The best tires
Kelly ever built -- at the lowest prices

Ten years ago, a tire that gave six or seven thousand miles of service was considered a very good tire. Because Kelly's tires consistently gave more than that; they used to sell at higher prices than other makes.

Today the buyer of almost any make of tire expects to get ten thousand miles as a minimum, and if he uses Kelly's it is not uncommon for him to get two or three times that.

Yet today he pays less than half as much for a Kelly as he had to pay ten years ago, and no more than he would pay for any of the so-called "standard makes."

Watch Your Step!

Realizing that Chelsea pedestrians, and especially the children, are in grave danger with the existing mania for speeding and reckless driving on Chelsea streets, Marshal Wm. Atkinson announces that steps will be taken to put a stop to the voluntary lawlessness which is so prevalent here.

"Chelsea streets have become nothing more or less than a veritable race track for scores of local motorists and Mr. Atkinson states that if this condition is not remedied at once there is bound to be some serious accidents, in which some innocent child may be the victim.

Strict observance of the State law will be required by local enforcement officials, which permits a speed of 15 miles per hour in the business district and 20 miles per hour in residential districts.

According to Mr. Atkinson, it is local motorists who do most of the speeding here, strangers showing more respect for the law than our own citizens. Favoritism will not enter into the local situation, the desired result being to stop all speeding and recklessness and violators will be prosecuted.

"Watch your step," for State police have been asked to assist in the clean-up and will spend considerable time patrolling the streets of Chelsea. Motorists and truck drivers who are in the habit of ignoring the "keep to the right" sign on the flag pole are also warned to observe this law, as are those who fail to come to a complete stop before turning right against a red signal.

Do your part—help to make Chelsea safe!

Popular Local Couple Married Wednesday

Miss Elsie Koenigter and Max Ziegler, both of Chelsea, spoke their nuptial vows Wednesday afternoon at a pretty wedding at Zion church, Rogers Corners. Rev. M. W. Bruckner, pastor of the church, read the service, while the members of the party took their places to the strains of the Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin," played by Mrs. Alton Grau.

A gown of white georgette was selected by Miss Koenigter for her wedding dress. Her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms and her flowers were bridal roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Reuben Lesser, sister of the bride, as matron of honor, wore a gown of pink georgette and carried pink roses. Arthur Koenigter, brother of the bride, performed the duties of best man. Arlene Koenigter, niece of the bride was flower girl.

After the ceremony, a wedding supper was served to fifty-five guests at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Koenigter, Pierce street, Chelsea. Garden flowers in pink and white adorned the rooms and the tables.

Mr. and Mrs. Ziegler left today for New York, where they will spend a few days with relatives. Tuesday, June 11, they will sail from New York on the S. S. Columbus for Wurtemberg, Germany, for a three months' visit with Mr. Ziegler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Ziegler.

Many delightful pre-nuptial parties were given for Miss Koenigter the past week. Tuesday evening, May 28, operators at the local telephone exchange entertained, presenting the bride-to-be with a lovely gift. A social evening was spent and refreshments were served.

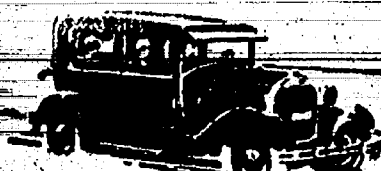

Mrs. Reuben Lesser, Mrs. Clarence Koenigter and Mrs. Arthur Koenigter were hostesses Wednesday evening at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Lesser. About 100 guests were present from Lansing, Ann Arbor, Dexter and Chelsea. Progressive pedro furnished the pastime for the evening, high honors being awarded Mrs. George Wacker and Herbert Hinderer. Dorothy Schanz and Walter Bachelbach received consolation prizes. Lunch was served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harper entertained Tuesday evening at a dinner for Miss Koenigter and Mr. Ziegler.

EVIDENCE OF SUCCESS

No one who really thinks will deny the fact that gains are being made in prohibition enforcement and progress. Philadelphia was at one time the seat of large illicit liquor operations. Philadelphia had a clean-up and people who know say that drink is obtained only after great difficulty in the Quaker City. Some of the bootleggers have gone across into New Jersey. But Philadelphia is well rid of them.

The time was when men said that the hotel business could not be made a success without a bar. Hotels have been better properties since prohibition than before. Hotels do not wish liquor, that is, the good ones do not want it on the premises. Last week two of Chicago's leading hostesses announced that they would serve, sell or deliver no more ginger ale and waters used for mixing drinks to guests. They will not even send cracked ice to rooms. These hotels took the stand that they wish no liquor and no troubles. The only way to avoid both was to go the limit.

Less than 12 years ago saloons flourished in a great many communities in Michigan. They did a good business, not generally a profitable one to the saloon keepers but good for the brewers and distillers.

We hear talk about liquor. Once in a long while we see a little evidence of it.

But if anyone should ask us where he could get a drink, we would not know where to send him. If it were a case of real necessity, snake bite, we might be able to tell him to see someone who might know someone who might know. But if anyone came to this general source of community information and asked for a definite drink of hard liquor, we simply could not tell him where to go. We just haven't anything that we can hold forth to a thirsty tourist. We do not say that there are no opportunities to get a drink, but they are not obvious and open enough so that a stranger may be directed to them.

It is easy to tell of the failure of prohibition, yet easier to tell of its success.

CARLOADS OF MONEY COMING

The United States government is planning to replace all of the paper money now in circulation with new and smaller currency, and to this end, the government printing presses are running day and night. The government will print about $2,600,000,000 in the new paper currency, equal to $26 for every man, woman and child in the United States.

The plan is to put the new money into circulation all over the nation at the same time and it is expected that two carloads of the new currency will arrive in Chicago during the first week in July, to replace the paper money now held in the banks of that city. A total of $30,000,000 will be required for this purpose.

Large sums will be shipped to the Federal Reserve bank in Chicago and this bank, in turn, will distribute the money to the banks throughout the central-western states, accepting their old currency in exchange.

The new bills will be two-thirds the size of the present bills, and the treasury department believes they will be much more convenient to fold into pocketbooks. Small as they are, the government will have to send out fifty carloads, or a long, solid freight train loaded with money, to supply the country.

About one billion separate bills will be printed at the outset and their design will be much more uniform than the bills now in circulation. For instance:

All $1 bills will have a picture of Washington.

All $2 bills a picture of Jefferson.

All $5 bills a picture of Lincoln.

All $10 bills a picture of Hamilton.

All $20 bills a picture of Jackson.

All $50 bills a picture of Grant.

All $100 bills a picture of Franklin.

All $500 bills a picture of McKinley.

All $1,000 bills a picture of Cleveland.

All $5,000 bills a picture of Madison.

All $10,000 bills a picture of Chase.

Most people have never seen a picture of Chase, and never will see one. The treasury believes that there will be no possibility of raising bills when there is a different photo on each, and a photo which, in all of the smaller denominations, will quickly come to be recognized as a distinctive feature of the bill.

BETTER CITIZENSHIP

It is an unusual man who does not pride himself on being a good citizen.

If you were to accuse him of being a menace to society he would resent the charge most bitterly.

We would not say that the man who neglects to have the mechanical equipment of his car in perfect condition while traveling on the highways is not a good citizen, but it is apt to give the impression he is a careless citizen.

Compliance with the request of the Michigan Safety Council in connection with the present accident-prevention campaign is a mark of good citizenship.

It stamps you as a citizen of the better sort, anxious to do your part in procuring safety upon the highways.

Have your car tested today.

Question And Answer Dept.

NOTICE—If your question does not appear below, it is because it is awaiting its turn, and will be published eventually.

Ques.—Will you please answer in your good question column what a common-law marriage is exactly? Can the children of a common-law marriage claim rights to their share of property from their parents? And do they have the same status in court that a legitimate child has?

Ans.—A common-law marriage is a marriage by mutual consent alone, without any ceremony of any kind, either ecclesiastical or civil. The evidence of such marriage may be writings, declarations, or merely the conduct of the parties. Such marriages are said to be consensual—that is, existing by virtue of consent or acquiescence. Where children or property are involved, common-law marriages of a year or more in duration, without either license or ceremony, are now validated by the courts in practically every province in Canada and state in the United States. If proper proof is submitted, it is erroneous to suppose, however, that the law recognizes a common-law wife or husband as distinguished from a legal wife or husband. The terms are used merely to distinguish what is known as a "simple contract" marriage from a ceremonial marriage. For instance, if a man and woman live together in some province or state for one day under an agreement to be man and wife, they are legally married. If they live together for many years without such an agreement, they are "lover and mistress" in the eyes of the law, and as such are subject to the penalties provided. But in such cases the real difficulty is to prove that the necessary agreement did not exist before they can be repudiated as "man and wife."

Ques.—If you are so smart, will you please tell me which is the easiest riding car?

Ans.—The easiest riding car is the one that is paid for.

Ques.—How many Indians are there in Canada and the United States?

Ans.—There are approximately 450-

000 Indians, including Eskimos, in North America.

Ques.—Will you please answer what "i. e." means?

Ans.—The letters "i. e." are the abbreviation of the Latin words "id est," which literally mean "that is."

Ques.—I have been told that the life of a mosquito is only about 24 hours. Can you tell through your query and answer column if this is true?

Ans.—There are several hundred known species of mosquitoes, and the duration of life varies considerably. The old belief that the natural life of a mosquito is only 24 hours is without foundation. In no species of mosquito do the young pass through the larva and pupa states in less than ten days. Adult mosquitoes live for several months, and in some species many of the females hibernate through the winter.

Ques.—I would like to ask you, when does a cow manufacture her milk? Isn't it a fact the milk is manufactured just a few minutes before the cow gives it down at milking?

Ans.—No. According to the Department of Agriculture, in a test case, more than 85 per cent of a cow's milk is stored in her udder long before milking time.

Ques.—If it is permissible in your question department, I want to ask you whether Mark Twain was a Christian or an infidel. Your courtesy will settle an argument.

Ans.—Mark Twain, whose real name was Samuel Clemens, was not affiliated with any church or religious organization. He was neither Christian in its accepted sense, nor was he an infidel. He was what is known as a Deist, a man that believes in a supreme power only.

Ques.—May I ask in your interesting question department what is meant by the "immaculate conception" of the Virgin Mary?

Ans.—The doctrine of the immaculate conception holds that the Virgin Mary, by a singular privilege and grace granted by God, was preserved exempt and immaculate from all stain of original sin. All other descendants of Adam, with the exception of Jesus, came into the world with original sin on their souls. Mary, according to the doctrine, was immune from original sin at the time her soul was created in her body. The doctrine does not refer to Mary's physical conception of her parents, who had the usual part in forming her body. The immaculate conception of the Virgin was a subject of controversy from the 12th century. It was proclaimed as an accepted dogma of the Catholic church in 1854. Many people confuse the doctrine of immaculate conception with that of Virgin Birth. It does not in any way concern the birth of Jesus, but the conception of Mary by her mother, whose traditional name was Ann.

Persian Fruits

Persia is credited with having given many fruits to the world at large, including the peach and orange, but the real origin of these may have been eastern Asia or India. The greatest fruit crop of Persia is the grape, which grows in abundance. They are gathered during the latter part of August and just at that time there is a peculiar rain which very conveniently washes the fruit or otherwise it would go unwashed.

Information Exchanged

At a military dance one officer said to another as they adjourned for refreshments:

"I don't know how it is, but my wife's lips look always tastes different from any other woman's," and he carefully wiped his lips.

"Yes, doesn't it?" remarked the other, absent-mindedly.—London Tit-Bits.

MOTOR OILS You can trust

Polarine

Iso-Vis

It's a hard life for the modern motor! Traffic is congested. Engines are built with higher compressions. Cars are driven faster. Motors run hotter. Correct lubrication is more important than ever before. Only the richest and sturdiest motor oil will stand up under the strain!

Polarine will do it! Polarine is rich—sturdy—steadfast! It covers every frictional surface of the engine with a protecting cushion of oil.

By draining the crankcase every 500 miles and refilling with fresh Polarine, you insure satisfactory lubrication of your car—at minimum cost.

Iso-Vis is an oil of unusual quality. It lubricates the engine faithfully—to stand up under the strain of today's driving. Like Polarine, Iso-Vis is rich and sturdy and steadfast.

No need to drain the crankcase so frequently if you use Iso-Vis. This new type, constant viscosity motor oil gives a new type of lubrication service. It will not thin out! It wears and wears and wears!

For smooth motor miles—and a long life to your engine—use Polarine or Iso-Vis. They are dependable products of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana). They are the motor oils you can trust.

Twenty-four Years Ago

Thursday, June 8, 1905.
Born, Saturday, June 8, 1905, to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Turnbull, of this place, a daughter.
S. A. Mapes has become the sole owner of the undertaking business of S. A. Mapes and Co.

Warren C. Boyd has accepted a position as salesman on the road with the Maple-Flake people of Battle Creek.
Ray M. Woods and wife have moved their household goods from Detroit to Lansing, where Mr. Woods has a lucrative position.
According to the school census last completed by W. J. Knapp for district No. 3, Sylvan fractional with Lima, there are 482 children who are entitled to draw public school money. Last year the number was 474.

Mrs. Wm. Denman, of this village, has a pen and ink map of the Eastern and Western Hemispheres drawn by her father, E. P. Downer, at Manchester, New York, in 1833. Shortly after the work was completed, Mr. Downer moved to Lima and settled on the farm now owned by G. Hutzler, and he drew the first map of that township. Both maps are in a good state of preservation.

Will Advise Death Measure For Weeds

Some of the worst rogues in the plant world will be identified and condemned, and methods will be recommended for their execution on the special weed train which will be sent through southern and southwestern Michigan by the Michigan Central Railroad and Michigan State College, July 22 to 27.

On such confirmed plant criminals as Canadian thistles, quackgrass, and perennial sow thistles, the death measure to be advised will be the use of calcium chloride. This chemical has proved effective in killing these weeds in experiments conducted by members of the crops department at Michigan State College.

The professor of botany at the College, Ernst A. Bessey, will be on the train and will identify any weeds brought by anyone along the route. The use of seeds from other States has, in some cases, introduced weeds which are not native to Michigan and which are not known by the farmers of this State.

Farmers who visit the train will be given a sufficient amount of the calcium chloride so they can try the chemical on weeds on their own farms. Calcium chloride is not dangerous to handle and is a comparatively economical means of destroying weeds.

The counties through which the train will pass are Monroe, Lenawee, Hillsdale, Branch, St. Joseph, Cass, Berrien, Van Buren, Kalamazoo, and Allegan.

Leaders Speed Up New Farm Methods

Farmers and townspeople who volunteer their services to act as local leaders for extension projects in agriculture are credited with being one of the leading influences for agricultural progress in Michigan by R. J. Baldwin, director of extension work at Michigan State College.

The local leader method for distributing information about the latest developments in soil improvement, home management, poultry raising, or any other of the hundreds of farm activities is the most effective means of extension work which has ever been used, in the opinion of the extension director.

Each local leader, with the assistance of the county agricultural agent organizes a group of neighbors who are interested in some particular problem of farm life. The leader then attends meetings at which a specialist from the College explains the work, and, later, the local leader relays this information to members of his group.

At the present time, there are thousands of Michigan people who are devoting a great deal of time and effort to make the local leader work a success. Some of the leaders are working with 100 club members, just with groups of farm women, and the rest have charge of groups of men.

In nearly every case, the success or failure of the project depends upon the local leader, and Mr. Baldwin points out that there are few failures in this class of extension work in Michigan.

Truck Will Carry Latest Equipment

An electrical "hired man" is going to travel on a special display truck through 27 Michigan counties this summer and show its ability to pump water, grind feed, run a milking machine, cook, wash, and do other household and farm tasks under the direction of members of the staff of Michigan State College.

A complete farm wiring system will be mounted on the truck and power lines will be tapped at each stop so that machines will be run under conditions the same as would be found on farms where electrical power is available. A feed grinder, milking machine, and poultry house equipment will be carried on the truck.

The use of electricity in the farm home will be discussed by a specialist from the home economics extension staff, and household equipment will be shown. An agricultural engineering specialist will give pointers on power used for farm machinery.

Counties which will be reached by the truck in June are Ingham, Eaton, Jackson, Washtenaw, Wayne, Monroe, Lenawee, Clinton, Shiawassee, and Genesee. In July, the truck visits

Oakland, Barry, Calhoun, Branch, Macomb, and St. Clair counties.

The list for August is Saginaw, Tuscola, Bay, Isabella, Gratiot, Allegan, and Kalamazoo. Four counties, Kent, Ottawa, Muskegon, and Mecosta complete the route for the truck in September.

A party of young people enjoyed a lumber wagon ride to Cavanaugh Lake one evening last week. When out of town about a mile on, the girls were heard to ask, "Don't lumber wagons have springs?"

WAS ON CRUTCHES KONJOLA ENDED HIS RHEUMATISM

Remarkable Case Of New Medicine's Power Reported By Detroit Man.

MR. HARRY A. PRISKEY

Konjola, the new and different medicine, seems at its very best when pitted against the obstinate cases that have defied all else tried. Take, for instance, the case of Mr. Harry A. Priskey, 3402 East Palmer avenue, Detroit.

"For weeks at a time," said Mr. Priskey, "rheumatism had me in bed. I thought I was lucky when I could get around on crutches. My limbs and feet were swollen and the pain was terrible. I tried no end of medicines and treatments, but nothing helped me. A friend suggested that I try Konjola, and the results exceeded my fondest hopes. In five weeks I was completely well and back to work. If anyone doubts my statement I will welcome a complete investigation. My friends are amazed, as I am, over what Konjola did for me in just five weeks."

Konjola is sold in Chelsea at Burg's drug store and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section. Adv.

Civil War Veteran Answers Final Call

Capt. John A. Snyder was born in Columbiana, Ohio, August 9, 1843, and died May 29, 1929 at his home on South street, following an illness of several weeks.

When the Civil war broke out Mr. Snyder enlisted in Company B of the twelfth Pennsylvania Cavalry, serving until the close of the war. He was with the army of the Shenandoah and a part of Gen. "Phil" Sheridan's command when he made his famous 20-mile ride to Cedar Creek.

Capt. Snyder was employed as a printer for 63 years and was one of the oldest members of the Typographical union. For twelve years he served in the office of the Ann Arbor Daily News, retiring in 1922, when he came to Chelsea to reside.

In the early 70's he was united in marriage to Lovina C. Hoffman, who preceded him in death Nov. 22, 1928. He is survived by several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Staffan funeral home, Rev. P. H. Grabowski officiating. Burial was in Oak Grove cemetery.

BASE BALL DOPE

Games were won last week by the Odd Fellows from St. Paul's Friday evening, 11-6; Odd Fellows from the Catholics Monday evening, 16-0; and Congregationalists from St. Paul's Tuesday evening, 6-4, making the percentage table looks as follows:

Team	Won	Lost	Pct.
Methodists	4	0	1000
I. O. O. F.	4	0	1000
Masons	3	1	.750
C. R. C.	1	2	.333
K. of P.	1	3	.250
Congregationalists	1	4	.400
St. Paul	0	4	.000

Games scheduled for the coming week are as follows: tonight—Methodists vs. Catholics; Friday evening—I. O. O. F. vs. Masons; Monday evening—Congregationalists vs. Catholics (play-off of the game of May 21, which was a tie); Tuesday evening, Methodists vs. I. O. O. F.; next Thursday—Catholics vs. St. Paul.

Independents Win From Economy Baler

The Independent base ball team won a second easy victory Sunday from Economy Balers of Ann Arbor, the final score being 23-8, 7 of the 8 being allowed in the last inning by the star pitcher, Rossbach, who had the losers in perfect control at all times.

The Balers have a high standing in the Ann Arbor league, and came here to make it high outside of the city also. Nevertheless, they found that their eye was not fast enough to follow the ball hurled from "Slim's" steady and powerful right hand.

Chelsea's hitting showed a decided improvement over last Sunday, one feature of this phase of the game being Smith's exceptionally long home run over the top of the tree in left field and far into the adjoining cow pasture. "Bill" Peters, a local man who played left field on the Ann Arbor team, enjoyed chasing that one.

The local team shows many signs of improvement, but were still weak in the one inning that they were given the opportunity to show their stuff in the field. Doubtlessly the team would still be helpless without Rossbach in the box, though their fielding compared favorably with that of the Ann Arbor team.

Independent Team To Organize Friday

All local baseball fans who are interested in the organization of the Independent ball team are requested to meet at McMichael's billiard parlor Friday evening immediately after the ball game at Holmes field, when officers will be elected and plans will be formulated for the future policy of the team.

The Independents will play the Federal Screw Works team from Detroit at Holmes field next Sunday at 3 o'clock. The Detroit aggregation is reputed to be a good bunch of ball players and it is expected that a better brand of baseball will be displayed than has been seen at the two games which have been played here.

Lyndon Sportsman Making Artificial Lake

Alfred Drew, sportsman and farmer of Lyndon township, is making an artificial lake on his farm across the road from Island Lake, about one mile east of Lyndon Center. The lake is expected to cover nearly seven acres of the lowland now surrounding the spring which is to be the source of pure, fresh water for the man-made scene of beauty.

The spring which issues a goodly flow of water now makes a small pond on which one of Mr. Drew's boats, tossed in the unfrozen water all last winter. The pond has never been frozen over, even when all of the surrounding lakes were covered with ice.

The necessary work of building a wall of cement and stone about 68 feet long and 14 feet high at the highest place, and cementing in a large tile to be used as a sluice-way has been completed during the last week, and the basin is now filling with water.

Roy Howard of Hudson did a very masterly job at the cement work. Mr. Drew will plant trees on the shores of the lake next spring, and seed the shores, making a very artistic place. Trout, the breed of which has not been chosen, will be planted in the lake as soon as possible, giving the owner a beautifully situated fishing ground, filled with one of the best eating and game fish that inhabit Michigan waters.

This is by no means a selfish move on the part of the Lyndon game enthusiast as many of his valued friends of that vicinity will testify. Mr. Drew only this spring planted 2500. Big Lake Pouch in both Island and Schneider Lakes, giving all of the people of this locality the benefit as well as the hundreds of resorters who come to this section during the summer. He states that he thought himself well repaid for the effort in just knowing that the fish were there.

Mr. Drew was a blacksmith in Dexter for 28 years prior to securing his present farm which many laughed at him for buying calling at an "old mud hole." Nevertheless, it looks as though he will make the location a beauty spot of which the citizens of this locality can well be proud.

Shaking Dice

It's rather disconcerting that so many bad habits should be so old. One would think we would have outgrown many things that are almost as old as history and which we show no signs of outgrowing. It is said dice throwing was so popular in India centuries ago that two kings, who had unpronounceable names, staked and lost their kingdoms on the spotted cubes.

As far back as history goes there has been too much of something or other of which there is still too much. All of which calls for a sense of humor and much patience—(from Patterson, in the Mobile Register).

Aw, Gwan!

It is claimed in America that a sheep is learning to talk. London Opinion understands that the animal is being taught simple words and has already mastered the first syllable of "baah."

Plymouth Production Makes Rapid Growth

Production of 1000 cars a day within ten months from the time its first car was manufactured is the record recently established by the Plymouth Motor Corporation at Detroit. "This is not only a record for the Plymouth," according to A. van Der Zee, General Sales Manager, "but for the entire industry, no other car ever reaching such an enormous production in such a short period of time. Although every effort is being made to meet the demand for cars, orders continue to be in excess of production figures," he says. "In the Plymouth plant, which is one of the most modern in the industry, everything is being done in installing the latest automatic machinery and time and labor saving devices to speed up production in order to meet the growing demand for the Plymouth. The speed of the assembly lines has been gradually increased until now a complete car is coming off every thirty seconds.

"The unusual demand for the Plymouth car is proof of the fact that the motor buying public is becoming more and more experienced in the finer points of automobile construction and that it appreciates real quality in a low priced car.

"While the Plymouth is a low priced car, quality has not been sacrificed in its manufacture. The low price is due to the economies resulting from vast quality production and our association with Chrysler Motors with its enormous purchasing power, and its huge manufacturing proper-ties—all of which are conducive to enormous savings in time and money. It is our policy to pass these savings on to the purchaser in the form of more value for the money he expends. Although the Plymouth organiza-tion is still less than a year old, there are over 3500 dealers merchandising the present time new dealers are joining the organization at the rate of 135 per week. "It is an interesting fact that our first 1000 car day was reached April 30, in less than four months from the opening of our new plant, which is the last word in quantity and quality automobile manufacturing."

For That Tired Feeling

Backaches and footaches and head-aches are responsible for most of the wrinkles and worry squints and tired listless faces among women. Body aches give that hard edge to the voice and make women feel forty-five when they are barely past thirty. Many of the tired aches could be avoided if women would take a little more care of themselves.—Farm and Fireside.

Authorities predict for the Future
what DODGE BROTHERS OFFER TODAY

"The all-metal seamless body is the au-to body of the future," George J. Mercer, consulting body engineer and chairman of the body division of the Society of Automotive Engineers, predicted at a meeting of the Cleveland Section of the S. A. E.—Automotive Daily News, February 12, 1929.

In the exclusive Mono-piece Body of the new Dodge Brothers Six, you find the identical type of design and construc-tion to which leading automotive en-gineers point as "the body of the future."

Literally one-piece, the Mono-piece Body is positive proof against squeaks and rattles.

Even after thousands of miles of hardest usage it remains as tight, as firm and as noiseless as when new.

Providing an abundance of room with a new degree of grace, the Mono-piece Body is stylishly trim. Doors and windows are wide.

In fact, the Mono-piece Body, in every way, stamps the new Dodge Brothers Six as the herald of a new era of greater beauty, greater comfort and even greater dependability in motor car design and construction.

FRANCISCO

Francisco furnished two June brides.

Saturday, June 1.

Miss Velma Bohne, youngest daughter of Henry Bohne, became the bride of Clifford Wolfe, son of Henry Wolfe of South Grass Lake. The wedding ceremony took place in Detroit, Rev. Henry Lenz, who confirmed Miss Bohne, officiating.

Mr. Wolfe is employed in the shoe department of the Field store in Jackson.

The young couple will be at home after a short honeymoon trip, with the bride's father, where she has been the home-keeper since the death of her mother, five years ago.

The second bride was Mrs. Sadie Fry, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Heale, who became the wife of Roy Wyoff of Jackson.

The ceremony which united this couple took place in Toledo. After a visit with friends and relatives in Toledo and Grand Rapids, they will receive their friends in the home in Jackson that is in readiness on their return. The groom is a final mail carrier out of the Jackson post office.

Miss Margaret Benter was a recent Chelsea visitor.

Several families from here attended the last Gleaner dance of the season at their hall in Waterloo. There was a good sized crowd and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

The Stuart Daft family of Jackson visited Mrs. E. B. Frey, Monday.

Miss Augusta Benter returned from Lansing, Saturday after being at the home of her sister, Ella, whose little daughter, Jancie, was seriously ill, but seems to be satisfactorily improving.

Truman Lehman and family were in Jackson Saturday afternoon.

While Mr. Thatcher and son, Bill, were in Chelsea to visit Mrs. Frances Thatcher.

Mrs. Eva Moore of Chelsea spent Saturday with her father, Henry Bohne.

Farther Still.

An Irishman and a Scot found themselves seated side by side at a certain Christmas club dinner and each tried to impress the other with the distance he had traveled.

After much discussion the Irishman admitted that he had sailed the Seven seas, amongst other things, and that he had been to the end of the world.

"An' what did ye see there?" asked the Scot.

"Sure, and there was a great big wall reaching to the sky, me boy," replied the other.

"Ah, well," said the Scot, "it's a peety ye didn't look ower yon wall."

The discussion will include the filling of silos with a 5 h. p. motor, the elevating of grain, and many other power uses that have proven practical.

Farmers now having electric service expecting to have such service in the near future, should arrange to attend this demonstration and become familiar with the many benefits they can derive from electric service, the cost involved and the farm line connection policy, and rural rate schedules in effect by the power company.

Demonstration Truck At Fred Kennedy Farm

The farm electrification truck of the Michigan State College will be at the farm of Sumner Farrell, Webster township, on the evening of June 12, 1929, at the farm of Fred Kennedy, Lima township, the evening of June 13, according to County Agricultural Agent H. S. Osler. Demonstrations of power uses of electric farm equipment will be conducted from 6:00 p. m. on. The truck is equipped with the same kind of electrical equipment used by the farmers in the Mason-Banville line, the experimental electric farm line of Michigan.

A complete farm wiring system is built on the truck and will be connected to the power to supply current to operate the deep and shallow well water systems, the hammermill feed grinder, the milking machines, and poultry house equipment that will furnish part of the demonstration. The demonstration will be conducted by H. J. Gallagher who is in charge of the experimental work on the Mason-Banville line.

A program for the ladies will include the operation of electric range, the washing machine, the refrigerator, the vacuum cleaner, and other electric household appliances. Miss Turner of the Home Economics division will conduct this program. In addition to the demonstrations, a play will be held throughout the evening. Miss Turner will lecture from 7:00 to 7:30 p. m. on the cost and payment of electrical household equipment. From 7:30 to 8:00 p. m. Gallagher will discuss the use of electricity as the farmer's "Hired Man." The discussion will include the filling of silos with a 5 h. p. motor, the elevating of grain, and many other power uses that have proven practical.

Masons Will Honor New Grand Master

Masons of Washtenaw county honor Roscoe O. Bonisteel, most recent grand master of the Masons of Michigan, in a reception and banquet at the Masonic temple, on Saturday night. The reception starts at 6:00 o'clock and the dinner at 6:30 o'clock. Attorney Bonisteel was elected to the highest position in Masonry in Michigan at the annual convention at Pontiac held last week. Justice Louis Peck of the state supreme court will be the principal speaker and Frank T. Lodge of Detroit will be on the program. William Bonisteel is in charge of the dinner and the gift of 100 chickens from enthusiastic brother.

Jackson Man Dies As Result Of Accident

Jack Love, of Jackson, was fatally injured Sunday evening when the car he was driving was sideswiped by a car reported to have been driven by Ann Arbor parties near the curve east of the Bert West farm three miles west of Chelsea on U.S. 12.

According to reports, Love was driving eastward, having three companions in his car, when his car was sideswiped by the Ann Arbor car traveling in the same direction at a fast rate of speed. In the mix-up another car, said to have been driven by Detroit parties, was struck. Occupants of all three cars were considerably shaken up, some suffering cuts and bruises.

Love was brought to the Chelsea Private hospital, where it was discovered he had received a fractured skull and other injuries, and after being given first aid was taken to a Jackson hospital, where he died about 6 o'clock Tuesday morning.
