REPUBLICANS ELECT NATIONAL, STATE AND COUNTY CANDIDATES

Usual Majority Decreased In Tuesday's Election; Two Amendments Defeated.

With a majority now estimated at about 125,000, Wilber M. Brucker, Republican, was elected governor of Michigan at Tuesday's election, defeating William A. Comstock, his Democratic opponent. However, most of the rural counties gave Brucker a decided majority, his opponent carrying only two counties in the state—Wayne and Monroe.

The entire national and state Republican ticket was elected in Michigan. The reapportionment and cigarette tax amendments were defeated. It is thought that the other three propositions, providing for improvement of streams for drainage purposes, the increasing of homestead exemptions and election of township officers in the fall in small counties, will carry.

Republicans were also victorious in Washtenaw county, all their candidates being elected, in most cases with large majorities.

Although Sylvan township gave the Republican ticket a majority, with the exception of one candidate, it was decidedly reduced from the usual vote. Brucker received the small lead of only three votes over his opponent, other candidates polling somewhat larger majorities. H. D. Witherall, local candidate on the Democrat ticket, for state representative, polled 445 votes to 443 for Philip C. Pack, his Republican opponent.

The amendments were all defeated in the local vote.

Lyndon, Lima and Freedom townships gave the state Democratic ticket a decided majority, the national and (Continued on last page)

OUR NEIGHBORS

NORTHVILLE—The seventh grade history class is building a small colonial village. It is very interesting for you can almost imagine yourself as one of the pilgrims. There are many small log cabins, small trees, glass rivers and wells. The people are small dolls. The wood and trees were brought by the boys of the history class and the dolls were brought by the girls. The village is about 20x59 inches. The purpose is to acquaint the children with the Pilgrims and their habits.—Record.

STOCKBRIDGE—Starting November 5th, the stores of Stockbridge will be closed every night except Saturday night. This program was followed last year during the winter season and met with the approval of both the customer and the merchant.—Brief-Sun.

NORTHVILLE—Among the many under the direction of the state highway department, have practically completed the purchase of the right-of-way for the proposed new cement highway between Tecumseh and Clinton, only one more option being necessary to finish the work, according to a report late Wednesday. It was expected that this would be secured Thursday or Friday, and that the state would submit a final survey and report to the village council for approval at its meeting next Monday night.—Herald.

Coughs and Sore Throat Relieved Almost Instantly

Stop children's coughs and sore throats before these ailments lead to dangerous illness. Use Thoxine, a doctor's famous prescription which brings relief within 15 minutes, yet contains no harmful drugs.

Thoxine works on a different principle. It has a quick, double action—it relieves the irritation and goes direct to the internal cause. Ideal for all children because it is pleasant tasting and easy to take—not a gargle. Ask for Thoxine, put up ready for use in 5c, 60c, and $1.00 bottles. Michigan Receives
Allotment of Seals

The close approach of the 1930 sale of Christmas seals was signaled this week by the arrival at the offices of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association of $1,000,000 seals, Michigan's allotment for the coming sale. Funds secured in the sale finance the organized campaign against tuberculosis.

Although the Christmas seal sale does not begin until Thanksgiving Day, word has come to the Michigan Tuberculosis Association of attempts in different parts of the state to sell seals represented as tuberculosis Christmas seals. These seals, according to the Association, are not authorized tuberculosis Christmas seals although they imitate them closely in form and design.

Seals of this type are purely commercial and are sold for private gain," stated C. J. Werle, executive secretary of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association in warning against unknowing purchase of them. "While there is no reason for not buying commercial seals when they are sold for what they are, we desire to warn people against purchasing them under the impression that they are buying the Christmas seals that finance anti-tuberculosis work."

The tuberculosis seals may be identified by the red double-barred cross, the emblem of the anti-tuberculosis campaign, which is displayed prominently upon them.

GRASS LAKE—Mrs. Mary Preston, one of the honored residents of the village quietly celebrated her 82nd birthday Saturday. She was born in Freedom township, October 26, 1848, on a farm taken up from the government by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Perkins, in 1833.

Mrs. Preston, youngest of four children, recalls the method of candle making in the home, before molds were in use, by suspending several lengths of wicking from a willow withes, and immersing them repeatedly until the required size was obtained.—News.

Entertain Halloween Masquerade Party

Mrs. J. V. Burg and Miss Wilma Burg entertained the members of the Tachez club on Monday evening at a Halloween masquerade party of lovely appointments at the home of the former. The evening was spent in playing "500" with three tables in play, and honors were awarded Mrs. Mary Merkel and Mrs. Agnes Hummel.

At the close of the evening a delicious two course luncheon was served in the dining room. The table was centered with a bowl of yellow Bebe Mums and crystal candle holders with yellow tapers. Dainty place cards with a verse appropriate for each person marked the covers for the fourteen guests. Each guest was presented a corsage bouquet and a lollipop disguised as a witch. Miss Wilma Burg received the prize for the funniest costume.

THANKS, LAWTON!

During the ten years' experience as publisher of the Standard, the present owner has been the recipient of many useful and greatly appreciated contributions, consisting of apples, potatoes, corn, carrots, etc., but not until Tuesday of this week were we fortunate enough to have brought to our office a fine specimen of the wild life which abounds in the vicinity of Chelsea. Lawton Steger was donor of this specimen, which was in the form of a nice fat young cottontail which he bagged in the past month early in the day. We assure Lawton that the gift was greatly appreciated, and if his spirit of generosity is lasting we hope he treks to the northland on the 15th of this month and brings back his quota of moose and deer!

Motor Car Procession

Motorcade is a word that has been coined to signify a procession of motor cars.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish in this way to thank the relatives, neighbors and friends for their many acts of kindness during our recent bereavement; especially do we wish to thank the choir, Sunday school, and Rev. Brueckner for his comforting words.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Koch and son.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Mrs. Donovan Sweeney was hostess at a Halloween party Friday evening, entertaining four tables at progressive pedro. High honors were won by Mrs. David Lixey and Garnet Weir, Miss Eleanor Lixey and Laverne Conk receiving consolation. Refreshments were served at the close of the game.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Elmer Alton Koch:

We miss you from our home, dear son,
 We miss you from your places;
 A shadow o'er our life is cast,
 We miss the sunshine of your face,
 We miss your kind and willing hands,
 Our home is dark without you—
 We miss you everywhere.

Peaceful be your rest, dear son,
 It is sweet to breathe your name;
 In life we loved you dearly,
 In death we do the same,
 The moon and stars are shining
 On a lone and silent grave,
 Beneath lies he whom we loved,
 But whom we could not save.

Sad were the hours those fatal days,
 When God called our dear one away;
 A loving son and brother so true and kind—
 No friends on earth like him we find;
 For all of us he did his best,
 May God grant his soul eternal rest.

His loving Father and Mother

at this hour!"

"Daughter gave me an extension telephone for Christmas. Now I know that no telephone call is going to get me out of a warm bed at night and make me run downstairs to answer it. And, on mornings that I can lie in bed, telephone calls won't bother me in the least."

That is a suggestion for a new kind of Christmas present... extension telephones. One in the bedroom, for Dad... one in the kitchen, for Mother... or one in the living room, for the entire family. Extension telephones provide new comfort and convenience for every member of the household.

It costs surprisingly little for an extension telephone... only a few cents a day. To place an order, or for information, call or visit any Telephone Company Business Office. Installation will be made promptly at any time you specify.

Dead homes, dead men—and now, O Lord, A moment's rest Beside the monument that we have builded for ourselves, not theirs.

The years shall dull our grief—and yet, though now the battle dust is laid, Can we forget? Can we forget? We need thee, Lord.

For thine the boon that tears of pain Once shed shall not be shed again.

And The Reason Was— There Was No Clapper!

There occasionally comes a time in the lives of some men when even the dignity of their position does not restrain them from expressing a marked degree of indignation when happenings go "against the grain."

This was the case at the Chelsea public schools Monday morning. The janitor had supposedly done his duty of singing the bell which calls children to school sessions. However, it soon became apparent that the pupils were not responding to the call, and Mr. Clark, with a very noticeable indignant attitude, proceeded to the lower end of the bell rope and took upon himself the task of sounding a final warning for the children who were outside the building. It is reported that he labored with the bell for about three minutes before noticing that there was no noise emanating from the belfry.

Little was said about the affair, and the whole matter was cleared up Monday evening when perpetrators of the Halloween prank presented a package to the president of the Kiwanis club, to be in turn presented to Mr. Clark at the Kiwanis meeting that night. The package, when opened, unveiled the mystery of the affair, containing the missing bell clapper. It has not been learned just how graceful the superintendent appeared in his climb over the roof, but the musical notes of the bell again pealed forth on Tuesday.

SCHOOL NOTES

Chapel period was on Monday this week rather than on Tuesday. We were fortunate in having an Oriental to speak to us—Dr. Lee, P. H. D., graduate of New York University, gave a talk on the social conditions in China. He was highly interesting and amusing, extracting a good many laughs from the assembly, besides giving a serious talk on China.

We had a special treat on Wednesday. Mr. Bralier, the bandmaster of Chelsea High, entertained the assembly with a saxophone solo, a clarinet solo, also a song and a dance. Besides being very entertaining, Mr. Bralier excited more enthusiasm about the band which is being organized within the school.

The Senior Class of Chelsea high school wish to thank the townspeople for the kindness and interest which they manifested in helping us to gain our Washington trip for '31.

Ladies of the town are invited to make up a table or two at the Benefit Bridge and 500 party to be sponsored by the Senior girls in the gymnasium Thursday, November 13th. Please place your reservation with Mary Jean Winans, Frances Kantlehner or Margaret Haselachwerdt. The price per lady is 50c. The time set is 7:30 o'clock.

Chelsea defeated Clinton 43 to 0 last Friday afternoon in a game here. Chelsea's first chance for scoring came in less than half a minute of play.

Chelsea kicked off to Clinton, who fumbled the ball on their own two yard line. Chelsea recovering the ball Schnepfer was then sent through right guard for the touchdown. Beach kicked the point after. The second touchdown was accounted for when Beach shot a pass to H. Holmes, who stepped across the line. The extra point was missed. The last touchdown of this quarter also came through a pass which was received by D. Holmes. This extra point was also missed.

In the second quarter there were two more touchdowns made. The first one was made by E. Eisenbeiser, who carried the ball through the line. The second was made by Eppler, who received a pass. Both the extra points were missed.

Chelsea scored again in the third quarter when Beach hit the right side of the line for about six yards and a touchdown.

In the last quarter there was another touchdown made, this one being made by Kern who was put in to replace Eppler at halfback. This ended the scoring for the rest of the game.

Armistice Day Proclamation

As the years take us farther away from the World War and the immediate causes and incidents of that great conflict, we begin to see more clearly the spiritual values that came, not out of the war, but out of the soul of the American people.

When we were faced with a common enemy our factional differences vanished, our personal ambitions were submerged, America stood revealed as a united and a consecrated nation. The spirit of the fathers had not been forgotten. The hardships of the pioneers were still with us.

Today a demand is made upon us not unlike the demand made by war. There is no national enemy. The conflict cannot be dramatized. There is no call for shouting and martial music. But there is a national task to be done. America itself is to be revitalized. The hungry must be fed. The wheels of industry, upon which depend the satisfaction of our material needs and the means for gratifying our spiritual desires, must be set in motion.

It is an easier task than the one we undertook and accomplished in the war that ended twelve years ago. It requires less of patriotism and self-sacrifice. If each one of us will carefully consider what things he can do to increase the demand for the products of our farms and factories and to relieve the want of those who seek work and cannot find it we shall be, as though by magic, again on the highroad of prosperity and universal well-being.

Let the citizens of Michigan observe Tuesday, the eleventh day of November, as a holiday, a day for meditation upon the heroic devotion to America's welfare displayed by those who fought and died in the conflict that ended twelve years ago and for concerted thought and planning for the future welfare of our state and nation.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State this 4th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty, and of the Commonwealth the ninety-fourth.

Fred W. Groen, Governor.
By the Governor:
John S. Haggerty, Secretary of State.

"Daughter gave me an extension telephone. Now I know that no telephone call is going to get me out of a warm bed at night and make me go downstairs to answer it. And, on mornings that I don't want to get up, telephone calls won't bother me in the least."

That is a suggestion for a new kind of extension telephones. One in the bedroom, for Dad... one in the kitchen, for Mom... or one in the living room, for the entire household. Extension telephones provide new comfort and convenience for every member of the household.

It costs surprisingly little for an extension telephone... only a few cents a day. To place an order for information, call or visit any Telephone Business Office. Installation will be made promptly at any time you specify.

Question And Answer Dept.

Can you tell in your good and answer column if the pig and the porcupine are the same animal?

When speaking of them in a way in the United States are usually considered one and the same. But strictly speaking the pig is an insectivorous animal that belongs to the west. The porcupine, while the true hedgehog, is an insectivorous animal that belongs to the Old World. There is a hedgehog in America. I would like to ask the question if Thanksgiving is a national holiday?

No. There is no national holiday in the United States. The various holidays are determined by the states in making them legal. There is no power to fix a day.

I wish to ask you what is the meaning of "hallowe'en" and why pumpkin lanterns used with eyes cut in them, and people go out at night making hideous faces?

The origin of "hallowe'en" is in antiquity. The custom is a deal older than the Christian era. It seems to be a survival of the old Roman harvest festival, combined with the superstitious beliefs of the druids, the heathen priests of Britain, who set aside one day each year at harvest time for feasting and making merry. Huge bonfires were built at these feasts, and the druids drank, ate and danced all night. It is supposed that pumpkin lanterns are a relic of the druid feasts, which represented various "spirits" and "hobgoblins" with the early heathen celebrations.

How can one obey the thousand laws on the statute books?

Just sit down and be perfectly motionless.

I am told that one of the presidents of the United States once said that he was afterward regretted to the presidency. Is that so? If so, who was it?

No president ever committed under in his present-day accepted. The incident in question refers to the duel between Andrew Jackson and Charles Dickinson in Nashville. Dickinson was a crack shot and quick with a gun, but that did not keep Jackson from challenging him to a duel because of honorable remarks made by Dickinson to his wife. In the fight Jackson got the first shot, but being deceived by the looseness of Jackson's coat the bullet plowed through Jackson's breast, but missed the heart. Then Jackson, paying no attention to his own wound, took deliberate aim and killed Dickinson. Jackson was afterward elected president.

How did corn bread which is made of corn meal come to be called "Johnny cake"?

Ans.—A favorite article of diet among the Shawnee Indians who lived in Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia and Ohio, was a cake made of corn beaten as fine as they could. They mixed this with water and baked on a flat stone which had been previously heated in a fire. Early hunters and trappers followed this example of the Indians in making these cakes, which they called "Shawnee cakes" after the tribe. After a lapse of many years "Shawnee cakes" was corrupted into "Johnny cake" by those who did not know its origin.

Does Ireland have a language of its own, or is English the universal language?

Ans.—The native Irish language is called "Erse," or Irish Gaelic, which is closely related to the Celtic languages of Wales and Scotland. Very few speak the native tongue. English is the universal language.

To settle a dispute will you please state which expression is correct English: "Neither of you is my friend," or "neither of you are my friend"?

Ans.—The word "neither" always takes the singular verb. Hence the correct English would be: "Neither of you is my friend."

Cooper Is Model For "Post" Cover

In addition to being first in the hearts of many a romantic-minded feminine film-fan, Gary Cooper enjoys the distinction of another "first" honor.

He is the first moving picture star ever to appear on the cover of the Saturday Evening Post.

In the issue of May 24, 1930, of the famous weekly founded by Benjamin Franklin, Cooper is seen in Western costume, being "made up" by a typical Hollywood make-up man for a scene in his picture, "The Texan," which has since become one of the big successes of the past year in theatres everywhere.

The cover was the work of Norman Rockwell, celebrated magazine illustrator, for whom Cooper posed especially in Paramount's Hollywood studio.

Cooper's latest Paramount screen play is "A Man From Wyoming." It is an exciting romance of soldiering in the A. E. F.

"A Man From Wyoming" comes to the Princess Theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 11 and 12.

The lower floor will be occupied by lockers, sanitary facilities, a park store and a large foyer. On the second floor will be living rooms for park employees.

The foundation is now being constructed. The building will be ready for occupancy in 1931.

Pines Now Attacked By New Insect Pest

A new insect pest which has an appetite only for pine trees made its appearance in Michigan for the first time this year, according to the department of entomology, Michigan State College.

The European pine shoot moth was found on Long Island in 1914 and was found near Ann Arbor and Detroit this year. It confines its attacks to pine trees but seems to work on any member of the pine family. Most of the damage is done to young trees being grown in nurseries or to individual trees in ornamental plantings.

The larvae of the moth tunnel their way into the young shoots of the pine and these small branches are sometimes killed. The mutilation of the shoots causes them to become deformed in cases where the shoots survive the attacks of the larvae.

The most effective control measure now known is to trim off and burn the infested shoots late in the fall or before May in the spring. A thorough spraying with arsenate of lead applied as soon as the moth appears and kept on the tree until the latter part of May also assists in controlling the insect.

ENTERTAINS FOR AGED LADY

Miss Lillie Wackenhut entertained at a dinner Friday for the pleasure of Mrs. Clara Kingsley on the occasion of her 82nd birthday anniversary. A witch's kettle, lanterns and Halloween place cards formed the table decorations. The afternoon was spent in sewing.

BROOKLYN—A few local hunters got their limit of four cock pheasants this week but plenty got none. Aaron Blum bagged four of these beautiful difficult birds the first two days. Some of the hunters knocked the birds down and then couldn't find them hiding in the tall grass. They are smart birds. Companions are still laughing at Chalmer Smith who knocked down a big cock, got it in his hands, but dropped it again to take a crack at another bird that just got up. When he looked around the first bird had disappeared. —Exponent.
