FINANCES OF CHELSEA CEMENT PLANT TO BE CHECKED BY AUDITORS

Annual Report Expected to Show Small Profit; No Indication of Abandonment by State.

According to United Press reports from Lansing, which were released this week, an investigation of financial affairs at the cement plant at Four Mile Lake has been ordered by Gov. Fred W. Green. Contrary to current rumors, it is expected that operation of the plant will be continued as Gov. Green has signed an order for a year's supply of limestone. The press dispatch is printed herewith:

State auditors, on orders from Gov. Fred W. Green, are conducting an investigation of financial affairs of the Chelsea cement plant, subject of numerous political affairs. Their findings will be presented to the legislature by the governor in a special message.

The annual report of M. H. McGaffigan, superintendent of the Chelsea plant, is expected to show a small profit during 1928. The report will show, McGaffigan has said, that through the purchase of cement for highway purposes the state has effected a saving.

Indication that the governor has little thought of recommending abandonment of the plant, is seen in an order of 150,000 tons of limestone, a year's supply for the plant, which he has signed.

Industrial Radio Show, Elks' Temple, Jackson

Unusual preparations are being made for the great industrial radio show which will open January 31st for three days in the Auditorium of the New Elks' Temple, Jackson, Mich. On the opening day about 450 Spartan Radio dealers will be in attendance to see Spartan receiving sets, Phonograph Combinations, Cardon Radio Tubes, Neon Gas Electric Signs, and Spartan Auto horns assembled upon the floor of the show. This will be a daily feature of the exhibition all three days.

A notable program of entertainment has been provided, which is headed in prominence by Jean Goldkette's Orchestra, nationally known because of their programs on the air. Just as important but in a different field of entertainment are the Seven Morgan Tiller Dancers, of Chicago. These headliners are supported by Musical Frankie, Chicago's boy wizard with the accordion; Wolverine quartette; Kathryn Porter's Senorita Serenaders; and "Doc" Moyer's Orchestra with Gerald Strong.

The exhibition will be open afternoons and evenings for three days, and admission will be free. The affair is being sponsored by the Sparks-Washington Co., Kayo Corporation, the Cardon Corporation and the Phonograph Corporation, which are now employing close to 4,000 persons.

There will be numerous souvenirs, as well as auto horns and radios, given away during the show. Decorators are now at work dressing the Elks Auditorium, which will be made beautiful with artificial flowers, flood lights and other curious effects. It is estimated that the three day exhibition will cost a good many thousand dollars. However, nothing will be sold on the floor of the show, and everything will be free to the public.

Legion Men Facing Hard Game Monday

The American Legion, Post No. 31, should receive a citation for valor. They have met the enemy and they are there—so far. Each Monday night volleyball is being received with great enthusiasm among local players and the Legion has just received a challenge from an invincible team, at least they claim to be, namely Kiwanis. It is understood that they have made arrangements for secret practice each night until the tournament. Capt. Niehaus declines to issue a line-up until the day of the game.

For the benefit of the public and not to ruin Kiwanis morale, the Legion publishes the past scores of its several games: 1st game—Legion vs. Odd Fellows—Legion best four out of five. 2nd game—Legion vs. Primidigs Fat Men, Legion best four out of five. 3rd game—Legion vs. K. of P., Legion best four out of five. 4th game—Legion vs. Primidigs Fat Men, Legion best four out of five games. 5th game—Legion vs. Kiwanis—? This is tentative and subject to change.

If there are any teams wishing to schedule games with the Legion, call 100W.

LOCAL MAN FIGURES IN BOLD HOLD-UP

Richard Beissel and Employer Victims of Bandit Who Enters Ann Arbor Store in Quest of "Job."

Richard Beissel, who is employed in Fischer pharmacy, Ann Arbor, was thrifled with a novel experience Monday when he and the proprietor of the store in which he is working were victims of a bold hold-up. A lone bandit entered the store, asked Richard for the proprietor. When Mr. Fischer appeared the man asked for a job. Upon being informed that there was no vacancy, he produced a revolver and informed the two that he had news for them.

He forced the two men into the back room to open the safe and remove the money box. He told the drug store owner to place all the currency in his trouser pocket, ordered Richard to get the money from the cash register and then forced Mr. Fischer to remove his trousers. During this time, however, two customers came in and Richard was told to act natural and wait on them. After ordering the two men to remain in the cellar for 20 minutes, the robber left.

Between $150 and $200 in currency was secured by the bandit. Police were called shortly afterward and although they scoured the city and informed officers and state police in other cities of the holdup, no trace of the robber was found.

At one o'clock a delicious three-course dinner was served, the decorations being appropriately carried out in yellow and white daffodils, nut cups, and yellow candles in crystal holders, a large wedding cake centering the table.

Remarks—by Adney Hall, of Stockbridge.

Toast to the Bride and Groom—Mrs. Homer Parks.

History of the Life of Mr. and Mrs. Parks, by Mrs. Helen Waldron, Jackson.

Reading, "Rear Seat Driving"—Joan Parks.

A TWO-SECRETARY, PRESIDENT

Mr. Hoover feels that, as president, he will need two $10,000 private secretaries. President Coolidge has recommended the financial provision for them and no doubt Congress will grant the request. Heretofore our presidents have got along with one private secretary each and such assistants as seemed to be required. But Mr. Hoover as secretary of commerce had two private secretaries and kept them busy as niggers. As president, no doubt, he will keep the two busy.
The work will not be divided but doubled.

It is said, probably with a substantial grain of truth, that Mr. Hoover can keep three or four stenographers at work at once, dictating to them by turns. He is a great worker and a fast one. We imagine the White House offices will be organized on the plan of an extremely efficient big business office, with all details looked after in the most thorough and hustling manner. Our president-elect is considerable of a go-getter, differing from many of our go-getters in that he not only goes but gets. He will be a new type of president and if he keeps his ideals on straight in all this rush of efficiency, ought to accomplish a great deal for this country.

IMPEACHMENT COMPLEX

Apparently many people in Oklahoma are suffering from an impeachment complex, the victim of which is the man who chances to be in the governor's chair. The state had a violent seizure of that ailment a few years ago and ousted the man then in the statehouse. It has had another seizure, quite as violent as the former, and the present governor, Henry S.
Johnston, has been impeached by a vote of the legislature, succeeded from his office and is to be tried by the senate. The state had a seizure two years ago but something happened and it did not reach the stage of violence.

It is a pretty severe reflection on the judgment of the voters of the state when the legislature, on two occasions in a half dozen years, finds it necessary to indulge in an impeachment fight. Incidentally it is tremendously poor advertising for the state.
If the folks in Oklahoma are unable to get along peaceably with one another there would be lacking any powerful incentive to move into the state and become a citizen of the wonderful commonwealth.

It is a fine publicity for a state when a governor, on completing his term in office is able to quit the state-house with evidence of love, confidence and good will on all hands. It tells a story of the good judgment of the voters in choosing that man for governor, and it pictures in a convincing manner the quality of the man who served the people and held their good will through the years. Only strong and unusual men are able to reap that harvest of delight on quitting the office. Politics has its bitter experiences, its heartbreaking tests; there are good men who serve the public to the best of their ability and fail to close their careers with the note of success sounded by hand clasp.

The quarrelsome and petulant state is just as unpopular and unwelcome as the quarrelsome and petulant individual. Oklahoma appears to be in need of a strong political tonic that will cure the jaundice from which the leaders there appear to be suffering.
No other state would care to emulate its impeachment example.

TARIFF AND FARM RELIEF

Members of Congress who favor a revision of the tariff are helping prevent the passage of farm relief legislation at the present session. It is their wish to have a special session called for a date in the spring when both farm relief and the tariff might be given the right of way with plenty of time for consideration. Those who favor farm relief legislation now have been unable to reach agreement on provisions and that fact, with the interference of the tariff revision forces, probably will prevent farm relief legislation before Congress adjourns in March.

There could have been farm relief legislation at the present session, because all necessary information on conditions had been collected and studied by the members. Had they sought agreement on a rational plan, leaving out of consideration the extreme provisions of enthusiasts, there could have been a bill drawn and passed. But Congress is a ponderous organization, functions slowly, loves to talk, argue and consider, and that requires time. A certain pride in leadership and authority helped prevent agreement. Some men wanted glory for themselves as well as relief for agriculture.

Tariff revision will require time and any action taken needs to be considered with care before passage. Tariff law changes will interrupt business unless the changes are made with great care. There is a belief in the minds of many that the time has arrived for a careful tariff revision and farm leaders have been claiming they wanted tariff protection extended still more to the business and products of the farm. The effort may be made to work out a program for concerted action of the farm and tariff groups.

Just now indications point clearly to a special session with the two questions in the forefront.

Predicts Decrease In Potato Acreage

Unless farmers have changed their natures recently they will plant a much reduced acreage of potatoes next spring, according to a prediction made by Dr. C. C. Stine, Bureau of Economics, Washington, D. C.
Statistical studies made by the Bureau of potato prices and the number of acres planted during previous years indicate that two years of unattractive prices reduce the next year's planting materially.
The same figures show that a price of $1.60 per bushel for potatoes the next planting 10 per cent and a price of $1.80 increases the acres planted by 30 per cent.

Dr. Stine says that, although the weather plays an important part in determining the size of the potato crop, the greatest factor in producing a surplus is the increased plantings which follow periods of high prices.
The 1924 crop of 425,000,000 bushels of potatoes grown in the U. S. brought $270,000,000 less than the 323,000,000 bushels which were produced the next year. In addition to the money lost on the difference in sales price, the large crop cost a great deal more to grow than the smaller one.

The branch of the United States Department of Agriculture which Dr.
Stine represents furnishes crop and market reports, advanced reports on intentions to plant, and a great deal of other valuable economic information for farmers, who can obtain it by writing to the Department.

OUR NEIGHBORS

Grass Lake.—There were seven deaths in Grass Lake village in 1928, the youngest person to die being 54 years and the oldest 82. In the township outside the village there were six deaths, the youngest being 54 years and the oldest 75 years. There were 10 births in the village during the year and 18 in the township outside the village. —News.

Manchester.—In excavation work for the new bridge on M-11, workers have uncovered many things which have evidently been thrown into the river at various times. Pistols and revolvers of ancient make, skates, wheels, parts of machinery, a watch and chain and many other things which may have been thrown away by the owner, or thus disposed of by someone guilty of larceny. —Enterprise.

Pinekey.—The Pinekey Troop of Boy Scouts, which has been in process of organization for the past several months will be given its charter by the Michigan Scout Council in an impressive ceremony to be put on at the Pinekey Community Hall, Tuesday evening, January 29. Exhibitions of scout work will be put on by the boy scout troops of Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti. Everybody is invited to attend. No admission will be charged. —Dispatch.

Howell.—The Board of Supervisors of Livingston county bought a steel filing cabinet and a bullet proof vest for the sheriff at its recent meeting.

Dexter.—Leo J. Heatley has rented his farm of 120 acres in Dexter township to Raymond Lyon of Sylvan township. Mr. and Mrs. Heatley and family have moved to 734 Miller Ave., Ann Arbor. —Herald.

CROSWELL.—We notice the Croswell village council has given a reprieve of 30 days to those in the village who are on the tax duplicate. Dave Hubbell scraped some money together the other day and with the aid of a small overdraft paid his, so he says in the Jeff. He noticed later in reading the proof of the council proceedings that the reprieve gave him 30 days of grace. January 10th had been stretched to February 10th. Dave is gloomy but the pecky taxes are paid. Dave. —Jeffersonian.

Dundee.—The Exchange club of this place is making arrangements to hold a homecoming celebration the coming summer.

Stockbridge.—At the special election held in this village the proposition to bond the school district for $100,000 for a new school house, was voted down by 103 yes, 123 no.

Salmon.—Misery loves company. Last Friday afternoon the icy road through the village caused the heavy milk truck coming from South Lyon to slip into the ditch in front of the Victor Lewis home. The Ward Bakery truck came along and followed suit, back of the milk truck and then a Dodge sedan came along and slid into the ditch back of the bakery truck. Fortunately no one was hurt. The last two cars were soon released but it was after much hard work that the creamery truck was pulled out near midnight.

Brooklyn.—A few foxes are still caught in this locality each season though their number is diminishing. Two of these wary animals were trapped during the past week, one by Duane Foster and another by Charlie Horton a few miles southwest of Brooklyn. —Exponent.

Plymouth.—Arrangements are now going forward whereby Plymouth will have another industry. We are unable at this time to give any of the details, other than to say that Fred G. Hodges of Reading, Pa., has made the initial arrangements for the purchase of a factory site for the erection of a textile plant in Plymouth. —Mail.

Munith.—Ozao Wetherby, the last Civil war veteran of Henrietta township, died at his home in Munith, January 16, aged 88 years. He is survived by one son, Louis Wetherby, of Munith. His wife, formerly Eunice Mills, preceded him into the life beyond last September. Mr. Wetherby was born in Grass Lake township, Jackson county, in 1840, and most of his life had been spent in this community.

Saline.—Spaulding's corner, near Ann Arbor, is one of the dangerous places all motorists have to put up with. On Monday of last week, Henry Feldkamp of Freedom township was hit and slightly injured while nearing that corner. The place is at the top of a little hill, and cars approaching from either west or north cannot be seen until within a few feet of each other. If traveling at only ordinary speed they have difficulty in avoiding a crash. —Observer.

A STATEMENT of General Motors' Policy

by ALFRED P. SLOAN, Jr., President

There is an attitude in General Motors which is characterized by the phrase: "Facts and the Open Mind." It accepts nothing as final. It welcomes every new idea, and—by incessant research and test—produces continuous progress.

This attitude extends throughout our organization. In every division there is continuous improvement. And these improvements are not held back from the public. When they are proved they are passed on promptly.

The New Chevrolet is a superb example. During the first nine months of 1928 more than 1,000,000 Chevrolets were sold—a record for all time. Never were models more popular. Never was there a business which could have gone forward more safely without any material change.

Yet we have made a most sweeping change, passing the million mark in Chevrolet Motor Oil, we were able to realize the dream of a year—der car, with Fisher Body style, with a stone—the of the four.

ICH.

There was no question of waiting models to exhaust their appeal. The public had made its choice by the volume of its patronage. It titled to the improvements promptly.

This is the spirit which lies behind Chevrolet. It is more than a 6-cylinder car, new creation. It is the triumph of a keen realization that the most valuable business in continuous good-will.

BURGLARS ENTER SEITZ PLACE

The Geo. M. Seitz place of business on West Middle street was broken into some time last night. Entrance was gained by removing a pane of glass in the south window in alley on the east side of the building. So far as could be discovered, nothing was taken unless it was several packages of cigarettes. This is the second time in the last few weeks that the place has been broken into.

ments have like-wise failed. President Coolidge in his Armistice Day speech made at an American Legion meeting, which was significant, pointed out the necessity for fifteen new cruisers for our navy. He spoke of the Panama Canal which we have agreed in an international treaty to protect. His exposure of the failure of the arms reduction conference was the American people's answer. It was the only answer the other nations will ever understand. A stronger United States navy, will be the only card that the other nations will recognize at any future conference for the reduction of armaments.

"The Kellogg treaty is a magnificent gesture for the outlawing of war, it approaches the subject from the positive side, and will tend to put the minds of all peoples of the world thinking peace, and looking upon war as outlawry. Yet it must not confuse the minds of our own people to the extent that it will null them into a sense of false security. There is nothing in the treaty that guarantees peace. There is nothing in it that prevents the United States from defense in case of attack. Senator Borah, chairman of the Senate Relations Committee of the Senate, recently was asked what would occur if an American ship were searched by Great Britain, as has occurred in the past. He was quoted as saying that the United States under the treaty, would settle such procedure by pacific conference; but if international were seized, or property seized, it would be an act of war and the treaty would not apply."

The closest and most interesting game of the season was played last Tuesday evening when the Chelsea girls met Belleville. At the beginning of the game the Chelsea girls didn't seem to be able to get started. Even at the half the score was 14-6, Belleville in the lead. But in the last half the Chelsea girls began to play. They piled up their score in the last few minutes of play. At the end of the game the score was 21-20, Chelsea victorious. It was the most exciting game the girls have played this season.

Tuesday evening on the local court the C. H. S. varsity lost to Belleville in a hotly contested battle. Belleville got hot in the first minutes of play and rolled up 10 points before the Chelsea boys had scored a basket. In the second quarter, however, the local boys held them to one point and they themselves scored nine. The score at the half was 11 to 9, Chelsea.

In the second half the Purple and Gold came out fighting and soon had tied the score. From then on to the final whistle the lead alternated between the two teams. First Belleville one point ahead, then Chelsea. With Chelsea one point ahead just before the time was up, Belleville sunk a lucky basket and the one point lead proved to be enough to win. The final score was 24-25, Belleville.

The reserves won their part of Tuesday evening's program easily. Belleville's only point was scored from the foul line. The Chelsea team was superior in every respect. They outplayed the Belleville boys and won fairly. At the half C. H. S. was leading by 13 points. The score was 14 to 1.

In the second half Belleville did not make a point and Chelsea scored 10. The subs: Wallace, Mayer, Schneider, and Adams were sent in and they too held Belleville scoreless.

Question And Answer Dept.

NOTICE—If your question does not appear below, it is because it is awaiting its turn and will be answered eventually.

Ques. Will you please answer in your question column when Turkey abolished the monarchical form of government?

Ans. Abdul-Hamid II, the last of the ruling Sultans of Turkey, was deposed in 1909. The country is now a Republic.

Ques. When speaking of 18-karat, 14-karat, 10-karat, etc., what do these figures mean? Does it mean that a ring that is stamped 18-karat weighs 18 karats? What is a karat?

Ans. When used in estimating the proportionate fineness of gold, a karat is a twenty-fourth part. Hence an 18-karat gold ring contains 18 parts of pure gold and six parts of alloy, which makes the whole 24 parts. As a weight a karat is in actual weight, 205 milligrams (about 3 1-6 grains Troy weight). In 1913 Great Britain, France, Germany, Holland and United States adopted 200 milligrams as the standard "international metric karat," the abbreviation being C<sub>200</sub>.

Ques. Following the death of her husband, is the widow Mrs. John Brown or Mrs. Jane Brown? When a widow acknowledges the flowers and other kindnesses by card, should she sign her name "Mrs. John Smith" or "Mrs. Sarah Smith?"

Ans. Neither form is improper, but the preferred form is Mrs. Jane Brown. As either form is correct, it is a matter of personal choice. However, the preferred form is "Mrs.
Sarah Smith."

Ques. What can I buy my wife for a birthday present as a big surprise?

Ans. Buy her a washing machine if she thinks you are going to get her a car. No doubt that will be a "big surprise."

Ques. I wish to ask in your very interesting question department who are twelve of the most notable persons in the world today.

Ans. Personal opinion of greatness may influence ones choice, therefore we would find it extremely difficult to name twelve men who we think would qualify. However, there seems to be no question about the first four as follows: Thomas Edison, the greatest inventor ever known; Mussolini, the most powerful ruler of all Europe; Albert Einstein, the founder of the Einstein theory of relativity as applied to astronomical phenomena; John J.
Haskins, the greatest financier the world has ever known, who organized the General Motors Corporation, which has a revenue that runs into billions of dollars.

Ques. Can you tell me if any of the children of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, the poet, are still living, if he had any children? If so, where do they live?

Ans. Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's children—two of them—are still living. They live near each other on Brattle street, Cambridge, Mass. where he made his home when he died in 1892. They are: Miss Alice M. Longfellow and Mrs. Annie Thorpe. The former was spoken of by her father as "grave Alice" in the "Children's Hour."

Ques. I heard a minister say last Sunday that a man who gives in and admits he is wrong when he knows he is wrong, is surely a wise man, he is right. Isn't he a pigmy? Isn't he a chump?

Ans. Nothing of the sort. In all probability he is married.

Ques. I have heard the word "Yankee" used in different ways; discussed pro and con, but nobody ever seemed to "get anywhere." Now we are coming to you to settle really what is a Yankee?

Ans. The word "Yankee" is used in three different ways. First, it denotes a person born or residing in the United States; second, it is applied to New Englanders; again, it was used to distinguish the people of the southern states in the United States from the people of the northern states of the same country. In a general sense, a Yankee is now a citizen of the United States.

Ques. In playing the game of auction bridge and the cards are being cut by the dealers right hand opponent—that is, after the cut has been made—should he place the bottom cut on top of the top cut before the dealer picks them up?

Ans. The dealer, after shuffling the cards, places the pack before his right-hand opponent to be cut. This opponent lifts off the top portion (not less than five cards) and places it beside the bottom portion, preferably next to the dealer. The dealer then proceeds to deal. This is auction bridge law according to Hoyle, up-to-date.

Ques. My grandmother wishes to know on what day of the week she was born. She says she thinks she was born on Saturday but is not sure.
I told her you could tell if your good paper. The date was June 5, 1864.

Ans. June 5, 1864 was on Sunday, not Saturday as your grandmother thinks.

Methodist Home

The passing of Mrs. Ellen R. Galbraith on the 23d brings to a close a life of unusual activity along many lines for the help and benefit of scores of people. Thousands of dollars as well as personal influence during her years of mental and physical ability have thus been liberally contributed. Eighteen years spent in the Home have exemplified in a large way these worthy attributes. Many rough places were made smooth by her ready sympathy, help and financial assistance. Mrs. Galbraith was born in Lapeer county, May 22, 1841. She married William Bentley in 1857 with whom she passed twenty-six happy years. In 1887 she married Mr. Galbraith who passed away in 1891. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. S. E. Baughner and a niece living in Mendon, Michigan and a nephew, David C. Halsey of Lapeer, Mich. Memorial services were held here Thursday afternoon and the burial took place in Burlington cemetery, near North Branch on Saturday.

Nurse Rumford, who has been with us for nearly a year, has resigned to accept a position in Detroit, her home city. It is with keen regret that the resignation has been accepted as her work has been faithfully and skillfully performed and she has endeavored herself to all with whom she has come in contact. Our best wishes accompany her to her new destination.

The very unusual number of people who have been ill, in some cases seriously so, for the past six or eight weeks has taxed the time and strength of our faithful nurses, and those who were able to assist in their care. We are glad to be able to report quite a general improvement in conditions.

KONJOLA TRIUMPHS AS SUFFERER HAD LOST EVERY HOPE

Once Thought She Would Never Be Well Again—Finds Health Through New Medicine.

MRS. A. E. SCUGLE

"One of the amazing things Konjola does is to bring quick and complete relief to those who have despaired of seeing another well day. Thousands praise this remarkable remedy for ailments of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, and for rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness."

Here is the statement of Mrs. A. E. Scougle, 509 North Magnolia avenue, Lansing, Michigan, she says:

"Thanks to this wonder medicine, Konjola, I am well again, free from the stomach trouble and kidney ailments that brought on a terrible case of neuritis. Misery followed eating, and I bloated with gas. My kidneys kept me awake at night; black spots whirled before my eyes; my strength failed and ambition flagged. Then came neuritis, with its torturing pains. Nothing relieved me; I simply grew worse. Believing that I would never be well again, I decided to make one more trial—the Konjola treatment. In a few weeks every pain had fled; stomach and kidneys worked perfectly, and I am feeling better than I have for years. To me Konjola was a blessing beyond words."

Konjola is sold in Chelsea, Mich. at Burg's drug store and by all the best druggists in every town throughout this entire section.
