Three Hundred Fifty Attend I. O. O. F. Meet

Three hundred fifty Odd Fellows attended the district meeting of the Order which was held in the public school auditorium Wednesday evening.

Milan led the visiting delegations with 104 members present, Hamburg 51, Ypsilanti 44, Ann Arbor 42, Plymouth 42 and visiting members from Wayne, Stockbridge and other lodges brought the attendance to the three hundred fifty mark.

The visiting members met at the local lodge room where a line of march was formed, headed by the Milan Odd Fellow band and the Canton organizations of Ann Arbor and Plymouth, and marched to the auditorium.

The officers of the local lodge took their stations and called the gathering to order. The members of the two Cantons then put on a fine exhibition drill. The Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Michigan, Homer C. Carr, of Jackson, and Past Grand Patriarch of the Michigan Encampment Isaac Reynolds of Ann Arbor were escorted to the room and introduced by Rev. A. E.
Potts and Clarence McBride.

The degree team from Ypsilanti conferred the second degree upon the class, and the team did exceptionally fine work in their demonstration of the degree.

At the close of the degree work, short talks were delivered by the Grand Master, Past Grand Patriarch and many of the visiting officers.

At the close of the meeting the Chelsea lodge served a banquet to 325 of the visiting members. The next district meeting will be held in Ann Arbor, Friday evening, April 11.

NO CHANCE OF WINNING

We wonder how many of you checked up on the number of fatal automobile accidents that have happened in the state since the beginning of the year? Most of them could have been avoided had the driver been going at a moderate speed. Too many people go too fast on roads that are not safe.

What does the reckless driver do? He beats a few seconds of time against human life and happiness.

If he wins his earnings are a few worthless seconds, time that rarely has real value. His winnings makes no difference with success or failure. He wins—nothing.

But if he loses. What are the penalties? One penalty may be the supreme one, the loss of his own life. It may be serious injuries which destroy all hopes of future happiness. Again it may be death or injury to those who are in no way responsible for the risks that are taken. The loss may be an innocent occupant of the car—those who are traveling in other automobiles, a little child who is crossing the street.

The careless driver not only wagers a few seconds of his own time against his own life, but he brings into the bargain the lives of others—lives over which he should have no influence or control.

If you know of a more foolish proceeding, name it.

Let us stop reckless, fast driving. Let the authorities act. Let every person realize that in the ownership of an automobile he assumes a moral responsibility for safety.

KEEPING ITS PLEDGE

In the present business situation there is much cause for encouragement. The shock of deflation in security prices has largely been absorbed in three months. The danger of a long depression appears fairly over with, there is every evidence of early renewal of a normal onward march of living standards and business progress.

American business is carrying out its pledge to make every effort to create and maintain employment until business momentum is fully regained and the emergency is over. Wage scales too, are being maintained to sustain buying power. One of the most encouraging factors at the present time is found in the fact that at least forty-four million persons are gainfully employed, which is ten million more than were at work in 1921. This in itself helps to explain the checking of this business recession in so short a time, because these ten million additional workers, earning higher income than was possible in earlier years, themselves furnish a buying power which keeps fellow workers employed and factories running to serve their needs.

Any wide unemployment immediately reacts on business, and the modern business man, knowing this, is as anxious as the worker himself to keep unemployment at a minimum.

BEGIN AT HOME

Are we doing too much talking about lax conditions in the social world, and at the same time neglecting much of the interest we should have in the home? For after all it is in the home where most of the wholesome background of life exists. When interest in the home dwindle we see the effects in a fading social structure.

We all know the elements that enter into the modern life. Father is busy, mother is busy, the children are busy. All are business in earning, playing and living. The family as a unit for pleasure has just about passed away. Of course there are some substitutes for it that have some merit. There is social life that has influence for good or bad, dependent upon the social surroundings. There is a splendid school system which does many things that the home cannot do and yet cannot be a substitute for father and mother. There are friends and associates in these modern days, but they cannot take the place in life of brothers and sisters.

Eventually, in spite of busy lives, we will return to the home. Father will quit attending public forums to hear discussions on the success or failure of prohibition; mother will resign from her bridge club to help in the work of reuniting the family circle, and the children why, bless their hearts, they will remain at home because they never wanted to be away in the first place. The signs all point to an early regeneration.

FOR I WOULD BE—

I would be true, for there are those who trust me; I would be pure, for there are those who care; I would be strong, for there is much to suffer; I would be brave, for there is much to dare; I would be friend to all—for the friendship I would be giving, and forget the gift; I would be humble, for I know my weakness; I would look up—and laugh—and love and lift.

—Howard Arnold Walters.

Things We Don't See

So many of us go through the day and hardly notice the sparkle of sunlight on a lake or goblet, the majestic angles cast by a skyscraper or a scales too, are being maintained to sustain buying power. One of the most encouraging factors at the present time is found in the fact that at

Bury Me in Pink

Gandhi's Appeal
The King's Maxim

If War Did Come

Woman's interest in dress, strong and deep, goes back a million years. She started with a necklace, according to scientists. First an ornament around the neck, then one around the waist, then a skirt and all sorts of things.

A woman in California who murdered a man and killed herself asked to be buried in white satin with yellow roses in her hand.

A well-known actress in New York jumps from a twentieth-story window and makes two requests: first, that she be buried in pink satin; second, that her husband keep away from the funeral.

Beautiful in sincerity and humility is Gandhi's appeal to the British government. "On bended knees, I ask you to ponder this phenomenon"—namely, the "impoverishing of India's dumb millions" by Britain.

Gandhi says, "I do not intend to harm a single Englishman." He will only resist passively.

Very touching, but not the attitude that gains independence, not the attitude of a people ready for independence.

Britain set a different example before the Hindus after the Sepoy rebellion.

The British put murderous rebels inside of cannon and blew them to pieces, knowing that religious superstition would make the punishment most horrible.

No rebellion of consequence since then.

One industry marches on to higher and higher figures. In the cigarette business, prosperity reigns. Every body always has money to buy cigarettes.

When employment is lacking there is leisure to smoke more cigarettes, and all feel that they must have them, job or no job.

Last year's production was one hundred and nineteen billion cigarettes, almost a thousand cigarettes per year for every man, woman and child in the United States.

One thing most important to all business men in connection with the cigarette industry: Cigarette men are the most aggressive, energetic and continuous advertisers in the nation.

The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey sets an example to other oil concerns, voluntarily reducing its refinery operations by one-seventh.

Refining is a continuous process, and must continue seven days a week, but only six days' actual work will be done, to prevent overproduction.

And most important part of the good example, men will not be discharged or have their wages cut.

An English clergyman reveals King George's six maxims, all hung up on the walls of his library.

The first is: "Teach me to be obedient to the rules of the game."

Excellent for a constitutional monarch, obeying the will of his people. Rulers of a different kind, Alexander, Caesar, Napoleon, had a different maxim: "See that you obey the rules of the game as I make them."

We do not understand management of prisons, or our criminals are different from other criminals.

Weeks ago, Warden Hoffman of Auburn prison, New York, told a reporter: "We are sitting on a powder keg."

Recently, a convict stabbed the head keeper of the prison to death. He knew that the electric chair, nearby, would inevitably avenge that murder. Nevertheless, he committed it.

General Ely, commanding the second corps area, has a plan to defend New York city in war.

He would "mobilize the civilian services."

If modern war came the civilian services would mobilize themselves. And with them the six million population of New York, as many as survived the first war and bomb attacks would mobilize themselves by scattering through the country, abandoning the city as rats leave a ship when it is sinking.

In case of an attack by airplane, which would be the first sort of attack in a new war, it would not be necessary for General Ely to worry about his suggestion for "guarding the water supply."

After the first half-hour, there wouldn't be anybody left in New York to drink water. The dead couldn't drink it and all the living would have left the city.

An encouraging statement comes from Mr. Edsel B. Ford, now in Florida. He is one who talks rarely and thinks first. President of the Ford company, knowing the sales from day to day, possessing sound information about business conditions, he predicts steady improvement in business, particularly in industrial lines.

STOP, LOOK, LISTEN

Three simple words, yet if their message is heeded it will result in the annual saving of countless lives. The man who raced a passenger train to the crossing, costing the lives of ten innocent people besides his own, was a dangerous fool. It makes us wonder if the grade crossing hazard has received the attention it should.

For years the railroads have conducted an unceasing campaign to reduce the hazard throughout the country, in which they have had a good deal of cooperation, but the public fails to understand as clearly as it should that death lurks at every railroad grade crossing.

The burden of responsibility at the grade crossing is always with the driver of the motor car. Heavy trains are not easily controlled. Transportation by the nature and necessity of its business quite properly relegates to the public the biggest share of responsibility at the grade crossing. Speeding trains cannot dodge or halt in the distance of 100 yards.

There is always one rule that if generally followed would quickly correct this condition. It is "Stop, Look and Listen."

THE RURAL MAIL CARRIER

American farm life owes much to the rural mail carrier. In scarcely more than a quarter of a century the penetration of the rural mail carrier into the country districts has brought about a complete revolution in the daily lives of our farm population.

The farmers are no longer dependent upon late news for their information. They are as fully informed and alive to market conditions, styles, news, and the condition of the world in general as those who live in town.

Rural mail service is given to the farmers without charge. It has proved to be a good investment. A contented and happy farm population adds tremendously to the stability of the government. The nation is comparatively safe as long as this condition exists.

Farm depression during an era of high wages in the industrial centers drew heavily from the farms, but those who stuck it out have no cause for complaint. With farm prospects better than they have been in years those who remained behind are beginning to reap the reward for the faith they had in the land.

The rural mail carrier had much to do with their decision not to be lured away to city lights. He is a public servant who is entitled to much praise. In season and out he has been faithful to his trust. Treat him with kindness and respect because he is your friend.

A SCREEN STAR FADES AWAY

The world moves swiftly on. Just a very few years back, when motion pictures were in their crude infancy, a youthful actress named Mabel Normand came to the screen. Fate looked kindly upon her and she prospered as the motion picture industry prospered. Her later decline in popularity has not erased the record of her really worthwhile accomplishments in pictures. The recent news of her death from tuberculosis therefore comes as a shock to the many theatergoers who remember her only as a youthful, talented actress.

Young women, patterning themselves after idolized screen stars, may take warning from Miss Normand's illness and death. The world, impartial, paid no heed to the wish for life of this woman who, while not wishing to die, had through her ways of living, helped precipitate death. Tuberculosis, which according to the Michigan Tuberculosis Association presents its greatest menace to life when health has been placed in jeopardy through faulty ways of living, was the agent which here took toll for the world.

Life is just as sweet, and certainly more lasting, if its fruits are tasted in moderation. Even famous screen stars cannot break nature's laws without eventual penalty to themselves.

The bureau of standards says that the six best conductors of electricity are the common metals, pure silver, pure copper, pure gold, pure zinc, Swedish iron and tin.

YOUR TAX DOLLAR

Everywhere we go people are talking about the burden of taxation. They do not complain about not getting value received from their tax dollar, but they do say that taxes have mounted so rapidly in recent years that their absorption in most cases brings actual financial embarrassment.

Are you one of those who believes taxes are too high? Do you think there is an equal distribution of the tax burden? If you do will you be given an opportunity to express your views on this subject.

The state commission of inquiry into taxation, appointed last year by Governor Fred W. Green, will hold the first of a series of public hearings in the Senate chamber at Lansing on Thursday, March 20. Taxation on real and personal property will be discussed. As a taxpayer you are invited to attend this hearing, express your opinion and make any suggestion you may desire on this important phase of government.

JERSEY CATTLE CLUB MEETS

The Washtenaw County Jersey Cattle Club held their annual business meeting and banquet Saturday at the Y. M. C. A. at Ann Arbor.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Ed. Simonds of Ypsilanti. The treasurer's report showed a balance of over $200 in the treasury. The following were elected to serve as the officers for the coming year: President, Ed. Simonds of Ypsilanti; secretary-treasurer, E. C. Finkbeiner of Saline, vice president, Elmer Glenn of the Glenn Brook Farm. It was voted to hold a summer meeting and picnic.

Finkbeiner's orchestra furnished the music; the Simonds sisters rendered two vocal duets; Max Ross and Mr. Stuart also sang two vocal duets.

About one hundred were present for the dinner, after which Mr. Glenn, acting as toastmaster, entertained the crowd with some humorous stories.

H. E. Dennison of the Extension department of the American Jersey Cattle Club told of the work the club is doing. Mr. Flora, also of the American Jersey Cattle Club, gave a very interesting talk, and Arnold Goss of the Oaklands also told of the work that they are doing at the Oaklands.

Prof. Taylor of the M. S. C. at East Lansing told of the work they are doing for the Jersey breed at the college. Frank McCalla gave a very good talk on his trip to the St. Louis National Dairy Show as a Calf Club member. It was decided by the members to give each calf club member a prize of three dollars.

It was also decided to carry on the Parish show work as they have been doing. There will be a meeting held at Ann Arbor, March 24 to make plans for the Parish show which will be held at the County Fair.

Those from this vicinity who attended the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ives, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Notten and Dale Loveland.

Here is the complete story of the important new development in Motor Oil

It is incorrect, perhaps, to call this story complete. The complete story would be the record of months of work in one of the world's greatest oil research laboratories.

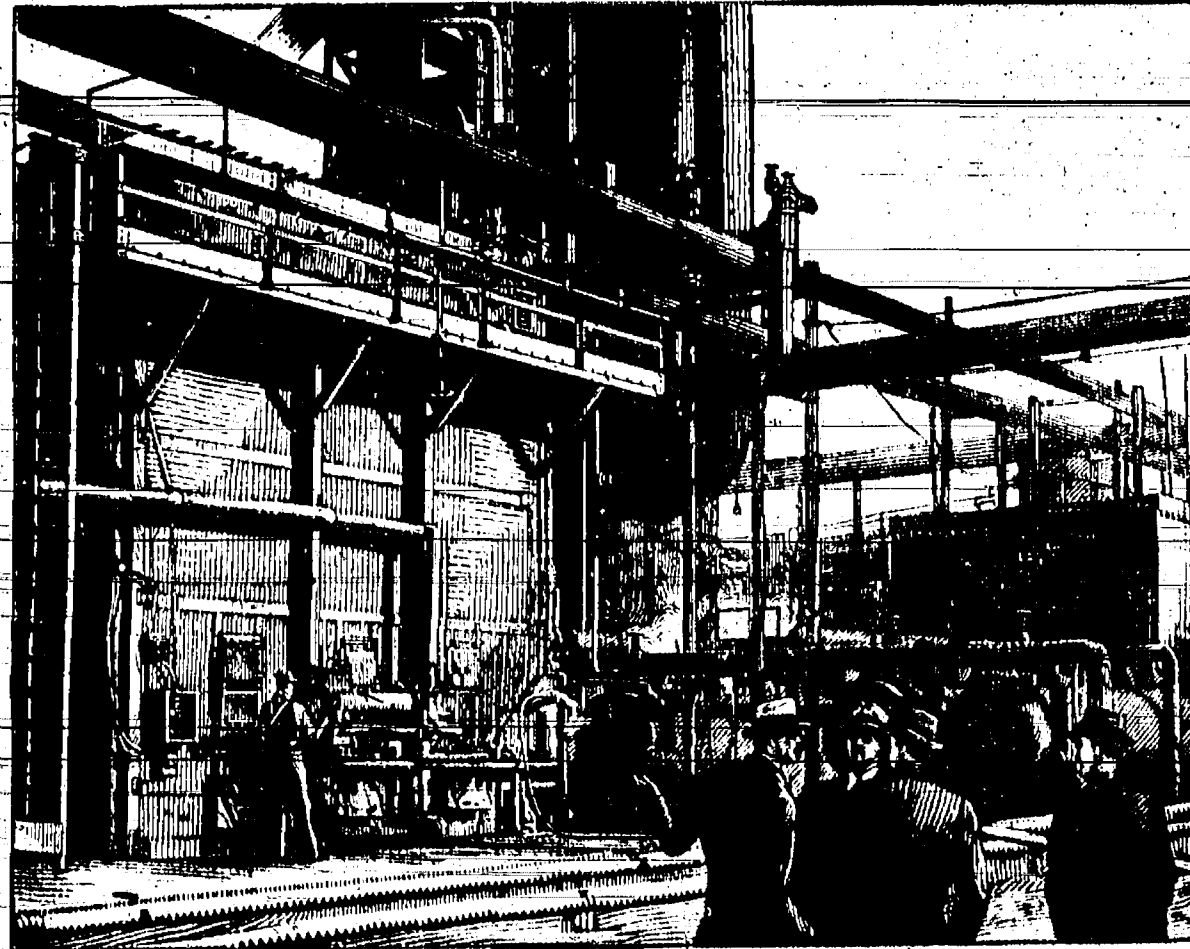

That is past. The important thing now is to tell you what this new motor oil will do for your car.

First of all, it means a tremendous reduction in the carbon nuisance. New Iso-Vis Oil actually reduces carbon formation far below most oils selling today at premium prices.

One reason for this is the fact that New Iso-Vis is a wholly distilled oil. Made by a special process, its sturdy body is not obtained by the usual method of adding undistilled parts of the crude.

New Iso-Vis also makes possible better lubrication at extremes of temperature—both high and low. It not only gives better starting, and a free flow of oil in cold weather, but it does not break down under high engine temperatures.

In addition, New Iso-Vis resists dilution and will not thin out in your crankcase. The enormous importance of this feature cannot be exaggerated. Ninety percent of all crankcase dilution takes place during the first 200 miles of driving. By overcoming this dilution, Iso-Vis assures you of lubrication not only when your oil is fresh but right up until the time you change.

With Iso-Vis, the important reason for changing oil is not because of thinning out—but because it is impossible to prevent a certain amount of dirt from getting into the crankcase which must be removed by drainage.

New Iso-Vis is, we believe, the most important advance ever made in motor oil. Every Standard Oil dealer and service station can now supply you.

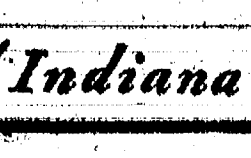

A view of one of the great "stills" in which this new oil is refined. The process differs in some respects from any methods heretofore developed. Countless laboratory experiments were made. Only then were our engineers ready to announce these final results.

Notice the Color of New Iso-Vis. It is a rich amber. New Iso-Vis is a wholly distilled oil. Its sturdy body is not obtained by adding undistilled parts of the crude.

THESE VIALS show the different amounts of carbon formed in the same motor after 50 hours of running under exactly similar conditions with four different oils. Iso-Vis is at the extreme right. Carbon in the other vials is from three premium-priced oils.

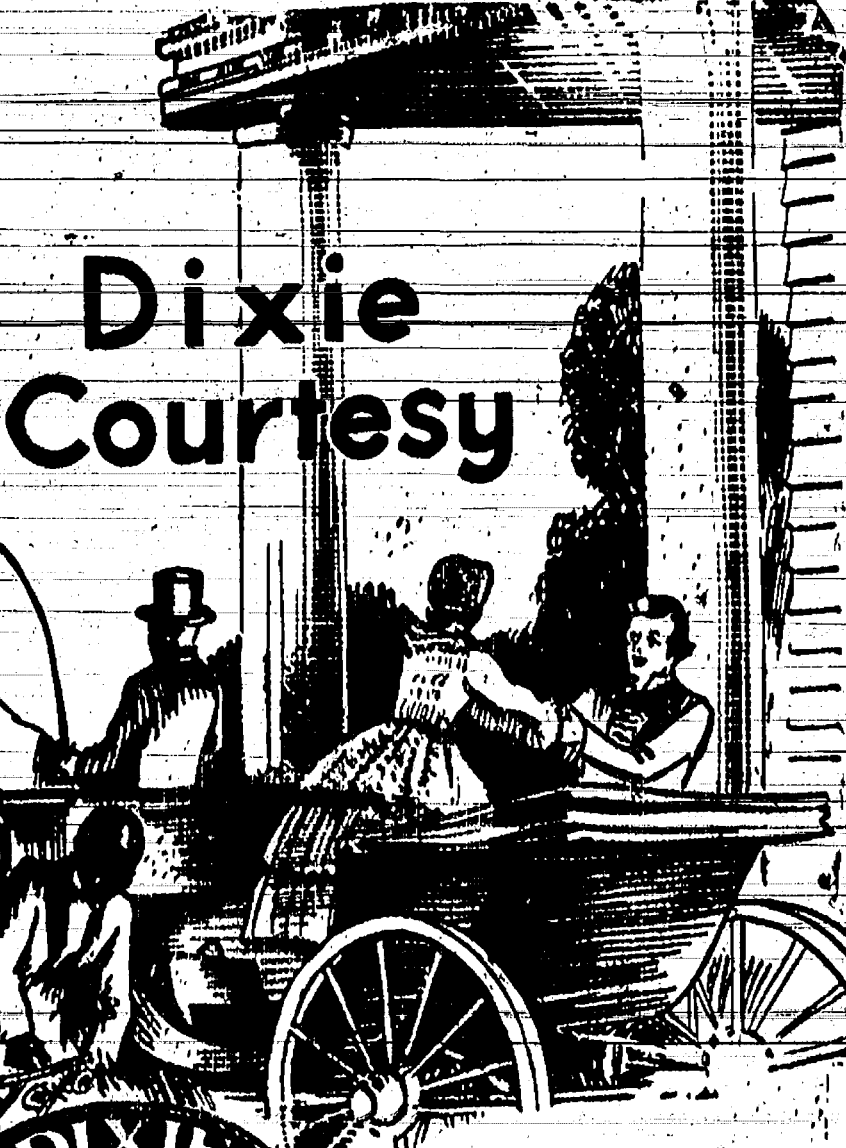

The New Polarine is also affected by our new refining process—giving it a degree of lubricating efficiency which we believe is exceeded only by the New Iso-Vis. The price is 23c a quart.

Singing for Exercise

Besides being a pleasure to the singer and sometimes to those around, the act of singing is a better exercise than most persons have any thought of. It is good exercise for the throat, lungs and chest and now it is recommended for the cure. A western physician who is called upon to do a great deal of living over the country says that after a particularly hard experience of this kind his ears always seem to be affected, probably by the noises of the car and vibration of the engine. In this event he raises up his voice and sings to the best of his ability, and this treatment soon relieves the ears.

School Funds Cannot Be Spent For Power Lines

There has been considerable controversy in rural school districts as to the legality of a school district going to the expense of assisting in the construction of an electric power line running past the schoolhouse in order that the building might be supplied with electric current.

In order to settle the question, a patron residing in a nearby school district wrote to the Department of Public Instruction at Lansing asking for information in the matter, and we print herewith the letter which was received in reply:

"Whether or not you have artificial lights in your school building rests entirely with the school board. Electric lighting is considered as a part of school equipment and school equipment belongs to the board to decide. However, please notice that you as a board have no legal right to pay anything toward the construction of the main line running past the schoolhouse. Neither can the people authorize you to do this. The main line must be built without any expenditure of school funds. After it is built you may tap the school building and pay for all of the material and labor necessary to install this equipment in the schoolhouse.

"This is taken care of in paragraph 2 of Section 14, Chapter 6, Part II, Act 319 P. A. of 1927, found on Page 94 of the 1927 Compiled School Law, and by an eight page typewritten Attorney General's opinion which I have on file. The Attorney General rules that no school district can expend school funds for any public improvements such as electric lights, sidewalks, pavement, sewer pipes, water mains, etc. but the school board may tap such a water or electric line for school purposes and pay to the company the same pro rata rate that said company charges individuals."

NEWS WEEKLY

Report of Chelsea Light and Water Department

From Feb. 28, 1929 to Mar. 1, 1930

The citizens of Chelsea should give the Light and Water Department their support. The following are items that have been bought and paid for from earnings of this Department in the past 7 years. If it earns a dollar, it is a dollar earned for you.

All the wires, poles, cross-arms, pole hardware, cut-outs, lightning-arresters, transformers, meters, switchboards, labor and everything pertaining to a good distribution system which cost $47,837.25, are included in the plant which is owned and operated by the village.

The following water equipment has been added to our system: Centrifugal pumps, motors and automatic starters. New wells have been driven and connections made to reservoir and the 100,000 gallon tank has been added, which gives Chelsea a very nice water system. The expense has been $25,880.13.

This total amount of $73,717.38 has been paid for out of the earnings of the plant and it was not necessary to add extra taxes or special assessments to pay for same. We are of the understanding that as soon as our village council deems it advisable our electric rates shall be lowered—but just remember, if the plant makes a dollar it is making it for you!

MILAN—Leroy Pfahler, former Milan High School and Michigan State Normal College athlete, signed a contract last week to play baseball for the Detroit Tigers. He has been playing for some of the best semi-pro teams in this part of the state during the last three years and has a good chance to make the grade in professional baseball. A scout for the Tigers saw him pitch a game in Detroit last year and after looking up his records sent him a contract. Pfahler will report to the Raleigh, N. C. team in the Piedmont League just as soon as his coaching duties are over at the William Wright High School in Dayton, Ohio. The Raleigh team is owned by the Detroit Baseball Company. Next year he expects to be seen in a Tiger uniform.—Leader.

WAYNE—Wayne county's new mile-square airport, located at Middlebelt and Gaddard roads, will be opened formally about April 1, with elaborate ceremonies. NORTHVILLE—Two residences in Redford township are in ruins, destroyed by fire, which flamed with a high velocity wind early Sunday evening, threatened blocks of homes in the neighborhood of Wakendon and Northaven avenues, on the outskirts of Detroit. Collapse of the volunteer fire department of the township, through two mishaps, left the fire unchecked until a Detroit fire detachment reached the scene.—Record.

SOUTH LYON—Village Clerk, W. C. Beaudoin, reports that during the year 1929 there were sixteen births in the village of South Lyon. Of this number eight were girls and eight boys. During the same period there were 40 deaths in the town, six women and four men.—Herald.

JACKSON—That rabies in dogs in the city and county has reached a serious stage resulting in a strict quarantine on the animals being placed at once was learned Saturday when word was reached by the sheriff and police department from Lansing to the effect, a quarantine covering a three-month period had been ordered for Jackson county.

BROOKLYN—The Jackson county basketball championship was won by Napoleon High School Saturday night at the Jackson High gym where the county series were played last week. Napoleon met and defeated Brooklyn the first game of the series by a score of 21 to 7. Then each team fought its way into the final by defeating all comers and the championship was played between the same two teams Saturday night.—Exponent.

JACKSON—Load restrictions for trucks were enacted March 1 by county road boards. Much road damage was done by heavy loading during last week's thaw, but the State law tied the hands of the authorities until after March 1.

FOWLerville—The board of determination of the Fowlerville drain which met in the city opera house last Monday to decide whether or not the said drain is necessary for good health decided it was not necessary by a vote of four to two. The board claimed the decision was made from the amount of opposition expressed at the hearing, on which there was four abutting property-owners against the drain and two testified in favor of it. It is reported that a petition containing about 65 names asking for the drain was filed some time ago, also a former board had accepted the drain, surveying and blue prints by been made, which made quite a heavy expense. If the matter is taken up with the state board of health no doubt the expense of a drain or sewer will be very much larger.—Review.

MASON—Forestry students of Michigan State college have been making a survey of the grounds surrounding the court house this past week. The plans will be used to guide a committee of the board of supervisors in making landscape paintings this spring. Removal of some of the trees upon the north and east sides of the square will probably be recommended by the students.—News.

Would Seem So

It is said that the giant sea turtle lives a placid existence and attains an age of 200 years. But wouldn't 200 years be a long time to live without once coming out of your shell?

Michigan Happenings

Neither the city of Farmington nor the Masonic Lodge has any legal claim on the township building which stands within the city limits, Attyr. Gen. Wilbur M. Brucker has advised Mayor Arthur G. Lamb. The Masons paid part of the cost of the original building and half the cost of an addition, receiving in return a 99-year lease on the second floor. Mr. Brucker holds that the lease is invalid, since township boards have no authority to lease public buildings. Despite the annexation to the city, the township still owns the hall, according to the opinion.

The paving of a six-mile gap on M-29 between Bay City and Unionville was urged on the State Administrative Board at Lansing by a delegation from Bay and Tuscola counties. Narrow and bordered by ditches, the road is dangerous at all times and impassable in certain seasons, the delegation declared. Gov. Green referred the petition to the highway committee. He indicated that the board would not favorably.

Their health is no better than their meals

ARE they your children or your neighbors?—these youngsters who fairly radiate health, whose eyes dance with playfulness and zest of living? Good health and high spirits do not come by accident. These things always reflect a mother's expert knowledge of home science—particularly the art of cookery. Good food builds good health. Proper diet creates energy and vivacity.

Of course every mother wants her children to have the best meals obtainable. Mothers are forever reading articles on child care and training. They insist on the finest quality from grocer and butcher. But all this can be undone by failure of the cook stove or refrigerator!

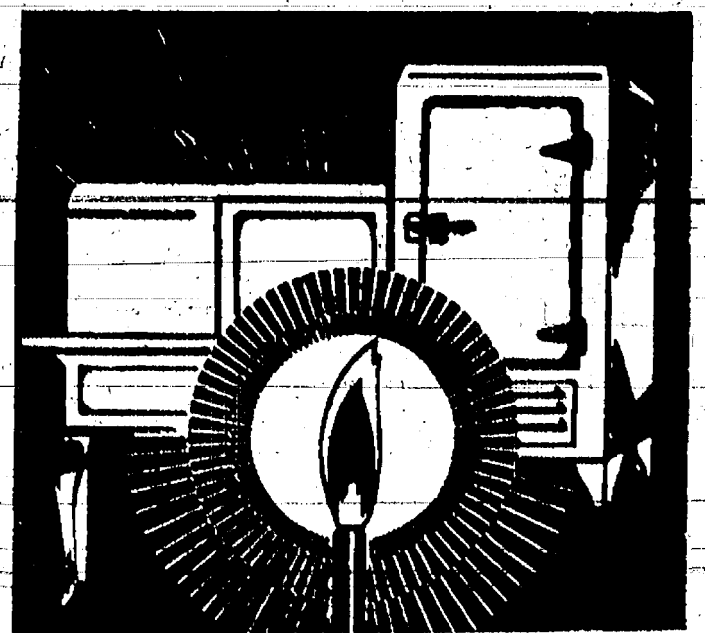

WHAT IS A GOOD COOK STOVE?

An up-to-date Gas Range has oven heat control enabling you to measure heat—just as you do any cooking ingredient. It has an Oven which prevents heat leaks and insures uniform baking temperature, a touch-a-button lighter and a smokeless broiler. With such a reliable helpmate in your kitchen you can prepare new recipes without the least hesitation.

WHAT IS A DEPENDABLE REFRIGERATOR?

First, a refrigerator that keeps foods below 50 degrees at all times and thus eliminates spoiled flavors, decomposition and waste. Second, a refrigerator with a freezing compartment that permits you to prepare an endless variety of chilled desserts. Third, a refrigerator that will never wear out or go wrong. Fourth, a refrigerator that will do all these things for 5 to 10¢ a day. Just ONE refrigerator fulfills these requirements perfectly—the Gas-operated refrigerator.

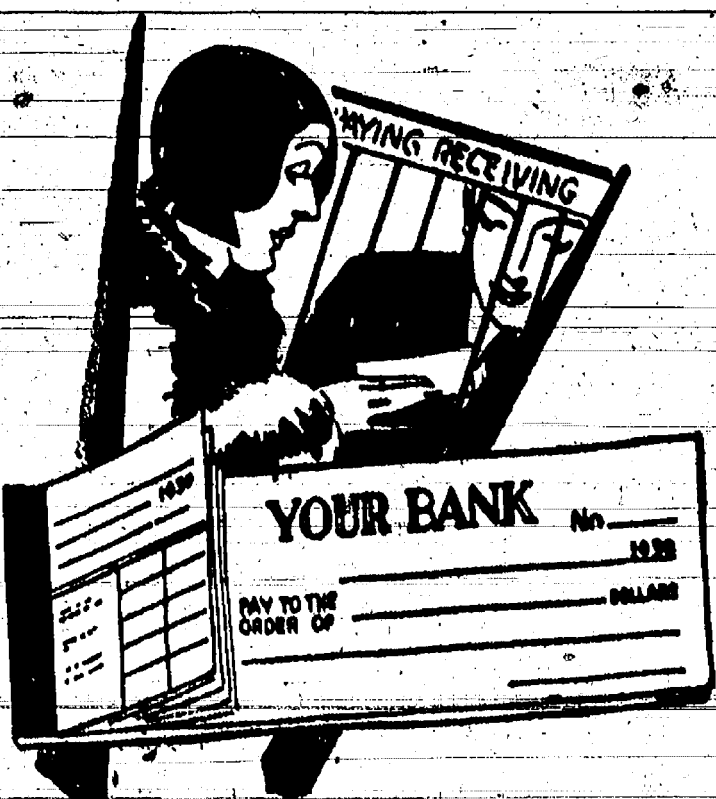

Stop in, one of these days, and let us outline fully the food economics, time savings and helps-to-health possible with Gas-operated appliances. We promise some surprising news for you.

Question And Answer Dept.

Ques.—To settle an argument will you please answer in your question column if the Grand Opera House in Paris, which cost $10,000,000, is the largest in the world?

Ans.—No. The largest opera house in the world is in Chicago. It was recently finished, and cost $20,000,000. It is 45 stories high and has replaced the old Auditorium in that city. It has a seating capacity of 50,000 and has the highest stage in the world.

Ques.—May I ask in your good paper how bugs and "skaters" skip around on water?

Ans.—They are enabled to do this because their feet are covered with a velvety substance which does not absorb the water. Added to this, the surface of water has a thin, elastic film not perceptible to the naked eye, and it is on this film that the skaters get their momentum.

Ques.—I have just read in a magazine we'll eventually be merged into all black or all white people? Is this a possibility?

Ans.—This is not definitely known. Our best authorities claim that the negro race is destined to become a homogeneous group—that is, alike in character, size, color, etc. Therefore they will be neither white nor black, but dark-skinned as a counterbalance between the two.

Ques.—Have a United States bill that has a small star just before the serial number. Can you tell me what that is for? Is there any premium on those?

Ans.—The treasurer of the United States says these stars or asterisks are found only on substitute bills used to replace those which are spoiled in process of printing. The star is then used in place of the customary letter. There is no premium on them.

Ques.—If you can answer questions will you tell me what is the meaning of a "parking place"?

Ans.—We don't know, unless it is a place where you drive your car to get the fenders dented.

Ques.—I am a regular subscriber to your paper, and would like to ask you how the expression "son of a gun" originated?

Ans.—"Son of a gun" gets its origin from the word "Gong," a Chinese word that implies "born illegitimately."

Ques.—Does the United States prohibition law apply to the Philippine Islands?

Ans.—No. The Volstead act nor any other prohibition act specifically mentions the Philippine Islands. While the 18th amendment applies to the islands, there is no legislation there to carry it out.

Ques.—I would like to ask if there is any way fruit can be kept when not desired to sell on the overcrowded market?

Ans.—Not safely with much satisfaction. However, if you have good reason to believe there will be an overcrowded market when your fruit matures the ripening process may be delayed a few weeks by planting ice around the roots of the trees at the end of the blooming period. It is claimed this will prolong the ripening period, but the labor and cost may not justify the means.

Ques.—Can you tell me when and where the next World's Fair will be if there is to be any more?

Ans.—The next World's Fair will be held in Chicago in 1938, on the 40th anniversary of their Columbian Exposition. The president, in accordance with authorization from Congress, has instructed the State Department to invite all foreign governments to participate in the exposition.

Ques.—Can you settle a dispute by stating in your good paper what line of manufactures has the greatest volume of production?

Ans.—There are no statistics on this, but our private opinion is that Stradivarius fiddles leads all other manufactures.

RADIO AMATEURS

By One of 'Em.

To the people who live in and about Chelsea, the Radio Amateur is offering you a new service which I sincerely hope all of you will take advantage of.

The new service should prove both interesting, novel, and useful. It is the relaying of friendly messages to all parts of the United States free of charge.

That means that any one of you can send a message to your friends in distant parts of the United States at any time and it won't cost you a cent, there will be no obligation, and the amateur will be delighted to get your message to send.

Some explanations are in order: The one you send the message to does not have to know the code nor does he have to have a radio, as some suppose. The procedure is simple enough. Here are the directions: First be sure of the address of the person to whom you are sending the message, then say what you have to say in as few words as possible and then make your signature plain. Now that you have your message all written out on a piece of paper, either telephone or mail it to the nearest Amateur Radio Station. That is all there is to it.

The operator does the rest. If the message is for Los Angeles, California, the chances are that the local operator will be unable to reach that city directly so he will give the message to a station out west somewhere and that station will again relay the message west until it reaches the state of California and then the California station will relay to Los Angeles and the receiving station in L. A. will either telephone the message or mail it to the addressee.

The nearest Amateur Radio Station probably is that owned and operated by Ezra Heininger, R. F. D., route 1, Dexter, he has the Chelsea phone however. Or you may phone your message to me on the Dexter phone. Just call 104-F2 and ask for Radio Operator.

Mr. Heininger and I have a schedule every night at 8:00 P. M. and on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights I have a schedule with W8CAT of Detroit at 10 P. M. and a schedule with W8BTI in Rock Falls, Ill. at 11 P. M. So you see we are well prepared to handle messages in any direction. W8BTI has schedules with Chicago, so messages for Chicago will be delivered quickly if they are given either to W8BDI or myself.

We take a great deal of pride in being able to offer you this service, and we are arranging new schedules all the time so we hope to serve you better as time goes by, so please make up some messages and give them to us to send, we will be glad to do it. Some of you may want to make it a regular event, to send messages weekly to some friend away from home or some one you have not seen for a long time, in that case we will make a special effort to arrange schedules to suit the need.

During the past week I have handled messages announcing the birth of babies, the death of relatives and the coming of friends, messages of greetings, of love, of encouragement, messages from one college boy to another and from a college student to his dad and from a fellow in the army to his mother, etc.

The secrecy of these messages is carefully guarded and disclosed to no one except the station which delivers the message and the addressee.

TO THE RADIO AMATEURS—There is to be a "Ham" convention in Ypsilanti on Mar. 23, W8CAT of Detroit told me last night and as soon as I get all the particulars I will transmit them to W8BDI and you can get the "dope" from him. This will be a splendid chance to meet a lot of the fellows you have heard on the air.

A lot of changes have been going on at my station and I hope operation will be improved by it. A new Hetrodyne Frequency meter has been constructed and calibrated so that there will be no excuse for off wave operation and I am in a position to give you your frequency with a very small margin of error. This station (W8AJC) will operate on 3810 K. C. from now on unless QRM is bad and in that case will QSY but only temporarily. You may use my signal for a point on your wavemeter calibration curve. For another point on your curve you may use W8CAT's transmitter, it is Xtal controlled on 3755 K. C. It is usually hard to get points for wavemeter calibration within the amateur bands, so you will no doubt find these helpful. Also two other points may be made on your curve for the 3500-4000 K. C. band by beating the second harmonic of your receiver against the fundamental of W8EJ and W8M and then beating the fundamental of the frequency meter with the fundamental of the receiver, thus gaining two points for the frequency meter.

Next week I will describe the simplest form of wave meter and its use and calibration.

MR. JOHN GUTHRIE

Konjola, master medicine for the stomach, liver, kidneys, and bowels, and for rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness, is not designed to give mere temporary relief. Its goal is new and glorious health. Read the words of Mr. John Guthrie, 133 South Oakley street, Saginaw:

"Konjola put me back to work. I had stomach trouble so bad that many a time on my way to work I had to sit down until the attack of pain passed. My kidneys gave me trouble, too, and I was bothered with night-risings. Then neuritis developed in my shoulder and left arm. Finally I had to give up work altogether."

"I read an endorsement of Konjola by a man I know, and I talked with him about this new medicine. He urged me to try it. He said Konjola was what I needed. Well, it certainly was just that, for after the third bottle I was able to go back to work. I took in all eight bottles, and am feeling fine in every way, and a different man in disposition and health."

Konjola is sold in Chelsea at Burg's drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.
