Trojan Laundry To Move From Chelsea

Plans have been made and details are being arranged for the removal of the Trojan Laundry to Ypsilanti, according to a statement issued this week by proprietors of the laundry.

The present owners, James Johnston and sons, Hazen and Harold, have operated the laundry in Chelsea for about twelve years. Although their business has been on the increase throughout this period, the major part of their patronage is from the cities of Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti, and after careful consideration, the Johnstons concluded that they could operate to better advantage in the college city where they will be nearer the source of their patronage.

Much larger quarters have been obtained in Ypsilanti for the new location of the laundry and several new machines will be added to the equipment in order to take care of the increased business which is anticipated.

Although it is to be regretted that Chelsea is to lose the laundry and its proprietors, the Johnstons state that they will maintain an office here and promise prompt service to their many Chelsea patrons.

Wortley Gas Station Robbed Sunday Night

The service station of T. J. Wortley, located at the corner of U.S. 12 and the Francisco road, was the scene of a bold hold-up about 11:30 o'clock Sunday night, when two men in a large sedan drove into the station and ordered Henry Johnson, the attendant, to produce the cash on hand.

Johnson was ordered to get into their car when they drove into the station and one of the men went into the office. While he was in the office a car drove in to be serviced and Johnson was ordered to get out and service the car which he did and the car proceeded without suspecting that anything was wrong.

The attendant was taken into the office and at the point of their pistols and the bandits took the contents which amounted to about $27.00 in cash. They also took a shotgun which was in the office. They made a clean getaway, Johnson being unable to get their license number.

Mr. Wortley, who had retired about an hour before the hold-up, was called and notified the sheriff's department at Ann Arbor but no trace of the men was found.

Famous Graf Zeppelin Passes Over Chelsea

Everybody has been reading accounts in all daily papers for the past few weeks of the earth-grinding trip of the trail-blazing Graf Zeppelin but few ever dreamed that Chelsea had climbed to that height of fame that we would be honored by a visit of the Graf.

However, radio reports were received last evening that the Graf was passing over South Bend, Sturgis and other southern Michigan towns at such a time that she was expected to reach Chelsea about 8:30 or 9 o'clock.

Great excitement was prevalent about town and several "air-minded" young men, thinking that the Graf might take the air lane six miles south of Chelsea hastened to the vicinity of the air beacon tower in Sharon.

According to those lads, they heard the motors of the Graf several minutes before lights on the huge monster of the air could be seen. After waiting for a short time it could be seen that it was headed in the direction of Chelsea and then the race was on.

However, the Graf, with several motors developed more speed than did the autos, and the navigators of the latter stopped and enjoyed the sight of the airship before they were directly under it.

Owing to the fact that the Graf deviated from their scheduled route and came over Chelsea rather unexpectedly, no means of communication had been established locally and therefore no greetings were exchanged with Dr. Hugo Eckener or passengers by local people. In fact, very few people who were on the streets heard or saw the Graf as the band was playing at the time she roared over and that, along with traffic on the streets drowned out the hum of the motors.

Those who were fortunate enough to see the Graf estimated that it was flying at a height of about 1000 feet, following a straight course toward Detroit, and sailing over somewhat south of the center of town. It passed over Chelsea at 8:47 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. David Mohrlock returned Sunday evening from a motor trip through northern Michigan and Canada.

TRAFFIC VIOLATORS ARE GIVEN FINAL WARNING BY VILLAGE OFFICIALS

Recklessness, Speeding And Other Violations To Be Stopped By Prosecution.

Since a warning which was issued several weeks ago that traffic violations in Chelsea must be stopped, the number of violations have seemed to be on the increase, and now it has become necessary for village officials to issue an order to Marshall Wm. Atkinson to arrest all who persist in ignoring the warning to obey the laws.

It is not strangers who disobey the law in Chelsea so much, according to Mr. Atkinson, but it is our own people who think that because of their position in business or profession, or are well known here that they can take the law in their own hands and do as they please.

More leniency will be shown strangers driving through Chelsea than to people of our own community, at least for first offenses, but recklessness in driving through the congested districts of the village is to be dealt a heavy blow through the new ruling which goes into effect immediately.

And furthermore, according to officials, it will not be necessary, as some think, to give chase and catch the offenders in order to prosecute them. Most of those who have been repeatedly violating the laws are well known by the officers and when further violations are noted, summons to appear will be issued.

Motorcycles are also included in the list of those who have been disregarding the law and an effort will be made to clarify that noisy situation. Both motorcycleists and autoists who care to establish speed records in their respective lines are politely asked and will be urged to request to find race tracks outside the corporate limits of Chelsea.

Chelsea Takes Game At Pinckney, Sunday

Accompanied by scores of local fans, the Independents went to Pinckney Sunday and returned home with the "bacon" by defeating the Michigan team of that place by a score of 3 to 1. In a previous game on the local field Pinckney won from Chelsea with a score of 6-0.

A good game was anticipated, owing to the fact that the Pinckney team shut out our team here several weeks ago, and the Chelsea boys were after the Sunday game with blood in their eyes. A good game it was, and Pinckney was threatened with a return dose of their own medicine in the form of a shut-out but were lucky enough to score a run on errors in the ninth.

Bob Fahrner saved the day for Chelsea when he drove in two runs with a clean single in the fifth, Miller and Deeman scoring the runs. Hoffman scored the third in the seventh.

Al Rossbach was in exceptionally good form and pitched a 3-hit game with 12 strikeouts. The Independents had 8 hits to their credit.

Next Sunday the Independents will play the Jackson Maroons at Wilkerson field. The Maroons are an independent team and according to reports are a fast aggregation, having lost only three games this season.

The Independents have been playing an exceptionally good brand of baseball this season and really deserve more loyalty from local fans. Very few towns of this size can boast of a team of their calibre and the "boys in gray" hope for an increase in attendance at the few remaining games which are to be played here this year. Nothing in the line of sports is more wholesome than a good clean hard played baseball game and thrills aplenty await those who attend the games.

Public Schools Will Open September 9th

Announcement is made by E. L. Clark, superintendent of the Chelsea public schools, that school will open Monday, September 9th.

All high school students are urged to classify at the high school building Thursday and Friday forenoons, September 5th and 6th, and are requested to come prepared to purchase their books when they classify.

Extensive decorations and repairs have been made in the high school building by the Board of Education this summer so that students will return to clean and attractive classrooms on September 9th.

The Chelsea parochial school will open on Wednesday, September 4th.

Badger Is Captured By Lima Farmer

John Egelor of Lima is in possession of a live badger which he captured at his farm Sunday morning. The attention of Mr. Egelor was attracted to a field near the house when two badgers staged a fight there. He took his dog and went to the scene of the battle, but the dog was forced to retreat when attacked by one of the animals. When one of the badgers came toward Mr. Egelor with the intention of attacking him, he downed the animal with an accurate throw of a stone, and while senseless, dragged it to the house and caged it before it revived.

Repair Service

With the better engines of today, good care, careful driving, constant attention to lubrication and minor adjustments are particularly important for efficiency and economy of operation.

Particularly is this true of the valves. A high compression motor is a high compression motor only so long as the valves seat properly and the pistons fit snugly. For much compression is lost thru leaky valves and sloppy pistons, thus causing a motor to have even less compression than some of the much older cars.

If your car knocks, or is sluggish on the hills, or uses more gasoline than is customary, you will probably find the trouble in the valves and pistons.

If you have the valves retaced and resealed, or possibly it will be necessary to hone the cylinder walls and install a new set of pistons, your motor will run as smoothly and quietly and efficiently and as economically as when new.

We have recently installed the best and newest type of valve machine, and this added to our other equipment, gives us all that is needed to do a first-class job of valve work or reconditioning.

KELLY
SPRINGFIELD

Quality, better than ever;
prices, lower than ever

A few years ago, Kelly-Springfields were the highest-priced tires on the market—and they were well worth the difference in cost.

Today, Kellys are consistently giving two and three times the mileage they did seven or eight years ago, yet they now cost no more than any of the well known makes.

The explanation is simple. Public demand for Kellys led to large production and lowered costs, thus making it possible for us to offer you far better tires than the old Kellys, at half the price.

If you have never used Kelly tires, it will pay you to get acquainted with them.

Legion Convention Will Open Sunday

Battle Creek, Michigan, August 28.—The eleventh annual department convention of the American Legion, which will be held in Battle Creek, September 1, 2, and 3, will include crowded business sessions and splendid entertainment, according to a tentative program announced by George A. Dorman, general chairman of the convention committee.

A mammoth parade, spectacular aerial events, golf tournaments, mull dog show, band and drum and bugle contest, and other events will be among the features of the convention. Practically all of these events will take place on Sunday and Monday, the first two days of the convention.

The Legionnaires and their families and friends will start to arrive on Friday afternoon. Saturday night will see many hundred visitors in the city. An informal dancing party at the Post Tavern will be the feature of that evening.

The convention proper will start Sunday afternoon with joint memorial services, both the Legion and Auxiliary being in attendance. The Hon. Joseph L. Hooper, Congressman from the third district of Michigan, will give the principal address. Many other notables from various parts of the state will be heard. Following the memorial services in the Sanitarium Union building, the officers of the Legion and Auxiliary will go to Oak Hill Cemetery where a wreath will be placed on the American Legion plot of those who have paid the supreme sacrifice.

Following the afternoon sessions all districts will hold their regular dinners in various dining rooms about the city. Several hundred delegates, alternates and guests will be present at these functions. The Gen. Geo. A. Custer Post of Battle Creek, acting as host to the convention, will provide a wide and varied program of entertainment for these events.

A long program of entertainment from early in the morning until late in the evening has been arranged for Labor Day, September 2. The program will start off in the morning with a mull dog parade and show for the youngsters of the city. This is something entirely new and will create a great deal of interest.

The Legion and Auxiliary will hold their annual parade starting at 1:30 in the afternoon. Several thousands of Legionnaires and Auxiliary members will participate. About twenty bands and drum corps from all over the state will furnish music for the occasions and enter into competition for the many prizes that are being offered.

The air circus will take the balance of the afternoon starting immediately after the parade. Kellogg Airport will be the scene of the two days flying circus. Some very good events have been arranged for the two days air show.

The annual banquet and ball will take place at the Masonic Temple in the evening. This will be bright and colorful and one thousand people will be seated at this affair. Following the banquet the annual ball will be held in the Temple ball room.

Governor Fred W. Green will be present at the banquet and will be one of the principal speakers. Wilber Brucker, Attorney General of the State of Michigan, will also be among those present. HAPPY MAN

ENTHUSIASTIC OVER KONJOLA

Suffered From Rheumatism And Other Ailments For Twenty Years; Says Muster Medicine Gave Amazing Relief.

MR. JAMES F. IVES

"Rheumatism developed 20 years ago and since that time it has been my constant companion, sometimes becoming almost unbearable," said Mr. James F. Ives, 84, veteran of the Civil War, living at 6 Whitney Court, Grand Rapids, Mich. "The pains mostly settled in the back of my neck and in my legs, making life miserable."

"I took Konjola carefully and according to instructions. The different ailments eased up with each dose and finally they were driven from my body. Today I feel like a man many years younger, can walk without a cane and eat and sleep better than I have for many years. The energy and vigor that once was mine and that I lost has returned—all due to Konjola."

Konjola is sold in Chelsea at Bang's drug stores and by all the best drug-gists in all towns throughout this entire section.

A Poor Stove can RUIN a Good Disposition

Floor, Pacing! Oven Peeking! Everybody's hungry. Will dinner ever be served? Will it be good? Will it finish with laughter and chatter? With compliments for mother?

That all depends—depends largely upon the stove. No woman can do her best cooking or maintain a happy, smiling disposition with a stove that is old and inefficient—that won't bake or boil properly—that requires constant watching—that can't easily be kept clean.

For the sake of good dispositions, greater happiness, every home-kitchen should be equipped with a modern gas range.

Hogs—Steers—Sheep Say: "The Purina Pound Is Cheapest"

IT'S not what we say about Purina Chows that counts—it's what the animals say. Through 2,413 feeding records from all leading hog raising centers, 99,247 hogs shout, "Purina makes pork at $6.50 per hundred," while 19,890 steers add, "and makes beef at $10.08." At the same time 33,399 sheep say, "89.98 per cwt. gain." No wonder Purina feeders are making money—more money than by any other plan of feeding. No wonder we became enthusiastic about Purina and decided to become the local authorized distributor of the Checkerboard line.

You'll be an enthusiastic booster, too, once you've fed Purina to your poultry and live stock. Why not phone us for a supply—or drop in.

Many of us are likely to think of fire as an intangible, unreal thing until it calls upon us personally. Then we recognize it as an ever-present menace and wish we had taken the precaution of being fully insured.

Brooklyn—The exceedingly dry weather has been a severe test for the chloride treatment of county roads for holding down the dust. The highways around the east and north sides of Clark Lake has received two treatments and is holding well, the fact being if there is little moisture in the air a light treatment of the road salt cannot hold it to the road. On the south side of the lake only one treatment was made and between Brooklyn and Jefferson off the new pavement no treatment with salt. The difference can be plainly seen in the flying dust and the rougher road in the untreated places.—Exponent.

Howell—The township board of Howland held a meeting last Wednesday with Bullard Brothers to go over their proposal to place a dam in a branch of Ore Creek on Section 25 and form a new lake of 100 acres or more. The prospect promises to be a specially inviting one as there will be a fine grove on the north side and a more than ordinary good shore all the way around.—Republican-Press.

Pineckey—The Pineckey Fire Department was called to the Heardsley farm Monday. The grass in the door yard caught fire but was put out before it reached the house. A second fire alarm was turned in Tuesday noon. The grass in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Diller just east of town caught fire and it was feared the house was in danger. The blaze was extinguished before the fire engine arrived. Mr. and Mrs. Diller are living in Howell now but were out spending the day when the fire occurred.—Dispatch.

Plymouth—Shortly after eight p. m. Monday night members of the fire department were called into service with gas masks to enter the Plymouth United Savings Bank where the janitor accidentally discharged the tear gas bombs which are placed in the bank for protection against holdups with the result of being driven to the street until the gas cleared. Just how the accident occurred is not known. It proved to all who gathered around that the gas was a mighty effective weapon.—Mail.

Manchester—Surveyors continue to come here and work on the Manchester-Chelsea road and it would seem that there is thought of paving it before long.—Enterprise.

Brighton—After five successful years of service here and at Grace Lutheran church, Howell, Rev. Lawrence Price, pastor of the local Lutheran church has decided to accept a call from Hope church, Dayton, Ohio, and expects to leave for that city about the middle of September.—Argus.

Croswell—It has been announced recently that the Croswell sugar factory will not operate this fall due to the shortage in the crop of sugar beets.

Plymouth—Through an agreement that has just been reached between property holders along Six Mile road between the Farmington and Northville roads and the Wayne County Road Commission, this important thoroughfare will be paved early in 1930 by the county. The arrangement that resulted in this decision came as the result of the liberal action on the part of the property holders along the highway.—Mail.

Thirty-four Years Ago

Thursday, August 22, 1895

The foundry at the Glazier Stone Works was started up for the first time this afternoon.

The dates for the Chelsea Fair have been set for September 18, 19 and 20. A very pleasant event took place at the home of Jay Everett on Saturday evening, August 17, which was the crystal wedding anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Coe. Toward the close of the day, the group which consisted of relatives were seated and E. E. Shaver took a photograph of the party.

Seven new houses have been built in Chelsea this season and yet there is a shortage of vacant houses.

A new street has been surveyed from Polk to Main street, starting in front of the home of D. B. Taylor. The property is owned by Mrs. Francis Westfall and as it is slated will open up about twenty vacant lots.

Born Thursday, August 15, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lambert, a daughter. Born on Monday, August 12, to Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Cushman of Sylvan, a daughter.

Stephen Laird has moved the house from his farm to the lot he recently purchased on west Middle street.

John Stiegelmaier has purchased a lot on East street and will erect a residence on the property.

A Sunday school rally will be held at Jackson on August 29. The Michigan Central will run a special train on that day, the rate from Chelsea will be 25 cents.

The market is 40c for red or white wheat, rye, 40c; oats, 20c; barley, 90c per hundred; beans, $1.00 per bushel; potatoes, 25c; peaches, 60c to $1.00; pears, 25c to 30c; eggs, 10c; butter, 14c; chickens, 6c.

Waterloo—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Watts, a son, Bertrand Howard. He has taken up his residence in Chelsea. He is a railway mail clerk, and the department regulations require the clerk to reside on the line where the work is done.

Sylvan—The annual meeting of the Vermont Cemetery Association will be held at the cemetery on August 31.

Ransom Armstrong, one of the boys who started overland to California last May has returned home here.

Charles Downer has leased his interest in the Ferrine & Downer Show and is spending some time at his home in Chelsea.

Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Halmer left this morning for Boston to attend the twenty-sixth tri-annual convocation of the Knights Templars.

SEVEN DAYS—SEVEN NIGHTS

Northville—The final chapter of Northville's plunge into industrial business development some 30 years ago following the destruction of the old Globe factory by fire and the enforced idleness of some 250 or 300 men who had for years been steadily employed at that place, will be written on September 1st, when Village Treasurer Harold Bloom writes a check for $28,150.35 in full payment for the electric light bonds including interest voted by the taxpayers back in 1899.—Record.

STRANDED yet he kept both engagements

While upstate on business, recently, an automobile official missed his train connections and was stranded for the night. Two important appointments loomed ahead—in Lansing and in Detroit.

In that emergency, he turned to the telephone. The two cities were called and his business completed so satisfactorily that it was unnecessary to visit either place.

The telephone always is ready to serve you, either in emergency or in the regular conduct of business.

Question And Answer Dept.

NOTICE—If your question does not appear below, it is because it is awaiting its turn, and will be published eventually.

Ques.—In the fall-of-the-year I notice there are great quantities of webs floating everywhere. Can these be spider webs? If so, where are the spiders?

Ans.—The webs you probably have in mind is called meteoric floss. It is virgin asbestos. It is caused by the burning of meteors when they enter our atmosphere. They become disintegrated and scatter to the four winds.

Ques.—I have often wondered how decayed meat will generate maggots. Can you answer this in the question department of your good paper?

Ans.—In ancient times it was universally believed that maggots were produced by spontaneous generation. This is a common belief today, but it is erroneous. It is a fact that every living thing comes from a pre-existing living thing. Maggots are produced from the eggs of blow-flies, and not through the corruption of meat. The maggots themselves soon evolve into blowflies.

Ques.—Can you please tell me what the male peacock is called, as I have never heard any of them referred to only as "peacock"?

Ans.—In popular usage the word "peacock" is applied to any individual bird of the peafowl family, whether it is male or female. It is more accurate to speak of the birds in general as "peafowls," and all the males peacocks and the females peahens when it is desired to indicate the sex.

Ques.—I would like to know if the King of England is obliged to be married before he can become king?

Ans.—There is no law compelling the King of England to marry either before or after he is crowned. He may marry or not, just as he pleases. The Prince of Wales would not have to marry to ascend the throne in case of his father's death.

Ques.—Why is it that a man's hair grows after death when there is no life there?

Ans.—That is an illusion. A person's hair does not grow after death. The shrinkage of the tissues gives the appearance that the hair has grown some.

Ques.—Can you answer who is the president of Switzerland, how and when is he elected?

Ans.—Robert Haab is president of Switzerland at the present time. The federal council elects one of its members every year to the vice-presidency, and the vice-president automatically becomes president. Thus every year they have a new president, who was vice-president the previous year.

Ques.—I am rather curious to know what a "point" is in the stock exchange. Can you answer in the question column?

Ans.—"Point" as used in relation to the stock market, means a recognized unit of variation, and is used in quoting the prices of stocks, as well as various commodities. In the stock market one point ordinarily means $1 a share. The value of a point, however, varies according to the commodity in question. To understand the market reports one must know the value of a point with reference to any given commodity. In the coffee and cotton market, for instance, a point is the hundredth part of a cent.

Ques.—To settle a dispute will you please be kind enough to answer in your question column what was the religion of Patrick Henry, if he was not a Roman Catholic?

Ans.—There is a general impression that Patrick Henry was a Roman Catholic, but this is false. Patrick Henry, the Virginia orator and statesman was of Scotch and Welsh descent and was baptized and adhered to the Episcopal faith throughout his life. The ritual of the Episcopal church is quite similar to that of the Catholic, and thus many were confused as to Henry's religion. His mother was a convert to Presbyterianism, while his father, John Henry, a native of Scotland, was a member of the established church of England.

Ques.—Can you answer in the question and answer that if Great Britain declares war against the United States or any other nation with which it is friendly, would Canada have to join England and fight that country with which it had been friendly?

Ans.—Canada would automatically be an enemy of any nation against which Great Britain declared war. Canada, however, is a self-governing unit within the British empire, and although she would be in a technical state of war under international law, she would not have to participate in such a war if she did not desire. She could refuse to send a dollar or a man to support Great Britain, and the latter could do nothing about it.

Ques.—May I ask you who was it that invented the ice cream soda?

Ans.—According to Dr. Howard McClenahan, secretary of the Franklin Institute of Philadelphia, ice cream sodas were invented by members of the Institute for use at the Centennial Exposition in 1876.

Dexter.—The people of St. Joseph's Parish will as usual, hold their annual Labor Day picnic this year. The committees started their work several weeks ago in order to make this year's picnic the biggest and best yet. It is known this year as the Homecoming Labor Day Picnic.—Leader.

Saline.—Those who were up town late Thursday night were permitted to see a new coupe brought from England and a curiosity it was, too. The front of the body was only 14 inches across, the spread of wheels 7 inches narrower than American cars, thus making traveling difficult in rutty roads. Right hand drive; only two hinges on doors—low down and running-board in front of doors—has an extension step down; spot lights on top of fenders and rear wheels, partly under body. When starting it picked up quickly and with scarcely a sound.—Observer.

Grass Lake.—A rather unusual feature of the Grass Lake Rifle club scores for last Thursday's shoot, was a tie of 1,129 between the two sides of 12 men each. In the shoot off between the captains, Raby shot a score of 98 to Williams 96 which entitled No. 2 to the supper.—News.

Simplicity. Above All in character, in manners, in style, in all things, the supreme excellence is simplicity.—Longfellow.

Salem.—Half an acre of land has been donated by Mr. and Mrs. Tete Atchinson of West Salem to the Walker school to be used as a playground for the children as long as it remains a school. There is a well on the property which makes it doubly valuable. This is a splendid gift to the school, and Mr. and Mrs. Atchinson are surely deserving of many thanks.

Saline.—The new pipe organ for the M. E. church has arrived and will soon be set in place. The console is being arranged in the Epworth League room, the alcove on the north side being too small to house it. The new instrument is very nice and is said to be of wonderful tone and volume.—Observer.

BALANCED!

that's why

FISK All-Cords

THE Fisk tread is thick and tough, equal to all road strains. But it is not too heavy for the sidewall, nor is the sidewall too heavy for the bead. Every part is perfectly balanced; there are no weak points.

That is why Fisk All-Cord Tires wear evenly—why they do not give way at the shoulder or rim long before the tread is worn out. Fisk balance, together with other Fisk features, gives you what you want most from your tires—comfortable, dependable mileage. Try a Fisk in place of that worn-out tire, and see how Fisk's balanced construction can cut your tire costs.

First Boxing Exhibition Attracts Large Crowd

Boxing made its initial appearance in Chelsea Monday evening when a capacity house assembled to watch twelve local boys go through their paces, and proof that they did so may be attested to by the fact that the audience were continually on their feet cheering their favorites.

Promptly at 8:30 the house lights were turned off, and the floodlights above the ring lighted, and then while the crowd roared its approval, two fast stepping featherweights, Brett Schneider and Sandeck, boxed for three two-minute rounds crowded with thrills. The decision went to the former.

The second bout brought together Eisenman and Myers. In the first round Myers appeared to be the winner, but in the second Eisenman's fighting spirit and injury to Myers' right eye forced the fight to be called in favor of Eisenman.

The third bout of the evening brought together the game aggressive fighters, Sailor Conk and Raymond Clark. For 3 rounds these boys battled on even terms, and so close was the fight that the judges in fairness to both called it a draw.

In the 4th bout, the "Mystery Man," Jess Parsons, and Czar Reolo, hard punching boy from the west side, clashed. This was a case of a hard puncher and a fast closer-boxer. Time and time again Czar would shoot that terrific right only to have it blocked by the wily Parsons. In spite of this the boy from the West Side kept plugging in seeking the opening that meant victory. Parsons got the decision.

The semi-final bout brought Benny Eder, clever hard punching boxer and Sandy Weber, a game capable lad with a clever defense. Both lads were eager to mix but too many gloves were around for Weber to land telling blows and he bowed before Eder's skill.

The crowd was somewhat disappointed in the main event, due to the failure of Mr. Hughes to appear for his match with Peter Konenski. As he had promised a late arrival the management did not have any suspicion of his not being there, and no provision had been made for a substitute. However, as the time came for the bout and he failed to appear, Mr. Mitchell kindly consented to go on with Konenski. Mr. Konenski showed that he had all the essentials of a fighter and the best fight fans are eagerly awaiting the time when he will be given his chance to display his talent against an opponent of his calibre.

The referee of the bouts was Harold Spaulding, and much credit is due him for the calm efficient manner in which he handled the matches.

The bouts were an excellent example of clean, hard boxing. Fine sportsmanship was shown by all fighters and it appears that boxing has come to stay in Chelsea.
