. It is proposed to complete a second cable next year from Detroit to Ann Arbor, and a spur to Chelsea from the Ann Arbor-Jackson section of the trans-Michigan cable.

A cable now is being built between Kalamazoo and South Bend, Indiana, a distance of 61 miles, to connect with the New York-Chicago-St. Louis cable.

LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE CABLE INCREASES

Heavy lines show present storm-proof long distance cables in trans-Michigan system of Michigan Bell Telephone Company. Lighter lines indicate additions now building; broken lines show projected cable routes.

With which Michigan also has connection at Toledo. Improvements will be made on the Grand Rapids-Kalamazoo cable to provide additional facilities to Grand Rapids from Detroit and other points east and south.

It is planned to place in service, during 1929 and the four years following, several new installations of long distance cable, including extensions between Jackson and Lansing, 33 miles, to connect with the trans-Michigan cable and Chicago route; extension of the Niles-Benton Harbor cable to South Haven, 35 miles; Grand Rapids to Holland cable, 32 miles, which will complete the long distance cable span of the state, now reaching Grand Rapids from Saginaw, Bay City, Port Huron and Detroit; Marne to Grand Haven, 23 miles; a second Pontiac-Biller cable; Grand Rapids to Reed City, 82 miles; a third Detroit to Ann Arbor cable, 40 miles; Detroit to Jackson cable, 35 miles; a second Grand Rapids to Lansing, 65 miles; Flint to Owosso, 25 miles; Saginaw to Reese, 18 miles; and second and third Detroit to Toledo cables, 53 miles each.

The 1929 long distance wire program will be approximately 50 percent higher than was that for 1928, due to increasing use for both business and social purposes and to provide greater speed and otherwise improved service. Projects include additional circuits from Bay City to Petoskey, Grand Rapids to Mackinaw City and upper peninsula points, Grand Rapids to Grand Haven, Kalamazoo to Three Rivers, Jackson to Hillsdale, Adrian to Ann Arbor, St. Ignace to Marquette, Lansing to Owosso to Flint, Pontiac to Cheboygan to Onaway, Traverse City to Petoskey, Saginaw to Reed City to Manistee, Pontiac to Lapeer, Bad Axe to Detroit, Bad Axe to Saginaw, and others.

Home Convenience Promoted

The five-year long distance cable and wire program is expected to call for an expenditure in excess of $3,600,000, of which that for 1929 will be nearly $2,000,000.

At the beginning of 1928, there were 708,000 telephones in Michigan, including those of the Michigan Bell and all connecting companies, which is expected to increase to 989,000 by the end of 1933. In 1922 there were 13.1 telephones per 100 inhabitants, which had increased to 16.1, January 1, 1928. It is anticipated that there will be 20 telephones per 100 population, or one for every five persons, by January 1, 1934.

The company has developed plans for increasingly adequate and convenient residence telephone arrangement.

Equipment which it is estimated the Michigan Bell Company must purchase to meet its 1929 requirements for replacements and additions to plant in service, includes 49,900 bell boxes, 4,176 wall telephones, 47,700 desk stand telephones, 27,300 hand telephones, 1,300 coin telephones, 50,000 poles, 1,642,000 pounds of bare copper wire, 321,300 pounds of galvanized iron wire, 5,000,000 feet of strand wire, 79,000,000 feet of insulated wire, 2,734,000 feet of conduit and 60,000 cross-arms.

Simplicity of cooling system is a feature of the new Ford

A COMPLETE water plant is a part of every automobile as it is a part of every modern city.

The purpose of this water plant is to keep the engine cooled to a temperature that will make it efficient in operation. If it were not for this, the cylinder walls would become overheated and the pistons refuse to operate.

The cooling system of the new Ford is particularly interesting because it is so simple and reliable.

When the radiator is full of water, the engine of the new Ford will not overheat under the hardest driving. Yet the water is so regulated that it will not impair engine operation by running too cold in winter.

The cooling surface of the Ford radiator is large, with four rows of tubes set in staggered position so that each receives the full benefit of the incoming air. The fan is of the airplane propeller type and draws air through the radiator at the rapid rate of 850 cubic feet per minute at 1000 revolutions per minute of the motor.

The hot water around the cylinder head is drawn to the radiator to be cooled by a centrifugal water pump of new design.

The entire cooling system of the new Ford is so simple in design and so carefully made that it requires very little attention.

The radiator should be kept full, of course, and drained once each month so that sediment will not collect and retard the free passage of water. In cold weather, a reliable anti-freeze solution should be added.

As owner and manager of this important water plant you should also see that the water pump and fan shaft are properly lubricated and the packing around the pump shaft kept in adjustment.

Hose connections may also need replacement after long service. For those little adjustments, it pays to call on the Ford dealer. He works under close factory supervision and he has been specially trained and equipped to do a thorough, competent job at a fair price.

Reduction Announced In Telephone Rates

Another reduction of interstate long distance telephone rates by the American Telephone & Telegraph company was announced today by C. H. Adler, manager here for the Michigan Bell Telephone company. The reduction will become effective February 1 and will mean an annual saving of $5,000,000 to the telephone users in the Bell System, he stated.

This reduction, which is the third announced during the past two years and four months, will apply to interstate calls made between 4:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. and for distances between 130 and approximately 1,500 miles. Evening and night period rates will remain unchanged.

The new interstate rates will represent a reduction of from five to 25 cents each on day station-to-station calls, or calls in which the calling party does not express a desire to talk with some person in particular. Equivalent reductions will be made in the rates on person-to-person calls, or calls in which the calling party specifies that he wishes to talk with some certain person.

The speeding of long distance service has made it possible to handle long distance calls at lower cost, and the saving is being passed along to the telephone user, it is stated. Connections on more than 90 per cent of long distance calls of the country now are completed while the calling subscriber remains on the line, which is made possible by improvements in equipment and methods and the increase of facilities. During 1928, approximately 1,500 miles of long distance telephone cable was constructed by the Bell System, which set a new record for a single year.

Mr. C. H. Adler states that the reduction is in keeping with the Bell System policy, announced by President Walter S. Gifford of the American Telephone & Telegraph company, of furnishing the "best possible service at the lowest cost consistent with financial safety." The last previous reduction in rates on interstate long distance calls became effective December 1, 1927, and resulted in an annual saving to telephone users of approximately $1,500,000. A reduction effective October 1, 1926, represented an annual saving of $3,000,000.

STOMACH TROUBLE COMPLETELY ENDED BY NEW KONJOLA

Sufferer Who Could Not Eat Anything Without After-Pains Is Well And Strong Again.

MR. GEORGE NELSON

Sweeping out the stored-up poisons in the system, imparting new vigor and strength to the afflicted organs, Konjola is winning through results thousands of friends, men and women who rejoice in health restored.

The case of Mr. George Nelson, Easton Rapids, Mich., is typical of the countless ones in which all else had given no relief. Says Mr. Nelson:

"My friends, in amazement, ask what I have done to regain my health so quickly. They knew that I suffered from badly disordered stomach, and that I had tried every treatment and medicine within my means in the vain effort to regain my health. For several years, everything I ate caused intense pains, bloating, gas and heart palpitation. I lost sleep and strength. My bowels were so badly affected that even the strongest laxatives were powerless. I heard many fine things about the new Konjola, and started the treatment. It was exactly what I needed. Today I can eat anything, my bowels function naturally, I am gaining in weight and strength, and show this remarkable recovery in my face and step. I certainly wish I could tell the world about this marvelous medicine."

Konjola is sold in Chelsea, Mich. at Burg's drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this section.

Farmers Will Plant More Acres Alfalfa

Dairy-alfalfa campaigns recently concluded in Michigan counties brought out the information that farmers plan to increase the acreage of alfalfa and sweet clover still further in Michigan.

In Clare county, answers to questionnaires by farmers indicated the farmers' intention to increase their plantings of these two crops by five acres to the farm and Kalkaska county growers stated that the increased acreage of the two legumes would be three acres per farm in that county.

The threefold benefits of sweet clover and alfalfa soil improvement, excellent hay, and the production of first class seed have popularized these crops in Michigan, which has become one of the leading alfalfa producers among the states east of the Mississippi river.

The use of hard alfalfa seed is now an accepted practice in Michigan, and only a few of the farmers who attended the dairy-alfalfa meetings will use common alfalfa seed.

The Bureau of Plant Industry, Washington, D. C., reports that more than 200,000 pounds of unadapted alfalfa seed from Argentine and Turkey have already been imported into this country. Ten per cent of this seed is stained red or orange-red before it is permitted entry to the United States, so that the presence of this color in any seed offered for sale serves as a warning to the prospective purchaser.

ay Facts

"Saw" the county who the State Highway Commission has made study of the years 1927 and 1928 with data from the State Highway Commission presents this very interesting information.

License plates purchased by owners of vehicles in Washtenaw County paid to the Motor Vehicle Division for the two years total $648,028 and $848,900 of this total was returned to the Board of County Road Commissioners for use in maintaining county highways.

The work of paving new highways in the county during the two years cost $444,028 while the maintenance of the state highways in the county cost $104,024. A new source for the expenditure of motor vehicle fees during 1928 is the money paid by the State to incorporated cities and villages in the county under the law passed by the last legislature at the insistence of the Michigan League of Municipalities. The following amounts are being paid this year in Washtenaw County:

Ann Arbor $8,799, Ypsilanti $5,096, Chelsea $1,051 and Manchester $2,841 or a total of $17,787.

When all these various items are combined we find that a total of $915,471 are being spent in this county in the two years which is $267,443 more than was paid by the County to the State Highway Department in weight tax. This is exclusive of the gasoline tax.

From the above it is readily seen that we are getting our share of the money the State is spending in the various counties. In some of them the total being invested in state highways is an even larger percent of the total collected while in many of them it is quite the opposite. Certain plans are being made for further improvements in Washtenaw and the County Road Commission knowing these plans is working with the State officials, however, from time to time individuals, or groups demand that the Commissioners go with them to Lansing and ask the Administrative Board for some improvements, which although worthy should wait until more urgent work has been completed. All of the Commissioners are vitally interested in improvements for this county and are doing everything possible and reasonable to obtain further improvements. They are entitled to great credit for efforts. They believe the present State consideration given to Washtenaw county.

CHELSEA VARSITY HAVE BUSY WEEK

The Chelsea varsity swamped the Belleville aggregation last Friday night at Belleville, 45-7. Chelsea's defense has improved a great deal in the last week and we hope the next game will show as much improvement as the last.

The offense worked smoothly and speedily and although Belleville worked hard she could not keep the Purple and Gold boys from scoring. The score at the half was 20-5 with Chelsea on the long end.

In the second half Chelsea went on a scoring spree. They sunk basket after basket and held Belleville down to one.

Fahner was high point man. He made 17 points. Steger was next with 16.

The starting line-up was:

| Dancer  | Ives       |
| Stegner | Blind      |
| Fahner  | Ellward    |
| Staffan | Barber     |

In the second quarter H. and D. Holmes were substituted for Steger and Dancer. Chelsea is fortunate this year in having these two pair of forwards to rely on. A. Fahner was taken out on fouls in the last quarter and H. Holmes took his place.

Potts and R. Fahner were substituted for Dancer and Staffan in the third quarter.

The final score was 43-7, Chelsea.

In a hard fought battle the Reserves conquered the Belleville second string quintet. The basket shooting of the Reserves was poor and consequently the score was low.

Our Reserves could not get on in the first half. The passing was poor and the team work was slow. The score at the half was 6-4, Chelsea.

In the second half, however, the boys got warmed up and Belleville's defense could not hold them. Belleville did not make one field goal in the second half but scored twice from the foul line. Winans was high point man with 5 points. B. Foster (Capt.) and K. Beach followed with 4 each, and Vern Foster counted for 2. The final score was 15-6.

The local boys playing a speedy brand of basket ball, out-played, out-passed and out-pointed the Manchester aggregation for a 39-8 victory Tuesday evening.

The Purple and Gold warriors could not get warmed up in the first quarter and only made eight points to Manchester's four. In the second quarter however they began to play ball and the score at the half was 17-4. Manchester did not score in the second period.

In the second-half the C. H. S. boys

Dear folks: I have just been looking over a newspaper, one of the most painful and solemn studies in the world, if it be read thoughtfully.

So much of sin and so much of suffering in the world are there displayed, and no one seems able to remedy it either. And then the thought of my own private life, so full of comforts, is very startling when I contrast it with the lot of millions whose portion is so full of distress or trouble. May I be kept humble and zealous, and may God give me Grace to labor in my generation for the good of my brethren, and for His glory.

Faithfully yours,
A. E. Potts, Pastor.

A Two Billion Dollar DOCTOR'S BILL

This is the estimated "bill" the people of this country will have paid for medical services for the year 1928. Millions of prescriptions were compounded. The compounding of prescriptions is like the cooking of food. There is a wide difference in results, depending upon the quality of the ingredients and the ability of the cook—or the pharmacist. You can rest assured that there is no higher quality than is used in our prescription drugs. As to our ability, your doctor can vouch for that. Science and Love
I am always seeing things introduced in the papers with the statement: "Science says—." Science has just declared that people fall in love because of their eyes. Ignorant man though I am, I frequently find myself in disagreement with what is said to be science. People do not fall in love because of their eyes.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

Health Hint
Don't neglect persistent or recurrent pains. Find out what causes them. A pain is nature's way of telling you there is trouble that needs attention. You wouldn't neglect your car if it knocked. Why not do as well by your self?

Pumpkin Put to Many Uses in New England
Long ago, when vegetables were scarce, even in summer, and not to be had at all in winter, the pumpkin was put to extraordinarily diversified uses. With it New England housewives made pumpkin bread, now a lost art. Pumpkin was also used in the making of beer, custard, molasses, vinegar and pies.

"Small" wonder the early New Englanders, as it is related in Peter's General History of Connecticut, considered the pumpkin "one of the greatest blessings and held very sacred in New England."

Since earliest Colonial days the pumpkin has been the homely symbol in America of that season of mellow fruitfulness that separates summer from winter. Although its name is of French origin the pumpkin has become an institution typically American.

The etymology of the word can be traced from the French "pompon" in use before the colonization of America, through the stages of "pompion" and "pumpion" to "pumpkin." And except in print and among precise speakers one today will encounter the colloquial "pumpkin" rather than the literary "pumpkin."

Fine Artificial Flowers
The Japanese artificial flower makers, than whom there are no more skillful manipulators, have of late years been sending to this country extraordinary imitations of such flowers as occidentals most affect. The particular species that the Japanese are now sending are the American beauty, the bridesmaid and La France. As exquisite white species called the Kim press is also imitated by them.

Lighting Aviation Fields
Illuminating engineers are working with the problem of lighting the aviation fields and chemists are endeavoring to find something in the way of a new glass which will help to solve the problem. Flood lighting as now generally made use of is not satisfactory as it distorts the view from the air and often blinds the aviators when coming to the ground.

For Protection
Little Evelyn, age three, much interested in her mother's sewing, used to help her mother put on her needle. When her mother stopped her work for a moment, Evelyn looked up and said: "What's the matter, mother, did you stick or hurt yourself with the needle? You better put your funnel on."
